

HEADQUARTERS, CAMP JACKSON
COLUMBIA, S. C.

Aug. 28th, 1918,

IN REPLY
REFER TO

Dear Edd:

Now for a few lines to you. How are you all? How are Maud and the babies? Hope you all are getting on fine. I'm doing very well now. My company a few days ago revised me considerably. Ha! You just bet that was one time I enjoyed even tho' I was in the army. Certainly was glad to see the girls. Don't you think you would have been had you been in my place? Well, I was.

Say Edd, do you expect to register? Don't mind you and I will be fighting side by side. You just as well get ready to register for you will have to do it. Ha! The war is not as near over as we thought it was is it? I expect yet we will get to France. Ha! Some trip! Say, when are you coming down

HEADQUARTERS, CAMP JACKSON
COLUMBIA, S. C.

IN REPLY
REFER TO

here? Come on right away.
Can't you come now as good as any time? If I stay here much longer I want to go home and if I don't stay why I will miss seeing you if you come. Can't ever tell how things are going to be, so you come on anyway.

You are getting rich are you? I suppose crops are selling high.
But then you can't buy everything
you want, so you have a good chance to make money. Gee! I wish I could make some. If I ever get out the army bet I make some. Better close now. Write when ever you can am always glad to hear. What did you name the baby? Who does she favor her uncle? Much love to Maud and all the children.

Respectfully,
Carl.