Dear Mr. Lynn:

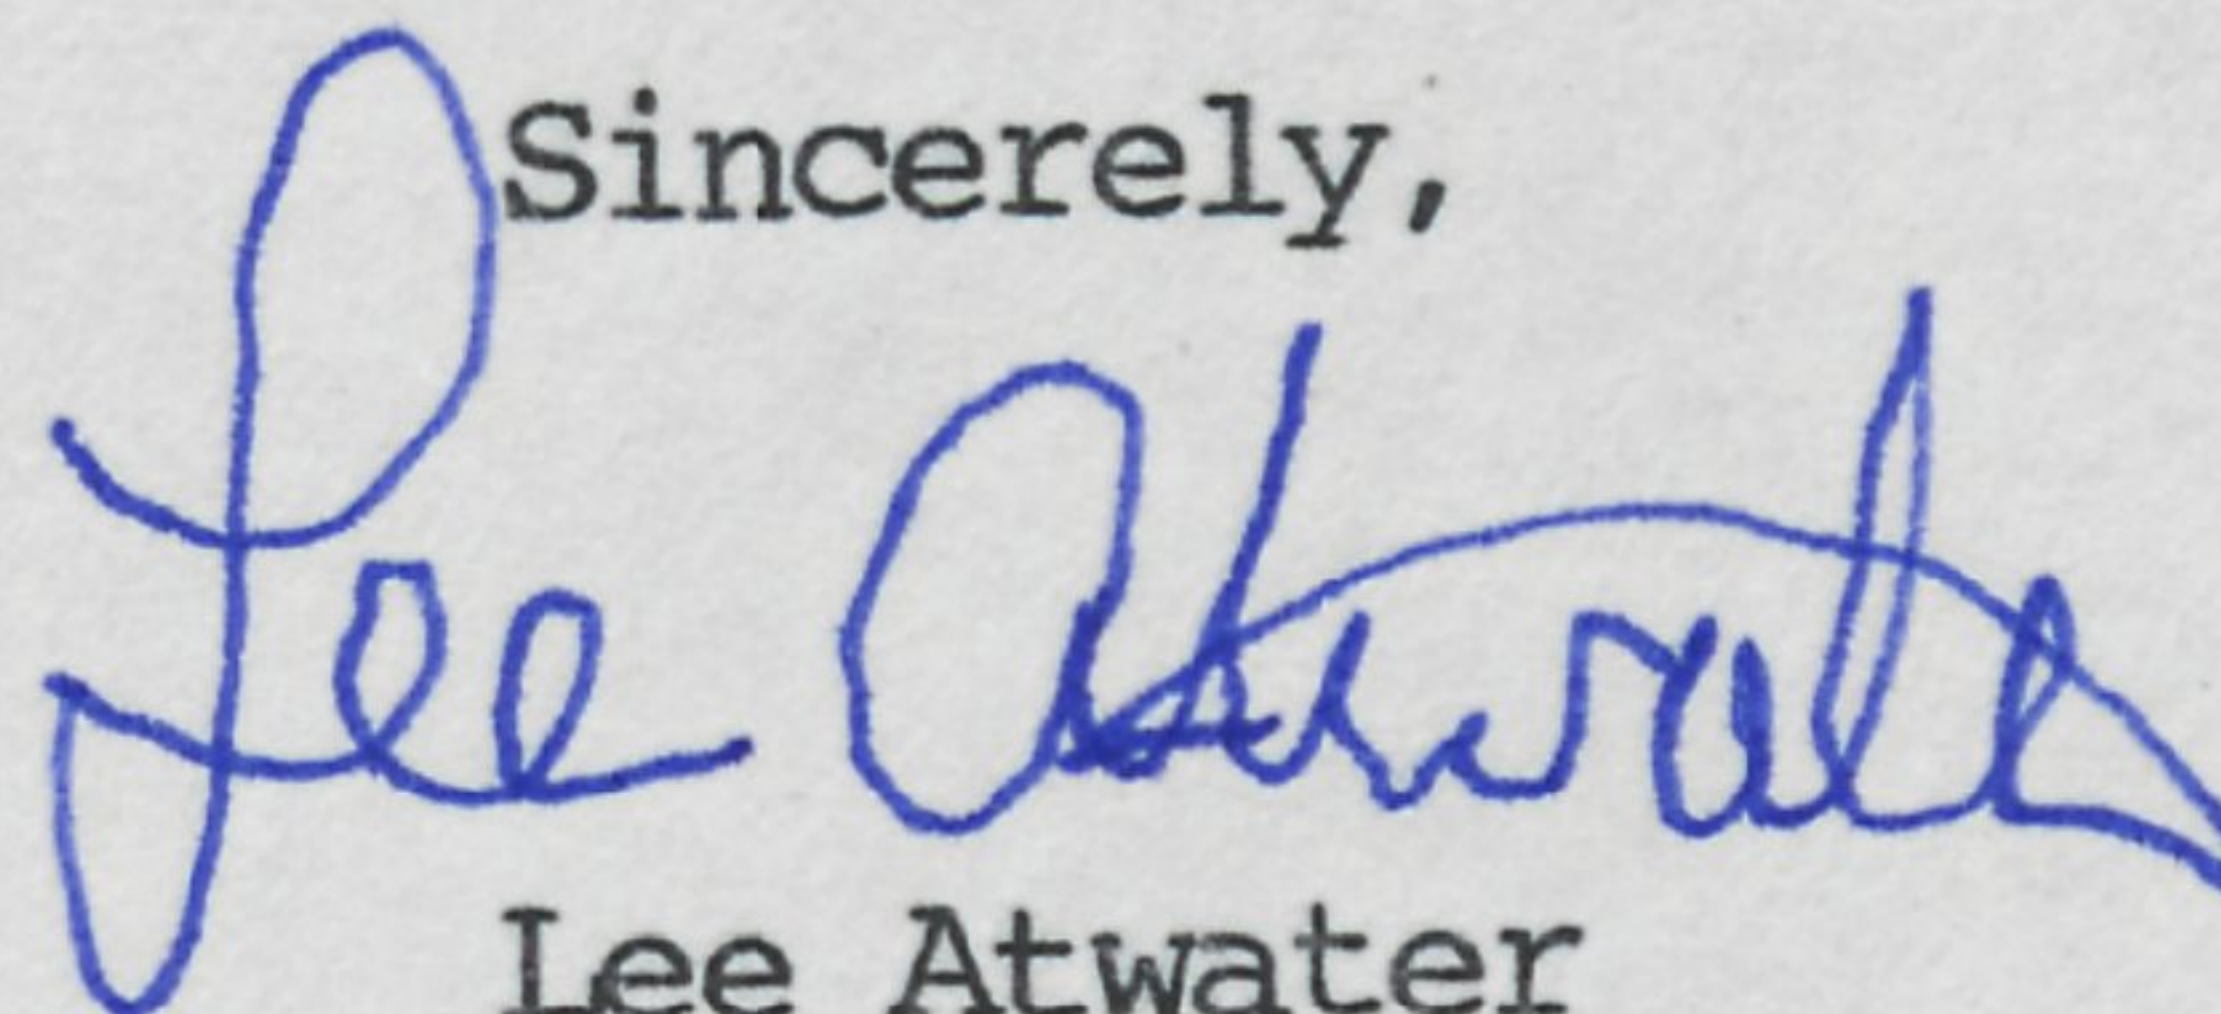

Thank you for your comments regarding our fundraising approach. I am sorry that you do not like the manner in which we ask for support. I can assure you that we do not mean to offend any of our members.

Because our membership covers such a broad spectrum of people, we must phrase our appeal in a way that will be the most appropriate for the largest number. We hope that the recipient of these solicitations will look beyond the actual copy and understand the message that we are trying to convey. Each year brings many new challenges, and we are making our best attempt to raise the maximum amount for our efforts.

Your support helped us achieve great victories in last November's election. And we hope that we may count on your continued support this year to assist the Bush Administration and ensure the continuation of our Republican goals for peace and prosperity.

Again, thank you very much for writing to the Republican National Committee, and if I can be of any further assistance please feel free to contact our offices.

Sincerely,

Lee Atwater
