Boost Speakers Tonight

THE TECO ECHO

EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE

Vacation Begins Thursday

Volume II

GREENVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1927.

Number 14

Dr. Frank Dean Conducts A Series of Meetings Here

"Self Examination Theme of Meeting

Dr. Frank Dean, Espiscopal ministre from Wilmington, N. C., last week conducted a series of meetings on the campus under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Dr. Dean, in his sincerity and heart-to-heart manner, talked with the girls in such a way that he won their absolute confidence, and thereby did a magnificent piece of work.

While here Dr. Dean conducted as many as four services per day, the morning watch at 8 o'clock, the chapel period at 10:30, an afternoon conference with students, and the evening

That the faculty members are good sports was demonstrated on April Fool's day when the special edition of the Teco Echo carrying quite a few faculty notes caused them to put some of those absurd jokes into reality. The news article that probably caused most comment was the news story telling of the wedding of Miss Wilson and Mr. Flanagan. Not willng to let the students pull anything over on them, the fictitious wedding party, as described in the morning's paper, made its appearance in the dining room at lunch. Miss Wilson, dressed in green, wearing her green beads, supposedly a gift of the groom. entered on the arm of Mr. Flanagan as Miss Gorrell played Lohengrin's wedding march on the violin.

It is needless to say that the student body was positively convulsed with aughter. They were not surprised that Miss Wilson should devise some brilliant come-back, but this staggered hem.

Teachers Pull One on Wake Forest Student Tells of Experiences In Armenia

M. G. Daniel, Jr. Tells of Experiences In Near East

Mr. George Daniel, Jr., a ministerial student of Wake Forest College spoke here Sunday evening at Y. W. C. A. services on "Customs, Conditions, and Experiences in the Near East." His talk was very impressive and educational, due to the fact that he has lived in Armenia since he left the States when he was only two years old. The actual experiences of seeing his very own people slaughtered, his narrow escapes in fleeing from the Turks, the witnessing the devastation service at 6:30. The theme of the entire series was "Self Examination' and this note ran as the woof of the well woven series of talks.

Christian, had a way of questioning his audience so that each student examined herself, and in the light of what the examination revealed, determined to make amends for deficiencies. "Do we strive to do the will of God?" he asked, "Or are we too engaged in the thought of what men will say? Are we a good investment for all that God has paid for us? It makes no difference what men say but ask yourself, 'what does God think spirit."

prayer, he also brought out what it have been handed over to the reporter; really was to him.

"Is only conversation with God. It is combined with thanksgiving and interapsgion and should fit us to

Elise Dunn Dr. Dean, who is no long-faced Enfield, N. C. One of This Years Beauty Queens

plans are being made for the Washing- Jeter came to the rescue and produced ton trip. The party, which will be the final touch, the rice. They were composed of college girls, teachers, thoroughly showered with it as they is simple. He showed how people had is the man from the faculty, and will been enticed into religion by promises do the man's part by the college girls, that it was so easy that a fool might as well as act advisor for the Greennot err therein. "It is simple and easy ville High School boys. Miss Jenkins to belive but not to live, said Dr. Dean, is to be general manager and buffer, "But in spite of the adventure, the to be called on when one doesn't know struggle, and the upward climb, the what to do or where to go. Miss Ross Christian's life is the truly happy one. will carry on the same work she does The trouble, though, with too many n the college. "Custodian of Records," modern Christians, is that the religion and will also act as treasurer. Miss makes them soured on the world, but Toland, from the High School will be Christ himself was not that kind, and special advisor for that group. Al if we are to march under his banner, of these will lookout for the pleasure we must become like him in the happy and comfort of the group and will do everything possible to make the party

Dr. Dean, in Chapel talks said that lively and interesting. The entire some people consider prayer a mere group, rather Cosmopolitan in nature duty, others a magic charm, or Alad- or better still, one of fifty-seven vardin's lamp, while some think it is ieties, is sure to be a snappy one. spiritual gymastic exercise. Through | There are a few special instructions giving these several misconceptions of for those of the party, some of which they are as follows: First, remember "Prayer to me", said Dr. Dean, that trains, buses, street cars, and

(Continued on Page Six)

After lunch the students gathered on the dining room steps to watch them as they came out. In the write-up, they left for Grimesland in the chool bus, but Mr. Fornes, as th hauffeur, was waiting in his Pontiac Miss Davis preceded the April Fool bride and groom, and as the mother; As the paper goes to press the final feigned tears most admirably. Mrs. Mr. Earl C. Wagner, of the Wash- Nothing was lacking, even the "Newly undulterated fun than any incident of and won honors.

the year. Those taking part in the stunt were: Mrs. Alice V. Wilson, Kate W. Lewis, Maria D. Graham, and Mamie E. Jenkins; Messrs Beecher Flanagan, Hubert C. Haynes, Howard G. McGinnis, and R. C. Deal.

Senior Normal Class Begins Work on a Series of Three One Act Plays

Miss Ethel Thecdora Rockwell a Well Known Director

Mary Smith Heileg Oriental, N. C. One of This Years Beauty Queens

The College and Model School Take Part in The Pitt County Commencement

The college and the Model School His talk was interspersed with hiswere active participants in the Pitt torical and geographical facts conand high school boys and girls will got in the car, and amidst profusions March 28. The entire membership of tural resources, material wealth, cliof me?' find your true relationship leave Greenville at 1:30 A. M. April of goodbyes, congratulations, and good the two student bodies took part in mate and the beauty that was once wishes, drove around the block. the two-mile parade through the main hers, but how the blood-thirsty, heartalso showed that the Christian's life ington Norfolk Steamboat Co., is dir- Married" sign glared loudly from the Due to the fact that the Model School waste to, ruined it. He explained

The girls of the college, dressed in would give up Christianity. white and carried the college banner. Mr. Daniel spoke at the Memorial girls dresed as Red Cros nurses and Near East Relief.

the fourth grade boys, dressed as Knights of the Crusade, represented Health. The fifth grade with their

Miss Ethel Theodora Rockwel decorations of staffs, notes, bars, and A floating tea and reception was and depopulation of his country during the world war, and other scenes that we are almost unable to conceive of, touched the hearts of the audience as would have been impossible for an ordinary speaker.

Mr. Daniel showed through his talk that the Armenian Christians have suffered beyond our imagination, that they have a history to be proud of, and the reason they have not contributed more to civilization is that they have met with difficulties of all sorts, wars and persecution by the Turks.

had won first honors for three years that the Mohammedan Religion has The students had to admit that the in succession, it was not allowed to no moral code, no love, and no mercy. joke was on them, but declared that take part in the literary meet. It did, Mr. Daniel, in his genuine sincerity the event had furnished more pure, however, take part in the Track meet and pathetic appeal asked his hearers if they appreciated the opportunities

There were 2,000 school children and blessings of life, and what kind and young women, comprising the of Christians they were. He vividly tudent bodies of the Greenville pictured how the Armenian Christian chools and the college, in the parade gave his life to the Turk before he

The children carried the banners of Baptist Church Sunday Morning and their schools and also had artistic at the Immanuel at the evening hour. aper decorations. The first, second He has filled appointments in many and third grades of the Model School churches in this State, at Durham wore red, white and blue caps repre- Greensboro, Raleigh and other Cities. senting citizenship. The fourth garde His work is in connection with the

Tea Given In Honor of Dr. Dean

visited the college Friday and Satur- treble cleffs representd Music. The given from 4 to 5:30 Wednesday afterlay, April 1 and 2, and selected from sixth and seventh grades carried out noon in honor of Dr. Dean from Wilthe entire membership of the class the scheme for Patriotism. The High mington who has been conducting a shall we pay our respects to God if it becomes like calling up the grocer and telling him to send an order up? Prayer is the wish turned Godward a meditation and thinking with God.' At another meeting he made a few brief statements on "The Challnege of Youth". The great Challenge of Youth today is that of sympathitic understanding", said Dr. Déan. "Youth is the most misunderstood period of	preciation of the many kind- nesses extended to us while we were planning and giving the Junior-Senior Banquet, by the following: Rouse Printery Smith Electric Co. Miller Inc. Griffin-Williams College Pharmacy Hill Horne Drug Store McClellans Lautares' Candy Palace Blount-Harvey Co. Hunts	which are to be given on May 20, and directed a rehearsal for each of the plays. She will return in May to con- tinue her work as director. Miss Rockwell is director of the Bureau of Community Drama, the Ex-	School band added much to the suc- cess of the parade. Several of the class rooms of the Administration Building of the college were used for the literary contests and the college auditorium was used for literary exercises in which Dr. Hubert Poteat was the principal speaker.	The "Y" hut was tastefully decorat- ed with the bright colored flowers of spring. Receiving were members of both the old and new cabinets of the Y. W. C. A. Many invited guests came to meet Dr. Dean, among them were members of the college faculty, the ministers of Greenville ,and their wives. A delightful program of appropriate violin, piano, and vocal music was rendered by the Morton sisters. A class in school art, for mothers of pupils was organized last fall in Tamalpais Union High School, Marin County, Calif. Many useful and beau- tiful articles were made by the class

(Continued on Page Six)	—The Junior Class	is a writer of articles for "The Theatre (Continued on Page Six)		under the direction of the instuctor

Page 2

TECO ECHO

		Vocal SoloCamarolzaman	11 international
THE TEC	CO ECHO	(Mr. Junius Rose) Solo Dance Morgiana	superior to a woman and does not
Published Bi-Monthly During The Coll	ege Year by The Student Govern-	(Miss Betty Dixon)	want his wife to be his equal intellect-ment Association of East Ca	arolina Teachers College	Vocal Solo Badoava	ually. Man feels that higher educa- tion lessens a woman's feminine Entered as second-class matter Decen	aber 20th, 1925, at the post office	One of the most enjoyable features	charm.
Greenville, N. C., under the	e Act of March 3, 1879.	of the program was that of the Solo	After a woman has spent years m
Subscription rate for th	e college year $1.50	Dance given by Miss Dixon. The ease with which she performed so difficult	she is too old to attract men, and they
Advertising rates 20c per	column inch per issue	e dance dazzled the eves of all who	become less attractive to her. A man
ZILPAH FRISBIE		looked on	regards a highly educated woman
DORALITA LARKINS	Assistant Editor Assistant Editor	Another most striking part of the program was that of the Vocal Solo	some what as he does another man, with high respect; but he can not feel
MARY HOLT	Assistant Editor	given by Miss Helene Higgs.	sentimental toward ner.
MARTHA STEWART 5	Assistant Editor Alumnae Editor	There were approximately one hun-	A woman's natural sphere is as a mother in a home. She misses the
LOUISE ROBINSON	D' Managan II	There were approximately one hun- dred eighty who were present at this occassion. The honored guests were
CATHARINE CLARK	Asst. Business Manager	Ducident and Mrs Pohort H Wright	have a nome and the
LILLIAN WALSTON	Asst. Business Manager Asst. Business Manager
ANNIE SHIELDS VAN DYKE	Asst. Business Manager	Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Slay, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gordan of Farmville, Mr. Leon R.
Member of North Carolina C	ollegiate Press Association.
		Ella Willis, Miss Emma L. Hooker,	11' indiana ??
What About The Honor System?	Il you were privileged to sit in	President of the Senior Normal Class.	The third student took her own case
"Honor System - what of it! Re-	abor view of the backs of the San-	Miss Francis Hooker, President of the	into consideration when she said: "A college education lessens the cently there has been some cause to	or's and Juniors heads, you probably	Junior Normal Class, Miss Annie S. Van Dyke, President of the Sophomore	likelihood of a woman's marrying in noticed that the barbers have been	1 M' Tal's Candall Dragidant of	that she, hersell, lessens her chances.
Class rooms?" It has been the opin-	loing a pretty thriving business for he last few days, every head just	the Freshman Class, and Miss Alma	She becomes more choice and more independent. Formerly a woman con-	KATE KALKILATE
tid ambugge it here: we should at s	hampooed and every neck clipped,	The other guests from Greenville	sidered "A man's a man for 'a that",	SAYS:
way wate We are a teachers college	Ah, of course, such an event as they	and out-of-town, were as follows:	and took her first chance. The college	If it isn't one thing it whose first and most vital and is the	inticipated comes only once in a life-	Marcus Ham, Vick Forrest, Edward	woman keeps waiting for a better chance that perhaps never comes. Un-	is two or three; the ban-training of teachers for North Caro- lina. We look, perhaps blindly as a			educated girls seldom stop to think	quet is over, the debate student body, to the goal of "the per-	Junior-Senior Banquet	Ben Martin, E. G. Moore, Charles	whether a man will make a good pro-	will be over tonight, but fect teacher"; we should look to that	Great Success	Whedbee, Richard Gorman, Roy Whit-	vider, and a good father for her child- ren. The college woman considers	the Easter vacation is goal It matters not in the least that we may never reach it; brave flight		tington, Golden Wiley, Richard Math- ey, Edward Frisbie, Ben Dixon, Sid-	these things most important. She has	still a day or two ahead.
toward the "Perfect" never hurt any-	NEARLY TWO HUNDRED ENJOY JUNIOR HOSPITALITY	ney Skinner, W. E. Pagette, Myron	trained herself to a profession or vo- cation, and she does not want a hus-
one.		gap Dr A M Schultz D S Smith	band who can not support her as well
To be sure, no "honor system" on earth can attain perfect honesty	By far one of the most elaborate	Walker Stevens, Marvin, Edgerton,	as she can support hersen.	INK SPOTS throughout a vast number of persons	Junior Sonior Banquet that was given	Derieux Hart, W. B. Jones, Robert G.	I do not know whether men do not within the brief space of a few hours,	Saturday night April 19 in the Y. W.	Fucher C N Straud Marion Shirley	like intellectual women, but it cer- tainly appears that way. I know that	The joke was on the student body April Fool day, and it's still hard to · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	C. A. hall of the Campus Building the Oriental style was carried out in	W. E. Batts, F. G. Satterthwaite, Wil-	college girls do not get a "rush" when	say who got the most fun out of it, mate goal. It cannot, it is true, be a	all details of decoration, program, and	mam fait. Joe fait, while whichard,	they go back home. Besides, the thing that I though so "cute" before	the jokers or the joked.
toochow on the student tolege a next !!	spirit. The hall was decorated most	June Rose William Wright and Frank	I went to college, appear silly to me there is of according a great amount	effectively, to represent an out- door moonlight scene around an Ara-	Patrick.	now, and I find men less interesting."	One glorious thing about Easter va- cation is that we don't have examina-of cooperation and understanding be-	bian tent. Behind the tent the moon	LeP ataaherdatar dialalalii lalalal aliiii	A lady teacher expressed herself as follows:	tions facing us going or coming.
of anagoog is nonchod in the firsti	was rising and in the firmament and	Crah Meat Cocktail	"The fact that a college education place, the student must, by force of	above the stars were peeping down to aid the moon, since it was then in	Chicken a la King in Pattie Shells will, if that be necessary, acquire the honest desire, the "mental set", psy-	its infancy.	Piquant Beets Riced Potatoes	marrying, is a social problem. That the college bred women have few, or	is actually mainfesting itself. The "Whole show" is behind the speakers.
abolanically anophing to do the night	Miss Bessie Willis, of Goldsboro was a most charming and jolly toast	Lood Top	no children is a still greater problem.
	was a most charming and joint toast mistress for the occasion. In her Wel-		They are the women best fitted to	It is surprising to know that Caro-
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental	come she explained that the Junior	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates	rear children, so they are the women	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the	come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inste goodness and trustworthingss of	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any.	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even-	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason-
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even-	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates.	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds"	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings.	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen-	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay: one must, himself, be honest	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick President	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res-	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ?
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ?
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few? The election has not been settled
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times it will no doubt acttle up
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H.	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views.	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H.	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To this	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor:	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To this President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able Record breaking attendance
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance youches for debate interest
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on.	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To this President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upon	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives.	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc-	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds program are used on the campus in the inservence of the program.	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments and hom is one that has have	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upo- which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds prover men whom she is willing to have marired before going to college	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an emp- ty place in man's life, but the canines
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds prever men whom she is willing to have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an emp- ty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upo- which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Class	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained y a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while at	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an emp- ty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upo- which to comment. Finally, Nanc- Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Class Prsident on the occasion of her "six	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she might have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love.	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt settle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an emp- ty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension ciasses for sum-
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc- Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Clas Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she might have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love.	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nocessary that their wives he edu-	It is surprising to know that Caro- lina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reason- able calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt settle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commend- able. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an emp- ty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension ciasses for sum-
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upo- which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Clas Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M Leon R. Meadows to the American co lege girl.	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she might have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nccessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt settle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have such leaders and such capable girls	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Clas Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by Mi Leon R. Meadows to the American co lege girl. The program with its participant	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she migh have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu fear they can not dominate a college	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nccessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is an erroneous idea. Men like to flirt	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during the past biennium, and courses were
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have such leaders and such capable girls to edit our school publication? It	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas- to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upp which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Class Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M Leon R. Meadows to the American co- lege girl. The program with its participant arrayed in gorgeous Eastern costume	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Manie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she migh have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu fear they can not dominate a college bred woman, because she is no longe	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, if is nocessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is an erroneous idea. Men like to flirfu- with pretty girls, but when they marry	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt settle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during the past biennium, and courses were taken by 261 physicians of the State.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have such leaders and such capable girls to edit our school publication? It seemed that in the last issue the girls of the staff did their very best, cer-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toas to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Class Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M Leon R. Meadows to the American co- lege girl. The program with its participant arrayed in gorgeous Eastern costume as follows corresponded to the Orien tal idea that was provalent theorem	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she migh have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu fear they can not dominate a college bred woman, because she is no longe subservient. Men admire intelligen women, but want them to be timic	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nccessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is an erroneous idea. Men like to flirt with pretty girls, but when they marry they want more than a pretty face for a wife. A man wants his wife	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during the past biennium, and courses were taken by 261 physicians of the State. Courses consist of 12 lectures and the work is solf summaria.
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have such leaders and such capable girls to edit our school publication? It seemed that in the last issue the girls of the staff did their very best, cer- tainly their most original work, and	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junion Class had joined the National Banquet Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to each heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc: Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Clas Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M Leon R. Meadows to the American co lege girl. The program with its participant arrayed in gorgeous Eastern costume as follows corresponded to the Orier tal idea that was prevalent through out the banquet.	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critica in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she migh have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu fear they can not dominate a college bred woman, because she is no longe subservient. Men admire intelligen women, but want them to be timid receding and non-assertive. Thoug	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with enviroment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nccessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is an erroneous idea. Men like to flirry with pretty girls, but when they marry they want more than a pretty face for a wife. A man wants his wife, h to be a person whom he would no	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt settle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during the past biennium, and courses were taken by 261 physicians of the State. Courses consist of 12 lectures and the work is self-supporting. During
as vitally important, the teacher must, also, bring to the class room a mental set for faith and confidence in the inate goodness and trustworthiness of the human race. Yes, even student are human! Lack of faith and scep- ticism never begat truthfulness, hon- esty, and trustworthiness, and they never will. If anything, students are more susceptible than the ordinary run of human beings. Before one asks for honesty and fairplay; one must, himself, be honest and a fair player. That is the in- evitable law of human nature, the world over, throughout every race, nationality throughout every land and cline. —M. H. FROM ONE OF THE GIRLS The following note from a student so reminded a few of the staff mem- bers that they feel like passing it on. Teachers and students have passed some very pleasing verbal compli- ments, and here is one that has been written: "Girls, didn't you all just give a big puff of pride after you read the April Fool Teco Echo? Didn't that issue of the paper make you feel proud of it—to know that we have such leaders and such capable girls to edit our school publication? It seemed that in the last issue the girls of the staff did their very best, cer-	mistress for the occasion. In her Wel- come she explained that the Junior Class had joined the National Banquel Reform Union, which exist not in reality but in the hearts of all there banqueteers. "It is the desire of the Union", she said, "To give the much overworked green pea a rest." There- fore she invited the quests to eat heartily of their dates. Ethel Spratt, President of the Jun- ior Class, gave the toast to the Sen- ior Class and Gladys Kilpatrick Presi- dent of the Senior Class made the res- ponse. Catharine Clark gave a toast to the visitors to which Mr. W. E Batts, of Enfield, gave the response The toast to the college was given by Miss Mary Hocutt who as she said found it hard to determine just wha her toast was to include. To thi President Wright responded in a mos entertaining and lively manner, pick ing up all the suggestions from hi observations of the evening upor which to comment. Finally, Nanc Hinson gave a toast to that muc sought for though seldom realized obj ective, future happiness, two im promptu toasts were given, one b Miss Annie Batts to the Junior Clas Prsident on the occasion of her "six teenth birthday", and the other by M Leon R. Meadows to the American co- lege girl. The program with its participant arrayed in gorgeous Eastern costume as follows corresponded to the Orier tal idea that was prevalent through out the banquet. Dance Ladies of Haren Violin Solo Scheleraza	Strawberry Short Cake Demi Tasse Stuffed Dates After the last course was served the guests were invited to the auditorium where a dance which revealed the jolly spirit of the occasion concluded the program. Music for the entire even- ing was furnished by the Greenville "Vagabonds" Education or Marriage Annie Batts Does a college education lessen a woman's chances of marrying? This much discussed question has recently been a prominent one on the campus. I have interviewed different people in college for an exchange of views. Below are the opinions of different campus individuals: "A woman becomes more critical in her opinion of men, after having a college education; and she finds fewer men whom she is willing to marry. The men whom she migh have marired before going to college do not attract her after she has gained a college education. An uneducated woman loves spontaneously, while an educated woman can cultivate love. Men think that education make women bossier, and firm in their con victions. Men want to dominate, bu fear they can not dominate a college bred woman, because she is no longe subservient. Men admire intelligen women, but want them to be timing receding, and non-assertive. Thoug men admire educated women, educated	rear children, so they are the women to have the largest families, if there are to be any. A college education makes a woman dissatisfied with environment in which she grew up. The Toms, Dicks, and Harrys who were her friends before she went away to college, no longer attract her after she returns to the old home town. She no longer has anything in common with them. She meets few men whom she might con- sider desirable as husbands. The college woman of the present generation has the opportunity of marrying, and having children, and also making achievements in educa- tional fields." It was fitting that a married man should be questioned, and this is the remark of a married professor: "I do not think that a college edu- cation lessens the likelihood of a wo- man's marrying. Men perfer intelli- gent, educated women for their wives. A college education does not make a woman intellectual. Nine men out of ten consult their wives about what they do. Why should they want an uneducated wife? They leave the rearing of the children almost entirely to their wives; so, it is nccessary that their wives be edu- cated. That a man prefers a pretty face is an erroneous idea. Men like to flirt with pretty girls, but when they marry they want more than a pretty face for a wife. A man wants his wife to be a person whom he would nor have to be ashamed of. This makers	It is surprising to know that Carolina boys deem it wise to tie the Ford to a stake when they visit Teachers College. The mails (males) got quite a rush during the banquet season. Reasonable calm is soon expected since the affair is over. A few privileges passed the school council. "Out of the many, few were," but were they passed for the chosen few ? The election has not been settled yet. If we have to vote many more times, it will no doubt scttle us. The Pep meetings held during the past week have been most commendable. Record breaking attendance vouches for debate interest. They say that the dog fils an empty place in man's life, but the canines now present on the campus fill no empty place in feminine lives. Medical extension classes for summer postgraduate study were held in 18 centers in North Carolina during the past biennium, and courses were taken by 261 physicians of the State. Courses consist of 12 lectures and the work is solf summation.

.

2

.

ALUMNAF.

BELMONT

Ten of our alumnae are stationed Annie Bryan, Jenne Oliver, Mattie Lillian Edwards, '22, first grade; Honrietta Zahnizor Jones. Daisy Cleaton, '25, second grade; Norman McKeithan, '25, fourth grade; Frances McKeithan, '25, first grade; Dorothy Broughton, '25, second grade; Gladys McCracken, '25, second grade; Helen Edwards. Evelyn Terry, '25, fourth grade; Nel- Faikland: Giadys Brown, Eva Jacklie Triplett, '24, first grade; and son, Ellen Jones. Florence Tyler, '24, sixth grade. Seven of the ten are doing primary work, ' Fountain: Mrs. Lillian Mercer, Mrs. it is interesting to note.

Mrs. J. O'Brien Bass, '22, taught in Pactolus: Nell Ward Belmont before her marriage. She is Grifton: Bruce Exum. now visiting her parents at Hurdel Clay Root: Velma Owens. Mills.

are teaching at Sandy Ridge again Butt Dempsey, Bertha Hart. this year. Their post office address Ayden: Julia Elliott, '17, Elvie is Clayton, N. C. Route 3. Emma J. Yelverton, '24.

Brown is principal of the school for Bell Arthus: Mrs. Myrtle Sylivant the fourth year. Mary Rose, who has Smith.

been a summer student here, is also Farmville: Vivian Case, Katie Lee at Sandy Ridge.

Farmer, '24, Bonnie Boswell, Georgia Ethel Perry, '13, is teaching first Smith.

Some of the honors at the Pitt grade at Plymouth. She stopped teaching for two years at one time County school meet were won by pusince her graduation, and again for pils taught by our graduates. Among the winners were: four years at another time.

Mrs. David J. Whichard, Jr. nee Bertha Hart coached the first grade Virginia Suther, '17, is the mother of rhythmic game, "I See You", which a son, David J. Whichard III, who was wonover the rhythmic game presented at Belmont this year. They are Mae Lyon, Ruby Strickland, Mrs. Beaver Dam: Ruth Jessup, '25.

Anna G. Bridgers, Annie Lee Morgan,

Stokes: Mary Midgett. Chicod: Mrs. Sibyl Patrick

Grimesland: Helen Gray Jones,

Simpson: Mrs. K. G. Johnston.

Luella Lancaster Stancell, '14.

1 Winterville: Geneva Exum, Ida Myrtie Morse and Emma J. Brown Holland, Dora McLawhon, Mrs. Mamie

315-317 EVANS ST. GREENVILLE. N. C. 25th Anniversary

Frocks With Spring Charm

A NATION-WIDE

INSTITUTION-

New Styles Sponsor Silks in the Lead

Everything to charm teminine heartssoft silk fabrics, lovely flattering colors and scores of becoming styles-all at a price that is part of our celebration of our Silver Year.

Page 5

by the first grade from Farmville born on March 20. Mrs. Whichard lives in Greenville, where she taught Bertha Hart did a beautiful piece of several years before her marriage.

PITT COUNTY

The following list of our alumnae who are teaching in Pitt County schools was obtained from records in Mr. Fitzgerald's office:

Belvoir: Mary Edwards, Anna' A pupil taught by Ers. Lydia Pur-Hardy) Rosalie Phelps.

solidated school.

Bethel: Mrs. Lydia Furser Ross, study talks.

LOOK!---E. C. T. C's.

This Week We Are Selling

College Seal Stationery

For 69c

College Pharmacy

The College Girls' Store"

that you have been buying-several Dopes.

Phone

This is the regular $1.00 to $1.50 paper

Buy this week and save the price of work and the children showed evidence that they had been skillfully trained. Her child won third place in first grade reading .

It is unusual for one grade to win honors in two fields.

Wethington, Sallie Waters (Mrs. Roy ser Ross at Bethel, won second place in third grade interpretation reading. The Belvoir school is a large con- One of Mrs. Luella Stancil Joyner's pupils won in the third grade Nature

So many modes! Jacket and bolero effects two-piece dresses with youthful pleated skirts, tiered skirts, new necklines and elaborate tucked and embroidered trimming-black and white makes frequent appearances.

Sizes For Women, Misses and Junior Misses

Rosalie Phelps' fourth grade Belvoir won first place in nature study for fourth grades.

Julia Elliott's pupils of Ayden won first place in fifth grade poem interpretation.

SAGER- TUCKER Mrs. Mary Hart Tucker and Mr. Paul Haines Sager of Halifax, Va. were married in Richmond, Va. on March 18. The wedding was a surprise to friends of the bride. Mary Hart finished the two year course here in 1921, and as Mrs. Mary Hart Tucker, received her degree at the end of the last summer term. ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED The engagement of Lillian Cockrell, '24 to Mr. Kermit Ward of Rocky Mount was announced last week. The wedding is to take place in June. The engagement of Agnes Hathaway, '25, to Mr. William F. Sutton of Kinston, has been announced, the wedding to take place in the early summer. Agnes has been teaching at Kinston since her graduation.

The College Stationery Room

-00000000

Have You Seen Our New Line of Engraved

College Seal Stationery?

WE SELL IT BY THE POUND

All Kinds of Writing Paper, Tablets and

Stationery Supplies

Open Just After Each Meal

Engraved Visiting Cards

Large Selection Samples to Pick From. Reasonable Prices.

W. L. BEST, Jeweler

We Are Showing A Beautiful Line of Evening Slippers See Our Windows for The Latest in Novelty Foot-Wear

GRIFFIN-WILLIAMS SHOE STORE

Page 4		TECO ECHO
Senior Normals Honor ed by Masquerade "FOLLIES OF '27 PRESENTED"	Toronto, Canada, during the early part of the summer. In making arrange- ments for these she has had in mind especially the Alumnae and students who are interested in attractive and	A side trip to Atlantic City on the re- turn is a special feature of this tour. It covers eight days, June 22 to 29. The route is up the Chesapeake Bay to Baltimore then via the Pennsylvania Railroad through the Susquehanna	Industries lions He gave them, too. Not to just a few, But to every one	He gave freedom These he called, My Americans. —Annie Shields Van Dyk day evening, took the form of a fance dress ball. Quaint costumes, goo music, the program, and prizes adde to the variety of the occasion. Music was rendered by the "Vaga bonds" whose dance selections fitte well into the scene of gaiety. The costumes worn by those attending were elaborate ones. Some chose the attire of dukes, duchesses and queens other assumed disguise of Turk	Some of the ex-students who have been with the college group to Wash- ington City have expressed the wish that some one connected with the col- lege would offer some other trip. S Every year there are some students	If several joining the party taking this tour wish to spend three days sightseeing in New York City, ar- rangements for such can be made. The second tour covers seven days, July 14 to 20. It is by way of Wash- ington City and includes sightseeing there on the return trip. This is up the bay and Potomac River and through the Lehigh Valley, via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The	ENGRAVED CARDS FOR ALL OCCASIO We Charge No RENI	ONS— More; Do It Better FREW PRINTING CO. Biggest, Busiest Best
no limit as to mixture, uniqueness an variety. The scene was one of unreserve revelry and laughter. Masks whic brought no small amount of confusio during the earlier part of the evenin	 d college groups, they are open to the d public so that Alumnae and students can make up parties of friends to d join the larger party. h In mapping out these tours, Miss n Jenkins has followed the plan she g uses in directing the annual college 	Any one wishing further informa- tion can secure by seeing Miss Jenkins or writing to her at the college ad- dress. AMERICANS	East C	arolina for the first time Farmer Brown re- cognized the mistress of his rura home. During the intermission the "Follies of '27" was presented. This was an orignial production, written b Bernice Dixon and dramatized b members of the "C" clas. Excitement reached its climax wit	 d trip to Washington City, working directly with the railroad and steamship companies and taking advantage of every opportunity to keep down the cost without sacrificing desirable features. y Both of the tours offered are via the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to Norfolk, include overnight boat trips both h ways, and cover the chief points of 	From Sunny France. He took England's And also Germans Very choicest few From Italy, too And all the rest He chose the best, And made one race, The Americans	Greenvi COURSES I—A Two Year	Normal Course
the grand march a rhythmic parad	e interest around Niagara Falls, Toron-		II—A Four Year	College Course of the costumed dancers led by Misses to, and Buffalo, and return by Phila-

Ogden and Edmonds. During the march, costume judges were posted at convenient spots near the brilliantly colored line and selected the prize winning costumes. Miss Carrie Mae Dunn, as Beauty, was dressed as a demure maid of long ago; Louise Dickinson who was acclaimed as most unique, was attired in the oriental Chinese costume. Third prize went to Virginia Mitchiner, the most representative, who looked no older than seven years, and was attired in the costume of a boy page.

New Cabinnet Selected

Elizabeth Smith the new "Y" president has selected her cabinet. From the many capable girls and co-workers of the Y. W. C. A. the following have been chosen:

For social chairman ,Doralita Larkins, an active member of the Junior class, former Treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. and a "worker" in any task she attempts.

For Social Service, Margaret Mc-Donald, Vice-President of the Junior Normal class and one who has proved her ability and personality in class and Y. W. C. A. work.

For Religious chairman, Catherine Hill, member of Sophomore class, a most interested person in religious work, and a member of the Student Volunteer Band.

For World Fellowship, Frances Hooker, as president of the Junior Normal class, has been a capable leader with much initiative and originality.

For Publicity, Katie Le Cloaninger, member of the Freshman class, one who sees things to do and does them, a good worker with a pleasing personality.

Mary Morton, chairman of Music Committee, was highly recommended by the music department. She will up-hold the standards already set by Laura Sloan.

elphia. The first one is especially for those And coal and iron,

Special

For 10 Days

Maple Caramel SUNDAE

Complete line of Stationery and Toilet Articles specially priced to the College Students.

THE TWO-YEAR NORMAL COURSE LEADS TO A DIPLOMA WHICH ENTITLES THE HOLDER TO A PRIMARY OR GRAM-MAR GRADE CERTIFICATE CLASS B. THE FOUR-YEAR COLLEGE COURSE LEADS TO THE A. B. DEGREE, WHICH ENTITLES THE HOLDER TO A PRIMARY, GRAMMAR GRADE OR HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS' CERTIFICATE CLASS A. ALL WORK GIVEN IN THESE COURSES WILL COUNT TOWARD GRADUATION FROM THIS INSTITUTION. BEGINNING WITH THE FALL OF 1927 THE COLLEGE WILL OFFER COURSES FOR PRINCIPALS OF ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS AND SUPERVISORS. THESE WILL BE GRADUATE COURSES LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF A. M. For Further Information Address ROBT. H. WRIGHT PRESIDENT A. B. Ellington & Co. Dr. M. B. Massey Dentist SCHOOL BOOKS 200-202 National Bank Stationery and Office Supplies PHONE 437 GREENVILLE, N. C.

Dr. Alfred M. Schultz. DENTIST Phone 578 400 National Bank Building GREENVILLE, N. C.

College Girls For Delicious Food Go To Greenville Cafe

Indigestion or Health How many of us put in several hours of each day in pain and suffering because we are distressed by the foods we eat. Results which chiropractic has obtained in cases of indigestion are oftimes astounding. The results are permanent because the Chiropractor locates the cause of indigestion and corrects it. Start Getting Well Today

Dr. Virgina O. Johnson Chiropractor Nat. Bank Bldg. Greenville, N. C.

> WOLF'S Quick Lunch Specialty On HOT DOGS.

Before you leave your

The new girls next year will be fortunate indeed to have the President and the new girls on the new cabinet welcome them and help them make their adjustments, and to have them as leaders in Y. W. C. A. work.

Vacation Tours To Niagara Falls

Miss Jenkins is planning to direct two tours to Niagara Falls and

Lautares' Candy Palace

Dr. B. McK. Johnson DENTIST National Bank Building Phone 391 Maultsby Shoe Shop Where Quality Counts Special Price For College Girls MUNFORD BUILDING

At 5 Points

class mates and friends exchange— Photographs and never forget those happy school days. Baker's Studio

		TECO ECHO	Page 3
IT IS TO LAUGH! av	Rastus, ah heahs yo goin' to be a viata." "Na sah. Terra firma fo' me, and ne mo firma, de less terra."	Commencement Pro- gram Announced Committees from the faculty have	THE NATIONAL BANK OF GREENVILLE The Big Bank On Five Points
Hal Ha! Hal a	sked the teacher.	been working on the commencement program for some time, and it has just been completed. The college is fortunate to have as the two main preakers Dr. J. R. Jeester, Winston-	The Best Way to Accumulate Money is to Bank a Fixed Portion of Your Income, no Matter How Small The Account.
"Who of you belong to de army	She: You men are all alike. He: Then why do you girls want three or four?—Pathfinder	Salem, N. C.; who will deliver the commenceement sermon, and Con- gressman Lindsay C. Warren, Wash- ington, N. C. who will make the gradu- ating address. The entire Program is as follows:	F. G. JAMES, Vice-President CHAS. James, Asst. Cachier
"To what branch do you belong?"	ing the picture before the class) "Miss Summerell, the April wind is blowing	Friday, June 3rd. 8:30 P. M. Music Recital Saturday, June 4th.
"De Baptist." "You don't belong to de army; you belongs to de navy."	the rabbit." Jerry Eggleston, to lady in cafe	1:00 P. M. Alumnae Luncheon. 6:30 P. M. Class Day Exercises	GOODYEAR SHOE REPAIRING Special Price to College Girls
Hazel Bowers: "Eliza where do you	"Have you any of this college Track Meat that I have heard so much about today?"—The Vigilante	t for Alumnae. Sunday, June 5th. 11:00 A. M. Commencement Sermon Dr. J. R. Jester, Winston-Salem
Dentist (to patient in chair) "Will ou take gas?" Potient: "Yeah and you'd better	"Why do you suppose that fellow running back and forth in front of	y vice, West Campus. Monday, June 6th 10:30 A. M. Address, Congressman Lindsay C. Warren, Washington, N. C 11:30 Graduating Exercises.	SPECIAL
*	the voting booth?"	is High School Seniors

College Gilrs 25c Matinee Only

He (between the dips): So I perceive.-Drexerd

Page 6		TECO ECHO
Ina Bishop demonstrated the "mak- ing of cakes" February 22, using as her recipes "Angel Food Cake", "Jelly Rolls," and "Marble Cake." She had as her assistant, Julia Sat- terthwaite, who diligently and intelli- gently carried out her part of the program. It is an unusual thing to make	Dormitory A by six o'clock, properly tagged, with the name and the num- bers of berth and stateroom. Any one failing to have her bag in place on time will have the pleasure of lugging it to the station herself. Watch carefully the typed schedule so as to be ready to move on the dot every time, and listen carefeully to announcements.	 Hearts" by Louise Saunders; "Enter the Hero" by Theresa Helburn; and "Jazz and Minuet" by Ruth Giorloff. The plan of giving a series of plays is different from the former custom. There are several advantages in it, however, and with the excellent directors, the well chosen plays, and the capable members of the cast, the prospects for the success of the plays are good. DR. FRANK DEAN CONDUCTS CONDUCTS 	To illustrate the critical period he stated that sixty eight per cent of all criminals committed their first offense against the law before the age of fif- teen. Seventy-five per cent of all crimes today are committed by boys between fifteen and twenty-five, and still seventy-five per cent of all Christians are converted between the ages of twelve and twenty, and ninety per cent of all missionaries receive their missionary vision while in their teens. As a special message to the teachers he said: "As we grow older we like
Flapper: "Haven't I met you some- where before?" Ruf Person: "Dunno, but your face tastes familiar."—Technician	Magazine."	life, and is no new thing. Because it is so misunderstood. it is the most neglected period, and yet the battle of life is fought or won in youth."
FINAL PLANS FOR WASHINGTON TRIP NEARING COMPLETION (Continued from Page One)		Your	The very latest Modes. If you are look- ing for a frock that is very unusual very stunning perhaps you'll find it here. Only one of a kind in Fashions of the steamboats do not wait for laggers. As for shoes, be sure to take some comfortable old shoes ,as no one will have time to sympathize with your blisted heels; if have a hint of a blister den't besitete to call for ed	This Year Be More Stylish	Outfit and Satisfactory Than Ever	higher type. Spring Coats on the spring coat. Put a sweater in you bag so that you will be prepared if winter comes.

blister don't hesitate to call for adhesive tape. Don't depend too much

Everyone must attend well to his baggage and be sure that the following instructions are observed:

On Thursday evening, April 14, the special Pullman cars at the Norfolk Southern station will be ready for occupancy at ten o'clock. The members of the party are requested to be there by 10:15, and to settle down by eleven o'clock. The train does not leave Greenville until after one o'clock but there is no need to sit up and wait Dresses, Coats, Accessories Silks, Piece Goods and Beautiful Shoes

Before By Getting It

From "BOWEN'S"

W. A. BOWEN Dependable Merchandise Modes Sponsored By SMART WOMEN AT HEEDEN'S

CORNER OF FIVE POINTS

