Estelle McClees, Alumni Secretary, Resigns Position

Miss Estelle McClees, alumni secretary at the College for the past two and a half years, will resign her work with the Alumni Association the first of June to return to the science faculty of the Elizabeth City High School, from which she came to the College in February of 1940 as its first full-time alumni secretary.

During the time Miss McClees has been on the campus, the Alumni Association has grown from a small beginning to a strong organization, with 21 chapters scattered throughout the state, one as far west as Rutherford County, and with a roll of members nearly four times what it was in 1940.

First employed under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett of Forest City, at that time active president of the Association, Miss McClees has continued to push the work forward with the aid of the present president of the organization, Mrs. E. C. Holland of Raleigh. The Alumni headquarters in Austin Building, familiar now to every student, were first opened when Miss McClees came to take charge of the work. These offices were provided by the College, through the wholehearted support of President Meadows, without whose encouragement, cooperation, and support, along with that of loyal alumni, says the Alumni Committee, the work could not have been carried on.

One piece of work for which Miss McClees has been responsible is the setting up of a geographical file which lists by counties the names of former students. She has also added much material to a master file, begun some years ago as the suggestion of Miss Mamie Jenkins and kept up through the years by students, alumnae, and part-time alumni workers. It contains an accumulative record of the activities of graduates.

A good part of Miss McClees' work has consisted of attending

Commerce Teacher To Attend Meet In Denver, Col.

E. R. Browning, head of the department of Business Education at East Carolina Teachers College, has accepted a part on the program of the meeting of the Department of Business Education of the National Education Association which will be held in Denver, Colorado, June 29.

"Curricular Adjustments Needed in Office Practice and Clerical Skills to Meet the War Program" will be the theme of this section of the program, and Mr. Browning will speak on some phase of clerical skills and office practice.

Chi Pi Players Elect Officers

Chi Pi Officers for the coming year were elected at a meeting of the Chi Pi Players, Monday night, May 4 in the Green Room.

Ophelia Hooks was reelected president. Ophelia was elected president for the present year during the Winter term after the resignation of Martha Rice.

Dave Owens will succeed Margie Dudley as Vice-president. Donald Perry will succeed Janie Eakes as secretary and Hazel Williford will replace Wilda Royall as treasurer.

Margie Dudley was elected reporter and Hazel Harriss was elected historian to replace Margaret Lewis.

Among the productions of the Chi Pi Players during the year were "On the Bridge at Midnight", "Double Door", "A Doll's House" and "Rainbows in Heaven", the contest play which won first place in the state dramatic festival.

College President Has Been Selected For Who's Who

Among the new biographical sketches in the 1942-'43 edition of "Who's Who in America" is Dr. Leon R. Meadows, president of East Carolina Teachers College since 1934.

Dr. Meadows has won the recognition in great part through his work with the College, which has grown under his administration in the size of its student body and plant, in the scope of its work, and in the professional training of its faculty; and through his contribution to the work of professional organizations in which he is active, such as the American Association of Teachers Colleges.

Miss Helen Jepson Presents Concert Here Recently

Helen Jepson, leading soprano of the Metropolitan opera gave a stirring performance here on Friday night, April 24. Miss Jepson sang several of the more popular selections, a fine selection of classical and two manuscript numbers.

An Arid from "Faust" by Gounod was one of her numbers. She also sang "My Mother bids me bind my hair" by Haydn; "She never told her love" likewise by Haydn; and Concert Rondo, "Alme Belle" by Mozart.

Mr. Robert Wallenborn, brilliant young pianist accompanied the soloist at the piano. Mr. Wallenborn played a group of three numbers; "Funeral March of a Statesman" by Lord Berners; "Homage to Ravel" by Honegger; "Danse" by Debussy, and two very modern numbers were his encores.

Miss Jepson was a striking picture in a flowering jersey dress, contrasting with her lovely blond hair.

Many out of town guests were on the campus to hear Miss Jepson. On Friday afternoon she gave auditions to three E. C. T. C. girls.

This was Miss Jepson's first appearance in North Carolina as a Metropolitan Opera star. However she gave a concert with two other singers in New Bern, N. C. some years ago.

Vespers

Instead of the usual indoor vesper service at the college on Sunday night, a song service was conducted at sunset by the YWCA, on the steps of the new Classroom building.

Frances Southerland of Wilmington was in charge of the program, and the singing was led by Louise Kilgo of Greenville. A number of old favorites were sung.

In view of the satisfactory terms agreed on by college authorities and the theater company from which the college receives its motion pictures, the two weeks boycott on local theaters was lifted by unanimous vote of the student body last night in mass meeting.

The boycott had been established on Friday, April 24 in a student mass meeting until satisfactory terms had been agreed on. An agreement was reached yesterday morning in a conference of College authorities and representatives from the Charlotte booking agent.

The trouble started some two months ago when the college, through no fault of its own, showed a motion picture which had not had its second run at the local theaters. The picture had been chosen from a list sent to the college entertainment committee by the Charlotte booking agent, whose duty it was to check the pictures booked by the local theaters before sending a list to the college.

In view of the fact that the local management apparently reported the mistake to the company without stating that the college was not in error, that later letters written to the company notifying them that it was their mistake rather than that of the college were ignored, and finally that because of the mistake the college was prohibited from obtaining good pictures not being shown at the downtown theaters, the student body took action and boycotted the theaters.

Members of the WSG Association have been checking the theaters and have reported only a small number of students and only one faculty member as attending the theaters.

Emerson Society Gives May Dance

Highlighting this quarter's social activities is the Spring Dance to be held in the Campus Building tomorrow night at 8:30. The dance, suggestive of a May Court. The society has selected Virginia (Sit) Knowles to reign as Queen of the Dance, with her King, Doug Jones. An unusual and interesting figure has been planned and the decorations will carry out the May motif. Bobby Byrne and his Orchestra are to play for the dance and a large attendance is expected.

Those responsible for carrying out the plans for the dance are the following committee chairmen: Chaperones, Olive Crew; Refreshments, Carol Leigh Humphries; Decorations, Mary Kate Autry; Figure, Frances Boyd.

According to Nell McCullen, president of the society, the committees responsible for carrying out plans have been working hard and they hope to put on a very successful dance.

Red Cross News

Knitters of Red Cross sweaters at East Carolina Teachers College have completed another hundred sweaters, the 200th one having been turned in last week by Miss Jane Williams of Clinton, a senior. According to Miss Mary Cheatham of Raleigh, dormitory counselor and supervisor of knitting on campus, this was Miss Williams' fourth sweater.

Along with this last group of sweaters knitted on the campus are several interesting stories. One was made by a blind student who learned to knit on that sweater. Included were three made by Negro maids who asked for instructions in knitting so that they might do something to help.

Since the last shipment of sweaters from the college went to the Marine base at New River, many of the knitters have had letters from the men who received their sweaters, while others have met the men receiving theirs.

The 100th sweater was completed in February.

Wilkerson, Kilgo, Pritchard Heard In Concert Here

Louise Kilgo, Norman Wilkerson, and Lorraine Pritchard, soprano, bass-baritone and mezzo-soprano respectively were heard in concert in Austin auditorium last Friday evening, May 1.

Louise Kilgo opened the program with three selections, "Nymphs and Shepherds" by Purcell, a number by Mozart, and the last by Bishop. This was Louise's first appearance on the ECTC concert stage having attended Greensboro College for the past year and a half. While at G. C. Louise gave a concert also. Recently Louise had auditions with Helen Jepson, when she was here for her concert, and with Frank La-Forge, teacher of Lily Pons, Lawrence Tibbett and Richard Crooks. Residents of Greenville have heard Louise often as soloist in weddings, in the Greenville High School Glee Club, the Methodist choir, and recently in the Womens chorus on our own campus.

Lorraine Pritchard is remembered for her remarkable performance she gave last year in concert with Jean Abeyounis. "Bobby", as she is known to a large circle of friends, was heard by Miss Jepson also when she was here. For the past three years "Bobby" has been an outstanding music student on the campus. She has taken solo parts in the Womens chorus during Christmas, Easter and other programs. Not only is she a vocalist, but quite an accomplished pianist. "Bobby" has also been a member of the college band.

Norman Wilkerson, was heard for the first time on the ECTC stage, but many townspeople were familiar with his singing having heard him in the Baptist Church and GHS glee club. While in high school Norman took leading parts in the operettas "H. M. S. Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan, and played the title role in "The Gypsy Rover". Norman also sang solos in the state Music Contests while in high school. Norman unlike the three girls on the program was not majoring in music, it is purely an outside activity for Norman because of his love for the art. Following his performance on Friday night he left for Cincinnati, Ohio where he will be in school at Cincinnati College. See Concert on Page Three

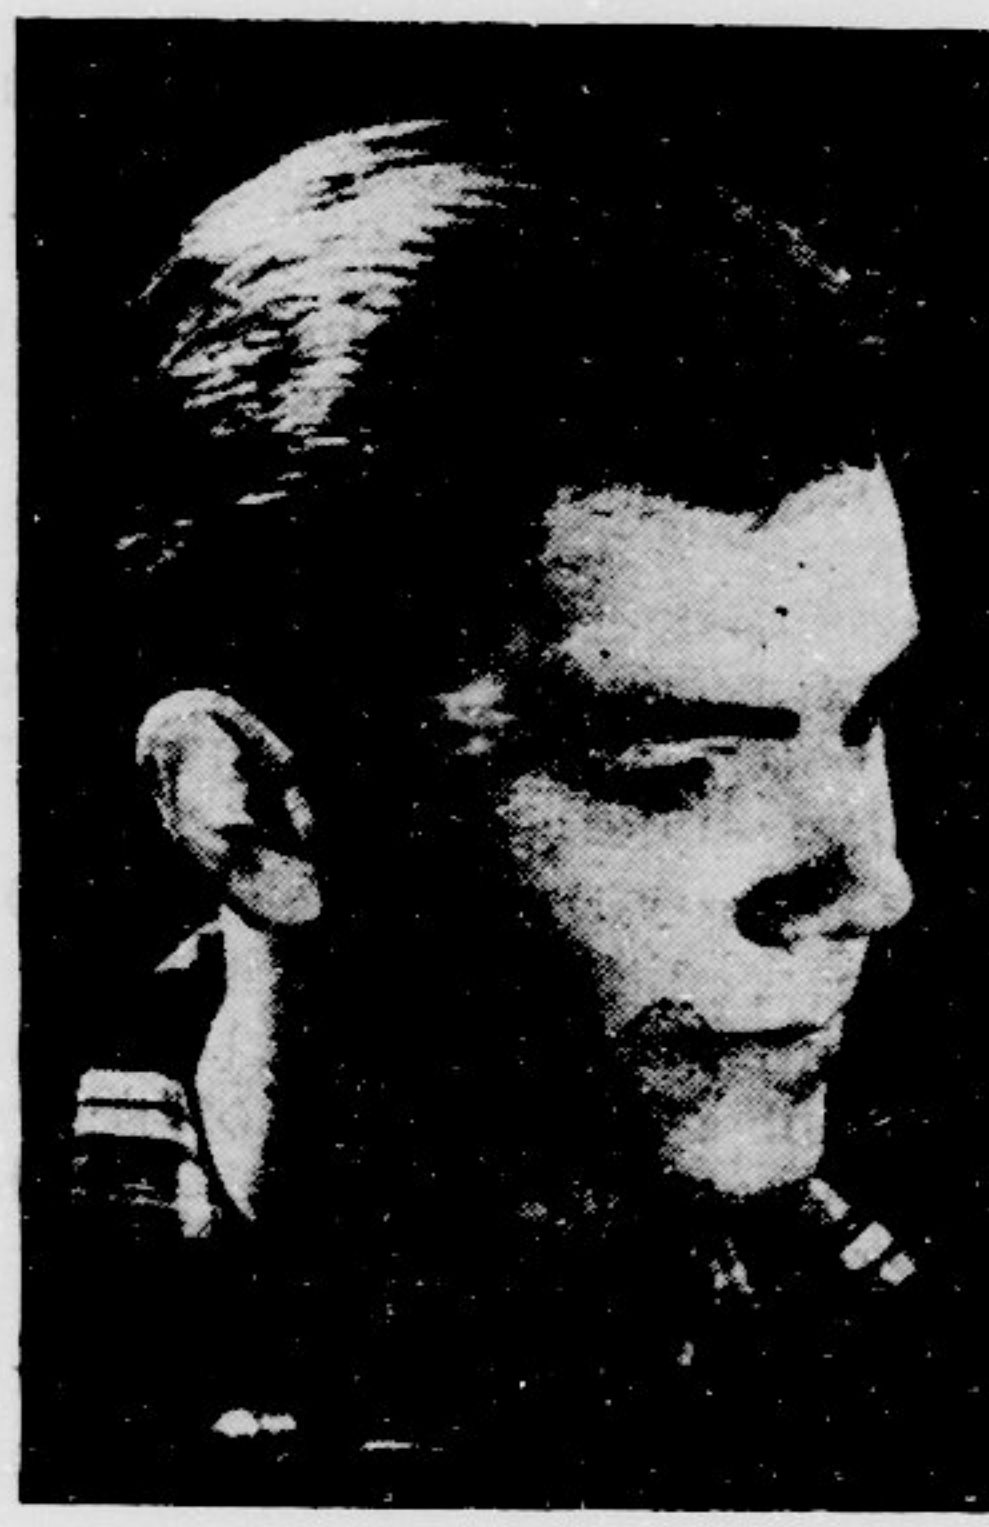

Funds Contributed For Victory Loan Fund Are Small

Members of the student body voted last January to contribute a dime each month to be used for the buying of War Savings Bonds. At the time of maturity, the money from these bonds is to be used to start a loan fund to aid worthy students.

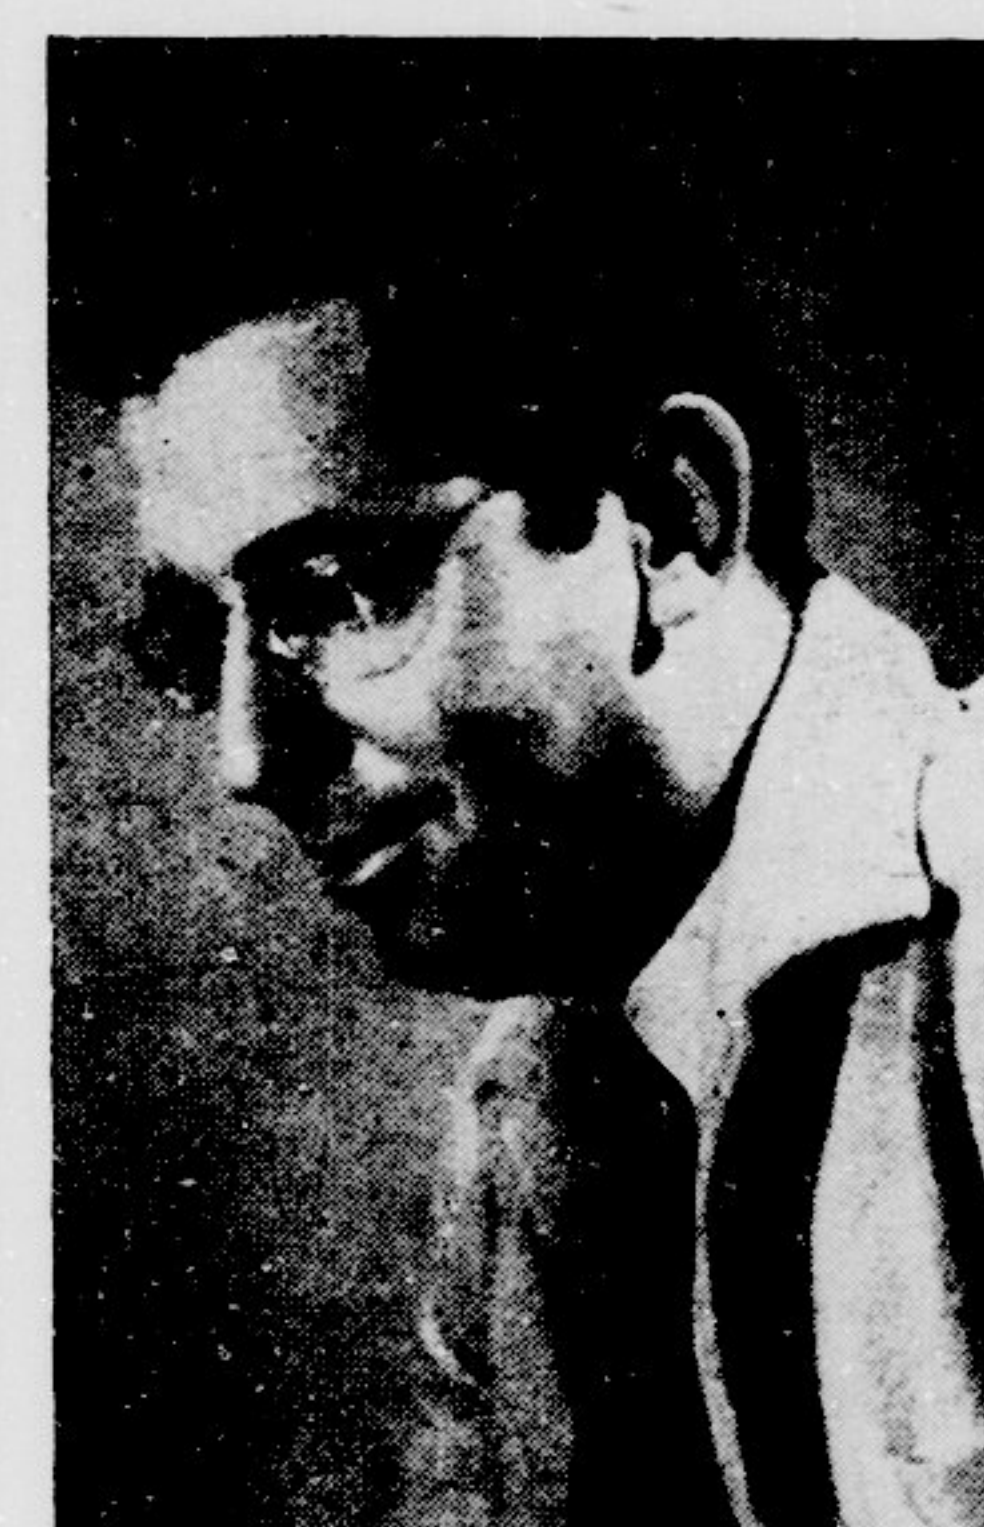

A committee was appointed to collect the dimes and the 20th day of each month was set aside at Pledge Day, at which time students could contribute their dimes. A very carefully decorated booth was set in Austin for the first Pledge Day, but only $23 was collected from a student body of 1200 students.

Up to the present time these are the figures on the collecting of dimes and the number of students contributing. Two hundred and ninety students paid their dimes the first month; 270 the second month; 250 the third month; and last month 250 students contributed dimes. From the different organizations have come the following sums of money: YWCA $18.75; Science Club $5.00; the Junior class $27.00; the Lanier Society $18.75; the English Club $5.00; YMCA $18.75; International Relations Club $5.00; Women's Athletic Association $18.75; and the Commerce Club $37.50. This makes a total of only $154.50 from our organizations and $106.00 from the student contributions.

New Associate Staff Members Elected Yesterday By Students

Fenly Spear, technical director, and Clifton Britton, director of the 1942 senior play "Vivacious Lady," which will be presented in Austin Auditorium May 21.

Seniors' 'Vivacious Lady' Postponed Until May 21

Two newcomers to the ECTC stage, Mildred Liverman and Walter Mallard, will star in I. A. R. Wylie's "Vivacious Lady," which will be presented in Austin Auditorium May 21 by the senior class.

Due to the fact that there have been many demands for the use of the Austin Auditorium the play has been postponed from May 15 until May 21. There will be two performances, a matinee and an evening performance.

Mildred and Walter will play the roles Francie and Peter, so publicized by Ginger Rogers and James Stewart in RKO's movie version several years ago.

"Vivacious Lady" starred two academy award winners in the motion picture.

Douglas Jones from Farmville and transfer from State College will play the role of Keith.

Helen will be played by Ruby Grant from Elizabeth City.

Doris Dawson from Seven Springs and Ingram Walters from Whiteville will play the roles of Mrs. Morgan and Mr. Morgan.

Other members of the cast who have previously appeared on the ECTC stage are Dave Owens, Edith Harris, Billy Greene, who takes the part of Joseph and W. B. Harris who plays Culpepper.

"Vivacious Lady" is a story about young college people. The prologue and epilogue take place on a train and the play takes place in a class room at Old Sharon College.

Clifton Britton, Chi Pi director, is directing the play.

Fenly Spear, who has successfully lighted the stage for the past two years, is technical director.

Stage managers are Ophelia Hooks and Dave Owens.

College Orators Defeat P. J. C. Debaters Here

East Carolina's newly organized debating squad defeated Presbyterian Junior College here Thursday, April 30th, in the first decision debate scheduled by this college. The query was: Resolved, That the Federal Government should regulate all labor unions.

Mildred Beverly and Carlyle Cox represented the negative side for ECTC, while Doris Williams and James Worsley supported the affirmative argument. Four PJC athletes, including two tennis players and two baseball men who were on the campus to take part in other contests also, proved their versatile ability by furnishing the opposition for the local debating teams.

Assisting the business manager will be: Dorothy Pearsall, Garnette Cordle, Rachel Dixon, Eugenia Marshburn, Pat Edwards, and Charles Cushman.

Students elected to serve as associate editors of the literary Magazine Pieces of Eight are: Margie Davis and Grace Jones. Assistant business manager is Kate Swain.

The associate staff of the Tecoco Echo will take office immediately and publish the next issue of this paper. The new Pieces of Eight staff will edit the last issue of the magazine also.

Those serving on the elections committee were: Harry Jarvis, Mary Jordan, Burchie Smith, Virgil Ward, Lois Green, Walter Tucker, Wiley Brown, Estelle Davis and Mary Horne.

Also at the same meeting the Big Sister Program was adopted and will go into effect next year.

Officers Elected For Coming Year By WAA Members

Under the leadership of President Dot Dalrymple, the Woman's Athletic Association is completing one of the most successful years since its organization. Throughout the year, the W. A. A. has carried on a well-organized intramural program. One of the highlights of its activities for this year was the Annual Dance.

Plans are now underway for the biggest event of the year, the annual Beach Trip.

At the regular monthly meeting last Wednesday night, officers for next year were elected as follows:

President, Louise Lindsay; Vice-President, Pearl House; Secretary, Mickey Boyette; Treasurer, Helen Jordan; Tecoco Representative, Adminta Eure; Tecoco Echo Reporter, Claire Jenkins; Head of Soccer, Esther Parker; Head of Field Hockey, Sue Parker, Head of Volleyball, Anne Bartholomew; Head of Basketball, Lee Bledsoe; Head of Softball, Frances Leggett; Head of Tennis, Dot Peelle; Head of Archery, Hazel Raper; Head of Individual Sports, Ruth Hall; Head of Hiking, Nell Murphy, and Head of Bicycling, Margaret Finley.

Assembly Program

Miss Lois V. Gorrell's piano class presented an interesting program to the members of the student body, at the regular chapel period.

Norwegian Dance-Grieg, a duet played by Dorothy Massey and Lorraine Pritchard; The Two Lanks-Leschetzky played by Edna Earle Lang; Beethoven's Sonto OP, played by Enggram Walters; The Fauns-Chaivade played by Iris Lee; Mozart's Minuet in D and Beethoven's Anger Over Lost Penny played by Edna Mitchell.

This Chapel program is one of a series of spring concerts being sponsored by the East Carolina Teachers College Music Department. Other Piano concerts are scheduled for the near future. Many of the students participating are making their first appearance on the ECTC Stage.

already being made to schedule several debates on the senior college level for next fall quarter.

What's Your Opinion

Editors Note: The following letter was received by the editor of the Teco Echo and we reprint it here for your consideration and hope that you will fill in the coupon at the end and return it to the Teco Echo. The question discussed in the letter is vitally important to those boys who are of draft age and we hope that they will cooperate by giving us their opinion of the matter.

Dear Miss Horne:
 The Council Against Intolerance in America has proposed to the War Department that a Mixed (White and Colored) Division be formed as a practical expression of the democratic belief that all men are created equal.

The formation of such a Division would do much to offset the danger to national morale inherent in the policy of segregation and would be of the greatest value in creating that national unity which is essential for victory. Moreover, the formation of such a Mixed Division would have significant and heartening effect on the morale of the hundreds of millions of allies in China, India and British Africa who would find it a concrete instance of the democratic ideal for which we are fighting.

From Revolutionary War days, through the Civil, Spanish and First World War, the American Negro has a splendid history as a fighter (as a matter of record, two privates of the 369th Infantry-Negro—were the first Americans to be decorated with the Croix de Guerre in 1918). The proposal to form the Mixed Division was first made at a Victory through Unity Conference in New York City by Professor Alonzo Myers of New York University, who stated his conviction that "a man who is good enough to fight for me is good enough to fight with me." Since that time hundreds of individuals have offered their support of the plan and signified their willingness to serve in such a Division if formed.

The Council Against Intolerance in America plans to send a delegation of prominent citizens to Washington to urge the formation of this Division. But in order for the delegation to be effective, it is necessary first to secure many thousands of signatures from men who will express their willingness to serve in this Division. As college men will shortly be of draft age, your support for this undertaking is invaluable.

Cordially yours,

 meetings of various sorts in many parts of the state.

Busy as she has been with these activities, she has found time to contribute a column of alumni news regularly to the Teco Echo. Also the Association is very proud of the fact that she has worked out plans for an alumni news bulletin, for which the collection of funds from pledges by alumni has been recently completed, so that the Association may now look forward to having a publication of its own.

An important custom instituted during Miss McClees' tenure of office is the giving at commencement of an alumni award to some graduate in recognition of outstanding work in his chosen field. This has brought to light detailed accounts of the work of many such alumni in this state and others about whom definite information had been lacking.

The retiring secretary is responsible, also, for the increased interest that has grown up in the reunion classes, through her untiring effort to reach the members of these groups. For the members of the twenty-five year class, she has made each year with the assistance of a member of the art faculty, a combination of directory of members and souvenir program

James C. Dempsey, Jr., 20, son of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. James C. Dempsey, Sr., of 1004 W. Vance St., Wilson, N. C., was a member of the second class of aviation cadets to graduate from the new Columbus Army Flying School near Columbus, Miss., on April 29th. All graduates received the coveted silver wings of a flying officer and were commissioned second lieutenants in the Army Air Corps.

Lieutenant Dempsey was appointed for pilot training in the air corps on Sept. 6, 1941. He received his primary flight training at the Miss. Institute of Aeronautics, Jackson, Miss., and his basic flying at the Greenville Army Flying School, Greenville, Miss., before arriving at the Columbus Army Flying School for his advanced training phase. He has been assigned to active duty with the Army Air Corps.

Before his aviation cadet appointment, Lieut. Dempsey attended East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville, N. C., from 1939 to 1941, where he was a member of the varsity basketball team and captain of the tennis team. He was also a member of the dramatic club during that time. Following college, he was a school bus inspector for the Hackney Body Plant at Wilson, N. C. until he received his appointment for cadet training. His father, Lt. Col. Dempsey, is Inspector General for an army division stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Mr. Birney Imas, publisher of the Commercial Dispatch, Columbus, Miss., awarded the diplomas and delivered the principal graduation address. Wings were presented by Col. L. C. Mallory, Post Commandant.

The Post Chaplain, Lieut. James E. Wilford, gave the invocation and benediction. Members of the Cadet Faculty Board, which is headed by Colonel L. C. Mallory, Post Commandant, who were present at the ceremony were Lt. Col. J. B. Duckworth and Lieutenant R. C. Johnson.

Lt. Henry M. Phillips of Greenville has reported for duty at the Lubbock Army Flying school, Lubbock, Texas, according to Col. Thomas L. Gilbert, commanding officer.

At the large Lubbock twin-engine school, where the Air Corps is training heavyweight Aviation Cadets to fly its big bombers and transport planes, Second Lt. Phillips is a flying instructor. He was transferred here from Ellington Field, Tex.

A letterman in football, track, tumbling, he graduated from East Carolina Teachers College and is the son of Mrs. Josephine L. Rawl of 118 Pitt Street.

"Y" News

Five students from the college attended a state YWCA and YMCA retreat at Camp Nawahua, eighteen miles south of Greensboro, on April 24-26. Few colleges from the state sent delegates. Reverend Charles Jones of the Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church was leading speaker, and the theme of the conference was "Crisis in Campus Christianity." Those representing our "Y" were Charlotte Shearin, Helen Stone, Carol Leigh Humphries, Samuel Crandell, and J. C. Sheppard.

The annual retreat for the old and new YWCA cabinets will be held at Camp Leach near Washington, N. C. the week-end of May 8 to the 10.

Zalia Carawen, Dorothea Massey, Samuel Crandell attended the Spring Inter-Racial Conference held at Chapel Hill on Sunday, May 3.

Wednesday evening, April 29, the YW and YMCA held a joint cabinet meeting in which they discussed the program presented at Camp Nawahua.

A new feature on next year's "Y" program will be open forums. To carry out this work a new committee has been added to the cabinet headed by Mabel Spence Watson. Friday evening Vesper service was turned into the first program of this kind in which the students discussed ways of improving scholarships on the campus. The response was satisfactory and a number of people contributed to the discussion.

By M. Beverly

The "Y" workers suffered a rude awakening the other day when one of the students remarked, "I am not gaining a thing from the 'Y', and I do not think the rest of the students are." Whether this was an expression of a personal opinion or of the sentiment of the entire student body, we don't know, but the statement was enough to jar us out of our complacency. The "Y" tries to function by the Boy Scout motto, "to serve", and when a student has grounds for the fore-going remark we are failing in our duty.

Before we get too upset over the situation, however, we must take into consideration the fact that the "Y" can bring nothing to a student or a group of students who are not seeking anything. We are helpless before the people who take the attitude, "I expect you to do your part by me, but I'm not going to lift a finger to help you do it. I expect you to bring your wares through my own door way so that I won't have to stir myself to seek after them."

Junior Class
 A meeting of the Junior Class was held on Thursday evening at 6:30. The purpose of the meeting was to make plans for the Commencement Dance to be sponsored on May 29 by the Juniors.

Commerce Fraternity
 A meeting of the Phi Sigma chapter of the Sigma Pi Alpha fraternity was called by president Cleo Burney for Wednesday, May 6. Officers for the coming year were elected.

 Miss Lena Bullard of Lexington, district supervisor of Farm Security, was a recent visitor at East Carolina Teachers College.

Miss Bullard spent Tuesday night with Miss Katherine Holtzclaw and Miss Mary Greene at their home, and on Wednesday, April 29th spoke to a class in Home Management Supervision.

McClees' work are aware of the contribution she has made on the campus. "Miss McClees has given to the Alumni Association the tireless energy of a loyal alumna and the intelligent services which it gravely needed," says Miss Emma Hooper, chairman of the Alumni Advisory Committee, "and the result is an awakened loyalty in hundreds of graduates who had lost touch with the College and classmates. Her leadership as its first full-time secretary has given the strength of unity to the organization."

STUDENT'S CORNER

Four years ago last September a tall thin young man possessing and unusual blonde head of hair appeared at the Campus Building and announced his intention of enrolling at East Carolina Teachers College. Since that time, Charles "Whitty" Futrelle has made quite a name for himself on this campus.

Charles has been most outstanding in the field of athletics. He has played football, baseball, and basketball all four years in college and recently pitched his first game at ECTC. Usually he holds down third base and pretty good too, if we do say so. This year he was chosen captain of the baseball team by his teammates.

Last summer after completing his CPT training at this school, Charles received his private pilots license. But it won't be private long. It's like this: Charles has enlisted in the Army Air Corp and from now on his fate lies in the hands of his Uncle Sam.

Besides being an athlete and a pilot, Charlie is also a musician. He played a mean trumpet in the college band for his first three years in college.

So far we really haven't told you very much about Charlie. The trouble is he's an awfully shy fellow and he won't talk about himself very much. But we can tell you this... of course our limelighter didn't tell us... but anyway... Charles may be a whiz on the athletic field and a wonderful pilot but when it comes to his course in campusology... oh my... he just can't seem to pass. He tried mighty hard last year when that pretty little brown haired freshman was around but just when everybody thought he was going to pass... well school was out and this year since there seems to be no incentive... not even with a thousand beautiful lassies to choose from... poor Charles just can't pass that course.

Anyway... ladies man or not, Charlie Futrelle, the guiding light of the Varsity Club, is a mighty nice guy to know... that is if you're not a Jap... at least I'd sho hate to have a yellow complexion and meet Charlie way up in the clear blue skies with no place to hide. Keep 'em flyin', Charlie, and Happy Landings.

STUDENT OPINION

On Monday night, April 27, 1942, the day students of ECTC called a special meeting to discuss the current movie crisis between the college and the local theaters. At this meeting each student was to be given a good chance to express his own personal opinion concerning the conflict; however, because of a "high-pressure" faculty member, and you know who I'm talking about, those students in favor of attending the movies were not given a fair chance to speak as they sincerely felt. Several of these students were called "paid propagandists sent here by Mr. Walker." I am positive that this true democratic professor did not have sufficient grounds to make such an outrageous statement. If he can obtain absolute proof, then I shall apologize publicly before the entire student body for writing this editorial.

Please, from now on when we hold meetings with a democratic procedure, let's give the other fellow a chance to express himself without calling him embarrassing names that afterwards will cause regretfulness. If a person's comment is adverse to your way of thinking, acknowledge what he has to say, then express yourself, but please don't establish a personal feud. There's nothing to gain and everything to lose. We're supposed to be intelligent people who know better.

—GEORGE ABEYOUNIS.

SCUMMING

by Uno Who

The Arboretum, for a long time something which was known to be, but nothing definite done about it, has suddenly burst into life... and I ain't talking about new leaves 'n' flowers 'n' grass! What I mean is Human Life! After casually strolling through this area, I've come to the conclusion that Carolina hasn't got a thing on us when it comes to a wide-open-space-with-trees, called an arboretum (Defined by Mr. Webster as, "A place where trees and shrubs are cultivated for scientific or educational purposes".)

Laura Fay Wood has had a certain sparkle in those brown eyes for the past day or so and I have it from very authentic source that a certain Oak Ridge Cadet is wholly responsible for that gleam.

It must be love... or one of it's closest relatives... for W. B. Harris and Dot Whitley are apparently inseparable these nice spring days.

"Maggie" Deal, didn't I see you being 'squired around by a soldier? Gracious, but his face looked familiar... Ah, I have it now. It was Bill Merner, a last year grad. Happy, Kid?

Margie Davis and Leslie Gardner had hit the rocks, but definitely! Too bad, and such a nice couple, too!!

Another couple (yeah, I know, couple, couple, couple, but that's all the gossip I know... except, of course, such minor stuff as boycotting the theaters, blacklisting a certain restaurant and numerous mass meetings.) But what I started to say, another couple, "Manteo Red" and "Lib" Gates ain't doing so bad either.

Now, Nell Beddard, here's your $64 question, "Was Milo Gibbs down here this past week-end?" Answer "Yea" or "Nay". "Yea!" Well, all I got to say, gal, you sho' must love State College as much as Margaret Futrelle loves Wake Forest!

The two gals who do everything together, Jessie Keith and Emily Murphy, aren't going to split up after all. Instead they're adding another member—Jessie went off last week-end and got herself engaged—Now she's caught up with Emily. Going to have a double wedding and a Duplex Apartment, girls?

Hazel Yelverton and Glenn Hooks are plenty glad that schools almost out. (and aren't we all?) "After all," Hazel says, "it would be pretty difficult to get from Fremont to Greenville twice a week on two and one half gallons of gas and four treadless tires."

Speaking of tires, that means rolling along, so I'd better be startin'. It's been fun being Uno Who, no stuff! So to the new wishes and deepest sympathy, and in place of leaving you my in a wooden block, and leave to you instead, the good, old "steadies" on campus. Pick on them all you want to. They're good sports about have their private lives punctured and printed and really don't mind a bit, do you, "Shorty" Jack; Doris-Walter; Estelle-Jerome; Ellen-Billy; "Hattie"-Holly; Dot Davis-Bull; Mildred-Shacky; Miriam-Cushie; Garnette-Cari; Savonne-Woody; "Dopey"-Doris; Tuck-Lucas; Nancy-Bob; Lallah B-Fisher; Mary-Wiley... and all the rest of the student who have contributed in making me some good, old, nasty dirt.

Good luck, a Merry Xmas and a Jappy Woo Year, and with that, this is your old Uno Who fading out of the picture along with old Dan Cupid, 1941-42!

South Piedmont District Banquet

Dr. Leon R. Meadows was guest speaker at the district banquet meeting of East Carolina Teachers College alumni which was held on Friday evening, April 24, in the Gold Room of the Barringer Hotel, Charlotte, N. C. He spoke about "The Teachers College in the Present Emergency." Dr. Meadows called attention to four duties of the teachers college at this time: first, to recruit teachers; second, to continue training teachers, just as it has been doing; third, to put in emergency courses for the duration; and fourth, to continue to educate the public to the need for well trained teachers.

Mrs. Lonnie W. Rogers (Nancy Brantley), president of the Charlotte chapter and vice-president of the South Piedmont District, welcomed alumni and guests and presided during the meeting. Dr. Hunter B. Blakley, president of Queens College, gave the invocation. Mr. H. P. Harding, superintendent of the Charlotte schools, introduced Dr. Meadows.

Miss Elizabeth Coppedge of Mount Pleasant, N. C. sang "When Irish Eyes are Smiling." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Emma Neal Black of Charlotte.

Alumni introduced to the group by Mrs. Rogers were Mrs. J. C. Holland, president of the general Association; Mrs. B. M. Bennett, immediate past president; Miss Pattie Dowell, Associate Professor of Education, Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C.; Miss Estelle McClees, alumni secretary of Greenville; Mrs. Daniel H. Laney, Jr. (Ruth Pierce), chairman of the banquet committee and corresponding secretary of the Charlotte chapter; Miss Lucy Hanks, vice-president of the chapter and member of the program committee; and Mrs. J. B. Davis (Evelyn Terry), member of the membership committee.

Mrs. Alex Kohn (Clara Grisom), co-member of the banquet committee, had charge of the last part of the program. Mrs. Kohn called several alumni and guest to draw numbers and to the ones holding the corresponding numbers prizes were given.

Places were marked with folders which carried out the college colors, purple and gold. On each folder was typed the program and the Alma Mater song. An arrangement of purple and gold flowers centered the speakers table. Nougat arrangements of flowers were used on the other tables.

Members of the Charlotte chapter planned and made all arrangements for the banquet to which alumni in the South Piedmont District and guests were invited.

Members of the Ayden chapter held the last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Staton Ross (Josephine Dixon) on Thursday night, April 23. During the meeting, the work of the year was discussed and plans for 1942-43 were made. Officers elected for the coming year are: Mrs. Robbie Dail, president; Miss Martha Baldrice, vice-president; Miss Christine Harris, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Staton Ross, reporter.

Mrs. Jamie Dail (Alice Mae Elks) served as associate hostess with Mrs. Ross.

Zita Bellamy, New Addition To Commerce Department

"Knowing people is my hobby. I love all kinds of people—people in general and my students in particular," declared Miss Zita Bellamy, newest addition to the commerce faculty. This fact is further evidenced by the interest taken in her pupils by friendly Miss Bellamy.

Miss Bellamy, who came here from Dobyns-Bennet High School in Kingsport, Tennessee, received her masters degree from John B. Staton University and studied commerce at Ferris University, University of Florida, University of Tennessee and University of Pennsylvania. At the present, she is working toward her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Business Education at the University of Pittsburgh.

When asked where she was from, Miss Bellamy said that she doesn't really have a home town, because she moves quite often. However, Sneads, Florida comes nearest being her home town, as that is where she formerly lived.

Moving around keeps her from "collecting" collections being hard to keep up with. Nevertheless, her interests are many and varied. Swimming is one of her favorite past times, a natural fact, since she comes from a state of many lakes, Florida. She says, though, that she has not yet learned to swim in pools as swimming pools seem like bath tubs in comparison to the lakes that are familiar to her.

Miss Bellamy became a commerce teacher because the school in which she wanted to teach had an opening in the commerce department. After studying commerce in summer school and teaching a year she was "sold" on the idea of teaching Business Education. Previously she had taught English, history, and Latin.

Miss Bellamy prefers classical music and gospel singing. She likes dogs and Persian cats although she has neither at the present time.

and as far as food is concerned, she particularly likes olives.

She taught Sunday School classes while in Kingsport. Last year she wrote the Easter pa-grant "Disciples of Christ" and helped the children in the Methodist church of Kingsport put it on.

Of East Carolina Teachers College she says, "I think the college has a lovely atmosphere. The cooperation between the departments is splendid, in fact, it's all you can desire in a school."

Miss Bellamy teaches classes in office machines, accounting, methods of teaching shorthand and typing, and supervises practice teaching in commerce.

The Greatest Air Army in the World Needs Flight and Ground Crew Officers

NOW FOR COLLEGE MEN A NEW OFFICERS' TRAINING PLAN

★ New Deferred Service Plan Allows You to Continue Your Education ★

In the skies over America the mightiest air fleet in the history of the world is mobilizing for victory!

So fast is it growing that there is a place here — an urgent need here — for every college man in America who can qualify for Officer's Training.

The U. S. Army Air Forces need Flying Officers and Ground Crew Officers. And many of them must come from the ranks of today's college students — men who make their plans now for the necessary Aviation Cadet training.

Thanks to a newly created Air Force Reserve plan, men of all classes — aged 18 to 26, inclusive — can enlist for immediate service or continue the scholastic work required for graduation before being called to active duty.

You must meet the requirements for physical fitness, of course. In addition, you take a new simplified test to determine your ability to grasp the training. A college man should pass it easily.

$75 A MONTH DURING TRAINING

Those accepted who wish immediate duty will go into training as rapidly as facilities permit. As an Aviation Cadet, you are paid $75 a month, with subsistence, quarters, medical care, uniforms, equipment.

In 8 months you can win an officer's commission as a bombardier, navigator or pilot — and be well started on your way to serve America and advance yourself in aviation.

Three Enlistment Plans for College Men

Juniors—Sophomores—Freshmen May Continue Their Education

1. A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, aged 18 to 26, inclusive, to enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and continue their schooling, provided they maintain satisfactory scholastic standings.

All College Men May Enlist for Immediate Service

2. All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their turns come for Aviation Cadet training.

3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.

Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available.

If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.

The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty.

It is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools.

This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established A.O.T.C. plans.)

MANY BRANCHES OF SERVICE

There are also commissions awarded in ground crew service. College men particularly will be interested in the requirements for Armaments, Communications, Engineering, Meteorology, Photography. If you have engineering experience your chances of getting a commission are excellent.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty with the Army Air Forces, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

ACT AT ONCE

If you want to fight for America, this is where your blows will count.

If you want the best training in the world, and years of solid achievement in aviation—the great career field of the future—this is where you belong. Your place is here—in the Army Air Forces.

If you plan to enlist immediately, start getting your necessary papers ready for the Aviation Cadet Examining Board when it meets in your locality. For complete information, see your Faculty Air Force Advisor. You can take your mental and physical examinations the same day you apply. Get further information now.

NOTE: If you wish to enlist and are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today—you can then complete your enlistment before any Aviation Cadet Examining Board.

Sports-Gazing

With Jimmy Gianakos

With this issue we say farewell to a very successful sports year.

It's been a pleasure no end dickering with this alleged column and in leaving, our greatest satisfaction lies in the fact that it will be taken over by very competent hands.

Take it from any standpoint you like, this has been an outstanding year for athletics at ECTC, and next years doom of sports is not as imminent as some people will lead you to believe. With seven Naval Reserve boys at key positions as a nucleus we can foresee another excellent grid team. In fact, the team may outshine last year's undefeated combine if capable reserves are available. Craven, Greene, Butler, Jack Young, Rogerson, Lucas, Scott, Brown, and Tripp gained valuable experience last fall against rugged opposition and should improve enough to set up one of the strongest college lines in the state before the next campaign ends.

Looking back over our two years at ECTC we can recall many pleasant incidents that can hardly be forgotten.

The most thrilling? That's easy. Remember the High Point basketball game in 1941? Wilson "Hank" Schuerholz left 700 fans in hysterics when with 20 seconds to play he turned a three point deficit into a 44-43 victory for ECTC. The biggest upset? The baseball team's turning back of the Elon last spring. The Christians hand led only to Duke the past two years and wiley "Lefty" Dunn handcuffed them for nine innings.

We won't forget, either, Stuart Tripp trying to open the door of a New York subway . . . Fat Rogerson, with one arm in a sling and the other loaded with blankets, getting hung on a wire fence at Hackensack . . . Bus driver "Barney" Ricks stopping to point out all of the historical sites in Virginia when we were so anxious to get home . . . Singing the school song at midnite in the public square of Abbeville, S. C. after the Erskine football victory with the accompaniment of "George" Miller's accordion . . . Don Marriot's 93-yard kick-off return in the Beren game . . . the swell job Cushman and Jarvis did in reviving school spirit . . . the brilliant punting of Nick Zuras in the Belmont Abbey tilt when he booted five straight within the opponents 10-yard line . . . Norman "Jesse" Mayo's beautiful throw in from deep right field to cut off a potential Campbell home run . . . and many other too numerous to mention.

So with this we close and wish you a happy exam week with all the fixin's—but don't overdo it!

This Week's Outstanding Athlete

We arrived at the fight at the gong of the third and final round. The fans were yelling madly as out from the corner stalked the crouching figure of Charlie "Killer" Craven. He measured his opponent off with short jabs and the ensuing exchange of blows for the next two minutes had the crowd standing in their seats.

That was back in 1939 and the fact that Charlie lost the decision is unimportant. He fought gamely with the look in cognize in every football game at ECTC for the past two years. There is no better way to characterize Craven than to portray of his eager competitive spirit. He simply thrives on it.

Charlie was born in Asheville, N. C. some 22 years ago and graduated from Lee H. Edwards High. After a year at Brevard Junior College he followed his coach to ECTC and immediately laid claim to the left end position on the grid team. He won it without much argument and developed into one of the finest defensive linemen on the squad. With his running mate Chuck McFee, in 1940 he formed one of the best passing combinations ever seen here. His eyes that we've grown to re-

Charlie was a boom to athletic circles here, for at last we had an athlete who was literary minded. Craven aspires to be a newspaperman and at the present is proof reader for a local daily. During pre-school football practice Charlie could be found every night reading a huge volume on "The Works of Browning." Majoring in English, he has adapted himself to his work with the same zealous spirit that has carried him through many grid campaigns.

Although he doesn't dance he is very musically minded and knows the merit and style of practically every major dance band.

For recreation Charlie likes to box. The dearth of competition on the campus has moved him no little and he has offered his services to the school as a one man boxing team. No matter how little he does he always keeps in shape. "You can never tell when you'll need to be", he says.

He likes to talk about his friends, chiefly, Bill Lucas, his fellow townsman. "Now there's a boy," he told us, "he understands the greatest symphonies but watch his eyes closely some time. I'm afraid someday they're going to meet!"

Within the next three weeks Craven expects to get his call to the army and his attitude about that is the same as that undaunted spirit of his attitude about that is the same as that undaunted spirit of his that we could talk about indefinitely. So look out Mr. Jap, for Craven will be on "the firing line" soon throwing blinks all over Yokasuya!

Bucs Defeat Presbyterians Twice In Two-Game Series

Pirates Take Two Wins From Braves

The East Carolina "Pirates" played host to the "Braves" from William and Mary (ND) here April 24 and 25, in a series of two baseball games, but the refreshments were rather bitter to the "Braves", as they carried defeat both days; the first day 10-8 for the Pirates and 20-3 likewise the second day.

Remarkable improvement was shown by the locals in both games. The fielding looked more like the old swing for "Coach John's" boys, and the batting looked more like slaying the "horsehide."

Bob Young takes honors for the first victory in the series. Bob entered the game in the sixth inning and bagged out a single, then stepped into another in the eighth inning for a triple that brought in the winning run. This was Bob's first action this season, and he has been looking good in games since then.

Naval Apprentice Defeated 7-4

In a hot, smelting nine innings the dogging ECTC "Pirates" downed the Naval Yard Apprentices from Norfolk 7-4, on Monday, May 4.

Charlie Futrell, who has been holding sack number one down this season for the Teachers, did a fine piece of work on the mound, allowing the Navals only eight hits. Charlie's consistency proved to be a puzzle for the Navy Yard, even though he was relieved in the eighth by "Ace" Gauldin.

Stuart Tripp, the man with iron in his blood, slapped out three hits for four trips to the bat. Futrell, Mayo, and Waters were close behind with two for four each.

ECTC Coach Holds Remarkable Record

Completing his second year this spring as athletic coach at E. C. T. C. is Coach John Christenbury began molding teams that have for the last year surpassed anything in local athletic history.

No team of his has ever fallen below the 500 mark. In eighty major contests 53 games were won and 27 lost. The closest call came in the past basketball season, when half of the games were dropped. So far the current baseball nine is sporting a 500 average with five more games to play.

"Coach John" as he is popularly known to his athletes has had to carry the entire burden of the coaching staff and the results have been remarkable. His greatest team was the 1941 football machine which romped through an undefeated season. That season was even more successful from other standpoints. Sweet revenge was gained by pasting W. C. T. C. 19-6. The boys also spoiled "Jackie Todd Day" at Erskine, broke the 5 year jinks of Belmont Abbey's home field and stopped Cold Bergen College's three year all-winning streak.

With the indefinite status of the war situation, Coach Christenbury is hesitant to speak of prospects for next year by when the war is over athletics here will decidedly reach new heights.

Pirates Top Sailors By 15-3 Yesterday

Racketeers Defeat PJC For Initial Win Of Season

In a much superior manner the "Buc" netters defeated the PJC from Maxton, N. C. last Thursday and Friday 5 to 1.

Doug Jones again came through with a bang, defeating his opponent Smith, 6-0, 6-1. All the other members also put their opponents under the line with the exception of Norman Wilkerson, number two man lost to McCoil of PJC, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5.

In the second day's engagement, the teachers again spanked the Maxton boys to the tune of 6 to 0.

The losing match for the "Bucs" went to Oak Ridge Military Academy 7 to 2. The only winners in the match were in singles; "Little Abner" Jones smattered Turner of Oak Ridge 6-0, 4-6, 7-5.

Professor Dick Gauldin and his Teachers walloped the Norfolk Naval Hospital nine, 15-3, yesterday on the College Athletic field.

The game was well under control for the Teachers from the beginning to end, with such sluggers as Mayo, Waters, Futrelle, Sisk, Murray, and Brown leading in the hitting spree. Waters and Mayo brought up the old average with three for four each. Charles Futrelle came to the bat two times and placed the old horsehide for a hit each time up.

The sailors were unable to touch Gauldin for any success during the entire game, though they did manage to get three runs.

Next week the Pirates journey to Norfolk for a series of three games there. The teams scheduled are: Naval Air Station, Naval Training Station, and Naval Hospital.

Much improvement has been shown by the hard working men and it is certain that in the five more games to be played they should come out with a fair average.
