

Carlyle Cox Elected To Head New SCGA

Conrad Thibault, Baritone To Give Concert Here

Conrad Thibault, famed baritone of radio and the concert stage, will replace Dennis Morgan as the featured artist of the spring entertainment program, according to an announcement by the Entertainment Committee. Thibault will appear on the ECTC campus Friday evening, May 21.

Conrad Thibault

Because of delays in the production of two pictures in which he is working, Dennis Morgan will not be able to meet his singing engagement at ECTC. It is revealed by members of the committee that he may be available to this college at present rates next fall although his price is going up.

Thibault is the well-known star of two popular network radio programs. He is featured on the NBC "Manhattan Merry Go Round" and the CBS "American Melody Hour," both of which are familiar to ECTC students.

Although he at one time sang with the Philadelphia Grand Opera company, Thibault's chief interest is in radio and concert singing. He claims fame, not from movies or from opera, but from his ability to appeal to radio and concert audiences with his fine voice and personality. This is his first appearance in Greenville.

Registrar Holding Application Blanks For Federal Jobs

Considering the possibility of some of the ECTC students securing Federal employment in one or another of the many places where college students may be used and where they are needed for various types of Federal service, a Federal Representative recently visited the Registrar, Howard J. McGinnis.

"There are many positions open for qualified personnel and any applications secured will be immediately reviewed and information forwarded to the applicant as to just what positions are then available," he said. There are several application forms in the registrar's office, and a sample one of the Teco Echo office for those who are interested, to investigate.

Student Teachers Meet

by Margaret Lewis

After visiting the high schools used as student teaching centers the home economics education students decided they would like to know more about how the program is carried on and the daily experiences of student teachers. Twelve home economics seniors representing the program for the present school year were invited to meet the pre-service trainees and discuss with them their experiences.

The conference, which was held Monday evening, May 3, in new Classroom building, was opened by Annie Kate Evans, representing the methods class, who, after giving a welcome and stating the purpose of the conference, introduced Mary Long Ford, chairman of the panel of student teachers.

Miss Ford reviewed in an interesting manner the steps in the development of the present student teaching program made necessary by an increased enrollment in the department and made possible by an appropriation by the federal government known as George-Dean funds. "Before a school is selected," she stated, "it must be approved by the State Department of Public Instruction, the State Supervisor of Home Economics, and the College." In addition to Greenville the following high schools have been used: Ayden, Farmville, Williamston, Robersonville, Murfreesboro, Scotland Neck, Chocowinity, Poplar

Eight Activities Cut By Budget

Eight student organizations and undertakings were cut a total of $1410.00 in their appropriations at a recent meeting of the Budget committee. This action was necessitated by a sharp drop in enrollment for the past two quarters.

"At the first of the year we based the appropriations on an enrollment of 1,000 students and a total of $18,000 in student fees," explains Student Treasurer Claire Jenkins. "But last quarter the enrollment was 900, and this quarter we can depend on only 850 students."

Since the $200 allotted the music department for the production of the opera, Martha, was repaid, a cut of $1300.00 was necessary. The cut of $1410.00 leaves a balance of $110.00 to cover any possible deficiency caused by failure of some students to pay student fees.

Major cuts were made in the appropriations of the Entertainment committee ($400.00), the Men's Athletic association ($340.00), and the Women's Student Government association ($250.00). The Woman's Athletic association and Social committee were cut $100.00 each. The Men's Student Government association was cut $90.00, Pieces O' Eight $80.00, and the Teco Echo $50.00.

These cuts went into effect April 23.

With The Armed Forces

Aviation Cadet Merwin Frazele, a graduate of ECTC in the class of '41, is now training at the Naval air station at the University of Oklahoma. "After staying out part of the night doing night flying it's tough having to get up at 5:30 each morning. I can hardly wait to get at those yellow Japs and help get this thing over—then I can sleep," he wrote. His address: 3 B 43 N, Post, Naval Air Station, Norm, Oklahoma.

A visitor on the campus recently was 2nd Lt. Alvin Wooten of the Army air corps. Alvin came to school here year before last and began his flying in the CAA course which was offered here then. Since that time he has taken advance pilot training at Lumberton and at New Orleans, La. After completing the course in New Orleans he is instructed at Lumberton until he received a commission in the Ferry Command of the Air Corps last February. His address is: New Castle, Army Air Base, Wilmington, Delaware.

Pfc. Vance Chadwick, a graduate of the class of '40, is crew chief on a B-24 bomber, and is stationed at the Army air base, Colorado Springs, Col. Vance writes, "This is a training squadron and very rugged. To show you what I mean, we made three emergency landings in one day. It may be worse overseas but I wouldn't sweat anymore." He says he gets his Teco Echo regularly and appreciates it very much. His address is 11th Photo Sqd. "H," Army Air Base, Peterson Field, Colorado Springs, Col.

According to information received by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bridgers of Greenville, a picture of their son, John David Bridgers, appeared in the April 12th issue of Life Magazine. The first indication Lt. Bridger's family had that he was or had been on Guadalcanal was when the picture appeared in Life and was brought to their attention by local friends of the flier as well as some of his friends now in the armed forces serving in various sections of the country.

John David graduated from ECTC in 1941 and enlisted in the Naval Air Corps shortly after finishing. He has been stationed in the Pacific war zone for the past 14 months and has seen action over a wide area including the battle of Midway last June at which time he was a flier aboard the ill-fated aircraft carrier Yorktown.

Mrs. Kathryn Jones Ashe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nash of Greenville, recently was commissioned an ensign in the WAVES after having completed the training at Smith College. Ensign Ashe is spending several days with her parents before reporting for duty. She attended ECTC several years ago. Ensign Ashe is the niece of Miss Mamie Ruth Tunstall, one of the most active alumni of the college.

"You should feel the heat the tropical sun is pouring down on me as I write—One can almost feel the actual impact of heat waves," writes Lt. Leo Burks from his station in North Africa.

"This morning I was down on the rocky shore. From my tent I have a wonderful view of cliffs, a fine harbor and the 'Italian Lake.' I was just thinking of you and Dr. Brandt," continues Leo in his letter to Dr. Slay, "as I sat on the rocks examining nature's wee creatures at first hand, I wished for Dr. Brandt and a microscope."

Leo graduated here in '41 and taught in New Hanover High School in Wilmington before going into the army.

Edward Bernays Establishes Three Fellowships

Three fellowships for research in public relations for 1942 have just been established by Edward L. Bernays, publicist of New York, author of "Propaganda," "Crystallizing Public Opinion" and "Speak Up for Democracy".

The fellowships are: 1) Western Reserve University, Cleveland, $500 for the study of how in the past 25 years business, education, government and the press have increased their use of public relations. This is to be awarded to a graduate student for the study of the public attitudes toward business since 1930 as reflected in the press, on the radio, resolutions and actions of the different constituent groups that make up our society—labor, religious, farm, social service, government and other groups.

2) to the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism $1,000 for the study of the attitudes of liberal United States business men in the past 30 years and what the effects of these attitudes were on public opinion and public action. The subject was chosen "because liberal business men have done a great deal to further the relations between the component parts of our society, and the results of their efforts should be made available to other industrial leaders who have not learned how to apply such principles and practices to their own commercial and industrial activities."

3) to New York University $1,000 to be awarded to a graduate student for the study of changing attitudes towards public relations by the press and business in the past 25 years.

Music Department Presents Singers In Vocal Recital

On Tuesday night, May 4, the Music department presented another successful concert. Miss Jean Abeyounis, soprano; Miss Lorraine Pritchard, mezzo-soprano; Mr. Linwood Gurganus, Baritone; and Mr. Denton Rossell, tenor, entertained the well-filled Austin auditorium.

The first group of selections came from the Italian Opera "Brindisi," from "La Traviata" by Verdi the group was sung by Miss Abeyounis. "Una Voce Po-co fa" from "The Barber of Seville" by Rossini was sung by Lorraine Pritchard. Linwood Gurganus and Mr. Rossell sang "Guarda Che Bianca luna" by Canpana. Three arias from "La Boheme" by Puccini were given by Jean Abeyounis. "Tutti fior" from "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini was sung by Jean and Lorraine (better known as Bob-b). The sextette from "Lucia" by Donizetti concluded the first group of selections. Jean, Lorraine, Mr. Rossell and Linwood were assisted by Ingram Walters and Freeman Watson in this selection.

The next group of songs, "From the Modern Repertoire" was appreciated more by the audience since it consisted of tunes more familiar. "O Lovely Night" by Ronald opened the group sung by Lorraine Pritchard and Mr. Rossell. Linwood Gurganus thrilled the audience with Pauper's "Drive by Homer" and "De Glory Road" by Wolfe. He sang as an encore, "On the Road to Mandalay." "Apres un Reve," by Faure, "April Children" Carey, and "Song of the Open" by La Forge were sung by Jean Abeyounis. Her encore was "Little China Figure." Lorraine Pritchard recital on Page Four

Commencement Exercises Scheduled For Last Of May

Breaking a precedent which has been established for several years, the commencement exercises will be conducted this year the last week-end in May instead of the first week-end in June.

The address for the graduating exercises to be held on Monday morning in the Wright auditorium will be made by Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction and a well-known figure in educational groups throughout the state. The invocation will be made by Rev. George Perry, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

Commencement officially begins on Saturday morning at the annual meeting of the Alumni Association which features the formal recognition of the graduating class as new members of the association, the installation of new officers, and the presentation of the Alumni award.

Dinner is to be served the alumni and the graduating class as new members of the graduating class in the Wright auditorium. During the afternoon alumni, the faculty, and the graduating class will be entertained at open house at the home of President and Mrs. Meadows, after which there will be an "Allegation Service" for the graduates. The annual music recital will constitute the program of the evening presenting student soloists and various musical organizations on the campus. There will be no alumni Dance this year as previously, due to current war conditions.

Dr. W. Taliaferre Thompson will make the baccalaureate address on Sunday morning. Dr. See Exercises on Page Four

Home Economics Majors Hold Panel Discussion

In order to acquaint junior majors in home economics with problems met in practice teaching, members of Mrs. Ethel Watters' home economics methods class held a panel discussion on the subject in the new Classroom building, May 4.

Mary Long Ford, senior from Franklinton, was in charge of the program. After welcoming the juniors to the meeting, she sketched the department's practice-teaching program for them, especially as it has expanded since 1940. Since then, in addition to Greenville high, at least 9 high schools, approved by both the college and the State Department of Public Instruction, have assisted in the home economics practice teaching program.

Full quarter student teachers who spoke, with the name of the town in which they taught were: Ovelia Price, Greenville; Lean Fleming, Williamston; and Eunice McKeithan, Robersonville; winter quarter teachers were Dorothy McClure, Williamston; Lucy Warren, Scotland Neck; Grace Draughn, Robersonville; and Margie Hollowell, Greenville; spring quarter teachers are Elizabeth Peele, Winterville; Clellie Mae Croon, Robersonville; Marian Stallings, Robersonville; and Ella Carawan, Williamston.

SENIOR OFFICERS

In elections held yesterday to fill officers in the rising senior class at ECTC, Dave Owens, Pinetops junior, was named to succeed himself as president. He was also recently chosen chief marshal.

Dorothy Pearsall is to be vice-president; Hazel Willford secretary, Clyde Mann, treasurer.

For senior representatives to the Student Cooperative Council the class elected Helen Flynn and Garnette Cordle. Dorothy Davis will represent the class on the staff of the Teco Echo and the Tecocon.

Dorothy Lewis Voted To Hold Vice-Presidency

Carlyle Cox, outstanding junior from Robersonville, piled up an overwhelming majority over Willie Mae Daniels, rising junior from Oxford, in the race for president of the combined student body for next year in the student elections held Wednesday, April 28. Dorothy Lewis gained a majority over opponents Virginia Cooke and Joyce Watson in the contest for the vice-presidency.

More than 700 students, the largest number ever to vote at ECTC, cast ballots in the student elections this year. Two hundred and sixty-six candidates were running for the 59 offices decided in the election.

In addition to the president and vice-president, Amanda Etheridge was made secretary, Ruth Allen treasurer, Clarine Johnson first-assistant treasurer, Margaret Person second-assistant treasurer and Burchie Smith Johnston historian of the Student Cooperative Government association.

In the publications races Bernice Jenkins and Harry Jarvis were voted editor and business manager of the Teco Echo, Christine Hellen and Dorothy Davis editor and business manager of the Tecocon, and Maribelle Robertson and Dorothy Pearsall editor and business manager of Pieces O' Eight.

Jane Vann is chairman of the Women's Judiciary. Camille Jernigan is vice-chairman, Annie B. Bartholomew secretary and Dixie Colmer treasurer. Chairman of the Men's Judiciary is Frank Coiber. Robert Martin is vice-chairman, Beverly Cutler secretary and treasurer and Robert Morgan and Joe Lassiter members at large.

Frances Tunstall heads the Women's Day Student committee. Vice-president is Jane Hardee. Laura Hearne is secretary-treasurer and members at large are Wilma Cozart, Josephine Gibson, Evelyn Jones, Sarah Moore, and Doris Wells. Clyde Mann is chairman of the Men's Day Student committee. Harry Jarvis is vice-president, Douglas Eley secretary-treasurer, and Roy Carson, Thomas Williams, Sam Strickland, James Worsley, Bernice Jenkins and Melvin Frizzell are members at large.

Faculty Advisers for the Student Cooperative council are Dr. R. J. Slay, Dr. Beecher Flanagan, and Dr. Herbert Rebarber. Student members of the Student-Faculty committee are Doris Hockaday, Maribelle Robertson and James Worsley.

Associate editors of the Teco Echo are Margaret Lewis, Rosalie Brown and Thomas Williams. Associate business managers are Rachel Dixon, Dorothy Pearsall and Robert Morgan. Associate editors for the Tecocon are Dorothy Lewis, Inez Simmons and Pinar Mae Windley. Associate business managers are Lillian Boyette, Bessie Council and Rebecca Horton. Associate editor of Pieces O' Eight See Election on Page Four

Camille Jernigan To Give Recital

Camille Jernigan, pianist, who will be heard in concert on Tuesday, May 18th. A group of new singers including Mary Alice Charlton, Mary Blane Justus, Lucy Nell Smith, Morris Flow, Josephine Gibson, Ingram Walters and W. B. Harris will sing on the program. Miss Jernigan, who is a pupil of Mr. Rossell, will play Beethoven's "Pathetique Sonata" and compositions by Schumann, Chopin and Falla. None of the singers have sung in campus concerts before although several of them were heard in the winter production of "Martha." One of the features of the vocalists will be selections from the opera "Hansel and Gretel" in which they will be joined by Mr. Rossell. The concert will be held in Austin Auditorium at 8:15.

To The Alumni

Dear Alumni:

Again, we are extending to you a very cordial invitation to attend Commencement. It is possible and even looks probable that some or most of you have persuaded yourselves that it would not be wise to attempt to attend Commencement this year. If you have reached such a conclusion I trust you will change your mind. We did not have Homecoming Day last fall because we wanted to conform to the spirit of the nation in conserving gas, tires, cars, energy, and people. However, a great many colleges did observe the day, and perhaps in doing so promoted the cause of education. We feel that it would be wise for our Alumni to get together at least once a year. We hope that the inspiration gained from the return to the campus will react favorably in the cause of education wherever the alumni live. In addition to the actual good accomplished by such a visit to your Alma Mater we believe that during this time of stress when nerves are taut it is good for us to relax occasionally and, with others, gain strength through association for the duties which lie ahead. You will enjoy the day or days spent on our campus at the close of May.

A new president of the alumni association will be elected this year, and you will want to be here to help inaugurate the one who is to lead you for the next two years. Also, you will wish to be here to honor the one who receives the alumni award; and Mrs. Meadows and I will expect you here to attend the tea at our home on the afternoon of Alumni Day.

Rooms, meals, and other types of entertainment will be as in former years. The luncheon will not be formal. We are expecting large numbers from the honor classes, which this year are those of '18, '33, and '42.

Let us know not later than Saturday, May 22, if you can be with us so we can make our rationing plans accordingly.
Very cordially yours,
Leon R. Meadows, President

Dear Alumni:

At this season our thoughts turn to Commencement and you. I am happy to have the privilege to remind you that not only are we hoping to have you with us this year, we are expecting you. We are anxious to know how you have spent the years since you left us, and how can we know unless you come back and give us a report?

As always at commencement time, the campus is yours. However, this year more than ever before, we are having to make more definite plans to assure your happiness and comfort while you are with us. Rooms in the dormitories and meals in the dining halls will be available for those who notify us by Saturday, May 22.

The classes of '18, '33, and '42 are our honor guests this year. Complimentary meal tickets will be given to the members of those classes when they register in Cotten Office. Meal tickets for members of other classes may be purchased. These tickets are thirty-five cents each except Sunday dinner which is fifty cents. As in the past the luncheon on Saturday is complimentary.

We hope you have made plans to be with us. If not, please start those plans at once—then you will fill the attached blank and mail it to reach me or the Alumni Office by Saturday, May 22. If you prefer you may send us a postal card giving the needed information.

Most cordially yours,
Annie L. Morton

'As Time Goes By,' Voted Most Popular Tune In Poll Campus

Only An Editor Has To Guess

(The following editorial, as nearly as we can ascertain, first appeared in "The Purple and White," weekly newspaper of Millsap's college, Jackson, Miss.)

Prof's can sit crosslegged on the top of a desk; dean's first list students can let down their guard; student body presidents can fraternize with the masses.

Only an editor is required to be pontifical always.

Only an editor is supposed to know everything that happens, so it is taken for granted that he always knows it, and nobody ever tells him anything; only an editor is supposed to keep an open mind always, and at the same time to make snap decisions for each political impasse; only an editor is required to keep his nose out of politics, meanwhile keeping tab on the strength of each separate lineup.

Prof's have their apple-polishers who ask questions after class; dean's list students get their quarterly reports; student body presidents hear quarterly reports; student body presidents hear complaints in SEB meetings.

Only an editor has to guess.

Only an editor has to grope blindly along, trying to put out a paper for a student body who will talk only behind his back, who will never tell him what they like or don't like, who will squawk audibly only when they are mortally and irreparably wounded who never thank him when he says anything nice about them or censor anything nasty, who have to be tracked down, cornered, and beaten insensible before they will so much as give him a news lead.

Prof's have the satisfaction of seeing their teachings put into practice; dean's list students are an inspiration to their successors; student body presidents can point with pride at year's end to long rows of achievements.

Only an editor has to endure the spectacle of 99 of his 600 loyal readers, each and every week, turning immediately on receipt of the paper to the Finger of Scorn, ignoring everything else in the issue; to find the layouts which he and his staff have spent hours of work, completely unappreciated; to feel his editorial campaigns which he has planned for months, which are his only method of criticism of his school and of society, coldly ignored.

Prof's get to sit on the stage; dean's list students don't have to attend class; student body presidents get to introduce visitors.

Only an editor is damn fool enough not to want to trade places with any of them.

And, when all's said and done, only an editor has the satisfaction of knowing that his thousand words a week are written down in letters that can never be erased; of feeling something in a way which must have immediate and lasting effect; of knowing that, if he knew how to use it, he has the whole state for his audience; of sensing that he is doing a job for the students which no one else could do in quite the same way; and last but not least, of being sure of a staff that, no matter how much he is forced to abuse them, overwork them, deny them any reward for their work, will be driven back for more by pure love of literary effort. Only an editor would gripe about it.

Here's How They Do It!

The Oracle, Monmouth (Ill.) College: The editor is elected by the students, is paid on the basis of number of issues put out... This usually amounts to a $150 scholarship. The business manager is appointed by the Oracle board, which is composed of the editor, the old business manager, two assistants of the new editor, and a faculty member. The business manager is paid in accordance with the amount of advertising he sells; usually gives him a $125 scholarship. The above system is defined in the student body constitution. The editorship is a political plum, due to this system. Both the scholarships are paid from Oracle revenues. The adviser does not direct the activities of the staff. Two or three times a year he passes the editor a hot tip but the rest of the time he never sets foot in the paper office. When the editor wants advice, he goes to the alumni secretary, who has his office next to the Oracle office and who is interested in what's going on. There's a standing debt to the printers, so conscientious editors and business managers try to run the paper as economically as possible, in order to pay a small amount of

In a recent Campus poll a hundred students voted their opinions on 14 questions. 35 boys and 65 girls were quizzed. Listed below are the questions and the percentages answering in various ways.

1. Favorite Comic strip:	Girls	Boys
Blondie	16%	20%
Cap'n Easy	10	45
Li'l Abner	25	17
Henry	34	16
Other	15	3

2. Do you smoke? It was a surprise to find that 44% of the girls smoke while only 43% of the boys indulge in the habit.

3. Favorite Branch of Service:	Girls	Boys
Army	44%	37%
Navy	25	43
Marines	24	14
Didn't say	7	6

4. Do you go to bed—	Girls	Boys
Before or by 11	30%	20%
Between 11 and 12	18	33
After 12	52	47

5. Do you believe in kissing—	Girls	Boys
On the first date	12%	77%
By the tenth date	38	5

The other percentage unaccounted for said it depended on whom they were dating. Eleven of the sixty-five girls quizzed said they didn't believe in kissing at all—wonder who believes that? They ought to tell that to the marines!! One boy said that kissing was a waste of time but as figures show over three-fourths of the boys try it on the first date!

6. Do you attend church regularly? (at least twice a month)	Girls	Boys
Yes	62%	57%

7. The most popular song was "As Time Goes By." Other favorites were "Old Black Magic," "You'd Be So Nice to Come Home To," and "There Are Such Things."

8. For the most popular news commentator Gabriel Heatter got 65% of the votes. Kaltenborn was next in popularity.

9. WGTC's Eleven Hundred Club was by far the favorite radio program with the girls. 10% of the girls liked Superman. The boys preferred Bob Hope.

10. Pop tests were almost unanimously disliked by the girls—96% were made unhappy by the pop-quizzers. 65% per cent of the male students said that pop tests were all right and one said he thought they were fine—as long as they were for someone else!

11. Do you favor war marriages?	Girls	Boys
Yes	52%	37%
No	37	58
Depends	11	5

12. How many hours do you study? Such answers as "What an embarrassing question," "I'm ashamed to say," and "Not enough to count," appeared on the ballots. The answers revealed that the girl studies 2.7 hours each day while the boys study 2.1 hours. These figures look bad but you'd be surprised how accurate they might be!!

13. Have you ever been in love? 81% of the girls say they have been in love and one girl said that she'd been in love seven times. 66% of the boys have been in love while one boy said he had a funny feeling once but he didn't know whether it was love.

14. Of the hundred students questioned eight of them said they didn't drink carbonated beverages at all. The other 92 students averaged 1.7 drinks per day—mostly Pepsi-Cola. One guy said he drank 6 a day—I'd like to advise him to slow up unless he wants to be 4-F material.

this debt. Because we at small colleges believe that everyone has a right to participate in as many extra-curricular activities as he can and because we wish to guard against any one group controlling the paper, all who wish to write for the paper are allowed to try out. This does detract from the final merit of the paper in that most of our stories are not well-written, we realize.

Loyola Maroon, Loyola University of the South, New Orleans, La.: The University news sources are divided into beats which are covered weekly by students in newswriting class and some editing students. A definite copyreading schedule, with copyreaders recruited from the editing class, is drawn up and posted each week. For this work students receive grades which are counted in final classroom marks. Likewise a schedule of workers for the proof-reading and layout work at the printers is posted so that students get an opportunity to observe first hand the mechanics of getting out a paper.

Mac Murray College Greetings, Jacksonville, Ill.: Probably the outstanding feature of the MacMurray college Greetings is the fact that we have conducted for the last two years what is known as the "Survey of Student Opinion." This started through the ordering by part of our staff of a little pamphlet from Dr. Gallup of the American Institute of Public Opinion. The students read these pamphlets and organized a simplified system for sampling public opinion at the college. Our process is somewhat as follows: On Monday of each week the three students in charge of the student poll pick out the questions for the coming week. These are mimeographed on Monday and placed in each student's mailbox on Tuesday. By Wednesday noon the material has been returned to the institute box and tabulation is made on Thursday.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Well, we feel that you won't need much of an introduction to the Spotlight for this time, because Harold Taylor really gets around on this campus. Harold is very blonde, five feet ten and one-half inches tall, and weighs 156 pounds. (It sure is nice to find someone you can take inventory on, and they don't even object to its appearing in print. But this is typical of Harold's good nature and willingness to help.)

As a freshman Harold was a member of the Debate club, charter member of the YMCA, and began his career on the college newspaper. He has remained an active member of the YM for the four years he has been here. He served as an associate editor of the paper his junior year, and this year. During his junior year he served on the "Y" cabinet. For three years Harold has been in the Phi Sigma Pi, acting as assistant secretary his junior year, and secretary this year. In case you are wondering how his political interests lie, he was a member of the YDC for two years.

Harold's career as a journalist has been very interesting. From the duties of reporter his first two years, he turned to those of an associate editor his last two years. He has been in charge of the servicemen's column and has to say of that duty that he has enjoyed the job more than any other one he has had. He gets quite a bit of "fan" mail from his readers. During his junior year he attended the Press Convention in Winston Salem. "I'd like to go into the newspaper world after the war," states Harold. He developed this life's ambition by working on this paper.

Between his junior year and his senior year this energetic young man turned "from scholar to a machinist, back to a scholar." Translated, that means he dropped out of school for a year to work in the Norfolk Navy yard in Portsmouth, Va. Thus, he received a taste of Navy life, or rather a peep in on what it's all about. Maybe that is where his enthusiasm for the Navy began. Anyway, he is now in the V-7 and thinks he will go in training shortly after graduation the last of May. When asked why he chose the Naval Reserve, he replied, "Because I think it's the best branch of the service!" Good reason.

"My hobby? Oh, courting," stated Harold in reply to the reporter's question. "A mixture—blonds and brunettes, mostly brunettes, though." When the reporter insisted that he must have another hobby he confessed that he collects feature stories from magazines and newspapers. He also collects pictures of ships. Harold enjoys tennis (as you will notice by his red nose and bleached hair lately), basketball, and swimming. He dances, "more to associate with people rather than a love of dancing." Modern fiction is the way his taste runs in literature. He was a member of the Book of the Month Club until a couple of months ago. He has a nice library that he hates to leave behind when he goes to the Navy. He doesn't go to the shows much, had "rather loaf in the 'Y' store... more than anything else." Pepsi-Colas and cream puffs are his favorite attractions in the 'Y' store. He loves to eat!

"I think all girls are fickle and dangerous." Amazing remark but that's what he said. He says he is a bashful little boy, but he couldn't take time off from a "heavy date" to finish this interview!

During the summer of '39 he hitchhiked to the New York World's Fair with eighteen dollars in his pocket and adventure in his blood. On his way he stopped at Philadelphia and visited the Inquirer office. He had quite a trip with plenty to eat, he insisted, and came back dodging floods, and thirty-five cents in his pocket! Hitch-hiking was once a favorite pastime of his. The next thing he will probably be hoping a ride with will be one of Uncle Sam's vessels and we wish him all the luck in his endeavors. "I really want to help lick Hell out of those Japs!" says he, and here's hoping he does!

SCUMMING

By The Keyhole Korrespondent

Now that spring has put leaves (protection) on the bushes and drawn ECTC lovers out of hibernation in the dorms, the Keyhole Korrespondents of old have emerged from red flannels and warmth of the kitchen stove to bring you a bit of the good earth (dirt to you, chum!).

We'd like to know who Harry Willey appointed as Claudia Jordan's guardian when he left for the army? There seems to be a little conflict—she has too many guardians. Margaret Greene ain't so happy anymore either since Carl left—and she's being true to him too, almost!

That Peacock-Beck affair ain't lagging any these warm Spring days. If you want to find Peacock just look for "Tete."

Dramatics have some social advantages all right. Ever since "Ladies in Retirement" was presented Virginia Cooke and Willie Greene have been rehearsing a lot.

Pull off your winter undies, my chilluns, and let's start on out-door back-to-the-woods campaign. I hear you saying—"But what has ECTC to offer in the great outdoors?" Suppose that complaint, "cause here's a list to set you going—tennis, bicycling, bowling, skating, hiking, badminton, horse-shoe pitching, softball, and archery. Just an old sweater 'n skirt won't do to give M'lady a fresh from the sports-bandbox appearance for her sports' hero or her own morale. So here's hints from the wise ole owl.

Starting at top: Maybe your hair stays in place for an afternoon of galavanting even when the winds on high, the game gets tight or when racing through town 'n country—but that's not the way I heard it. Pigtails tied in bright ribbons rate high in appeal and in efficiency too. Or perhaps you'll want to turn Hindu and swath your raven locks in a turban.

Dresses shed their sleeves, backs, and maybe midriffs and join the sports band wagon.

Shorts, slacks, dresses—all come in a profusion of colors and materials. Shark-skins, madras, denium, gingham, linen; pink, pale yellow, lemon yellow, black (the sophisticated), green—any of these add up to good-looks, my lady.

Greene Reveals Program For Spring Intramurals

Billy Greene, senior physical education major, is serving as assistant to Mr. O. A. Hankner in the physical education department and as chairman of the men's intramural sports program for this quarter.

Billy arranged the softball, tennis, horseshoe and track programs for this spring. The softball games are now being played in a five of nine series between teams captained by Buddy Murray and Floyd Woody with Billy officiating.

Greene has announced that immediately after the softball season a track meet will be held. A number of events have been planned and a field day is planned for the first tennis round was held Wednesday.

Before the war interrupted the regular sports program at ETC, Billy was a first-string member on the grid squad and regu-

Murray's Demons Win Season's First Game

Pounding the pill for 11 safe blows, Buddy Murray's Demon Deacons knocked out a 9-2 decision over Floyd Woody's Woodpeckers in the first game of the current intramural softball season played on the athletic field April 21.

The Deacs were paced at the platter by Elvy Forrest, who collected a homerun and a single in two official times at bat. Brant Waters collected two doubles for three trips. Carlyle Cox appeared in a pinch-hitting role and contributed a two-run double. Wiley Brown and Murray got two for four.

The Woodpecks could connect for but six safe blows on the pitching of Brown. Stanfield Johnson got two of those, including a two-base hit. Joe Lassiter and Woody shared mound duties for the Peckers.

Score by innings:
Woodpeckers 000 200 0 2 6 0
Deacons 103 113 x 9 11 2
Batteries: Lassiter, Murray and Butler; Brown and Murray; Umpire, Greene.

Smith Stars As Peckers Win, To Play Deacons Again Today

Eugene Smith's towering homerun down the right-field line with two out and two aboard in the last inning scored the tying and winning runs as Floyd Woody's Woodpeckers edged a 13-12 decision over Buddy Murray's Demon Deacons in an error-marked game Wednesday afternoon.

This was the second victory in five starts in the five-of-nine games series with the Demons for the Woodpeckers. The two teams meet this afternoon on the athletic field in a crucial battle. A win for the Peckers today will knot the series at 3-3, while a victory for the Demons will give them what might prove to be a decisive 4-2 lead in the series.

Going into the last inning of Wednesday's battle, the Peckers were trailing by a 12-9 score. Captain Woody worked Clyde Mann for a walk, stole second, reached third on an infield out and scored on a sacrifice bunt. Mann walked Nick Zuras to put two men on base and set the stage for Smith's game-winning blow.

The Demons put together five hits and three costly errors by the Woodpeckers to score eight runs in the first frame. Woody started on the mound but was replaced by Clark after six runs had scored. Woody again went to the mound in the second, but three runs on three errors and one hit caused him to retire in favor of Clark at the end of the inning. Clark allowed only one run on five hits for the last five stanzas.

A single by Zuras, a triple by Smith, a single by Joe Lassiter and a double by Clark gave the Peckers four runs in the second. Two errors, a walk and singles by Smith and Lassiter accounted for four runs in the sixth.

Smith with three for four and Lassiter with two for four paced the winners at bat. Elmo Mayo got four singles for four trips for the Demons. Elvy Forrest and Wiley Brown each hit two for two, and Carlyle Cox hit a double in his one chance at the plate in a pinch-hitting role.

Deacons Capture Third Victory In Softball Loop

Capitalizing on all breaks and playing heads-up ball, the Demon Deacons of Buddy Murray took their third victory in four starts against Floyd Woody's Woodpeckers, 7-6, April 30.

Three Pecker errors helped the Deacons to five runs in the third inning. Five hits, including successive homeruns by G. A. Taylor and Nick Zuras netted the Woodpeckers four runs in the fifth inning.

Brant Waters drove Murray home from first with a triple in the sixth to put the tilt on ice for the Deacons. Murray with three for four, Emmett Fisher with two for three and Waters with two for four led the Deacons with the willow.

Woody with two for three and Taylor with two for four led the Woodpeckers at bat.

Deacons Accept Woody's Donation In Strange Game

Floyd Woody's generosity in giving 17 free passes to first cost his Woodpeckers a game as they bowed to Buddy Murray's Deacons, 2518, in a comedy of errors April 23. It was the second game of the softball loop and the second victory for the Deacons.

Ten miscues by the Murraymen helped the Woodpeckers to most of their 18 tallies. Three Peckers errors helped the Deacons cause.

An eleven-run outburst in the third frame, in which eight men were issued passes to first, put the Deacons ahead to stay. Murray and Wiley Brown paced the winners with two hits each. Murray included a round-tripper in his two. Seuter also connected for the circuit for the victors and Nick Zuras and Randolph Roper hit homers for the Woodpeckers. Woody, Snag Clark and Burney Warren led the losers at the plate.

Nick Leads Woodpeckers To 9-5 Win Over Demons

Behind the steady, five-hit hurling of Nick Zuras, Floyd Woody's Woodpeckers won their first game in intramural softball play, defeating Buddy Murray's Demon Deacons 9-5 Wednesday, April 28.

Highlight of the game was a four-ply hit by Clyde Mann of the losers in the sixth. The Peckers were apparently coasting home with a 5-1 lead in the going into the sixth frame. But at this juncture Wiley Brown beat out an infield hit and Elmo Mayo and Murray were safe on fielder's choices and the bags were drunk. Mann sobered them with a blow to deep center.

In the last half of the sixth Zuras led off with a four-bagger for the deciding run. A few minutes later Joe Lassiter hit a homer with Dick Gaudin aboard to sew up the game.

Beverly Cutler was top man in the Woodymen's 15-hit assault on Buddy Murray with three for four. Woody, Lassiter, Stanfield Johnson, and Burney Warren each got two hits. Carlyle Cox had a triple in two trips for the Deacons. An injured leg caused him to stop at

First Rounds Being Played As Mural Tennis Is Begun

First rounds in the intramural tennis tournaments were run off Wednesday. Men's and women's singles and mixed doubles are included in the program.

In the upper bracket of the mixed doubles Emmett Fisher and Amanda Etheridge took a hard-fought 7-5, 6-4 decision over Marjorie Windle and Carlyle Cox to advance to the quarter finals. Floyd Woody and Sit Knowles drew a bye to reach the quarterfinals in this bracket.

In the lower bracket Brant Waters and Esther Parker drew a bye, and Jerome Butler and Estelle Davis haven't met Harry Jarvis and Inez Lindsay yet.

In the men's singles Floyd Woody has already reached the quarterfinals in the upper bracket. He drew a bye in the first round and defeated Harold Taylor, 6-2, 6-2, in the second round. Taylor stopped William Craft, 7-5, 6-2, in the first round. Carlyle Cox outlasted Harry Jarvis, 2-6, 7-5, 7-5, in the first round and will meet the winner of the Wiley Brown-Burney Warren clash in the second round.

In the lower bracket Nick Zuras and Jerome Butler drew byes for the first round. Brant Waters will meet Emmett Fisher to decide who will play Zuras, and the winner of the Ray Sparrow-Bob Martin match will meet Butler.

In the first round of the women's singles Lee Bledsoe defeated Mildred Jordan, Amanda Etheridge topped Dot Shearin, Esther Parker downed Rachee Robertson, and Frances Leggett defeated Ruth Hall in the upper bracket.

In the lower bracket Dot Peele defeated Jane Vann, Eunice Her-ring defeated Annie Bartholomew, Sit Knowles defeated Nell Murphy and Louise Lindsay defeated Jerry Albritton.

Aux. Elizabeth White Perkins, daughter of Mrs. J. B. White of Greenville, is home on furlough because of the illness of her brother. She has finished the WAAC basic training and is now stationed at Daytona Beach, Florida. Aux. Perkins came to ECTC several years ago. Her present address is 2nd Co., 4th Reg., 2nd WAAC Training Center, Daytona Beach, Florida.

In a letter to Editor Rosalie Brown, Jerome Donaldson, Yeoman 2/c wrote: "I wish to thank you and your co-workers for sending me The Teco Echo. By the time I receive them, the news is rather old, but still it's news to me. Many times they travel around for a month or more trying to catch me. I received the February 27 issue on April 30. I like the Servicemen's Column because it keeps me informed on the whereabouts of friends and classmates." Jerome graduated here in 1941 and went into the navy shortly thereafter. He is stationed aboard the cruiser U. S. S. Savannah, c/o Fleet Post Office, New York, N. Y.

Teachers Divide With High School

ECTC and Greenville high school are even in softball standings for the season, both teams having won one of the two games played to date. The high school team took the first game played on the college athletic field, 13-10, but the Teachers came back to avenge that defeat with a 12-11 victory in the second game.

In the first game the college team outthit the high schoolers 11-5, but errors by his teammates cost Pitcher Floyd Woody the game. Williams with two for two officially was the only high school player to get more than one hit. Elvy Forrest, Elmo Mayo and G. A. Taylor each collected two hits for the college.

In the final game Woody received better support afield and gave up only seven hits, but walks kept him in trouble. The game went into an extra inning and Wiley Brown drove in Forrest with the last of ECTC's 17 hits. Pitcher Bill Harrington with two for four was the only high school boy to get more than one safe blow. Woody got three for four and Forrest three for five for the college. Buddy Murray, Brown, Brant Waters, Snag Clark and Taylor each got two hits for the winners.

Alumni News

Alumni Day Plans

As in former years the Alumni Day program will be on Saturday during Commencement, which comes this year on May 29 through May 31. The program of the Alumni Association will include such significant events as installation of the new officers, citation to the Alumni Award recipient, recognition of the graduating class, and the reports of chapters. In the afternoon President and Mrs. Meadows will hold a most informal "at home" for alumni and the graduating class, and at 6:30 the graduating class will have the traditional Allegiance Service on the campus.

The Honor Classes who will be special guests are the class of 1918, the class of 1933, and the class of 1942.

Other plans for Commencement are similar to those of other years, though somewhat simplified. The next issue of the Teco Echo will carry full details of the program.

Elsewhere in this issue you will find invitations to "come home" and a blank for the necessary reservations. This is the first year in the Association that reservations have been necessary, but this is also the first year that the Association has also been called on to work for Victory against tyranny. If you can come to commencement, fill out blank and mail it on time. If you cannot come yourself, please pass the blank to someone who can return.

Greensboro Chapter

The Spring meeting of the Greensboro Alumni Association of ECTC was held May 1, 1943 at the home of Miss Lila Pritchard and Miss Bess Doub, hostesses.

The guest speaker was Miss Alice Lee Pope who reviewed Gertrude Diamant's "The Days of Ofelia". She was both entertaining and scholarly in her review, and estimated the Diamant story as an authentic and human interpretation of the Mexican scene.

The next year officers are as follows: Mrs. C. A. Jackson (Pattie Bess Doub); Secretary and Treasurer, Lila Pritchard; Program Chairman, Mrs. R. V. Morris (Margaret Smith and Publicity chairman, Alice Pope.

Granville County Chapter

The March meeting of the Granville County Alumni Association of ECTC was held in the Oxford High School library, with Mrs. B. D. Bunn (Iola Finch) presiding.

A very interesting report of the alumni war work was given by the chairman. Time and space will not allow a complete list of the number of activities carried on, but the members of the Granville Chapter have participated most heartily in every undertaking.

To the efforts of the president, Mrs. Iola Finch Bunn, the growth of the active membership was largely due. The eighteen active members have found it a joy to follow their competent leader, who worked so faithfully towards the cause of her Alma Mater.

The following officers for 1943-44 are: Mrs. Nellie Breedlove Hobgood, president; Mrs. Shirley Averette, vice-president; Miss Vida Jones, secretary; and Miss Josephine Catlett, treasurer.

On Sunday night the Vesper service is being jointly sponsored by the YMCA and the YWCA.

Commencement begins on Saturday, May 29 and is culminated with the graduating exercises on Monday morning, May 31.

YW-YM Sponsor Easter Lily Sale

Over forty dollars was realized from the sale of small paper Easter lilies for the benefit of crippled children which was carried on here on the campus and in Greenville, April 27, by the YMCA and the YWCA.

The campaign, planned by Anne Audrey Stevenson and Ed Brown for the YW-YM, respectively, lasted just one day, with a booth in the post office lobby at the college in the morning, and at the social hour in the Wright building in the evening, and one at Five Points downtown both afternoon and evening.

For this sale, the lilies were made by crippled children of North Carolina, and to them the proceeds will go, as the project was inaugurated by the Crippled Children's association of this state.

Miss Davis spoke of the part of the individual student in making the new government a success; and Cox, speaking on the importance of setting a goal and working toward it, pointed out that the new system frees the central council for constructive activities and suggests ways of developing a more progressive student body to play its part in building a stronger institution.

SONG SERVICE

Song service held on the steps of the new Classroom building Friday evening, May 1, took the place of the usual Friday night YW, YM vesper hour.

Songs from the song sheets included hymns, rounds, and many old favorites. The singing was led by Miriam Sexton assisted by Charlotte Shearin, outgoing president of the YW.

'True To Their Pledge,' Says Chesterfields

The current Chesterfield ad pays tribute to the men and women of medicine. American doctors are making medical history... serving on all fighting fronts and doing double duty at home, caring for their own patients and those of doctors who have gone into service. As Chesterfield says, "They're true to their pledge" to serve humanity faithfully wherever the need may be. Copywise, Chesterfield again stresses the importance of proper blending in giving smokers the milder, cooler, better-tasting smoke they like. It ties in its cigarette story with the headline: "THEY'RE TRUE TO THEIR PLEDGE... THEY SATISFY."

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., the makers of Chesterfield, back up their newspaper copy with two top-ranking radio shows: FRED WARING and his gang with Victory Tunes and the Nation's leading 1-minute variety show... HARRY JAMES and America's most popular dance band.

In its printed copy and on the air Chesterfield urges everybody to "Back up the Man in Uniform... Buy War Bonds—Write Letters."

PHI SIGMA PI

Eight new members were initiated into the Tau Chapter of the Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity last Tuesday night. They are listed with their home addresses as follows: Edward Brown, Colerain; Atlas Wooten, Greenville; Jerome Butler, Scotland Neck; William Greene, Crossnore; Sam B. Strickland, Rich Square; William S. Johnson, Conway; J. C. Shepherd, Lexington; Randolph Roper, Bath.

Phi Sigma Pi is a national education fraternity and was founded in 1916 at Missouri State Teachers College. The local chapter was founded in 1936 and now has a total membership of 110. Active members at present number 24.

Dr. Beecher Flanagan, professor of economics, is sponsor of the ECTC chapter and is national historian.

and concluded the group by singing "Into the Night" by Edwards, "Lift Thine Eyes" by Logan, "Sometime" by Russett, and the "Jaintor's Boy" as an encore.

The last group consisted of selections from "Porgy and Bess" by Gershwain, arranged by Pvt. Vernon Kuemeyer, a former student here. The selections "I Got Plenty O' Nuttin'", "Summertime," "Bess," "You Is My Woman Now," "It Ain't Necessarily So," "My Man's Gone Now," and "Finale" were sung by Jean, Lorraine, Linwood, and Mr. Rossell. The audience so thoroughly enjoyed these selections that they sat en masse while the group took several curtain calls and then sang as a final encore portions from Private Kuemeyer's arrangement of Show Boat.

es in vocational guidance. Many have been taught how to use their leisure time profitably without the use of tires and gasoline, by choosing interesting and worthwhile hobbies, by making their homes attractive places for entertaining, and by providing home entertainment for the family and friends.

Many have learned practical ways of maintaining good health and caring for sick in the home in the absence of doctors and nurses, with the aid of equipment which they are taught to improvise. Much Red Cross work has been done by student teachers and by high school students under the supervision of student teachers, who also assisted with salvage drives and the rationing program.
