

VIOLET SPARKS

MARY ALICE CAHOON

JEAN SCARBOROUGH

Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity Sponsors Formal Dance

The Phi Sigma Pi fraternity is having its annual fall formal dance Saturday, November 18, at 8:45 in the Wright building.

The sponsors for the dance are Morris Flow, Erma Hinnant, Jean Scarborough, Mary Alice Cahoon, Violet Sparks, Jack Delysle, and Miss Jean Melver Lane, of the art department.

Morris Flow is not pictured. Members of the fraternity will be in front of the "Y" store and in the post office today, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to sign up those wishing to attend this formal party dance. Bids will be sold at fifteen cents for a single person and twenty-five cents for couples at both the "Y" store and the post office on Wednesday and Thursday, November 15 and 16.

An orchestra has not been selected as yet.

JACKIE DELYSLE

ERMA HINNANT

MISS JEAN LANE

Tryouts Held For Chi Pi Production

Try-outs for the fall Chi Pi production, "A Murder Has Been Arranged," were held Wednesday night, October 25.

J. L. Brandt was chosen for the role of Sir Charles Jasper, a wealthy Englishman interested in the occult. Jimmy Warren plays the role of Maurice Mullins, Sir Jasper's only living relative.

Dorothy Jean Creech has the part of Beatrice, Sir Jasper's wife, and Charlotte Robertson plays as Miss Groze, the secretary. Iris Ruth Smith is Beatrice's mother, and Sarah Moore plays as Mrs. Wrogg, the cook.

Camille Jernigan is a "woman" who provokes a mysterious element. No one has been selected for the role of Cavendish, the band conductor.

"A Murder Has Been Arranged" is an ingenious and imaginative ghost story written by Emyln Williams, the celebrated playwright. The play is blessed with originality—the situation holds one spell-bound throughout.

Thanksgiving Holidays Begin November 22

Dr. McGinnis announced this week that Thanksgiving Holidays will begin Wednesday, November 22 at noon. Class work will resume Monday, November 28.

Is There Detective In The House? Here Is A Mystery To Be Solved

By JEAN HULL

Wanted: One Sherlock Holmes who can solve the latest campus mystery—the case of the missing jars. A number of jelly jars, salt and pepper shakers and vinegar cruets have disappeared from their respective places in the dining halls of ECTC. Some have offered the suggestion that they sprouted legs and walked off. Others set forth the theory that a number of two-legged conspirators are responsible for their disappearance.

So help me, jolly-lovin' friends, it isn't that I mean to land a direct blow right between those two limpid pools of yours, it's merely that when those containers are gone, there jests ain't no mo'. If they continue their ill-disappearing acts, there'll be a day of reckoning when you'll adapt as your theme song, "No jam, no nothin' until my room-mate takes back those jars." (That was straight off the cob, but what with the shortage of grains 'n' everything, I thought—OK. IT hush; this is getting worse and worse.) For the benefit of those who rinse their hair in vinegar, the variety used in the dining hall is not pure apple vinegar, and it's possible that it wouldn't be any too good for the curly locks that make up your "crowning glory."

A recent interview with Mrs. Rives, who is responsible for buying the food that we consume so readily, disclosed the fact that her storeroom is well stocked with foods for which most people practically have to commit first-degree murder. Mrs. Rives, 'way back in the fall of '41 B.R. (before rationing) when prices began to soar, bought considerable amounts of canned goods. It is because of her foresight that we enjoy today canned pineapple, peaches, apricots, etc.

Yes, we're aware of the fact that the food isn't always prepared "the way Mama fixes it," but your mama See MYSTERY on Page Four

Adams Compiles Information On Audio-Visual Aids

Dr. C. L. Adams has received a request from Mr. Neil Gokhale, of Bombay, India, for information on the use of audio visual aids in education here at ECTC.

"I desire to educate some of the leading head masters and school teachers about the very problem of using audio visual aids in teaching and supply them with the best information on the subject," explained Mr. Gokhale. He added, "I am taking the liberty of writing to you personally since I read in the 'Educational Screen' that you are in charge of the Summer Course at your College."

The information requested includes types of lectures, subjects taught, textbooks used, planning and nature of courses in general and a summary of lectures given in courses on audio visual education.

Dr. Adams has compiled the information and will send it to Mr. Gokhale within a few days.

All-Star Opera Quartet First Major Entertainment

By JIMMIE WARREN

ECTC Graduates Of Last Year Have Varied Jobs

By FRED A. CAUDELL

Of the 192 graduates from ECTC last year 144 are now teaching in the schools of North Carolina and nine other states, which are Georgia, Illinois, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington, D. C. The other 48 alumni are employed in various other fields of service.

Of the 192 graduates 159 are working in 49 different counties of North Carolina, and 33 are working or serving in the armed forces in nine other states.

Two of the M. A. graduates are teaching in colleges. They are Mrs. Joyce Hill Hales, teaching here at ECTC, and Palmer C. Holt at Olivet Nazarene college in the state of Illinois.

There are nine alumni doing office work. They are Ruth Allen, Laura Hearne, Louise Nason, Maribelle Robertson Moore, Doris Williams, Geraldine Taylor, Katherine Russell, Louise Jones, Rosalie Brown and Daisy Mayo.

There are four graduates doing laboratory work, Emily Burns, Garnette J. Cordle, Rachel Dixon and Gretchen Webster.

In the armed services there are Hiram J. Mayo, Julius C. Shepherd, Jerome Butler and James Worsley.

In home demonstration work are Pansie Deal and Margarette Ricks. In dietitian work are Elizabeth Creech, Jean Hubbard, Patsy Whitehurst, Ada Willey and Helen Flynn.

Those in war work are Garnette Cordle, Laura Hearne, Mrs. Nell Helms Elizabeth Kittrell, Louise E. Mason, Geraldine Taylor.

Those graduates that are teaching See GRADUATES on Page Four

CORRECTION

In the last issue of the TECO ECHO it was stated that the students had contributed $87.51 to the United War fund, but no mention was made of the amount contributed by the faculty.

The faculty contributed $787, which makes a total of $874.51 contributed here at the college.

Junior-Freshman Dance To Be Held Saturday Night

Tomorrow night the Junior class will entertain the freshmen at the first formal dance of the year in the Wright building. The Marine Recreation band from Cherry Point will provide the music for the gala event.

Bernice Godley, junior class president, will lead the figure and will be followed by other officers of the junior class, Margaret Person, Alta Mae Thompson, Edna Earle Moore, Marjorie Smith, Curtis Butler and Louise Keith and officers of the freshman class and the committee heads in charge of the dance.

Chairmen of the committees are Charlotte Elliot, decorations; Edna Earle Moore, invitations; Mary Young Bass, chaperones; Frances Congleton, refreshments; Jean Scarborough, properties; Mary Blane Justus, figure.

Freshmen and Juniors signed up for the dance in front of the "Y Store" last week, and a big turnout is expected.

Armstrong, Graham Speak To Faculty

Roy Armstrong, superintendent of schools in Goldsboro, and W. A. Graham, superintendent of schools in Kinston, will be guest speakers at a faculty meeting here tonight.

The purpose for having these outside speakers address the faculty is to try to bring about a closer relationship between the college and the public schools of the State.

Although the topics of the talks have not been announced, Dr. McGinnis suggests that they will concern such problems as "What I want in a teacher" and "How ECTC can serve Eastern Carolina."

Request For Additions To Faculty To Be Presented To Legislature

WAA Ask Council For Appropriation

Penny Smith, representing the Woman's Athletic Association, presented a report and asked for an appropriation to the WAA to cover wear on and replacement of their equipment used during the recreational hour on Sunday afternoon, at the Student Cooperative council meeting November 1.

She gave an estimate of the damage done to the equipment and said that the WAA did not feel that it was their duty to bear this expense. After some discussion a motion was made and carried that Penny take the report to the treasurer and ask for an appropriation.

Amanda Etheridge, president, announced that a telephone will be installed in Fleming hall for making local calls and receiving long distance calls.

The Council voted to pay the editors and business managers of the publications on the same plan as last year.

Representatives from the freshman class to the various committees were elected. Macy Bell and Dorothy Harris were elected to serve on the social committee, Etta Carawan on the point system committee, and Marian Early on the elections committee. Grace Whitehurst was elected to fill the vacancy on the handbook committee left by Ellis Bedsworth, who resigned; and Melba Garner was elected to the elections committee to fill the vacancy left by Margaret Hall, who also resigned.

Students Attend Meet In Raleigh

The following students will represent East Carolina Teachers college at the Student Legislature, which is to be held in Raleigh from November 17-19: Dot Peebles, Dorothy Jean Creech, Amanda Etheridge, Ruby Hudson, Katherine Abernathy, Miriam Averette, Louise Keith, Camille Jernigan, Marjorie Smith, Vivian Yulverton, Ann Dale, Clifton Crandell, Mary Alice Charlton, Curtis Butler, Brooks Beddingfield, Bud Jackson, Hubert Bergeron and Joan Hodgins.

The committee appointed to draw up the bills, Louise Keith, chairman, Dorothy Jean Creech, Ruby Hudson, Marjorie Smith and Mary Alice Charlton, decided that we should present two serious bills and one humorous bill. These bills were passed by the delegates at a meeting on November 6.

Dr. Ray C. Petry Is Speaker For Religious Emphasis Week

DR. RAY C. PETRY

Alpha Sigma Selects New Fraternity Pin

A fraternity pin was selected by members of Alpha Sigma fraternity at a special meeting October 31.

The group selected a pin that seems to symbolize best the ideals of the fraternity. A deadline was set for November 14, for mailing the order.

JANICE MOORE MARINE

Janice Moore Marine, senior from Burgaw, died at 11:00 p.m. Saturday, October 28, after only an hour's illness. Janice was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Marine of Burgaw.

Janice attended Atlantic Christian college for her freshman year and then transferred to ECTC. She was majoring in home economics. Janice was 18 years old.

'Y's' Sponsor Religious Emphasis

Dr. Ray C. Petry, of Duke university, was Vesper speaker Sunday night, October 29. He began Religious Emphases week with the subject "Character and Foundation of Christian Education."

Dr. Petry said a Christian education is a means by which we live a little higher—a little better. He gave the functions of Christian education, which are as follows: A means to help us bring together different fields of education; to help us to learn that we never gain truth unless we commit ourselves; to be worshipful in a very mysterious world; and to appreciate great resources of Christian literature.

"The Church in Its Relation To World Society" was the theme of Dr. Petry's closing speech Tuesday night, October 31. The Church, according to Dr. Petry, is two-fold, for it is a human institution as well as a divine institution. In order to minister to the souls of man, it must also minister to his physical body, for the saving of the physical body leads to the salvation of the soul. The Church must be the norm of reconstruction of a sick and uncertain world.

Dr. Petry explained, "Only through the Church can we find a lasting peace."

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, acting president, met yesterday at 5:00 p.m. with Mayor George W. Davis of Farmville, Senators A. B. Corey and Sam O. Worthington of Greenville, and Mr. John Clark, Pitt county campaign manager for Hon. Gregg Cherry, for the purpose of acquainting these men with the need for expansion of the college plant and additions to the staff. Dinner was served by the home economics department at 6:30.

A request will be presented to the State Legislature in January for funds to provide for six additional teachers for the school year 1945-46, for a dean of the college, a director of practice teaching and a director of public relations and student welfare, and for five additional teachers for the school year 1946-47.

"We hope the Legislature may be convinced of our need for the new buildings requested and for the additions to the staff for which we are asking," stated Dr. McGinnis.

Looking forward to a decided increase in enrollment after the war, the administration feels the need for broadening the scholastic program and broadening the opportunities in the various departments of the college. This will necessitate acquiring additional teachers in order to be adequately prepared to serve the students best.

A dean of the college will act somewhat as would a vice-president; he will relieve the president of many minor tasks and duties and leave the president free to devote his full time to his duties as president.

A director of practice teaching and placement will serve as a coordinator of the entire practice teaching program.

According to Dr. McGinnis the director of public relations and student welfare would have charge of the news bureau and would serve as publicity manager for the college. He would also serve as a "recruiting officer" for prospective students.

"I am very much interested in getting the college publicized favorably in this critical year when we are looking forward to expanding our program and launching out constructively to make the college an instrument of larger educational service to the State," explained Dr. McGinnis.

The six additional teachers requested for 1945-46 will include an instructor in industrial arts, one or two instructors in physical education and one or two music teachers.

Earlier this fall a request was presented to the Advisory Budget commission for funds for a post-war construction program, which will include a student union, a health and physical education building, boys' dormitory, girls' dormitory and a dormitory for women teachers.

Freshman Class Elects Officers

Brooks Beddingfield defeated Betty Jervis for the presidency of the freshman class in a run-off held Monday, November 6. Jean Hall was elected vice-president; Hennie Ruth Whitehead, secretary; and Gordon Davis, treasurer.

Other officers elected were Macy Bell, representative to TECOAN; and Mary Whitchard and Mary Hales, representatives to Student Cooperative council. Neil Posey was elected representative to the TECO ECHO in the first election held Tuesday, October 31.

Other students competing in the run-off were Otis Peele for vice-president, Colline Clark and Ozelle Pipkins for secretary, Trudy Loughlin for treasurer, Lida Mitchell for representative to TECOAN, and Bud Jackson, Jewel Jones, Ray Futrell and Ben Dees for representative to the council.

Sons And Daughters Of Alumni Hold Meet

Wilma Kearney was elected secretary of the Alumni Daughters and Sons club at a meeting held Tuesday, October 31, at 6:30.

Alma Lee Whiteley was elected chairman of the program committee. Katherine Sprinkle and Helen Rouse were appointed to serve on this committee.

It was decided that the meetings would be held the last Tuesday night of each month. Fifteen were present.

More Variety Desired In Major Entertainments

For the past few years there has been a tendency for the Entertainment committee to schedule only opera singers, ballet dancers, concert pianists and other "high-brow" entertainers for the main attractions of the year.

Perhaps this is the reason for the poor attendance at these programs. There should be more variety in the types of entertainments, rather than have the same types each year. We are not criticizing the selection of opera singers, etc., but we feel that there is a need for other forms of entertainments also.

For example, Charlie Spivak and his orchestra came here three or four years ago, and a tremendous turn-out of students resulted. At least one entertainment of this nature should be scheduled each year.

As a solution to the problem of poor attendance at the major attractions of the year we suggest that there be more variety in the types of programs.

Expansion Aims Depend On Favorable Publicity

Evidence that the college officials are looking forward to a decided increase in enrollment after the war is shown by the announcement by Dr. McGinnis that eleven additional teachers and three more members for the administrative staff will be requested when the State Legislature meets in January.

These few weeks between now and the time the request is presented to the Legislature will be critical times for the college. The college must be publicized as favorably as possible during this period. It will be necessary for the students and faculty to work in close harmony to impress the legislators and citizens of the State in such a way as to make them see the need for granting our requests.

East Carolina Teachers college is rated highly as a teachers college. With the necessary additions made to the faculty, to the college plant and to the administration, and with the close cooperation of everyone concerned ECTC can hold the first-place rank. Let's all strive to make it so!

Sympathy

The faculty and student body of East Carolina Teachers college wish to extend their sincerest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Marine in the death of their daughter, Janice.

We deeply regret the loss of one of our fellow students.

TheTecoEcho

Published Biweekly by the Students of East Carolina Teachers College

Entered as second-class matter December 3, 1925, at the U. S. Postoffice, Greenville, N. C., under the act of March 3, 1879.

TOM WILLIAMS . . . Editor-in-Chief

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

Jean Goggin, Jimmy Warren, Frances Congleton.

REPORTERS

Marjorie Smith, Curtis Butler, Elsie West Violet Sparks, Kathryn Sprinkle, Thelma Cherry, Hubert Bergeron, Edna Earle Moore, Amos Clark, Mary Young Bass, J. L. Brandt, Jean Hull, Edna Vann Harrell, Freda Caudell, Etta Frances Harper, Jean Hodgson, Evelyn Lewis, Bud Jackson, Ruth Whitfield, Betsy Hellen, Joyce Strickland, Nan Little, Ella Cashwell.

RUBY HUDSON . . . Assignment Editor

NEIL POSEY . . . Sports Editor

JACK JOHNSON . . . Photography Editor

MARGARET NISBET . . . Cartoonist

BUSINESS STAFF

SYBIL BEAMAN . . . Business Manager

ASSOCIATE BUSINESS MANAGERS

June Brandenburg, Rosa Alice Lancaster, Mary Elizabeth Wooten, Jean Ipock.

DR. BEECHER FLANAGAN Faculty Adviser

GRAHAM T. OLIVE . . . Technical Adviser

Member: North Carolina Collegiate Press Association, Associated Collegiate Press. Represented for national advertising by—National Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, San Francisco.

Need For Participation In Intercollegiate Sports

There has been some talk about having intercollegiate basketball this year. If it is at all possible to do so, it would be a very definite help to the sports program.

Of course, intercollegiate sports have been greatly hampered by the war; however, many schools have managed to continue their sports programs, and we should like to see ECTC fall in line.

The problem of getting money for transportation seems to be the bottleneck at present. Before the war this was taken care of by an appropriation by the budget committee from the student activity fee.

Since intercollegiate sports are a vital part of most college programs, we feel it is only fair that ECTC be given an opportunity to resume its place in the college sports world.

Memorial Planned For Christenbury

Dr. W. S. DeLoach
Mr. O. A. Hankner
Mr. J. B. Cummings
Miss Lois Grigsby
Mrs. Agnes Barrett

It seems fitting and appropriate that some sort of recognition be given by our college for the fine spirit and service rendered to the college by John B. Christenbury, who was a member of our faculty in the Department of Health and Physical Education during the years 1940 to 1943.

Will you please serve on a Committee to decide upon some appropriate memorial in honor of Mr. Christenbury. Mr. Christenbury was probably one of the most popular persons who ever served on our faculty. He had a most wholesome influence on the students, and his cheerfulness was an inspiration to all who knew him.

Respectfully,

Howard J. McGinnis, President.

SCUMMING

By The Keyhole Korrespondent

Gee!!! What big ears and eyes I've got. See all, hear all, and tell all—That's me gals and guys!!!! Well, you guessed it. It's me and here I am again!!! Off to a snooping stooping start!!!!

First, I'm terribly sorry I made the awful mistake last time and wish to apologize for calling Larry James, Larry Brown. And by the way, he and Cora must still have it bad. How 'bout that, Cora???

Speaking of having it bad, what do "yawls" think about Beverly Cutler and Sue Edwards. You never see one, but what you see the other!!!! What's going on here kids! Beverly, won't you even trust her from the dining hall to Cotten by herself??

It seems that somebody's off the beam—I thought Jack Edwards was supposed to be in love with Jackie DeLysle, but from all I see and hear, he seems to have made the rounds—Lillian Harris and Audrey—aw for goodness sakes it would take columns and columns to name 'em. Where did Jackie come in!!!!

Well, we've heard of all kinds of gifts, but Lois McLeod "takes the cake" with hers

SADIE HAWKINS DAY, Nov. 11

—last week, we understand, she received a gorgeous radio from some cute Jyrine. Is this right, Lois?

Wonder what happened to Lib last week when Clifton Nelson came up? Where did you keep yourself, Lib? Was that nice to go away??? We hope it's not all over!!!

What in the heck stopped Mary Lou, Evelyn and Cora all of a sudden? Couldn't be "social privileges," could it girls????

John, we are beginning to believe that you have been getting Erma and Nora Lee mixed up—or is it that you just can't study when Erma is around???

Some girls get all the breaks! If that had been the old keyhole Korrespondent's fellow he would have been shipped right out! Dixie Surge, you get all the breaks!

Virginia Small, you certainly are seeing quite a lot of a certain little civilian! Where is the soldier, Virginia?

We hear that Frances Eakes doesn't mind taking telephone calls in the wee hours of the morning if they are from a certain little serviceman in Arkansas. We wouldn't either, Frances.

In the eyes of the old keyhole Korrespondent Mary Buckmaster certainly is a good looking girl. For your information boys, she lives in Jarvis hall.

Nell McQueen, that shore was a cute Lt. that walked home with you the other night. How about letting us in on how you do it!!

We hear that cute little blonde Edna Vann Harrell has been getting a rush lately—Which will it be Vann? Tom or Amos??

Why doesn't Ray Futrell make up his mind?

Billy Ferrell's interest seems to be anchored in the "Y" store between third and fifth periods with a certain little blonde day student.

If anyone has noticed that certain gleam in Brownie's eyes lately—it could be that her one and only is home on furlough.

We hear Bud Jackson has been hanging around Jarvis quite a bit lately—how about it Mary Young??

It seems that Margarette Butler can't make up her mind—one day you see her and she has her diamond on her right hand—the next day it's on her left—but after all it is the same difference—'cause Margarette has two rings that that certain little Jyrine gave her.

We notice that Grace Davis is stepping out quite a lot. She is doing her bit to keep up the morale of the Marines here.

Edna Earle, don't you know that it isn't nice to make more than one date at a time? Oh, these girls that get all of the men!!

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

By Jean Goggin

Cpl. Donald Propst whose address is now 14th Co. S. T. C., A. P. O. 853 c/o Postmaster, Miami, Fla. is teaching English to Spanish-speaking soldiers. He writes that he is enjoying the tropical sunshine but in no way can it compare with the sunshine of eastern, N. C.

L. Ray Sparrow's (a former TECO ECHO staff member) address is now c/o S. S. James R. Randall, c/o International Freight corporation, c/o Postmaster N. Y.

Mary Frances Pyrd, American Red Cross staff assistant is now serving in England. Mary Frances joined the Red Cross in August and received her training in Washington, D. C.

Lt. Charles Clark instructor in the Army Air force, is now stationed at Freeman Field, Seymour, Ind.

Pvt. Robert Young was recently injured when with three other crew members he was forced to parachute from a plane returning from a training cruise over the Gulf of Mexico. Bob is now stationed in Texas.

Ens. Metzel Simmons is now home on a 15-day leave after having completed a course at communication school in California. Prior to this he served overseas for seven months. He was in the invasion of the Miarianna's New Baihan and New Guinea.

Metzel graduated from ECTC in 1942 and received his commission in July 1943.

Heaman H. Roberson Jr. S 2/c is now stationed at Bainbridge, Md. His address is Co. 4, Sec. 2, NAPS, USNRC.

Midshipman Sydney Dunn is now at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. He writes that it is a far different place from ECTC—no women.

Word has been received that Joseph Walker was killed in action in France on October 7. He entered the armed forces about eight months ago. Joe was a graduate of ECTC.

Lt. W. A. Davidson Jr., has been missing in the Pacific since October 13. He has been overseas more than two years.

Jack Edwards, who has the wings of the glider corps, is now in officer candidate school at Camp Lee, Virginia.

Cpl. Floyd Eamon has been stationed in England for the past eight months.

We appreciate the letters that we have received from you servicemen telling of your activities, but there are still a lot of you who have not written. How about taking a few minutes to write us about your activities?

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

By Hubert Bergeron

If you should ever walk down by Wright building one day and hear the immortal strains of Beethoven come floating out the window and then suddenly hear some good hot jive burn up the joint, then you needn't go any further. Camille Jernigan must be inside.

Camille, president of the senior class, is one of ECTC's most versatile students. She not only plays the piano like an accomplished concert artist, but takes part in many school activities. A member of the English club, the Poe society, the YWCA, the Glee club and the Chi Pi players, Camille still takes time from her studies and extra-curricula activities to do a little "loving." At the moment her nights are occupied. She's appearing in the forthcoming Chi Pi production "A Murder Has Been Arranged." And of all things she's playing the part of a "ghost."

Cheese, fried chicken, and caramel cake are the foods that remain her favorites. She likes to collect records, read books (especially those of Lloyd Douglas), dance, play bridge and go to the movies. Her favorite composer is Chopin, and when Camille plays him he's "strickly in the groove."

Two years ago Camille sat in the orchestra pit in Austin and accompanied that wonderful production Martha. "This was the most thrilling experience I've ever had," she says. Last year she was kept busy being the chairman of the Entertainment committee and serving as accompanist to student recitals. During the last two years she has been a marshal, and last year she was chief marshal.

"Music," she states "is the most important thing in my life. Well nearly the most important." Camille has been playing the piano ever since she was in the grammar grades. Just a few weeks ago she gave a program in chapel, and last Spring she appeared in a student concert. She well deserved the reputation of being one of the most accomplished students on the campus. She wants to teach music in high school at some city, preferably in North Carolina.

She likes to improvise on such popular tunes as "Star Dust" (which by the way is her favorite popular piece), and can, with the twinkling of an eye, switch to the classics without losing any mood of the music.

The general consensus is that the girl with the nimble fingers and sparkling personality should make a name for herself one day. "Carnegie Hall, here I come."

Bits o' Fashion

BY SUE

Comes November. So let's talk turkey about what makes a well-dressed gal the "apple of his eye" for a campus co-ed or a visiting G.I.

First of all he'll want a gal dressed to fit the weather. Now that old man winter has come out of hibernation and days are clear and cold, a wise 'un is interested in coats.

Had you noticed? Coats this year are softly tailored. The Chesterfield, that versatile, straight-hanging box coat, still rates high for school girls, but your campus credits will zoom way up yonder if you choose one of the newer fitted coats.

There are coats that are fitted, Princess style and other coats with loose gathers caught in 'neath a tie-belt, and still other coats that are semi-fitted, cut with a flare.

Our smart model sports a snappy number. McCall 5758. It's a princess coat that claims a unique style creation, for the center front panels drop from the shoulder seams down to the waistline and sweep over toward the hips, outlining deep pockets. From the tip of each pocket the panel-line drops to the hem. The seams are outlined with top-stitching—a style note that's top-notch this year. Like it? He'll think it's a home!

Here's a little tip—when he takes her for a brisk campus walk or to a football game, a smart one will wear a coat that's warm and cozy, for chattering teeth just aren't becoming, and a personality won't show the pretty side if it has to break down a barrage of goose-bumps.

A coat to go a-dancing, to tea, or to church—that's when a school gal chooses the fur-trimmed coat. But better still is the plain cloth coat dressed up with fur hat, fur buttons or fur belts. These are all still stories that catch the eye. The raglan sleeve has returned to the fold and makes into a semi-dressy coat that's popular in a school wardrobe.

What goes under a coat? If a gal chooses a dark, basic color for a coat, she'll want under-coat dresses 'n suits, skirts 'n sweaters to be gay. Top a spicy yellow suit with a tie-belt topper in a warm, rich brown. It's a date-bait, and better! But on the other hand, if she chooses a coat in a bright cheery color, she'll pick deep shades for under-coat contrast. F'instance, a raglan reefer top-coat in bittersweet covering a Chinese coolie dress in shiny black.

... And remember, go slow on the Pumpkin Pie, for he likes his gal to be a smooth chick!

—McCALL SCHOOL SERVICE.

NEW BOOKS

Classified—Orton, Catalog of Reprints in Series; Orton, Cumulative Book Index; Poer, Benjamin, Descriptive Catalog of U. S. Publications; Pomeroy, Elizabeth A. B. C.'s for Hospital librarians; N.C.E.A., Library Book Catalogue; Americana Annual—1944, Americana Corp.; Johnson, Thomas H., Men of Tomorrow; Nine Leaders Discuss the Problems of American Youth; Farbor, Marvin, Ed., Philosophical Essays in Memory of Edmund Husserl; Parkes, Henry B., Pragmatic Test; Ward, James, Essays in Philosophy; Wilson, George A., Reckoning With Life; Joad, C. E. M., God and Evil; Hogue, Helen Gibson, Bringing up Ourselves; James, William, Essays on Faith and Morals; Aspects of Ethical Religion; Westermarck, E. A., Christianity and Morals; High, Stanley, Faith for Today; Garrison, W. E., Faith of the Free; Selwyn, E. G., Ed., Essays, Catholic and Critical; Eddy, George S., Man Discovers God.

POET'S CORNER

The moon was high,
The road was dark,
A perfect place
To stop and park.
I gave a sigh,
I gave a groan,
I cursed the fates,
I was alone!

The gum-chewing girl
And the cud-chewing cow
Are much alike,
Yet different somehow.
What is the difference?
Oh yes, I see it now.
It's the intelligent look
On the face of the cow!

—JEAN HULL

ALUMNI NEWS

Charlotte
The first meeting of the Charlotte chapter was held at the home of Mrs. Laura W. Rogers, 916 E. Park avenue.

The new officers are as follows: President—Mrs. H. J. Steagall (Rosa); vice-president—Mrs. J. B. Harris (Vera Miller); recording secretary—Mrs. A. S. Bynum (Emma); treasurer—Mrs. Bernadine (Sandra); secretary—Mrs. Lannie R. Rogers (Nancy Brantley); program chairman—Mrs. J. F. Piper (Helen Lewis); and means chairman—Mrs. Ruth Preece Laney; hospitality—Mrs. W. T. Harding, Jr. (Alice Best); membership—Mrs. I. R. Carrington (Sue Miller); servicemen—Mrs. J. B. Davis (Evelyn Terry); and your book—Miss Lucy Hanks.

Charlotte can boast of 33 paid members of the Alumni association. Mrs. J. W. Rogers has done a masterful job of contacting and securing that many members.

Plans for the year were made and an informal dinner was given at Kuester's on Tuesday, November 14th, with the members of the members as special guests.

The annual Christmas boxes for servicemen overseas who have been notified by the chapter through the Alumni association.

Following the meeting refreshments were served. Those present, in addition to the above named officers and chairmen, were Mrs. E. L. Moore (Agnes Lloyd) and Mrs. Irving Sawyer (Glenney Mangum), the district president of the South Eastern district.

Miss Jones, class of 1944, brought greetings from Burlington and the Alumni chapter there. Three meetings have already been held this year. The officers for 1944-45 are: president—Ella Outland; vice-president—Nancy E. Hinson; secretary—Anna Laura Wilkerson; and treasurer—Mrs. Jennings Bryan.

The first meeting was an outdoor affair. The second was a social meeting held at the home of Mrs. Steagall with Mrs. Anna Outland.

Gray, where are you going. You cannot run. The spirit of the boy that you killed will fret and tear your room to pieces as it did in the mind of the owner.

Charlton, you, the capable administrator of upperclassmen affairs shall dread any future announcements as you made the freshmen dread them. "Paddles shall be 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick, 4 inches of handle and have an overall length of 16 inches. They should crack loudly enough to be heard ten miles away when properly used." Each new announcement will bring more destruction to you.

"Chief" throw your gun away; it will do you no good. Each night as you walk your rounds the bushes will come alive and send you fleeing to whence you came from, only to have the bushes there send you back. Your weight will drip till finally you drop.

"Here lies 'Chief' who guarded the doors of ECTC until he spanked a freshman during the week of October 23 to 27 in the year of 1944." (Epitaph).

Roses to the upperclassmen who did not try to kill us. Bergeron.

Arnold Presents Budget For Acceptance By 'Y'

Friday night Vespers, November 3, was the regular business meeting. The devotional was conducted by Mildred Wellons.

President Willie Mae Daniels presided. Sara McKenzie, chairman of the membership drive, reported that the YWCA has a total of 265 members. Pearl Arnold, treasurer, presented the budget for the year, which was accepted by the "Y" at large.

Willie Mae Daniels announced that the World Student Service Fund drive will be held on campus the first week in December.

Home Economics Club Plans Future Programs

It was decided at the Home Economics club meeting in November, that the president, Lillian Hines, appoint a committee to draw up plans for future programs.

The names of the people on the committee and the topics of the future programs, along with a paper for suggestions or other topics, will be posted on the Home Economics bulletin board in the Classroom building.

After a general discussion of suggested topics, songs were sung and refreshments served.

Parker, Miss Helen Stone and Laura Wilkerson as hostesses. A report has not been received of the third meeting.

Roanoke Rapids

The meeting of the Roanoke Rapids chapter of ECTC Alumni association was held at Coltrane hall, with Mrs. Chris Lambert (Margaret Moore), the retiring president, presiding.

The following officers were elected: President—Miss Margaret Lewis; vice-president—Mrs. Chris Lambert; and secretary-treasurer—Miss Elizabeth Wilder.

Miss Mary Lowder was appointed to write the history of the chapter. There were ten members present.

Rocky Mount

Miss Rachel Blanchard was hostess to the Rocky Mount chapter Thursday evening, November 2, at the home of Mrs. John Coleman. Plans were made for the coming year. A social hour was enjoyed after the business meeting.

The following are the officers for 1944-45: President—Rachel Blanchard; vice-president—Mrs. C. E. Priovott (Annie M. Collier); secretary—Mrs. John H. Hayes (Patricia Farmer); and treasurer—Mrs. Lucille B. Hall (Lucille Bullock).

Alumni Visit Campus

Lee Bledsoe and Ruth Davis, two of last year's girls, who are teaching in Roanoke Rapids, returned to the campus for the week-end. Three others from the '44 class are teaching there also: Grace Clarke, Genevieve Hodgson and Margaret Lewis.

Miss Julia Taylor, two-year graduate in 1921, and her sister Mrs. C. A. Elks (Mary Taylor), AB class of '33, were recent visitors on the campus. Miss Taylor is doing public welfare work in Louisiana, while Mrs. Elks is carrying on her husband's business in Scotland Neck, N. C., while he is in service.

Holland Named President of Club

Mrs. J. C. Holland, (Alla May Jordan), class of 1919, credit manager of the Cooper Furniture company, Raleigh, has been made president of the Raleigh Credit Women's club. She was installed at a candlelight service Friday night, October 27, 1944.

ARCHERY CLASS AT PRACTICE

Fleming Hall Players Win In Soccer Tournament

All-Star Team Is Selected For Football

A touch football all-star team has been selected. Both intramural teams got an even share of all-star players.

Members of the all-star team are as follows: James Parker, back, Warhaws; Jesse Parker, back, Mustangs; Jackson, end, Warhaws; Tripp, back and captain for the Mustangs; Cherry, end for the Mustangs and Possey, center for the Mustangs. Culler, back and Crandell, end, received honorable mention.

The All Star Team was selected by Coach Hankner, head of the Physical Education department, Jesse Parker, captain of the Mustangs, James Parker, captain of the Warhaws, Tripp, captain of the old Thunderbolt team and Neil Posey, Sport's editor of the TECO ECHO. All star players were selected on their ability, sportsmanship and attendance.

Dr. Ray C. Petry Speaks In Chapel

Dr. Ray C. Petry of Duke university spoke in chapel on Tuesday, October 31. His subject was "Jesus, the Norm of World Reconstruction."

By ELSIE WEST

The last game in the soccer tournament was played Monday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The line-up was as follows:

Fleming
CF D. Peele
RW Mary Barton Taylor
RW Betsy Slade
LB Penny Smith
RHE Dot Warren
CHE Lib Upchurch
LHB Polly Taylor
RF Lucy Winston
LF F. Honeycutt
G Helen Rouse
Cotten, Wilson, Jarvis
CF M. Hall
RI Etheridge
RW M. Stallings
LI Eakes
RHB Averette
CHE Burns
LHB Herring
RF Rivenbark
G Roundtree

The teams fought up and down the field in a scoreless game until the third quarter, when Betsy Slade scored a penalty kick for Fleming. No other score was made in the remainder of the game, and Fleming won with a score of 1-0.

Miss Stallings stated that she didn't know that there were such good soccer players on campus until they came out to play in the last tournament game.

Volley Ball and Field Hockey

The ending of the soccer season brings on volleyball on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7:30 until 8:30 in the Wright building, and field hockey on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 4:00 to 5:00 on the football field back of the Campus building.

WAA Hike

Jean Matthews, head of hiking, has announced that the WAA is planning a hike Saturday, November 11, destination—unknown. All those interested will meet on the Wright building steps at 2:00 p. m. File slips in Cotten office.

VISIT—

Norfolk Shoe Shop

All Kinds of Shoe Repairing

All Work Guaranteed

Buy your ladies' sheer hose at—

•

COMPLIMENTS OF—

McLELLAN'S

Friendly Atmosphere

plus

Good Food

Drinks

BISSETTE'S DRUG STORE

For that lovely photograph for that special person, visit—

BAKER'S STUDIO

THE BEST LINE OF Stationery, Toilet Waters and Notions

—AT—

ROSE'S 5 & 10

Mustangs Defeat Warhaws In Hotly Contested Game

Parker Twins In Tennis Match

The Parker twins are slated to battle it out in the men's tennis tournament. Both boys will be in there swinging their rackets with deadly effect. The game will take place before November 15 in a three out of five set match.

Both boys reached the finals without much difficulty. James' cuts and Jesse's trusty swings won out for them respectively. Aces took their share of the winning points too.

College Boasts Real Swing Band

By RICHARD DAVID

ECTC boasts a real Dance Band, and immediately I hear the question "But where is it?" Fellow "music lovers" you only have to tune your ear to Wright building, second floor, Thursday nights, from 7:15 to 8:15 p. m. to bring in some good solid jazz and jazz. These Thursday night sessions are beginning to assume a warm place in the hearts of our fellow jazz enthusiasts.

Now let's get down to the important thing, the composition of the band. We have four saxes fronting the band with three trumpets and one trombone backing us. Over to the left are the drums, a good base fiddle and a rugged piano. Out front for all to see are three vivacious, curvaceous, vocalists—tried and true products of Dixieland.

We are sending out a call for one or more solid saxes and one or more trombone players. Anyone who is interested and can play any instrument is welcome to come up and try out with the band.

Let us switch to our musical storehouse. We find most of the familiar hit tunes of the past year and of the present, together with a good selection of all-time oldtimers like, "Marie," "Night and Day" and "Begin the Begone."

At each rehearsal we work out a new hit tune and go over some of our old and new melodies. This week we murdered "You Always Hurt the One You Love." All kidding aside, we really gave it a professional touch with the able assistance and direction of Mr. Charles Fisher.

After a few more rehearsals we will be ready to play for your listening and dancing pleasure anytime you, the student body, call upon us. The band can easily be booked, see Dot Peebles, business manager. We think you will like our music.

SAID I WISH I WAS YOUNG AGAIN AND I'D JOIN UP WITH THE WAVES

WAVES perform vital Navy jobs. Without them, manpower demands of the armed forces would be much more severe.

EAT and DRINK

where all COLLEGE STUDENTS meet

K A R E S

VISIT—

BLOOM'S

• COATS

• SUITS

• DRESSES

For that lovely photograph for that special person, visit—

BAKER'S STUDIO

THE BEST LINE OF Stationery, Toilet Waters and Notions

—AT—

ROSE'S 5 & 10

Sports Views

By Neil Posey

Football season is fast closing up. "Old Man Winter" is setting in and tennis is about to say good-bye as the trees become bare.

It's a little early yet to look toward basketball. Prospects for intercollegiate basketball are not so bright. Unless the men students form an organization much like the WAA, no money can be obtained for travel to surrounding colleges and military bases. Unless travel accommodations are found, intercollegiate basketball is out of the question. Latest reports show that if travel accommodations could be obtained, insufficient funds to pay for them would leave us still out in the dark. There is one hope, however, and that is the formation of a Men's Athletic association.

The college had a similar organization a few years ago. Its constitution could be dug up and revised. The revised constitution would then have to be approved by the Student Council before any financial aid could be appropriated to help carry along. Intercollegiate competition would mean bigger and better basketball programs for men.

Red tape is abundant and basketball season is rolling around fast. The playing of intercollegiate basketball is largely in the hands of the men students of ECTC. What are you going to do about it, men?

Honors

Top honors this issue go to football linemen like "Red" McKenzie, Frank Bonner, Ray Futrelle and Clifton Crandell. The important job of "holding that line" fell to these boys naturally. Stockily built "Red" is hard to run around or go through. He received a bad cut below his left eye last week and remained on the sick list for two games. Frank Bonner has been giving the Warhaws serious trouble all season. Frank loves Warhawk territory and stays there most of the time.

Girls Wanted

Speaking of sports reporters the Sports staff of this paper wants and needs a bit of femininity on the staff: a woman is needed to write this column or write one of her own. Women make up most of the students of ECTC and therefore should be given at least part of the Sports page. WAA news in itself is insufficient to do justice to the women or their directors. This call is addressed to the WAA and the Womens Physical Ed. department.

ALL TYPES OF SPORTSWEAR

• Sweaters

• Skirts

• Suits

• Football Colors

SAIEED'S

Compliments Of

Old Towne Inn

Dine and Dance in an Air of Refinement

"We Do Not Sell Beer"

THE BOOTERY

Greenville's newest shoe store invites you to visit them.

THE BOOTERY

Quality Footwear 405 Evans Street

Wiggins, Bonner, Woody Handle Student Fan Mail

Alice Wiggins, of Sunbury, is better known on the ECTC campus as student postmistress for the ever-popular place on our campus, the college Post Office. Alice in her sophomore year decided that she would like to do some kind of work on the campus, so she applied for work, but in no particular field. Upon being assigned to the Post Office she started out on the road to becoming manager of the Post Office in the summer of '43 and the fall of '44.

Alice is also doing her practice teaching at the Greenville High school this quarter; she likes her work at the high school immensely. She will receive her A. B. degree in home economics and science at the end of the quarter.

Alice has also been active in many other activities on the campus. She has served as college marshal, Emerson society marshal, treasurer and reporter of the Home Economics club, associate editor of the TECOAN; and in the summer of '43 she was president of the Student Government and secretary of the Women's Judiciary.

In the Post Office working with Alice are Florence Bonner and Iris Woody.

Florence will become manager of the Post Office at the end of this quarter when Alice takes up the profession of teaching. Florence is from Aurora, N. C. She has also served as Post office marshal.

Iris is from Graham, N. C. This is her first year in the Post Office, she is also serving on the Program committee of the YWCA.

MYSTERY

(Continued from Page One)

didn't have to plan for 900 people. I betcha, I betcha! Two trained dietitians, Mrs. Rose Harrell and Alya Ray Taylor, plan our meals, balancing them according to our daily requirements. Many of those foods are fairly bursting with vitamins. Eat them and you'll have plenty of vim, vigor and vitality. Yes, you!

GRADUATES

(Continued from Page One)

are Jessila Aman, Edna Averett, Mavis Ballance, Annie Bartholomew, Rena Bateman, Gertrude Berry, Helen Blanchard, Blennie Blue, Charlotte Bordeaux, Lillian Boyette, Edith Bradley, Virginia Britten, Virginia Butt, Ella Carawan, Murel Chapman, Dixie Chappell, Emma Clark, Marie Cobb, Roena Collins, Nina Cook, Willie Copeland, Mildred Copeland, Mary Cox, Mary Cozart.

Mrs. Margaret Dale, Bonnie Davis, Doris Davis, Dorothy Davis, Ruth Davis, Annadell Dawson, Wilma Dean, Mrs. Ruth Durden, Doris Edwards, Lina Edwards, Virginia English, Annie Evans, Alice Ferrell, Jane Fisher, Marjorie Fitzgerald, Amy Floyd, Lois Greene, Lucy F. Green, Jane Hardee, Myrtle Harris, Rosalyn Harris, Wilma Hart, Mary Hastings, Vera Hastings, Christine Hellen, Iris Herring, Betsy Hobgood, Genevieve Hodgins, Kathrynne Holder, Anne Holoman, Sybil Horton.

Lillia Hunter, Louise Hunter, Sarah Hunter, Mrs. Blanche Jackson, Helen James, Mary Jefferson, Mildred Johnson, Hazel Jones, Floridel Kennedy, Mrs. Beatrice Kirchner, Mrs. Maxine Lane, Edna Lane, Margaret Lewis, Wilma Lewis, Janice Lister, Evelyn Lyon.

Pearl McDonald, Harold McDougle, Ruth McLean, Lona Madfrey, Bobby Martin, Myrtle Massengill, Clellie Mizelle, Doris Moore, Lorraine Moore, Esther Morgan, Florine Morris, Gladys Mumford, Frances Newby, Blonnie Odom, Sue Parker, Cassie Parnell, Dorothy Pearsall, Annie Perry, Rebecca Perry, Edna Powell, Mrs. Nell Reavis, Margaret Reed, Helen Register, Grace Robertson, Mary Roberts, Viola Register, Frances Roberts, Alma Rouse, Virginia Rouse, Marjorie Rowe.

Dorothy Sasser, Dorothy Shearin, Mary Sheffield, Lucy Smith, Alma Simmons, Martha Spence, Annie Stevens, Helen Stone, Alice Stovall, Grace Taylor, Frances Tunstall, Virginia Uzzele, Linda Vann, Ernestine Vinson, Annie Ward, Gwendolyn Ward, Mabel Watson, Mildred White, Dorothy Whitley, Edith Wilkerson, Hazel Williford, Jessie Wilson, Dorothy Wilson, Mrs. Oleta Wood.

Billie Bennett, Virginia Bledsoe, Nell Carter, Lucille Davis, Ophelia Hooks, Virginia Knowles, Mrs. Carley Johnson, Margaret Liles, Elizabeth Matthews, Frances Robertson, Betty Spruill, Mrs. Mattie Barnes, Nancy Darden, Mrs. Marjorie Phillips, Mrs. Ivy Synder, Mrs. Luella Stancill, Mrs. Erma Turner, Minnie Whittington.

ALICE WIGGINS

McGinnis, Frank Attend Conference

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis and Dr. A. D. Frank attended the Twenty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the North Carolina College conference at the O. Henry hotel in Greensboro, October 25-26.

Dr. Fulton J. Sheen, who spoke on "A Charter for Education," was the main speaker. Dr. Sheen is professor of philosophy at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

Rev. Cuthbert E. Allen, conference president, spoke on "Post-War Changes to Education." A new committee on war relations was organized.

The North Carolina conference was organized to discuss the development and improvement of the educational program of the state schools and colleges.

Two delegates represented each college at the meeting.

ECTC Post Office Has Interesting College History

The college post office has quite an interesting history. Like the mail handled in it, the post office has "been around."

We kick because the mail is not put up on time occasionally, but getting mail now is much simpler than it was in the early days of the college. The girls had to go down town to get their mail. It was later arranged so that the room at the northwest end of Austin (where the "Y" store now is) could be used for delivering mail.

From there the P. O. was moved to the room which is just opposite the TECO ECHO staff room. Only one girl did part-time work in it. This continued until about ten years ago, at which time it was moved to its present locality—the dining hall. The equipment was more than doubled and another worker was added. The P. O. employed two girls for about twelve years until the National Youth administration made it possible to hire two more.

Dr. McGinnis, who was in charge of the post office for eighteen years, was succeeded by Mr. Smiley last May. Dr. Haynes took charge in September when Mr. Smiley became the Dean of Men.

The college post office is the result of a courtesy arrangement with the Greenville post office. It handles insured packages and is now trying to obtain authority to cash money orders. If the College had a branch post office, it would be open all day but would open later and close earlier than now and would not employ college girls.

Happiness And Dejection Reign During Mail Call Scramble

By JEAN HULL

Bang! Shuffle! Scrape! "That darn box of mine stays empty all the time!"

"Oooo, it's from John-ny!"

"Will you move over, pe-leeze!"

"Wow! I hit the jackpot!"

Yes, you guessed it. The scene is the College Post Office. It is rush hour (as when isn't?), and I, along with everyone else, am in a mad scramble to see if I rate a letter, or two or three. I peak over and around all the other anxious students in the fond hopes that I will find some precious parcel lurking in my own dear box.

Of course, the girl whose box is just above mine always manages to get there first and monopolize the surrounding territory. I finally resort to pushing aside a few legs (much to the consternation of my owners!) and crawling bravely through.

I eventually get past this mass of legs only to find that my box is fully three feet away from me. At this point I get a "do or die" expression on my face, set my jaw determinedly, and prepare for a final supreme effort. Upon considerable exertion applied to the afore-mentioned task, I eventually find myself before that all-important box of mine.

But wait! That COULDN'T be my box. There isn't even so much as a post card there! It is merely that nobody loves me any more. Here I work and slave to make my parents proud of me, and they don't even drop me a measly little "ole note to encourage me. I used my best line on that cute Marine I met, and where does it get me?

Suddenly life has lost its luster. An irrepressible gloom settles upon me. My face assumes a haggard expression as I limp through the crowd, desolate, care-worn, a solitary sufferer in this laughing throng of care-free college students who all get at least two five-page letters every day. There is simply no justice, none whatsoever!

However, as some learned person once said, "Every dog has his day." Applied in this case it means that one of these mornings I'm going to be among those privileged characters who read happily over several masterpieces of correspondence, stopping occasionally to bestow upon those less fortunate, who droop about as I once did, a few words of wisdom and enlightenment.

There is another side of this life in the Post Office—that of those care-worn three who are responsible for the distribution of the mail. Of course, you know them—Alice Wiggins, our faithful postmistress, who has served us three years and two summers, and her two able assistants, Florence Bonner and Iris Woody. These patient girls are continually harassed with such questions as, "Did I get a letter today?" "Did my package come?" "Was it insured?" "Has the mail been put up?"

This last is the $64 question. Did you know that some unthoughtful people even go so far as to stand and hang on the door in an effort to attract the attention of those within, merely to ask if the mail has been put up. Naturally, when a dozen or more people disturb those working in the PO, it takes them much longer to put up that all-important mail of yours and mine.

In case you are doubtful about the hours during which the Post Office is open, they are as follows: 8:00-9:00; 12:15-1:00, 1:15-2:00, and 5:30-6:00. Mail is received from the Greenville Post Office before breakfast and before lunch. The packages usually come in before lunch, a package list being posted as soon after lunch as possible.

The campus mail (notices etc.) is distributed three times daily. By the way, such mail should be written on standard size note cards and arranged in alphabetical order as they are dropped in the "local" box.

Have you ever given a false name to one of your ardent admirers in the Marine corps? Then the "sad sack" writes you an adoring letter pouring forth his ardent admiration for you, only to have said adoring letter returned to him by our weary post-mistress, who has searched vainly for the name thereon. 'Tis a sad case, but one which could be easily remedied. Aw, have a heart! Consider those poor girls who have to send back those letters. Now, that's better! We knew you'd see it their way.

McGinnis Speaks On Education Week

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis spoke in chapel on Tuesday, November 7, on "Education Week." He spoke of the many educational institutions which he visited on his recent vacation.

Miss Grigsby, member of the English department, announced that pictures for the TECOAN will be made November 13-16. Dr. McGinnis announced that classes will end Wednesday, November 22 at noon for Thanksgiving holidays, and students will return to begin classes on Monday morning, November 28.

QUALITY and QUANTITY
IN
DELICIOUS
CAROLINA DAIRY'S
MILK SHAKES

- For The Best Always Insist On LANCER'S
Peanut Butter Sandwiches, Salted Peanuts, Candy

DR. J. L. OPPELT

Oppelt Joins ECTC Faculty As Education Teacher

By Amanda Etheridge

"Heck, I might as well take that Education course and get it over with! Let's see, here it is! Ed. 325, M. W. F. 2, Oppelt, E. 201. Gee! I wonder if I will like him." These are familiar words to the people who have "J. L. O." written beside a course on their schedule cards of classes.

Very soon after these words were spoken "Oppelt," the man of mystery, the new teacher about whom the same old questions were asked, died a noble death! We do not grieve over the departure of Mr. Oppelt because he lived only as the result of a typographical error on the schedule of classes and because he brought us much anxiety, for we wondered if he was stuffy, if he was a bore, a lecturer or if he would flunk half of his students.

In "the typographical error's" place there came to life Dr. J. L. Oppelt, no longer a man of mystery because all of our questions have been answered and we have found that Dr. Oppelt is a good teacher, a wonderful sport, and a fine man.

Dr. Oppelt was born in Mapleton, Minn. He did his undergraduate work at Otterbein college, Ohio, received his master's degree at Columbia university and his doctor's degree at Ohio State university. For three years he taught math and science at Central High school, Lorain, Ohio. The next fifteen years were spent in educational administration and teaching which accounts for his excellent ability to make his courses in education realistic. Dr. Oppelt taught at Ohio State university, following his study there and came to us from Simpson college in Iowa.

He has contributed to a number of periodicals, among them, "The American School Board Journal," "The High School Teacher" and "Educational Administration and Supervision."

If you happen to pass the tennis courts on Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday or Sunday afternoon you might hear Dr. Haynes saying something like this, "Okay, Posey, you can stand up now it's safe." If you stop for a minute, you will find that Dr. Oppelt has just executed his favorite stroke.

Alpha Sigma Sponsors Hallowe'en Party

The Alpha Sigma fraternity sponsored a Hallowe'en party Saturday night, October 28, in the basement of the campus building for the student body of ECTC.

Students were attracted by the "Gypsy Camp," where Miss Dempsey told fortunes, as they entered. While inside many interesting games were played. Bobbing for apples, throwing pennies, taking ghost rides, entering the Valley of Death and many others made up a large portion of the night's entertainment. In the lobby, cake chances were sold, and at the close of the party John Charlton was called to the stage to draw for the lucky number. The person holding the lucky number, 399, was Edith Buck, who received a beautifully decorated cake. A large number attended the Hallowe'en party and also the usual dance in the gymnasium.

Entertainment Committee Announces Year's Attractions

Elections Held To Fill Vacancies

A number of student government vacancies were filled in an election of Tuesday, October 31. Nominations for the vacancies, which existed at the beginning of the year, were made at a mass meeting on October 11.

Margaret Hall defeated Marjorie Jones and Doris Franck for the office of secretary of the Student Cooperative council. Defeating Penny Smith, Faye Jessup was elected second assistant treasurer.

Dr. Carl Adams won over Miss Ellen Caldwell and Dr. Beecher Flanagan for the position of faculty adviser of the council.

Beverly Cutler was the only nominee for chairman of the Men's judiciary. Mabel Wynn was also unopposed for the office of vice-chairman of the Women's judiciary.

Brooks Boddinfield, who defeated Kit Blackman, Shirley Braswell, and Elizabeth Cox, will fill the vacancy on the Student-Faculty committee. Although nominations were made to fill the faculty vacancy on the committee, the faculty must elect its own member.

No one of the five nominees for the college marshal vacancy received a majority of the votes cast for that position; Jean Scarborough defeated Dot Peebles in a second election. Doris Brock, Katherine Hester and Alene Vause were the nominees eliminated in the primary.

The Entertainment committee of East Carolina Teachers college has scheduled four attractions and has made tentative plans for other entertainments to be presented during the remainder of the school year.

Robert St. John, noted news commentator, will speak here in early December. On February 1 Mona Paulce, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company and Columbia network artist, will appear in concert.

Young and talented pianist William Kapell will play here on March 5, and Mia Slavenska, glamorous leading Prima Ballerina, Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and star of the motion picture, "Ballerina," will bring her dance ensemble to this campus April 23.

This year season tickets are available to the public. They may be purchased when tickets for the concerts are on sale.

The members of the Entertainment committee for 1944-45 include Josephine Gibson, chairman, Louise Kilgo, Dot Peebles, Miss Marguerite Austin, Mr. Charles Fisher and Dr. A. D. Frank.

LAUTARES BROS.

JEWELERS

Watches — Jewelry

Silver — Gifts

Watch Repairing

"The College Jeweler"

Call For That Much Needed Nourishment While Studying

Garris Grocery

"If It's In Town, We Have It."

You will find gifts for your family and friends

on our third floor

Belk-Tyler Co.

Greenville, North Carolina

Patronize Your College Stores

Stationery Store

A COMPLETE LINE OF SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Soda Shop

THE MEETING AND EATING PLACE OF ALL COLLEGE STUDENTS

DIAL 2861

716 DICKINSON AVE.

Renfrew printing Company

"commercial printers"

Greenville, North Carolina