T
sday, February 14, 1934.
Out of The ART KASS	SEL TO BE	TTCO	DNIIN
	ARCH 6th		LLHU	PATRONIZE TECO ECHO ADVERTISERS
a the pepper pot comes a inquiries from people in		EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS	COLLEGE was the big he man that		Greenville, N. C. Wednesday, Feb.	28, 1934.	Number 9
the Soph, a pretty "little Art Kassel A		lay Is Educational Meet	Senior-Normal C. I.	r. IL ILI.
Carr about a ball game His Urch	estra Well	Received Is Marked Success	S Class to Sponsor Dillients	s Given Jobs Under
To Give (this statement taken from ish can, "W. O. would	ACCESSION AND ACCESSION ACCESSION ACCESSION AND ACCESSION ACCESS	nd Mary Lynn HELD IN RALEIGH FEB. 1	6 Plays March 2nd The	Emergency Relief Fund

we can't ever find the It seems that he and aner-take their girls to the w in the bus quite frequent-

Quoting-"If John Kapelee dd run as fast as his temper. would make an all-American back" And by the way a mber of his acquainances have ken as their theme song, "Oh, John, No." Rivers is "Dunn" cut out! first loves make one a wee bit by or so it seems in the of Louise Taylor and Jimmy enport. If you don't get at I mean, ask them about the ce they heard and couldn't ryndall sounds like a persering name, don't you think? thether or not no-patience and rseverance "May" conquer, reas to be seen. f you don't like some fellow home, just get him to come C T C. We are sure the mosity will vanish. It worked the case of Royal and Davis, he good ole days of chivalry returning. Alice Tyndall vs.

over 'Smith, over an unentified man! And who is the campus hero

Home

ANT

our patro

NDWICHE

SANTS -

DAILY

ORIES

TS - HATS

HOSE, 79c

For Women"

TCH REPAIRED

ep Time or your

/E'S

TARES

efunded.

on is so afraid that scandal Lleak out on him. He must te a guilty conscience for we low for a certainty that he

sels Of the Air" Will Play Here March 6th.

Program Of Semi-Classical And Popular Music To Be Presented.

Art Kassel and His Kassels of the Air which will appear here March 6th, in a concert of semiclassical and popular song hits have been having much success in their radio broadcasting. They have broadcasted over both networks, and are now broadcasting over Station WLW. Art Kassel was born in Chicago in the early part of this century. His family was poor; therefore, he had to go to work Clyde Morton To when only a child.

Realizing the need of some education he worked his way through high school. It was here that he first learned the use of a musical instrument. The in- Ellen Jenkins Is Re-elected strument to which he was as-Business Manager. signed was a clarinet. By the time he had finished school, he Enlargement Of Staff Has had grown so proficient with the Been Made. clarinet that the saxaphone presented no difficulties for him. Clyde Morton who was man-After the war was over, he be- this year has been elected edi- More and More and the More and th was a member of the Army band.

ART KASSEL

Leader of

ORCHESTRA

ART KASSEL'S IN THE AIR

gan playing saxaphone with or-chestras in theatres, cafes and der and der business manager was re-elected. hotels. He was given a chance to take his own five piece orchestra into a chop house. Here he met with great success.

Play Is Coached By Mrs. P. W. Picklesimer.

richment of Curricula. At the Educational Meeting held in Raleigh, February 16, -----One of the most outstanding of the work of reconstructing and present three one-act plays in the plays to be given here in enriching the public school cur- the Austin Auditorium on Friday several years by a Senior class riculum was begun. More than evening, March 2, at eight History Of Firms Recorded was "The Family Upstairs," three hundred representatives of o'clock. This is the twentywhich was given last week by 56 state-wide organizations and fourth annual dramatic perfor-The Seniors Financial help in the form of the provisions of the Federal Aid marry, complicated matters to recommend definite changes Margaret Bland, "Winners All" of each is being published. Grant, played by Theo Easom. further discussion.

Jack Humphrey as Mr. Heller Governor Ehringhaus, Presi- entertainment. did much toward straightening dent Frank Graham of the Uni-out the entanglement of Louise's consistent of North Control of the Uni-"Pink and Patches", the first ber of the staff has interviewed tions. Of these, thirty-three are ler's little white lies. The little tendent of Public Instruction girl. The play won the Samuel history of each who have consister Annabelle, who was al- were the keynote speakers.

ways having to practice her mu- Governor Ehringhaus said that ter Tournament of 1928, and has sic lesson was cleverly repre- what they wanted was construc- been presented often since that sented by Esther Pridgen, tive criticism of the schools. He time, George Wilkerson, as Willie, said, "We must canvass the en- It was written by a North reduce the high cost of living in $15.00 a month. (a minimum of ther who was too young to work We must refuse to recognize Bland.

and too old to go to school, education as a static thing, but During the war, Art Kassel aging editor of the Teco Echo thought his future lay in the must not allow changes to suit every whim and fancy. We must

Mrs. Grant, Charles' mother give the best to secure the best tor for the next year. Ellen was played by Rebecca Curtis, for North Carolina." * and the part of Charles' little In summarizing the day's de-(Continued on page four) velopment, Dr. Graham said that For the next year, there will the fact that so many interests be eight members of the editorial staff instead of the usual Community Sing "Pink And Patches", "Winners All', and "The Wed- Greenville Firms ding" Have Been Selecter

20 educational institutions were mance to be given in this build- scholarships and loan funds will Relief granted to help needy col-The story was centered around present at the meeting. The ing by two-year graduates. The be given to students by a numthe courtship of the older girl, Louise, played by Mary Lynn Pipkin, Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-Dinkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-Pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was held to form prelimi-pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs and was Pipkin Mary G. Parker as Mrs. nary plans for a two year study assistants, Helen Hinton, Marie issue of the Teco Echo, a full January and one-fourth not in Heller, Louise's mother; very of the curriculum. Each orga- Daniels, and Minnie Lee Thomp- story was given regarding these college then. The proportion anxious for her daughter to nization will name a committee son. "Pink and Patches" by and in this issue a short history given girls and boys must be the somewhat when Louise finally and within six months another by Ida Lublenski Ehrlich, and The College people have shown present Student-Body. In acdid fall in love with Charles general meeting will be held for "The Wedding," by John Kirk- much interest in this and have cordance with those instrucpatrick, make up the evening's been anxious to know something tions, forty girls and four boys more of the donors. Some mem- have been given self-help posi-

Edit Teco Echo out the entanglement of Louise's versity of North Carolina, and lof the series, is a tragic-comedy one of the members of the firm or organization. Below is a brief enter for the spring quarter of a North Carolina mountain bit or organization. Below is a brief which begins March 13. The French Prize, in the Little Thea- tributed to the aid funds.

-----S. T. White

Louise's seventeen year-old bro- tire field of Public Education. Carolina woman, Margaret this community is S. T. White's $10 or maximum of $20) for fif-She was a student at Agnes center for hundreds living day, or a little over twelve hours (Continued on page four) around Greenville.

> _____ Frieburg Players To Present Passion Play Here March 19th clothing, dry goods, shoes, and awarded to students who give ----- ready-to-wear. Throughout the evidence of ability to do a high were represented was the proof that reconsideration of the 100 Local People To Be Used entire store low prices coupled grade from our college"

40 Girls And Four Boys Are The Number Of Students At This College Receiving Help Students Aid Under Federal Emergency Relief.

> Forty-four students have been given self-help positions under

> > ..

.

same as that comprising the amount allotted to the college is $675 a month for the next three months, or until the end of the present college year. Each stu-

Store, Incorporated, the buying ty hours a month, two hours a a week. White's Store has the reputa- In the instructions sent out tion of being a bargain center from headquarters emphasis was not only on sale days but at all placed on the careful selection of times. In every department students: "The work is to be low avoids drawn curtains,		four. Those who were elected		proof that reconsideration of the	I in The Cast where their (and the plural	Since that time, the idea of	for this were: Selma Gurganus,	L U.I.I C	school curriculum was needed.	In the Cast.

ere was not a typist error) sha-	a band has been augmented; and		is field Sunday	school curriculum was needed. "Social drifts," he said, "brings	The Freihung Discourse with the Wailed. of the same kind as that which
lows will show so as to pre-	his Kassels of the Air is the re-	Helen Boomer, Isa Costen Grant, Malene Grant, Minnie Margaret	J		THE PERSON AND THE PE
ent circumstantial evidence.	sult.	Gorham, Frances Monk, George	Is Under The Direction Of	part of that drift goes back to	addition of 100 local people will community for twelve years and ing in the past. In some places
And where was Jimmy James		Willard, and Jennie Taylor.	Pat Alderman Author Of	LOUI SCHOOLS and Colleges and	ain Dies et Det Cauli maine de Congestion of work
when he forgot to go to Crimi-	Large Audience	The advertising department	"De Glory Road."	their curricula. Revision of our l	and the new sen-nerp students alors (Jacob	Large Authence	will be composed of Helen Da-		curricula are but steps in our	ers College, March 19. trading centers. will give relief where it is win be composed of ficter bu	At least a thousand people at-	progress. You must be on guard	The Passion Play has been in Much credit is due Mr. S. T. greatly needed.
	Hears Guilford	Elizabeth Wilson, Lola Holt,	tended the Community Sing in
		: Dense Manue Alico	the Commun Duilding Auditorium	that you have more than mere!	Thas been distributed wherever College Choir	Starr and Chessie Edmundson.	Sunday afternoon All sang and	recovery is but a	filler was most needed. They
II C C.	conce unon	Starr and Chessie Eumanuson.	onjoyed it R C Deal who pre-	restoration of our old prosperity.	on the stage the life of Christ, business organizations of Green- In the 14th and 15th centuries ville, among which was White's tive offices, the departments and
Home Grocery Store		The Circulation department	elijoyed II. II. C. Deal, who pre-	it is but a forecast of a tragic	In the 14th and 15th centuries ville, among which was White's tive offices, the departments and
	Program Under The Leader-	will be Lois Leake, Frances Ed-	the around in good humon by high	era of an even greater economic	there were 224 such plays known Theatre, now the State Theatre. teachers in special need of help
NUMBER ONE	ship of Max Noah, Is Di-	gerton Blanche white, Merle	The crowd in good number by mis		in Europe, 159 in Germany alone, He is a man who has the right and the dining room. The spe-
200 E. Fifth St. Phone 383	vided Into Three Parts.	Sasser, Carolyn Clute, Virginia	clever announcements and run-		152 in France and the others were prospective in life, and at all sight qualification of analysis and student
		Goldston, Elma Joyner and An-	ning comments.	problem of curriculum is not so	dotted throughout Italy, Spain, times believes in the future and the requirements of the posi-
"Quality and Service"	The Guilford Choir of Guil-	nie Lee Jones.	Pat Alderman is an excellent	much a question of the method	dotted throughout Italy, Spain, times believes in the future Switzerland, Holland, and Eng- land. There are in Germany to- day, 42 passion plays—most of them local presentations. The Frieburg play has the distinction Frieburg play has the distinction
We Carry a complete line of	ford College, North Carolina,		leader using just enough stage	of teaching but what is to be	land. There are in Germany to- college. The list have been selected
Groceries, Meats and	was presented to an appreciative	FRESHMAN CLASS	business to get interest then not	taught He said that three	day, 42 passion plays—most of from the list of applications on Vegetables	audience last Saturday evening	HOLDS MEETING	letting a song go until it is sung	things should be kent in mind:	them local presentations. The Coca-Cola Bottling Works file for self-help positions and under the auspices of the Green-		to his satisfaction.	that the schools are for the	Frieburg play has the distinction One of the most flourishing are all of these students are un-
Z. F. Wilson, Manager	ville Woman's Club.	At the last Freshman class	"Carolina" was the first song.	benefit of the children: that the	of being the oldest, older even than the famous one of Oberam- inergau. The Oberammergau pre- sentation differs in some respects from the Freiburg play. Ober- Cone of the most flourishing and valuable institutions of this city is the Coca-Cola Bottling Works. No city can boast a more modern plant than this. The manager is Mr. 7. V. Mur-
Jatie Spain, Ass't-Manager	A most extraordinary program	meeting the motto, "The Elevator	President Wright then spoke a	schools belong to the public: and	than the famous one of Oberam- city is the Coca-Cola Bottling can get help.
sacre opam, Asst-manager	of music was led by Max Noah,	To Success Is Not Running, Take	few words of welcome. He re-	that the schools should be just	mergau. The Oberammergau pre- Works. No city can boast a A number who would have
	director of the Choir.	The Stairs:" the flower, "Sweet-	ferred to days in the past when	what the citizens want them to	sentation differs in some respects more modern plant than this. been obliged to drop out next
	SPIPCIUM DIESCILLEU	i i il alana "Dino ond Sil-			THUIL HE FICIDUE DIAY. ODE 1 THE HARDER IS MILLER TO MELLE TO MAN AP ABANDAN THAT PAILODA
	showed that long and diligent	ver" were chosen by a large ma-	and said he had wondered what	A number of changes were	sentation differs in some respects from the Freiburg play. Ober- ammergau is a small village in the Bavarian mountains, and all of the peasants are performers of that neighborhood. They are ost In 1912 be sold out but
DRINK	training that is necessary for a	jority of the class.	stopped the singing if it was the	A number of changes were	the Bavarian mountains, and all the business from Ed Shel- college.
	successful musical performance.	Doris Nichols, President of the	effect of prosperity. Many in	Of interest to the students	of the peasants are performers of burne in 1908, holding half inter-
	Marvelous tonal quality through-	class discussed the time and the	the audience perhaps did think	bore was the suggestion of prac-	that neighborhood. They are est. In 1912 he sold out, but Educational Meeting out the various numbers was	type of Freshman-Junior Party,	of the "Sings" held during and	tically every organization that	that neighborhood. They are est. In 1912 he sold out, but very orthodox and consider it a bought back again in 1919. sacrilege to perform elsewhere The plant is located on the than in the village. They give West side of Pitt Street, just off April 13th And 14th
NT'S	most apparent.	that the class would give this	just after the War.	the terchors were underpoid and	sacrilege to perform elsewhere The plant is located on the 10 Convene nere on
CIAI D	The Guilford Choir presents	voor	Rev. G. R. Combs, pastor of	the teacher's load too beau	than in the village. They give West side of Pitt Street, just off April 13th And 14th out the various numbers was most apparent. The Guilford Choir presents selections which are not to be	Filon Backley read the consti-	Jarvis Memorial Church, led in	There were ten members of	the play once every ten years Dickinson Avenue, and occupies ur patronage	compared with the light forms	tution which was drawn up by	prayer. Old favorite sentimen-	the faculty who attended the	and have done so since 1633. 6000 feet of floor space. Twelve The second state-wide Educa-
DWICHES	usually found in Glee Clubs, but	In Vorne Porterfield and Jose-	tal songs, patriotic songs, hymns,	mosting Those were: President	than in the village. They give the play once every ten years and have done so since 1633. The Freiburg players are more liberal in their views and have There has been a decided The college April 13-14
	with the deeper, more perfectly	hing Daniels: the class adoned	popular tunes, were ask sung by	Wright Miss Jonking Miss Nor	The Freiburg players are more people are employed. t liberal in their views and have There has been a decided the college April 13-14 become professionals, however growth in business since the Last year principals, teachers
HOT COFFEE	trained singing organizations	S it unchanged	the audience: "America the	oll Mr. Fort Mice Costs Dr.	become professionals, however growth in business since the Last year principals, teachers
ANTS - PHONE 80	trained singing organizations which reach the height of per-	Wise Lorging Hunter one of	beautiful," "Old Black Joe",	Adoma Mr F I Handara	without detracting from the mo- establishment. When the plant and superintendents were called
THONE SU	fection in singing.	the class advisors and Lois Wal-	Massas in the Cold, Cold	Mr M I Wright Mice Wedling	without detracting from the mo- ral and artistic value of the play. first began to operate one bar- together by Dr. Wright to hold
		THE THE ALL STATE ALL LOID THAT	La Lu GO G All Va Faith	WILL WILPHL WISS WAITING.	- I

				-
				-
				•
					Wednesday, Feb. 28. 1934	4. Wednesday, Feb.
Page Two		THE TECO ECHO			FIGURE THIS OUT	Wednesday, 1
	1		room was quiet for a minute an	d TAKEN FROM THE FILL	ES
THE TECO ECHO	VOTE 100 PER CENT At the election of the Teco Echo staff for next year, approximately 30 per-		then "Mayflower" Sawyer sai	d, Rummaging through the	files I married a widow who	had a
THE TECO ECHO		Don't Quote Me	"So he can see through cracks	of old Teco Echo newspape	rs is ited our house very ofter
Dublished Di Wookly During The College Vear	At the election of the Teco Echo staff	Don i Quote mae	But don't quote me.	ve a very interesting occupa	ation, foll in love with my ston.d	(
By The Student Government Association of	for next year, approximately 30 per-		have a variety of them here	on particularly when one can	find ter and married her. So n	ny fa-
East Carolina Teachers College	cent of the Student Dody voted. That		6 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	TO FEDRIS III SULLI LILLING S	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	v, and
STAFF	means that 70 per cent of the students here do not have enough school spirit to be in-	around our delightful college has	the usual ones of "Lib," "Sue	ad bride of Mr. Flanagan.	Of my step-daughter my m	poiner,
Editor-in-ChiefLucy LeRoy	do not have enough school spirit to be in- terested in the students elections. If we are not interested now, when will we be inter-	suddenly realized that Examina-	- "Je," "Dot," "Tom, Bob, a	or course it was only a Woma	mless wife. Sometime afterward	de ma
Business ManagerEllen Jenkins	not interested now, when will we be inter-	tions are just around the corner	our share of "Runts" and "Jack	s" Wedding, but the account is	sure- wife had a son. He is my	turn
Editorial Roard			Le 1 - t ma hove come linis	alliv a Diedui-taking one.	MENTED FOR C STRATEGOR STREETS STREETS	Teachers T
Managing Editor	ested in elections? It is by the voting of the people that the policy of the state or nation is often changed. It is a disgrace to the	corner-but don't quote me.	ones. "Suggy" Fleming is w	ell Slay and Deal participated	as cle, for he is the brother	leachers 1
Assistant Managing EditorAlva Van Nortwick	people that the policy of the state or nation is often changed. It is a disgrace to the	While in one of the rooms in	h known campus figure. A pro	vi- the bride's father, and Mr. 1	M. L. namely my sten-mother h	Goldsbo
Associate Editor	deposit that so lew of the subdents		1 1 and an analative by the souridi	ipi wright, as net mount, and	I COM HAD IS OF PRUPER MA
Associate Editor	is often changed. It is a disgrace to the school that so few of the students are interested in the activities.	asked his mother if it were true	e of "Shine." Dan Wright c	an the evently occasion by	their ther, and in the meantin	ne my
Associate Luitor		in the second seco	loggily change the meaning of	his presence, as Dr. Adams	Who grandchild for he is the s	waldrop Is High Teache
Chart Rattor Tropper William		The second and hims "Voc the	TI TURNIN NAME NV I PHILE UNIT
Business Staff	are elected will be the governing body of the school, and the school should vote 100	is true". The bright little fellow	v letter in "Dan." It really man	n't The wedding took place	e in grandmother because she	FINAL SCORE
Co-ed Business Manager	the school, and the school should vote 100	-he reminds me of some of ou	I quote me) And what student	on 1926, and in the spring of	f the husband and grandchild	at the

· · · · · · · · ·

Advertising ManagerEstelle McCullen Advertising ManagerDorothy Hooks		students-said, "Then there will		come year the whole campus		ting Of Johnson A
Adventioner Menodon	per cent.	soon be a man under the spare	the campus doesn't know the	same year, the whole campus	same time, and as the husband of	Guarding Of Johnson A Ridenhour Is Outstandin
Advertising Manager		bed". Now, personally I think	"Coffin," and who hash't eaten	was suffed by the news of a second	a person's grandmother is his	Ridennoul 15 Outpeter
Malene Grant, Helen Boomer, Carolyn Brinkley		it would be a good idea to sweep	"Ictor Balls"?	robbery. It happened just be	grandfather, I am my own grand-	lan ovening F
marche erang neren zoonne, er e		once in a while, because. we		fore Easter, and eight brand new	father.	On Saturday evening, F
Reportorial Staff		would hate to have a scandal in	CAN YOU IMAGINE?	Easter frocks, as well as other	(Taken from Patton's Magazine)	ruary 17, the E. C. T. C. be
Poe SocietyLucille Noell	An enidemic of discussion regarding	the school we have a few now!		items of clothing, disappeared.		quintet took a fast game from
Emerson Society	Student Communet Acconintions and their	but don't quote me	Well I couldn't when I saw	For several weeks a cloud of	MISS ROWLAND	Goldsboro Red Shields by a se
Lanier Society		I'd like to know what the	Mr Flanagan sporting a pair of	mystery enshrouded the whole	SPEAKS IN CHAPEL	Goldsboro The Reds played the compus building is really sun-	spats at a game last week. I	affair, but it was finally cleared		toam throughout inc unior Class	of schools in this state.	campus building is really sup	wonder if his ankles were really	up and the thief, a negress, ap-	"China is in a state of revolu-	and offered plenty
Sophomore Class		posed to be used for, one mile,	cold or if he saw a man in Radio	nrehended.	Chille is in a state of revenu-	stition in the first hait
Scribblers Club			a. · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	That como voor sou II	tion, said wiss wiinmina Row-	The independents from Go
cience ClubRobert Fleming	government association does not exist as far as helping to administer the affairs of the	ball game, and all in between it	Stars wearing spats—or probab-	Frank's Sociology classes taking	land, Traveling Secretary of Stu-	hero led in scoring during m
Cheerio Club	as helping to administer the affairs of the	seems to be used for a place to	ly he got the idea of spats from	Flank's Bociology classes during	dent Volunteers, in Chapel on	of the first quarter, but the Senior Class Reporter	school go Their revolt has been a culmina-	have love scenes. It is quite	a picture in Ballyhoo, for I have	much interest in their interclass	February 23.	ended with the Teachers lead
Class Reporter	as helping to administer the affairs of the school go. Their revolt has been a culmina- tion of what they say is interference from the faculty in student problems. They in-	disgusting at times to go in and	heard that he is a regular Bally-	debates and saw also the r hut	She continued by saying that	ended with the reachers reachers
Freshman Class ReporterOnie Cochrane	uon of what they say is interference from	see someone stuck in every cor-	hoo fiend!	housewarming.	China is in an economic revolu-	by a margin of four points.
Alumnae ReporterLois Hayes	the faculty in student problems. They in-	ner of the building-and some-	Last Friday afternoon a group	Mr. Flanagan, on the Senior	tion due to the introduction of	High scoring honors of eist that if there is to be a Student Covern-	times you have the feeling that!	of co-eds were sitting in the	Class trip to Camp Leach, after	machinery. For years they have	evening were shared by Wal
Member North Carolina Collegiate Press	mont According it chould be normitted to	maybe you are disappointed in	back of Austin auditorium chat-	having tried in vain to start his	not been affected by the machine	and Sasser, each scoring
Association.	ment Association, it should be permitted to	a certain person_you know	ting. I slipped in and sat down	truck, was overheard to say	development in other countries	moints Bostic and Johnson
Advertising Rates 25c per column inch per issue	be that in action as well as name.	there are some people on the	unseen thinking that I might get	"darn." (But this was 'way back		second in the scoring with a
Subscription	The editor of the Technician said in re-	there are some people on the	some done for this column As	in the dark ages of 1926; we feel	and now they are developing in	soints each. Eason did campus who are supposed to set	wend the hove were discussing	sure he has reformed by now.)	one generation what it has taken	playing in the last half, sco
at the Postoffice, Greenville, N. C., under the	gard to the Student Government at State	an example—but maybe they	usual the boys were discussing	Some of the major entertain-	other nations centuries to devel-	six points for E. C. T. C, act of March 3, 1879.	College that it was merely something put	think it is perfectly all right for	girls. Runt sald that he liked	ments of the years from 1927 to	op.	The guarding of Riden uer er muren eg reter	Jun to entiefy the students that they are	(them to act in such an utterly-	small girls; w. O. sald he liked	ments of the years from toat to	Not only is this true, but poly-	Johnson, and Bostic was recognized as such. The editor said that it	well it's unspeakable.	tall girls, and Robert Sugg said	1930 included the personal ap-	ciculty incontraction of the second	Johnson, and Dostie was
Associated Collegiate Press	recognized as such. The editor salu that it	And talking about nerve, fool-	that he had a weakness for red	pearance of the U. S. Army	throes of a political reformation.	standing.
-== 1933 (NATIONAL (=) COVERAGE) 1934 ==-	was not strictly a governing body, but	hardiness or what have you. Did	heads. Ruffin didn't say any-	Band, Richard Halliburton, Paul	For centuries China has been	Summary:
	Imerely an education into the functioning of	wou hear about the scene in Mr	thing. Someone asked the kind	Whiteman, Count Felix Von	under the leadership of aristo-	E. C. T. C. G. Ft.
	the remains "As a sharp loading hader	D 11 - 1 it man a concom of	of girls he preferred and he re-	Luckner, and Sir Hubert Wil-	cracy and now she is trying to	Bostic, rf 4 0
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	La coope I'll tell you about it	pheu that he fiked meulum sized	Thins. Tony bargs manonettes	develop a republic. The goal is	Waldrop, rf 4 1
	and as a discussion group its powers are in-	A person in the class loaned	large girls who were both good	also appeared.	a hard one to obtain because the	Burnette, c 2 1
What has happened in the past hundred	finite, but in the affairs of the administra-	across the aisle to look at an-	and bad. The others seemed puz-			Johnson, rg 4 0
years is that industrial age has superim-	tion it has little to say".	other member of the class's	zled Bunt asked him to explain		customs and habits of centuries	Ridenhour, rg 2 0
		other member of the class's			are not easily changed. Among	macimiour, -8
posed itself on agricultural civilization	What of our student government asso-	watch. Mr. Deal stopped class,	liked his girls to be good and	term is 572. The number accept-	so many people it is even more	Total 14 2
Mussolini.	ciation? Is it receiving the cooperation of	and delivered a lecture. He said,	had at it on was it had and	ed was limited to those from a	difficult than otherwise it would	Coldshoro G. Ft.
	students and faculty members that it should	The next time you want to	bud ut it of mas it bud und	distance who could be accommo-	be.	Goldsboro G. ru
The recovery program has accomplished	have to be successful? Is it successful in	know what time it is-ask me."	good at it? I don't remember.	dated in the boarding depart-	Then China is going through a	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
ine recovery program has accompnished	mave to be successful. Is it successful in	Thirty minutes later a co-ed	1 At the ball Saturday night	ment and to actual day students	religious revolution which is	Sasser, rf 3
what we have been unable to accomption by	governing the students-in it is not what can	iraised his hand—and asked what	some little kid broke on me. 10	The new library opened for	reaching to the very heart of the	Davis, c 3
legislation in the last 30 yearsHenry T.	be done to make it more truly a student	time it was. Now, wasn't that	myself I said, "I think children	work October 15	nation. For past centuries it has	Taylor, rg 3
	Self-Government Association?	an obedient student-but don't	this small should be at home	work October 10.	had ancestral worship and now	Hood, rg 1
runey, speaker of the nouse.	Sen dovernment Association.		preparing their spelling lessons."	i miss mooper, miss may nondatily	sho is being shows of the
		And these people who will sit	1	DI. Adams, DI. Flank, and MI.	she is being shown a Christ	Total 13
It is only when men rise above domina-		on the dormitory steps with boys	thought "Well if you are as good	Haynes were added to the facul-		Subs: E. C. T. C., Barre
	OPEN BOOK EXAMINATIONS	on the dormitory steps with boys	in school as you are at danging	ty.	ligious belief. A Christ who can	Eason (6), and Dunn (4)
tion by the profit motive and learn to subor-		-Some day they will do it one	wou have nothing to man	Eight Years Ago	save and who lives. China needs
dinate profit to service that the social, eco-	From the University of Chicago comes	time too many-and their excuse	shout " I called added worry	The performance of "Lady nomic and political orders begin to come in	From the University of Chicago comes the announcement that students in the "hu-	"We didn't know we weren't sup-	about. I asked who she was	Windmere's Fan" is to be given	In the sixteenth century the	COMMUNITY SINC
	the announcement that students in the "hu-	posed to"-Excuses like that	and if she went to the training	on Friday evening, February 20.	revolution came about in reli-
cight of a tirm toundation and a continuing						IS HELD SUN
	manues course will be allowed to pring	Idon't go very farso watch out	ischool. She only hugheu.	This class is the first college class	gion and began in Germany Re-their textbooks class notes and what other	don't go very far-so watch out	minute later someone said, "May	This class is the first college class	gion and began in Germany. Re-
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.	their textbooks, class notes and what other	or that bugaboo, the council, will	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone	gion and began in Germany. Re-
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.	their textbooks, class notes and what other	or that bugaboo, the council, will	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that	(Continued from page
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler.	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council. Who's afraid of the	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen-	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo-	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es-	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade.	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby."
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es-	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville.	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such guizzes have been given before	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed it might bebut don't quote	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnetti	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place.	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al-	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution t
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al-	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- f nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is has spread so slowly	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won" tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Bashedy. Semi Centenniel to	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- f nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed it might bebut don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle.	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- f nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed it might bebut don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle.	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville,	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville in ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville,	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- f nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news.	or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Buth: "O K, but the nuts	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re-	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of M derman and John Armer Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl D
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts 	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing on	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ-	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th quartette, composed of derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl I of Franklin, assisted by M
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whattagou think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." 	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing on tiptoe while Paul was in th	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of wolcome which	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of the derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl To of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- f nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- one between a co-ed and a traf-	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which	gion and began in Germany Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl II of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary for premium on mastering long tables, rules and	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the difference between a co-ed and a traffic con is that you can get 	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed-	gion and began in Germany Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th quartette, composed of derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl I of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by wha	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a 	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing on tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of derman and John Armee Goldsboro, Horace Joh Buies Creek, and Carl I of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsboo the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me.	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has hear	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co-	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of derman and John Armee Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl I of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use o their money.	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by wha one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordi	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- ence between a co-ed and a traf- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little mana-	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri-	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th quartette, composed of derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl H of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbo the "Rosary". Mr. Alder Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary f premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordinary conditions of office or study in which	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- ence between a co-ed and a traffic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little mana- ger" is about to become a true 	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed!	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. Président Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working	(Continued from page of the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of M derman and John Armee Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Alderr Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD	 mainties course will be allowed to bring their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination removes much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordinary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work. 	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the difference between a co-ed and a traffic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little manager" is about to become a true 	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher aske	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their	(Continued from page (the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of H derman and John Armen Goldsboro, Horace Jon Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L Road." All of these numbers were well rece
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordinary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the difference between a co-ed and a traffic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little manager" is about to become a true about bim. Some femmes say 	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing on tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher askee his class to give him a definitio	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association which meets in Edinburg, July	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their	(Continued from page (the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th quartette, composed of H derman and John Armen Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L Road." All of these
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordinary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work	 don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the difference between a co-ed and a traffic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little manager" is about to become a true about bim. Some femmes say 	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing on tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher askee his class to give him a definitio	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association which meets in Edinburg, July	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their expenses.	(Continued from page (the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of H derman and John Armer Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L Road." All of these numbers were well rece
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD From the number of people present a the meeting held at Baleigh to discuss th	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary f premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordit nary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work and apply his intellectual equipment. There he would be considered slipshod in his me	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- ence between a co-ed and a traf- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little mana- ger" is about to become a true ladies man. Girls just flock about him. Some femmes say they like the strong, silent he	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher asket his class to give him a definitio for the word "Sheik". He call	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association which meets in Edinburg, July 29-28. M. L. Wright will fill the posi-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their expenses.	(Continued from page (the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. Th quartette, composed of H derman and John Armer Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The L Road." All of these numbers were well rece the audience. At the end
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Greenville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD From the number of people present a the meeting held at Baleigh to discuss th	their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the an- nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. The open-book type of examination re moves much of the foolish and unnecessary f premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordit nary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work and apply his intellectual equipment. There he would be considered slipshod in his me	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- ence between a co-ed and a traf- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little mana- ger" is about to become a true ladies man. Girls just flock about him. Some femmes say they like the strong, silent he	minute later someone said, "May f break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher asket his class to give him a definitio for the word "Sheik". He call	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association which meets in Edinburg, July 29-28. M. L. Wright will fill the posi-	gion and began in Germany. Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their expenses.	(Continued from page C the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynch a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of H derman and John Armen Goldsboro, Horace Joh Buies Creek, and Carl D of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbor the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two song or Beware" and "The La Road," All of these numbers were well rece the audience. At the end Johnson sketched in, on a
existence.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler. SCHOLARSHIP AND LOAN FUNDS Another move in the right direction for an era of educational development, is the es- tablishment of the scholarships and loar funds by the business men of Greenville. Their fine spirit and friendliness al- ways shown toward the college is worthy of much commendation. The people of Green ville have always been vitally interested in education, and the present plan of scholar ships and loans for students show that their interest has never waned. They are seeking to cooperate with the state in preparing teachers, and this is indeed a worthy use of their money. A STEP FORWARD From the number of people present a the meeting held at Baleigh to discuss th	 mainties course with be allowed to bring their textbooks, class notes and what other reference material they wish when they take their final examinations next June. The questions will be designed not merely to test the student's knowledge of facts but his ability to find and correlate them and draw conclusions therefrom. Such quizzes have been given before and in other schools; in that sense the and nouncement is not news. But the idea meritorious as it is, has spread so slowly that it is still very much the exception in academic practice; in that sense it is news and important news. g The open-book type of examination removes much of the foolish and unnecessary for premium on mastering long tables, rules and lists of names, dates or quotations by what one teacher called "brute memory". I much more nearly approximates the ordinary conditions of office or study in which actually the student will do his later work and apply his intellectual equipment. There he would be considered slipshod in his met thods if he wasted time trying to remember 	don't go very far—so watch out or that bugaboo, the council, will get you. However, the theme song of a lot of people seems to be "Who's afraid of the little ole Council, Who's afraid of the Student Council." Do you think it could be because of the council that that attitude has developed —it might be—but don't quote me. And did you hear that one about Pauline Barber and Ruth Cagle. Pauline: Hey, Ruth, You take English don't you? Well whatta you think of O. Henry. Ruth: "O. K., but the nuts stick in my teeth." Someone said that the differ- ence between a co-ed and a traf- fic cop is that you can get a word or two in edgewise with a cop. But, don't quote me. Seems as if the "little mana- ger" is about to become a true ladies man. Girls just flock about him. Some femmes say they like the strong, silent he- man, or the snappy dancer on the good conversationalist. They	minute later someone said, "May I break Mary Bell? I pulled up my mask and said,—no I won' tell you. Let's change the sub ject and think of how Mr. Flan agan looked holding that baby doll at the Poe Masquerade. A wife with a low temper may get along allright with a hus band whose temper is high bu I'm positive that a boy with high temple (that part of the head between the eye and ear cannot dance with a girl whose temple is much nearer the floor for I saw Paul Bowen dancing with Louise Taylor Saturday night. Louise was standing of tiptoe while Paul was in th shape of a "V" lying on its side I believe that it would have been possible to have placed a cup of punch between his shoulders an that it would have set there un disturbed! Not long ago a teacher askee his class to give him a definitio for the word "Sheik". He call ed on several students withou any success. Finally he asked	This class is the first college class having a group which has gone through four years consecutively, beginning with the freshman class. At the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Teach- ers Colleges, Dr. Wright was cho- sen as president of the Associa- tion. The meeting was held in Cincinnatti. President Wright has an im- portant place on the program of the Peabody Semi-Centennial to be held at George Peabody Col- lege for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn. He will represent the Southern Teachers' Colleges making for them the response to the address of welcome which will be delivered by Justice Ed- ward T. Sanford of the Supreme Court of the United States. President Wright has been elected a delegate to the Inter- national Education Association which meets in Edinburg, July 29-28. M. L. Wright will fill the posi-	gion and began in Germany Re- ligion had a new aspect follow- ing the revolt begun by that country. In England we find the industrial revolution during the eighteenth century. As the cen- turies have gone by, the econo- mic revolution and change has taken place. "THE CHRIST" is the only thing that will save China said Miss Rowland. Miss Rowland is a former teacher in China and is now in this country traveling for the Student Volunteer Union. She came to E. C. T. C. after a re- cent trip to Georgia, and has re- cently visited Alabama, Mississ- ippi, and South Carolina. Ninety-one per cent, of the men and 80 per cent of the co- eds at Abraham Baldwin Agri- cultural College are working this year to help defray their expenses.	(Continued from page the Sunrise," "Let Me Ca Sweetheart," "Drink To M With Thine Eyes," and Brown's Baby." The Campbell College composed of about thirty bers led by A. C. Lynd a distinct contribution to program by singing three ent sacred numbers. The quartette, composed of derman and John Arme Goldsboro, Horace Jo Buies Creek, and Carl H of Franklin, assisted by M lie Farfour of Goldsbo the "Rosary". Mr. Aldern Miss Farfour sang two John Arment, who has bass voice, sang two some or Beware" and "The H Road." All of these numbers were well rece the audience. At the en Johnson sketched in, on with colored crayons,

the educational history of our state. They checked with certainty in reference manuals. good business man-Jimmy sure-showed that the people of the state had Of course, a certain amount of ready infor- ly qualifies. But, I repeat, don't that he could not give a defini-SPECIAL-Salted Jumbo Peanuts tion but that he could show him faith in the schools of North Carolina, and mation is necessary for quickness in every quote me. were eager to help in any way they could. The fact that a number of people who litealf with use and there eager to help in any way they could. "Known for Value" DR. A. M. SCHULTZ The fact that a number of people who itself with use, and there must be a broad times maybe and get by, but all around the room, the others DENTIST were not directly connected with the general understanding to give direction in the next time you'll get your of us looking straight at him. schools were concerned over the low salary the use of printed aids. scale of the teacher and the heavy teacher In general the type of examination to mean that if you as an ardent when he was turned almost com-load should be encouraging to the presence which we then the presence which we the presence which W.T. Grant Co. 400 State Bank Building Phone 578 load should be encouraging to the prospec- which permits free access to the aids and in-tive teachers of our college. One speaker formation one would normally have in life tive teachers of our college. One speaker formation one would normally have in life For the sake of keeping in prac- whether he looked at Paul because he was the example or besaid that the teachers in North Carolina deserves to be greatly extended in its use. tice I add, don't quote me. were paid less than unskilled labor whereas Perhaps one reason it is not more common The other day I was walking cause he couldn't turn any fur-THUR.-FRI. they should be paid more than skilled la- is that it tests not only the pupil but also the down back campus back of Jim- ther-Can you imagine? MARCH 1-2 ingenuity of the instructor. But it makes my Johnson and "Runt" Bostic. for better teaching and is well worth the of They were in quite a talkative To have the people of the State realize for better teaching and is well worth the ef- mood, when "Runt" suddenly Signs of Fascism in our own 10 Snappy Song Hits that the best results cannot be produced fort on that side. For it places emphasis not said: "Jimmy, which kind of country are by no means ab-A Great Laugh Drama with over-crowded school rooms and under merely on inert information but on the use girls do you like better, the ones sent. The growing militarism, Dancing-Romance Surprises For All paid teachers is a step towards the restoring of information and of awakened faculties.- who talk, or the other kind?". the domination of NRA by big And Jimmy immediately re- business, the potential dictatorial A New Screen Musical of teachers salaries to their former scale; from Campus Comments. plied, "What other kind?" Don't powers of the traws in the wind. quote me, but that put a dam-—Leo Krzycki, chairman of So-"Sitting Pretty" and the lightening of the teacher's load. De-'Follies of 1934' Your NRA appears to be working de-per on things for a while. creasing the teaching load will mean that In Physics class last week, the cialist party of America. more jobs will be available for men and wo- spite the fact that yours is a country built men who have been educated for the work up by initiative exclusively. That is a funda- subject of light was being diswith In 1894 John S. Johnson set ofof teaching the boys and girls of the state. mental departure equaled in history only by cussed. Dr. Slay spoke of the Jack Oakie-Ted Haley pupils in our eyes acting on the ficial outdoor amateur skating William Powell-Bettie Davis It will take good management to do this; the tremendous experiment of the Soviets .-- but with the citizens of the state behind the Baron Richard Von Kuhlman, German for- Dr. Slay, "Why do cat's eyes nine and ten mile races. Those eign minister during the World War.

principal of a camera. Then said records in the six, seven, eight,

have a slit in the pupil?" The records still stand.

bor.

move it can be done.

piano all the afternoon. The closing song was Be the Tie That Binds". lection was taken up to fray the expenses of the who came and for the s songs. Mr. Alderman made a speech of thanks for all helped in any way, and ed the plan for having from all five towns in v has held these sings to Raleigh for a combined fifth in the series will in Rocky Mount next S Miss Margaret Fedde

10c a Pound

421 Evans St.

Evans Street

Fashion

with

And Host of Stars!

Ginger Rogers

MON.-TUES.

MARCH 5-6

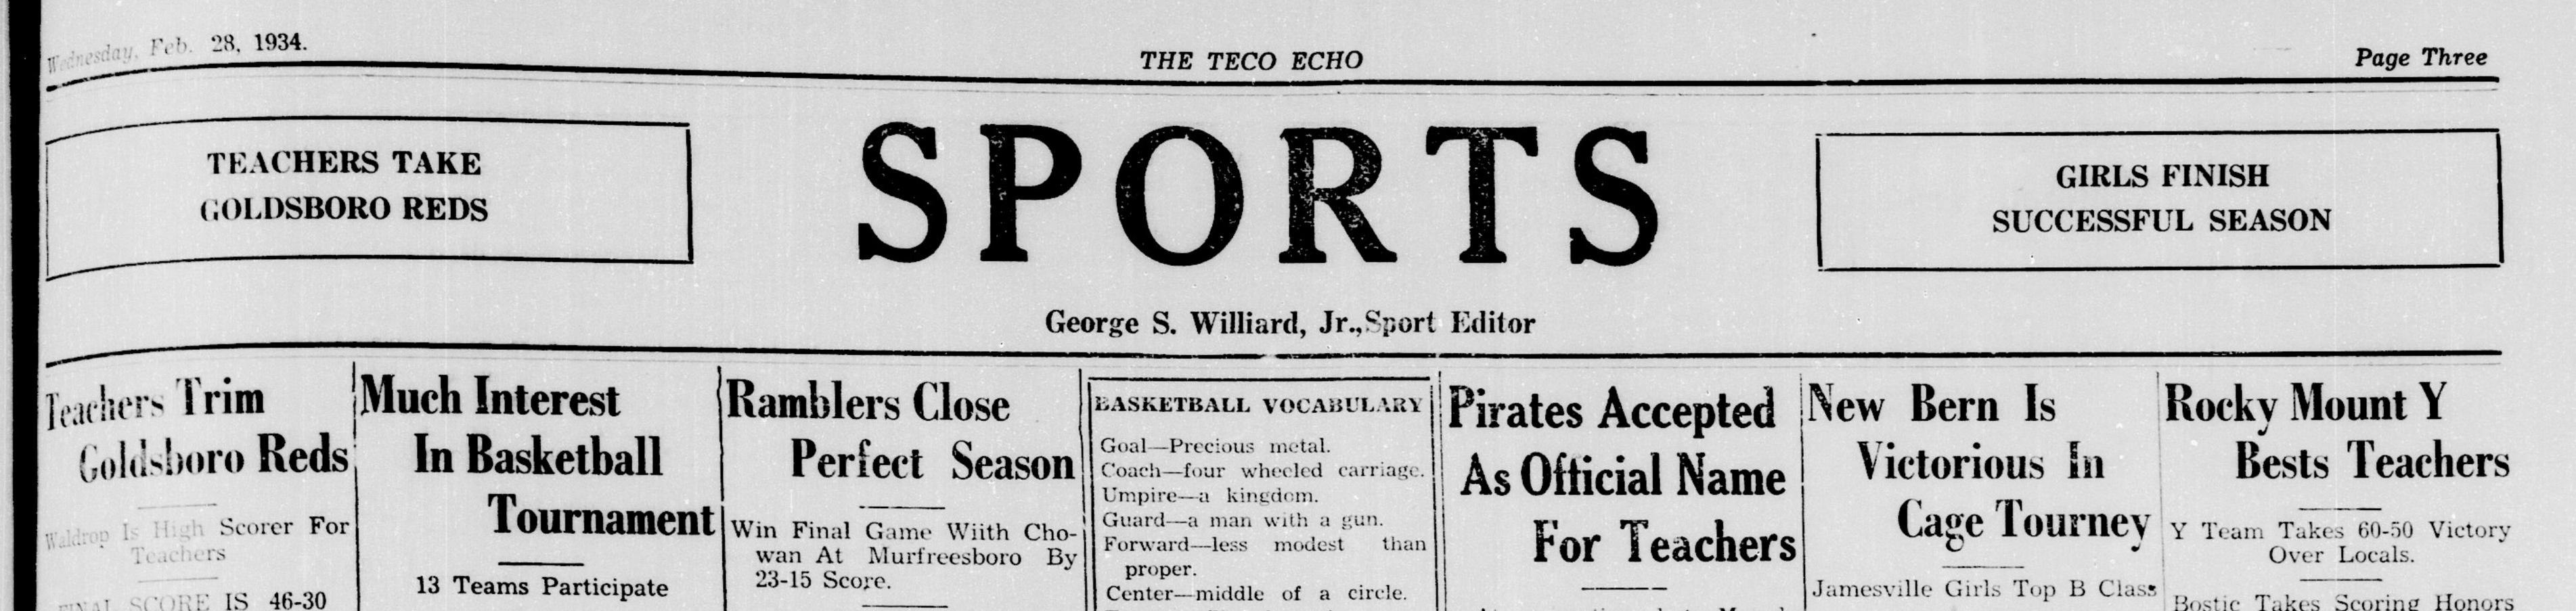

van scene.

Miss Stephenson was man of the home econd partment of the Univ Nebraska revealed that there have been divorces resulting from marriages among gradu the department. On Miss Fedde thinks, is though the co-eds have found their man, they ing themselves defin marriage and home life day, Feb. 28, 1934. FIGURE THIS OUT

med a widow who had a manchier. My father visonce very often and ove with my step-daughmatried her. So my fame my son-in-law, and daughter my mother, she was my father's time afterwards my ion. He is my fathin-law and my un-My father's wife, course, my bromeantime my My wife is my because she is my

.

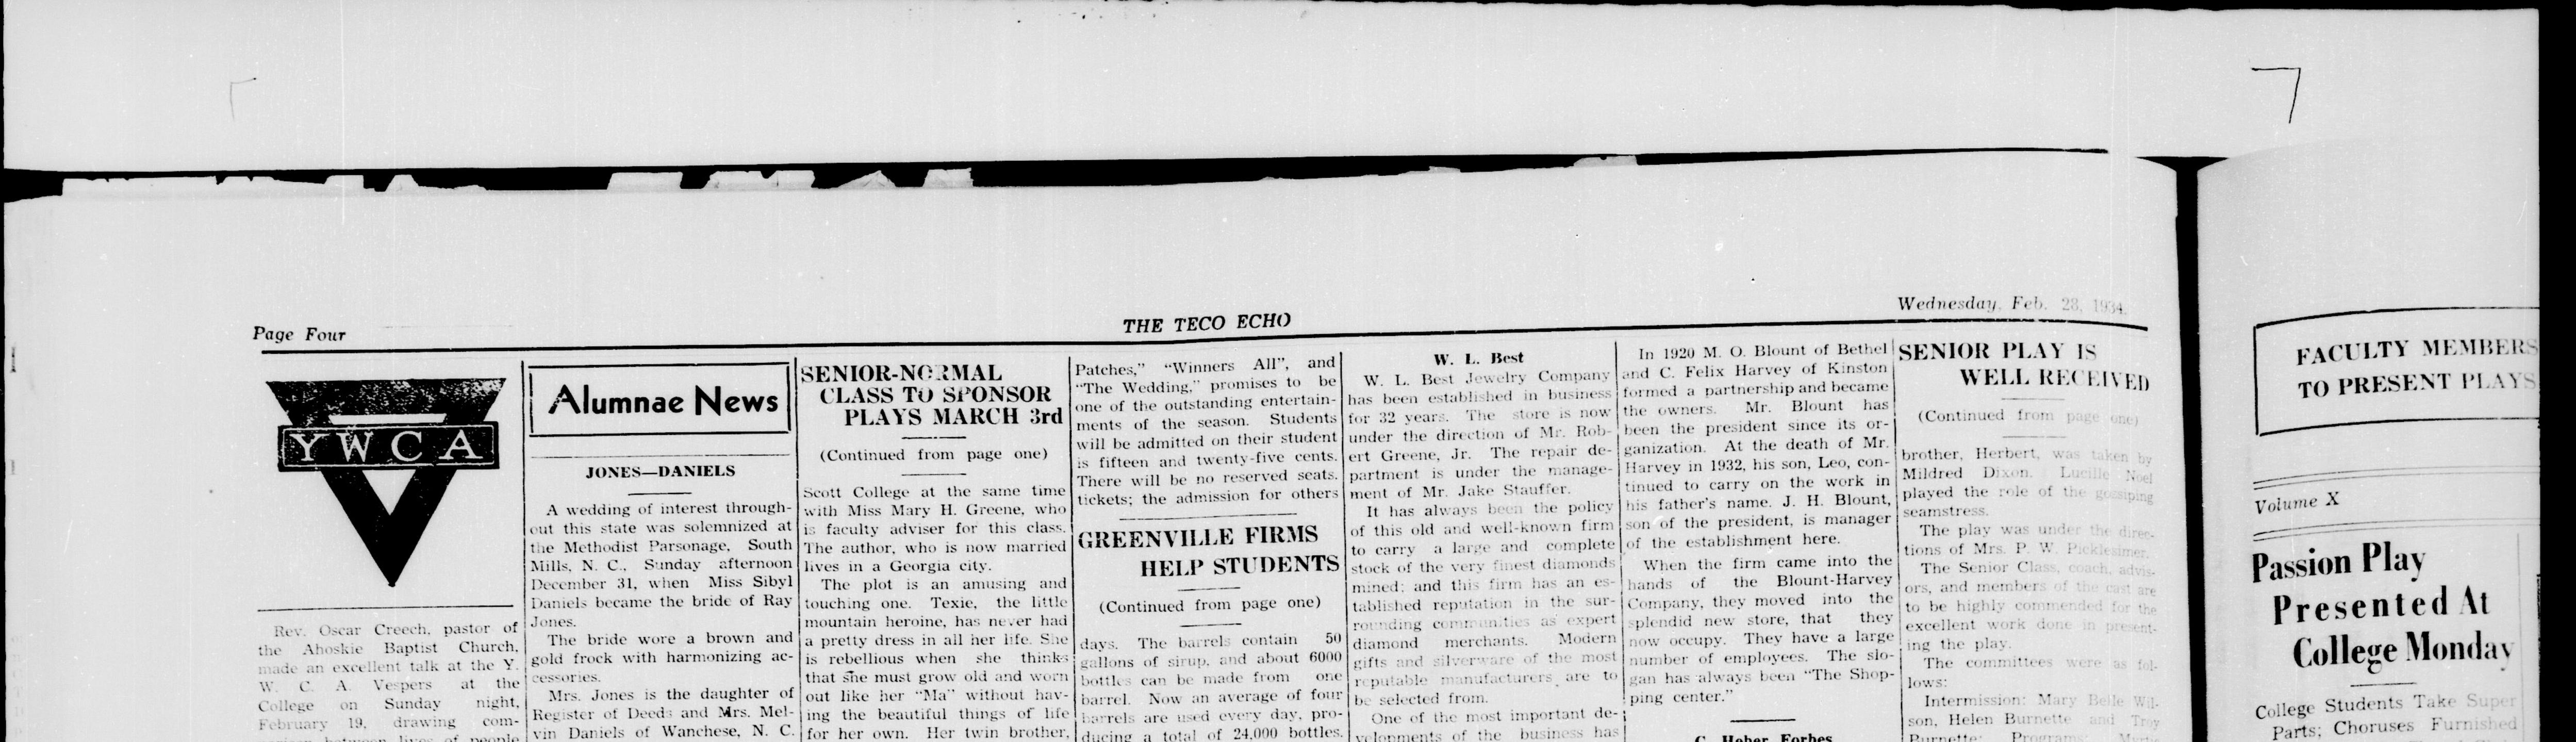

all am my wife's	FINAL SCORE IS 46-30			The state of a circle.	At a mosting last Manady		lostic Takes Scoring Ho	nors
and grandchild at the			Anne Askew Led Scoring 1	Toss-up-flip of a coin.	At a meeting last Monady		Of The Evening.
, and as the husband of	curreling Of Johnson And	On Thursday and Friday of		Court—to woo.	morning, the Men's Athletic As- sociation voted to adopt the		B.
erandmother is his	Didenhour Is Outstanding.	last week a basketball tourna-	The E. C. T. C. girls won the		sociation voted to adopt the	the district high school basket-	Last Tuesday evening at R	Rocky
r. I am my own grand-	Muchino	ment sponsored by the local high	last game of their schedule by	Foul-a large bird.	name Pirates for their athletic	ball tournament held here un- \mathbb{N} on Saturday evening, Feb-	school was held in Greenville.	defeating Chowan college 23-15.	Half—to possess.	teams. After playing anomy-	der auspices of Greenville High k	etball team lost a close co	ontest om Patton's Magazine)	17 the E. C. T. C. boy's	The games were run off at the	However, the game was not as	Quarter-to cut into four parts.	ously for three years, the asso-	der auspices of Greenville High k School and the municipality.	o the Rocky Mount Y. M.	C. A.
	the fact same from the	inigh school and in the E. C. T.	easily won as the score indicates 1	Gym-a boy's name.	clation accided that perhaps	Jamesville won the Class B.	he game was full of thrills	s, and
WLAND	qualities tool Red Shields by a score	C. gym.	During the first quarter the	Personal foul—a pet chicken.		boys' title, while Washington r	either team had any tr	ouble
IN CHAPEL	The Reds played their	. Two hundred and fifty eight	scoring was about even, but the	Crip—a bed for infants.	Liginiolog Ingn i legeners	won in Class A of the girls' di-	etting goals. At times the g	uard-
	throughout the en-	players representing seven coun-	half ended with Chowan leading	Quints—a fruit.	Seriously, it is believed that	vision and Jamesville won in i	ng was close, but the	entire
is in a state of revolu-	send offered plenty of	ties took part in the tournament	12-6. In the last half, the Ram-		more spirit and enthusiasm will	Close R	game was marked with bear	utiful
Miss Wilhmina Row-	the garrier in the first half.	which opened Thursday at noon.	blers gave Chowan the upset of	DON'T DE CHEDRISED	be forthcoming under the new	The finals brought to a close	ong shots, and fast crips.
eling Secretary of Stu-	Guidenne from Golds-	Boy's teams from 16 schools and	the season by pulling into a 23-15	DON'T DE SCREWOLD	name.	three days of busy activities in a	During the first half the	Rocky etcers, in Chapel on	Ind in cooring during much	girl's teams from 13 schools took	lead. The E. C. T. C. forwards	Dou't he summined if Mice Tur	President Van Nortwick ex-	tournament in which two-score	Mount Y was able to doub	le the og on chaper on	but the half	f part in the preliminary round.	and guards clicked consistently	bould not of hool	pressed his approval of the ac-	tournament in which two-score	eacher's score, and the	period
time by coving that	of the first quarter, but the fina	There were two divisions for	1	ner onound return a set	tion of the Association. He was	teams competed. Last night finals were played in the college	ended with the Y leading	36-18.
and by saying that	when a margin of four points.	the boy's and girl's teams repre-	lan to share only three naints	reviews with a picture of a foot ball field on the front of eac	in favor of the change.	gym and drew a capacity crowd.	In th second half the E. C.	. T. C.
in the introduction of	by a margin or rour pointo.	senting schools with enroll-	Askew of Greenville topped	for it's being done in th		Chance, with eight points, led	quint overcame eight poi	ints of
to the introduction of	high should be Waldron	ments of 180 students or over	the scoring honors with 11 points.	paper, for it's being done in th	DR. K. B. PACE SPEAKS TO	New Bern boys to a 21-18 win	the lead margin, but when	n the
For years they have	evening were shared by wararop	e competed in Class A. All other	Langston and Parker of Chowan	best of colleges At N. C. State College, Profes	- SCIENCE CLUB	over Mt. Olive in the Class A	final whistle blew, Rocky	Mount iffected by the machine	Denie and Johnson wer	e teams competed in class B.	made five points each.	Alvin M. Fountain Englis	b	finals. Jones made nine points	led the scoring 60-50.
au other countries	I in the cooring with eigh	+ Coach Andy Hewlett of the	The game closed a perfect sea-	anoforcon has adopted a system	D K D Dees leest physician	to top the losers. New Bern had	Bostic was the high sco	orer of .
they are developing in	Farm did nic	Greenville High School was	s son for Dr. Frank's team. The	lean moding nonone with the di	Dr. K. B. Pace, local physician	to top the losers. New Bern had	the evening, netting 24	points.
atura what it has taken	points each. Lason did me	g pleased with the interest taken	girls have kept their slate abso-	for grading papers with the dat	spoke to the members of the	In the other finals of the boys	This record for the evening	g is al-
ons centuries to devel-	Participant F C T C	in this tournament. It is ex-	lutely clean, having won two	a manh the alayan lines indica	Science Club on February 20, of	division, Jamesville came from	so a record for all conter	sts in six points for E. C. T. C, Ridonhour	, pected that next year even more	games each against Wingate Col-	a graph the eleven lines indica	the new inventions in surgery	behind in the second half to de-	which E. C. T. C. has part	ticipat-
v is this true, but poli-	The guarding of Ridefinout	interest will be manifested and	lege, Rocky Mount Y, and Chow-	ing grades from 0 to 100. 11	in his talk he said that there	feat Grimesland, 24-19. The los-	ed this season. The run	iner-up find China in the	Johnson, and Bostic was out	that a larger number of teams	an College.	grade line starts at zero at	was no outstanding discovery in	t ers had topped first-half scoring	in the scoring was Glassgo	w, who
a political reformation.	standing.	will participate. If plans ma-	Line and the section.	Libe thought and donoral avea	the medical world in 1955, bu	s 12 to 8. J. L. Jones, with 11	shot 21 points for the Y. M	I. C. A.
china has been	Summary:	p. terialize, the tournament will be	E. C. T. CFulton(2), Askew,	line thought and general exec	he told of the leading doctor	points, was high for Jamesville.	Eason, Johnston, Ride	enhour, leadership of aristo-	1 0	e an annual event at our college.	(11), Register (2), Briley, Over-	then ding down to the actu	all a substanding curding	I I There and Droaton oach made	and ming prayed were now she is trying to	Bostic, II 4 0	o The three silver loving cup	s ton, Higdon.	med depending on the numb	one of the outstanding surgica	d six points to share honors for t the losers.	C., strengthening both t	the de-republic. The goal is	Waldrop, rt 4 1	5 presented to the New Bern boy	s Chowan-Langston (5), Jilcott	grade, depending on the numb	operations recently performed	six points to share nonors for	fense and offense.
e to obtain because the	Barnette, c 2 1	8 and the Jamesville boys and the	e (4), Parker (3), Pilant, Grissom,	of mistakes made in spennig a	was that of removing a lung that	the losers.	Summary:
nd habits of centuries	Johnson, rg 4 0	4 Jamesville girls were contribut		Thechamics of writing.	Tuas in peren with tancer. I uper	I Washington High School Pills.		Ft. Tp.
acity changed. Among	Ridenhour, rg 2 0	ed by S. T. White and Frozen De		by this system of grading, d	ed culosis, neart's disease and ane	Lunboaten in three games handliv		4 24
caple it is even more		34 light.	Bunn, Corbett, Mozingo, Martin	on the quality and composition	mia were the other diseases dis	disposed of the Mount Olive sex-	Waldron of 0	0 0
han otherwise it would				of his paper. Professor Founta	in l	tet in the Class A finals in that	Burnotto c 2	1 5
	Geldsboro G. Ft. T		D Comell	stated that this system is having	ng	division. The score was 24-10,	Treasure 0	1 1
hina is going through a	Simmons, ri 3 1	7 MATH CLUB HOLDS MEETING		a beneficial effect upon the wo		and Miss Mayo and Miss Stewart	Johnston, eg 1	3 5
	Contract at			a Delicitidi chece aport the wo		store high for the winners wiss

A Great Laugh Drama Surprises For All

'ollies of 1934'

liam Powell-Bettie Davis And Host of Stars!

parison between lives of people vin Daniels of Wanchese, N. C. for her own. Her twin brother, ducing a total of 24,000 bottles. velopments of the business has Burnette: Programs: Myrtie C. Heber Forbes today and the life of Jesus. Three She is a graduate of Manteo High Rexie, is dubious about her All of the sirup is bought from been the establishment of the C. Heber Forbes has been in Gray Hodges, Hallyburton Cock things distinguished this occupa- School and East Carolina Teach- ideas, for, so far as he has ob- the manufacturing plant in Baloptical department which is unbusiness in Greenville since 1917. and Mabel Dickens; Propertytion of his one morning, Mr. ers College of Greenville. served or thought, women were timore, Maryland. der the direction of Dr. W. The store was first located across Elizabeth Fulcher, Alva Van Creech said, and these things Mr. Jones is a prominent busi- made only to wait on "the men The most up-to-date equip- Best. His office is one of the the street from their present es- Nortwick, Mattie Lou Cotten should be likened to similar sit- ness man of Manteo, N. C., be- folks." It looks as if Texie's ment is used, including the liquid most modern in the eastern part tablishment, and was then a gen- Virginia Cale and Leola Pleasuations in people's lives. Jesus ing connected with Sawyer's hopes are to be realized when a low pressure system. The used of the state. eral store. He carried men's ant; Publicity: Alice Wharton had no definite purpose; he was Cleaning Works. summer boarder, a beautiful wo- bottles are washed many times clothing as well as ladies. (Ex-/Lorna Langley, Lula Mae Bar-----The couple will be at home man brings her a package conentirely by machinery before Pitt County Medical Association walking where he could be near clusive clothing for ladies be- ker, and Sallie Brooks; Cos-God and hear His voice; and he in Wanchese. taining a dress as a token of they are refilled to be put on The Pitt County Medical Assocame his specialty and he stress-{tumes: Ethlyn Saunders, Stella gratitude for a small service. ciation, composed of the doctors _____ was walking in the midst of busy the market again. es the fact by adopting as his Blevine, and Estelle McCullen; IRVING-BROOKS The cast of this play is as The Coca Cola Bottling Works and dentists of the county, first men. In life one should often logan, "Exclusive Wearing Ap-| Scenery: Emma Lee Davis, Benand the Coca Cola Bottling Comfollows: organized December 14, 1867, "Walk by the sea," in that, alparel for Women." He has al- lah House, and Clyde Brown: Miss Howard Morning Brooks, Texie, Julia Mae Bordeaux. pany is two distinct establishthough with no definite purpose, with the following people as ways considered quality he best Tickets: Agnes Strickland and the occupation of leisure hours daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Rexie, George Willard. ments. The local concern is a charter members: Charles O'Haadvertisement for his business. Georgie Bell; Make-up: Mrs. in D. Brooks, of Hamlet, a graduate part of the Coca-Cola Bottling Ma, Reba Winstead. gan, William A. Bernard (Secreshould lead near God, and The show windows of this Robert Coleman. the midst of busy men. Often of the Normal School class of Mrs. Allen, Mary Ruth Davis. Works. tary), W. M. B. Brown (vicein a walk by the sea-shore of 1932, to Hunter D. Irving, son "Winners All" is a clever comconcern are an attractive feature ----president); F C. James, J. E. life one picks up many rare of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Irving of edy of two young married couof the store and display artistic SCIENCE CLUB GIVES Orange-Crush Brown, Zeno S. Taft, B. P Alston, jewels in the way of friendships Hamlet, on February 9, in the ples. Fred and Grace are having work. In the interior of the PLAY IN CHAPEL The Orange Crush Plant has R. M. Terrel, W. H. Bagwell, J. through helping the fellow men Presbyterian Church at Hamlet. their first spat a few weeks afstore the modern and well selectbeen located in Greenville since T. Sledge, Frank W. Brown, and ed fixtures attractively arranged "Digging Up the Dirt." a play one meets, and in the way of Wellow N C gives pleasure to the shoppers written by Margaret Lee, was says she no longer loves Andy, Wallace, N. C. man, is the manager and has Their object in organizing as meaningful funding of God. and adds to their convenience in given by members of the Science her husband, gives her newly-been so during the entire time stated in the constitution is the ----making their selections from ev- Club at Chapel last week. -----RUFFIN—STOKES wed friend some advice on how since the organization with the advancement of medical know-Concluding the series of Y. W. The scene took place in the lodge, the elevation of profession- ery department. to manage a husband to the best exception of about 1 1-2 years. dangers Dr ReBarker spoke, Fri- Miss Iris Elizabeth Stokes, advantage. But Fred and Grace It has always been a private Science Building at midnight. The drink is made from con- al character, and the promotion day night, on "What Can the In- daughter of the late Exum E. do not become reconciled at once. establishment with C. Heber The characters, Mr. Ghost playcentrated sugared orange juice of all measures of a professional dividual Do About It?" In re- Stokes and Mrs. N. A. Hughes of and Stella herself finds that ed by Florence Sinclair, and Mrs. Forbes as the sole proprietor. that is bought from Norfolk, Va. nature adapted to the relief of sponse to the question Dr. Re- Colerain, graduate of the Nor- husband is harder to deal with, Ghost, played by May Hearne Carbonated water is added at suffering humanity. Barker said that each individual mal School class of 1933 to J. B. than she thought. For a while ----were "digging up the dirt." The the local plant, to dilute the Dr. T. G. Basnight of Stokes, H. A. White & Sons should feel responsible in help- Ruffin, Jr., of Powellsville, son it looks as if two marriages are teachers and students in the highly concentrated form. It is whose son is now in college here, The H. A. White & Sons Realing to overcome some of the ba- of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Ruffin, in on the rocks, but soon the young science department were discussshipped from Norfolk to Green- and whose wife is a former stu- ty Company, located on N. Evans dent, is the present president of Street, was established in 1905. ed, and many interesting campus Suffolk, Va., July 23, 1933. people adjust their difficulties so ville in refrigerating cars. love affairs were brought to that, as the title indicates, they The present yearly production the organization. Dr. Bruce Since that time it has experienare "Winners All." GREENVILLE CHAPTER of the local plant is about 720,000 Beseley of Fountain is vice- ced no reversals. It was opened Th part of Old Bill, the skele-The characters in this little MEETS bottles. The popularity of Orpresident, and Dr. W. M. B. up under the auspices of the late ton, was played by Francis Jencomedy are: international dangers, and racial ange Crush is gaining each year. Brown, whose grandfather was Mr. H. A. White. At this time it -----The Greenville Chapter held a

So many students are playing

lowing Easter services in a

C. A. Study Courses on current sic causes for these dangers. Some of the fundamental causes are greed, which is at the root of economical, political, and conceit causing racial dangers. Other causes are the general lack business meeting Thursday evenof faith, courage, and service in ing, February 15, in Miss Smith's made from Real Orange Juice. The bottling company is lo-

Andy, Robert Eason. Stella, Isabelle Suiter. Fred, Dan Wright.

The slogan is "Orange Crush-The first vice-president is secre- is managed by Messrs. J. J.

tary and treasurer.

White and W. W. Lee, the junior The association meets the members of the firm at the

By Greenville Choral Club. -----Dr. Alfred Wolff Directs The Production. -----

Two large audiences with reverent spirit and deep enjoyment witnessed the impressive presentation of the Passion Play Monday afternoon and night in the Campus Building. The College and the Junior Woman's Club of Greenville jointly sponsored the event.

The Passion Play is a visualization of the life, works and death of the Savior Jesus Christ, t This play was first presented r in the village of Freiburg in t Baden, Germany in 1264. So for 1 hundreds of years this reverent story of the Master's life has been presented to the civilized world.

From the time the curtain went up on the "Glorification of the Cross" with the appearance of the Angels and the triumphant entry into Jerusalem the audience followed the scenes of the life of Christ with sympathetic understanding as they were presented. The beautiful old story took on new meaning. The prologue was said by Rev. W. A. Ryan of the Christian Church. There was an air of sanctity and one felt as if he were fol-

