High Point Panthers Beat Pirates In First Home Game

PANTHERS SCORE 45-23 WIN OVER PIRATES
 Holleman Leads Both Teams in Scoring With 13 Points

In the first game of the season the High Point Panthers defeated the C. S. B. C. Pirates by the score of 45-23. During the first half the Panthers held the High Point Pirates to 13 points while they were collecting 10. But with the start of the second half High Point went on a scoring rampage and ran the score up to 35 to 15. In the closing minutes of the game the Pirates took the effect of this surprise attack and fought the Panthers to an even game. Holleman the star water and around whom the team is built led both teams in scoring. He netted a total of 13 points

This Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press) When we get around to it, we are going to insert in this weekly column a department devoted to Bright Sayings of Faculty Children.

The impulse for this sudden inspiration comes from the story of the little boy and girl offspring of a famous sociology instructor in one of our universities.

Little Bob and Marie were precocious youngsters who liked to listen to mamma and papa discuss world problems over the breakfast coffee. One time when they attended their Sunday school class, and that evening the teacher began to speak of the great events in Genesis.

She told them about Adam and Eve and the serpent with his apple. "That is how sin and evil entered the world," she concluded. This student roused Bobbie and Marie from their reverie.

"No," they both said vehemently. "Oppa says it was Capitalism!"

If you have any doubt that football is big business now let us quote the statements made by the ticket taker at Ohio State University.

A staff of 2,500 workers is required to cost of about $1,900 to put on a football game at that university this Saturday. Specifically: 1,200 ticket sales, 300 gate men, 300 postal men, 100 special officers, 100 policemen, 100 "trouble shooters" who take care of drunks, etc., and 10 ground keepers.

Then he adds 250 concession booth employees and 200 program sellers, 25 members of the two teams, 200 and members and the officials, managers, cheerleaders and visiting politicians to get a grand total of 4,000 men to colonize Ethiopia.

Speaking of our national autumn masquerade, we cannot refrain from alluding about the new gastronomic fad now in force at one of the Big Ten schools. There the trustees passed a resolution forbidding city clubs and organizations from throwing their customary large number of bouquets for the team after the football season. The boys were being kept from their studying, the trustees decided.

Some enterprising young men of journalism made a checkup after football was over. They found that out of the regular gridiron squad released from that sport, eight had gone out for basketball immediately, four for hockey and six or eight others had organized their own cage team to travel about the state.

Funks—those lads are in college to play!

This week's prize for plain speaking brother, plain speaking, goes to Professor Ernest Lauer of Northwestern University, who got up on his feet before assembled students and exhorted campus intellectuals who flinch at real action.

Said he: "We need fight. Students should be willing to go to any extreme—men to getting kicked out of school—if they actually believe in something."

Public Health item:

Doctors in the student health service at the University of Kansas have just issued a warning to young ladies to look for germs in their fur neck pieces and fur muffs.

A lot of earnest young American campus debaters are having sad experiences meeting the present Oxford and Cambridge teams which are touring the country.

English debate tactics never seem to change, but unfortunately their American opponents never get wise. It is a common assertion that the

HOME TEAM WINS OVER WILLIAMSTON Ability to Convert Foul Shots Into Points Decides Game for Pirates

E. O. T. C.'s Pirates continued their winning streak by defeating the Williamston "All-Stars," 34-24. Both teams played good basketball and it was nip-and-tuck throughout the game. E. O. T. C. held the lead for almost the entire game, but Williamston was always within 3 or 4 points of her until the closing minutes when Williamston players became a little bit too free in giving fouls and E. O. T. C. took advantage of these breaks to forge ahead and take a comfortable lead.

Jimmie Johnson, E. O. T. C. guard, carried off the high scoring honors with 15 points. Holleman was content with 11 points and runner-up position. J. Brown led Williamston's scoring with 9 points.

Memorial Service Is Held For Deceased Treasurer

"I am never too busy to serve you students; that is what I am here for." That reply was the keynote of Mr. Spillman's attitude toward the students. He was always working, usually behind the scenes for their welfare, and while they did not come in direct contact with him he touched the lives of all, and as a friend. Few students failed to pass the treasurer's office, which stands open, without seeing him behind his desk, at work for the college.

Praised by Faculty Representatives
 "As Man to Man" was the subject Mr. McGimms gave to his tribute. He spoke of his association with him, as one of the treasurers of his life, which, during the ten years, was not marred by a single word or act. In bringing out the qualities that distinguished him from the crowd, and marked him as a good citizen, neighbor, and friend, he said: "He was a calm, steadfast, energetic worker whose words were positive and not negative; they were constructive and not destructive; they were always planned and not the outcome of caprice. Methodical, careful, exact, painstaking he was, but he was not bound by modes of acting or thinking so fixed that he was prevented from adjusting himself intelligently to every significant element that have a bearing on the problem in hand. "He brought out the keen sense of humor that was so refreshing to his associates, when after a hard day, he would tell some joke to relieve tense nerves. At both the opening and closing of his talk, he gave beautiful poetic symbols."

Miss Davis gave a glimpse of his outlook on life when he was a young man that seemed almost like a message to young people in college now. She read parts of an oration he delivered at Wake Forest College on Anniversary Day, which is famous in the traditions of that College even to this day. A number of the letters have had references to that oration. She told of a number of people who had heard it, among them, ex-governor Bicket and Dr. Parrot. The subject of the oration was "Israel's Political Redeemer," which was Judas Maccabaeus. The first part was a brilliant exposition of the political situation and the part that the redeemer had in bringing about better conditions, and the latter part was a challenge to the youth of his day to take their part in life and help solve the difficult political problems. It rings out today as a challenge to the youth of this year.

"The Tapestry Weavers," a beautiful poem read by Mr. Fleishman, gave the pattern by which he wove the threads that made up the Christian life lived by Mr. Spillman, goodness, meekness, self-control, kindness, and fair dealings. The idea that a splendid life is a beautifully woven piece of tapestry was a fine climax to the tributes.

a bombing fight before it could ever get into action. To escape being hit, the Colonel maintains, a bomber would have to fly at a height where his chances of accurate bombing are about 1,000 to one.

Before closing, let us make note of the fact that the sports editor of the University of Minnesota Daily picked his All Big Ten Team the other day and eleven out of eleven were Minnesota players. That's anti-aircraft gunnery would destroy loyalty!

BOYS TEAM HEADED FOR BIG SEASON PIRATES TROUNCE WASHINGTON TEAM

E. O. T. C. has won 3 out of the 4 games played. The Pirates have netted 132 points to their opponent's 104. Holleman has led the team in scoring in two games, tied for first in one game, took runner-up position in the other one, but he has totaled 54 points to lead the team in total number points scored. Jimmie Johnson with 24 is second and Ridenhour with 19 is next. Stowe is fourth on the team with 17 points.

Teachers Win Hard Fought Game by Large Score

E. O. T. C. trounced the Washington "All-Stars," 42-12. But this one-sided score does not show that Washington had a weak team. Although the Pirates won by a large score it was a hard fought game. The Washington players were out there fighting until the whistle blew, and they let the Pirates know that they had been in a ball game. Holleman and Ridenhour tied for high scoring honors, both netting 10 points each.

pound, chocolate compound, molasses and caramels.

From the clays of the earth he has made non-fading paints and pigments. From worn-out sandy soil he has produced paying crops.

Born in a rude slave cabin in Missouri about 70 years ago (Dr. Carver does not know the exact date) he began his education with a Webster blue-book speller. Today his honors include a Bachelor of Science, Master of Science, honorary Doctor of Science, winner of the Spingarn medal for Negro achievement, member of the Royal Society of the Encouragement of Arts, Manufacturers and Commerce of Great Britain.

The aging Negro's versatility is remarkably demonstrated in fields other than science. Dr. Carver is an accomplished artist, and is especially skilled in painting flowers. His works have been exhibited at world fairs, and some are to be hung in the Luxembourg gallery in Paris after his death. He makes all his own paints using Alabama clays. He makes his paper from peanut shells, and the frames for his pictures are made from corn husks.

Dr. Carver is a skilled musician and once toured the country as a concert pianist. To top these accomplishments, he is an expert cook, and recipes originated by him are used today in leading hotels throughout the country.

By his work in agriculture and chemistry, Dr. Carver has been able to serve his own people and lighten their burdens. Experts say that he has done more to rehabilitate agriculture in the South than any other man living.

"When you do the common things of life in an uncommon way," Dr. Carver once said to his students, "you will command the attention of the world." In that sentence lies the secret of his own achievement.

MITCHELL COLLEGE DEFEATED HERE

Ramblers Win First Game by Score of 36-24

The Ramblers played their first game January 14 against Mitchell Junior College, here. At the end of the game the score was 36-24 in favor of the Teachers.

Three players of the first line-up were freshmen. All forwards that made points were freshmen. They were L. Martin, Blanton and Miller. This is the fifth year L. Martin, winner of high score, has played center on a basketball team. She is five feet and eleven inches and is a good shooter. Sue Pleasant, a guard, is also a great help to the squad. Old favorites are Wilson, M. Martin, Smithson, and R. Parker.

Winner of high score for Mitchell Junior College was Elizabeth Williams, with a total of 14 points. Margaret Thompson, guard, was especially complimented for her playing.

The line-up:
 Greenville: Forwards, L. Martin, 16; Blanton, 12; Miller 8; Tyson: Guards, Capt. M. Martin, Smithson, Pleasant, Howard, Hollowell and Parker.

Mitchell: Forwards, Williams 14, Williamson, 6, Kestler, 4; Guards, Thompson, Mills, Campbell and Frost.

Referee: Mrs. Woodward.

JEW AYERS WORRIES OVER EVER-PRESENT JINX
 Wants Help From Jinx Doctor

"Jew" Ayers seems to have a jinx. "Jew's" jinx is that he has been unable to make more than one point in the first game in the three sports that he plays in. "Jew" came here last spring quarter and was catcher for the baseball team. In his first game for E. O. T. C. he scored one run. Last quarter "Jew" was a substitute half on the football team. In the first game that he played in he made the extra point after touchdown, which was one point. This quarter the jinx still followed "Jew" and in his first basketball game he scored one point on a foul shot. This jinx has "Jew" worried and he says that he would appreciate it if someone who is a "Jinx Doctor" would tell him how to foil his jinx.

Scoring Attack Led By Wilson With 22 Points

PIRATES WIN OVER ROCKY MOUNT 'Y'

The Pirates had better luck in their second game. They beat Rocky Mount "Y," 33-23. The team as a whole showed that they had improved much since the first game. Their teamwork was flawless in this game. Holleman, Pirate center, led both teams in scoring. He collected a total of 20 points while Stowe was runner-up for E. O. T. C. with 6 points. Taylor led Rocky Mount "Y" with 6 points.

GIRLS VARSITY TO TAKE TRIP DURING COMING WEEK

The E. O. T. C. basketball squad, accompanied by Miss Lucille Norton, coach, and Elizabeth Keith, manager, will make a western tour this week-end. They expect to leave early Friday morning, about six o'clock, and arrive in Boone about five o'clock Friday afternoon.

Friday night the Ramblers will play the Appalachian Mountaineers. This will be the third game this season for the Teachers.

Saturday they will journey on to Wingate or William and Mary (it has not been definitely decided which team they will play.) The squad is expected to return to the campus Sunday afternoon, having won two games.

Guarding of M. Martin and Pleasant is Excellent

The girls' basketball team of E. O. T. C. put on a scoring parade to roll up an 85-10 win here over the Carolina School of Beauty Culture sextet of Raleigh. The winners led by 40-8 at the end of the first half. The Teachers showed the result of much practicing and good coaching. All the players are freshmen except four of last year's stars. L. Martin, the star of the game with Mitchell Junior College, did not play because of a hurt knee.

Miss Wilson was high scorer for the Ramblers with 22 points and Miss H. Martin was second with 17 points. Miss Holleman was high scorer for the visitors with 6 points. Capt. M. Martin and Sue Pleasant became veritable shadows with their guarding.

Line-up: Greenville: Forwards, Wilson 22, H. Martin 17, Miller 16, Blanton 14, Tyson 8, Shackelford 4, L. Martin, 4; Guards, Capt. M. Martin, Pleasant, Smithson, Hollowell, R. Parker, Howard, and Trexler. Carolina Beauty College: Forwards, Holleman 6, Badget 2, Raynor 2, Hicks, King, and Guards, Mathes, Stallings, Dison and Jones.

Referee, Mrs. Woodward.
