Twenty-seventh Annual Commencement to Mark Passing of The "D's"

Senior Normal Course is Last Vestige of Original East Carolina Teachers Training School

COURSE PASSING OUT BECAUSE OF INCREASING REQUIREMENTS

Diplomas Have Been Granted 4,215 Graduates From the Two-Year Course; Many "D's" Have Made Envious Records

By LUCILLE LEWIS

With the presentation of diplomas on June 7, to the last group to complete the two year normal school course, the final chapter of the history of East Carolina Teachers Training School will be closed. The two year high school course, which had to be offered in the beginning, was dropped as teaching requirements were raised. Thus the Senior Normal Course is the last vestige of the original school.

East Carolina Teachers Training School was established in 1907 and its first charter says "that the object in establishing and maintaining said school shall be to give to young men and women such training as shall fit and qualify them for teaching in the public schools of North Carolina."

A two-year professional course was considered sufficient training at that time, and until this year of 1937 the State Department of Public Instruction has granted to those holding diplomas for completion of this course "B" certificates for teaching in the primary and grammar grades.

The two year course is passing out because of increasing requirements for higher certificates for teaching, demands of school superintendents, and higher requirements of the State Board of Public Instruction.

This is the only course that both East Carolina Teachers Training School and East Carolina Teachers College have kept throughout the twenty-eight years.

Early Requirements

In planning through early catalogues it is interesting to see what subjects were required in the course of study—for example Home Economics was required of every student, usually to be taken near the end of the course. Some of the alumnae tell of the days when all graduates were required to make their graduation dresses.

The total number to whom diplomas from this course have been granted is 4,215. The first two classes were practically the same size. The number moved steadily upward until the hundred mark was passed in 1923. In 1930 it reached the peak with a total of 283 members. Since that year each class, with the exception of one, has shown a decrease from the one immediately preceding it. Of interest is the fact that the number of graduates was the same as the entire first year enrollment.

The class graduating in June will not exceed 60, and the number to finish in August is very small. The total for this year will be approximately what it was twenty years ago. A large number of "D's" have at later dates received A.B. degrees from this school. It is hard to estimate the number who have received degrees from other colleges, but there have been many transcriptions. (Please turn to page two)

WELL KNOWN PIANIST, ANTONY LOUDIS, PLAYS AT ASSEMBLY

The students of the College were very fortunate in having Mr. Antony Loudis, well known pianist, choral director, and teacher of music at Columbia University, as their guest during assembly hour last Friday. He began his program by playing a selection, "The Wedding Day," by Grieg. After this he played several selections from Chopin: "The Harp Etude," "Prelude in D flat minor," and one in C sharp minor.

Mr. Loudis is a guest on the College campus for the week-end.

RALEIGH CHAPTER HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR; 47 MEMBERS

Dr. Charles Lee Smith Addresses Group at Final Meeting

The Raleigh chapter of the ECTC Alumnae Association has had one of the most successful years, in 1936-37, since the organization of the chapter. One meeting has been held each month during the school year. Forty-seven members were enrolled, making the Raleigh chapter the largest in the State.

The first meeting of the year was held in September at the home of Mrs. J. C. Holland, the chapter president, and the new officers for the year were installed as follows: 1. President—Mrs. J. C. Holland (Alla Mae Jordan). 2. Vice President—Mrs. M. R. Medlin (Sara Louise Nixon). 3. Recording Secretary—Mrs. (Please turn to page two)

To Alumnae

May 20, 1937.

My dear Alumnae: As your president, I am happy again to invite you to make your plans now to come back to our Alma Mater for the annual meeting, which will be held this year on Saturday, June 5, in the Austin Building, at 10:30 o'clock.

This occasion will be unique, as it marks our twenty-fifth anniversary as an Alumnae Association, and it also marks the passing of the Normal School Classes. With this D class the Normal School is gone and as a college we have come of age, launching out to maintain the worthy reputation which our Normal School has gained throughout our state and southland. We were organized by the D classes of 1911 and 1912; and, it seems fitting that as the D's go, we pause to celebrate our twenty-fifth anniversary.

The college has set aside Saturday during commencement as Alumnae Day and has most cordially invited us to enjoy its hospitality. I hope that you will come and bring a number of our members with you. We plan to do honor to this occasion as we meet together in a day of good fellowship and reunion.

To the honor classes, 1936 and 1927, I extend a special invitation. The college is yours for the entire commencement exercises. Let us make this milestone in the history of the college a truly outstanding one.

Sincerely yours, Christine Vick Joyner (Mrs. O. K. Joyner)

Class of 1936

May 20, 1937.

Dear Classmates: Since our last class meeting in June, 1936, I have not had the pleasure of addressing you as a class. However, now I shall take this method of again greeting you, and inviting you to make your plans to go back to our Alma Mater during this commencement.

As you know this marks our first anniversary as a class, and the college will honor us by entertaining us during the entire commencement. I hope that we shall go back one hundred per cent strong. Meet me there and let's enjoy again the many pleasant associations which we had while undergraduates.

With every good wish, I am Your President, Ethel Vick.

"ONE REMEDY FOR WAR," SAYS YORK IN ADDRESS HERE

World War Hero Speaking For Emergency Peace Campaign Emphasizes Folly of Wars

"There is only one sovereign remedy for war," said Sergeant Alvin York in his address here on April 26, "and that is the cultivation of the spirit of peace in the hearts of men."

The burly World War hero, speaking here for the Emergency Peace Campaign, emphasized throughout his talk the folly of foreign wars and the need of education for peace. Many have said, he reminded his audience, that there can be no prevention of war, that war rolls around just as inevitably as the weeks or the months. And when we count the wars we were in, directly or indirectly, in the first hundred and fifty years of our history, we ought to be ashamed.

War Can Be Stopped

However, the number of wars we have engaged in is no sign war can not be stopped if we go at it in the right way. Sergeant York went back to his grandfather, who was decorated for his services in the Mexican War. No doubt after that war he determined not to fight again; but when the hands began to play in 1861, he was one of the first to enlist. This is the way with many men because they have not built up a strong enough desire for peace.

There is a lot of work to be done before we have peace, said the speaker, and went on to suggest legislation to draft money as well as men in war times. "If we had a law to draft a man's money as well as his boy in war time, we'd not have wars."

Fight in Defense Only

Another suggestion was that we determine not to fight unless in real defense and remember that defense does not mean going out of America. Sergeant York expressed himself as ready to meet an invader at our borders, but not willing to go again to a foreign country to war.

To keep our money at home also will help prevent wars. "I'm in favor of lending money to no nation to fight with," said the speaker.

PRESIDENT SAYS DR. R. H. WRIGHT A TRAIL BLAZER

Was a Builder and a Leader in Universal Education: a Man Among Men

DR. WRIGHT HELD SCHOOL TO PURPOSE FOR WHICH FOUNDED

"Let Us Now Praise Famous Men," Were Opening Words of Scripture Lesson in Service Honoring Late Builder of Institution

As trail blazer in teacher training, as a builder and as a leader in universal education, Dr. Robert H. Wright was presented to the students of the college on April 26 by President Meadows in a short service taking note of the anniversary of the builder of the institution.

"Let us now praise famous men" were the opening words of the Scripture lesson Dr. Meadows read, Ecclesiastes chapter 4, just after the singing of Dr. Wright's favorite song "Sun of My Soul."

Wishing to make the students know Dr. Wright as he was, and not as a superman they could never have felt close to, Dr. Meadows presented him as a man among men, who loved men and was loved by the men, a country boy born on a farm sixty-six years ago, who did farm chores as any boy did before they had modern conveniences. He showed him as "fighting Bob" on the football team at the University and made him seem very human to the students.

Greatest Interest

After giving briefly the facts of his life by periods, he put emphasis on the greatest interest in Dr. Wright's life, teacher-training, and showed how in his twenty-five years building this teacher-training institution he did a great work and had far-reaching influence.

The tenacity with which Dr. Wright held the school to the one purpose for which it was established, not letting it become a liberal arts college was one point Dr. Meadows stressed. Dr. Wright believed that only those who were to become teachers should come to this school, and that those who would not make good teachers should be eliminated as soon as their unfitness was discovered, and he thought no one should make teaching stepping-stones to some other profession.

All but six of the twenty-six (Please turn to page two)

Special Invitation

Dear Alumnae:

Speaking on behalf of the Commencement Committee, may I assume that you will regard this letter as a special invitation to be present on the campus for our twenty-seventh annual commencement? The definite commencement schedule, very similar to that of previous years, is contained in this issue of THE TECO ECHO. The success of these plans depends partially upon the alumnae. We are hoping that a large number will find it possible to be present.

R. J. Slay, Chairman.

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION WILL OBSERVE 25th ANNIVERSARY

President of Alumnae Association

Mrs. O. K. Joyner, former Miss Christine Vick of the Class of 1927, who has served as president of the Alumnae Association during the past two years. Mrs. Joyner will be in charge of alumnae activities on Saturday, June 5.

This Year of Special Significance to A.B.'s

Marks Fifteenth Year Since Degrees Were First Conferred Upon Those Students Completing 4-year Course

Eleven Years Ago

Mrs. O. K. Joyner, president of East Carolina Teachers College alumnae association, and formerly Miss Christine Vick, of Woodland, has the distinction of having given the name TECO ECHO to this publication back in 1925. The name was selected by the student body from 150 names submitted in a contest, and Miss Vick was awarded a prize of $5.00 for her entry.

The first group working for A.B. degrees began in the summer of 1921. Two girls, Gertrude Chamberlain and Virginia Pigford, received their degrees in August 1922. These first two were able to finish their work within less than two years after completing the two year course due to the fact that they had already attended liberal arts colleges before coming here and held transferable credits.

In a special session of the state legislature in 1920 it granted this school the right to confer degrees and to become a teachers college. The name, however, was not changed from Training School until the regular session of 1921, and the actual (Please turn to page three)

NASH-EDGECOMBE CHAPTER ACTIVE IN PAST MONTHS

Reports from the Nash-Edgcombe chapter of the ECTC Alumnae Association indicate an active and successful year. In November of last fall the year's work was begun with a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Hinson. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hinson on Tuesday of this week.

Throughout the year members have been working at various schemes to raise funds. At present plans are being made for visiting the college during Commencement and participation in Alumnae day.

Dr. Meadows Guest Speaker

Dr. Leon Meadows was guest speaker at one of the outstanding events of the year, the annual banquet which was held on December 3 in the banquet room of the Winstead cafeteria. Dr. Meadows in addressing the group brought current college news, reporting improvements in the buildings, enlarged faculty, and the addition of a commercial course.

He also spoke on the educational system, pointing out flaws and making suggestions for improvement. He particularly recommended utilization. (Please turn to page two)

Former Presidents of Alumnae Association, and Presidents of A.B., and Senior Normal Classes Will Be Honor Guests of College

CLASS OF 1912 TO HOLD ITS TWENTY-FIFTH REUNION HERE

Following Precedent of Past Years College Will Entertain Classes of 1927 and 1936; During Past Twenty-five Years Alumnae Have Served School Faithfully

One of the high lights of the annual commencement exercises this year will be the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the ECTC Alumnae Association. The new feature is that all of the presidents of the Alumnae Association and the presidents of all of the A.B. and "D" classes have been invited to be honor guests of the college. The present "D" class will serve as hostess to the Senior Normal presidents and the present senior class, to the former A.B. presidents.

Following the precedent of past years the college will continue to entertain as guests the members of the ten-year class (1927) and the one year class (1936).

Last year the class of 1911 held its twenty-fifth reunion and this year the class of 1912 will hold its twenty-fifth reunion.

In the past twenty-five years the Alumnae Association, which was originally the alumnae of East Carolina Teachers Training School, has sponsored many activities which have added much to the college. A brief resume of the activities in the past quarter of a century shows the splendid work that has been carried on by this organization.

Resume of Activities

On Tuesday evening June 5, 1912, the classes of 1911-12 met in the YWCA room of ECTTS and organized an alumnae association to hold annual meetings each year during commencement. Miss Lillie Tucker served as president pro tem of that meeting.

As can be seen from the report that follows, each annual meeting has built upon those which preceded, always cooperating with the college and always keeping alive the high purpose of its first constitution: to develop a spirit of cooperation among its members; to increase a spirit of loyalty to their Alma Mater; and to promote the general welfare of the institution.

At the first meeting in 1912 Miss Nell Pender, now Mrs. A. J. Moore of Greenville, was elected president. In 1913, Mrs. Moore was reelected. At that meeting a constitution was presented and committees were appointed.

In 1914 and 1915 Miss Edna Campbell, now a professor in the Department of Education at Teachers College, Valdosta, Georgia, served as president of the organization. In 1914 plans were made for the presentation of the Mikado to be given under Miss Muffy's direction. In June of 1916 it was reported that $283.33 was realized from this production. In 1915 an alumnae editor for the Training School Quar- (Please turn to page three)

National Capitol Leaders Join In Congratulating "Teco Echo"

Washington, D. C.—(CPS)—Outstanding leaders from the National Capital joined today in sincere congratulations and felicitations to THE TECO ECHO, student publication of the East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville, upon the College newspaper's outstanding honor award accorded by the National Scholastic Press Association. The TECO ECHO was given a First Class Honor Rating in competition with the hundreds of college papers participating, representing all sections of the United States.

All considered the award well merited and praised the editors, the staff, and faculty advisers of THE TECO ECHO for their fine work in bringing this honor to East Carolina Teachers College.

Among the first to express his congratulations to THE TECO ECHO was North Carolina's United States Senator Robert Rice Reynolds who declared:

"THE TECO ECHO of East Carolina Teachers College indeed is to be congratulated upon this outstanding honor that has come to it. The National Scholastic Press Association has chosen THE TECO ECHO as one of the best college papers in the country, which is a rare and high honor of which the paper and the Greenville institution as well can be proud. I am glad to extend my felicitations and best wishes to THE TECO ECHO upon this auspicious occasion in its history of achievement."

Joining Senator Reynolds, his colleague in the Upper House, Senator Josiah William Bailey said:

"The high honor rating won by THE TECO ECHO is cause for pride, not alone in Greenville but throughout North Carolina. I am gratified indeed to know that this progressive (Please turn to page three)

Editor's Note: In this issue of THE TECO ECHO, the staff has attempted to present some of the high spots in the history of East Carolina Teachers College which may be of interest to the alumnae members. However, the issue may not be called strictly an Alumnae Number, for we know that we have "scratched only the surface" of our Alma Mater's rich and colorful history.

Since this year's commencement not only will mark the twenty-fifth year since the organization of the Alumnae Association, but also the closing of the normal school era, and the fifteenth year since the A.B. degree was first conferred upon a student here, the staff has taken as a theme for this issue a section of the college charter which has remained unchanged throughout the years and which states that said school shall be maintained for the purpose of giving young men and women such education and training as shall qualify them to teach in the public schools of North Carolina. We have tried to show how East Carolina Teachers College has fulfilled its purpose over a period of twenty-eight years.

For invaluable information and suggestions in the publishing of this number of THE TECO ECHO, the staff offers "many thanks" to Miss Mamie E. Jenkins. We also take this opportunity to thank all others who cooperated with us in making the number of some value to the alumnae.

ONE PURPOSE ALWAYS

Throughout the past twenty-eight years this institution has held to a consistency of purpose which is stated in a section of the school's charter as follows: That said school shall be maintained by the State for the purpose of giving young white men and women such education and training as shall fit and qualify them to teach in the public schools of North Carolina. In holding to this purpose, the school has passed from the high school and normal school stage to a normal school and teachers college. This year will mark the beginning of a new era, for with the passing of the "D's" the last vestige of the original East Carolina Teachers Training School yields to a progressive four-year teachers college.

In the beginning this institution offered two years of high school, and the normal school course. Then, as requirements for high school teachers were raised, the first two classes were dropped, and subsequently, a teachers college course requiring four years for completion was offered. An extra session of the general assembly in 1920 gave the school permission to grant the A.B. degree. There was no deviation from the two-year course; however, at the same time, a student might if she preferred work toward an A.B. degree.

In 1921 the name of East Carolina Teachers Training School was changed by action of the general assembly to East Carolina Teachers College. The name was changed as little as possible to make it descriptive of what the school really was. The word "college" was substituted for the words "training school," and emphasis was placed on the word "teachers," since that is the word that distinguishes this type of college from others.

The school did not change its purpose in the least, but the scope of its work was enlarged to meet the requirements for teachers after they were increased by the State Department of Education.

This year the two-year course is passing out because of increasing demands by school superintendents, and higher requirements of the State Board of Public Instruction. But again, since this school was established for the sole purpose of training teachers to teach in the public schools of the State, East Carolina Teachers College is maintaining the same singleness of purpose as stated in the first charter. When the public schools make greater demands, it becomes necessary for this institution to meet those demands.

TO THE ALUMNAE

Dear Alumnae and Alumni: Some weeks ago, there appeared in one of the leading daily papers of our country the following notice: "Henry, come home; we need you. Mother." Your college mother is sending you this same message: Come home; we need you. We need your presence as we celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the alumnae association; we need your sympathy as we bid farewell to the last of the two-year normal classes; we need your cooperation as we plan for a college that is able to render a greater service to North Carolina; we need the touch of your hand, the sound of your voice, the charm of your personality to make commencement all that it should be. Come home. Sincerely yours, Leon R. Meadows, President.

TIME TO SAY ADIEU

And now the time has come for us to say adieu, as "the old order changeth, yielding place to new." The retiring staff members are going out with the publishing of this issue and are leaving in charge those students who recently were elected to fill the vacancies.

At this time may we recall the goal which we set last fall, and apologize for whatever shortcomings we may have had in working toward that end. We have tried to present an impartial cross-section of college activity as completely as possible; we have endorsed movements which we felt would result in the betterment of East Carolina Teachers College, and yet, have avoided an eternal journalistic crusade and we have tried conscientiously to maintain a conservative policy, giving adequate consideration always before drawing conclusions. In all our policies we have tried to keep the students and the institution first in our minds.

We are aware of the ever increasing progress of this college from year to year, and we are proud of this progress. With our final number of THE TECO ECHO, we reaffirm our allegiance to East Carolina Teachers College and the principles for which it stands.

IN MEMORY OF TWO ALUMNAE MEMBERS

We, the members of East Carolina Teachers College Alumnae Association, wish to pay tribute to the memory of two of our loyal members whom God has called from our midst, since we last met in June, 1936. Mrs. Mary Moore Nobles, of the class of 1913, was ever loyal, gentle, and kind. She resided in Greenville and kept her contact with the college during her busy married life while she assumed the duties and privileges of a wife and a mother. One of the faculty members spoke recently of her as lovely Mary Moore. We shall miss her, and ever cherish her memory.

Mrs. Lella Askew Parker, of the class of 1927, likewise was a wife and a mother. In her quiet, well regulated life near Woodland, N. C., she always impressed those with whom she came in contact as one who had mastered the art of living. She seemed never to be disturbed by the petty things which little people fret and fume over. We shall miss her gentle influence.

To the loved ones of these two we wish to express our sincere sympathy and pray that we, too, may approach our passing like one "who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams." Christine Vick Joyner.

of records to other schools. In every catalogue there is found under Student Loan Fund that all the classes except one, from 1911 until 1922 left substantial sums ranging from $112.50 to $2,872.78 to this fund. The only class omitted from this list left $900 for interior decoration.

It stands as follows:
The Class of 1911 $ 112.50
The Class of 1912 200.00
The Class of 1913 300.00
The Class of 1914 210.00
The Class of 1915 200.00
The Class of 1916 205.00
The Class of 1917 400.00
The Class of 1918 500.00
The Class of 1919 500.00
The Class of 1921 200.00
The Class of 1922 2,872.78

It is amazing to students today how such amounts could be raised but questioning faculty members and alumnae who were here then shows that much of this was made by the plays. This was in the days before moving pictures had swept away amateur stage productions.

Later classes have left gifts for beautifying the campus, for interior decoration of various buildings, for the Alumnae Endowment Funds, and various other purposes. This year's class is leaving a clock for Cotten Hall office.

The record made by the two year classes is one of which the college is proud. Envious individual records have been made by many of the members of the classes. Among the leaders of these classes are the following who served as presidents:

- 1911, Lilliet Tucker, Washington, D. C.

RALEIGH CHAPTER HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR; FORTY-SEVEN MEMBERS

C. J. Thoroughgood (Zelma Wester).

- 4. Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. R. F. Noble (Mamie Cutler).
- 5. Treasurer — Mrs. B. S. Jenkins (Julia Wood).
- 6. Reporter — Mrs. R. J. Ray (Ann Whitehurst).
- Mrs. J. M. Newsome (Ellen

Renfro) was appointed to report interesting news from the Teco Echo at each meeting during the year. Plans for the year were discussed and a report of the State meeting which was held during commencement was given by Mrs. J. L. Maroon (Augusta Woodard) and Mrs. G. W. Bradshaw (Mary Newby White).

Mrs. Charles M. Johnson, an active alumnae member, and also a member of the Board of Trustees made an interesting talk on the progress and needs of the College, listing projects for consideration. Mrs. Johnson has appeared on the program several times during the year, urging cooperation among Alumnae members for a "bigger and better" college.

A committee was appointed to represent the chapter at the homecoming Day at the College in October. In December a Bazaar was held at the time of the regular meeting. A contribution was made during the year to the Red Cross for the benefit of Flood Relief.

Mrs. J. B. Spillman, chairman of the State Employment Compensation Board, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the chapter in January which was held at the Tally-Ho Inn. Thirty-five members were present to hear Mrs. Spillman discuss the "Social Security Act."

Bridge Tournament

One of the most interesting events of the year was the annual bridge tournament which the chapter sponsored in April. This was held in the Virginia Dare Ballroom of the Sir Walter Hotel. All favors, tallies and decorations were made by the teachers and pupils in the schools, and the college colors of purple and gold were emphasized throughout the Ballroom. Prizes were donated by friends of the college and merchants of the city. Sixty-eight reservations were made and seventy-five dollars was realized from this event.

Dr. Charles Lee Smith, internationally known lecturer, teacher and author, and a resident of Raleigh, addressed the group at the final meeting of the year in May. Dr. Smith has traveled extensively besides teaching for twenty-one years in the various colleges here and abroad and his subject for the evening was "The Changing Times." Mrs. Charles M. Johnson was hostess for the meeting which was held at the Carolina Country Club.

Lookin' Over the Campus

With C. Ray Pruette

Francis Sinclair, the campus Romeo seems to have established a record. Francis has the record of dancing to one piece of music with twenty-four different girls breaking on him, and no girl breaking on him twice! You are a better man than I am Gungah Din!

Mr. Duke Tharrington wishes to announce to his patrons and friends, that he now holds a position with the St. Louis Cardinals with a salary of $150 per month. (Work hard enough Duke and get $200 per week. Also remember Duke that you are from ECTC!)

Miss Catherine Albritton, better known as "Cat" to her intimate friends, is in town. Why? I don't know! I had better quit, here, before I divulge any names! Good luck Catherine!

I see that Chamney Calfee has just finished his practice teaching in hair-cutting, but I don't think he will pass, because I saw some mighty "snooty" haircuts on some of the coeds:

Score
Hill Pratt's haircut	49
Jack Noe	10
Bill Shelton	61 1/2
Duke Tharrington	1
Total	66 1/2

Chamney Calfee failed.

Time will have to march fast as the back of those boys' heads are mighty cold and shiny.

I thing Robert Pittman was pretty hurt about his haircut, as Carolyn was heard to say, "It sure is a shame!"

As you all know, Mr. Francis Ferebee had his tooth knocked out the other day with a baseball! Well that isn't any news, you say, we know that! But supposed Francis had knocked a ball to pieces with his tooth, that would be news! Whatta say?

I wish to take this space to tell George Willard, and members of the staff, that they have done a marvelous piece of work this year, and the school is proud of them.

buildings on the campus, were built under Dr. Wright's administration and he found those six when he came here. This physical building Dr. Meadows used as a symbol of the building that cannot be seen with the eye.

Dr. Meadows closed by picturing a scene when Dr. Wright was pleading before a legislative committee that the children in the poorest and smallest schools should be given the same chance as those in the richest and finest, thus showing his great interest in universal education.

President Meadows expressed the hope that year after year the school would continue to hold a service calling to the mind of the students the life and work of Robert H. Wright.

The Rev. W. A. Ryan, Peace Council President, introduced the speaker and later concluded the program with some explanation of the work of the Emergency Peace Campaign, with its emphasis last spring on securing good neutrality legislation and this spring on a "no Foreign War" crusade.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Richard Bagley, minister of the First Christian Church in Washington, N. C. Dr. Carl L. Adams presided. The local high school band opened the program with several selections.

Oglesby First Man To Receive Degree Here

Now Principal of Grifton High School; 12 of 13 Teachers Are ECTC Graduates

Henry Oglesby, '32, first man to graduate from East Carolina Teachers College and receive the A.B. degree, is now principal of the Grifton High School, at Grifton, North Carolina. While on this campus, Oglesby took a prominent part in student activities. He played a leading role in the senior class play here last year, and was instrumental in organizing the first Science Club of which he was elected president.

An interesting side light concerning the Grifton school is the fact that twelve of the thirteen teachers are ECTC graduates. Besides Mr. Oglesby, are: Gladys Stokes, '25, Ayden; Louise Jordan, '33, Powellsville; Hilda Thompson, '34, Windsor; Josephine Essex, '35, Windsor; Mildred Gibson, '35, Wilmington; Margaret Harris, '35, Bann; Lucy Sherman, '35, Roanoke Rapids; Catharine Parker, '35, Enfield; James Carr, '36, Greenville; and Billie Williams, '36, Elkin.

Miss Estelle Greene, a teacher in Greenville High School, was president in 1916 when it was reported that the gym fund totaling $315.34 was to be turned over to President Wright for the purpose of building a swimming pool. In 1917 the committee reported that the gym fund had increased $31.50. It was voted to divide this fund, giving half to the gym and using half for expenses.

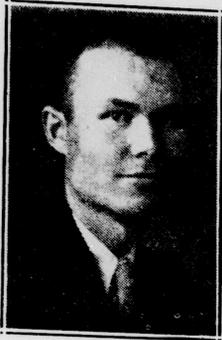

In 1918, under the presidency of Miss Luella Lancaster (Mrs. Leland Stovall of Winterville), the association voted to turn the money in bank over to President Wright to use as he wished for buying Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps.

In 1919, Miss Louise Smaw of Raleigh, N. C., served as president of the Alumnae Association when it was announced that President Wright had been given $349.93 which he invested in War Savings Stamps. In 1920, Miss Smaw still serving as president, the first branch associations were organized, Pitt and Edgecombe taking the lead in organizing. Miss Ophelia O'Brien of Kinston, N. C., was elected president in 1921. It was at that meeting that Miss Jenkins presented the idea of an Endowment Fund. This idea was accepted and it was decided to divert the gym fund, already given to President Wright, to the Endowment Fund.

The following year, 1922, the Wake County Branch reported $101.08 for the Endowment Fund. That same year Pitt County sponsored the coming of Helen York as a feature of Alumnae program for Commencement. It was at this meeting that the name of the Association was changed to the ECTC Alumnae Association. Miss Ruth Deans, at present a teacher in Roanoke Rapids schools, was president that year.

In 1923, Miss Pattie S. Dowell, a critic teacher at Winthrop College, was president. It was at that meeting that the subject of a full time secretary came up for discussion. Dr. Wright said that the Board would pay one half of the salary.

In 1924, the Pasquotank County Chapter was organized. The Wilson Memorial Fund was started at which time the Pasquotank Chapter donated $8 toward the fund. It was decided that plans for the Wilson Memorial would be made later. Miss Emma Cobb (Mrs. A. C. Byrum of Thompson Orphanage, Charlotte) served as president that year.

In 1925, '26 and '27, Miss Ruth Lowder, a teacher in the Asheville Schools, was elected and re-elected president. In '25 the Scholastic Endowment was increased and a pergola was built on west campus as the Wilson Memorial. In '26, the reception committee reported that they were making an effort to equip Alumnae Hall in the new campus building (Wright Building) while in '27, the main project work was done toward finishing an Alumnae secretary. At that time the custom of having reunions for the ten year class and the one year class was instituted.

Miss Bonnie Howard, elementary supervisor in Louisville, Kentucky, became president in 1928 and was re-elected in 1929. In '28, it was voted to keep a paid student corresponding secretary. The new project of that year was to honor Mrs. Beckwith in some way. In '29, it was decided to institute a Kate R. Beckwith Loan Fund—$500 for five years—after which the association would specify what would be done with the fund.

In 1930, plans were made to raise $5,000 scholarship fund to be given at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the college in 1934. In '31, these activities were continued with Helen Watson, Mrs. F. M. Johnson, of Morehead City, acting as president.

In 1932, Miss Deanie Boone Haskett, critic teacher in Greenville, and at that time vice president of the Alumnae Association, served in the absence of the president. In that year the Pitt County Chapter sponsored the first Founder's Day.

The following year, 1933, it was decided to use the Beckwith Fund with interest and build a gateway to be known as the Kate R. Beckwith Gateway. Miss Lillie Mae Dawson (Thompson) served as president that year.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, assistant Dean of Women at ECTC, served as president in 1934 and '35. In 1934 the Herbert F. Austin Loan Fund was started by the Pitt County Chapter, resolutions of love and respect for President Wright were drawn up, the Robert H. Wright Loan Fund was started, and the Raleigh Chapter presented resolutions asking for Dr. Meadows' appointment as President. In '35 the Austin Loan Fund was completed and the objective for the coming year was to increase the Wright Loan Fund.

In 1936 the Robert H. Wright Loan Fund was completed and it was voted to discontinue Founder's Day and to institute the celebration of Fall Homecoming Day instead. Mrs. Christine Vick Joyner of Woodland, N. C., served as president that year and was re-elected to serve in 1937.

wording of the purpose of the school was in no way changed. This action came about as the result of an attempt to meet the requirements of public schools and to provide a longer period of training for the teachers of the state. The laws of North Carolina for the certification of teachers had provided a salary scale based on the amount of training which a teacher had.

The first class to start in as freshmen and spend the full four years toward A.B. degrees was graduated in 1925. For the first three years the candidates for degrees were former two-year graduates and the number was small. In 1924, the third year of granting degrees, there were seven graduates. It is significant that the first full fledged class that

HOLLAND STRIKES OUT 19 CAMELS; WINS GAME, 10-5

Bill Holland, big Pirate south-paw, struck out 19 batters as his Campbell College a 10-5 victory over on Saturday, May 1. This ran his five games he has pitched thus far.

The Pirates were never behind. In the first they scored three runs and added another in the second. The Camels tied the score with a three-run spurge in the third. Both Holland and Henderson, Campbell pitcher, then hurled shut-out ball until the seventh when the Pirates tallied twice more. They added four more runs in the ninth.

Durward Stowe hit two doubles and a single in four times at bat to lead the Pirate's ten-hit attack. Floyd Hinton with a double and a single and Bill Shelton with two singles, ranked next.

Sessoms led Campbell's hitting with a double and two singles. Coats, with two singles, was next.

had gone through the four years was one more in number than the first two-year normal class in 1911, of which there were eighteen members, and exactly the same in number as the second, which had nineteen members.

The number of graduates increased almost by tens until 1929 when there were eighty-two in the graduating class. The peak year, however, was 1933 with a class of 123 members. Last year the number went to 127 and the present year through June shows 109 candidates for graduation, with the August graduates still to be counted, which will probably carry the number of graduates this year beyond any other in the past. The total number of A.B. alumnae at the present is 107. In 1927 the college became a member of The Association of Southern Colleges and Secondary Schools and since that time there have been a number of students transferring credits.

The first class to organize was the 1924 class with seven members and Annie Howard Felton of Dunn, N. C., as its president. The succeeding class presidents were: 1925, Rebecca Colwell, Edenton, N. C. 1926, Janie Jackson, Mrs. W. A.

NATIONAL CAPITAL LEADERS JOIN IN CONGRATULATING "TECO ECHO"

Tar Heel State college newspaper performed such a feat in this highly competitive race. To all who participated in making this winner with the issuance of a fine publication throughout the academic year I send my best greetings and congratulations.

Representing President Roosevelt's Cabinet, Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper, native Carolinian added:

"As a native Carolinian I am delighted over the outstanding recognition accorded The Teco Echo of East Carolina Teachers College, The Teco Echo, one of the South's leading college papers, performed fine work to win this magnificent recognition and will undoubtedly continue this splendid effort to win many more honors. I congratulate the editors, the staff and all who aided in bringing this honor to The Teco Echo."

Congressman Lindsay Carter Warren of the Greenville-area district was more than happy to learn that a paper right in his own district had won an honor award. Recalling he had "fought battles for East Carolina Teachers College in the State Legislature," Congressman Warren added:

"The award of the National Scholastic Press Association to The Teco Echo is more than pleasing. I am happy to congratulate The Teco Echo published at that grand institution, the East Carolina Teachers College, right in my own district. The Teco Echo editors, staff and faculty advisers have done fine work and are more than deserving of felicitations."

In the 1921 summer number of The East Carolina Teachers Training School Quarterly there is a picture of the first college class. In the picture there are seventeen of the first class. There were perhaps several others who were taking college work. Of these more than half hold A.B. degrees from this college. Two of them, it is known, hold Masters' Degrees from universities. The summer issue of the quarterly was issued by this group.

Irwin "Duke" Tharrington, ECTC right-hander, won his third game against no losses on May 5 when the Pirates won from the Naval Apprentice School in a game played at Newport News, Virginia. Durward Stowe with a triple and three singles for five times at bat and Adrian Ayers with a double and a single for three led the Pirates at bat. Everybody on the team hit two collected at least one hit. Woltz and Catlett with three for four each led the Apprentice team.

1933, the year boasting the largest graduating class, the right to confer the M.A. degree was granted to this college, and the first Masters degree was conferred in that year. In 1934 two M.A. degrees were granted. In 1935 only one was granted. At the present time there are nine graduate students enrolled, some of whom are within one quarter's work of their Masters degree.

Since the summer of 1921, when the first A.B. class was enrolled, this school has been performing a dual function, that of a normal and of a teachers college. Next fall it will open as one distinct type of school, a straight teachers college.

This step was foreseen by former President Robert H. Wright, when in 1928 before the depression he made the statement that he predicted that by 1932, if nothing happened to interfere with the course of education in the state, the State Department of Public Instruction would require graduation from a four-year college. It is needless to say that the depression following in the next years is probably the biggest reason that we are five years behind his prediction.

Commencement this spring will emphasize this important anniversary. All the presidents of the Alumnae Association, of the D classes, and of the four-year senior classes will be invited to be honor guests of the college.

Eight Players Finish Season With Averages Above .300; Team Average is .297

By ELMER SMITH

Floyd Hinton, hard-hitting first baseman for ECTC hit steadily during the entire season to take top honors in the Pirate's batting attack. He also led the home-run column, getting two for the season. Not only is Floyd a heavy hitter but he has an enviable fielding record and is classed as one of the best first basemen in North Carolina collegiate baseball.

Durward Stowe, centerfielder, was a close second with an average of .373. This is Stowe's last year since he graduates in June.

Thornwell "Hoot" Gibson, another senior, was third with an average of .365. Other players hitting above .300 were "Lex" Ridenhour, regular second baseman, with .333; Earle Smith, third baseman and transfer from Campbell College, with .315; Baxter Ridenhour, with .307; and Adrian "Jaw" Ayers, with .303. Jack Noe, outfielder, got one hit for two trips for an average of .500. The team average, counting the pitchers, was .297.

New YWCA Cabinet Is Installed At Regular Vesper Hour On May 2

Miss Catherine Wallace is Outgoing President

At a beautiful and impressive candlelight service, the new cabinet of the YWCA, that will serve next year, was installed at the regular vesper hour, on Sunday evening, May 2.

Singing "Just As I Am," the members of the old and new cabinets marched down opposite aisles of the Austin Auditorium, and met on the stage.

Miss Catherine Wallace, the outgoing president, who was in charge of the service, gave the purpose of the organization as spreading abroad the light of Jesus Christ, and impressed upon the new cabinet the care taken in selecting them and the responsibilities that would be theirs. The members of the old cabinet stood on the stage with lighted candles, and as each new member was introduced, her candle was lighted by the person whom she was succeeding, who also offered a challenge to her. The last person to be installed was Miss Elizabeth Copeland, the incoming president. As she took the light of the old president, Miss Copeland pledged her trust to the one who said, "Be of good cheer. I have overcome the world and because I have overcome, ye too shall overcome."

With the YWCA song, "Follow the Glean," the old and new cabinets filed out of the auditorium.

The newly installed officers were: Misses Elizabeth Copeland, president; Marie Dawson, vice president; Georgia Sugg, treasurer; Prue Newby, secretary; Rebecca Watson, Student Government representative; Mary Parker Johnson, chairman of social service committee; Kathleen Strickland, social; Susan Evans, membership; Louise Britt, publicity; Maggie Crumpler, world fellowship; Edna Earle Perry, music; Catherine Cheek, morning watch; and Fannie Brewer, Teco Echo Reporter.

The front campus of East Carolina Teachers College was the scene of a lovely lawn party Wednesday evening, May 12, given by the student body in honor of the two graduating classes. Japanese lanterns outlining the scene proved to be very effective as attractive decoration.

The guests were met at the gate by Misses Ruth Cagle, president of the senior class, and Irene Williamson, president of the D class. Dances were given by a group from the Physical Education classes accompanied at the piano by Miss Marion Wood. Piano solos were rendered by Miss Nola Walters and Ralph Hutchinson.

Those serving at the punch bowl were Misses Helen and Dorothy Wilson.

LAWN PARTY HONORING GRADUATING CLASSES GIVEN BY STUDENT BODY

The front campus of East Carolina Teachers College was the scene of a lovely lawn party Wednesday evening, May 12, given by the student body in honor of the two graduating classes. Japanese lanterns outlining the scene proved to be very effective as attractive decoration.

GRACE FREEMAN SUCCEEDS NOLA WALTERS AS CHIEF MARSHALL

At a simple yet very impressive marshal installation service held in Austin Auditorium on May 11, Miss Grace Freeman, of Morehead City, was installed as next year's chief marshal to succeed Miss Nola Walters. Misses Walters and Freeman went up the aisles and met in the center of the stage where Miss Walters transferred the purple and gold marshal regalia from her shoulders to the shoulders of Miss Freeman, while the college song was being played by Miss Edna Earle Perry.

The fifteen marshals representing the literary societies marched up the aisles in three groups of five from each society as the society songs were played, each marshal following the example of the chief marshal by placing her regalia on the shoulders of her new successor marshal. Miss Helen Spangler is the faculty adviser of the new marshals succeeding Miss Maude Adams.

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINS SOPHOMORES WITH WEINER ROAST

The Senior Class of the College entertained the Sophomores last Thursday evening with a weiner roast down by the College lake.

There was a large number present and judging from the merriment made as weiners and marshmallows were roasted, the entertainment was a marked success.

During the fall quarter the Sophomores entertained their sister class, the Seniors, with a dance, and in return their weiner roast was given by the Seniors.

ENGLISH CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY SIGHT-SEEING TRIP TO NEW BERN

Seventeen members of the English Club of East Carolina Teachers College enjoyed a sight-seeing trip to historic New Bern Thursday afternoon, May 13. The trip was made by bus, and a picnic lunch was served.

Mrs. Blanche R. Morris, of New Bern, conducted the group to various places of interest in the city. The tour began with a visit to the Episcopal church, where the handsome communion service presented by George II was on display, and included stops at the old Presbyterian church; the John Wright Stanley House, now the New Bern library; Tryon's Palace; the old Masonic Theater; and several of the fine Georgian homes along Front Street. The students also saw the garrotte, Spanish instrument of torture and the interesting collection of firearms at Joe Anderson Drug Store, and the automobile made in 1899 by Gilbert S. Waters.

The tour was arranged by Miss Frances Barnes, president of the English Club. Faculty members who accompanied the students were Misses Emma Hooper, Lois Griggs, Dorothy Schnyder, Mary Greene, Mrs. A. B. Buttrell, and Paul T. Ricks and D. E. Baughan.
