

ficiency in drill during this Hynson; business education, Mattie On Saturday afternoon, May 17, on the Air" Faye Brown; foreign language, Clyde at 5 p.m., a concert by the college Cadet First Lieutenant John T. Cox A. White; English, Joyce Proctor; band will be held. At 8 p.m. a Music Mesley Players received the Air Force association geography, William A. Finch Jr.; Honors recital will be given by stu-951-52 school year."

Choir Presents Special Program For Music Week

The College choir of East Carolina presented Tuesday evening e third in a series of programs aged for National Music week. The group of men and women students the Austin auditorium at 8 rl V. Gilbert of the faculty. Hearne Moss, Greenville, soprano; chapters in the nation, it has been demonstrating "the great- science, F. Milam Johnson. dents selected by the faculty as havst proficiency in Academic Air Others were social studies, Charles ing made outstanding musical adorce ROTC courses and general con- Graham Nickens; mathematics, Leah vancement during the past year. the AFROTC program L. McGlohon; industrial arts, Robert Those honored are Charles Arm-East Carolina college during the W. Wechter; library science, Harold strong, trombone; Delores Mathews, Blake; grammar grade education, clarinet; and Walter Noona, piano; FOT Last Banquet Tecoan Editor Charles Shackelford Maxine Robinson; primary grade ed- also, vocalists Carolyn Eisele and ucation, Ethel Parks; health and Alison Hearne Moss, sopranos.

physical education, Arthur Alford; To add to this program the College Bob Robinson, president of the Stu- lege orchestra will also perform. dent Government association, presid- On Sunday and Monday the Coled over the program, and John T. lege choir and Woman's chorus, with Cox, chairman of the Awards Board Miss Gladys Reichard, and the Col-Executive committee, made the in- lege orchestra will render presentatroductions. tions.

Pi Omega Pi Merits Award From National Organization

East Carolina college chapter of Pi New officers who were installed under the direction of Dr. Omega Pi, national honorary busi- are Ann Baysden, Ernul, president; ness education fraternity, received Kenneth H. Kennedy, Greenville, vice Six student soloists appeared with Friday evening, May 2, a national president; Una Francis, Conway, secoir in numbers presented dur- merit award from the organization. retary; Edward Biggs, Everetts, he evening. They were Carolyn The honor went to the Beta Kappa treasurer; and Maggie Gatlin, Ernul, Statesville, soprano; Jean- chapter at the college here in recog- and Paul Weeks, Whitakers, histori-Ennis, Dunn, soprano; Alison nition of the fact that among 85 ans.

New Members Initiated Starling, Rocky Mount, tenor; most outstanding in its activities dur- Those initiated as members of the Geonard Starling, Rocky Mount, bari- ing the 1951-1952 school year. The fraternity are Joan Britt, Fairmont; one; and Bernard Ham, Portsmouth, East Carolina chapter was the first Peggy Joyce Bowen and Betty Sue recipient of the award, which was Branch, Greenville; Carolyn Bur-

At Atlantic Beach Meet At Church Members of Phi Sigma chapter of Sigma Pi Alpha, foreign language fraternity, were guests of Mr. and YOUNG GOP Club Mrs. Ralph Deal of Greenville at Atlantic Beach Sunday, May 4. Members of the fraternity who mixed flowers and candles as decora- Others attending were Al Williams, student political organization during Andrew K. Meeder of Norfolk, Va., tions. A delicious dinner was served Barbara Mange, Joe Johnston, Edith the 1952-1953 term. Hughes suc- YMCA president, and Grace Baker by candlelight by Mrs. C. E. Oakley, Ann Mangum, Bobbie Burch, Nancy ceeds Rudolph Alexander of Golds- of Kenansville and Joyce Gurley of Secretary of Student work, and sev- Kesler, Jean Thorne, Jane Simmons boro as president. eral other members of WSCS circles. and Mrs. George Perry and James L. Ethel Parks, outgoing president, Fleming, faculty advisors. was toastmaster and introduced sev- Guests of the fraternity were Anne been chosen to serve for the second During the graduation exercises gave the invocation. A history of the Mary Gwen Richardson, David Terry, organization was given by Elaine Charles Wentz, Ruth Whitford, Jim Horton, Janet Rose, Jimmy Ellis, Smith.

For Coming Year The Annual banquet of Alpha Zeta went on the trip were Dot Bradshaw, chapter of the National society of Rosemary Canady, Carolyn Hines, and home economics, Frances Barnes. singers, Varsity Glee club and Col- Wesley Players of the local Wesley Priscilla Hynson, Julianne Leimone, cently elected president of the Young Dr. Robert L. Holt, director of refoundation was held in the Fellow- Evelyn Littleton, Edna Massad, Hat- Republicans club of East Carolina ligious activities at East Carolina, ship hall of Jarvis Memorial Metho- tie Lee McPhail, James Rickards, college. dist church, April 30 at 6:30 p.m. Anne Warren, Paul Weeks and Ver-The tables had arrangements of nie Wilder.

"Lonely Lady," was given by the Fleming.

Oak Tree players and directed by Jack Howard, himself a former Wes-ley Player. James L. Stoner

Following the play an initiation ceremony was held in the sanctuary. Elaine Smith, newly elected president, was in charge of the service.

Those participating were Jack How-ard, Charles Cherry, Waylon Upchurch. Dot Howard and Elaine year's staffs to contact them before be speaker. the end of school this year.

Luncheon, Tea On Tap A luncheon in the college dining Bob Hughs Leads hall and a tea at the home of President and Mrs. Messick will honor alumni visiting the campus and 1952 graduates of the college. Other programs announced for Saturday include a lawn concert by the College band at 5 o'clock and a recital by music organizations and student soloists at 8 o'clock in the Wright Bob H. Hughes of Elkin was re- building.

-

will speak at the annual YMCA-With other new officers of the YWCA Vesper servicees Sunday evegroup, he will direct activities of the ming at 7:30 in the College theatre. Goldsboro, president and vice presi-Dr. George Pasti of the college dent of the YWCA, are arranging department of social studies has the program.

eral guests. The Rev. Leon Russell Butler, David Jones, Loyce Bonner, year as faculty advisor of the YRC. Monday, 51 men who have completed Student officers in addition to their training in the East Carolin Hughes are Roland F. Jones, Golds- unit of the Air Force ROTC unit oro, vice president; Pauline Moore, receive commissions in the US For the entertainment a play, Robert Pugh and Mrs. James L. Bath, secretary; Joe W. Stroud, Force Reserve, according to Jonesville, treasurer; and Rudolph nouncement by Major Lomes Alexander, Goldsboro, assistant sec- professor of air science a retary.

Chairmen appointed to head standing committees of thee YRC for the DAULSI coming school year are Imogene Jennette, Mt. Olive, publicity committee, and Albert L. Harrington, Burlington, membership committee.

George E. Denne fille sellers de la 11:1 1 11: and mill be con-	notto Honewell Va · Charles Clark	ard, Charles Cherry, Waylon Up-
George E. Perry of the college de- partment of music, organist, accom- ferred annually by Pi Omega Pi in	Rollhoven, Edward Biggs Everetts.	church, Dot Howard and Elaine		Pick Up Permits!	FAP NUM
handelt of music, organist, accom- ferred annually by Pi Omega Fi m	James Robert Everett, Williamston;
	Una Francis, Conway; Janice Rober-	Pledges were: Lou Kirven, Shirley	City, director of the University Chris-	Registrar Orval L. Phillips reminds
ral works, Brahms' "A Song of Des-   Pilkinton Receives Award	son, Bethel; Dorothy V. Smith, Oak	Clark, Robert Gardner, Willa D.	tion Mission of the National Council	students that permits to register for	The summer
enade to Music." Delores Matthews president of the college chapter, re-	Gitter Carl Flowers Tronton: Ada	Lindsay, Jean Spencer, Lois Ann My-			Student United of Henderson, pianist, was accom- ceived the award, a handsome plaque,	Wonthington Kington: and James	ers, Charlie Bedford, Olene Civils,	k'ost ('avoling collogo today		ced this woll
	Ciamana Debongonyullo	Diffy Toose Children, Think Courses,	While at Fast Carolina Mr Stoner	tration can be shortened by picking	Dusingest H
panist for other numbers on the at a dinner meeting of the organiza- program. tion Friday evening in the Parish	Stevenson, Robersonvine.	Michael Raynor and Thomas Pierce.	11 and an with students and collogo	up the permits from the registrer a
tion Friday evening in the Parish	Among special guests at the un-		officials on plans for the annual ob-	office, comments the East Carolina	Restation
Included among selections to be House of the Greenville Episcopal	ident John D. Messick and Mrs. Mes-	Alevander Heads IRC	servance of Religious Emphasis week	registrar.	Versee resented by the College choir were church.	ident John D. Messick and Mrs. Mes-	The Andrea The Andrea The	during the 1952-1953 term.
"Freedom, Toleration" by Roy Har- William R. Pasewark, acting head	Sick; Dr. Howard J. McGinnis of		An ordained minister of the Dis-	Art Group Recognizes
ris, with words, by Walt Whitman; of the department of business educa-	Greenville, formerly director of the	Budalah Alexander of Coldshare
"Three Reincarnations" by Samuel tion at Meredith college and national	college Bureau of Fleid Services and	innian at Fast Campling collogs will	minister in Henden Conn and has	Local Teacher's WORK
Barber; and "Evening" by Zoltan editor of Pi Omega Pi, made the	honorary member of Pi Omega Pi;	Junior at East Carolina college, will	dome religious work among students	Dora Cirlot, director of the depart presentation. During the evening he	and Dr. Audrey V. Dempsey, faculty	be president of the international Re-	at the University of Torne At Bowl-	ment of art at Fast Complian college spoke to members of the Beta Kappa	sponsor of the Beta Kappa chapter.	1952-1953 term. He succeeds Evelyn	ing Groop State university in Ohio	is one of a group of advertise
Cadot Off: Chapter and their guests on the		1952-1953 term. He succeeds Evelyn	ing Green State university in Onio	work is recognized in a second
Cadet Officers Group chapter and their guests on the	Notice!		he was first director of the Student
Elects Sauls President of the fraternity.		Alexander was president during the	Christian fellowship there, a pioneer	Work conformer of The
	A quota of fifteen representatives	present school year of the Young Re-	1045 Simes 1047 he has been director	tion in Ant hold in North
Elected Tuesday of this week to Serve as president of next year's Air Preceding the dinner, an installa-	from East Carolina can be accommo-	publicans club on the campus, and.	of the University Christian mission	The conference in the state
Force ROTC Officers club was Mel- tion and initiation service was held	dated at Ridgecrest for the South	was recently chosen as assistant sec-	At East Compline Mr. Stomer will	the National Art.
the Flonggan Dillaing on Life Colli-	I will Daptist braucht conter by	I total y of the organization for here		All and a second s
lected vice president by the group i pus. Thirteen new members were ac-	10 to make repervations for the	1		The second second and the second s
Other officers chosen were Mat- cepted into the group, and newly	event.	Other newly elected officers of the	members of the Inter-religious Coun-	ILS BOUVILLES ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL ALL AL
Other officers chosen were Mat- cepted into the group, and newly thew Prescott, secretary; Donald elected officers were installed. Vance	Further information may be had	International Relations club are Bet-	cil, which sponsors keilgious Empha-	Decen
Gaylor, treasurer; Gene Russell, Lockamy of Rocky Mount, vice presi-	by contacting Ann Carawan, Cotten	tie J. Dougherty of Fayetteville, vice	sis week each year at the college;
Gaylor, treasurer; Gene Russell, Lockamy of Rocky Mount, vice presi- public relations; and Bill MacDonald, dent, was in charge of arranging the	han, of the boo counselor of pro-	provident, and Dennia ming of rat sergeant at arms. ceremonies.	ing 4646.	key, secretary-treasurer.	) and other college officials.
at at attins.		. /
			· · · · · ·
			•

Business Manager Annie Lou Butts	vev taken at New York City college.	we for hunting and fishing, foot- in	es. Yarborough wants no part of m	nany more days at East Carolina,	in amothor him with a nile of dirty laundry
Assistant Business Manager Edna Massad	Veterans were also better behaved, b	all and tennis keep him outside t	eaching in the public schools. "I'm b	ut the situation will be different	ficiary, and then either push him out the window or smother him with a pile of dirty laundry. Our comment: From where we sit this may
Peggy Joyce Dowen,	more serious more self-reliant and	1 the air is along He'll stay of	lad I'm getting a B.S., but I don't w	nen ne leaves. He came here where	turn out to be the most beneficial piece of litera-
Assistants Grace Sanderson, Mary Gillette, Janet Davis, Marty MacArthur, John Lee Stokes	lieve that these facts would prove to s	pend any amount of time drawing s	ike anything about teaching," he a	t least two people knew who he was. Coach Johnson and Coach Boone were	ture since the Kinsey report.
MacArthur, John Lee Btones	he true in most of the colleges over	artoons It's a favorite nastime.	Has Know-How b	oth from his home town, so he	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	the nation	Whether there is any connection	If real know-how makes anybody w	vasn't completely in the dark. When	Utmost congratulations are due to the an-
			than Eddie Varborough is h	a loaves? Oh then there Will not	Othiost congractmations are due to the all-
"The Lord is in His Holy Temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him." Habakkuk 2:20	Guess the business at the library g is beginning to pick up. Exams begin	gram and Eddie's love for the great	tudents know he has this thing call-	he is Chances are they will be North	nual staff on their fine work for our yearbook. It's mighty fine, you all.
	next week! (No kidding.) We hope 1	he is planning to make it a perma-	ed know-how, for his record speaks (	aronnians who can't possibly love that overvone will be able to finish ],	nent thing After he graduates next [	for him. He came here immediately t	the Old North State better than this
			A · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	forman Uncernion Edition B 121-	Tests completed recently show that the av- erage student will lose at least two pounds study-
	he May 16 for after that time 'twill h	health department "The PE program	cific with th US Navy, and he wasted	borough.	erage student win lose at least two pounds study-
This issue of the TECO ECHO concludes the regular school term editions for the year, and the entire staff of the paper has a few thank- you's to pass out to those whom we have had the	be too late.		4 17 4	. E. C. P.	assume that our 1500 students will peel off ap-
the ontire staff of the paper has a few thank-	We hope that those of you who	Diary Ut Daydi	eams: A Year A	t East Carolina	proximately a ton and a half of weight.
you's to pass out to those whom we have had the	are interested in working on the
			the campus are Margie Smith and	ductions of the Teacher's playnouse	This is the end! With these parting remarks
			Carl Willis, named "Mr. and Miss	this year, and it was certainly good.	we conclude TIMELY TOPICS for this year. We
we would like to express our appreciation to our many faithful advertisers whom we have been able to depend on all the year long. We sincerely hope that by doing business with us that you	on next year's staff. It does not take	The holidays are over and school	Representative Student Teacher,"	APRIL 11	have that the commants we have made have not able to depend on all the year long. We sincerely	on either; and it is fun to those who	has begun again, but the festivities	respectively.	Easter holidays begin! Have to	offended too many of our readers, and that all hope that by doing business with us that you	are interested, even though the job	and activities are certainly not at	Lois Bland became another	come back the 16th.	who have seen fit to read our chatter will under-
have increased your business. Our slogan sum	lis hard at times.	an end.	Dois Diana Occume another	Students, especially the AFROTC,	stand. Best of luck to all of you and we'll be back to stir up a little controversy again next fall.
reads "It Pays To Do Business With Those Busi- nesses That Advertise With Us." We feel that				really turned out to donate blood	to still up a neue concrosers, again mene ram
we owe our advertisers much. We thank you! We would also like to express our apprecia-	Fast Caroling we would like to let	sored the first Sweetheart dance at	MARCH 20	when the Bloodmobile was here yes-
we owe our advertisers much. We thank you! We would also like to express our apprecia- tion to the local newspaper, The Daily Reflector	you know that work has already	which Lois Bland was crowned queen.	Eileen Farrell thrilled music lovers	terday. I think everyone who donated	A College Newspaper
tion to the local newspaper, The Daily Reflector which has been very cooperative in every way possible all year long. Without the help of the	you know that work has already begun on next year's Tecoan, and	The decorations were oh-so romantic.	with her beautiful soprano voice last	was wonderful, and they have the	(The following is an attempt on the part of which has been very cooperative in every way	indications are that it will be tops	It snowed yesterday and everybody	torium. The entertainment committee	blood may save someone's life.	the Cornell Daily Sun to explain the role of free-possible all year long. Without the help of the Reflector we would have been unable to have	again.	halls Snowmen (real ones this time)	has certainty given us some grand nrinied many of our precures de soon as	Commonant is just about here.	appeared everywhere.	programs this year.	It has been announced that our	munity").
		JANUARY 20	The Duck derby really provided	AFROTC unit was awarded the high-	The need for communication can arise only developed film and made engravings for us of	and gowns in preparation for the	The FTA and BSU are sponsoring	of laughs today. Day's activities in	est rating given to such units as a result of the annual inspection re-	within a community. To a lone correspondent, developed film and made engravings for us of very short notice. Our many thanks go to the Reflector , and the TECO ECHO remains willing	final march down the aisles of Wright	a drive on the campus to collect old	cluded a parade, a duck race and a	cently. This is an award to be proud	sons To a newspaper this community represents to help the local newspaper whenever and now	- autonding our heartiest congratula-	This is certainly a worthwhile proj-	fashion show.	of. The inspectors came here directly	a broader segment of humanity, its readers. But i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i		MARCH 28	from Duke and the University of	in both cases the function of communication re-ever we can. Much help and encouragement was given al along this year by the faculty and staff member	struggle through our last two years	Religious Emphasis week has be-	What an alaction! I'm energying of	North Carolina	I mains the same hoodly stated it is the fulfill.
along this year by the facility and stall member		Dr. Halt delivered the common	the SGA one held this week. Bob	that lack Boone head baseball coach	mains the same: broadly stated, it is the runn ment of individual needs for complete and accu- rate information.
the literation of the TECO ECHI	1 to the practoria at	at the initial service tonight. The	Verona Sparrow, secretary, in a run-	has been named to replace Bill Dole
Dealing with such a cooperative group of people	e parennene energi		Lef Other officers are John "Forhole"	a head football montor Dala recent	I ine function of communication, so stated
has been a pleasure that has been an ours.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	noon as anoskar during the week	Kennedy, first vice president; Mitch-	ly accepted an offer from Davidson	Decomes both the lucal and the meeted
Tipping our hats to the club reporters an other campus student leaders, we would like t	o yoar for several purposes. We have	The theme is "All of Life for Christ."	ell Saieed, second vice president; Jack	to coach there.	the community. In seeking to present these facts objectively a newspaper can never completely express our appreciation for their cooperation	n tried to inform, entertain and at	JANUARY 22	Rennie, treasurer; Donald Cox, first	Baseball season is well underway	objectively, a newspaper can never completely identify itself with those particular groups and during the school year. The fine spirit shown b	y times just to state the facts. We	Teacher's playhouse presented	house second assistant treasurer:	record.	identify itself with those particular groups and individuals whose actions are news.
during the school year. The fine spirit shown b all of those whom we have had dealings with th year has lightened our duties tremendously. W	is only hope that the column has been	phasis week. It was a really stirring	Barbara Moore, head of Women's ju-	APRIL 29	With the same degree of certainty that year has lightened our duties tremendously. We hope that future journalistic transactions of the	a vorth just half as mu i space as to	i pindois incent it is a ready			a newspaper develops a distinct interest within
hope that future journalistic transactions of the paper can be as pleasureable. MANY, MAN			judiciary. I know they will make next	spring program tonight. Features o	f the community in its search for facts and its pre-
THANKS!	vear. but we do not plan to beep out	Incura and praticipation in Britter and	year's SGA one of the best, just as	the performance were a trumpet tri	sentation of news, so does it come almost invariaof collegiate journalism. All totaled	ley and Livingston Gearheart in a	The Community Arts festival was	and a trombone solo.	bly to hold opinions of its own, based upon the information which it acquires and the fundamen-
	we have truly enloyed editing this		a file community Ares resurtar "ww
Our Parting Remarks	college publication. We fade out of	"concert with commentary." This was			- tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as
Our Parting Remarks	college publication. We fade out of	the third in the entertainment series	. held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber who instigated plans for a	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program. "Magic in th	- tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as
There remains but one more week of scho	ol the picture only hoping that we have	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuborculosis X ray unit is here	. held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art callery, was one	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. Th	- tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams: therefore this issue of the	ol college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely.	tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year	ol college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor 's leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE.	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on	ol college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	t the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as</li> <li>these opinions become value judgments they</li> <li>enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news</li> <li>evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper</li> <li>may seek to influence the action of individuals</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we	ol college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. ly	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limit-</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of school at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint we have can truthfully say that we have	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. ly as g. ve Courtesy	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of school at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. ly as g. ve we	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams.	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of school at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to word	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. By as g. ve er For Collegiates	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 ~	tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limit- ed by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. Ive er out to For Collegiates	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electric</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last enter	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electric</li> <li>re cians. etc. around the campus this</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival.</li> <li>APRIL 4</li> <li>This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all</li> </ul>	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Server me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks id cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. Iver er out to all Muestion: My boyfriend will be her from out-of-town as my guest this next week end for my graduation	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and activity of the second.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks d cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper tivities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Server me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks to cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega P sponsored the annual Valentine danc tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction Plans have also here	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro-	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint fiel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Server me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks id cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been any of news, and we only hope the	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. Ive e." er but to all his nd an tat to pay any of his expenses.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine danc</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entr of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return.	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks to cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the intermediate the to us about the the top of the	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine danc</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Bagsdale hall.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entr of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return.	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of school at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Server me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks id cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcome any at times, however we have	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega P sponsored the annual Valentine danc tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an ad ditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is really	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entr of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return.	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks if cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom any at times, however we have retaility toward any one group.	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. No</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina ant gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entri of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks id cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we have retaility toward any one ground the TECO ECHO this year.	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is real expanding.</li> <li>a FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>d, Emily Frankel and Mark Ryde</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor system and the idea of an honor system.	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and edition and edition and editive of news evaluation and edition and its prerogatives of news evaluation and edition and edition</li></ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we om that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprin cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks if cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the ven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in the TECO ECHO this ye obssible, but they were go inhest ratings possible,	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus the</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realled</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Ryded</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor system and the idea of an honor system.	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and edition and edition and editive of news evaluation and edition and its prerogatives of news evaluation and edition and edition</li></ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks to cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we have retaility toward any one grow the TECO ECHO this ye possible, but they were go	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. No</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realized</li> <li>a FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>d, Emily Frankel and Mark Ryded</li> <li>a re certainly skilled. I thin</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college students approve of the idea of an honor syst tem for their school, although stu- dents at the larger universities ten	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press. The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment' ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks is cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we have retaility toward any one grow the TECO ECHO this ye oossible, but they were go	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. Ive as g. ve as s ve as s ve as s as g. ve as s as s ve as s as g. ve as s ve as s ve as s as s ve as s ve as s ve as g. ve as ve as ve as ve as ve as ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve ve	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. No</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realled</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Ryded</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thim many in the audience, found some</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor system for their school, although students at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity."	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and pros-</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprin cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks the cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the ven each campus organization . We realize that our shorted in y at times, however we have retiality toward any one grow the TECO ECHO this ye obsible, but they were go inhest ratings possible, goal to work toward. We real that we have the students like and the we have	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is really</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydde</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thim many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor system to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examine	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is e pressed by a coed at Hope college	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of this ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we om that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks d cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization We realize that our shorted in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this year be students like and the we feel that we have the students like and the we feel that we have the students like and the state of the students like and the students like and the state of the students like and the students like and the state of the students like and the student student student student student	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves. Iy as g. Ve stion: My boyfriend will be her from out-of-town as my guest this next week end for my graduation I am wondering if I am expected to pay any of his expenses. Answer: Many questions arise with regard to entertaining an out-of-town guest at college, whether a man entertaining a girl or a girl enter aining a man. If a man invites girl to the campus for the week em- hould he pay for her room? Ho about the meals? Does he pay for her transportation to the college? On most campuses, a man is expenses expenses except her transportation and her room. Of course, he arrange	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega F sponsored the annual Valentine dance tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus thi year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is reall expanding. FEBRUARY 19 Lemily Frankel and Mark Ryde danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague. FEBRUARY 28 I can still hear Ray Anthony	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor system to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examinat tions, and they are not checked by	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, by I'm sure of one thing. When I leav the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of school at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we om the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint the live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks the cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we hav the TECO ECHO this year cossible, but they were go inhest ratings possible, goal to work toward. I we feel that we have information the information the	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega P sponsored the annual Valentine dance tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus the year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an are ditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is reall expanding. FEBRUARY 19 Emily Frankel and Mark Ryde danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague. FEBRUARY 28 I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although students at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honon not to cheat on tests and examinat tions, and they are not checked b	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entri of my college career. Time to go, be I'm sure of one thing. When I least the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press. The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of th ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on a that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprin del that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college moto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks to cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye obssible, but they were go inhest ratings possible, we feel that we have information the information the information the	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega P sponsored the annual Valentine dance tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus thi year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is real expanding. FEBRUARY 19 d. FEBRUARY 19 d. FEBRUARY 19 d. FEBRUARY 28 I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examina- tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu-	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entri- of my college career. Time to go, bo I'm sure of one thing. When I leave the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of th ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on a that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprin eel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college moto "To Serve me and time again we began to wond or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the iven each campus organization . We realize that our shortcom in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this year be students like and we feel that we have information the of practice Phans are be	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4</li> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega F sponsored the annual Valentine dance tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contreators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is realler expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Memory Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hous ince I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, following a concert at 8. I can surely understate</li> </ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's sta dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entr of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lear the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves."	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community of its obligation to inform and the first collective fulfillment of its obligation to inform and the first provision of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform and the first community of the first objective fulfillement of its objective fulfillement of its objective fulfillement of its objective the first objective fulfillement of its object</li></ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year off. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cel that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to word or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks d cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The the even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorted my at times, however we have tiality toward any one grow the TECO ECHO this year ossible, but they were go inhest ratings possible, goal to work toward. We feel that we have the students like and the two of practices then students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of the the students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of the the students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of the the students like and the two of practices the students like and the two of the two of the two of the students like the two of the two	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega F</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contreators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. No</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realier</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hous since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, following a concert at 8. I can surely understate why the disc-jockeys elected his to the state of the state of</li></ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receiver both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honor system to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's sta dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college menories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I least the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope colleg Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence community is legitimate role.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contreators, carpenters, electre</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realled</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hous since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, following a concert at 8. I can surely understation why the disc-jockeys elected his to the second on records. How</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receiver both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although stu dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their hono not to cheat on tests and examine tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the hono system for your school? Here ar	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college menories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I least the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are your	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by these beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye ossible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have inff, we would his information the information the information the information the information the informati	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contreators, carpenters, electre</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also beer</li> <li>made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the</li> <li>are certainly skilled, I thin</li> <li>many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony</li> <li>dreamy music even though it's hou</li> <li>since I really heard it. He played la</li> <li>night for a dance in Wright, following</li> <li>a concert at 8. I can surely understate</li> <li>why the disc-jockeys elected his t</li> <li>No. 1 dance band on records. How</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has been put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 62%	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in th Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be cutminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are void by a coed at Colorado A&M and	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent</li> <li>of contreators, carpenters, electre</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also beer</li> <li>made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the</li> <li>are certainly skilled, I thin</li> <li>many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony</li> <li>dreamy music even though it's hou</li> <li>since I really heard it. He played la</li> <li>night for a dance in Wright, following</li> <li>a concert at 8. I can surely understate</li> <li>why the disc-jockeys elected his t</li> <li>No. 1 dance band on records. How</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receives both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honors was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although stu dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examinat tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve33%	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college menories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I least the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are your	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these percogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals ed by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper do by the boundaries of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and its prerogatives of news evaluation and etorial comment ultimately be guided by these beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega F</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management</li> <li>house and teacher's dormitory under</li> <li>construction. Plans have also been</li> <li>made for a new library and an additional wing on Ragsdale hall. No</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realled</li> <li>expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd</li> <li>danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin</li> <li>many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played lanight for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understate why the disc-jockeys elected his t</li> <li>No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee given and organizations and the state of the Entertainment committee given and organizations and the state of the Entertainment committee given and the state of the Entertainment</li></ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although stu dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examinas tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other2%	May queen and her court were enter tained by a program, "Magic in th Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I leas the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope colleg Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are voic by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be star	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these perogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press. The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a and its prerogatives of news evaluation and editorial comment' ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega F</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost</li> <li>completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understations why the disc-jockeys elected his the No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee giv us more such features.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 29</li> <li>Twelve drama organizations and the anter surface stream organizations and the surface stream organizations and</li></ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examinat tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the hono system for your school? Here are the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2%	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in th Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entro of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are voic by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of system should work are voic by a coed: "Must be star	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments they enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these perogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorton in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electricans, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understations why the disc-jockeys elected his to No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee giv us more such features.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 29</li> <li>Twelve drama organizations a here participating in the annual the setting in the annual the setting in the annual to the setting in the annual in the setting in the annual in the interpretations in the annual in the interpretation in the annual in the interpretation in the annual interpretation in the an</li></ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although students at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examinat tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's students was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2%	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in th Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entr of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. State Constant State St	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these perogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by these beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these heliefs in the collections of objective data and into presponsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to for the out in the bar et durb ar durb ar durb ar outget.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorton in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understar why the disc-jockeys elected his to No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee giv us more such features.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 29</li> <li>Twelve drama organizations an here participating in the anagement committee giv us more such features.</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well received both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro The Honors was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although stu dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their hono not to cheat on tests and examine tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the hono system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in th Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big da Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entry of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is of pressed by a coed at Hope colleg Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and th general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are void by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be star with freshmen; it is hard to bre what has been started in uppercla men."	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a community, so must its provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by these beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prosperity.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to find out just how dumb college students could be. A petition containing the sentence "We give the present of this netition permission upon receipt."</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorton in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega P</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contrcators, carpenters, electr</li> <li>cians, etc. around the campus this</li> <li>year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N</li> <li>doubt about it—the college is realler expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understar why the disc-jockeys elected his to No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee giv us more such features.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 29</li> <li>Twelve drama organizations an here participating in the anagement committee giv us more such features.</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receives both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys tem for their school, although stu dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their hono not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked b proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the hono system for your school? Here are the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2%	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entri- of my college career. Time to go, bi I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is e- pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and the general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are voic by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be start with freshmen; it is hard to brow what has been started in uppercla- men."	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a and its prerogatives of news evaluation and editorial community's continued existence and prosents.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to A petition containing the sentence "We give the bearer of this petition permission upon receipt of our signatures, to hang us by the neck until</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint on the wear can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorter in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye obssible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have the students like and we feel that we have the students like and the the students like and the the students like and the the students like and the students like and the students like and the students like and the students like and the students like and the students like and the students like a	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega F sponsored the annual Valentine danc tonight. Lots of "hearts" were o display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contreators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus thi year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory und construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is reall expanding. FEBRUARY 19 Emily Frankel and Mark Ryd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague. FEBRUARY 28 I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understat why the disc-jockeys elected his t No. 1 dance band on records. Ho the Entertainment committee giv us more such features. FEBRUARY 29 Tweive drama organizations as here participating in the anna Dastern Regional Play festival whi began yesterday and will end tome row. Soon we'll see even more his chool day is April 4.	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receiver both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys- tem for their school, although stu- dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica. The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked by proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu- dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2% Those who approve sometimes fe the school administration is under estimating its students. "We're m children," says a junior at River Fall State Teachers college, Wis. "W would prove ourselves if some true	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entri- of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. State of a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is e- pressed by a coed at Hope colleg Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and the general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are void by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be star with freshmen; it is hard to brow what has been started in uppercla- men." Says the Iowan: "This (honor s tem) will be desirable at the grav- ate level, or after you have a m	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper tivities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous information as it is provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prositive. The independent, individual exercise of these is the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to A petition containing the sentence "We give the bearer of this petition permission upon receipt of our signatures, to hang us by the neck until the present to the other entry.</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorton in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	<ul> <li>the third in the entertainment series</li> <li>FEBRUARY 4 <ul> <li>Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here.</li> <li>Blazers for girls are on sale by</li> <li>ACE.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 8</li> <li>Commerce club and Pi Omega F</li> <li>sponsored the annual Valentine dance</li> <li>tonight. Lots of "hearts" were of</li> <li>display there.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 15</li> <li>We have really been seeing plent of contreators, carpenters, electricians, etc. around the campus this year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory under construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. No doubt about it—the college is realized expanding.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 19</li> <li>Emily Frankel and Mark Rydd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 28</li> <li>I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played lanight for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understation why the disc-jockeys elected his to No. 1 dance band on records. How the Entertainment committee giv us more such features.</li> <li>FEBRUARY 29</li> <li>Twelve drama organizations as here participating in the annual organizations at here participating in the annual function or the students on the campus. His</li> </ul></li></ul>	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receiver both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys- tem for their school, although stu- dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica. The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked by proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu- dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2% Those who approve sometimes fe the school administration is under estimating its students. "We're m children," says a junior at River Fall State Teachers college, Wis. "W would prove ourselves if some true	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19 - And now here I am again writing in my diary the last entri- of my college career. Time to go, bi I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. And a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is e- pressed by a coed at Hope college Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and the general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are voic by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be start with freshmen; it is hard to brow what has been started in uppercla- men."	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment.</li> <li>In exercise of both these prerogatives—news evaluation and editorial comment—the newspaper may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second.</li> <li>Individuals associated with the newspaper may participate in worthwhile community activities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous independence of the newspaper.</li> <li>Just as a newspaper can arise only within a and its prerogatives of news evaluation and editorial community's continued existence and prosents.</li> <li>The independent, individual exercise of these beliefs in the collections of objective data and in the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to A petition containing the sentence "We give the bearer of this petition permission upon receipt of our signatures, to hang us by the neck until</li> </ul>
There remains but one more week of scho at dear ole East Carolina this year, and that the week of exams; therefore this issue of the ECO ECHO concludes the work of this year if. We have printed 26 editions, and we on the that we have lived up to the trust that we in us by the Publications board last sprint cell that we can truthfully say that we have to live up to the college motto "To Serve me and time again we began to work or not we were going to be able to get of edition of your paper, but thanks it cooperation rendered to us by we had dealings we managed. The Carolina has been a full year, a be even fuller. There has been by of news, and we only hope the twen each campus organization . We realize that our shorton in y at times, however we have the TECO ECHO this ye oasible, but they were go the students like and we feel that we have information the information the information the information the information the information	college publication. We fade out of the picture only hoping that we have faithfully served our term and that the job was well done. Thus, ye editor leaves.	the third in the entertainment series FEBRUARY 4 Tuberculosis X-ray unit is here. Blazers for girls are on sale by ACE. FEBRUARY 8 Commerce club and Pi Omega F sponsored the annual Valentine danc tonight. Lots of "hearts" were o display there. FEBRUARY 15 We have really been seeing plent of contreators, carpenters, electr cians, etc. around the campus thi year as we have a new gym almost completed, a new home management house and teacher's dormitory und construction. Plans have also been made for a new library and an auditional wing on Ragsdale hall. N doubt about it—the college is reall expanding. FEBRUARY 19 Emily Frankel and Mark Ryd danced here tonight. Though the are certainly skilled, I thin many in the audience, found some their interpretations vague. FEBRUARY 28 I can still hear Ray Anthony dreamy music even though it's hou since I really heard it. He played la night for a dance in Wright, followin a concert at 8. I can surely understat why the disc-jockeys elected his t No. 1 dance band on records. Ho the Entertainment committee giv us more such features. FEBRUARY 29 Tweive drama organizations as here participating in the anna Dastern Regional Play festival whi began yesterday and will end tome row. Soon we'll see even more his chool day is April 4.	held here this week. Dr. Robert Lee Humber, who instigated plans for a North Carolina art gallery, was one of the principal speakers during the festival. APRIL 4 This week has been a busy one with all the preparations for High School day, "Good News" and "Tom Sawyer." Much work has beer put into all these events and the results prove it. Approximately 3000 seniors were here today, and "Good News," a musical comedy with all student cast, was very well receiver both last night and today. "Tom Sawyer" was one of the major pro Most American college student approve of the idea of an honor sys- tem for their school, although stu- dents at the larger universities ten to think such a system impractica. The honor system is used in man schools. Students are on their honor not to cheat on tests and examines tions, and they are not checked by proctors. A cross-section of the nation's stu- dents was asked: In general, do yo approve or disapprove of the honor system for your school? Here an the answers: 1. Approve 33% 3. No opinion 3% 4. Other 2% Those who approve sometimes fe the school administration is under estimating its students. "We're m children," says a junior at River Fall State Teachers college, Wis. "W would prove ourselves if some true	May queen and her court were enter- tained by a program, "Magic in the Studio," in the College stadium. The whole affair was lovely. MAY 18 At last! Tomorrow is the big day Tomorrow, four years of college men- ories will be culminated in a diplom and stored away in a trunkful of dreams. MAY 19- And now here I am agai writing in my diary the last entri- of my college career. Time to go, b I'm sure of one thing. When I lead the campus today it won't be for ever. I'll return. State of a senior taking business Berker Junior college, Mass., agree "I think if students are treated this way, they will develop the honor and integrity." But the more cynical side is e- pressed by a coed at Hope colleg Michigan. "It wouldn't work her she says, " due to the form education of the students and the general inability to think for the selves." Two opposing views as to just h the system should work are void by a coed at Colorado A&M and student at Iowa State Teachers of lege. Says the coed: "Must be star with freshmen; it is hard to brow what has been started in uppercla- men." Says the Iowan: "This (honor s tem) will be desirable at the grav- ate level, or after you have a m	<ul> <li>tal philosophy of its personnel As soon as these opinions become value judgments there these opinions become value judgments there enter the province of editorial comment. In exercise of both these prerogatives—news may seek to influence the action of individuals within the community, but this influence is limited by the boundaries of news interest in the first case and logical persuasion in the second. Individuals associated with the newspaper tivities only insofar as they abandon the interests and responsibilities of the press.</li> <li>The fusion of information, opinion and action which is inherent in any direct participation by these individuals in community affairs is as injurious to the community's need for objective information as it is dangerous to the continuous information as it is provision of information and editorial comment ultimately be guided by those beliefs and principles which it considers best for the community's continued existence and prositive. The independent, individual exercise of these is the presentation of editorial opinion constitute the sole responsibility of a newspaper to its community. In like manner, the objective fulfillment of its obligation to inform, and the free exercise of its right to influence, comprise its legitimate role in the community.</li> <li>At Penn State recently someone decided to A petition containing the sentence "We give the bearer of this petition permission upon receipt of our signatures, to hang us by the neck until the present to the other entry.</li> </ul>

Buc Diamond Nine

Divides Guilford

Series, 5-6, 8-4

In a two day stand at Guilford college, East Carcina's diamond nine sustained its third North State con-

The opening contest saw the Pi-

FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1952

ference loss in Friday's opener 6-5, At last that final issue has rolled around and this is the but behind the six hit hurling of ents the writer with an opportunity to burst forth sophomore Jimmy Byrd the Pirates lity and ideas, forceful writing and a careful analysis, managed to take Saturday's battle not deviate from our regular course of presentation | 5-1.

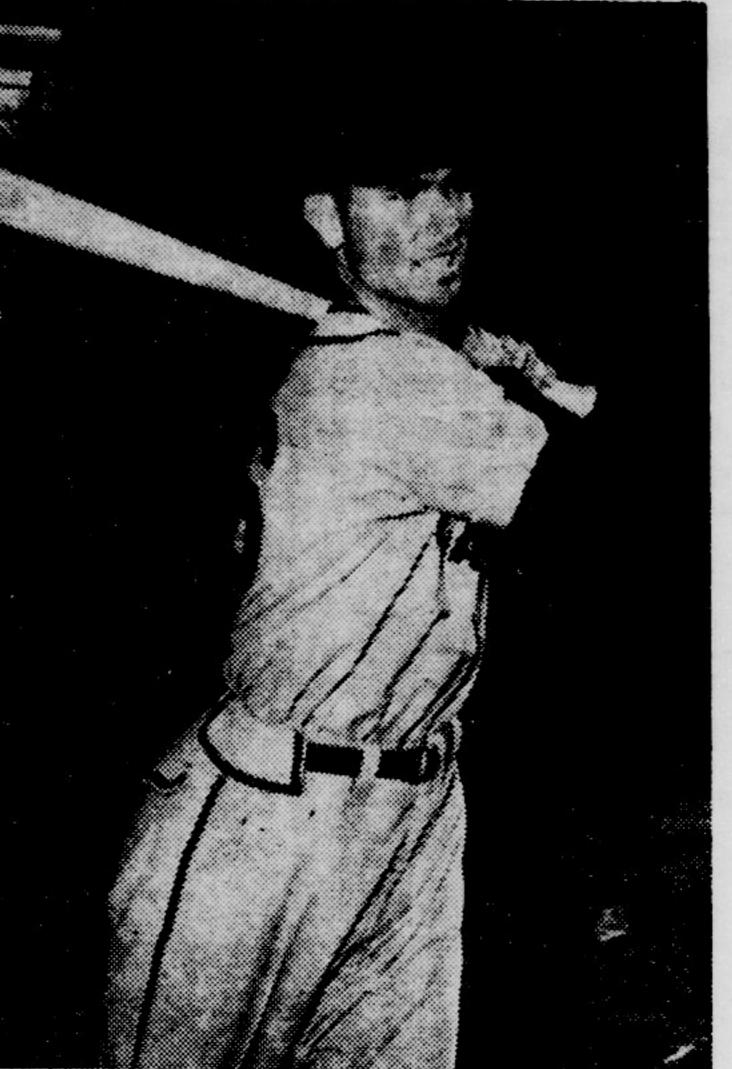

the thrill of school recessing for the summer months has asped this editor yet. rates leading 5-3 going into the home careful glance at the up and down North State conference half of the ninth inning, but Guillishes Elon as the team to successfully defend its base- ford pushed across three runs in that The Christians currently have an 8-1 mark which puts frame to take the victory. Neverthefull games ahead of East Carolina, who is in second less, the Bucs outhit the Quakers 14 with a 9-5 record.

to 11, but could score in only one The Pirates began the season setting a torrid pace within inning, the seventh, when all five torn division of the newly initiated two-division North tallies came in.

TIO TICO ECHO

Soles Leads Pirate Outfielders

Pirate Golfers Finish Third In NS Tourney At Greensboro

North State Standings EASTERN DIVISION Team W L T Pct. Elon East Carolina ACC 6 1 .400 Guilford 8 1 .273 second place. High Point

WESTERN DIVISION Lenoir Liyne Catawba 5 2 0 West Carolina 5 0 Appalachian 1 6 0 .143

Seventh Inning Rally Gives Bulldogs League

East Carolina college placed third in team play within the North State conference's annual golf tournament staged at Starmount in Greensboro Monday and Tuesday. The Pirates finished the two day event with a 682 while Elon won in the unofficial compilations with a low total of 635. 8 0 .273 High Point's 666 was good enough for

PAGE THREE

The conference team championship, however, was decided during season 6 0 0 1.000 play with Elon snatching the title .714 away from the defender Buccaneers .167 with an unblemished 8-0 mark. The title left East Carolina's possession for the first time since the North State loop was organized in 1947. Rounds of 73, above par, and 76 gave Carl Tharin of Guilford the ference, but after the spring holidays the Pirates began W. C. Sanderson and Gaither Cline dropping five contests, winning only one since classes |led the Pirates at the bat, collecting The only consensus seems to be that the winning punch three hits each. Callicut had three is lacking in the home stretch. hits for Guilford.

Pirates Close Schedule

The Buccaneers, under the able tutorage of Jack Boone, Flon this afternoon in a contest that provided plenty of ontest marked the last home appearance of the season that was good enough for a triumph. conference's All-Star team last year. cals and also saw two Pirate stars in action for the George McSwain and Fred Soles closed out a brilliant baseball career and are still the favorites among East

The golf team did not rise up to the prestige that past clubs have enjoyed, but they did have that determina- the five runs. esire that caused them to be a favorite and finish third North State tournament. Experience was missing for the Boone's nine and pitched steady six this year, but it was not so evident as the local linksters hit ball, while his teammates were several impressive wins.

Tennis proved to be another high light in the sporting East Carolina this year as the Buc netters finished with Guilford rd, the best mark compiled by a local net squad in years. the success of P. A. Cameron, number one man, and the local team had a suberb representative net squad. standing play of several freshmen also pleased local stu-Amos Stroud, Frazier Bruton, Jim Moberly and James ECC in took several wins in match play.

Two Seniors On Net Squad

Dave Jones and Larry Kincaid are the only two seniors on their high caliber of play will undoubtedly be nes has played four years of suberb tennis here and nsistent netter. Kincaid has been more dominant in where he has also aided in racking up some mighty

Finally, we want to take one more glance at our 1952 footlule that has not been released as yet. Stetson university has been scheduled for a game in the Sunshine state year, but nothing has been said of the home schedule certainly not pack the stadium. It has been said that gave two addresses at the Pisgah be met for the first time here next season and also olina in a Homecoming contest. That is all the college the home schedule. The remaining two or three games service teams. As we have said before, the football team does not enjoy the service clubs, the students do not like to pay their such uncollegiate exhibitions and futhermore the general do not want to pay money to see these games. Trying To Drop Service Clubs Dr. Jorgenson has told us that an attempt is being made these clubs from our athletic schedule next year, and if will certainly be pleased. Jorgenson also tried return to Greenville for a contest this year, but decided to have the battle on the home field, which is according to contract. We are not taking a slam at any person in expressing these student body and do not wish to offend anyone. The local students and athletes alike are fed up with the ibs and these few words are offered to express our dis-Ve do pay an activity fee, part of which goes to the athletic ment and if we are displeased with the schedule, we have the to express our views. That is one of the purposes of a ratic newspaper according to a court judge in a recent deoncerning the powers of a newspaper. It was stated that do have the right to critize these acts, and without ght democracy fails. Until next fall when we shall be back at the old Royal iter, take it easy this summer and preserve thy youth.

Saturday's engagement started out to be a pitching duel between the Pirates' Byrd and Guilford's Mc-

The visiting Pirates batted around in that third frame and singles by Cecil Heath, Claude King and Paul

Jones, coupled with three Guilford errors and one base on balls, netted Byrd went the route for Coach Jack rapping out eight hits off McKeown. Austin Friday's game:

000 000 500-5 14 2 torium 200 200 000 103-6 11 5 Piner, Rose and Hamilton; Latham, Nunn and Venuto. Saturday's game:

015 100 100-8 8 1 010 030 000-4 6 5 Byrd and Hamilton; McKeown, Nunn and Venuto.

ECC

Guilford

Cuthbert Gives Talks At Smithfield Church

Dr. Kenneth N. Cuthbert, recently appointed chairman of the Committee of Education of Music Teachers for the Southern division of the National Music Education conference, Baptist church of Smithfield on Tuesday, May 6. While at Smithfield Dr. Cuthbert dent's home also conducted a church choir demonstration. He was accompanied on his trip by graduate music students Pauline Bell, James Cozart and Alice McKenzie.

Fred Soles, a Pirate regular for the past four years, completes schools continued the tense and friendly rivalry Keown, but the locals decided things his collegiate baseball career this afternoon against Elon. He has been ounted between the two schools over the past two in the third with a five run outburst one of the state's more outstanding outfielders, placing on the North State Bohunk trophy and left the Bucs

Triumph Over Bucs 6-5 individual loop championship crown

as the senior from Greensboro, ac-East Carolina's Pirates fell furcustomed to the rugged Starmount ther away from the top spot in the course, posted two consistent 38's Eastern division of the North State for a 149 total to pick up a strike on conference as they dropped a his nearest pursuer from opening grudge contest to Atlantic Christian day and clinch the title, succeeding college there Monday. The victory Elon's Dave Mondy, who had been gave the Bulldogs possession of the a strong favorite to repeat. Frank Bowers of Catawba took with a 9-5 loop record. second place honors in a play-off

73-76-149 77-75-152 77-80-157 Tom Beaver, High Point 85-73-158 79-83-162

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

SHORTS $1.98-$2.98 SHORT SETS $4.98 SLEEVELESS T-SHIRTS $1.98 COTTON DRESSES $5.95-$8.95

THE FASHION SHOP "Smart Styles at Low Prices" Between 5 Points and White's Store

New Aviation Cadet Program Offers Special Advantages To College Men Now Preparing for Military Service

Here is valuable postgraduate training that money can't buy! As an Aviation Cadet you can receive instruction and training worth thousands of dollars-at the same time you are serving your country. You can chooseimmediately-between being a Pilot or Air-

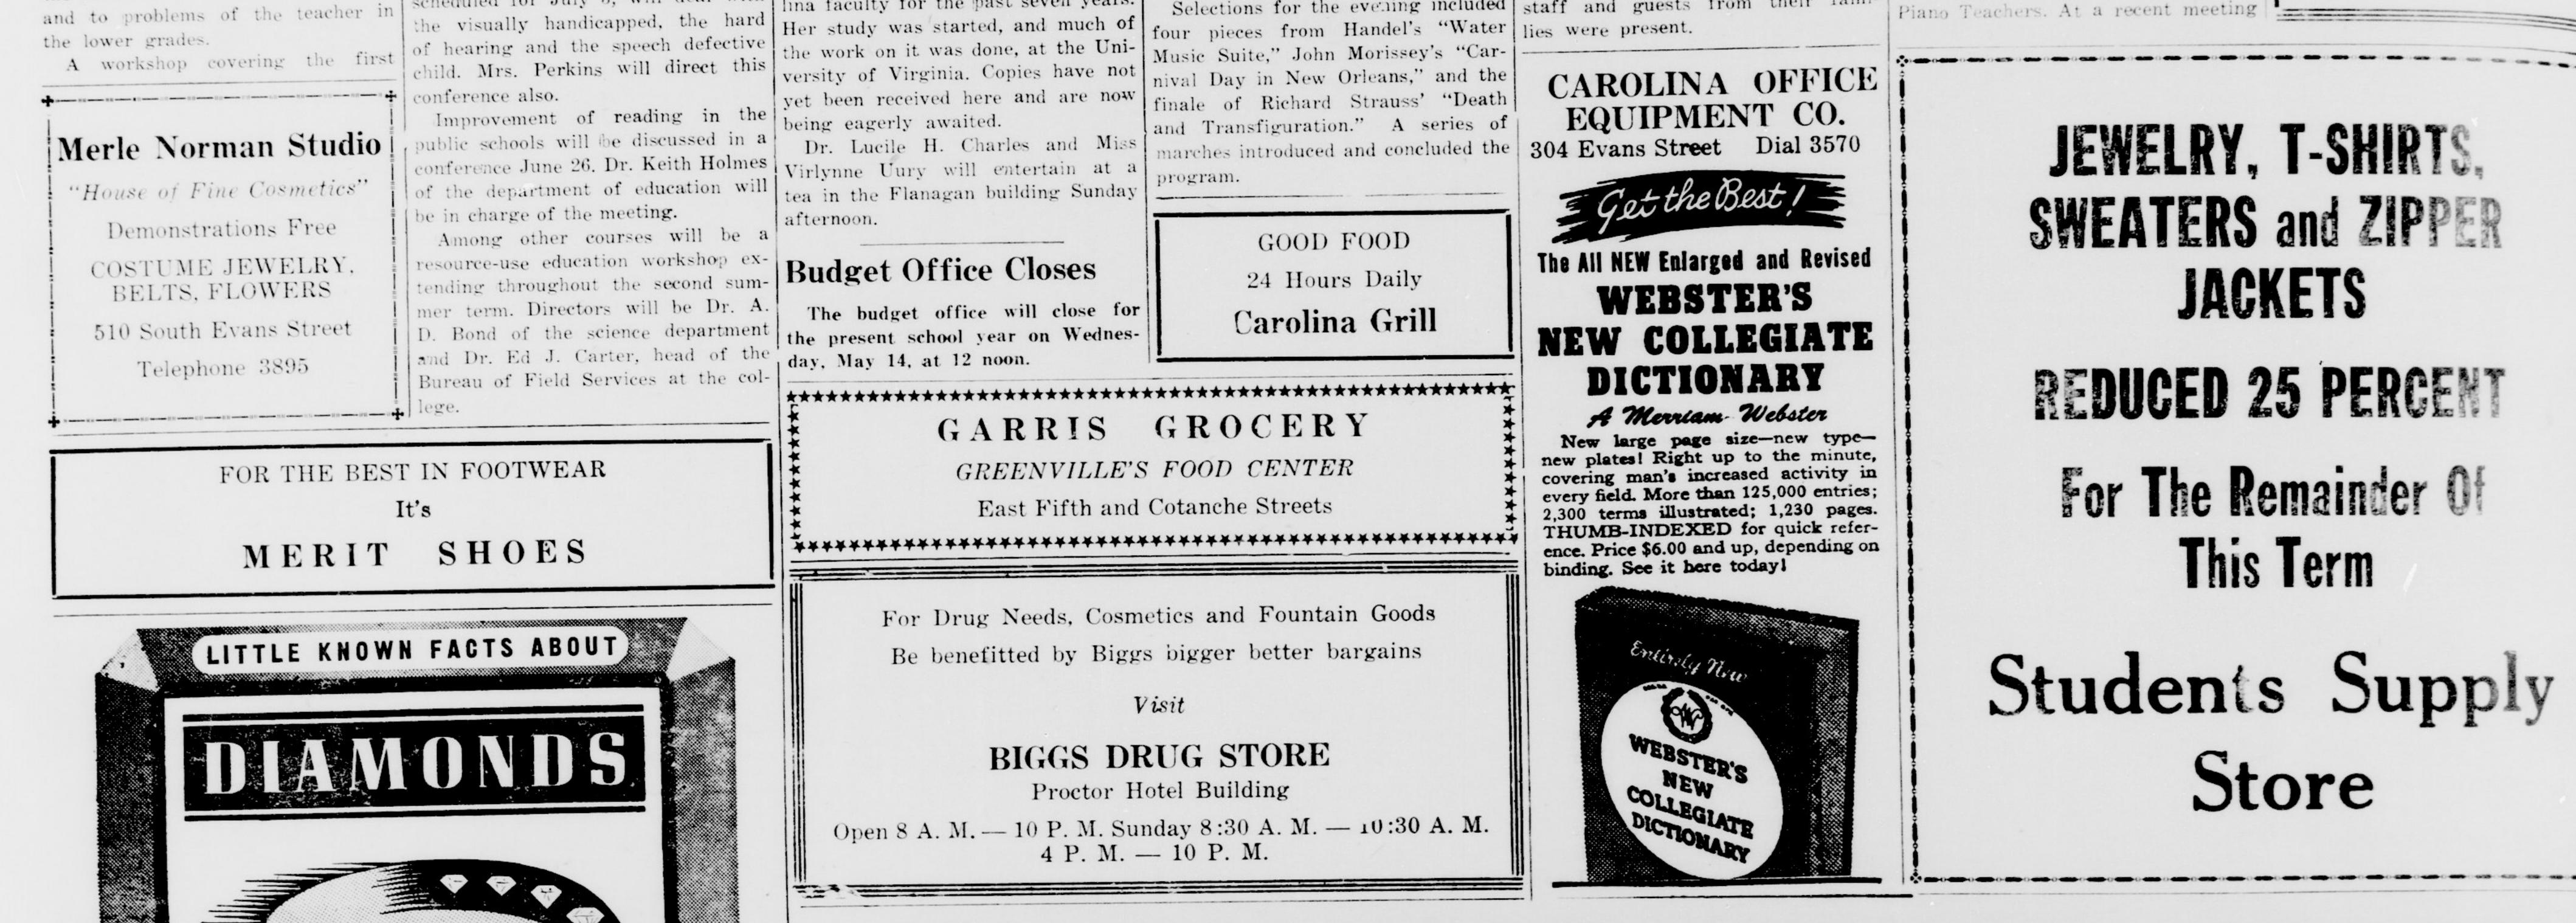

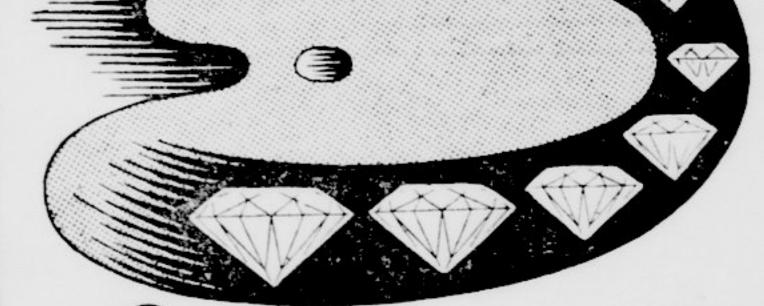

POOR PAUL was having rowl time. Even his best gal didn't give a hoot for him. "Wise she hate me so?" he asked his roommate. "Simple, you stuffy old bird-because your hair's Il ways ruffled up! Better try Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. It's non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. And does tree things: Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Grooms hair nearly and naturally all day long. (Even limb-ers up your scalp. And helps you pass the Finger-Nail Nest-er, Test!)" Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's a 'owling success. So why don't you take a taxi-dermist to any drug or toilet goods counter to get a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. It's your hair's best friend! And ask for it at your barber shop. Then there's no talon how the chicks'll go for you.

* of 131 So. Harris Hill Rd., Williamsville, N.Y.

Wildroot Company, Inc., Buffalo 11, N.Y.

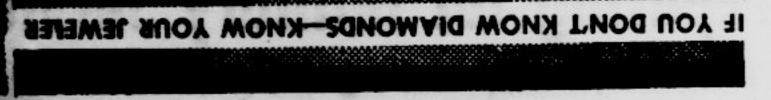

FRIDAY, MAY 9 The TECO ECHO Student Pianist Opens Series PAGE FOUR Agnes Barrett Heads Music Performers English Teacher Faculty Lecture Club Summer Sessions Here Full Of Programs For Music Week Mrs. Agnes Barrett will serve as Many North Carolina teachers and summer session will consider the prob-Present Program president of the Faculty Lecture Walter Noona of Norfolk, Va., stu- in Wilmington of the Northeaster school administrators are expected lems of the retarded child and the the 1952-1953 term as a result of dent at East Carolina college, opened district of the state Federation of club of East Carolina college during to benefit from a series of confer-ences, clinics and workshops announ- brilliant, or fast-learning, child. Dr. About Noted Poet Tuesday Evening the 1952-1953 term as a result of elections held by the organization a series of five programs in celebra- Music clubs he gave a program for the series of the program is work with a those in attended a program for ences, clinics and workshops announ-ced for the 1952 summer session at Eva Williamson of the college detion of National Music week with a those in attendance. "Browning and America," by Loupartment of education will be direc-Mrs. Barrett, who is secretary to piamo recital in the College theatre Noona's program Sunday after. East Carolina college. East Carolina college Concert band this week. ise Greer of the department of Eng-The work has been carefully plan- tor. noon included Beethoven's "Sonata" neuropsychiatry at Duke university, issued this week by the University its members were given an enthusined so as to provide instruction and Dr. Leslie B. Hohman, professor of lish at East Carolina college, was dent and chairman of the program An audience of approximately 500 opus Sla, "Les Adieux," two Chor experiences valuable to educators in astic reception Tuesday evening, Ap- dent and chairman of the program people from the campus, the city etudes, Liszt's "Mephisto Waltzer" will assist in the workshop during of North Carolina press. The book the public schools. part of the term. Members of his traces the influence of the great ril 29, at a program in the College Dr. Hubert Coleman of the depart- and other towns of this section was and compositions by Bach, Mommo During the summer, in addition to present to hear the young pianist. these special events, all departments ment of social studies. and Kabalevsky. staff at Duke who will work with Victorian in this country over a peri-The event was the annual spring Other recently chosen officers are The program of modern, romantic theatre. of instruction at the college will him here are Dr. Stephen A. Ginn, od of fifty years of his life. concert presented by the organiza- Dr. James E. Poindexter of the de- and classic compositions was enthusioffer courses. A branch of the sum-Mrs. Marjorie Hobbs and Mrs. Florrie From the days when he was known tion. Herbert L. Carter of the facul- partment of English, vice president; astically applauded by those present, mer school will be in session in Wilty directed the student musicians for and Louise Greer of the department who recalled Walter to the stage for on this side of the Atlantic chiefly Garrett. mington June 2-July 9. Work in mu-Mrs. Dorothy Perkins, director of as the husband of Elizabeth Barrett HEADQUARTERS sic, art and health education will be of English, secretary. speech pathology in the East Caroto the late Nineteenth century, when A sophomore at the college and a the program. lina department of education, will the literary scene was rife with offered there. Charles Armstrong of Elizabeth upil of Robert Carter of the East FOR THE FAMILY Many Phases On Top conduct during the first term a clinic Browning idolators, the volume shows City, trombonist, was soloist in Gar- Faculty Members Hold Carolina department of music, he has Twenty-five conferences, clinics and 1 for children with speech and hearing the impact of Browning upon Ameridell Simons' "Atlantic Zephyrs," pre- Dinner Meet Recently played in a number of programs durworkshops will be given on the cam-NEEDS defects. She will be assisted by Dr. can culture and the fluctuating critisented with band accompaniment. A ing the school year which have atpus during the two summer terms, John O'Neill of Ohio State university, Faculty members at East Carolina cal and popular esteem accorded to trumpet trio made up of Rollins tracted much favorable attention. June 2-July 9 and July 10-August 15. who will join the East Carolina fac-Mims of Henderson, Clyde Straughan college held a dinner meeting on his work. This year he was the recipient of These cover many phases of the Efird's Dept. Store ulty for the summer session. of Rocky Mount, and William Hobbs Wednesday evening of last week in Miss Greer has produced a scholara music scholarship granted by the school curriculum and of school ac-Special Education Meet ly work, as well as a lively one. She of Raleigh played "The Three Trum- the North Dining hall on the campus. Approximately 150 members of the Greenville Music club and of an tivities. Attention has been given to Greenville, N. C. A conference on special education, has been a member of the East Caropeters" by Agostini. the education of the exceptional child scheduled for July 3, will deal with lina faculty for the past seven years. Selections for the evening included staff and guests from their fami-Piano Teachers. At a recent meeting

pink, lavender, green, red, and in all the yellows from blond to deep brown. But white diamonds are the most familiar ones, although 200 tints of "white" are recognized by gem experts. The standard is a sparkling white — the white of the drops in a waterfall. You may be certain, we sell only the finest diamonds here.

> Lautares Bros. "Diamond Specialists" Certified Gemologists

cleans

11/2

-LARGEST SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA'S COLLEGE • Mike's University Fountain Service We certify that Chesterfield is our largest selling cigarette . to M. J. Brown. SIGNED M. J. Brown. PROPRIETOR

because CHESTERFIELD is MUCH MILDER with an extraordinarily good taste and NO UNPLEASANT AFTER-TASTE*

*From the Report of a Well-Known Research Organization