Staff Welcomes Senior Visitors

We of the East Carolinian staff would like to take this opportunity to welcome you, our high school visitors, to East Carolina.

We hope that you are finding your stay here enjoyable and that you are able to feel free and at home on our campus. We do not think that it is in any way childish to say that we are of our school and feel that for educational standards and ospitality it is among the top. It is our hope that you will see it to return to East Carolina next fall to begin your college edu- VOLUME XXVIII your minds with regard to selecting a school at which to further your education.

You have observed East Carolina. Now it is our hope that your impressions have been favorable, and we are looking foryard to seeing many of you again next fall.

State Home Ec Club Here For Workshop Convention

Over 100 Delegates From 17 NC Colleges Attend Two-Day Meet

Members of the College Clubs division of the North Carolina Home

Campus Calendar Saturday

7 p.m.-Movie is in Austin. 8 p.m.-Ray Anthony concert and dance is in Wright auditorium.

During your stay here you have seen the different depart-ments that comprise East Carolina college. We hope that you have been favorably impressed. We who have been here for at least a year can fully appreciate the indecision that may be in

GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1953

East Carolinian

Playhouse Stages 'Robin Hood' Enrollment Here For Children, April 16-24 Shows Increase

More than 25 student members of the period of April 16-24. Five of the Teachers playhouse of East Caro-lina college will appear in roles fam- of Pitt county, will be staged in the OVER Last Year ous in story and ballad when the College theatre, and one at the dramatic club presents this month Eppes school in Greenville. Two peras its annual play for school children formances on April 24 will be given Owen Davis' "Robin Hood, or the in Kinston. Several thousand people Merry Outlaws of Sherwood Forest." are expected to attend. Douglas Mitchell, Greenville fresh-Dr. Lucile H. Charles of the fac-man, will have the title role of Robin ulty, director of dramatic arts at the Hood, and Ann McCrary, sophomore college, is director of "Robin Hood." from Durham, will play Lady Marian. The Greenville Chapter of the Amer-

With 2,656 individual students enrolled here over a 12 month period, tee at the college. the enrollment at East Carolina college has increased five and one-half per cent over last year's total, according to Dr. Orval L. Phillips, registrar. This period covers the time from the beginning of Spring

Groups See College In Action; Day Offers Varied Activities

Number 24

More than 3,000 seniors from high schools in North Carolina and Virginia are participating in activities of High School day today on the campus of East Carolina college.

A program crowded with events suited to the varied interests of visitors was planned under the direction of Dr. Ed J. Carter of the faculty, chairman of the High School day commit-

Performances of Garson Kanin's Broadway hit "Born Yesterday" by Radio Schedule the Teachers playhouse of the coilege and of Sigmund Romberg's operetta Saturday "The Student Prince" by a cast of 6:30-6:45 p.m. WGTC, Greenville, 150 students and the East Carolina

200 hours Aircraft vigation, f training

ER

, APRIL 8, 190

ed Car

Inc.

Jnder Our AN

actions in sepower, " before gradually 86 Sabre, Observer the T-29 g to first-

Reserve? observers, ne eligible they have

, you are States Air he United Cadet? w weeks. , handball post. on? waii, Far ir of duty, nts in new

our flying

ng a CAA

do:

morning at 9 o'clock on "Our Respon- Alpha Gamma chapter of the frasibilities in Home and Family Liv- ternity.

ing." As principal speaker at a din- The program by East Carolina stumer meeting Saturday, Miss Dennis dents included also group singing of BSU Pays Visit, will discuss "Looking to the Future French songs, directed by Jane Simmons of Bessemer City, and short in Home Economics."

Business conducted during the talks by Jacqueline Phalempin, East presents Program workshop will)include installation Carolina scholarship student from of new officers. East Carolina stu- Arras, France, and by Nancy Kesler, dents will be hostesses Saturday at of Fuquay Springs, president of the Phi Sigma chapter. a tea in honor of visitors.

Ray Anthony Musicians Here For Concert, Dance Monday

Monday night, April 20, 8 p.m., is main ambition the desire to make held at Pembroke and Greenville. Lecture Club Convenes the date and time and Ray Anthony, a record which will sell a million 'East Carolina's Alice Jackson pre-

"The Young Man With the Horn," platters.

man of the hour. Beginning at 8 with a concert in Greer, a new discovery at the Holly-music Ray Anthony and his orchestra currently performing with the coun- Pope.

will present an evening of top music try's dance bands. for the students and faculty of East Monday night's performance will Carolina college and their guests. | mark the second consecutive year Students will be admitted on their that Ray Anthony has appeared at Identification card and are allowed East Carolina. His performance durto purchase one ticket from the ing the spring of 1952 was well reindications point to another top-notch a non-student guest.

Anthony, since forming his band turnout for his show. upon discharge from the Navy in Anthony and his orchestra are and YWCA. 1946, has sky-rocketed to popular being brought to Greenville and East acclaim among the popular musicians Carolina as the final number on the new Y Hut. Contributions will come largely from the college faculty.

plans for the spring tour were dis-cussed. It was decided that the tour Old Constitution would take place on April 24 and 25

Student Government association to the Duke Gardens on the Duke university campus and the dye mills President Mitchell Saieed recomat Burlington. The first day of the mended to the legislature to call for tour would conclude with an outing a constitutional convention to revise at Morrow Mountain State park. The the present constitution at the Wedsecond day will be spent touring the nesday night meeting of the group

The East Carolina Baptist Student park and the Planetarium at Chapel The measure was approved by the body and as it stands the convention union presented a religious program Hill.

at Pembroke State college at Pembroke, in Robeson county, Sunday of the Science club from Atlantic The Executive council will act as afternoon.

ments were made for them to be among his performers are Jo Ann

Campus Y Hut Now Complete, Ready For Use East Carolina college's new Y Hut, the new Hut. has been completed, and the keys to The contract for the Joyner library, Budget office prior to the dance for ceived by all present and present the building have been presented by Business Manager Duncan states, Business Manager F. D. Duncan to provided sufficient funds to move the the presidents of the campus YMCA

Ind YWCA. The Hut is planned for student was decided to tear down the struc- and an office are located near the DieS In Florida use. Vesper services conducted by ture and rebuild it, the college Board entrance. Toilet facilities are prothe Y organizations will be held there; of Trustees authorize the use of funds vided in the building.

cation and three student representa-

International. Students selected by ACE members | tion and industrial arts are h here to participate in the Denver open house for visitors and conference were Alice Roberson of departments are offering Wilson, vice president of the campus meetings.

organization; Jane M. Credle of New

Following the discussion members will begin Monday at 2 p.m. Holland; and Anne DuRant of Wil-Christian college presented a pro- the official constitutional committee the college branch of the ACE. This was an exchange program gram. A recreation period concluded and will be in charge of the details. scheduled last year when arrange- the meeting. Everyone is invited to this change which will effect each and every visor of the campus branch of the LIGIDIC OF student in college.

student in college.

serve as a special contributor to one Some of the proposed changes inof the study and laboratory groups FOY SCHOLE Isided. Others on program included Dr. Theodore H. Eaton, faculty clude reorganization of Men's and which met during the conference.

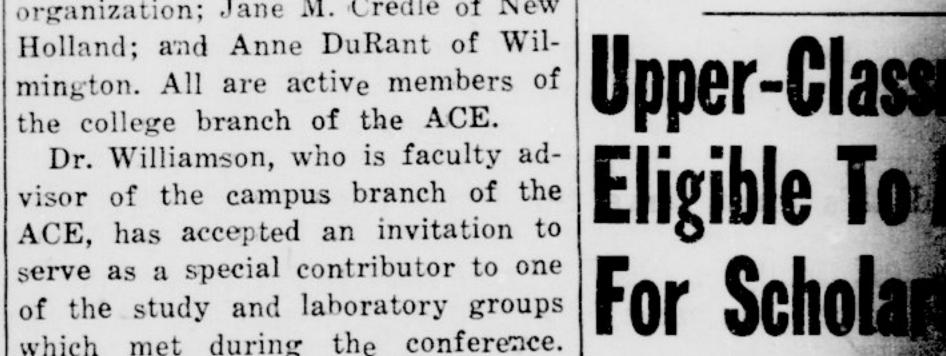

Anthony is not the whole show Hattie Ruth Wilson, Nora Mills, member of the department of science Women's judiciary committee, change America's top band leader, is the of his orchestra, however. Included Carolyn Bullard and E. J. Hines. at East Carolina, will speak at a in budget appropriations, organize The theme of the meeting was meeting of the Faculty Lecture club committees to adjust club and or-"The Eternal Friendship." Evelyn Monday, April 20, at 8 p.m. in the gamization meetings and clarifica-Wright auditorium and following up wood Paladium, and Tommy Mercer, Eury sang "The Stranger of Galilee," Flanagan auditorium, according to tion of constitutional conflicts. with a better than two hours of dance recently voted the top male vocalist accompanied at the piano by Laura Dr. James Poindexter, program chair- Other changes will be proposed by the legislature and student body later. man of the organization.

were included on the program. power plant. Comforts of Home

A kitchen equipped with an electric stove and a refrigerator, a porcelain Former Student sink and ample cabinet space opens

Carolina college department of edu- by the department of science. Art students are displaying their tives of the college branch of the work in the Austin building and the Association for Childhood Education | college library, and a display of m attended April 5-10 in Denver, Colo. terials of interest to foreign 1 the 1953 Study conference of ACE guages students is also being show The departments of business

The topic for consideration was The college now "What Do We Know About the Role plication blanks for of Science in Childhood Education?" for 20 scholarships The Denver conference was planstudents who will ned to offer fresh approaches and for the school new techniques for those concerned nouncement con with the education and well-being of arships was rec children. Visits to public elementary the newspapers. schools, schools for children under Scholarships six and child care centers in Denver the basis of character tic ability and g Any student win

cation for one o

may secure an

When the

the application

secure the major advisor

application to sideration be

Dean Prewett.

of the nation. Famed as 'The Young 1952-53 Entertainment series spon-Man With A Horn," Anthony was sored by the college. born in Bentleyville, Pa., and raised - in Cleveland.

He played with local bands while attending high school in Cleveland and then landed his first name band ob with Al Donahue's outfit. Following a brief stay with Jimmy Dorsey, Anthony joined the Glenn Miller aggregation in 1940 and played during several coast-to-coast tours. After his hitch in the Navy, during which he directed a top notch service band in the Pacific, Ray and his ever present trumpet formed his own band and soon was hailed as America's greatest musical name since the late Glenn Miller.

Anthony, who is married to Dee Keating, a former vocalist with his band, stands five feet, eight inches tall and bears a strong resemblance to screen star Cary Grant. He is a rabid baseball fan and holds as his

Ray Anthony

and the building will be available for donated to the college for any pur- The Hut will be furnished by the Airplane Crash other meetings, both religious and pose approved by the Board. So far YMCA and the YWCA, and a drive as possible, college labor was used for funds for the interior decoration Second Lt. Stanley T. Smith of committee. recreational. An attractive one-story structure, for construction of the new building. of the building will begin soon on the Kinston was one of two men killed for one effective the Hut is located on the south cam- The recently completed Hut is a campus. A piano and some furniture in the crash of a training plane near do so pus just to the rear of the College cottage-type structure. The exterior from the original Hut will be used. Marianna, Fla., Tuesday, April 7. He infirmary. A fine grove of pines, is finished in brown asbestos siding, Charlie B. Bedford of Pikeville and was stationed at Graham Air base Set dogwoods, oaks, hollies and other and doors and window frames are Maidred J. Morris of Kenly, newly in Florida undergoing flight training trees lend beauty to the setting. | white. Steps leading to the entrance elected presidents of the Y organi- at the time of the accident. More than 25 years ago the college are of brick and are built in semi- zations for the 1953-1954 term, re- Smith graduated from East Caroceived this week keys to the Hut lina college in May, 1952 with an C acquired its first Y Hut. Until last circular pattern. fall the building was extensively used The main room within the building from Mr. Duncan. Presidents for the A. B. degree in business education. for religious services, meetings of is spacious and well-lighted. It meas- 1952-1953 college term who have On May 18, 1951, he was awarded various organizations and recreation- ures 49 feet by 32 feet. A handsome assisted in planning the Hut and its the Distinguished Military durations brick fireplace faces the entrance. furnishing are Andrew Meeder of honor from the college AFROTE des al activities of students.

"We are indebted for the materials Norfolk, Va., and Joyce Gurley of partment. In his senior year he to Old Hut Torn Down When the site for the new Joyner of the hardwood floors," Mr. Duncan Goldsboro and Grace Baker of Ken- appointed cadet colorel. Before enrolling at BCC. library, now under construction on states, "to the Garris-Evans Lumber ansville. the campus, was chosen, it was nec- company of Greenville, who present- A group of approximately 20 stu- was a veteran of World Week essary to move or demolish the old ed them as a gift to the college and dent officers and other members of served overseas in G Y Hut. The building, a frame struc- to the YMCA and the YWCA." the two organizations also partici- Air Force. ture, was razed last summer; and Windows with sliding panes light pated in activities leading toward He was married to be much of the material was salvaged the room on four sides. The heating the building and equipping of the also from Kington and of East Carolina and used later in the construction of system is connected with the college new Y Hut.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1958

FRIDAY, AF-

tow that

stern Divis

erence vistians are beat as 1.

The Bucs,

high of late,

rates' perfect

. Coach .

another

ald his hit

wring the di

The Pirates

bat is capa

East Carolin

and veterans stretch. The count last things: One afford to m

times agains

it reman

ek when

EAST CAROLINIAN

The outstanding student chosen for

PAGE TWO

East Carolinian

Published Weekly by the students of East Carolina college, Greenville, N. C. Name changed from TECO ECHO November 7, 1952 Entered as second-class matter December 3, 1925 at the U. S. Post Office, Greenville, N. C., under the act of March 3, 1879

Associated Collegiate Press Member Teachers College Division Columbia Scholastic Press Association First Place Rating, CSPA Convention, March, 1953 Columbia Scholastic Press Association

Member

"The moving finger writes, and, having writ, Moves on; nor all your piety nor wit, Shall lure it back to cancel half a line, Nor all your tears wash out a word of it."-E. Fitzgerald

EDITOR	AIAL STAFF Tommie Lupton
Editor-In-Chief	Edmine McMullan
Mediaging Liditor	Dealer Moddrey
Aboustante Estate	Phyllis Carpenter
a. ec Arristanta	Kay Johnston,
Mildred Hender	rson, Emily Boyce, Faye O'Neal
Editorial Advisor	Mary H. Greene

Ye Editor's Say

by Tommie Lupton

this week's "Who's Who" is Maurice Ray Anthony is on everyone's mind Moore, a senior from Wilmington. at the present, being he will play Maurice has been at East Carofor a concert and dance here Monday lina for two years and plans to evening as the last part of this year's graduate May 18 of this year with college Entertainment series. Most a B.S. degree.

of us who were at East Carolina last His freshman and sophomore years year well remember the performance were spent at Wilmington college in put on by the Anthony musicians. his home town, where he was an We would like to remind everyone outstanding student. There he was that the dance is closed to the public. active in basketball and dramatics Students will be admitted free upon and he also served on the school presentation of student identification paper staff.

cards. Each student may purchase He chose East Carolina to comone ticket for an outside guest if he plete his education after visiting our campus and as he put it, "I comis accompanying the guest. pared it with the campuses and at-

"Student Prince" was really great! titudes of other schools that I had We feel that everyone really bene- attended during the summer or visitfitted from the presentation. Over ed and decided to come and stay; so 200 students made the production here I am. In fact I wish that I had possible, and from the calibre of the come my full four years to ECC."

Maurice Moore

by Phyllis Carpenter

in various other extracurricular activities but his military and his carrying maximum hours each quarter prevented this. summer camp at McDill Air Force themselves.

base near Tampa, Fla., for a month. the library and post office."

Sports Draw Interest

if I put up a piece of land in Arabia the way of spending spare time. He It is obvious, therefore, that if next year's series e say that all the hard work put in Maurice feels that the students as collateral?" Maurice told the boy likes tennis, football, basketball, salt does not apeal to the students then they have that the interest would be out of water fishing and bird and duck no one but themselves to blame.

The 1953-54 Student Government at East well as last. He stated that he would Carolina has started off in fine form and all inhave liked very much to participate dications point to a promising future of progress. the SGA was the election to decide on next year's Er tertainment series programs.

TIMELY TOPICS

By Bob Hilldrup

The SGA should be congratulated for their fine work in sponsoring the election, but the Last summer Maurice attended student body as a whole should be ashamed of The turnout of votes on this issue was dis-There he listened to lectures and saw gustingly small considering the amount of gripevery phase of the Air Force demon- ing done by students with reference to this year's strated. Gen. Armstrong was the base series of programs. It was obvious that the studcommander. The nicest thing, he ents of East Carolina were not in favor of many stated, was having access to the of- of the programs presented during the past year fic.r's club and open post after duty and we heartily suported the vast majority of hours until 10 p. m. "Now I know the criticism. The trouble remains, however, what the girls have to go through that once an oportunity was presented to the when signing out, for I had to do students to have something done to bring more the same thing whenever I went to programs here insignificant interest was shown. Not more than one-third of the eligible campus voters exercised the privilege of casting a Sports are his primary interest in ballot for or against the numerous selections.

Editorial Advisor	say that all the hard work part has	me a friendlines, on campus that that the interest would be out of w	the Another forerite pastime is	The SGA cooperated in the voting, the	mother was
Start Photographer	over many nours ready .	we a friendliness on campus that that the interest would be out of we are seldom found at a college. "It reason, but at the same time he was h reason, but at the same time he was h thinking to himself what a foolish "	unting. Another lavorite publishe	Entortainment committee agreed to abide by	their errors
SPORTS STAFF	dividends. 18	seldom found at a concept. thisking to himself what a foolish "	roaming the beach.	the balloting in as far as possible but the students	their circles
Bob Hilldrup		Id me," he said, "for I had at first thinking to himself what a rooman	In his hometown Maurice was quite	the balloting in as far as possible but the students	capable of
Sports Editor				as a whole, let their own argument down, we hope	league quite
Sports Assistants Sam Hux, Bruce Phillips, Jack Scott	We have been told that the gardens pi	and us that the neeple at Stetson lask. Much to his surprise, though, a	cuve in the richort of the youth	be better than that presented during 1952-53,	Under the
BUSINESS STAFF	back of the girls' dorms are loaded fo	rmed us that the people at a later found that the boy actually 1	nere ne was president of the	·	Under mill y
Edna Massad	down with sun bathers on pretty un	anned to attend UNC. He me question for the surprise, though, a ormed us that the people at Stetson niversity in Florida had heard about iversity in Florida had heard about for frightliness, for the football did own some land in Arabia for his	eague and also served on various	if it is not then the students of East Caro	rates will .
Fave Jones	dave We imagine that many sea 10	If includinces, and in	committees and councils. While still	but if it is not then the students of East Caro- lina have no one but themselves to blame.	Eastern Div
Assistant Business Manager Faye Jones Mary Gillette,	dents have been hitting the beaches pl		n nion school no neme		four times c
Mary Gineco,	dents have occur intering the lately	m:ial studios major and Eng- traveled there.	weeks to Flora McDonald college for		chedule. T
Marty MacArthur, Atwood Smith, Dwight Gallett		Likes reaching	Thore he mel	o file motor stome under consideration	util on tom
Brahanga Editor Mrs. Susie Webb	e [li	sh minor did his practice teaching Likes Teaching Maurice liked student teaching	a workshop meeting. There he mee	One of the major items under consideration	still on tap
Exchange Editor	Talking the other day to Registrar in	sh minor did his practice teaching a Greenville high school winter quar- er of this year. He taught eco- bistory Wo esting, for he said that you had the	many people of other towns who were	for action by this year's SGA is a revision of	nothing has settled.
Self Help Rates Low	ill is no provistration this	omics and American history. We esting, for he said that you had the	and load devotionals. The classes	a matter that has been needing attention for	One brigh
	there will be no pre-registration tine h	very much and found it quite inter- very much and found it quite inter- sked if he had any unusual experi- nces, to which he replied, "Heavens, t was three months of nothing but xperiences." There was one rather amusing in-	part and lead devotionant and the study	a matter that has been needing obvious. The	Latt nicture
Th student self help rate at East Carolina is	spring for next year. we imagine a	to which he replied "Heavens types of people and personalities.	consisted of such things as the study	some time. The need for revision is obvious. The	Dan prestric
42.8 cents an hour. At the University of North	the reason for not taking time out e	nces, to which he replied, ficarchis, but He said "It helps you to study if	of the Bible and devotionals. Future	constitution under which we are presently living	of Jim Pin
Gampling it is 75 conts and other state supported	for pre-registering is that next fall i	t was three months of nothing but xperiences." There was one rather amusing in- ident, though, that we would like to ell about. On this certain day, Mau- ell about. On this certain day, Mau-	work was planned in the workshops.	is one that is fine for a school of approximately	from Beau
Carolina it is to cents and outer than we.	during registration all students do	xperiences." nothing else and teaches you to read	After graduation Maurice will re-	1000 students, but times and students have chang-	loss against schools have a slight higher rate than we.	not have to go through the proce-	There was one rather amusing in- ident though that we would like to The activity here at East Carolina	coive his commission and go into	ad and a new constitution is definitely needed.	his fault. H
F. D. Duncan, business manager of the cor	not have to go through the protect	ident though that we would like to The activity here at East Carolina	time later When completing his ser-	ed and a new constitution is advantageously	his record
lege, gives an explanation of this. The expenses	dures on the same day.	It shout On this cortain day Man- that has taken up the majority of	active duty. when completing ins ser	Among items that could be advantageously	nig second at Carolina and some other state schools are high-	[t	ell about. On this certain day, inter his time is AFROTC. He has been	vice in the Air Force his plans to go	changed are those concerning wider student rep-
at then hard UNC charges up to $45 per quarter	This past week end saw many 1	rice was conducting a class on inter- his time is the both years that he	into textiles or attend Wharton School	resentation on major committees, a possible	1
er than here. On o charges East Carolina charges	students on campus taking part in	that has taken up the majority of the base of this both years that he has been here and is wing command- er as a senior. Also he's a member of the officer's club this year, as	of Business in Pennsylvania to study	change in the judiciary set up and late privileges,	Good Fo for a dorm room, whereas hast out on the college	various athletic games. There were	ateral. A boy raised his hand and has been here and is wing command-	business furthering and broadening	if possible for women students on Friday nights.	and Fr only $20 to $23. The cost of eating in the concer	various actively guilter on Sat-	sked "Mr. Moore, how much in- er as a senior. Also he's a member	Li maine hono	Il possible, for women studentes on a range anditorium	R ours. For these reasons Carolina can afford a	two games of softball going on Date	terest would I have to pay on $100 of the officer's club this year, as	his major here.	The SGA meetings in Flanagan auditorium dining halls at Chapel Hill is also higher than	urday afternoon at one time or an-	terest would I have to pay on quot of the		each Wednesday night are open to all, and it	al DD
higher colf holp rate	other, a court full of tennis players			lis in the best interest of East Carolina students
nigner self-neip rate.	were gaming, and several golfers	Boys, Beware Of Suncourts		to turn out to hear and if necessary challenge,	6
When the state anocates the conege student help	wore out driving This just proves	Boys, Deware Of Suncourts	Shooting	the discussion on the part of their elected rep-every year, a part is set aside for student help.	were out univing. This just persons who			the discussion on the part of then elected rep	N N
The second secon	that there are a ren per	D. Kay Johnston		resentives.	1 dormitories and dining hall. (The dorms and	remain on campus week chude	You not anto the the very nonular "love-books." You		Enough Said.
dining hall are more or less independent from		If you would venture out onto the the very popular a remark or two alling half are more of read and only furnishes		A P IL LOOD dorms I might pych heat a reason of the state.) But the states fund only furnishes	returned three books to the Michigan	you probably would get the shock of such as this, "Hey listen you-all to your life. "Dan, my darling, come back to	by T. Parker Maddrey	POT POURRI less than half of the 42.8 cents.	returned three books to the month They	your life Dan, my darling, come back to	In recent months fear of Commu-
Mr. Duncan, who wrote $15,000 worth of	State college library last month. They	mi first thing you would notice me I'm sorry I ran away with the	i has anneed over the notion	by Emily Boyce	0
101 1 students lost aller Save	Tuara Sian Forgebung, Coc		Inishi has opticit	by Entry Boyce that he haves that he can find it possible to raise	illeau and inch is	Till Jacob Hilt WAFV	i life procing on a li that he hopes that he can third it pow much he	The books were a week overdue.	lying on anything from blankets to me, I'll always be true. But many	Congressional committees has fright	Everybody is watching the progress of the the student help-rate by July 1. How much he		lying on anything from blankets to me, I'll always be true. But mary imagination. Most of these people would be your friends, but you would never see Dan again, for she had a never see Dan again, for she had a	Congressional committeees into ingut	new library with interest these days. With every could raise it is undetermined, but inter a	Definition of "college," according	would be your friends, but you would never see Dan again, for she had a	ened college professors to the exten	week it gooms to rise higher with perfect form.
says it may be from 10 to 15 per cent.	Definition of conege, according	would be your friends, but you would never see Dan again, for she had a have a difficult time recognizing slight suspicion that he had run them. Terrible frowns would cover away with the maid."	that they now voice their politica	Week it seems to fise inglier with perfect form
Mr Duncan further adds that he realizes	to the Michigan State Normal News.	have a difficult time recognizing them. Terrible frowns would cover their faces and they would shout horrible things to you, such as "get out of the way, you're putting a	it is the continue in public for	None are watching it grow any more reverency that the student help-rate is low and will do al	I "Institutions which sometimes lower	them. Terrible frowns would cover away with the hampong to be Tuesday	opinions with caution in public 10.	than those students in library science who work that the student help-rate is fool that persons doing	g entrance requirements with an end	their faces and they would shout If the day happens to be ruesday	fear that it may be interpreted a	^s here at the college. These students talk of the he can to raise it. We reer that persons doing	l in view not to mention promising	horrible things to you, such as "get or Thursday, another treat will be out of the way, you're putting a in store for you, for the girls never	Commission on Amorican Th	improvements and opportunities the new library	-
these odd campus jobs to help and their infancia	in view not to mention promites	out of the way, you're putting a in store for you, for the girls never	Communistic or un-American. In	ill offers them and others. They talk about the funda to turther liel ellucation bioard
i undow the present ret	-			THE REPORT OF THE PARTINE AND THE PARTY OF T
ditions the possibilities of higher pay are ques	- Coeds at Utah State college have	Covering their frowning faces obys who fille up in the bluehing hove de	have for the first time warned the	_ night-words such as, the stacks, juvenile room, ditions the possibilities of manor pay and i	been asked to refrain from wearing	would be all kinds of oils, liniments dorms. As the poor blushing boys a	letaff how far they could go in voicin	Trilage gouda publishors blur etc.	1 tionable.	icons in the classroom. College offi-	and creams to protect them from the an "about face" the ECC "Andrew	their aninions.	nonnon the conversation with an air of true li-	1
	i-1 and the sinla should wear jeans	Covering their frowning faces would be all kinds of oils, liniments and creams to protect them from the blistering sun. Some of these tanned blistering sun	The Communist party is here i	n pepper the conversation with an air of true li- brary science interest.	1
Sorry, The Line Is Busy	clais say the girls should here y	Unotiting barries in the second	I THE Community party and the	Inrary science interest.	2
		Theanties will be wearing building	I the South There are dulle a le	The building of the new library could stally
Bzzz, Bzzz, Bzzz. And once more a disgrun		lauite some shorts and others-maybe 1001 son is not other	Communist publications circulatin	g as a sort of growing symbol to these people.
Bzzz, Bzzz, Bzzz, And once more a disgrunt tled slams down a telephone somewhere due t	V have to know how to write	hearing they're hold or maybe be-1. So take down that service mag			25
tled slams down a telephone somewhere due t		because they ie bold of maybe by	Through this area that promote pro-	Those field is programmy all the while and in its
the fact that the phones in Austin building an	e if you want to graduate from Michi-	cause they're poor-will only be wear- Mother,	Through this area that promote pro-	Their field is broadening all the while and in the e Il you want to graduate it there	cause they're poor-will only be wear- Mother, Your son's in the ROTC.	aganda on the financial, racial ar	d progress is a growing realization of the impor-
DUSV.	gan State college. A new ruling there	cause they're poor-will only be wear- ing their-well! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC.	aganda on the financial, racial ar	rogress is a growing realization of the impor-
We wonder how often, day after day, th	gan State college. A new ruling there	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not Mother, Your son's in the ROTC.	e social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n	Their field is broadening all the while and in its progress is a growing realization of the impor- is tance of the demand for trained librarians all ot the growthe growthe the growthe the proud of
We wonder how often, day after day, the	gan State college. A new ruling there	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not Mother, Your son's in the ROTC.	e social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n	Their field is broadening all the while and in its progress is a growing realization of the impor- is tance of the demand for trained librarians all ot the growthe growthe the growthe the proud of
We wonder how often, day after day, th scene is reenacted by the many people who mu	is states that seniors can't graduate st until their "writing technique is im-	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for suppathing. For if you notice	e social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the	Their field is broadening all the while and miles progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for-scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the	Their field is broadening all the while and in re- progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can	because they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well!Mother, Your son's in the ROTC.Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering overMother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther	Their field is broadening all the while and miles progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one scene is reenacted by the many people who must make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tel	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the tell serve the tell of the tell serve the tell serve the this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the tell serve tell serve tell serve the tell serve tell serve the tell serve tell	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the tell serve the tell of the tell serve the tell serve the this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the tell serve tell serve tell serve the tell serve tell serve the tell serve tell	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets.	is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled	cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life!	e social problems. One such journal e mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points.	Their field is broadening all the while and mite progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one
scene is reenacted by the many people who must make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements.	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would ge the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we	e social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com- from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi- party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbors is a Red or that the whole nation	Their field is broadening all the while and miles progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them.
scene is reenacted by the many people who multimake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have been clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust heilding, but at other strategic spots on camput	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate st until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can ds write legibly." e- Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- to signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements.	A cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over tosely they will be hovering over Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- took a survey of East Carolina stu-	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Community party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call fa panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbout is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governments. 	 Their field is broadening all the while and miles progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. st a While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them.
scene is reenacted by the many people who mut make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fat	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements.	A cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! But T. Parker Maddrey Edna Massad, Benson, junior: " be durned if I know why I chose EC, but it is a mighty fine school	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi- party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbours is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governments.	 Their field is broadening all the while and miles progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. st a While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had
scene is reenacted by the many people who mut make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- to signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements.	A cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over tosely they will be hovering over Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbour is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt. "All we have to fear 	 Their field is broadening all the while and mide progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. st While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. D. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan-
scene is reenacted by the many people who mut make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- to signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements.	A cause they're poor—will only be wear- ing their—well! Most all of them will be busy, not forsaking a moment of their educa- tion for sunbathing. For if you notice closely they will be hovering over tosely they will be hovering over Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stock of the college. The question was: "Why do you like	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbour is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt. "All we have to fear 	 Their field is broadening all the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. while on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlantic beach. A better time couldn't have been had scene is reenacted by the many people who mutuake calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have been clamoring for more telephones, not only in Austibuilding, but at other strategic spots on camputation The difficulty lies not only with the fat there are too few phones in Austin, but at there are too few phones in Austin, but at there are the three existing the three ex	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- to signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences	A standard sector of the secto	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Community party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call fa panicky fear on the individuation thinking that his next door neighbour is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear itself." 	 Their field is broadening all the while and mass progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. st While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. D. The WAA of East Carolina college had is their annual house party last weekend at Atlantic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year
scene is reenacted by the many people who mut make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existin phones serviced by one line.	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like For the fugh school seniors in the campus." Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Mostall of them will be busy, not out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Mostall of the shock of your life! Mostall of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the function of the college. The true the ECC because it offers the Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Mostall of the shock of your life! Statement of the shock of your life! Mostall of	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbies is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." 	 Their field is broadening all the while and mass progress is a growing realization of the importance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking forward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlantic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install	any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Couple of the Week ," have bee a going pretty steady since last Sep	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the beat caurse in business and, too, I'm	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbris is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." It's here! The three dimensional problems. 	Their field is broadening all the while and mile progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had is their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages.
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install	any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Couple of the Week ," have bee a going pretty steady since last Sep	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the beat caurse in business and, too, I'm	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbris is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." It's here! The three dimensional problems. 	Their field is broadening all the while and mile progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had is their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages.
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install	any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Couple of the Week ," have bee a going pretty steady since last Sep	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the beat caurse in business and, too, I'm	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comfrom Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communiparty in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighbris is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." It's here! The three dimensional problems. 	Their field is broadening all the while and mile progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had is their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages.
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install	any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Couple of the Week ," have bee a going pretty steady since last Sep	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the beat caurse in business and, too, I'm	 aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another comments from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Community party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individuation thinking that his next door neighbors is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme. In the words of the late Franklin a Roosevelt, "All we have to fear itself." It's here! The three dimension movies and to Greenville this we the the this we the the this we the the the the the the the this we the this we the the the the the the the the the th	Their field is broadening an the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. D. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be	an State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time. Bill said. "You see, my roommat	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of th local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm "I like ECC because it offers the d high School day by the friendly at- "I like School day by the friendly at-	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we The 3-D is Hollywood's latest or tion in movies with a realistic tou	Their field is broadening an the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serve
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line lead to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be	gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- to signed to improve literacy among fu- he ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time Bill said. "You see, my roommath had been talking about this cut	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- eiding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like the stast Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm " High School day by the friendly at- "I like School day by the friendly at-	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we The 3-D is Hollywood's latest or tion in movies with a realistic tou	Their field is broadening an the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serve
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line leads to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa- that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be on its way to East Caroina.	gan State college. A new ruling there gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time. Bill said. "You see, my roommath had been talking about this cut	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Taye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm nearer home. I was impressed on High School day by the friendly at-	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from the Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we The 3-D is Hollywood's latest or tion in movies with a realistic tou	Their field is broadening all the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. It. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serve the ed. Sun bathing, pool and bowling all helped to
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line leads to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be on its way to East Caroina. One must be familiar with the problem	gan State college. A new ruling there gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate st until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- he ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time Bill said. "You see, my roommath had been talking about this cut ittle girl for a long time, and whe we went to the dance he spent th	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm " nearer home. I was impressed on High School day by the friendly at-	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we tion in movies with a realistic tou Using three reels projected on screen at different angles gives movie depth.	Their field is broadening all the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. I. D. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages, conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serv- ed. Sun bathing, pool and bowling all helped to create some tired, but happy girls, and a week
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line leads to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have bee clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be on its way to East Caroina. One must be familiar with the problem	gan State college. A new ruling there gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate st until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- he ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time Bill said. "You see, my roommath had been talking about this cut ittle girl for a long time, and whe we went to the dance he spent th	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like East Carolina?" Faye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm " nearer home. I was impressed on High School day by the friendly at-	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we tion in movies with a realistic tou Using three reels projected on screen at different angles gives movie depth.	Their field is broadening all the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. I. D. The WAA of East Carolina college had their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages, conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serv- ed. Sun bathing, pool and bowling all helped to create some tired, but happy girls, and a week
scene is reenacted by the many people who mu make calls to Austin building. The cause of the difficulty lies in the fact that only one line leads to Austin and this must serve the three tell phones located there. Therefore, if one phone in use this automatically causes a busy signal register when a call is made to either of the other two outlets. For many a day various groups have be clamoring for more telephones, not only in Aust building, but at other strategic spots on campu The difficulty lies not only with the fa- that there are too few phones in Austin, be with the business of having the three existing phones serviced by one line. The answer to this would be to install college switchboard which could handle eff tively the existing calls and the badly needed no phones. Rumors are that a switchboard has be on its way to East Caroina.	gan State college. A new ruling there gan State college. A new ruling there is states that seniors can't graduate until their "writing technique is im- proved to a point where they can write legibly." Currently 418 students are enrolled is in a non-credit writing course, de- signed to improve literacy among fu- to signed to improve literacy among fu- he ture degree holders. MSC officials have said nothing thus far about any reading requirements. Couple Of The Week Clara Mae Harris and Bill Spences our "Couple of the Week," have bee going pretty steady since last Sep ec- tember. "I had been looking forwar to meeting Clara for a long time. Bill said. "You see, my roommat had been talking about this cut of little girl for a long time, and whe we went to the dance he spent th ons entire night looking for her. We	Mother, Your son's in the ROTC. Oh yes, if you would ever ventur out into the sun-court of one of the local dorms, you probably would get the shock of your life! Students Give Reasons For Liking College by T. Parker Maddrey For the high school seniors in de- ciding what college to choose, we took a survey of East Carolina stu- dents on their opinions of the college. The question was: "Why do you like "Taye Jones, Bear Grass, junior: "I like ECC because it offers the best course in business and, too, I'm nearer home. I was impressed on High School day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I like ECC because it offers the do the school day by the friendly at- "I high School day by the friendly at- "I hight School day by the friendly at- "I hight School day by the	aganda on the financial, racial ar social problems. One such journal mimeographed at Chapel Hill (n affiliated with UNC). Another com from Missouri and others from th Nothern states hitting on Souther weak points. Fortunately to say, the Communi party in the United States is still minority group. There is no call f a panicky fear on the individu thinking that his next door neighb is a Red or that the whole nation headed for Communistic governme In the words of the late Franklin Roosevelt, "All we have to fear fear itself." re It's here! The three dimensio movie came to Greenville this we tion in movies with a realistic tou Using three reels projected on screen at different angles gives movie depth.	Their field is broadening all the while and in the progress is a growing realization of the impor- tance of the demand for trained librarians all over the country. These students are proud of their work and enjoy it. They are looking for- ward to the completion of the new library with impatient zest. While on the subject of the library, the one in use now is certainly a credit to the college. The exhibit that was put up for Pan American day (April 14th) was excellent. Such exhibits help to create interest in our neighbors and also encourage us to read the books concerning them. The WAA of East Carolina college had is their annual house party last weekend at Atlan- tic beach. A better time couldn't have been had according to the 40 girls who attended. This year the number was so great that two large cottages conveniently located, were rented. The girls did their own cooking and really proved themselves worthy of the title of good cooks on Saturday night when golden brown, fried chicken was serv ed. Sun bathing, pool and bowling all helped to create some tired, but happy girls, and a week end of fun for the WAA.

have attempted to find a phone in a hurry will we met and now she spends all her agree with our viewpoint.

(Note: The 1953-54 SGA has taken an ad- male ego!) mirable step forward in an attempt to eliminate Clara, who hails from Washingthe problem by installing a phone in the Post ton, is a primary major, and Bill, Office lobby. Let's hope that more such action who hails from Raper, is a science on the part of someone will soon follow.)

Appearance Much Better Now

torial criticizing the condition that bulletin boards "Couple of the Week," Clara and on campus were always in. To find a notice on Bill will each be given a carton of one of the bulletin boards in the Post Office lobby, Chesterfields, a free pass to the Pitt one would have to scramble up all the notices theatre, a free meal at the Olde and posters and spend five or ten minutes hunt- Towne Inn and an item from Sasing before he could find the item he was looking. low's jewelers.)

Now, we are glad to say, the situation is very much improved, for the bulletin boards are being kept up as they should have been all the time. Two service fraternities, the EPO and the portrays her parents as slightly lazy. APO, have set up their own bulletin boards in One morning at breakfast Ma says the lobby. By just spending a little more time in to Pa: "Pa, there's a fly a-swimming posting the notices and advertisements on a spot, around in your coffee." And Pa reit is possible to have a neat display.

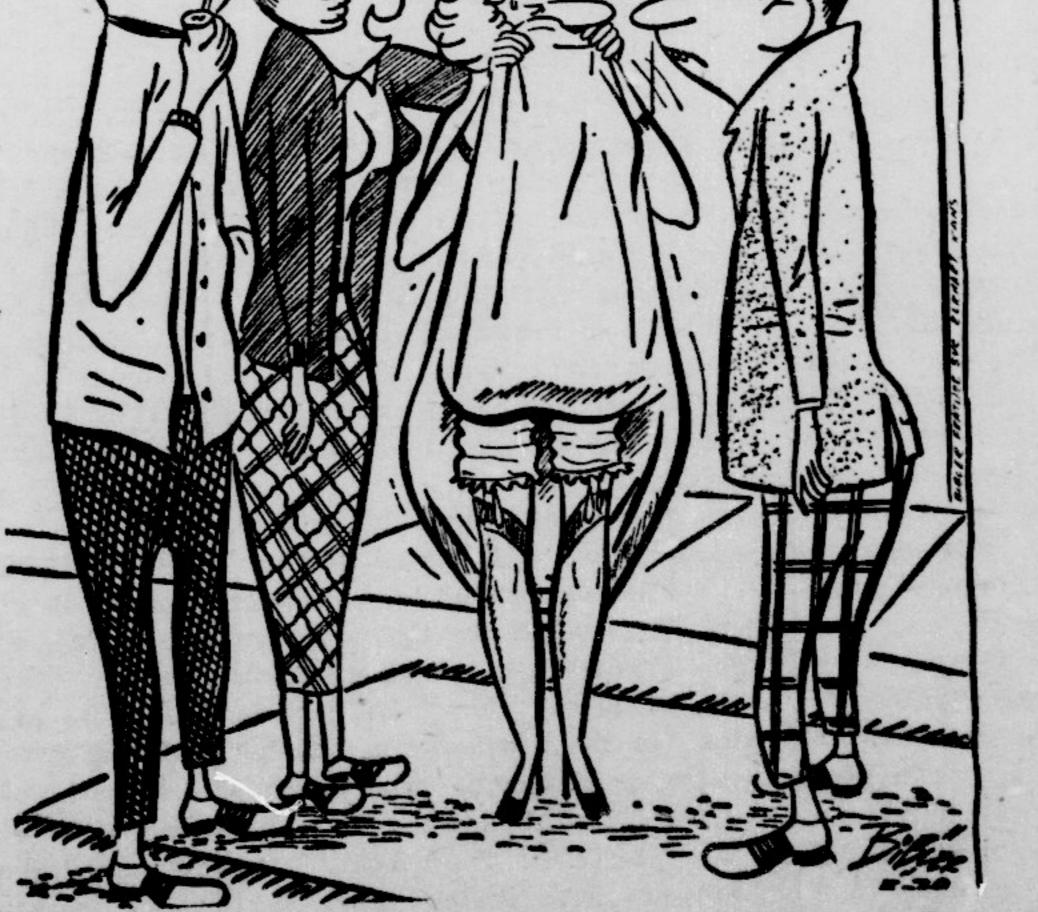

(Continued in Column 6)

time looking for me." (Ouch, that major. "We hope to be able to get married within another year," Bill said, "then Clara will be able to keep up with me better."

Back earlier in the year we wrote an edi- (Editor's note: By being named

On the "Judy Canova Show" Judy plies: "Aw, don't be so stingy, Ma, Another thing we were glad to see was the how much do you think a little ol' fly will drink?"

Oh, she has a pretty mouth all right, Worthal-It's just that most freshman girls are a little bashful on blind dates."

The production of The Student Prince was the full-length 3-D movie of the "Bwana Devil" a lion seemingly greeted with wide applause by both students and sprang out right in the laps of the faculty members here. The opinion on whether audience. In another scene a native it was better than last year's production of Good tossed a spear and immediately peo- News was varied, but all agreed that the music ple ducked under their seats. In a was terrific! The specialties, the tap dancing of desert scene a gust of wind blew Martha Benton and the voice of Bernie Ham, dust that appeared to be coming were enthusiastically praised, although a great out of the screen into the theatre. deal of criticism was voiced on the way the num-There were spontaneous sneezes from bers were worked in with the production. On Friday night these two talents were omitted. We the effects of it. Of course these examples are ex- are now eagerly awaiting The Adventures 0] aggerated a little, but the 3-D is Robin Hood, soon to be given. quite different from regular movies.

(Continued from Column 1)

a growing section of Carolina, and glass case built around the Student Government association bulletin board. Members of the legiswish to grow with it." Faye O'Neil, sophomore, Selma: lature are now able to find minutes of old meet-"East Carolina is the friendliest cam- ings, business for the coming meeting and other announcements.

To keep the present conditions in state, each Ann Duke, Greenville, junior: "ECC has a friendly atmosphere between person who posts a notice should see to it that the notice is taken down and thrown away when Gregg Rife, Arlington, sophomore: it is outdated. Each of these organizations should "There's a lot of activity on the be commended for the fine improvement of the appearance of the boards.

the teachers and students."

pus in the South."

campus here."

Y, APRIL 17, 1958 FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1958

PICS

vernment at East

e form and all in-future of progress.

em carried out by eide on next year's atulated for their election, but the ild be ashamed of this issue was dis-le amount of grip.

rence to this year's ious that the stud.

t in favor of many ring the past year

vast majority of remains, however.

one to bring more nterest was shown.

f the eligible campilege of casting .

imerous selections

f next year's series

its then they have presented to the

SPORTS ECHO by Bob Hilldrup

Now that the opening round of once more that he would make an For Win; Buc Batters seball is firmly underway in the able addition to any pitching staff Stage Hitting Splurge Eastern Division of the North State in the state. by Sam Hux

Out west Lenoir-Rhyne is giving It was all East Carolina here hristians are once more the team notice that it will be in the thick of things once more in the run for Wednesday afternoon as the Pirates In Coming WeekS the league pennant. The Bears, due slugged away for 21 hits and a 22-2 to beat as far as East Carolina is of things once more in the run for Wednesday afternoon as the Pirates oncerned.

The Bucs, who have been riding to the cooler atmosphere, have been victory over the High Point Panthers. igh of late, were rudely upset last a trifle slow in getting underway, Off to a great start, seven runs in week when Elon dismantled the Pi- but in three games so far have the first inning, the Bucs never let ates' perfect record in conference proven their mettle. Two of the con- up on the visitors. The other big afternoon, swing out to High Point lay. Coach Jim Mallory has turned tests were against teams of the pro- inning was the six-run fourth. Bob Penly, frosh sensation, Cecil the third time this season. ut another top motch club and, fessional Class B Tri-State league ould his hitters come through, will and in both games the Bruins came Heath and W. C. Sanderson each have another squad capable of cap- off as top dog. It will be remem- slammed out three hits. Wilbur uring the divisional title. The Pirates, as usual, have a club Elon for the overall league crown. Cline were good for two. On the Wilson to meet arch-rival Atlantic the eastern picture seems to indi- van combined talents to limit the East Carolina's mixture of rookies cate that the two clubs that will be Panthers to seven safeties. and veterans can hold up in the battling for the top position are High man for High Point was Catstretch. The loss to Elon by a 3-2 Elon and East Carolina. The re- cher Jim Morgan with two for four. ount last week showed several maining squads, capable of being Score by innings: ings: One is that the Bucs can't troublesome though they be, do not High Point seem at present to have the neces- East Carolina fford to make mistakes at crucial

Pirates Slaughter Panthers By 22-2 Margin In Slugfest

Jim Byrd Gets Credit

Grucial Contests On Tap For Bucs

CAROLINIAN

Pirate Ace

• 🖌

Coach Jack Boone's Pirates, who met the Guilford Quakers there this tomorrow to meet the Panthers for Action next week will see the Bucs in one game away and two home bered that last year the Bears topped Thompson, Paul Jones and Gaither battles. Tuesday the locals travel to Despite what happens out west mound, Jimmy Byrd and Lenny Sulli- Christian in one of the Bohunk Trohy series. Wednesday the Buccaneers play host to Elon's Christians in a return game here.

> The Pirates will enter each contest as favorites with the possible excep- $000\ 200\ 000-2$ tion of the Elon encounter. Elon was 720 620 41x-22 victorious in a previous contest, 3-2.

Elon Bows To Buccaneers In Golf, Tennis Matches

Buc Rally Fails

For NS Victory

their first tians, 3-2.

by Sam Hux

third but Elon bounced back in the

Pirate Squad Records Shutout Tennis Wins; Win Easily On Links

PAGE THREE

As Elon Triumphs The East Carolina college golf and tennis squads made it warm for Elon's Christians in two golf matches and two tennis outings here last week. On the tennis court the Bucs, with Joe Hallow and Paul Cameron lead-

A ninth inning rally by the East ing the way, turned back the Chris-Carolina Pirates fell short Friday, Jians both Thursday and Friday by as a result the Bucs dropped identical scores of 9-0. Hallow, Cam-North State conference eron, Don Muse, Frazier Bruton, clash of the year to Elon's Chris- Amos Stroud and Dal Foscue turned in victories for the local metters.

On the links of the Greenville Some shoddy playing staked the visitors to an early lead which they Country club the Pirate golf team managed to maintain throughout the soundly thumped Elon by a 231/2-31/2 contest. A walk, a single and a wild score Thursday and came back the pitch gave the Christians one run in following day for a repeat triumph the opening frame. The Bucs man- by a 23-4 count. The results of Friday's contests: aged to tie the score by tallying a one marker in the bottom of the

TENNIS Singles

Hallow defeated Blackstone 6-3, nference it seems that Elon's | that is capable of a championship, ut it remains to be seen whether aggregation twice last week, o 3½ and 23-4. The local linkers a stalwart golf club and can ny college in the state a rough oon. Claude King heads the of fine drivers and putters and in the low seventies and high s. King plays a steady game osseses terrific driving power. alt Massey, a veteran returning lster the squad, also swings a dable club and plays a fine	Behind a blistering 10 me atolen freshman Ken Hall emerged as the winning pitcher for the Bues in the second game. Hall limited the visit- ors to two hits in shaping the win. Sub rightfielder Bob Penley and Hall each had two for three in the hit column. First game: Montelair 133 000 0-7 East Carolina 002 303 x-8 Second game: Montelair 002 coo 0-2 East Carolina 110 400 x-6	Cameron (EC) defeated 6-2, 6-0 Muse (EC) defeated Wall Bruton (EC) defeated Buss 6-0 Stroud (EC) defeated Tys 6-2 Doubles Hallow and Cameron Brown and Pringle 6-4, 6-2 Muse and Foscue defeated from a point of speculation. It Braun, a Virginian, is another handles himself well on the as. He is an extremely good r and plays a steady game. We Martin, former number one in his high schooling days at a consistent game of golf. Har- ainey, a Salisbury linkman, also hold his own against some of the t collegiate golfers around. Ber- Iam is no slouch on the fairways r and has a classy style that gs him his share of victories. a whole the team looks very ag and should do well against all engers.	TO BE IN STYLE TRY OUR LINE OF MEN'S CLOTHING The FRANK WILSON Sto King Clothiers Since 1893

	LARRY'S S GREENVILLE'S NEWE AT FIVE College COME IN OUR FINE SELECTION	ST AND V E POINTA Stu N AR
Expert Shoe Repairing 510 Cotanche Street

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1953

It Pays

That A

Spri

Tue

Senior

Appears

Carter,

Herbert C

E Gray, gu

p.m. in public is college,

With

PAGE FOUR

'Johnny' Visits Campus Soon

ous living trade-mark, will make a one day personal visit to East Caro-12 moon.

brass buttons and his "Call for Philip ments. He is a star who's well-known vision audiences from coast to coast. Hollywood. He is easily identified by the millions who see Philip Morris' news- Johnny will be seen at the soda shop. paper and magazine ads or who have seen his cheerful smile on the life- Phillips Leads Sophs size facsimiles of Johnny in store windows all over America.

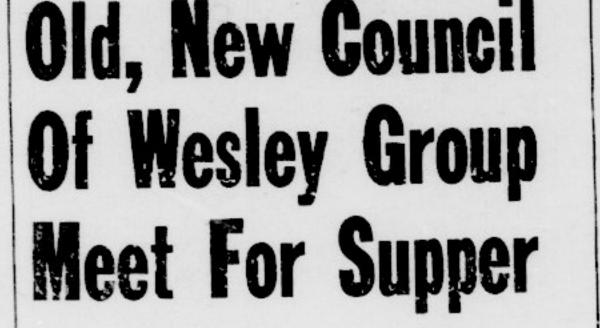

Johnny was discovered by an ad- chosen by his classmates as presivertising agency executive who gave dent of the Sophomore class at East him a card on which was written: Carolina college for the 1953-1954 "Call for Philip Morris." Given a term. He has participated in various tip, he was told to make the call student activities at the college this just as it was written. His enuncia- year and has served as a sports tion of the slogan and his clear bell- writer on the "East Carolinian." like tone have been heard by millions Other officers of the class will be Gary Scarboro, Kinston, vice presisince that day.

Accompanying Johnny on his local dent; Phyllis Eisele, Statesville, sectour in his bright red convertible retary; Janet Watson, Greenville, roadster, custom built down to his treasurer; and Ann Bowles, Wilmingsmall size, is his traveling compan- ton, Student Government association

Johnny Jr. of Philip Morris, fam- |local Philip Morris representative. The lightweight Philip Morris goodwill ambassador, whose age is a "midgetary" secret, is a celebrity in lina on April 28 from 10:45 a.m. to his own right. He counts among his many friends, officials of high office Johnny, with his red coat and in national, state and city govern-

Bruce Phillips of Raeford has been members.

The "Old and New Council" supper Morris," is known by radio and tele- by the "greats" of Broadway and for the outgoing and incoming offi-were special guests.

life during his college years.

pressed their appreciation for the Kinston. fellowship and inspiration received through the program of the Wesley foundation and gave words of challenge and encouragement to the new

of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity at East Carolina college, have been accepted as members of the college chapter.

EAST CAROLINIAN

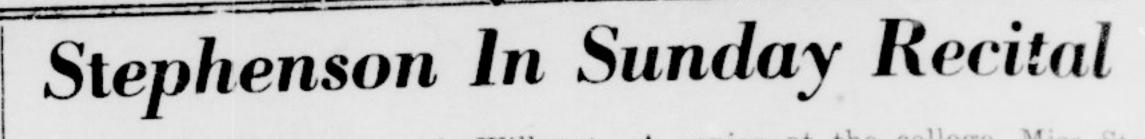

ter president, conduc.ed the ceremony. stalled in a candlelight service. They attend.

cers of the Wesley foundation was Assisting him in the rites were are Anne Durant, president; Pat on Monday evening at 5 o'clock. Johnson, Rocky Mount; David Pen-Newly elected officers for 1953-54 nington, Rocky Mount; Joseph Grady,

After the supper, the council meet- Secretary James W. Butler, chairman Jane Credle, treasurer. ing was called to order by President of the chapter advisory committee. Other newly elected leaders include Waylon Upchurch. He expressed his New members are Kenneth R. Bor- Anne Toler, publications chairman; i appreciation for all that his service deaux, Mt. Olive; John P. Carr, Agnes Mallard and Adah Bass, corin the Wesley foundation had meant Goldsboro; Norman L. Edgerton, responding secretaries; Emily Boyce, to him in the understanding of God Kenly; Paul D. Emmett, Gastonia; publicity chairman; Lou Moore and and the meaning of the Christian John W. Hudson, Kinston; Floyd T. Jean Flora, historians; Anne Smith, ties of treasurer.

Lefler, Mt. Gilead; E. Matthew Pres- reporter; and Glenna Thomas, Patsy Other seniors on council also ex- cott, New Bern, and Gary Scarboro, Pappendick and Shirley Wiggins, members-at-large.

> GARRIS GROCERY GREENVILLE'S FOOD CENTER

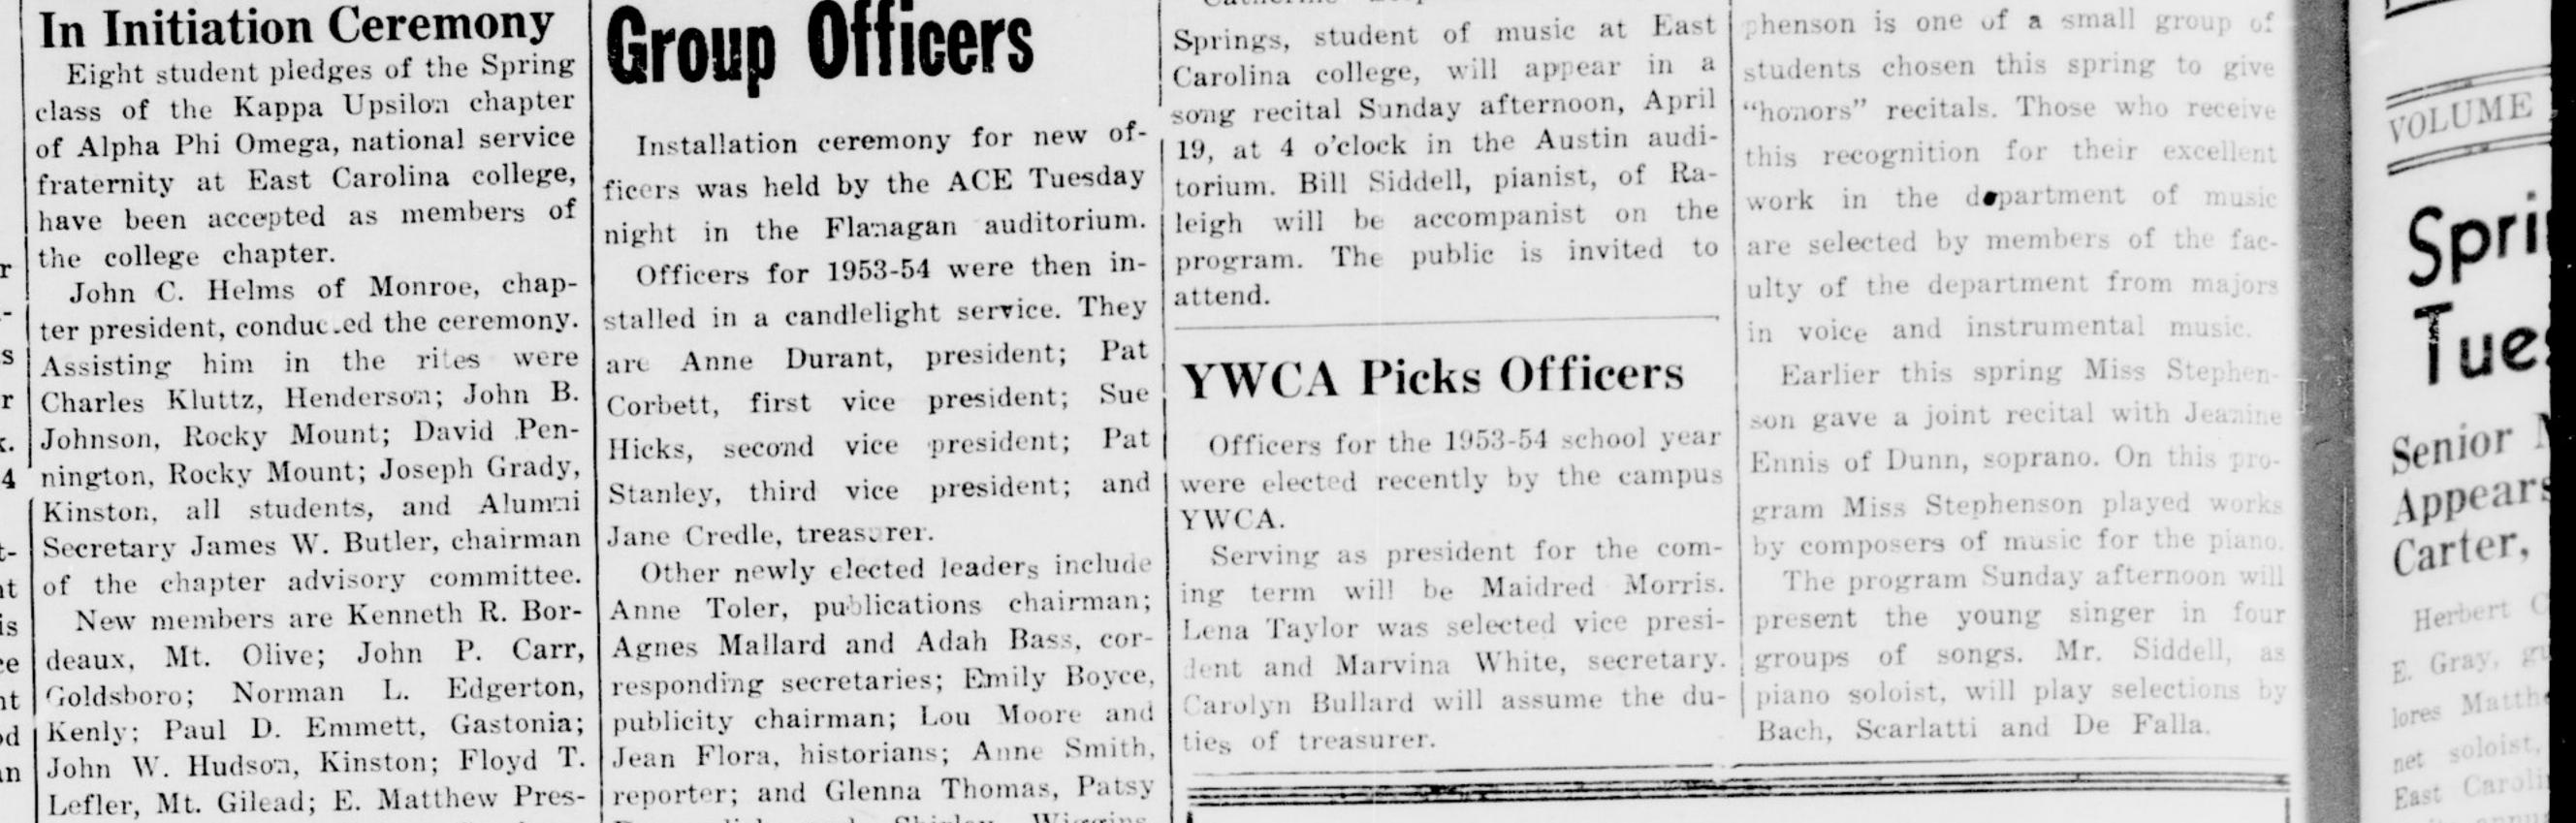

Catherine Stephenson of Willow | A senior at the college, Miss Ste-Springs, student of music at East phenson is one of a small group of Carolina college, will appear in a students chosen this spring to give song recital Sunday afternoon, April "honors" recitals. Those who receive Installation ceremony for new of-19, at 4 o'clock in the Austin audificers was held by the ACE Tuesday torium. Bill Siddell, pianist, of Ranight in the Flamagan auditorium. leigh will be accompanist on the work in the department of music John C. Helms of Monroe, chap- Officers for 1953-54 were then in- program. The public is invited to are selected by members of the fac-During his visit on the campus held at the Methodist Student center Charles Kluttz, Henderson; John B. Corbett, first vice president; Sue YWCA Picks Officers Officers for the 1953-54 school year Hicks, second vice president; Pat

Serving as president for the com- by composers of music for the piano. ing term will be Maidred Morris. The program Sunday afternoon will Lena Taylor was selected vice presi- present the young singer in four dent and Marvina White, secretary. groups of songs. Mr. Siddell, as Carolyn Bullard will assume the du- | piano soloist, will play selections by

LUNCHES and SNACKS

as well as Dwight Garrett, the representative.	Waylon Upchurch, president for this past year, then gave the gavel,	East Fifth and Cotanche Streets
Better Shoes Reasonably Priced AT JACKSON'S SHOE STORE 517 Dickinson Avenue	which was tied with white and green, Wesley foundation colors, to the in- coming president, Mattie Huber. Members of the Wesley Foundation council for 1953-54 are: president, Mattie Huber; vice president, Willa Dean Lindsay; secretary, Lou Kir- ven; and treasurer, Charlie Bedford.	"The House of Name Brands"	At Prices To Meet Your Budget Your Headquarters For Bulova Watches Also HAMILTON BENRUS
For Drug Needs, Cosmetics and Fountain Goods Visit	College Contributes To Red Cross Drive	"Your College Shop" 201 E. Fifth Street Greenville, N. C.	ELGIN Scientifically Trained Mechanics To Serve You STAUFFER'S JEWELERS
Proctor Hotel Building Open 8 A. M 10 P. M. — Sunday 8:30 A. M 10:30 A. M.,	East Carolina college students and faculty members contributed $563.70 in the recently completed 1953 Red Cross drive in Pitt county. Faculty members at the college gave $363.70 as their contribution to		407 Evans Street Phone 2452
4 P. M 10 P. M.	 the drive. Students contributed $200. Dean Leo W. Jenkins of East Carolina headed the fund-raising campaign for Pitt county. On the campus faculty members assisted as solicitors in classroom buildings at
FOOT LONG HOTDOGS 25c	the college.		et
CHICKEN AND SHRIMP IN-THE-BOX	 all other Western states. Vacancies in beautiful towns and cities. Especially need Grade Teachers, English, Spanish, Math, Music, Commerce, Girls Phys. ed., Home Ec. Salaries $3500-$7000. Teachers Specialists Bureau, Boulder, Colorado 	"Just as I've told you on our Dragn shows, I smoke two packs Chesterfields every day mu milder Chesterfield is best for ma	ch har har har har har har har har har ha

