Union Holds Carnival At Mardi Gras Time

The College Union Carnival, the biggest event of the year sponsored by the CU, is scheduled to last from 6:30 until 10:00 on the night of February 26. Usually held in the Spring Quarter, the Carnival has been changed to coincide with the celebration of Mardi Gras.

The Carnival is open to all clubs and organizations connected with the college. The CU has space for booths from 25 of these organizations and always has to refuse entrance to many clubs. For those participating, the Carnival offers an opportunity for making money. All clubs whose booths will offer a prize must pay a three-dollar entry fee. Clubs which merely sell things, such as lemonade, do not have to pay the entry fee. All the money made by the clubs is their profit for their own use. This entry used in past years which seemed to be especially enjoyed by students have been the pie-throwing contests, bingo stalls, and, for the boys, ring-the-girl's-leg.

The CU takes the money from the entry fees and buys prizes. Each club which pays an entry fee will give out tickets to the students who participate in the games. These tickets are to be saved and turned in at a designated time and place in the CU, the person with the highest number of tickets having first choice of the prizes, and so on until all the prizes are taken. All students are urged to collect and to turn in these tickets since, in the past, there have always been more prizes bought than claimed.

The CU itself does not enter a booth in the Carnival; however, it will have an information booth, a change booth, a door prize, and a costume contest. Sponsors of the Carnival urge everyone to observe the Mardi Gras theme and wear a costume. Aside from the prize given to the best adult costume, there will be a prize awarded for the best costume worn by a child of a faculty member.

The Carnival is sponsored by the Special Projects Committee of the CU. The chairman of the committee is Donna Sumner. Adviser to the committee is Mrs. Scarlett Miller, Assistant Director of the CU.

Business School Ranks Second For Degrees

The School of Business ranks second in the United States in the number of baccalaureate degrees in business education awarded by institutions in this country, according to a recent report issued by the Division of Vocational Education, U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

EC in this period granted 97 baccalaureate degrees, and in the entire nation was second only to Eastern Illinois University, which awarded 164.

The three next largest institutions in number of degrees in business education granted are, according to the report, Colorado State College with 95, Ball State Teachers College in Indiana with 84 State College in Whitewater, Wisconsin, with 80.

Now in its twenty-seventh year, the program of business and business education has had a rapid growth both in services to education and in number of students enrolled. Dean E. R. Browning of the present School of Business has directed the program since its beginning in 1936.

Students Take Junior English Exam January 21

The Junior English Exam will be held on Monday, January 21, at 8:30. All students with 96 quarter hours or more who have not taken the exam are required to take it. Students will report as follows for the exam:

Surnames beginning A-H: Library Auditorium; I-P: Flanagan Auditorium; R-Z: Rawl Auditorium.

Students who have a class conflict on Monday will be allowed to take the exam on Wednesday, January 23, at 5 p.m. in the Library Auditorium.

Each student must bring his I.D. number to identify his paper. Students should also bring fountain-pen and ink and dictionaries to the exam. Students will be allowed to use their dictionaries. The theme to be written on the exam will consist of 350-400 words. It will be written in formal essay style. The topic should be developed in a logical, meaningful fashion, free from common errors in spelling, punctuation, and grammar.

Each EC student must take this exam the first quarter that he is enrolled as a Junior (96-143 q.h. inclusive). After the test, the names of all students who have 96 quarter hours or more will be compared to the names of those who have taken this test. Those students who have failed to take the test during 1961-1963 will be stopped from classes.

New Editor

Junius D. Grimes III has been appointed editor of the EAST CAROLINIAN for the winter and spring quarters. Grimes, a senior majoring in English and minoring in social studies, led THE REBEL for 1961-1962 to an All-American Honor Rating.

Thigpen, Griffin Join School Of Nursing

Two new staff members who have just joined the School of Nursing are Dr. Lorna W. Thigpen, professor, and Mrs. Mary Ruffin Robertson Griffin, instructor. Dean Eva Warren has announced. Both are teaching courses in maternal and child care.

Dr. Thigpen is a graduate of Woman's College, University of North Carolina; holds the Ph. D. degree from the University of Pittsburg; has done post-doctoral work at Swiss Federal College in Zurich, Switzerland; holds a diploma in nursing from Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston; and in 1962 completed work for the master's degree in nursing at Emory University.

She has taught at Jefferson-Hillman Hospital School of Nursing, Birmingham, Ala. and Baptist Memorial School of Nursing, Memphis, Tenn. In addition, she was a member of the Army Nurse Corps stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss., in 1944-1947, and has been connected with the Storrs Conn., Agricultural Experiment Station; the Veteran's Administration Hospital, Gulf Port, Miss.; and State Teachers College, River Falls, Wisconsin.

Dr. Thigpen is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and is listed in "Who's Who of American Women." She has contributed papers of scientific interest to professional journals in this country and abroad.

Mrs. Griffin is a graduate of George Peabody College, where she was granted the B. S. degree in public health nursing. She completed requirements for becoming a registered nurse at the School of Nursing of Roanoke Rapids Hospital.

She was an active community worker and served on the board of the local hospital in Halifax County and also was connected with the Area Research Center there.

NEW POLICIES

Rather than an editorial as such, some statement of policy should be proper for this first edition of the East Carolinian under new management. Since statements of policy invariably go rigid with pomposity anyway, this once may I dispense with the editorial we.

My feeling is that the quality of any publication reflects not so much the ability of the staff as it does their energy and dedication. I believe the incumbent staff has the necessary energy and dedication, but this newspaper is tremendously understaffed. Surely on a campus the size of ours there must be more than half a dozen students interested in newspaper work. I am certain that there are more than half a dozen intelligent and capable students here, but they seem unduly recalcitrant about coming forward. They apparently would rather sit back and snipe with an occasional letter to the editor or aside comment about the newspaper's lack of quality than to donate their time and ability towards improvement. This attitude is difficult to understand since, as well as the adequate compensation of a job well done, there is always the future possibility of a by-line and eventual monetary recompense. Consequently, one policy will be to encourage contributions to the East Carolinian, whether in the form of writing, proof reading, typing, or just calling to tell us what's happening.

Another feature we hope to develop is a bulletin board under the editorial. It will contain dates and times of any events occurring in Greenville that might be of interest to college students. It will be a great boon to us if anyone knowing such items will notify the East Carolinian.

Perhaps I should discuss editorial policy. I come to the East Carolinian with no axe to grind. I do not despise the administration. I do not despise the students. I do not think the entire student senate dishonest. I do not consider what I say the last word on anything. I welcome suggestions, and am scared silly at the prospect of baring my editorial soul to readers twice a week.

Nor do I come here with many preconceived ideas concerning what constitutes proper journalism for the college newspaper. For several years I have maintained that the campus literary magazine should not pander the students. However, I feel that the newspaper should please the students as long as it can do so within the realm of good taste. Toward this end we will endeavor.

PEN YOUR LAWMAKER

By JIM WILLIS

It has not been so very long since the bond issue was defeated and men students from College Hill Drive staged what was later called "a peaceful demonstration" in front of President Jenkins' house. The fact of the matter was that those guys were disappointed; they felt defeat and they wanted to do something, but as it was, there was nothing that they could do. With the defeat went our hopes for a new classroom building, an addition to the library, and at the time, it seemed as if our hopes for a stadium were gone as well. With the help of Liggett and Myers the college has, with work, managed to procure the stadium. As far as a new classroom building and library addition are concerned, however, we go lacking and needing.

The bitter taste of disappointment and defeat has left now; that night of yelling and running up and down Fifth Street is something of the past. Our need for a classroom building is not of the past, however. We are constantly reminded of it every time we climb the wooden steps in that old and sentimental but dangerous and inadequate building. Nor is our need for a larger library a thing of the past, for we feel the need every time we need a book or a place to do research. The night of the defeat we wanted to do something, but at the time, we were helpless.

We are not so helpless now. The North Carolina General Assembly meets next month in Raleigh. Now is the time to express the disappointment which we felt last year. Now is the time to let those men in Raleigh who determine our financial appropriations know that we at East Carolina College need the things that we lost last year. They are the ones who will determine the budget for the bi-annium 1963-1964 for East Carolina. And it is we, the student body of East Carolina College, who can have the most influence on that law-making body. As influential and as respected as President Jenkins is, he does not and cannot have the influence and persuasiveness that we as a student body can have. For after all, it is not President Jenkins that needs those things. He does not attend classes and he does not make the use of the library which the student body does. The lawmakers of this state are aware of this. They know that it is the students who are slighted in their struggle for education when needed facilities go lacking. There is nothing that can be more influential or effective than a plea from those who are most concerned. All of the pleas President Jenkins makes before the budget committee cannot even begin to compare with the effect which letters, enough letters, to the lawmakers from the students of East Carolina can have in getting us the things we need.

MILITARY

Kennedy Raps Western Europe

President Kennedy, in several recent statements, has told the American people that we intend to get tough with foreign countries and cease this policy of bending over backward to please them. To many people, this may sound like a hot-headed young President shooting off at the mouth. Perhaps it is, but it is high time for the U. S. to quit supporting most of the free world.

The proposed military budget for 1963 is a whopping $56 billion, down $25 billion from the war peak and up $4 billion from last year. Last year's military budget cost the U. S. approximately $277 per person; which is more than 11% of the total U. S. income and nearly 5 1/2 times the spending done by our allies.

Aside from the money that is "contributed" by U. S. taxpayers, American youths, weapons, and leadership are supporting a recently war-torn Western Europe which is now moving ahead faster than our own country. Not only that, European colonial empires which have been turned loose look to the charitable U. S. for support.

Granted, the United States needs an army for defense (and offense); the number of men we have in service is a precious one created by a 24 month draft, which, in peace time, contributes to nothing much except a shameful waste of talent. The U. S. presently has 2,700,000 men in arms, or 5.4% of our nation's valuable manpower; 1,000,000 of whom serve out of the U. S. Britain, which has no draft, has only 415,000 men in service, or 2.5% of their total manpower. The U. S. of men contributed by the U. S. to the allied defense seems even more absurd when one takes into consideration that our twelve allies in Western Europe (North Atlantic Treaty countries) combine to contribute 2.9 billion men for defense, only .2 billion more than the U. S. contributes alone.

What it all boils down to is that the U. S. has either been too benevolent or has been just taken advantage of—perhaps both. Europe has to the U. S. for men, money, machines and recently, Skybolts. The only things they are getting are the Skybolts. When we try to help many of them say we are going about it wrong. Until Europe can pull its own weight, cease the constant quibbling about American methods, they are not worthy of American help.

Singapore

(OPR) — Singapore, the Provisional Council of National Unions of Students in Singapore has informed National Unions of Students that the Government of the Federation of Malaya in pursuance of the arbitrary powers vested in it under the Internal Security Act 1960 has made an order entitled Education Institutions Visits (Order 1962). This Order restricts the free movement of students from Singapore, consisting of a majority of citizens of the Federation of Malaya. The Order specifically forbids students from Singapore, studying in secondary school and institutions of higher learning, including the two universities and the polytechnic, to enter or travel within the Federation of Malaya as a group or as a member of a group of five or more than five persons for the purpose of affecting some common object within the Federation of Malaya, except with written permission from the Minister of Internal Security of the Federation of Malaya.

Students of Singapore have traditionally considered themselves as Malaysians whether they are citizens of the Federation of Malaya or Singapore, and consider it their right to have free access to the mainland of Malaya. This Order is a further attempt on the part of the Federation Government to isolate Singapore because of its fear that students of Singapore are a security risk. The National Union in Singapore has categorically stated that they consider such a situation an insult; Singapore students have always manifested their actions, shown their oneness with the people of Singapore and Malaya of whom they are an integral part. To attribute subversive intent to them and to regard them as security risks is to display a complete lack of ability to comprehend the political orientation that prevails among Singapore students.

Buc Beauty

Tomye Suggs, a brown-eyed brunette who transferred here in 1961 from Flora Macdonald, participates in such activities as sports, knitting, art, and beauty contests. It is easy to see why she excels in the beauty contests. She was elected as our 1962 Homecoming Queen and was also honored as the 1962 Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl.

Alexander Describes Communism In World

A student of Communism for the past 25 years, Dr. Michael J. Alexander of the School of Business, speaking to an audience gathered in Flanagan Auditorium, Tuesday, January 8, said "The people behind the Iron Curtain did not choose Communism as a way of life . . . quite the contrary. It was forced upon them by the aggressions of the U.S.S.R. and the inaction of the West."

Born in Bulgaria of Greek parentage, Dr. Alexander is an American citizen. His first-hand experience and a deep understanding of the problems and dangers involved in international Communism are clearly presented in his public speaking.

"On the basis of figures released by some government organizations, it would seem that the number of American Communist party members does not exceed the 20,000 figure," the speaker stated. "This comparatively small number, however, is no indication of the destructiveness that they can inflict upon our society."

Dr. Alexander said "Mr. Krushchev said that he was going to bury us, and he almost did it from Cuba. Fortunately, we were saved in the last moment by the action of President Kennedy."

"Communism has been at war with us and the free world since 1917," Dr. Alexander continued. "Whether we like it or not, the real beneficiaries of the Second World War are the Soviets. . ."

In concluding, Dr. Alexander predicted and said "that we must be vigilant and prepared. We must plan ahead for more trouble to come. They made their 'one step backward' (Cuba); now we can expect a move for the 'two steps forward'. We should never let them accomplish those 'two steps forward' . . ."

Joining the staff in the fall of 1962, Dr. Alexander has worked as a researcher for the Free Europe Committee in New York and has published in English two pamphlets and co-authored the chapter on agriculture for the book, Bulgaria. These publications as well as many others were concerned with the impact and the destruction which Communism brought

Cochran, Aldridge Join National College Board

EC will be represented this year on Mademoiselle's national College Board by Mary Carole Cochran, a Sophomore; and Carol Elaine Aldridge, a Junior.

The annual College Board Competition is designed for women students with talent in art, writing, fashion, merchandising, promotion, or advertising. Board members were selected on the basis of entries that showed their interest and ability in one of these fields.

As College Board members, they will report news from their colleges to Mademoiselle. They are eligible to compete for the twenty Guest Editorships that will be awarded by the magazine in May. To win one of the top twenty prizes, they must submit a second entry to show their specific aptitudes for magazine work.

The twenty College Board members who win Guest Editorships will be brought to New York City for the month of June to help edit, write, and illustrate Mademoiselle's 1963 August college issue. They will share offices with the magazine's editors, advise the staff on campus trends, interview well-known artists and writers, and represent the magazine on visits to publishing houses, stores, and advertising agencies.

Reid Speaks To Local YDC About Politics

Dave Reid, the newly installed State President of the Young Democrats Club, spoke to local YDC members Tuesday night in the Library Auditorium. He spoke on the importance of belonging to a political organization and supporting the organization.

Lenwood Simpson the local YDC President, pointed out the highlights of President Kennedy's State of the Union message to Congress.

Plans are being made for a College Federation Rally to be held at the Hotel Robert E. Lee in Winston-Salem, February 15-16. This rally will be sponsored by the Wake Forest College YDC.

The next local YDC meeting will be held February 5 in the Library Auditorium.

Alumni Assn. Launches Dollars For Development

Dollars for Development, a new program of annual giving by graduates of EC, was launched this week by the college Alumni Association.

A "roll call" of alumni everywhere has just been announced and will extend throughout 1963. With a dollar per graduate requested as a response, a total of approximately $13,000 has been set as the goal for the first year of annual giving.

Directed by Janice G. Hardison, Director of Foundations an Alumni Affairs, the Dollars for Development campaign has the purpose of generating support by Alumni of the EC Development Fund, which she organized this year to secure resources for meeting urgent educational needs on the campus.

The Alumni Association is cooperating with the college Committee on Foundations and Development in the joint undertaking of establishing the Development Fund.

The "dollars" program opened this week when the Alumni Office of the college began mailing to graduates in District 7, including Beaufort and Pitt Counties, and District 13, out of state, a letter soliciting a contribution of $1.00 or more from each person.

The drive will be conducted by mail in each of the eleven other districts of the association during the month of 1963. A chairman for each district will arrange personal contacts with graduates during a follow-up month of solicitation.

E. Milton Foley heads the kick-off campaign in District 7, and Gordon Poindexter, Jr., in District 13.

Miss Hardison answered the question, "Why a dollar?" by saying "The greatest potential support for EC comes from numerous small donors." The Development Fund, she said, "offers every interested person a chance to make a tangible contribution to the growth of the college."

The fund will be used both for specific projects and for developmental costs as they arise. Money will be received and disbursed through a special account in the Business Office of the college under the administration of Vice President and Business Manager F. D. Duncan. The fund is set up as a division of the EC Educational Foundation, incorporated in 1947. Decisions on uses of money not specifically restricted by the donor will be made by a board of administrators to be named in the near future.

The Dollars for Development campaign has the full support of Fodie Hodges, President of the Alumni Association, and of other key officers and members of the organization.

BSU Chooses Patrick Student For January

George Patrick, Jr., President of the Baptist Student Union, has been chosen by members of the organization as Baptist Student for the Month of January. The selection indicates his outstanding service as a member of the BSU.

A senior, Patrick is majoring in psychology and minoring in music. As a member of the BSU, he served as co-chairman of the Enrollment Committee before his election to the presidency. Last year he was a member of the Men's Glee Club and he now acts as chaplain of Phi Kappa Tau.

In addition to his academic and extra-curricular activities, Patrick now holds the position of student manager of the EC Soda Shop.

Travel-Study Tour Includes New England, East Canada

New England and Eastern Canada are included in a summer travel-study tour now being arranged by the Department of Geography and the Division of Extension.

Extending from June 17 through July 12, the trip, according to plans, will take a group of thirty students through the two areas for visits to places of interest for their industry, scenic beauty, agricultural development, historical and cultural backgrounds, and geographical conditions and problems.

Dr. H. Daniel Stillwell, who joined our faculty last fall, will direct the tour. He holds a graduate degree in forestry from Duke University and the doctorate in geography from Michigan State University. Here he teaches courses in conservation and physical geography.

The itinerary, looping the two areas covered by the tour, includes New York City; Boston, Massachusetts; Bar Harbor, Maine; Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, and Toronto in Canada; Niagara Falls from the Canadian side; Lancaster County, Pa., and many other stops of educational interest along the route. The schedule also allows time-out for recreation and sight-seeing.

SPORTS REVIEW

By LLOYD "STACK" LANE

The new substitution rules for Intercollegiate football will not bring back the two-platoon system as many had figured it might after first reading the newrule proposed by National Collegiate Athletic Associations rule committee. The new rule states:

1. Unlimited substitution may be made by either team on all time outs with the exception of fourth downs and the down immediately after the ball changes hands.
2. On fourth down or the first down immediately after the ball changes hands, two players may be wild-carded into the game.

Last year's rule put a limit on the number of times that a player could enter a game, but allowed unlimited wild-card substitutions.

Last year there were a few coaches that managed to get away with something akin to the two-platoon system, for example the three team system employed by Paul Dietzel at Army has been adopted by other coaches throughout the country. These coaches might enjoy such freedom of substitution since they have practically been using it for the past three seasons. It seems as though no matter how many rules this committee makes, there is always some coach coming up with a new legitimate use for the ruling.

EC Beats Oglethorpe On West Goal

A last second jump shot by Lacy West gave the Pirates a 34-32 victory over Oglethorpe College in Atlanta, Ga., last Tuesday night. The victory gives the Pirates an 8-5 record for the season.

High man for both teams was Lacy West with 14. Bill Brogden ended up second with 10. Bob Nance's 9 points was top for the home team.

EC dominated the backboards as Bill Otte grabbed off nine for the Bucs. The Bucs outrebounded Oglethorpe 31-30. Neither team was consistent from the floor. EC hit 14 of 37 while Oglethorpe was 14-35. The game was won at the foul line as the Bucs managed six out of nine compared to four out of eight for the losers.

At the end of the first half, the Pirates led 20-19. Scoring was held to almost an absolute minimum as both teams scored a total 27 — 14 by Oglethorpe in the second half.

Oglethorpe dominated the early minutes of the second half as they jumped into a three point lead. Each time the Bucs would rally, Oglethorpe would push back into a three point lead. The Pirates finally managed to break the scoring ice as Bill Brogden hit two field goals to narrow the score to 32-31 with 5:30 left. Gerald Parker then set the stage for the Pirate win as he sank a foul shot to tie the game at 32-32 with four minutes remaining.

With the ball in their possession, Oglethorpe froze the ball while waiting for a good shot. The good shot turned out to be an easy lay-up which was missed. The Bucs started to slow things down with the ball in their possession to wait for their chance. It came with three seconds remaining as West hit a jumper from the corner for the victory.

CU Contest To Supply Participants For Intercollegiate Table Tennis Tourney

Don Kennedy and Ken Harris, Co-Chairmen of the games committee, announce that the EC Union is making plans to send participants to defend the good work of last year's tables players to the Intercollegiate Table Tennis Tournament, which is sponsored by the Association of College Unions. The regional play-offs will be held at Emory University, Decatur, Georgia, on February 16, 1963. The Union is a member of Region IV of the Association of College Unions, which includes the southeast Atlantic states, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and West Virginia, Tennessee and Alabama.

The local tournament to determine ECC's singles and doubles representatives will be played on Monday, January 21, for the singles, and Wednesday, January 23, for the doubles. All male students are eligible for playing in the local tournament. EC carried off several of the honors of last year's regional play-off with Bowie Martin and Fleetwood Lilley defeating Billy Keim and Dave Parsons of Duke University for the doubles championship. EC's Nelson Tugwell was runner-up in men's singles being defeated only by Billy Keim, of Duke.

"Details are posted on the door leading to the Table Tennis Room," say chairmen Kennedy and Harris.

Little Devils Triumph Over Baby Bucs 95-59

The Baby Pirates found the Duke freshman team a devil of a problem as they came out on the short end of a 95-59 score in Durham last Saturday.

Duke's frosh took control of the game in the early minutes and never relinquished control until the final horn. The Blue Imps held a 49-23 halftime lead. They increased this lead to 40 points with about seven minutes to go in the game. The Pirates could never regain any semblance of a lead as the Baby Devils rolled up their seventh

Pirates Down Erskine 70-62; West And Brogden Pace Buc

Erskine saw its 20-game win streak end at the hands of the Pirates 70-62 Monday night at Due West, S. C. The victory gave the Pirates a 7-4 record for season play.

The EC quintet had four starters in double figures for the evening. Lacy West led the Buc scoring with 20. Bill Brogden threw in what proved to be a crucial 15. Gerald Parker and Bill Otte had 13 apiece.

High man of the game was Bill Walters, Erskine center. Walters hit seven field goals and ten of eleven foul shots for 24. The only other member of the Flying Feet to hit in the double figure category was Don Hancock with 14.

PIRATES TAKE EARLY LEAD
The Pirates took advantage of three jump shots from West and one field goal apiece from Richie Williams, Brogden and Otte to push into an early 12-1 lead.

Erskine was not willing to let the Pirates turn the game into a run-away contest. They slowly started shooting the lead down until the Pirate margin was out to one basket. Walters proved to be the thorn in the Bucs side as he accounted for 10 of his 24 points in the last minutes of the first half.

Otte gave the Pirates a little breathing room as he sunk two field goals in the final minute to give EC a 34-31 edge at the end of the initial half.

The Pirates came back from the dressing room and found a fired-up Erskine team. Three minutes later, Waters threw in two charity tosses to tie the game.

The lead see-sawed back and forth for the next ten minutes until the Flying Feet managed to grab their biggest lead of the evening 50-49 on an underneath basket by Bouldry.

EC proved that this lead was to be a passing thing as the Bucs stormed back to knot the score at 54-54 on an inside shot by Parker.

Neither team could maintain more than a short two point lead until the Pirates broke a 60-60 tie with a little over three minutes remaining. West hit a lay-up and Williams popped in three goals from the floor to give the Bucs the 70-62 victory.

Intramural Dept. Issues Ruling On Basketball Game

Because crowds have been attending the Intramural Basketball games, the Intramural Director's Office has issued a set of rules to cut confusion on the courts to a minimum.

"All spectators and players whose team is not playing at the time are asked to remain off the floor and must sit in the balcony until their posted game time arrives." This ruling has been passed by Coach Wendell Carr and Gordon

Patrick, the heads of the Intramural Department. The Intramural Department would like all managers to contact the Bulletin Boards for changes and other notices pertaining to their teams. All games will be played one hour later than posted time on varsity practice. There are some openings for bowling and contact Gordon Patrick, Intramural Director in the gym.
