Lieutenant Governor Scott Visits Jenkins; Gives Views

By BOB CAMPBELL

Lieutenant Governor Scott came a bit later than expected to the home of Dr. Jenkins Sunday evening. He explained that he had been over to the girls dorms trying to look up someone from back home, but she was out.

It was a warm afternoon, and after changing into his dinner clothes, Mr. Scott stepped out onto the front patio, laid down his brief case and lit a cigarette.

Interviewer: First, Mr. Scott, do you have a particular message for the students of East Carolina College?

Mr. Scott thought for a moment, drew from the cigarette and smiled. "This school never ceases to amaze me in its growth." He added, "Before I left home several of my neighbors phoned me and asked if I'd stop in to see some of their people while I was down here. Everyone seems to be coming to EC."

Interviewer: Mr. Scott can you tell us your future political plans? Are you planning to run for governor?

Mr. Scott answered, "I really can't say honestly, many people ask me that question." He continued, "It's like a fellow planning a fishing trip or vacation. He gets all of his gear together, makes his plans, but then checks the weather before he leaves."

Dr. Jenkins, and the rest of the party were waiting at the far end of the walkway motioning to Mr. Scott that it was time to go.

Picking up his brief case, Mr. Scott said, "I'm going to try to do the best I can as Lieutenant Governor, then I'm going to check the weather before I make a decision along those lines."

Strolling along and chatting, his opinion of the Speaker Ban Law was asked. Mr. Scott replied, "It serves no useful purpose; its like being against sin." He related the story of a Communist who spoke at Wake Forest. The students really tore him apart with objective questions. The speaker had to leave."

Mr. Scott was then asked about the east-west highway which had been proposed. He had no comment, not knowing of any plans for such a highway. But he did comment on the extension work being done on North Carolina Highways 94 and 98.

By this time the party had arrived at the cafeteria.

Interviewer: Its been a great pleasure talking with you, sir, I'm afraid that I have taken up too much of your time. Mr. Scott replied, "Oh, that's quite alright, I enjoyed it. I wouldn't have been late if I had known that you wanted to talk to me."

He then entered the cafeteria to give his address at the Senior Banquet.

"MR. DYNAMITE"

'Moby Dick-Rehearsed' Hosts Star Blackmer

The EC student theater production of "Moby Dick — Rehearsed" will host North Carolina-born Sidney Blackmer, long leading Broadway star. Mr. Blackmer is scheduled to attend Thursday night's performance.

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in McAnnis Auditorium he will deliver a lecture. It is free and open to all interested persons.

Blackmer, a native of Salisbury, became a Broadway star in 1919 when he followed Henry Hull as Napoleon Gibbs in "39 East." That was at the Broadhurst Theater.

After that, his Broadway career spanned the years until 1959 when he played Doc Delaney in "Come Back, Little Sheba" with Shirley Booth at the Booth Theater. During these 40 years he shared billing with Helen Hayes, Elsie Ferguson, Claire Luce and many more stars.

In 1950, Blackmer received the Donaldson Award for the best actor of 1949-50 and the Antoinette Perry Award for the most distinguished performance of 1949-50.

Educated at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, he made his professional stage debut in early 1917 under the management of Winthrop Amos at the Little Theater in New York. He later joined a touring Shakespearean company and then appeared briefly on Broadway before leaving to serve until 1919 as an artillery lieutenant in World War I.

In addition to his Broadway career, Blackmer has starred for many stock theater companies throughout the nation. He is now director, star and producer of the Hinsdale Summer Theatre at Hinsdale, Ill.

Someone Throws Live Rat Through Window Of Umstead

Around the bewitching hour of 12 o'clock Saturday night, an unknown person or persons threw a live rat through the canteen window of Umstead Dormitory.

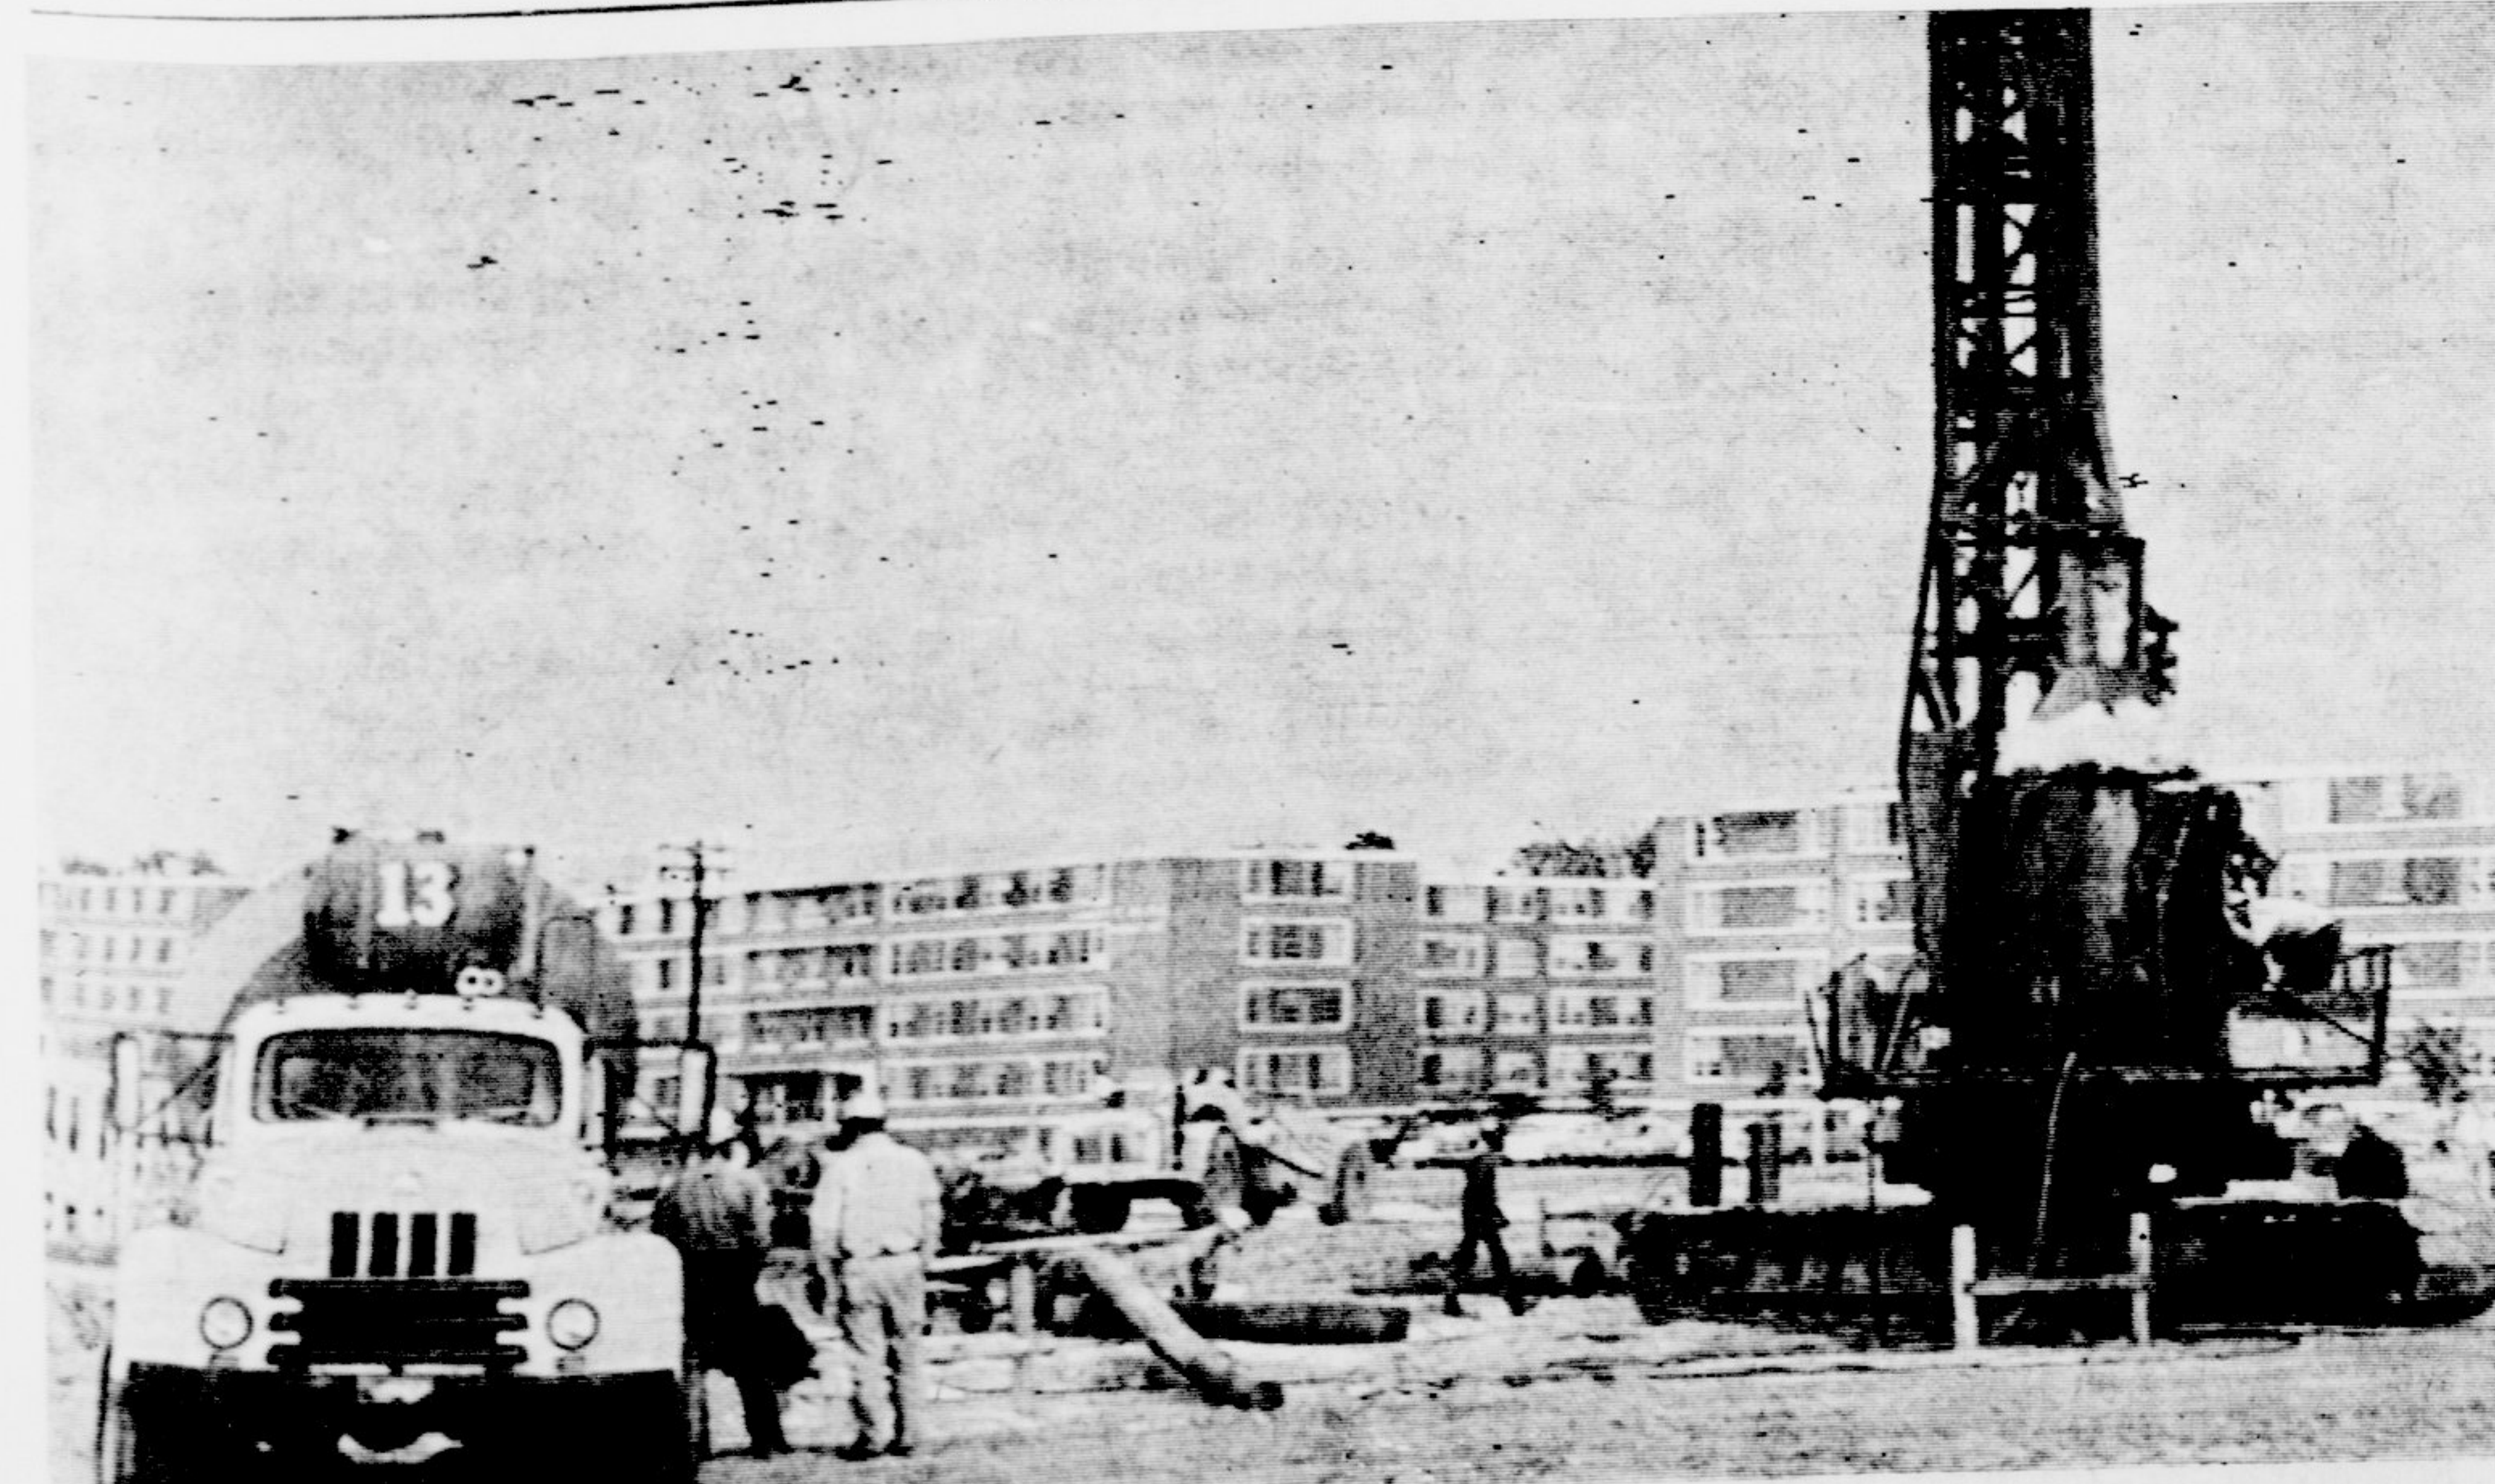

Coed's enjoying a leisurely mid-night snack were frightened out of their appetites when a screen from a first floor window was opened and admitted to the premises some form of lower animal life—a rat.

Feminine screams and yells attracted the attention of the dormitory counselor who called the campus police. The police captured the rat and, according to the dorm counselor, performed "the last rites."

"I'm glad I didn't find it (the rat)," exclaimed the housemother. "I would have been climbing the wall like the girls."

The police believed that the unfortunate rodent came from the Biology Department.

Construction begins on the new men's dormitory which will be situated in the middle of College Hill Drive. When completed, this new dorm will have a 504 student capacity and will be divided into eight-man suites.

Mr. 'Please-Please' Comes To Greenville

James Brown, "Mr. Dynamite," will perform in concert on May 11, 7:00 p.m. at the Gold Leaf Warehouse, Greenville.

James Brown was born and raised in and around Macon, Georgia, but calls Augusta, Georgia, home. He started his career with a gospel-spiritual group as have many of our top singers of today, and then progressed into Rhythm and Blues and the Popular fields.

He has a new and exciting sound—a style that is his and his alone—and with his first big hit of several years ago "Please-Please-Please" he followed with one of the longest unbroken string of hit records in history. A few are "Try Me," "Bewildered," "Lost Some one," "Shout & Shimmy," "Night Train," "Out of Sight," "Caledonia," "Oh, Baby Don't you Weep," "Good, Good, Lovin'," all of which are vocals.

James travels with his own full band and complete show all over the North American Continent. Once he wanted to don instrument . . . "Night Train" which is still one of the best selling instrumental records in the country.

James Brown has several new release records. They are "Prisoner of Love" and "These Foolish Things." Tickets are on sale at various establishments in Greenville. Advance tickets are $2.50, and at the door $3.00.

This program has been approved for E. C. Coeds.

School Gives Notice Of Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Of Students

Outstanding scholastic achievement of 863 EC students for Winter Quarter were announced last week.

Of the 863 honor students, 733 are North Carolinians and 130 from outside the state. The latter group represents 16 states and the District of Columbia.

The "All A's" List totaled 110 men and women. Those students making the Dean's List numbered 170, while the honor roll consisted of 583 undergraduates.

The "All A's" List is composed of students making at least A on all subjects taken. At least 2 and one half quality points per credit hour taken is the prerequisite for the Dean's List.

The honor roll is composed of students making at least 2 quality points per credit hour on all work taken with no grade below C.

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven." For those who wrote the Bible, this phrase in Ecclesiastes might have referred to a phase in man's life other than work, but the philosophy behind it is still as relevant today as it was thousands of years ago.

Now is the season to prepare yourself for a job — whether you are a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior; single, engaged or married. Since the days of the stay-at-home-spinet-playing-woman seem gone forever, the high on the list of what to do after college seems to be a job with scope, interest and challenge for the married and unmarried woman. Everybody wants to work today!

Wanting to work, however, does not always mean that there is a job for every desire. For the liberal arts graduate, especially, the right job can become an acute problem. Although a liberal education does equip one to think, it doesn't necessarily give one the tools that are needed for working in the business world.

Even a magna cum laude, leading in all scholastic honors may find it some what difficult to find a job if she doesn't have that very small but special skill that is required. We are not plugging that colleges become trade or vocational schools. Far from it. What we do suggest, however, is that along with the broadening of one's intellectual horizons, one should also consider the possibility of merging one's major into a saleable commodity for the job market.

To be a successful career hunter, we have observed, requires an ability to understand both one's inner needs and what the world may have to offer. "Know thyself" in Socrates' famous words is an imperative. To be aware of the job market is another. If one is equipped with the knowledge of what kind of firms are interested in college grads, which majors are sought after and by whom, which jobs are stepping stones and which jobs are blind alleys, one can be assured of greater job success.

Moderation

By STEVE THOMPSON

Fits of Moderation? CORE is demanding the immediate ouster of New York City Police Chief, Michael Murphy because he invited a conservative speaker, William F. Buckley, to address a Catholic policeman's breakfast on April 4th. The NAACP is calling for a ban on D. W. Griffith's silent film classic, "Birth of a Nation" (now being rerun) because they don't like it. James Foreman of SNCC commenting in relation to the voting rights action on Capitol Hill: "If those crooks in the White House, those crooks in the Senate, those crooks in the House don't do something, we're going up there to Washington, and we're going to stop traffic; we're going to stop every car, every cab, every truck; we're going to show them the biggest piece of civil disobedience the world has ever seen."

One of the chief co-ordinators of last summer's civil rights activity in Mississippi, Reginald Robinson, recently turned up as an American representative to the Communist World Youth Conference in Moscow. Now we don't want to add one and one together or jump to any conclusions, but . . .

Reporter's mouths dropped open when Harry Truman voiced his opinion of Martin Luther King two weeks ago. The former President called him a "troublemaker" and a "rabble rouser" who has hurt the civil right cause "because he hasn't got any sense." When reminded that King had been awarded the Nobel Prize, Truman retorted, "I didn't give it to him."

A pet project of several ADA congressmen received a setback earlier this week when the Justice Department informed them that any attempt by Congress to bar the flying of the Confederate flag over public buildings would be unconstitutional. But why give up? Maybe they can get an Interstate Commerce Commission ruling that will prohibit the bulk shipment of frozen hushpuppies across the Mason-Dixon line, or perhaps they can have the Federal Communications Commission examine the possibility of slapping a fifty dollar fine on Dizzy Dean everytime he whistles "Dixie" on the Saturday Game of The Week.

Rep. John Lindsay (R-N.Y.) recently charged that 78 per cent of the whites in Newton County, Arkansas are registered to vote while not a single Negro is on the voting rolls. A member of the Census Bureau helped bring the problem into a little better perspective when he pointed out that no Negroes of voting age live in Newton County, Arkansas.

Campus Loses Beauty

By BOB BROWN

Good news, only eleven more days of class and then the good old summer time. No more strains of going to class and studying for tests and exams — just the warmth of the wonderful summer. I can hardly wait.

Well, they are at it again; tearing up the trees and shrubs and replanting smaller ones. Can't they leave the little beauty we have alone for us to enjoy? Why always destroy? This campus is beginning to look like a freshly plowed field instead of one of the scenic wonders of our Variety Vacation Land. Cease and desist you defacers of beauty. Leave the greenery alone and let us not become known as "E.C. the Nursery For Underprivileged Trees and Shrubs."

What is with the parking problem on this campus? Why is it that the instructors have almost two parking places each while the students have approximately one third of a parking place each. Agreed that the instructors do and should have priority over the students and should have the better parking places, but let's not over do it. I have counted as many as sixty (60) empty staff parking places at one time while students get tickets. Do the students yell fowl? You darn right they do and they have every right to do it. By looking at the number of tickets issued by the police you are assured of one thing, the police are on the ball.

The yearbooks have been distributed and I must say, they are really great. All of the pictures are clear and distinct, easy for you to recognize and remember. Take care of your book and it will last you a lifetime.

Pssss — Blam, Pssss — Blam. This is the sound of construction taking place on the hill. Did you ever try to sleep with a noise like a firecracker fanatic running through an echo chamber dropping on bells? I tell you its quite impossible and nerve racking; but its a step forward in the construction of what will be a beautiful dorm, so I guess we can live with it.

The janitor services is still lousy and there have been no more bomb threats. See you next week.

TESTS, AND HOW THEY GREW

Just the other night I was saying to the little woman, "Do you think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized?" (Incidentally, the little woman is not, as you might think, my wife. My wife is far from a little woman. She is, in fact, nearly seven feet high and mantled with rippling muscles. She is a full-blooded Ogallala Sioux and holds the world's shot put record. The little woman I referred to is someone we found crouching under the sofa when we moved into our apartment back in 1928, and there she has remained ever since. She never speaks except to make a kind of guttural clicking sound when she is hungry. To tell you the truth, she's not too much fun to have around the house, but with my wife away at track meets most of the time, at least it gives me someone to talk to.)

But I digress. "Do you think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized?" I said the other night to the little woman, and then I said, "Yes, Max, I do think the importance of tests in American colleges is being overemphasized." (As I explained, the little woman does not speak, so when we have conversations, I am forced to do both parts.)

But I digress. To get back to tests — sure, they're important, but let's not allow them to get too important. There are, after all, many talents which simply can't be measured by quizzes. Is it right to penalize a gifted student whose gifts don't happen to fall into an academic category? Like, for instance, Finster Sigafos?

She is a full-blooded Ogallala Sioux . . .

Finster, a freshman at the Wyoming College of Belles Lettres and Fingerprint Identification, has never passed a single test; yet all who know him agree he is studded with talent like a ham with cloves. He can, for example, sleep standing up. He can do a perfect imitation of a scarlet tanager. (I don't mean just the bird calls; I mean he can fly south in the winter.) He can pick up BB's with his toes. He can say "toy boat" three times fast. He can build a rude telephone out of 100 yards of string and two empty Personna Stainless Steel Razor Blade packages. (This last accomplishment is the one Finster is proudest of — not building the telephone but emptying the Personna packs. To empty a Personna pack is not easily accomplished, believe you me, not if you're a person who likes to get full value out of his razor blades. And full value is just what Personnas deliver. They last and last and keep on lasting; luxury shave follows luxury shave in numbers that make the mind boggle. Why don't you see for yourself? Personnas are now available in two varieties: a brand-new stainless steel injector blade for users of injector razors — and the familiar double-edge stainless steel blade so dear to the hearts and kind to the kissers of so many happy Americans, blades so smooth-shaving, so long-lasting that the Personna Co. makes the following guarantee: If you don't agree Personna gives you more luxury shaves than Beep-Beep or any other brand you might name, Personna will buy you a pack of whatever kind you think is better.)

But I digress. Back to Finster Sigafos — artist, humanist, philosopher, and freshman since 1939. Will the world ever benefit from Finster's great gifts? Alas, no. He is in college to stay.

But even more tragic for mankind is the case of Clare de Loon. Clare, a classmate of Finster's, had no talent, no gifts, no brains, no personality. All she had was a knack for taking tests. She would cram like mad before a test, always get a perfect score, and then promptly forget everything she had learned. Naturally, she graduated with highest honors and degrees by the dozen, but the sad fact is that she left college no more educated and no more prepared to cope with the world than she was when she entered. Today, a broken woman, she crouches under my sofa.

Colony Caps Chapter Rank; Climaxes Year's Experiences

Now that the Epsilon Kappa Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity has achieved official, national recognition as a fully-fledged member of the National Order with all due rights and privileges, has been awarded a prestigious Charter, and has officially transferred from colony to chapter status, an important milestone has been achieved. Not only is this event a realization of the hopes, dreams, and ambitions which have been held by the A E Pi's through the past four years, but more importantly, this emergence of fraternal responsibility and recognition is another vital step forward for the entire Fraternity system at East Carolina.

The official beginnings of Alpha Epsilon Pi at E.C. took root in the winter of 1960. Mr. Nathaniel Krumborn, a Regional Governor of the Fraternity at the time, from Richmond, Virginia, contacted a select group of four boys by letter informing them of his interest in initiating an A E Pi Chapter at E.C. The young men met together and mutually responded to Mr. Krumborn indicating their interest in his ideas. Mr. Krumborn (now on the Supreme Board of Governors) came down to East Carolina for a conference. After talking to the four selected candidates and explaining his ambitions for fraternity expansion, the men — Howard Rubin, Neil Seid, Steve Gallup and Al Shearin — all agreed to form a colony of Alpha Epsilon Pi. After preliminary matters were cleared and the men met the proper qualifications for fraternal membership, the group was duly initiated as a colony at the University of Richmond (Upsilon Rho Chapter) in the spring of 1961.

The four initiators returned to E. C. the following fall of 1961 and entered into formal rush. The exuberance and magnetism of the four new A E Pi's — now officially denoted as Epsilon Kappa Colony — helped draw five new pledges into the organization: Alan Penn, Stuart Siegel, Phil Somers, Gill Ruderman, and Bill Elman. After going through pledging and obtaining their requirements, these men, too, were inducted as Fraternity Brothers. This year the first chapter party room was set up for the E K's — an upstairs room on Evans Street across from the Pitt Theater. Unfortunately the A E Pi's lost their growing numerical strength as graduation was attained by three of the four original Brothers.

With only a handful of A E Pi's returning in the fall of 1962, the fraternity faced a serious shortage in membership and available funds. Only two men were initiated into the Fraternity that year — Mark Meltzer and Jon Singer. Even with the swinging social events including a beach party and a trip to the Azalea Festival, the fraternity needed membership to enhance its drive for full recognition.

In the fall of 1963 A E Pi took a large portion of initiative for progressive betterment with the establishment of the Delta Pledge Class. New men which entered the fraternal organization — Richard Kaunitz, Palu Hersh, Earl Wald, Gary Silverstein, Gil Hoffheimer, Ronnie Gagliardi, Ronnie Gross, Norman Lanchart, Neil Pyne, and Mike Zisman — all became active participants in the growing, developing E K Chapter.

This year was the advent of a series of significant events which greatly helped the Fraternity. Rich Kaunitz was named Most Outstanding Pledge; the A E Pi's then opened up in January, 1964, their new Fraternity house at 406 S. Summit Street with Mrs. Norleen Shewder as Housemother. That year the E K's successfully competed with the other established fraternities in both athletics and scholarship. Capping off a successful Greek Week, one in which the A E Pi four-man relay team won first place, the men of E K enjoyed themselves at a beach party at Wicker's Inlet.

With the attainment of more brothers, well-balanced activities, and a well-thought-of reputation, the Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity made a lasting impression upon the Interfraternity Council and the college community; an impression which was to lead the National A E Pi to consider the matter of full-fledged national membership and the I F C to respect such a relatively new group. By June, 1964, A E Pi was well on its way; it had surpassed the difficult obstacles in its path — apathy and competition from other Greeks. From a nucleus of four dedicated men, Alpha Epsilon Pi at East Carolina evolved as a separate but integral element of the Greek system and a significantly contributing member of the college community.

Thus far the year 1964-65 has been the achievement of a dream for E K Chapter. With the addition of six new brothers, two current pledges, and a sizable group of friends and affiliates, the A E Pi's plan to advance further in the realm of Brotherhood and Fraternism. Since it is too soon to evaluate the past year's good times and trials, it is difficult to view A E Pi as a composite entity of certain characteristics. In any case, the Charter of Alpha Epsilon Pi represents the achievement of a hard-fought cause. This has been the best year for them; surely they will remember it for a long time to come. Not only for A E Pi, but the Greek System has added another member for which the entire college community at East Carolina can feel proud.

Another official esoteric emblem of Alpha Epsilon Pi is the gold and blue cofa symbolizing the deepest threads of brotherhood and fraternalism upon A E Pi was founded in 1913.

ALPHA DELTA PI

Beach weather was beautiful this past weekend, and Atlantic Beach was invaded by the sisters and pledges of Alpha Delta Pi at their annual houseparty. All the girls enjoyed the sun and a number came back to classes with burns, especially sister Karen Martin and pledge Mary Ellen Goe. Six ADPI's were on hand to enjoy the fun at Nags Head with the Theta Chi's. The all enjoyed the sun, sand, surf, and entertainment.

Joyce McFarland represented the sorority in the Inter-Dormitory Queen contest which took place last Saturday evening. This weekend Carole Saldin will be a participant for the Greek Week crown.

Wednesday afternoon the ADPI house was open to a number of freshmen and sophomore girls for an informal rush party. We enjoyed the chance to entertain and talk with so many outstanding girls.

ADPI President Jane Helms and Rush Chairman Lynn Armistead will attend the sorority's National Convention this summer in Miami Beach, Florida. They will spend a week learning new ADPI ideas and discussing projects with representatives from other chapters.

Gigi Guice received the outstanding Senior Award in the Political Science Department. We congratulate her on this honor which she earned.

Morehead Hosts KD's For Beach Weekend

Basking and burning in the blistering sun, the Kappa Delta's once again dotted the beach at Morehead at their annual Beach Weekend, April 30-May 2. The houseparty is held every year in honor of the formal pledge class.

Eager to get to the beach first, Sisters Janet Daly and Butch Dunn started out at 11:00; but they arrived a little later than expected. Janet's Mustang was halted on 5th Street by a minor collision (only a mile from the KD House). After holding up traffic for an hour, the car was finally dislodged from its obstacle, and the girls took off once again. (By the way, the accident was the "other fellow's" fault!)

Except for a few cases of minor sunburn, everyone had a great time! Congratulations to Sister Anne Daniel and Alan Fearing, a Brother of Pi Kappa Phi, who returned from the beach party lavaliered.

Chicago's Sheraton-Chicago Hotel will be headquarters for the 36th Kappa Delta National Convention, July 1-5. Gamma Sigma's delegate, Sister Kim Lox, will spend these five exciting days not only attending convention activities but also learning about the accomplishments of other KD chapters. Meeting the National Officers as well as alumnae from all over the country will be a special treat for Kim. Over 100 official delegates from Kappa Delta chapters will attend the convention.

Highlighting the events of this year's convention will be the election and installation of several National Officers and the presentation of chapter awards. Gamma Sigma hopes to receive a scholarship award. At the 1961 convention, the chapter was presented a scholarship award and in 1963 was given an honorable mention.

Besides convention business those attending will have a chance to swim in the hotel's indoor pool and participate in any one of three tours of the "Windy City", including a "Chicago by Night" excursion. Sister Kim, who is now serving as Gamma Sigma's Membership Chairman, will be accompanied by Sister Janet Daly, who plans to attend as an unofficial representative.

Kim Lox will represent the Kappa Delta's at their national convention. The convention will be held in Chicago, Illinois this year.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Atlantic Beach was the sight of another beach weekend as brothers pledges and rushees surfed and sunned this past weekend. Many brothers joined Frand DeMille and Bill Moore on their surfboards in hopes of riding at least one good wave.

The Omicron pledge class surprised the brothers on Friday morning with the installation of a sidewalk along the side of the house. The pledges began their work at 1 a.m., finishing much later with a breakfast celebration at the Coed.

Phi Tau's bowling team is still in 2nd place in the fraternity league, being only a few pins away from the first place trophy. Greene, Separk, Moss and Cox are the current kingpins.

All the brothers are looking forward to another Winstead, Oil Millard Fish Fry. In fact, the neighborhood, its dogs and cats, and just everyone is!!!

ALPHA PHI NEWS

This past weekend eight Alpha Phis went to Ahoskie to cheer Nancy Freeman on in the Miss Ahoskie pageant. It was a great experience for Nancy, especially working with Jeanne Swanner and the other contestants.

Two weeks ago we entertained our parents at our annual Parent's Day picnic. We all had fun meeting the sister's parents and entertaining them.

The sisters and pledges entertained the Pi Kaps at a social two weeks ago. Fun was had by all dancing and meeting new faces.

Last Monday sister Faye Hall became pinned to Don Dempsey, an alumna of Phi Delta Theta from Carolina. Needless to say she went in the shower. Also, sister Frances Gutyar became pinned to Jim Bowling and sister Sandy Davis became engaged to Joe Twiddy, an alumna of East Carolina.

Last Friday night the sisters of Alpha Phi honored the pledges at a pledge dance at the Farmville Country Club. We all had a fabulous time and danced to the music of a great band.

Congratulations go to Luray Mitchell who has been elected as a member of the Honor Council. Sister Gayle Morris has been elected as alternate and several of our sisters have been appointed to SGA committees.

Sister Peggy Garrett has been chosen to represent Alpha Phi as a candidate for LFC Queen.

Last Tuesday Alpha Phi won the over-all softball championship.

Formal Dedication Ceremony Honors Dr. A. D. Frank

East Carolina College's history department will honor Dr. A. D. Frank, retired social studies department chairman, in formal dedication ceremonies Sunday for the new A. D. Frank Seminar Room.

Scheduled in the auditorium of New Austin Building, Room 132, at 3 p.m., the ceremonies will include a dedicatory address by Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, ECC President.

Dr. Paul Murray, professor history at ECC, will unveil a portrait of Dr. Frank by a Greenville artist, Mrs. Georgia P. Hearne. The painting will hang in the new seminar room on the third floor of New Austin.

Sunday's ceremony will open with a formal welcome by Dr. Herbert R. Paschal Jr., director of the ECC history department. D. D. Gross, director of religious activities at the college, will offer the prayer of dedication to close the services.

A reception for guests will follow the ceremonies in the A. D. Frank room on the third floor.

Dr. Frank is expected to attend the Sunday program. He joined the ECC faculty in September, 1924, and headed the social studies department until his retirement in November, 1957. He and his wife are making their home in Boca Raton, Fla.

The history department raised more than $700 through contributions from former social studies students and others to completely furnish the new room. Names of contributors will be engraved on a permanent display plaque to be placed in the seminar room.

Dr. Richard C. Todd, professor of history, served as chairman of the project. He was assisted by Dr. Paschal, Dr. Murray, Dr. Betty C. Congleton and James Hugh Wease, all ECC history faculty members.

SGA Acts On Complaints; Approves New Committees

The regular weekly meeting of the East Carolina Student Government Association was held Monday, April 26 at 7:00 p.m. in Rawl 130.

John Bell led the assembly in the Lord's Prayer.

A slight correction in the minutes was made at the request of Ross Barber.

The chair then read correspondence. The first letter was from Mr. W. E. Boswell, Supervisor of the college laundry, concerning the practicality of the proposed installation of laundry chutes in the men's dormitories. The other letter, from Mr. J. O. Derrick of the Chemistry Department, expressed his appreciation of the efforts of the SGA in this year's lecture series.

The chair called for old business. Ross Barber suggested a change in By-law number 2. This had been tabled for two weeks, the usual practice when a change in a SGA By-law is proposed. The change involved substituting "Fall" for "Winter" for the quarter in which the Student Bank Cashier is paid.

Representatives Sue Becht, Luanne Kaylor, and Dee Dee Leonard were installed.

The following appointments were announced: Chaplain, John Bell; Traffic Control Committee, Ross Barber—Chairman, Janet Broadhurst, Sally Yopp, and Michael Lambert; Infirmary Committee, Jan Jackson—Chairman, Dee Dee Leonard, Terry Wentzel, Steve Barbour, and Jerry Bedford. The members were asked to suggest new committees if they were needed.

The formation of a college international relations club was announced. Its purpose will be "to stimulate interest in international affairs among faculty and students." Any student is eligible for membership. The executive officers will be president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Monthly meetings will be held, and the executive committee will meet once a quarter. Each member will pay an annual fee of seventy-five cents. These provisions of the constitution of the proposed club were approved.

The following committee heads appointed by Eddie Greene, President of the SGA, were considered and approved: Entertainment, Steve Sniteman; Foreign Films, Ross Barber; Popular Films, Margery Hendricks; Lectures, John Coon; Student Improvement (a new committee to work for the betterment of college organizations which serve the students), Bill Hunt, Orientation, Celia Orr and Jane Mewborn; I. D. Cards, Jean Allen; Special Events

Homecoming, etc.), Bob Lecour and Joan Powell; Spirit (a new committee which does the work of last year's Athletic Publicity Committee), Scotty Scott; External Affairs (State Student Legislature, Model United Nations, etc.), Ray Owen and Bill Peck; Elections, Bill Parrish; Faculty Evaluation (a new committee for student-faculty relations), Garland Ayseue; and Conference (a new committee which meets with the chairmen to discuss the work of the committees as a whole), Bill Peck.

After some discussion about whether or not previous judicial experience should be the deciding factor in the election of Women's Honor Council members, eight girls were elected from the list of twelve volunteers: Juniors Lennis Ferrell, Jan Jackson, Ginny Mumford, Frieda White, and Seniors Luray Mitchell, Celia Orr, and Joyce Sigmon. Senior Gayle Morris was elected Alternate.

Three motions concluded the new business. The first provided for some of the popular entertainment to be held on week-ends, in order to avoid in part the mass exodus from the campus every week-end. Steve Sniteman reminded the group of the increased difficulty and expense of engaging entertainers on week-ends. As a similar plan is already under consideration, no further action on this motion was taken.

Another motion was that Mr. Dan Wooten, who is in charge of the campus parking, be requested to change the signs to read certain hours only for parking areas to be restricted for faculty, day students, and staff. As it stands at present, technically, a student may be fined for parking at night or on week-ends in a space reserved for the above-mentioned. There was no negative discussion. The motion was clearly carried.

The last motion provided that all meats in the cafeteria be labeled not only as to price, but also named, and that the prices of more recognizable items, such as salads and desserts, be marked. This motion, too, was clearly carried.

Dean Alexander announced the availability of tickets for the lecture film, "Russia and Its People" and for the EC Playhouse production, "Moby Dick." The speaker stressed the importance of the next meeting, at which the budgets of the various committees will be under consideration.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

NSF Sponsors Professors

A team of three mathematicians at East Carolina College are acquainting high school students with modern math developments in seven Eastern North Carolina counties and in Chesapeake, Va.

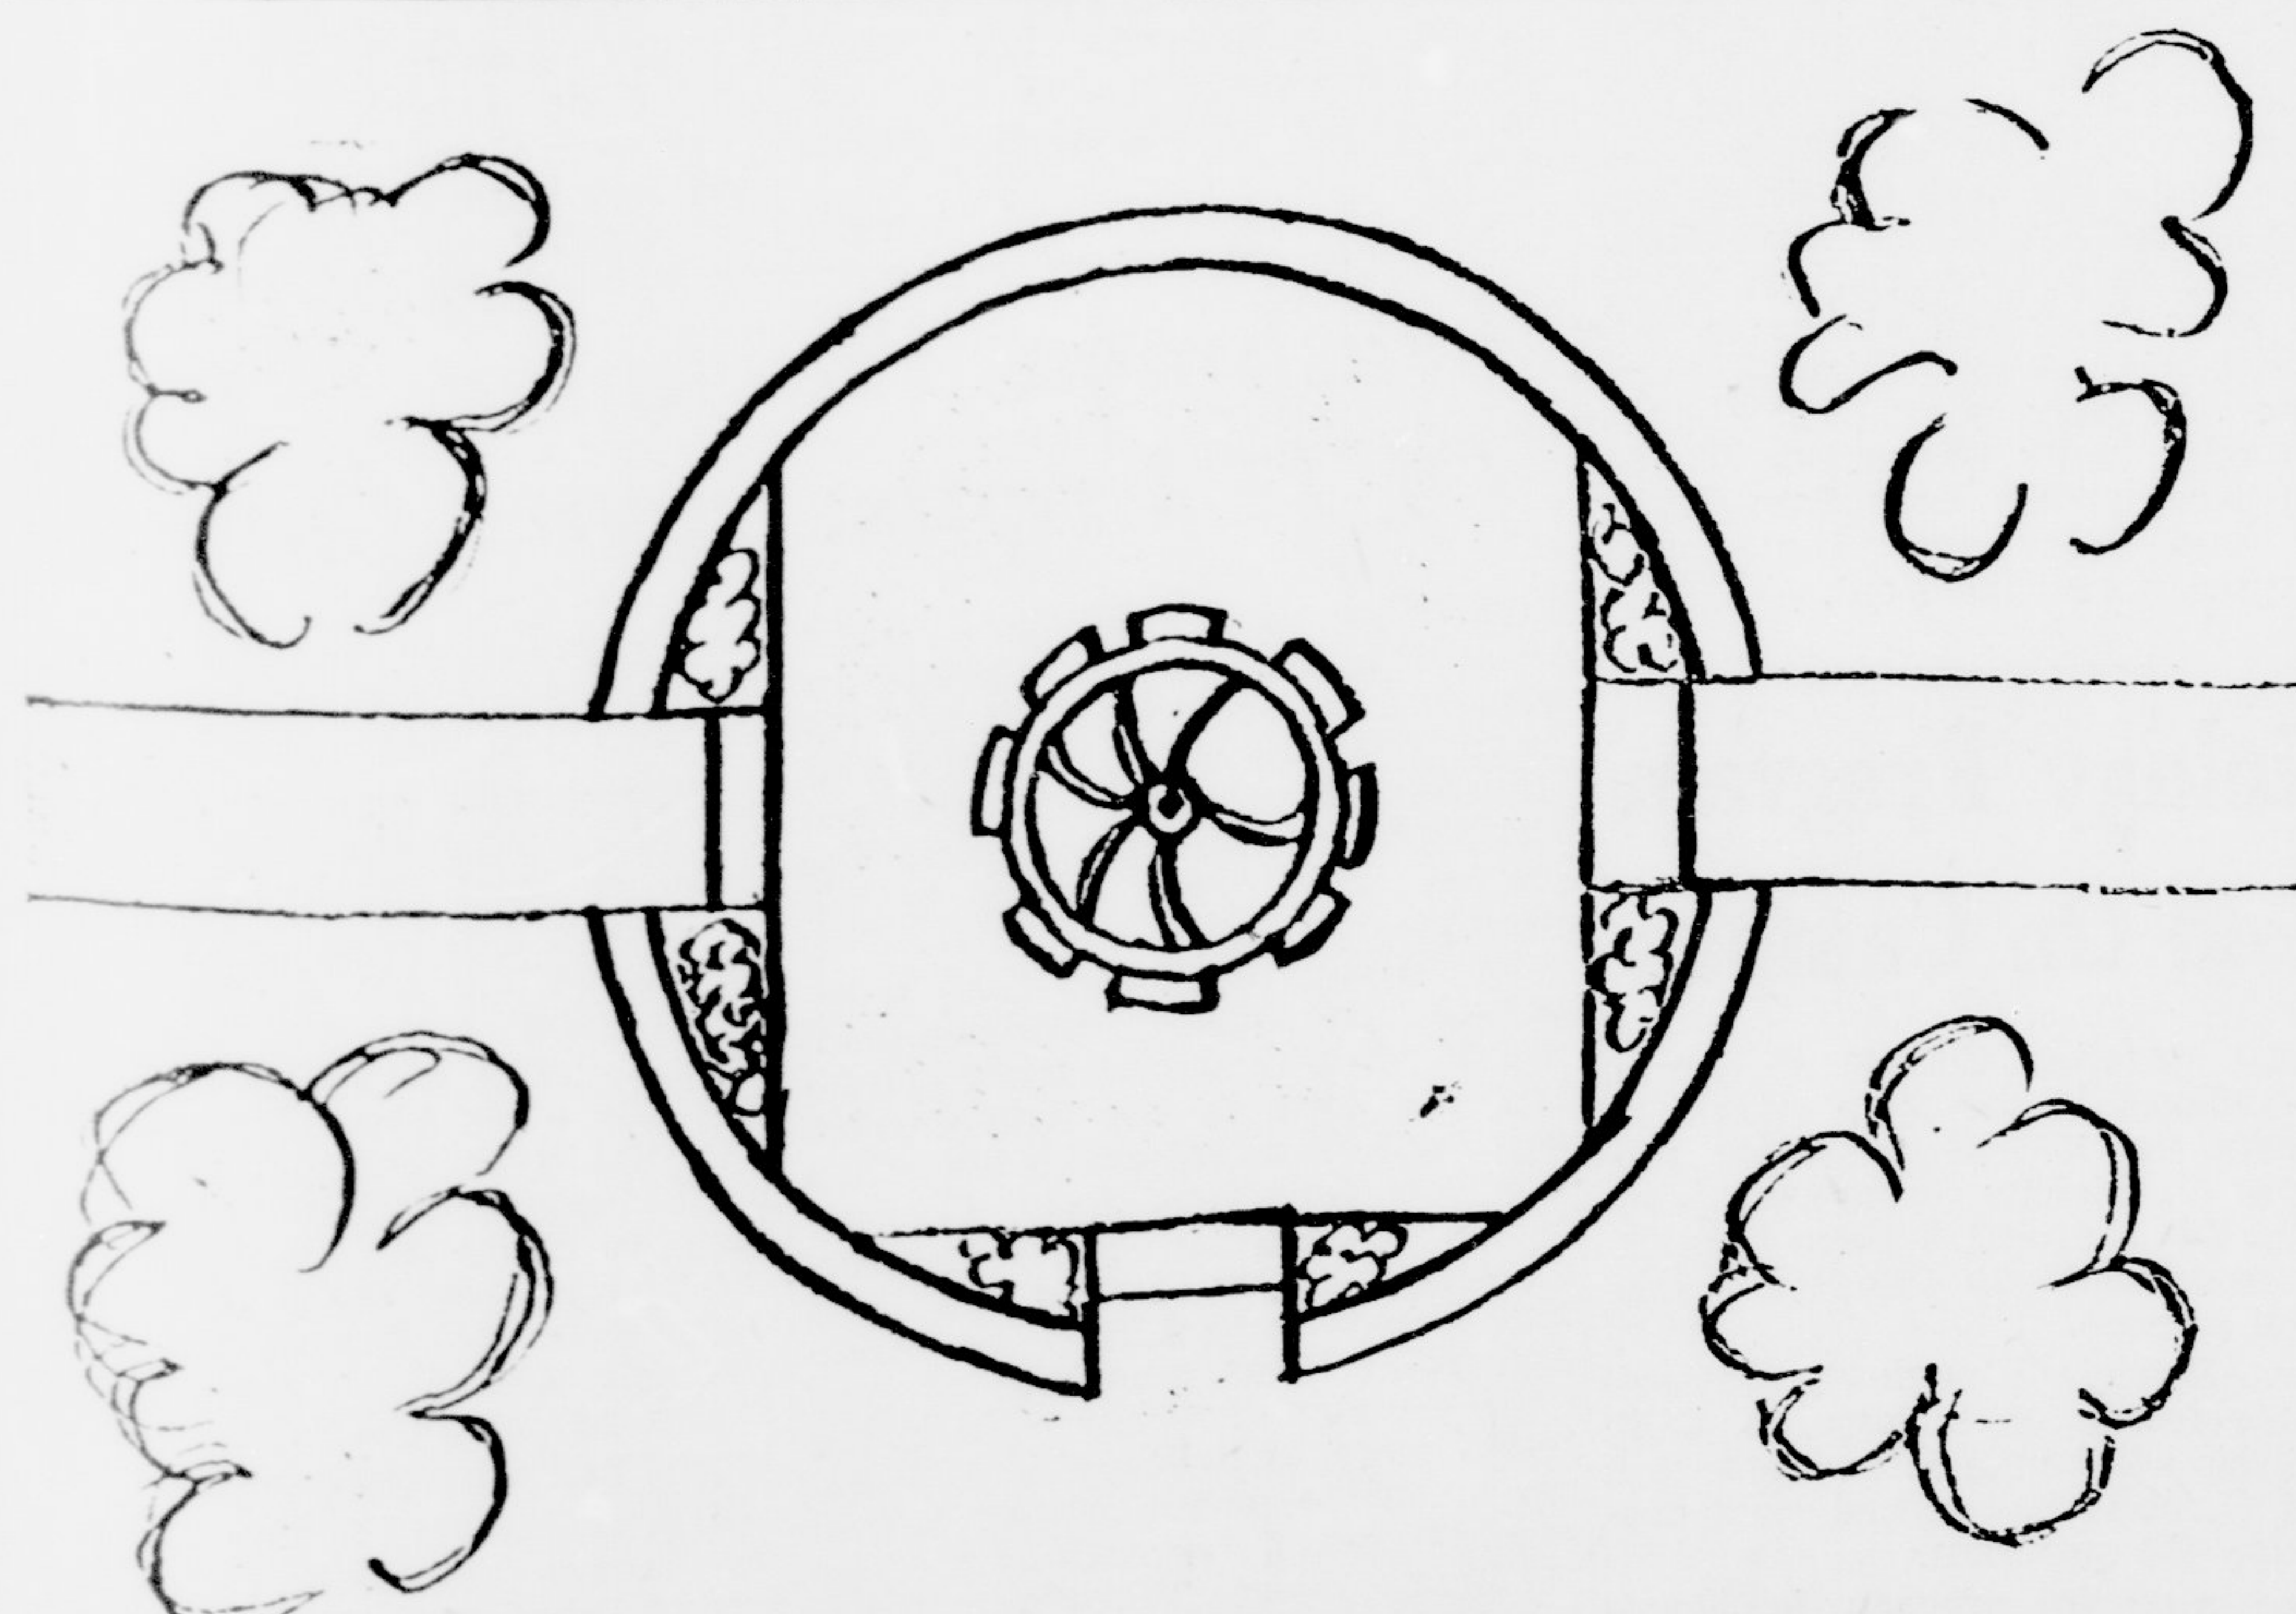

Sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America with support from the National Science Foundation, the East Carolina professors are outlining career opportunities in mathematics and the related fields before high school audiences in Bertie, Beaufort, Chowan, Craven, Onslow, Pasquotank and Washington counties.

The speakers are John W. Daniels, John B. Davis and F. Milam Johnson.

Johnson, director of the EOC computing center, will speak at Crestwood High in Chesapeake, Va., Tuesday and at Chowan High in Tyner on Wednesday.

High schools already visited include those at Elizabeth City, Havelock, Jacksonville, New Bern, Plymouth, Washington and Windsor.

Sunday night at the annual Senior Banquet, as a gift to their alma mater, the Senior Class presented plans for the construction of a campus landmark.

The structure, 36 feet in diameter, will consist of a wall seat with a patio and will house the '65 class plaque.

The tower form Old Austin is proposed to be placed in the center of the structure, if it can be taken down in one piece.

East Carolina Places Second To The Citadel In Tri Meet

East Carolina placed second to The Citadel in a triangular meet last Saturday. The meet involved The Citadel with 90 points, East Carolina with 60 points, and Campbell College with 31 points. Whitty Bass once again broke the school record in the 880 yard run in winning the event with a 1:54.5. Bob Lecour was a double winner with victories in the mile and two mile runs.

Lecour ran a 4:50.8 mile to take first as Earl Mullins finished second to give East Carolina eight out of the eleven possible points. Lecour's time of 10:54.7 was good enough to give him a first in the two mile as Mullins finished third in the race. Jack Foley won the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.4 as The Citadel swept the other three places. Foley placed second in the 220 yard dash as Ken Pinder won the event in 23.3.

Pinder also won the 440 yard dash, with a clocking of 50.4. Dick Belmer placed fourth for East Carolina. Whitty Bass raced to his new record in winning the 880 yard run as Lee Brinson came in second. In the high hurdles Terry Wills finished second to Ven Williams of The Citadel, who finished with a 15.4. Wills then took the honors in the intermediate hurdles where he turned in a winning tie of 40.5. Buddy Price brought home a first place in the pole vault as he vaulted 13'6". John Sasser placed third in the event for the Pirates. Gerald Gregg was the only East Carolina man that placed in the high jump, which Calvin McCombs of The Citadel won at a height of 6'2". Gregg placed second.

Terry Wills finished second in the high jump, just 3 1/2 inches behind the winner, Ray Joseph of The Citadel. Joseph won on a leap of 22'8 3/4" as Wills was close behind at 22'5 1/4".

Although Wills finished third in the triple jump, he set a new school record in that event with a leap of 43'4", eclipsing the old mark by more than a foot. The old record stood at 42'2 1/4" and Wills jumped 43'4" to shatter the record. It has been a good season for Terry as he has broken two records so far this year and ran in the record breaking relay teams that set the new marks in the 440 yard relay and the mile relay.

East Carolina failed to place any men in the weight events as Fred Feldman won the shot with a toss of 47'11 1/4" while he hurled the discus 139'9". Greg Buczynski took first in the javelin with a throw of 186'6". It was the only first place for Campbell College in the meet. The mile relay team gave East Carolina another first as they finished with a 3:31 flat timing. Lee Brinson, Dick Belmer, Terry Wills, and Whitty Bass combined to win the event. The Citadel won the 440 yard relay as the East Carolina team was disqualified.

In all East Carolina had a total of seven first places to The Citadel's nine. It was in depth that The Citadel had the edge as they took many more of the third and fourth to mount up their score.

Duke University Survives Early Assault By Pirates For Victory

Duke University survived an early assault by the Pirates and then went on to pound out 10 hits and six runs for a 6-1 victory over East Carolina. Dean Helms, the moundsmen for the Blue Devils, won his second game from the Pirates. He had previously beaten the Bucs at Duke, earlier in the season, 6-5. Carlton Barnes continued slugging the ball, going two for four, with two singles while scoring one of the two East Carolina runs.

The Blue Devils exploded in the eighth for three runs to finish off the Pirates when short stop Stan Coble slammed a triple to drive in Sonny Odom, who had reached on a single, and Scotty Glacken, who had reached on a fielder's choice. Coble was then brought in on John Heines' single to round out the Duke scoring. The Blue Devils had scored the go ahead run in the sixth inning when Sonny Odom opened with a double. Odom moved to third on a ground out to first, and then came in on a wild pitch by Johnny Rawls, the starting pitcher.

The Pirates had started the game well and it looked like an easy day for the Bucs until Dean Helms settled down to limit the Pirates for two hits the rest of the game. Chuck Connors singled to open the bottom half of the first, and both Carlton Barnes and Bob Kaylor followed with the same to load the bases with no one out. Wane Britton walked to bring in the first run, but Fred Rodriguez flied out next. Carlton Barnes came scamparing home with the second run on Roger Hedgecock's ground out and then Carl Daddona struck out to end the inning. That was about all the action for the Pirates, as they got only one man as far as second base in the next eight innings.

Duke came up with the equalizer in the fifth inning as pitcher Dean Helms walked with one out. Third baseman Jim Barrett singled and the center fielder misplayed the ball so that Helms could come on in with the first Blue Devil run. After another out Biff Bracy singled in Barrett to tie up the game 2-2.

Johnny Rawls was handed his second defeat of the season against two wins. The heat of the afternoon no doubt had its effect on him and Pete Hunter came in the eighth to relieve Rawls. Johnny drew applause from the larger than usual crowd as he left the game.

The big man with the stick for the visitors was Stan Coble with a single and a double in four trips, and with two runs batted in. The Pirates were held to six hits, two of them by Carlton Barnes. This weekend the Bucs travel to Wilmington College for a game Saturday and then move to Wake Forest for a game on Monday. If you're down near Wilmington, stop by and support your team. Several rabid fans followed the team to Campbell College to cheer the team to a 15-2 victory, perhaps your support Saturday will have the same effect.

EC Tennis Team Wins 5-1 Victory

The East Carolina tennis team got as far as singles matches when the rains came and washed out the doubles matches to give the Pirates a 5-1 victory over William & Mary College. Frank Cooke and Bane Shaw got East Carolina off to a good start with victories. Cooke took a 6-2, 6-3 win over Jim Moss while Bane Shaw finished off Scott Hershey 8-6 and 6-2. Hayne Amick took his match with Craig Carlson 5-7, 8-6 but Mike Starr fell victim to Guy Temple, 6-4, 6-0 as William & Mary tallied its only point. Son Hignite won over Wally Benbenista 6-3, 6-0 and Kelly Wells beat Sam Miller 6-3, and 6-2 before the double matches were rained out.

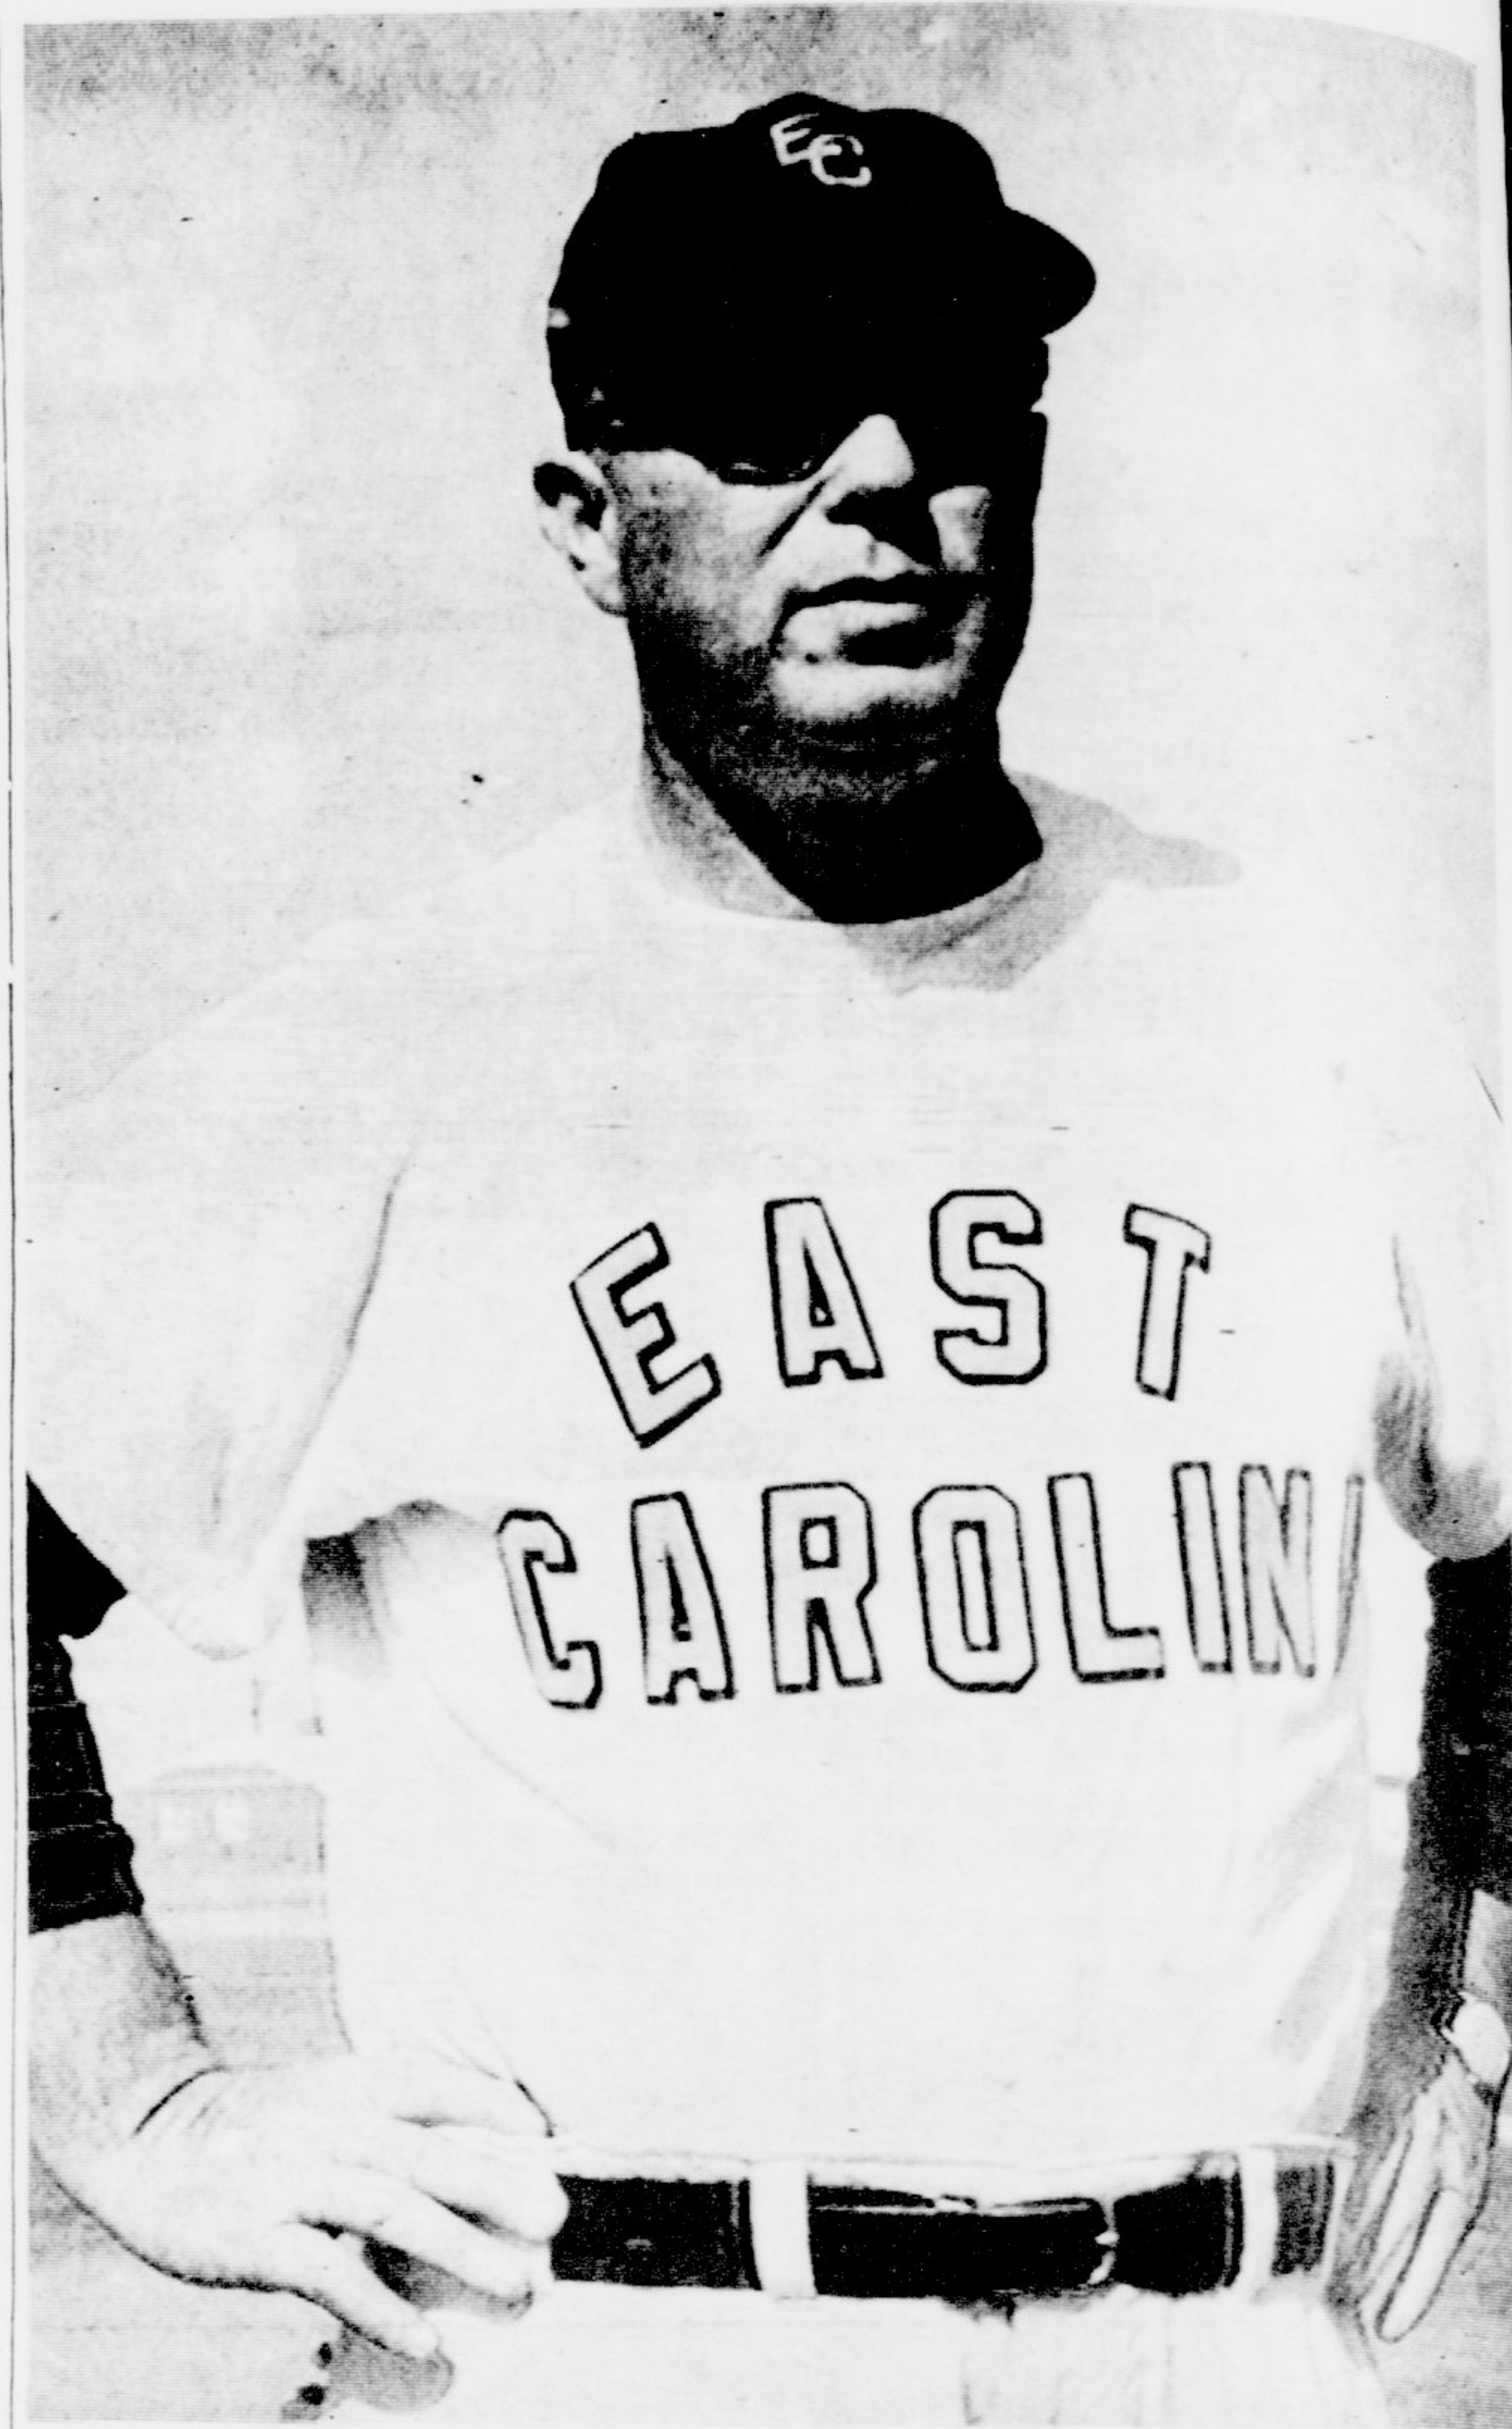

Biology Program Held On Campus

East Carolina College is one of six colleges in the state chosen as centers for 1965-66 in-service programs in biology sponsored jointly by the National Science Foundation and the North Carolina Academy of science.

Dr. Patricia Daugherty, associate professor of biology at ECC, said this will be the second year that East Carolina has served as a center for the program.

The in-service program is intended to assist high school biology teachers in introducing new materials and methods to their students. Each of the six colleges serves as a center for biweekly meetings of participating teachers and college consultants.

Other centers for the program this year include North Carolina State University at Raleigh, Wake Forest College, North Carolina College, the North Carolina Agricultural and Technical College, and Western Carolina College.

EC Rolls To 7th Against AC, 6-0

East Carolina rolled to its seventh victory of the season in a rain short-ened meet, 6-0 over Atlantic Christian College. It was the second victory this year over the Christians, and the second shut-out victory. The Pirates swept the singles matches but rain halted the meet before the doubles could be played.

Bane Shaw again had trouble with John Eaton, the number one man for Atlantic Christian, but pulled through to register a 8-10, 6-2, 6-2. Frank Cooke won over Ben Brown 7-5, 6-1 while Wayne Amick took a 11-9 and 6-2 victory over George Ramey. Garland Granger fell victim to Mike Starr, 6-2 and 6-0. Ron Hignite battled back after losing the first set, 6-3, to pull out a 6-2, 6-0 win over Bill Bootwright. Kelley Wells won over Jim Austin 6-3 and 6-3 to round out the East Carolina victory.

East Carolina blanked Atlantic

Christian College 9-0 in a tennis match for the Pirates first shut-out victory of the year. Bane Shaw started the match with a 6-1, 4-6, 6-4 victory over John Eaton of AC while Frank Cooke had less trouble in beating Ben Brown 6-3 and 6-3.

Number three man, Wayne Amick, trampled over George Ramey by the score 6-3, 6-3 and Mike Starr beat Garland Granger 6-2 and 6-3. Ron Hignite took a match from Bill Bootwright, 6-3 and 6-2, while Kelley Wells rounded out the singles matches with a 6-1, and 6-2 victory over Jimmy Austin.

Bane Shaw and Mike Starr teamed in the first doubles match for an East Carolina victory of 6-4, and 6-0. Frank Cooke and Ron Hignite paired off in the second to beat Atlantic Christian 7-5, and 6-2. Wayne Amick and Bill Turner capped East Carolina scoring with a 6-2, 6-0 decision.

Freshmen Trackmen Win 12 Of 17 Events; Beats Chowan

The East Carolina freshman track team defeated Chowan College by the score of 82-62, winning twelve out of the 17 events of the meet. Charles Hudson was a double winner and Ed White was a triple winner. The Pirates swept both relays in the meet.

Ed White registered first place wins in high hurdles, the intermediate hurdles, and the triple jump. His 16.6 time in the high hurdles was almost a second faster than the two runners from Chowan. In the intermediate hurdles he scored with a 42.1 as Chowan took third and there was no third place. White and Todd Hicks combined to give East Carolina first and third in the triple jump, with leaps of 41'5 and three fourths inches and 35' 11 and one-half inches respectively.

Charles Hudson raced to a 2:03.6 victory in the 880 and a 4:37 flat win in the mile for his pair of wins. Chowan took the other two places in the 880 while Joe Johnson gave East Carolina a third in the mile. Johnson also placed third in the two mile run, to give the Pirates their only points in that event.

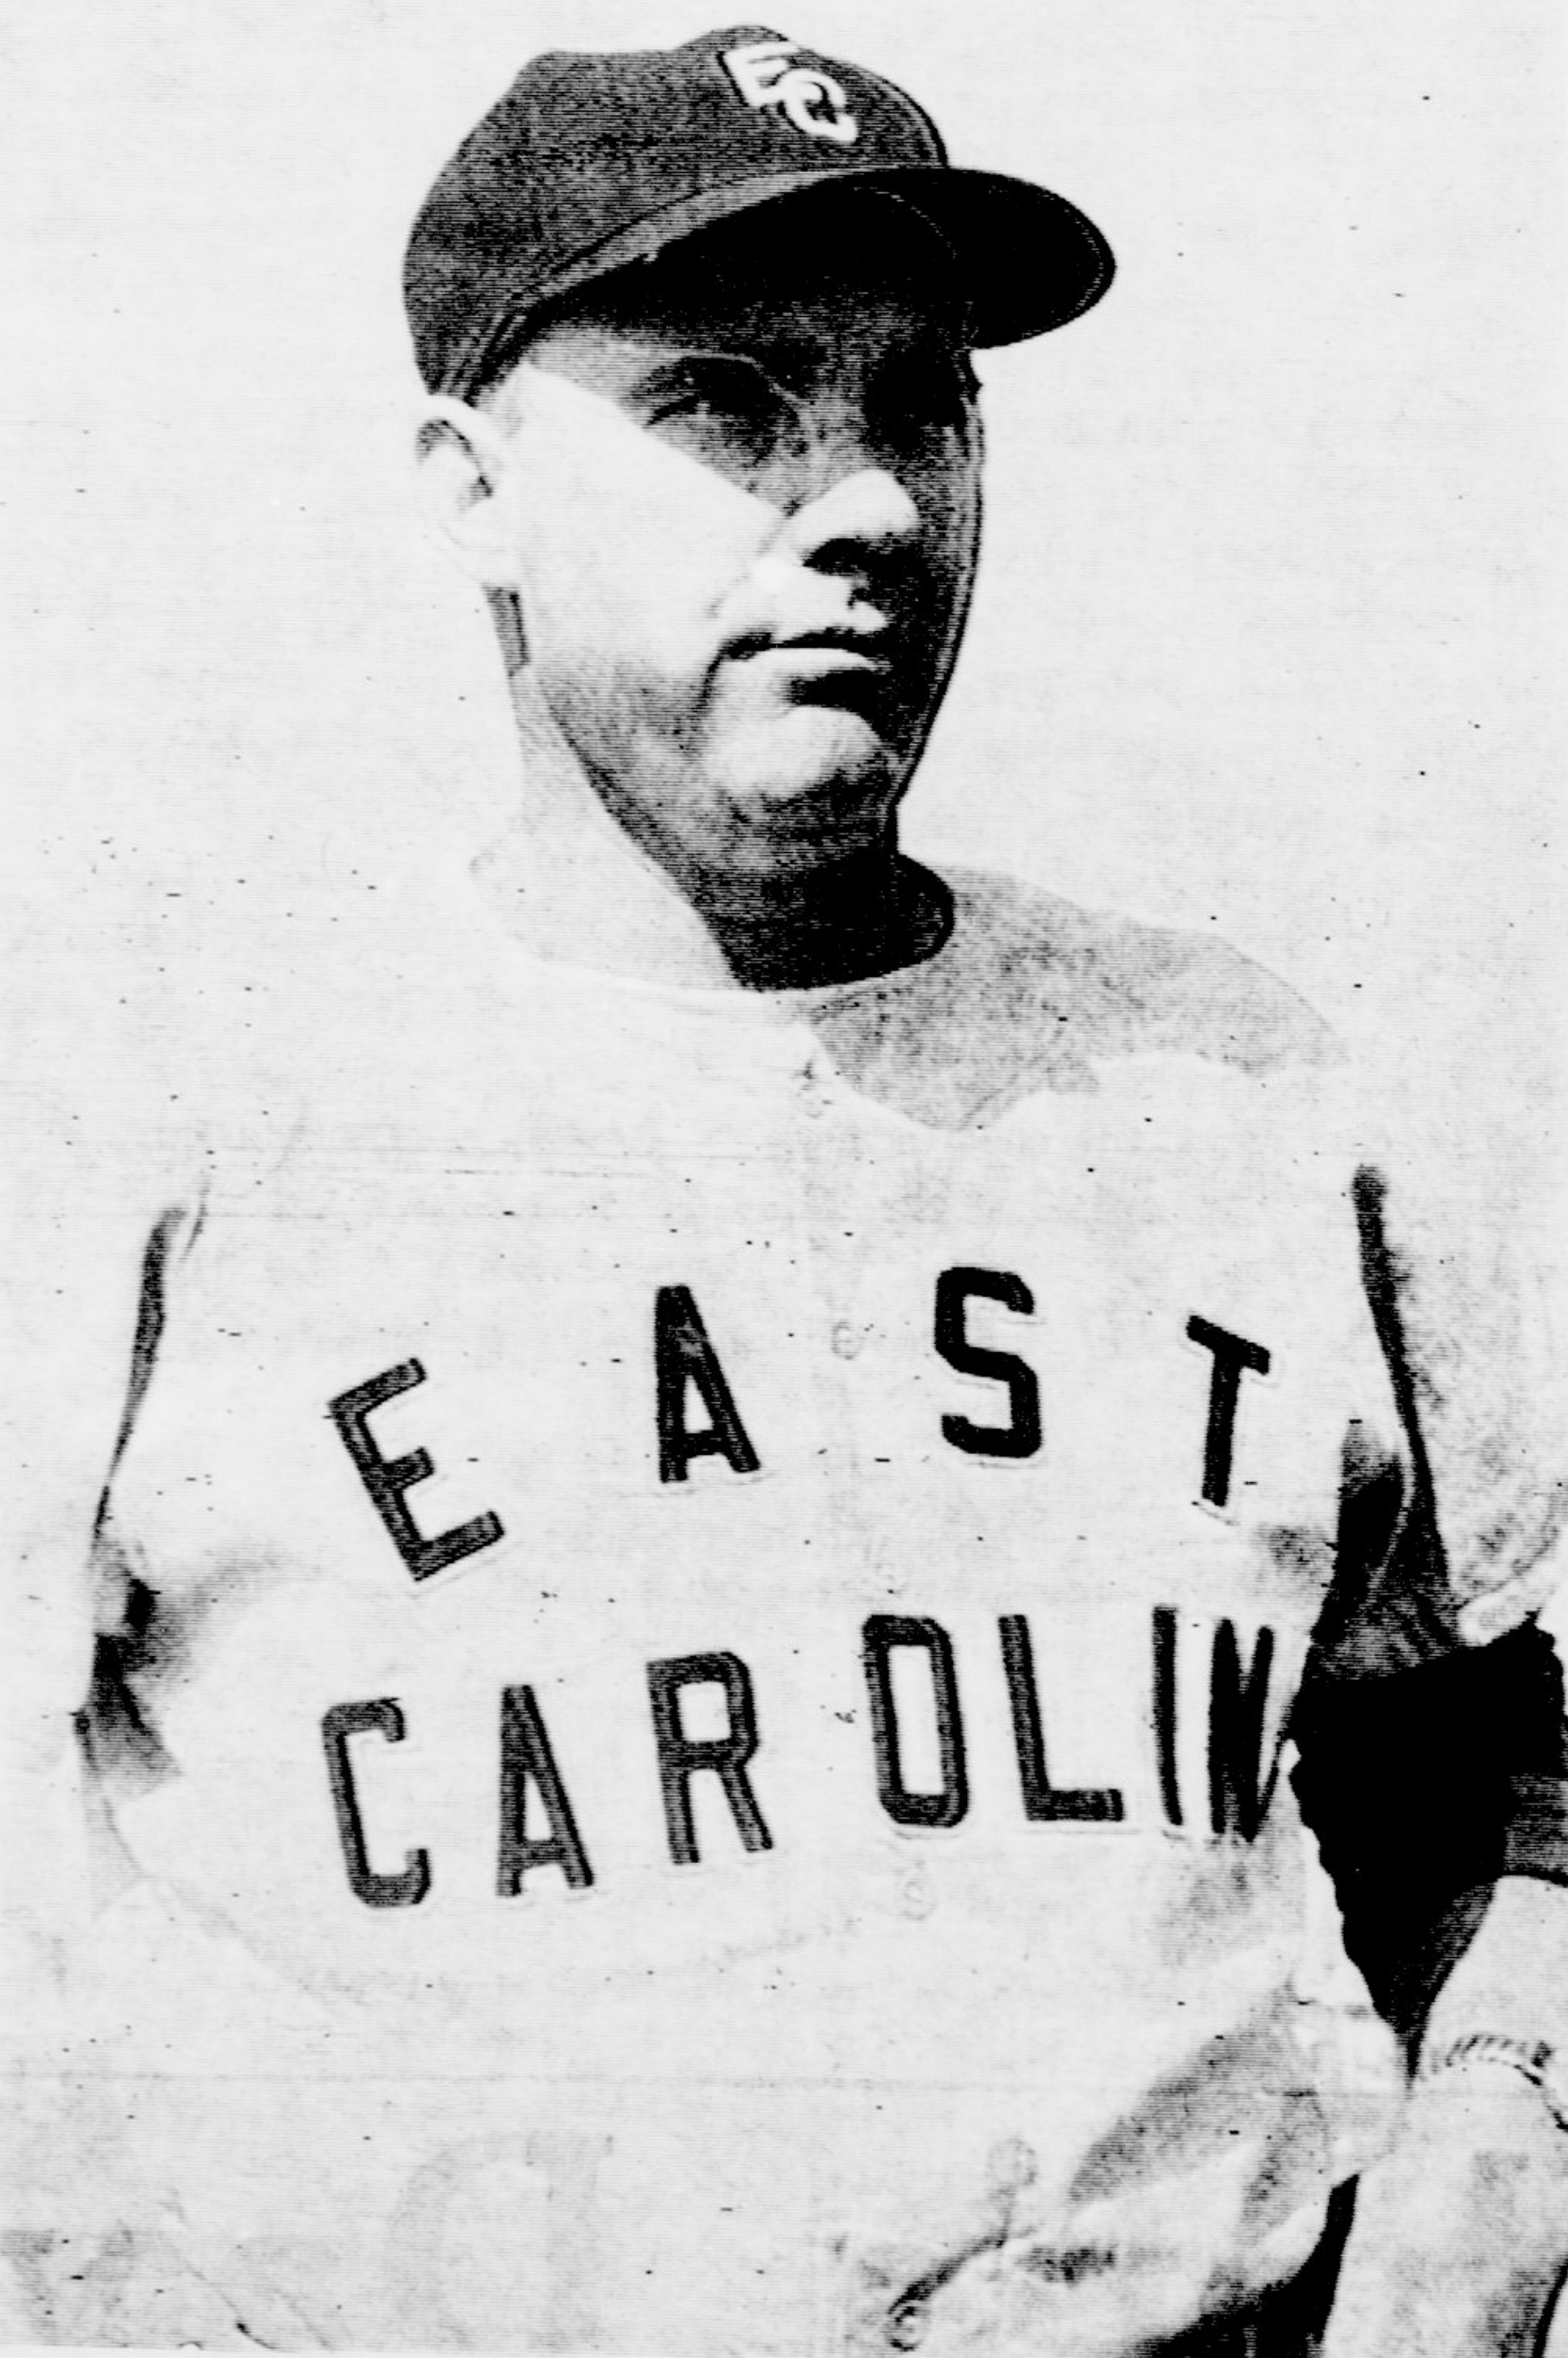

In the sprints, Todd Hicks led the way with a 10.2 victory in the hundred while Mac Howard came in second with 11 flat. Howard reversed the order in the 220 yard dash with his 23.5 time that won him a first, while Hicks was second, a tenth of a second behind with a 23.4 John Usilton finished third in the 440 yard dash with a time of 55.1.

Wayman and Testo finished second and third respectively in the pole vault for East Carolina as Conway of Chowan won when he cleared the bar at 10'6". In the high jump Tom Berlin took first for the Pirates with a jump of 5'8" but Chowan took the other two spots with Conway and Ryan finishing second and third. Conway went on in the broad jump to claim first as Todd Hicks was second and Giles third. Dave Oran gave the Pirates five points with his win in the shot put with a toss of 36' 8". Chowan took the second and third places in the event.

It was Marvin Welton who gave the Bucs a first in the discus as he hurled the discus 113'10". Campbell again placed second and third. In the javelin Dave Oran placed second to John Watson of the visitors who won with a throw of 149'8".

The 440 relay team of Ed White, Ed Miller, Todd Hicks, and Mac Howard, raced to victory with a time of 44.9. In the mile relay Mac Howard, Ed White, Charles Hudson, and John Usilton won with a time of 3:37.8. The East Carolina scoring leaders were Charles Hudson with 12 and one-half points, Todd Hicks with 13 and one-half points, and Ed White with 17 and one-half points.
