Students should bring with them towels, napkins and bedding. These and their clothing should be well marked.

The School has many advantages: the Location is beautiful and healthy, and has direct communication, twice a day, with Baltimore and Philadelphia. The Teachers are experienced and capable. The terms are cheaper than in the majority of Schools. The Buildings are spacious, lighted with gas, and well supplied with School and Boarding requisites. Night watch. Brothers and Sisters may be educated together. Studies are liberally arranged to suit preferences or industry. Daily prayers, with singing and the eading of God's word, in the Chapel.
