Dr. Henderson Irwin,

Hendersonville, N. C.

My dear Henderson:-

Yours of the 5th reached me the last of last week, but I was unable, on account of press of work, to answer it before today. I enclose the testimonial for which you ask; it gives me a great deal of pleasure to send it, and I wish further to congratulate you upon winning your doctorate. I know you will honor your calling, and that your work will be eminently successful. You certainly have my best wishes and most cordial regards.

Yours most sincerely,

President.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
DAVIDSON COLLEGE
DAVIDSON, N. C.

June 10th, 1912.

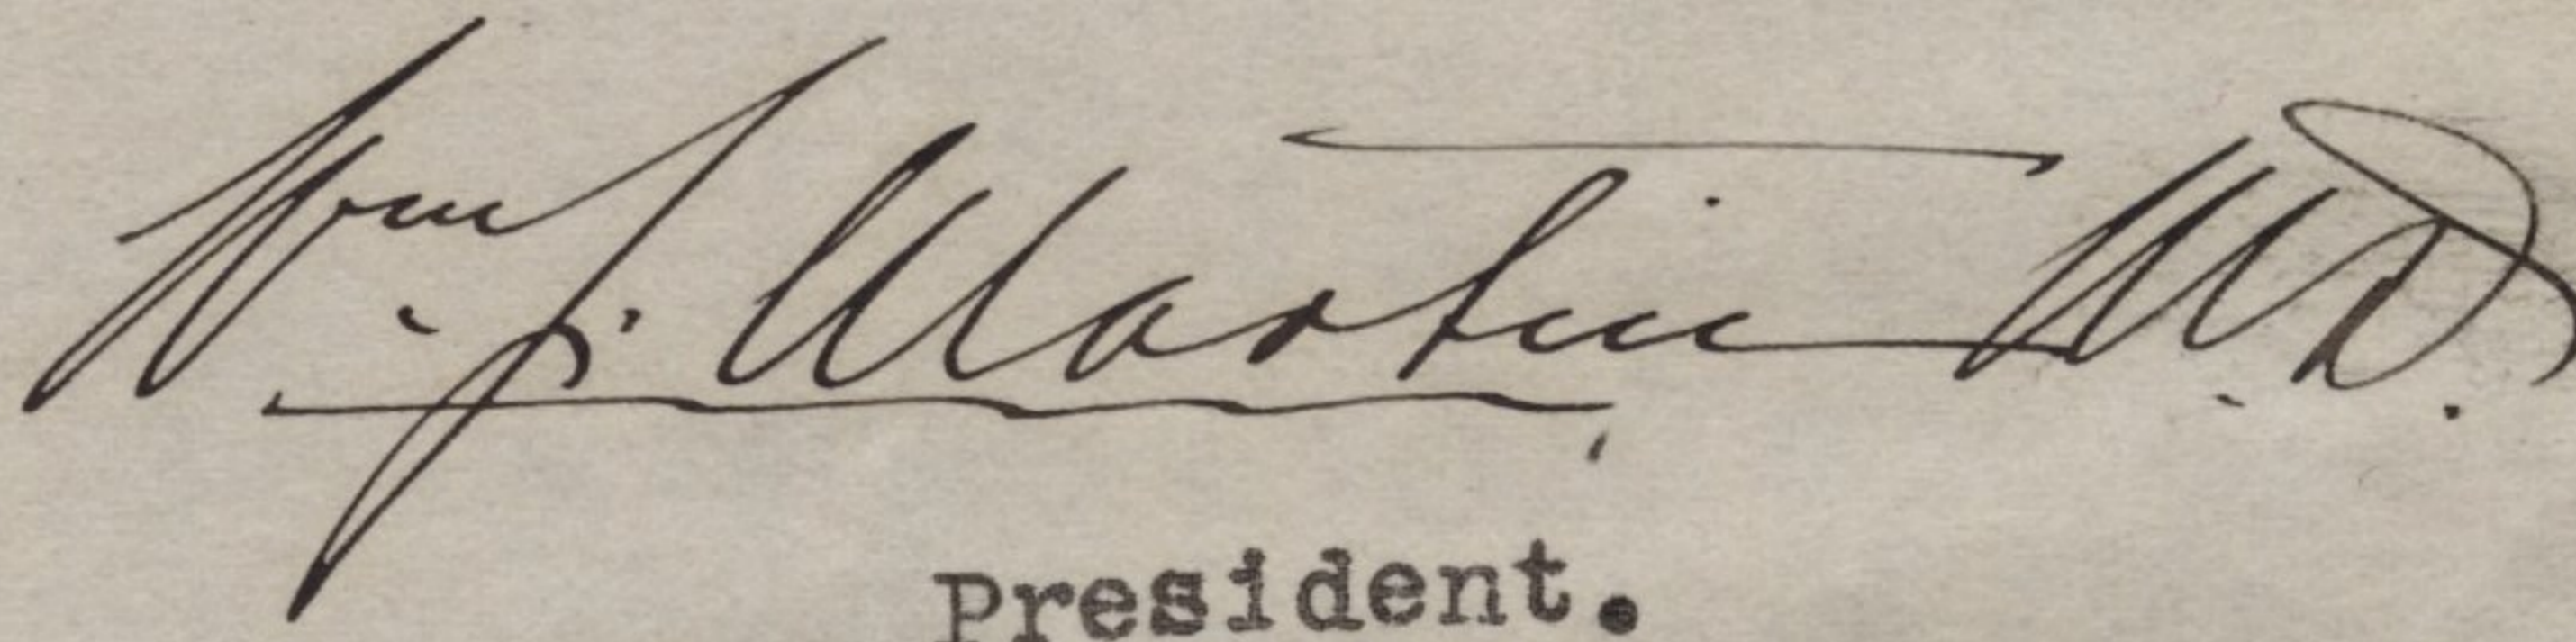

To the State Board of Medical Examiners of North Carolina,

Gentlemen:-

It gives me pleasure to testify to the high character and moral worth of Dr. Henderson Irwin, whom I have known on and off for ten years. He is eminently worthy of your highest regards, and will, I am sure, always conduct himself according to the high code of honor of our profession.

Commending him to you most sincerely, and thanking you for any consideration you may bestow upon him, and with sincere regards to you, <sup>and best wishes for</sup> ~~in~~ your work, I am,

Most cordially yours,

President.

North Carolina Board Medical Examiners, Hendersonville, N.C.

Dear Sirs;

I take pleasure in commending Dr. Henderson Irwin of this city as a young man of good moral character and one who has had good educational advantages.

Would like to say further that he is a son of Dr. John R. Irwin, one of the leading physicians and surgeons of this city and I feel sure that he will make a good grade on his examinations.

Yours very truly,

W. O. Nisbet, M.D.

Diet. P.

This is to Certify that I am well acquainted with Dr Henderson Irwin, that I believe him
to be a young man
of high moral character,
such as should qualify him to pursue the practice of medicine with credit both to himself & the profession.

Respectfully

J. W. Irwin
