My Dear Miss Dicksy,

I must say that I am very glad you will be back and also glad you decided to stay in town this time. I am very much pleased to hear you say that you were in hopes, the old boys wouldnt come back, but may I ask am I included in the lot if so I will know what to do when you return. Although I must say, laying all joking a side that I am forced to believe I am, if the statement be true, what a young man told me a few days ago, that you told him you were wearing my ring and that he knew lots of other things between us, It is immaterial to me whether you told him or not, I don't care about the ring, but I do think it hard for you to tell any secrets between us, that you promised to keep,

If you did I can never look upon you as the same friend you were before, Tell Miss Ruby that I would like very much to have a sweet waltz with her, also tell her I want her to be my girl when I come to Richmond to live, which I think will be next year. It is time for all good boys to retire, so I will say good by. Joe
