

learly, there's a lot of tea in China. For centuries, it's been one of the country's proudest resources. Then, along came tobacco. And soon, along came Monk.

We've had a strong presence in China for years. Now we're buying tobacco in thirteen provinces, and processing it in the provinces of Henan and Guangdong. With this new capability in China, we now offer our customers a total of fourteen Monk locations, worldwide, all equipped to do just one thing:

Provide the timely, cost-efficient sourcing and processing of preferred tobaccos that keep your operation flexible, cuttingedge, and competitive.

Monk: Any tobacco.

Anytime. Anywhere.

We Wouldn't Trade Our Newest Tobacco Source For All The Tea In China.