

Columar-Berg, Luxembourg.

June 21 - 1919.

Mister Dixon!

I received your amiable letter and I was very enjoye. We have thought so often to our nice officers, but we not had news. You are the first who write us and we are glad that you not have forget Columar-Berg and us. We are very glad that you arrived got in America, and that you have a better life then in the army.

I thank you very much, Mister Dixon for the nice views of your home town.

They please me very good. That must be a beautiful country. On this time Colmar. Berg are nicer than in Winter but the silent is the same.

Till now we have not news from Capt. Vairin. We hope that he arrived good at home.

That you left Colmar Berg, we had other soldiers from the 33th Division and they left Berg the 28 April.

We had this time a first Lieutenant.
On this time I can learn a little more English. What you think from my English writing? You must pardon me my many mistakes. Mister Dixon. I not now better.

With best regards from my parents and you thanking again for your nice letter

Sincerely Susie Schlachta.
