Dear Mr. Dixon:—

This is just a time to thank you & your wife for courtesies extended

John & myself on our recent visit to Edenton. — We have a big time; & I enjoyed it all immensely. —

Under separate cover
I am sending you a copy of "Contemporary Immortals" — just off the press. —

I hope you will feel disposed to hear it

I will get some sort of a "ride"
out of it. —

I was a little spoiled by my holiday; + find that I prefer reading detective stories to going back to work. — But I'll be in harness

again, sure enough. —

With very good wishes
Yours —

Cordially,

Whitely Henderson
