

Turnage To Perform At Campbell Concert

The Harnett County Historical Society Foundation, Inc., announces a benefit concert of internationally acclaimed opera star Wayne Turnage of Dunn in Turner Auditorium on the campus of Campbell University at 8:00 p.m., Saturday, December 8.

The Foundation was organized in 1977 to plan, promote, and implement the restoration of the eighty-nine-year old James Archibald Campbell Homestead near the campus of Campbell University.

Robert L. King, President of the Foundation, in making the announcement about the concert, said, "For one in such high demand as Wayne Turnage to agree to perform gratis is a strong testimony to his keen interest in our undertaking."

All proceeds from the concert

WAYNE TURNAGE

will be donated to the Restoration Fund.

Turnage graduated with a

B.A. in Music from Campbell University, which recently honored him with a Distinguished Alumnus citation. He also attended Indiana University and the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill where he received his Master of Music Degree in 1968.

He remained with the Metropolitan Opera Studio for three years and then debuted with the San Francisco Opera Company in Peter Grimes.

He has performed a wide range of roles, including Figaro in The Barber of Seville, Marcello in La Boheme, Sharpless in Madame Butterfly, Escamillo in Carmen, Papageno in The Magic Flute, Count Almaviva in The Marriage of Figaro, Robert Lincoln in the TV production of The Trial of Mary Lincoln, and Von Trapp in Sound of Music.

Upcoming engagements for 1980 include performances in the St. Louis Opera in January, the New Cleveland Opera in February, the Pittsburgh Opera in April, the Philadelphia Opera also in April, and at Kennedy Center in July.

At the Buies Creek concert Turnage will be accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Taylor Newton, another native of the Dunn area. A public school music teacher, she is a long-time organist at Dunn's First Baptist Church and is active in other church activities and civic affairs.

Price of admission is a minimum contribution of $5 per adult. Tickets may be obtained from John Aaron Senter of Lillington, Leonore Tuck, Max Callahan, Dorothea Stewart of Buies Creek, Alice Godwin of Dunn, and other members of the Foundation. Tickets may be ordered by writing to the Harnett County Historical Society Foundation, Box 247, Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506.

The Turnage family has had a long and meaningful relationship with the School in Buies Creek. Wayne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Furman Turnage of Dunn, were married in this house that Wayne is having a very real part in helping preserve. Dr. J.A. Campbell officiated at his parents' wedding.

Accepted 12/6
if Senate schedule allows

To all Smithsonian employees and friends

The Secretary and Mrs. Ripley

cordially invite you to join in celebrating the Christmas season

on Thursday, December 20

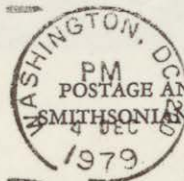

at the National Museum of Natural History

from 3:00 to 5:15 p.m.

R.S.V.P. 381-5542

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION
Washington, D.C. 20560

Official Business
Penalty for Private Use, $300

*The Honorable
Robert B. Morgan and Morgan
United States Senate
5313 Dirksen Building
Washington, D.C. 20510*