The Air force Reserve Officers Training Corps at East Carolina Teachers College has successfully completed its first year on the campus, and officers in charge are now preparing their program for the fall quarter of the 1949-1950 term. Colonel William D. Brown has been commanding officer of the ROTC unit here during the past school year.

Advanced students of the ROTC corps here will report to the Fourteenth Air Force Headquarters at Orlando, Florida, June 13, for six weeks of training at summer camp. Approximately 33 cadets will leave in June for the training period. Since the unit was not that activated here last September, this is the first year that East Carolina has been represented at the Orlando training base.

at the college are now being received. Those who wish to apply should write to he. J. K. Long, college registrar, for further information.
