The East Carolinian

Serving the East Carolina campus community since 1925

Vol.60 No.63 66

Wednesday, July 16, 1986

Greenville, N.C.

Circulation 5,000

8 Pages

Howell Reflects

J.B. HUMBERT — The East Carolinian

Chancellor John Howell will be retiring in 1987. During Howell's reign as Chancellor ECU became known as one of the most recognized schools in the south and added to it's facilities the ECU Medical School. See related story page 1.

Study Abroad

Italian Exchanges Planned

By BETH WHICKER Assistant News Editor

Beginning this fall ECU will begin a three-year program of instructional research with the University of Ferrara in Italy.

Eugene Ryan, dean of Arts and Sciences, described the program as "an exchange agreement which provides for the development of cultural and academic relationships between the two institutions.

Ryan explained the idea to begin a program of shared instruction has been in the making for four years. During the process of developing the program he met with officials of the Italian campus in planning the final details of the project.

"We wanted to develop closer ties with this program and Ferrara was the logical choice," said

For several years ECU has sponsored a summer school program in Ferrara, where American students spend several weeks at the Italian campus, participating in arts, humanities, and social science classes which emphasize European culture in general and Italian culture in particular.

"We planned to get a group together this year, but due to terrorism abroad, there wasn't enough interest," Ryan said.

In the past two years students have visited Italy through the summer exchange program.

"It's a great program for undergraduate students studying the arts, science, or history.

Graduate students can benefit by doing research in Italy," commented Ryan.

Not only will the exchange program be offered to students but to administrators, librarians, and technical staff as well.

The program includes the exchange of publications and sponsorship of occasional "joint symnposia". The agreement will be in force for three years.

ECU will gain much from the program with the University of Ferrara. According to Ryan ECU will add another dimension to its curriculum by offering the exchange program with the University of Ferrara.

"In coming years, a number of students will experience life in a different culture - firsthand, Ryan said.

Community Programs Planned For Future

By MIKE LUDWICK News Editor

In the upcoming years, ECU will strive to adapt its existing programs to better serve eastern North Carolina and even the nation, said Chancellor John Howell in an interview Friday.

Howell said serving the people around an institution and preparing students in those institutions is the key to surviving in the future.

"We are at a transition stage in higher education," Howell said, "We have to prepare our students to solve problems our professors don't even know exist."

"This is a tall order," he added, but if ECU does this well then eastern North Carolina will flourish. Howell said if eastern North Carolina flourishes then ECU will flourish.

"ECU is attuned to eastern North Carolina and its people," he said, "We want our professors to go out in the community and offer their expertise."

Applied research is the majority of the research conducted at ECU explained Howell. Applied research is applying one's knowledge to a situation. "We need to do a lot of it for eastern North Carolina," Howell said.

When Howell became Chancellor in 1982 there was a lot of in-state opposition to ECU. Howell said, though, that this situation is now coming to an

"What we have had throughout our history is some fiery opposition by people who thought they would be disadvantaged by the advancement of ECU," Howell said.

The last big battles, Howell explained, were over ECU's university status and it's Medical

"There is a change in opinion about ECU - not in excellence," he said. Howell added in the last five years the faculty has published the same amount as had been published in the preceeding 10 years. In other words, the faculty's publication rate has doubled.

Howell is optimistic about the future too. He said ECU has established itself, has a wide range of programs, and committed faculty and students.

"We have a solid foundation for the future," Howell said, "and we have the mind set to develop."

Another important factor, Howell said, is the attitude of the students. "Students come here to get an education," he said, "They come to prepare themselves for a career and this See ECU Page 2.

Rapist's Death Scheduled

RALEIGH, N.C. (UPI) -Convicted murderer and rapist John Rook is scheduled to be executed Sept. 19 for the 1980 slaying of Raleigh nurse, Ann Marie

Judge Robert Farmer set the date in a 15-minute hearing Tuesday in Wake County Superior Court, where Rook, 27, was convicted and sentenced six years ago for the kidnapping, rape and murder of Roche. Roche was beaten with a tire iron, slashed with a fishing knife, run over by a car and left to die in an isolated Rook had been scheduled to die by lethal injection Valentine's Day this year, but the Supreme Court granted him a stay of execution Feb. 10 — the third time his execution date had been postponed.

The new execution date was set after the Supreme Court denied Rook's appeal July 7. State law requires an execution date to be set 60 to 90 days after the Superior Court hearing.

Two death row inmates have been executed in North Carolina since the death penalty was reinstituted in 1976.

David Rudolf, Rook's attorney, has said he believes the issues raised in his client's appeal have merit. Rudolf had hoped to argue before the Supreme Court that a taped confession was illegally obtained and therefore unreliable. He also claimed the trial judge erred in instructing the jury and that death penalty opponents were systematically excluded from the jury.

Rudolf also planned to argue Rook was an abused child, who the state failed to help. As part of the appeals process, Rudolf introduced as evidence that Rook would have qualified as a Willie M child. In 1980, state officials agreed to provide appropriate treatment and education for such problem children.

Rudolf also had argued in Rook's case that the death penalty discriminated against the murderers of white victims. Before adjourning for a threemonth break, the Supreme Court last week decided to review whether the death penalty is imposed in a racially discriminatory way as presented in a Georgia

Based on that ruling, Rudolf asked Farmer to hold off the execution date until after Oct. 6, when the Supreme Court is scheduled to reconvene.

Extreme Caution, Awareness Cited In Rape Prevention

By LYNN WEAVER

Behavioral Science Unit of the be alert. FBI Academy in Virginia, made it clear that there is no valid information about what women can do to defend themselves during a sexual attack. Doctors interviewed men who had raped ten or more women and results were not only surprising, but also contradictory.

The rapists advice to women ually assaulted. was so different that the doctors decided it could be hazadous to offer the advice.

Although the results to the tactics that could be used in her study seemed negative, Lt. Keith Knox, Crime Prevention officer at ECU Public Saftey and Officer James Tripp, Juvenile Division that can be taken.

They agree the use of general caution and alertness can help studies found that women who prevent the risk of being attack-

Considering the recent rapes in bodily injury." the Greenville area, women are extreme caution in these areas.

On The Inside

Announcements......2 Classifieds......10 Sports.....8

Win if you can, lose if you must, but learn to take your whippings without a whimper.

-Walter Camp

to use general safety tips such as; report. don't travel alone at night, keep Recent studies by the doors and windows locked, and

Another tip they add is to keep keys in hand when walking, because if needed they could be used as a weapon in self defense. Even when extreme caution is used, women still have a chance of being attacked. National studies state that one out of every three women is sex-

When a woman is attacked she should keep her thoughts straight and reflect on any self defense particular situation. According to May Lystead, chief of the National Center for the Prevention and Control of of the Greenville Police Depart- Rape, there is little truth to the ment, both feel there are actions myth that resistance will increase a woman's risk of being injured. Lystead states, "Two new resisted an attack were more likely to escape, with only slight She added women who acted advised to keep alert to where the passively and cried made rapes have taken place and use themselves look unappealing and defenseless, which made their attackers seem more powerful. In short submissive victims are more likely to be raped and the resistant victims were more likely to > escape. Although the FBI's studies are contradictory, they have to be taken into account. The men who had raped mass amounts of women proved to have many different motives and ideas about the rapes and the victims.

> "Some of the rapists said, 'Tell them to scream, fight, and claw like hell,' but others said, 'Tell women to give in, because the guy is going to rape her no matter

Knox and Tripp advise women what he has to do," states the Knox explained there are many different factors involved with each situation. Specific advice can not be given to women unless a specific situation can be made.

Victims should try to figure out the rapist's motives and then decide which approach they should take, whether it be resistance or submission. Surviving a sexual attack is the most important thing to remember. When followed, the above advice could help prevent an attack. If by chance a rape happened to occur here are some steps to follow:

• The victim should try to gather her thoughts, stay calm and get to a safe place. Call or alert someone that help is needed. The Police Department is available to help. A victim is not obligated to prosecute.

•If the authorities have not already been notified, report the attack as soon as possible. If there is physical injury go immediately to a local hospital. Do not change your clothing or clean yourself off. Do not apply medication.

 Victims are advised to receive pregnancy and venereal disease

•Even if the woman decides not to prosecute, she should seek psychological counseling. (In Greenville rape victims can call the Pitt County Mental Health Center at 752-7151 or East Carolina Student Counseling Center at 757-6661.)

Most victims will be advised to prosecute, but just reporting the sexual assault is a vital step in finding and arresting the rapist.

Knox stated although it may be difficult for the victim, they

that would help the police locate the rapists.

A rapist will usually repeat his sexual attacks against women. "Virtually there has never been a one time rapist," added Knox.

amount of local rapes, people should know how to report a sexual assault or rape they might hear or see. Citizens should give description as possible of what is their precise location, who they might include some small detail are and the phone number of the witness should also try to gain of information about the attack phone the call is being made on. other's attention, by either call-> individual as completely as possible, which will help with locating the rapist for arrest.

sexual assault or rape taking inform the law enforcement Considering the increasing place, start shouting as loud as possible while approaching the scene cautiously," advises Knox.

"If you come upon an actual

Get as good of a mental happening and of the rapist. The or by another citizen.

The witness should describe the ing the police or alerting neighbors.

> Knox alerts people to, "If you see any woman being grabbed or pushed and she seems reluctant agencies, because this report could possibly prevent a rape

from actually taking place." Rapes can easily be prevented either by the women themselves

Dress Rehearsal

J.B. HUMBERT — The East Carolinian

Bonita Williams and Olivia Scott, costume assistants are shown above working on a "mock-up" of a costume to be used during the East Carolina Playhouse production of "Greater Tuna". The production is scheduled to run July 28 through August 2.

Announcements

Summer Games

The Mendenhall Olympics The 1986 Sum mer Games" is being sponsored by the Student Union on Thursday, July 24 at 3 p.m. in Mendenhall Student Center All ECU students, faculty, staff, and their dependents 13 yrs and older may register by completing a form in the Billiards Center by Tuesday. July 22 There is no entry fee Compete in 5 out of 7 sports to win "olympic" medals. Activities include bowling, billiards, table tennis, darts, video games, trivia, and ring toss. If you don't want to compete, come cheer on your triends at the first annual Mendenhall Olympics For additional information, call

Ushers Needed ECU students interested in seeing the Summer Theatre productions "The Foreigner" or "Deathtrap" may see them for free by ushering (a savings of $12 a ticket). The sign up sheets are located on the bulletin board beside room 110 in the Messick Theatre Arts Building Usher re quirements are posted with sign up sheet! Please no phone calls!

Watermelon Feast A Watermeion Feast is being sponsored by frees on the Mall. All you can eat. free!

WAREHOUSE

QUALITY TOO

PRICES

the Student Union Recreation Committee on Thursday, July 17th at 3 p.m. on the ECU mall. All are welcome. Eat delicious ice cold. watermelon and socialize under the shade

Chinese Language I, II

An introduction to the Chinese language No previous study of Chinese required Through two semester of intensive training in the basic skills of understanding, speak ing, reading and writing Chinese, students will be able to understand basic Chinese and carry on a simple conversation. This course serves as an excellent preparation for ad vanced study or for a professional career in which understanding of China is essential The class will be taught Tuesday and Thursday from 1:00 p.m to 2 15 p.m. in

Brewster C302

Japanese Language

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures is pleased to announce that t will continue its offering of 1st and 2nd semester Japanese language courses in the coming academic year These courses are taught with video cassettes under the supervision of a native Japanese instructor The course will meet M.W.Th.F. at 1.00. For further information call the Department

ECU's Expansion

Continued From Page 1. makes a good educational set-

Howell added the Med School will continue to grow. He said the Med School and hospital have just now completed their first phase, "the basics",

Along with an expanding medical park, he said, will be the development of all the periferial of Foreign Languages and Literatures at this will not only improve the with the university. park but help the local economy.

and will now expand.

As ECU grows, Howell explained, the fund raising efforts at ECU will have to continue. Only in the last few years have universities realized that they need to raise private money. "Only in the last few years," Howell said, "have we organized and staffed an institution to raise

Howell, who plans to retire in 1987, said the one unique aspect services that grow up along side a of his tenure as Chancellor has major medical park. Howell said been Mrs. Howell's involvement

Campus Voice

757 6611 ext. 260 or 239

Do you think state, local, or national governments should legislate morals?

Laurie Hillis

the supermarket with

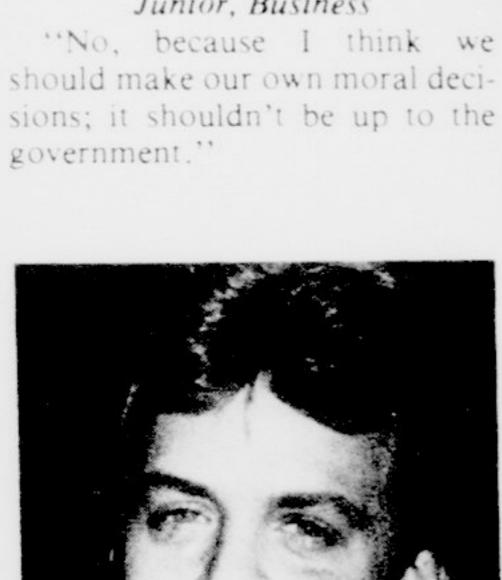

Plus Jouble Coupons (See store for details)

WE WILL MATCH ANY ADVERTISED GROCERY FEATURE PRICE IN GREENVILLE

Excluding Meat, Produce, Deli, Bakery & Continuity Bonus Items. Bring Current Week Food Store Ad With You. We Will Match Like Items or Equal Quality.

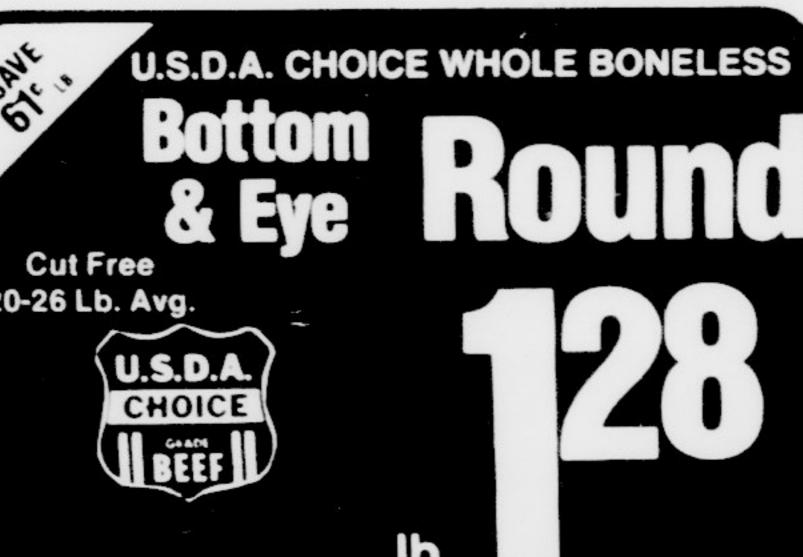

Debra Whaley

Richard Pond Senior, History

Mark Pepper Junior, Physical Education "No. The reason is I think my parents brought me up right to where I can choose my own morals."

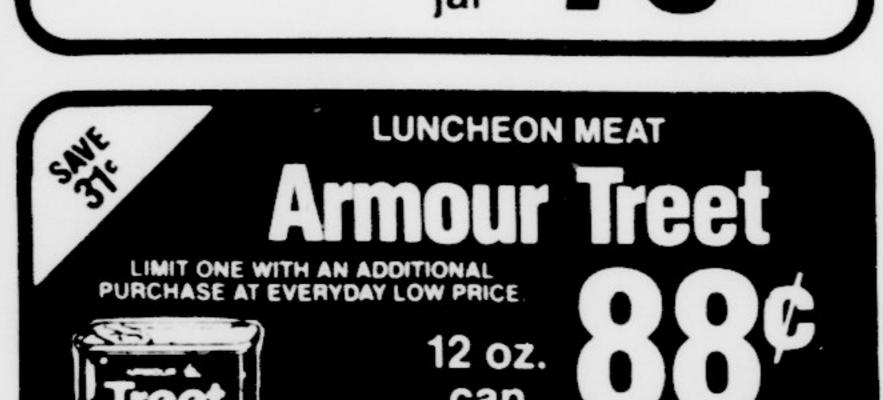

DUKE'S

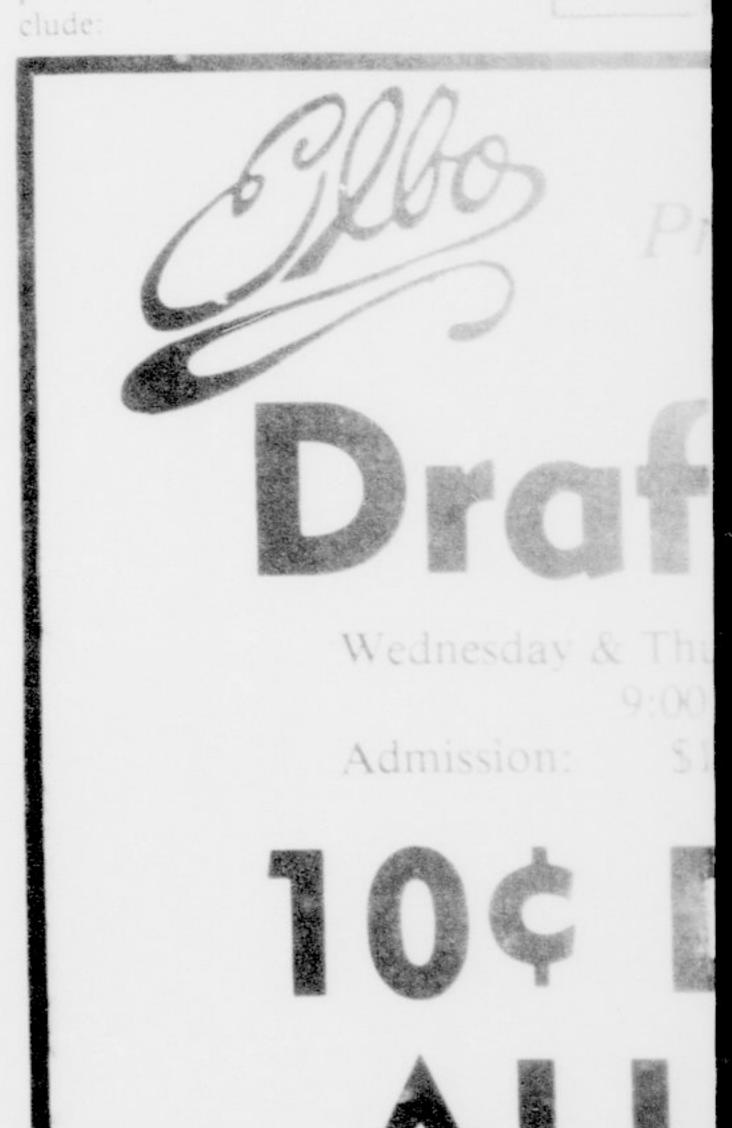

OPEN SUNDAY 7 A.M.—11 P.M. CLOSE SAT. 11 P.M. 703 GREENVILLE BLVD. • OPEN 24 HOURS

"I know Bob Brown

Mary Elesha Adam

ECU's Expansion

Jouble Coupons

s. Bring Current Week Food

WESTERN GROWN JUMBO

PLUMP RIPE

REGULAR OR BUTTER FLAVOR

FLAV-O-RICH 1/2%

gal. jug

qual Quality.

From Page 1. ed educational set-

ed the Med School

to grow. e Med School and just now completed ase, "the basics", expand.

h an expanding he said, will be the of all the periferial row up along side a I park. Howell said only improve the with the university. the local economy.

As ECU grows, Howell explained, the fund raising efforts at ECU will have to continue. Only in the last few years have black North Carolina universities realized that they businessman, who may become need to raise private money. the next U.S. Ambassador to "Only in the last few years," South Africa, draws high marks Howell said, "have we organized from the unlikely duo of the Rev. and staffed an institution to raise Jesse Jackson, a Democrat, and

Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C. Howell, who plans to retire in Robert Brown, a former Nixon 1987, said the one unique aspect of his tenure as Chancellor has White House aide who runs a been Mrs. Howell's involvement public relations firm in High Point, N.C., won praise from both the left and right Monday as government sources confirmed he > is a candidate for the job. "I know Bob Brown and have known him for years," said the

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A

tainly I would welcome a chance to support him."

Jackson, a civil rights leader and 1984 Democratic presidential candidate, called Brown "a decent man with integrity and great ability. If, in fact, appointing him as ambassador is a forerunner of a change of policy, it would be a step in the right direc-

But Randall Robinson, cochairman of the Free South Africa Movement and a leading was "not job hunting." critic of the administration's policy toward the racially torn tions tactic.

"I don't think it serves any useful purpose to put a black face on what is perceived globally and particularly in South Africa to be an anti-black policy," Robinson

Brown, 51, is a Republican who has participated in the State Department's Working Group on South Africa. He could not be reached for comment Monday, but a spokeswoman stressed he

The administration is reviewarch-conservative Helms. "Cer- pointing Brown as a public rela- and a state of emergency imposed nalist.

on the nation by the whiteminority regime in Pretoria.

Carolinian Named As Candidate

Shultz is expected to detail the policy review July 23 in congreshave said President Reagan plans to stand by his policy of "constructive engagement" — leaving diplomatic channels and U.S. in- to the United Nations during the endorse." vestment in South Africa intact in order to retain influence.

White House and State Department spokesmen declined to comment on whether Brown would be ing its South African policy in the tapped to succeed Ambassador nation, dismissed the idea of ap- wake of escalating racial violence Herman Nickel, a former jour-

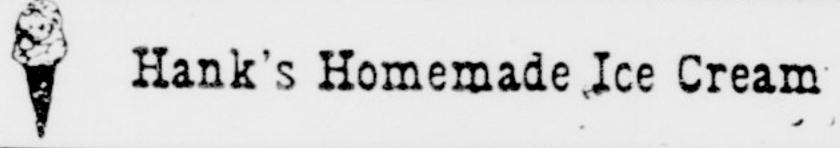

Secretary of State George the first black diplomat in South Africa. The U.S. consul-general in Capetown, John Ferguson, is sional testimony, but officials black, as are several foreign am-

In Atlanta, Mayor Andrew Young, controversial ambasador

If the projections are higher L_____ CLIP THIS COUPON ______

If appointed and approved by Carter administration, said the Senate, Brown would not be Brown had his "highest endorse-

"I can't think of anybody more qualified to represent this country in such a difficult situation," Young said. "In fact, he is probably the only person Jesse Helms and I could both

This Coupon is good for

321 FAST 10th STREET

50¢ OFF

any Blend-in or Sundae

Coupon Good Thru July 22nd, 1986

CONTACT LENSES

$105.00 DAILY WEAR

$145.00 EXTENDED WEAR

Includes exams, lenses, care kit and follow-up for one month Student I.D. No other discounts apply.

> OPTOMETRIC EYE CARE CENTER ?

The Tipton Annex 228 Greenville Blvd.

Greenville, N.C. 27834

Financial Awards Reduced For Fall

- About 290,000 students won't starting at the end of June in says Patricia Smith of the ACE. get Pell Grants and another order to keep within its budget. "They have been wrong several 500,000 will get smaller grants But the American Council on times before."

The department expects If ACE calculated that the Jamroz. $369 million more in Pell Grants billion of its 1985 fiscal year Pell uses past financial data to project the program.

As a result, the department had spent $3.75 billion.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CPS) eliminating Pell Grant awards Education Dept.'s) estimates," Pell Grants.

during the next school year if the Education last week said the "We just want to hold their U.S. Dept. of Education persists "shortfall" is probably closer to feet to the fire," she adds. isn't accurate. need to suffer aid cuts.

students will qualify for some government had used $3.48 The Education Department than Congress appropriated for Grant budget through May, while how much money it needs for money," Smith reports. the Education Dept. estimated it says it'll start reducing and even "We are skeptical of their (the

in believing in a number that $90 million than to $369 million. The department remains unmany education lobbyists say just If so, fewer students would bowed. "We are holding to our estimate," says spokesman Bob than the amount Congress appropriates for Pell Grants, the department must reduce the number of the awards to

Consequently, "If the estimates are inflated, we'll have to keep scratching for more

Medical School Receives Grants

My boyfriend has a "bad back" and constantly reinjures himself. How can I keep the same thing from happening to me? It's estimated that 8 out of 10 Americans will have a back injury sometime during their lives.

> The Health Column By Mary Elesha Adams

Preventing back injuries can be as simple as learning proper lifting and moving techniques, eliminating excess body weight, strengthening neglected back muscles, and adopting good posture habits at work, home, and play. Proper lifting includes: -Get a firm footing. Keep your feet apart for a stable base with the toes pointed out. -Bend your knees. Don't bend at the waist! -Tighten your stomach muscles.

Abdominal muscles support your spine when you lift. -Lift with your legs. Let your powerful leg muscles do the work of lifting, not your weaker back muscles. -Keep the load close to your body; the closer it is to your spine, the less force it exerts on your back. -Keep your back upright. Whether lifting or putting down the load, don't add the weight of your body to the load. Avoid twisting because it can cause in-

Other ways to decrease the possibility of back injuries in-

· Reduce stress. Your spine is sensitive to muscular tension that builds up during a stress-filled day. Learn to relax and unwind.

· Lose weight. The farther a potbelly juts out in front, the more force it puts on the back. Exercise. Eighty percent of back pain can be traced to lack of exercise.

 Avoid sitting for long periods of time. Get up, stretch, and walk around occasionally.

· At your desk, work at a comfortable height that doesn't make you slouch or reach.

• Sleeping rests the back. Use a firm mattress. Sleep on your side with knees bent or on your back with your knees elevated.

CONSOLIDATED

Legal

Eagles

Held Over

By RUSTY HARRINGTON Staff Writer

ECU school of medicine have been awarded research grants from the North Carolina Biotechnology Center for projects that seem "promising" in the fact that they may increase the state's economy through their findings in the biotechnical field.

Henry Stone and Stellwag, both of the ECU Medical School, were awarded $25,000 and $18,500 respectively for their proposed research pro-

Stone's research project, entitled "Cloning of the Newcastle Disease Virus Gene for Fusion Protein," involves the development of a newer, more powerful vaccine to prevent Newcastle disease, a major killer of poultry and wild birds. The development

Adults $2.00 TIL CHILDREN ANYTIME

WRQR & Record Bar present

ALIENS

756-3307 • Greenville Square Shopping Center

Sneak Preview

Robin Williams & Peter O'Toole in

Club Paradise

-PG-13-

Rob Lowe in

Showing of

Ends Thursday Wednesday July 16, 9:30 p.m.

of this vaccine, besides being a deterrent to new strains of the Two faculty members from the disease, will also be a help to further the state's poultry industry, which is one of the largest in the

> In his proposed project, "Microbial Detergent Compatible Lipases," Stellwag hopes to isolate microorganisms that produce lipases, which are biochemicals that digest or degrade certain fats, common to grease stains on clothing. Stellwag plans to add these lipases to laundry detergents and see if they are able to replace current additives which are damaging to the environment. This could affect the detergent manufacturing industry by allowing for shorter wash cycles and lower washing temperatures, thus making an impact on the household.

ATTENTION: East Carolina College Students

Diamonds 14 K Gold Pearls Colored Gems

Pendants Earrings

Fine Jewelers Since 1893

Bracelets Solitaires Trios

RHI)S

Coupon good for 10% off any regular priced jewelry

in Reeds Carolina East Store

2 Piece Chicken Combo (Original Recipe® or

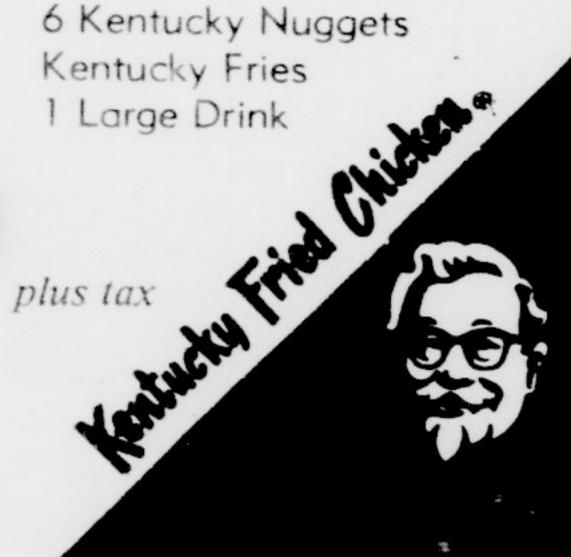

Extra Crispytm

Small Mashed Potato

& Gravy

Biscuit

OR

We Do Chicken Right

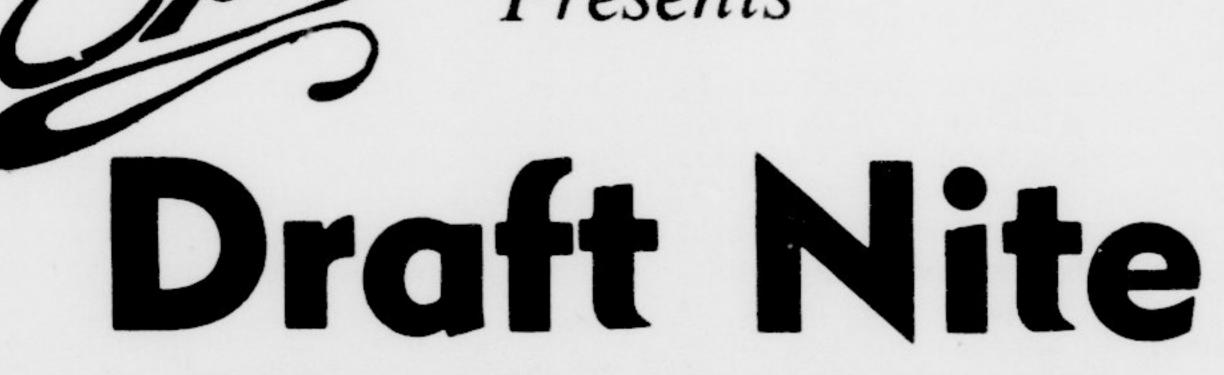

Expires 8-20-86

ireat 2:00, 4:30, 7:00, 9:15 Presents

REGULAR - LIGHT

BLVD. • OPEN 24 HOURS

Wednesday & Thursday, July 16 & 17, 1986 9:00 til 2:00 a.m. Admission: $1.50 Guys $1.00 Ladies

10¢ DRAFT ALLINITE

85 Item Salad and Hot Bar All You Can Eat $2.99

A great place to eat!

The East Carolinian

Serving the East Carolina campus community since 1925

TOM LUVENDER, General Manager DANIEL MAURER, Managing Editor

MIKE LUDWICK, News Editor SCOTT COOPER, Sports Editor JOHN SHANNON, Features Editor DECHANILE JOHNSON, Art Director

STEVE FOLMAR, Director of Advertising ANTHONY MARTIN, Business/Credit Manager MEG NEEDHAM, Circulation Manager SHANNON SHORT, Production Manager

July 16, 1986

OPINION

Page 4

Pornography

Meese Commission On The Warpath

The New Republic

In the conservative dialectic that defines the Reagan counterrevolution, the report of the Meese commission - known officially as the Attorney General's Commission on Obscenity and Pornography - is designed to be the antithesis of its ancestor, the notorious 1970 report of the federal Commission on Obscenity and Pornography.

sions are indeed antithetical, and not only in the ways Meese intended. If the old commission was the federal equivalent of Playboy, the new one is the equivalent of Hustler - low-budget, weak on factchecking, unsubtle, and fascinated by the perverse.

The 1970 commission had a budget of $2 million, a staff of 22, and two years to complete its mission. That mission, as defined by Congress, was to analyze the obscenity laws, to study the effects on the public of the traffic in obscenity and pornography, and, if necessary, to recommend ways to "regulate effectively the kind of local crusaders for decency who flow of such traffic." The 1970 commis- are forever trying to bar supposedly dirty sion sponsored a wide range of original books from schools and libraries. One research by reputable scholars, doesn't need to exaggerate the likely impsychologists, and universities.

of nine, and one year to complete its mis- jobs.

and to recommend "more effective ways in which the spread of pornography could be contained." The 1986 commission sponsored no original research, and its consultants were mostly policemen and antiporn activists.

public positions on pornography, but the tent humor as this one. rest had not.

against sexy books and films. One of the taken seriously." commissioners, for example, is a Franciscan priest who has condemned Dr. Ruth Westheimer, the chirpy radio sex adviser,

The Meese commission lacked the financial and staff resources of its predecessor, seems wise.

but since its conclusions were preordained, it didn't really need them.

The Meese report will recommend a long list of stern measures. They include changing obscenity laws to make any second offense a felony rather than a misdemeanor, with a manda ory one-year jail term; prosecuting the producers of porn films under the prostitution laws (because the actors are paid for their work); changing the The two reports and the two commis- forfeiture laws to permit the government to confiscate the assets of any business found in violation of the federal obscenity laws (allowing, for example, the seizure of a whole convenience store for the sale of a single dirty magazine); and a big enforcement push, including the appointment of a "high-level" Justice Department task force on obscenity cases.

Where the pornography in question is too mild to bring the obscenity laws into play, the report somewhat cautiously recommends "private action" picketing, boycotts, and the like.

The Meese commission will encourge the pact of this sort of thing to understand that The 1986 commission, by contrast, had it will be real enough for the a budget of $400,000 (the equivalent in schoolteachers and librarians forced to 1970 dollars of around $150,000), a staff choose between their consciences and their

Finally, the commmission will probably That mission, as defined by Ed Meese, succeed in its goal of encouraging local was to study the impact of pornography prosecutors to do their worst. Given the commission's loose definition of harmful pornography and the advent of the Rehnquist Supreme Court, their worst might ultimately turn out to be quite bad.

The commission's report will be widely reau, because even a government book By all accounts the 1970 commission apaabout sex is still a book about sex. And it's proached its duties with an open mind. especially irresistible if it's as fat, as Two or three of its 18 members had taken obsessed with kink, and as full of inadver-

A final apposite example of the last: The 1986 commission has been stacked After a long section on the problem of to prevent unwelcome surprises. Of its 11 "underprosecution," the commissioners members, six have well-established public conclude, "We urge that many of the records of supporting government action specific recommendations we suggest be

How wonderfully lame. The logically required corollary of course, would be this: "We urge that some of the recommendafor advocating orgasms in premarital sex. tions we suggest not be taken seriously."

Though insufficiently inclusive, this

Political Protocol

Politician By Any Other Name

Jimmy Carter was in the news last security, and if President Carter has been made, oh, queen, agreed to be sirweek - he walked out on an affair in Zimbabwe featuring an excoriation by Zimbabwe's foreign minister of the United States for our failure to declare war on South Africa.

Last Monday, the former president, who had flown to Chicago to build

On The Right

By WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY

another low-income house, was on the "Today" show, explaining that wasn't what the foreign minister had said about U.S. policy toward South Africa - Carter agreed with all that it was the circumstances in which the criticisms were made (Fourth of July, bad manners, that sort of thing).

But what arrested attention wasn't Jimmy Carter's views on South Africa, which are the same as Amy's. It was that Bryant Gumbel, the sophisticated and trend-smart anchorman of the "Today" show, twice referred to Jimmy Carter as "Mr. Carter."

If this is indeed a trend — the rerepublicanization of America - then it is very much worth paying attention to. It happens that I knew Herbert Hoover, and in the half-dozen times I was with him, I heard no one refer to him as "Mr. President." He was either "Mr. Hoover" or "Chief."

The tradition is of long standing. Thomas Jefferson could not wait until he could once again be called "Mr. Jefferson." The antagonism of the Founding Fathers to titles and all that titled British foppery stuff deeply influenced idiomatic usage.

My impression is that it was Harry Truman who more or less let it be for the most part utter phony baloney in known that he expected to be called Mr. President until the day he died. For all the hoopla about his origins as a man of the people, Harry Truman was the most rank-conscious president in memory. Twenty years after the event he was still riled that Gen. MacArthur did not initiate, or else did not reciprocate something - when they met on Wake

Island to discuss the Korean War. That kind of thing is the mark of in-

given out the word that he wishes from red). now on to be "Mr. Carter," then that is a healthy development. One likes to think that Cincinnatus, after turning his sword back into a plowshare, told his fellow Romans they could stop calling him "Dictator;" just plain Cincinnatus would do.

The protocols are not fixed on the matter. And as often as not, they are set not by the principal, but by courtiers. Not necessarily for ignoble reasons, but in search of courtesy.

I can think of two people who call the doesn't seem to care, real nice. But office I work in. If the call is announced by their secretay or telephone operator, to orthodoxy and adopt a new first one learns that "ambassador" so and so name: James. is calling. If ambassador so and so is calling himself (herself), then one hears, "This is Mr. X calling, or this is Mrs. Y

Some people, for reasons that don't neccssarily relate to vanity, retain their titles generations after they exercised the appropriate office. Thus the late Gov. Charles Edison was Gov. Edison 30 years after he was governor.

One runs into people who occupy so many offices one has to pause to wonder which honorific they prefer: Elliot Richardson could be called ambassador (Great Britian), Mr. Attorney General, or Mr. Secretary (secretary of HEW, secretary of defense). He goes by Mr. Richardson.

Nelson Rockefeller preferred "Governor" even when he was Mr. Vice President, Mr. Vice President consuming, as it does, a most egregious number of syllables.

The case for permanent titles can still be made. John Adams once remarked that a country is better off draining personal ambition through titles than through power. But of course titles are any serious sense.

G.K. Chesterton said in effect that six men are given a pick and a shovel, and the one who finds coal becomes Lord Northumberland. It continues to mean a great deal in Britain: to conservatives, because they want to reaffirm their belief in The System (thus Harold Macmillan finally relented, at age 90, and accepted a hereditary earldom; and Winston Churchill, who could have

And socialists like it because except within a very pure strain, socialists tend to like personal pomp. I made the mistake recently of referring to Harold Wilson as Sir Harold, and the sometime leader of the British forces of socialism lifted his finger to his lips and said, correcting me, "Lord Wilson."

Of course, I was glad to lord him for the balance of the hour, and would be glad, if he wanted it, to call Jimmy Carter Mr. President. But it's nice he while at it, he could simultaneously nod

Conservative Columnist William F. Buckley is Editor of the Nation, a prestigious political magazine.

Campus Spectrum Rules

In addition to the "Campus Forum" section of the Editorial Page, The East Carolinian has reestablished the "Campus Spectrum." This is an opinion column featuring guest writers from the student body and faculty. The columns printed in the "Campus Spectrum" will contain current topics of concern to the campus, community or nation.

The columns are restricted in content only with regard to rules of grammer and decency. Persons submitting columns must be willing to accept "by-line" credit for their efforts, as no entrys from ghost writers will be published.

Persons interested in participating or seeking further information may contact Daniel Maurer, managing editor of The East Carolinian at 757-6366, or stop by our offices on the second floor of the Publications

this week, from Wednesday Might Makes Right Against Libyan Terrorism through Saturday

several Muppet movies, and the can Dark Crystal, we might ask Jim screen Henson and company, "what has br next?" What next is Labyrinth, a to mu wonderful fantasy starring David The D

Monty Python, and an executive created producer you just might have from heard of named George Lucas. pillar?

named Sarah (Connelly) wishes done f in frustration that her little which brother be taken by Goblins, and as five is horrified when he in fact is main taken by Jareth (Bowie), the wrinkli Goblin King. She seeks to get her Hoggli baby brother back and is moven transported to Jareth's world particu where she must get through the is Sir Labyrinth that surrounds terrier Jareth's castle before her brother gentles

ny. Henson takes his penchant enemie

Charlie Baker (Jerry verDorn) listens

sults concerning his mother. 'The Fo

and is playing tonight, Thursday, Fri

Theatre

The East Carolina Summer 8:15

Theatre will import two popular daytime television stars for its production of Ira Levin's mystery-comedy Deathtrap, set for a one-week run Monday through Saturday, July 21-26 at

By RUSTY HARRINGTON

To help us to keep students informed of goings-on around

Greenville, we at The East

Carolinian would appreciate your

input regarding local entertainment possibilities. If you know of any concerts or events that could

be listed in our weekly run-down,

let us know by calling 757-6366

on weekdays between 10 a.m.

and 5 p.m., or leave a written

message at the East Carolinian

variety of live music, starting

Wednesday with the heavy metal

heavy metal sound with Morriah;

with rock and roll and on Saturday The Bill Lyerly Blues Band

At The Attic this week will be a UII

of Centaur. On Thursday, more Come

Friday, Mannekin takes the stage Beach and Messablues will be the pies i

For the lounge lizards out day

there, the Sheraton feature Melt- Depre

Down on Wednesday, and the Train

Ramada Inn's Veranda lounge rolli

will host Jo Daddy every night

Bowie and Jennifer Connelly.

In Labyrinth, a young girl of arm is himself turned into a goblin.

Summer Movie

Muppets N

By ED TOSHACH After "The Mupper Show," The D

By the way, "and company" this time includes Terry Jones of Labyri

Labyrinth is at times very fun- courage

.

revenge. We have not seen the end of this."..."The use of such force is much more likely to promote and expand terrorism."..."What we've really done is weaken the moderate, pro-American factions within the Libyan elite."..."No one...discerns light at the end of the tunnel or believes that this latest escalation of violence is more than another loop in an endless cycle of war in which Colonel Qaddafi is only one, minor, if temporarily prominent, figure." These sentiments are what a high-ranking FBI offical, an editorial writer for the Nation, a professor of government and Middle East specialist at Harvard, and the leader of the British Labour Party had in common as the smoke cleard from Tripoli. What they have in common now is little embarrass-It seems that the immediate fears of even the

"We can expect Qaddafi to go all out in seeking

Reagan administration were premature. Its most realistic expectation — a short-term wave of retaliatory terroist activity - simply has not happened. The opposite has: since the raid, State Department sources report a major decline in the number of terrorist incidents against Americans.

In the three and a half months since, there have been two wounded and two murders. Of the two deaths, one was an immediate reprisal in Beirut and one an unconnected death in kidnap custody in Colombia.

It can't be proven that the raid deterred terrorism that would have otherwise occurred. But it can no longer be said that retaliation inevitably escalates the level of violence. If the raid was supposed to deter, these figures could hardly be better. Still, most opposition to the raid was not based simply on a fear of reprisal. Critics pointed to the splits in the Atlantic alliance that unilateral in-

.. Since the raid (on Tripoli), State Department sources report a major decline in the number of terrorist incidents against Americans.

tervention would allegedly precipitate, to the counterproductive impact the attack would have within Libya, and to the impossibility of striking effectively at a vast network of terrorism, mostly perpetrated from Damascus and MoscowOn all three counts, the case has gotten weaker as the days have gone by.

In Europe, anti-American rhetoric has been suspended by a flurry of antiterrorist activity. The French, for example, condemned the raid but somehow managed at the Tokyo summit to approve a tough antiterrorist communique of a kind they had rejected at all previous top-level meetings.

Italian prime minister Craxi's protestations were followed by a move to transfer Italy's oil dependence from Libya to Nigeria and the North Sea, just as the Reagan administration had been urging him to do. These shifts were complemented by three breakthroughs: the conviction of the Brighton bombers in Britain, the Achille Lauro trial in Italy, and the slow easing of the French hostage crisis in Lebanon.

Even the long-delayed Anglo-American extradition treaty finally passed the Senate. If all this activity represents a "crisis in the alliance," we could do with more of them.

The real surprise of the last few weeks, though, has been Libya itself. The predicted upsurge of national unity behind Qaddafi has failed to materalize. Instead, his disappearance and subsequent blustering and incoherent televised addresses point to an acceleration in his decline.

He was both personally shaken and politically destabilized by the affair. Qaddafi has retreated into seclusion before and managed to survive, but his recent addresses have been greeted with what must be ominous public indifference.

The impact on Hafez al-Assad of Syria is much more difficult to gauge. It is undoubtedly too much to expect that his denunciations of international terrorism on his recent trip to Greece (after bearhugging Papandreou at the Athens airport) were any less cynical than usual, but they may just reflect new calculations of American resolve.

In any case, for the moment at least, Assad has more pressing priorities than terrorism. the collapse of his own economy under the pressure of falling oil prices and serious domestic disorder (including bomb attacks) make adventurism less seductive. And Soviet support is not as reliable as it once was. The Soviet SA5 missiles, which Assad has to rely upon for Syrian defense, performed poorly in Tripoli, and the Soviets took care to distance themselves from Libya after the raid. The West may yet be subject to retaliatory moves. But in the aftermath of Tripoli, one central conclusion remains. Direct military intervention against terrorism can have an immediate and sustained effect: it can both instantly deter and, over a period of time, tilt the balance in diplomacy and security against the momentum of terrorism.

The traditional argument distiguishing between "European" and "American" approaches to terrorism creates a false dichotomy. The lesson of Tripoli is that military strikes and constitutional and legal strategies, far from being mutually exclusive, are indispensable complements.

This combination of strategies reminds beleaguered societies that there is nothing uniquely invincible about terrorist power. Terrorists make calculations about the costs of their activities, and these calculations can be changed by force.

It also demonstrates that regaining the initiative by a sure military strike may help rather that hinder the more mundane, if essential, pressure we are used to applying. And for those still uncertain about the ethics of force, the uneasy calm of the last few months should carry at leat some moral weight.

Other Name

made, oh, queen, agreed to be sir-

And socialists like it because except a very pure strain, socialists tend like personal pomp. I made the stake recently of referring to Harold Wilson as Sir Harold, and the sometime eader of the British forces of socialism ifted his finger to his lips and said, corthe balance of the hour, and would be glad, if he wanted it, to call Jimmy Carter Mr. President. But it's nice he doesn't seem to care, real nice. But ultaneously nod

Buckley is Editor of the Nation, a

Campus Spectrum Rules

In addition to the "Campus forum' section of the Editorial Page. The East Carolinian has reestablished the "Campus Spectrum." This is an opinion column featuring guest writers from the student body and faculty. The columns printed in the "Campus Spectrum" will contain current topics of concern to the campus, community or nation.

The columns are restricted in content only with regard to rules of grammer and decency. Persons submitting columns must be willing to iccept "by-line" credit for their eforts, as no entrys from ghost writers will be published.

Persons interested in participating or seeking further information may contact Daniel Maurer, managing editor of The East Carolinian at 757-6366, or stop by our offices on the second floor of the Publications

n Terrorism

prices and serious domestic disorder (including bomb attacks) make adventurism less seductive.

And Soviet support is not as reliable as it once was. The Soviet SA5 missiles, which Assad has to rely upon for Syrian defense, performed poorly in Tripoli, and the Soviets took care to distance themselves from Libya after the raid.

The West may yet be subject to retaliatory moves. But in the aftermath of Tripoli, one central conclusion remains. Direct military intervention against terrorism can have an immediate and sustained effect: it can both instantly deter and, over a period of time, tilt the balance in diplomacy and security against the momentum of terrorism.

The traditional argument distiguishing between 'European' and "American' approaches to terrorism creates a false dichotomy. The lesson of Tripoli is that military strikes and constitutional and legal strategies, far from being mutually exclusive, are indispensable complements.

This combination of strategies reminds beleaguered societies that there is nothing uniquely invincible about terrorist power. Terrorists make calculations about the costs of their activities, and these calculations can be changed by force.

It also demonstrates that regaining the initiative by a sure military strike may help rather that hinder the more mundane, if essential, pressure we are used to applying. And for those still uncertain about the ethics of force, the uneasy calm of the last few months should carry at leat some moral weight.

Lifestyles

Charlie Baker (Jerry verDorn) listens politely while Owen Musser (Stuart Ward) taunts him with insults concerning his mother. 'The Foreigner' is a presentation of the East Carolina Summer Theatre and is playing tonight, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8:15 p.m.

Play Wins Ovations

By JOHN SHANNON
Lifestyles Editor

Simon Suggs says, "It is good to be shifty in a new country." Charlie Baker, The Foreigner's assures us that the motto still holds true.

structured comedy is established the simple but lovable Ellard cluding Catherine Simms (Molly in the first scene: a British Army Sims, eats breakfast with Charlie, Fix), whom he plans to marry for demolitions expert, "Froggy" who apes every move Sims makes her money. LeSueur (Joey Pollock), has until the two end up dancing like come to Georgia, presumably on crazed monkeys and Betty Meeks some mission, and convinced (the proprietess, played by Charlie Baker to come along and Kathleen Claypool) breaks in on stay a few days in an inn Froggy them - "Ellard, stop making knows. Baker was reluctant to fun of Charlie's foreign pracgo, because even though his wife tices!" doesn't like him and thinks he's boring, he has been keeping her loathsome redneck Owen Musser company in the hospital as she's ious about making conversation superstitious hatred of foreigners remain a foreigner.

hero played by Jerry verDorn, steadily funnier. As Charlie portant to this comedy; to reveal The premise of this tightly hilarity abound: Jay Theriault, as deceive nearly everyone, in-(convincingly portrayed by Stuart been given just six months to live. Ward) are alone together, Charlie Since Baker is extremely anx- capitalizes on Musser's with strangers, Froggy tells the by pretending to cast a spell, flutproprietess of the inn that Charlie tering his fingers and mumbling is really "Char-u-lee," a about "when the bees come "foreigner" who neither speaks down." Musser flees, and brings nor understands English. Before back the Reverend David Lee (a Charlie can back out of the descendant of Robert E. Lee scheme he has overheard played by Holt Wilson) to witness something he shouldn't have, and the "voodoo talk." Charlie indecides that it's in his interest to sists that all he said was, "Will you please calm down?"

From then on the play becomes The element of surprise is imgrows into the role of the too much would spoil it. Suffice foreigner, scenes of genuine it to say that Rev. Lee is trying to

There is no doubt that this play rates high on the humor scale. It takes a special kind of funniness to make this reviewer laugh out loud and repeatedly in a crowded place, and although it's easier When Charlie and the when everyone else is laughing, that's not why one laughs here. The puns and gags were wellpaced and well-delivered, Jerry verDorn was altogether unpredictable, and the surprise ending left me feeling a bit loony but pleasantly satisfied.

The rest of the audience felt the same way, judging from the standing ovation.

Theatre Season Continues With 'Deathtrap'

By RUSTY HARRINGTON

To help us to keep students in-

formed of goings-on around

Greenville, we at The East

Carolinian would appreciate your

input regarding local entertain-

ment possibilities. If you know of any concerts or events that could

be listed in our weekly run-down,

let us know by calling 757-6366

on weekdays between 10 a.m.

and 5 p.m., or leave a written

message at the East Carolinian

At The Attic this week will be a variety of live music, starting

Wednesday with the heavy metal

heavy metal sound with Morriah;

with rock and roll and on Satur-

day The Bill Lyerly Blues Band

miss it.

of Centaur. On Thursday, more

Friday, Mannekin takes the stage Beach Party Saturday night.

featured bands of the Mid- four bands: Nocturnal Emissions

Summer Blues Festival. Don't from Chapel Hill will open the

For the lounge lizards out day the youthful Terminal

there, the Sheraton feature Melt- Depression will open for Soul

Down on Wednesday, and the Train in what promises to be a Ramada Inn's Veranda lounge rollicking evening.

through Saturday, July 21-26 at Frank Runyeon and Joseph credits include Sudden Death and viewed on The Today Show, key ingredients of Deathtrap, Levin has given his characters

Hot Spots In Greenville

Off Center will play at the New Deli Friday night.

This week TW's continues its Friday night. This will be their in-house entertainment with the last live show for a good while,

Comedy Zone on Wednesday and but inside information has it that

DJ John Moore and his famed Off Center is planning a re-union

The East Carolina Summer 8:15 p.m., with two additional Mascolo Runyeon is best known Bolero, and New York Carolina Summer Theatre pro- home decorated mainly with Theatre will import two popular matinee performances at 2:15 for his continuing role as Steve theatergoers have seen him in The duction this season, Ladies In grizzly murder weapons that are daytime television stars for its p.m. on Wednesday and Satur- Andropoulous on the CBS series. Birds. As a result of his wide- Retirement, with Michael Learn- souvenirs of the writer's early production of Ira Levin's day, July 23 and 26, in McGinnis As The World Turns. He is also spread popularity, he has ap- ed, and received excellent stage successes. mystery-comedy Deathtrap, set Theatre. an accomplished film and stage peared on all three major televi- reviews. The two principal actors are actor. His major motion picture sion networks, having been inter- Homicide and humor are the essential ingredient. Playwright

Phil Donahue Show.

Mr. Mascolo include "Hill Street story.

will be area favorite and Broad- involve a European clairvoyant in her own right, Mavis Ray. Ray lawyer. All this transpires in an may be purchased at also appeared in the first East attractive Conneticut country Theatre.

Blues' and "Days Of Our Out of the proposal emerges a twice, and once was so scared my tangle of homicidal schemes, bottom raised at least four inches Also appearing in Deathtrap plots and counter-plots that also from my seat."

The humor in the play is an Good Morning America and The which is a suspense-thriller about jewels of dialogue that dart in a mystery writer with a problem. and out of the story line, such as, Co-starring with Runyeon in He hasn't had a hit in 17 years "Cathy loves Vassar, and Vassar Deathtrap will be Joseph and announces that he's willing versa," and "Nothing recedes Mascolo, who is also in the soon- to commit murder to remedy the like success." Diane Judge of the to-be-released motion picture situation. The story begins with N.Y. Daily News reviewed Heat, with Burt Reynolds. His the writer's discovery of a sure- Deathtrap when it opened in New other film credits include Jaws 2 fire hit written by one of his York in 1978 and wrote, "One of and Sharkey's Machine. Mascolo students in a college seminar. His the funniest, most heavenly, is the host of "Inside Soaps," a intention is first to collaborate entertaining evenings I've spent syndicated television talk show. with the student and, if in years. I laughed when I wasn't Other television appearances by necessary, kill him and steal the smiling, and chuckled when I wasn't marveling. I screamed

Tickets are still available for way, movie and television veteran and a pompous New England most evening performances and

Poor Man's Olympics

Try Your Luck And Skill

By PAT MOLLOY Assistant Lifestyles Editor

ECU Student Union will sponsor lanes with the highest scorer winthe Mendenhall Olympics. The ning the event. event is open to all currently Trivia - For this event, the enrolled ECU students, currently Trivia video game will be used. bass guitar (reportedly strung employed ECU faculty/staff, The person scoring highest wins and their dependents 13 years and the event.

> scores the most number of legal event. hits in a one-minute time period will be declared winner.

quickest with two or less fouls if the ring is leaning on the peg, wins this event.

Bowling — Competitors will touching the base. On Thursday, July 24, the bowl one ball on ten consecutive Galaga — Again, a video game The events are as follows: will be utilized (thanks Rick) to medals. Table Tennis - The person who determine the winner of this

Ring Toss — Eight rings will be tossed, and the high-scorer will Billiards — The participant win this contest. 10 points will be who can clear a 15 ball table the awarded for a direct hit, 5 points

and two points if the ring is

Darts - Contestants will throw a full set of darts one time. The highest scorer will win.

The top five scorers in each event will receive ribbons and points toward the overall top three scores. First, second and third place winners will receive Contestants must register by Tuesday, July 22 in the Mendenhall Billiards Center. There is no registration fee.

Video participants must provide their own quarters.

Summer Movie

will host Jo Daddy every night

this week, from Wednesday through Saturday.

Muppets Make Funny Film

What's hot? My choice would have to be Off Center at the Deli

New Deli will kick out the yup-

and Messablues will be the pies this weekend and bring in having Nocturnal Emissions as weekend Friday night for local band Off Center; then on Satur

By ED TOSHACH

After "The Muppet Show," several Muppet movies, and the Dark Crystal, we might ask Jim Henson and company, "what next?" What next is Labyrinth, a wonderful fantasy starring David Bowie and Jennifer Connelly.

By the way, "and company" this time includes Terry Jones of producer you just might have from a talkative worm (cater- comes together. heard of named George Lucas.

named Sarah (Connelly) wishes done himself with these muppets, in frustration that her little which were operated by as many brother be taken by Goblins, and as five people at a time. Sarah's is horrified when he in fact is main sidekick in Labyrinth is a taken by Jareth (Bowie), the Goblin King. She seeks to get her baby brother back and is transported to Jareth's world where she must get through the Labyrinth that surrounds Jareth's castle before her brother is himself turned into a goblin.

Labyrinth is at times very funny. Henson takes his penchant and infuses into it the tongue-incheek humour that was missing in The Dark Crystal. Some of this can be accredited to the screenplay by Terry Jones, who has brought a Pythonesque style to muppet humour, but up until The Dark Crystal, the Muppets have always been funny anyway.

Speaking of Muppets, those in Labyrinth are all brand new, pillar?) to a 15-foot animated suit In Labyrinth, a young girl of armor. Henson has really outwrinkled little gnome named Hoggle, whose eyes and face movements seem a miracle. A particularly endearing character is Sir Didymus, a small fox terrier-knight with the voice of a gentleman and the heart of a lion. Didymus is wonderfully courageous; at one point he tells enemies who've surrounded him

for creating entirely new worlds that if they surrender they will be treated well.

in the fall at a benefit for an unknown cause. The band's latest accomplishment, besides an opening act, is to submit a tape to a contest which could put them on a compilation album.

The members include a guy nam ed Morad Rowshan-araghi on with Roto-sound strings); Scott

non on guitar; and David Blount

on guitar, keyboard and vocals.

Patterson on drums; John Shan-

Also, long-time muppet fans will be happy to see that Henson has finally perfected the giant muppet in Ludo, an incredibly life-like eight foot tall creature that looks something like an orangutan. Previously, Henson's giant muppets have looked scarcely better than the guy in the Scoobie-Doo suit at Carowinds. Monty Python, and an executive created for the movie. They range but in Ludo the idea finally

Also bringing a large reservoir of talent to Labyrinth is David Bowie, who has written five original songs for the film. His songs are great; his acting more than adequate (though not his

What makes Labyrinth such good fantasy, however, is that it provides adult wit and humour without losing an overall tone of innocent heroism. No matter how much you laugh at the antics of these characters, you will believe in them, and what's more you'll root for them. Go see Labyrinth

'Labyrinth' star David Bowie, as Jareth, tells co-star Jennifer Connelly (Sarah) that she only has 13 hours to rescue her baby brother, who has been taken by goblins under Jareth's command. The goblins are played by muppets under Jim Henson's command. 'Labyrinth' is currently playing at the Plaza Cinemas.

THEY STARTED SCRAMBLING

SATELLITE DISH IS WORTHLESS

THE PISNEY CHANNEL"

SHKKKKKK

CRACKLE

OF MUDICAL STRONGHOLD

THIS MORNING. HIS NEW

BLOOM COUNTY

MOTHER

BATHROOM

NEXT ON HBO.

Man-O-Stick

THE FAMILY NaSTYMOUTH

DORIS DAY AND JOHNNY

ROTTEN RAISE THE ROOF IN

WITH SIX YOU GET SPITTLE

A LAUGH A MINUTE ROMP WI-

CRYING :

"If the deal is a lay for an A,

then that's what I'll do," these women say, the magazine

But students who object to sex-

"Administrators would usually prefer to have students cope

Joseph Mascolo

ual harassment often are ignored,

THE EAST CAROLINIA!

Jackson Homers

ed, struck out and produced a sacrifice fly. In 14 games, Jackson is batting .140 with a homer and four rbi's. He has seven hits in 52 at-bats over 14 games. He has walked four times

Quotes of the Day

"I don't think some guys push themselves hard enough. Without mentioning names, I'm tired of people saying they're hurt and how hot it is. I'm hurt, too. I hear people say they have a sore toe, their shoulder is stiff, who gives a flying cow chipo If you're hurt, go on the disbabled list," Detroit outfielder Kirk Gibson said about his teammates.

"We're definitely in the right thquake doesn't slide San Diego Padres moved within three games Southern California.

.579 slugging percentage Howser selected Don Matti of the Yankees and Baltimor

Virginia center Olden Poly

(UPI) - Bo Jackson hit his first home run as a pro Sunday. The Memphis Chicks' right fielder connected in the first inning with a man aboard. In four other plate appearances, he flied out, walk-

manager Steve Boros after his

of stealing a set of stereo head-and struck out 24.

division. Hopefully, the next earto the East Coast. We're in perfect position geographically right now," said San Diego Overlooked People

Despite leading the AL with percentage (.407), Minnesota strokes, to s Game because Manager Dick Eddie Murray to join starter Wa ly Joyner of California. Howeve AL's Oil Can Boyd and NL's Le Dykstra were overlooked as well Smith Center As Host

North Carolina'a Dean mended to host first- and second round play in the 1988 NCAA men's basketball tournament

Monterey, Calif., last week and second-round action in 1989 tourney. Polynice Loses Scholarship

Polynice can stay in school if prac he qualifies for a scholarship bas-

> Major League Sta National League

EAST	W-L	Pct.
New York	59-25	.702
Montreal	46-38	.548
Philadelphia	42-43	.494
Chicago	36-48	.429
St. Louis	36-50	.419
Pittsburgh	35-50	.412
WEST	W-L	Pct.
San Francisco	48-40	.545
Houston	47-41	.534
San Diego	45-43	.511
Atlanta	42-46	.477
Cincinnati	40-44	.476
Los Angeles	40-48	.455
	American	Leagi
EAST	W-L	Pct.

W-L

Profs Harass Women

ministrators "would usually 41 percent of female graduate reported.

advisor or her supervisor, the with authority as a chance for Mass.

acknowledge the problem, member or administrator during

of female college students say years.

One in six female former said.

they have received sexual advances by professors, but ad-

prefer to have students cope

privately" rather than psychology students who

Of those who had sex with professors, 28 percent said they felt coerced when it happened and,

when they reflected on the incident, the number leaped to 51

"Thirty-one percent of the women reported sexual advances

Glamour magazine says.

magazine reported Monday.

(UPI) — An increasing number ministrator during their college gain, the magazine said.

In addition, a 1983 Harvard University student survey found

students suffered some form of sexual harassment from a faculty

But some women questioned

responded to a nationwide by Glamour praised mutually privately," said Cynthia Enloe,

University of Missouri study last desired sex between students and professor of government and

year reported having sex with her teachers and others interpreted a coordinator of women's studies

Frank Runyeon

their college years, the magazine the magazine said.

sexual advance from a person at Clark University in Worcester,

The East Carolina Summer Theatre

presents

in Ira Levin's

Monday - Saturday, July 21 - 26, 8:15 pm

Special Matinee Performances:

McGinnis Theatre (5th & Eastern) Greenville, NC

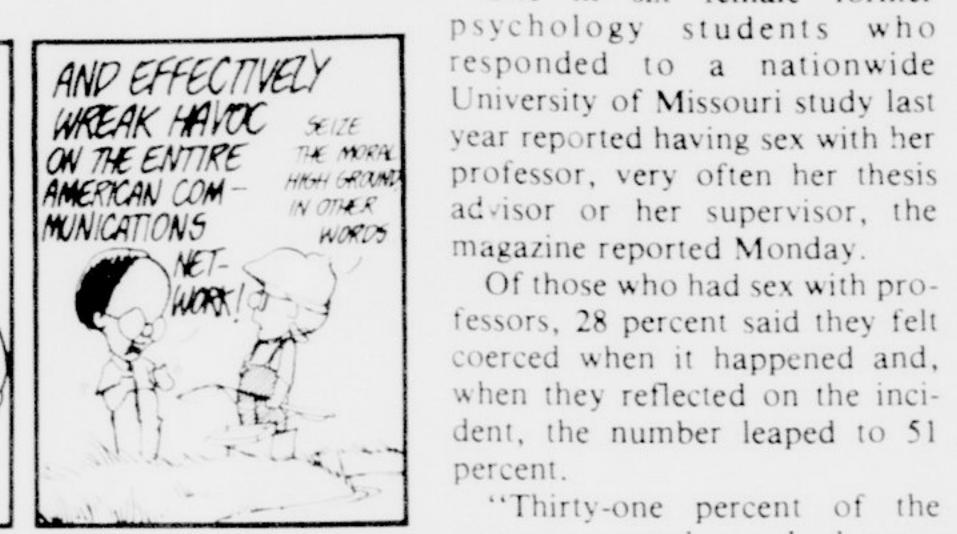

For Reservations: 757-6390

Wednesday & Saturday, July 23 & 26, 2:15 pm

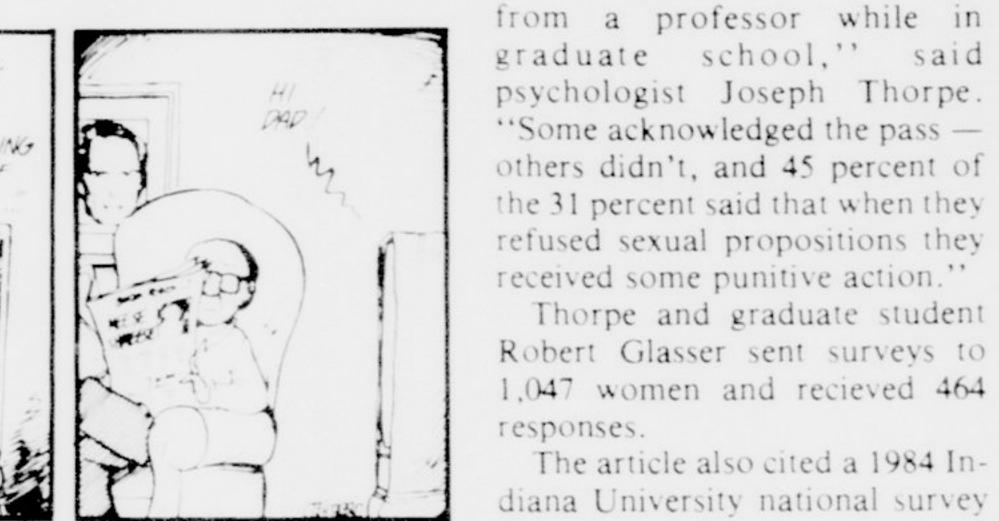

by Berke Breathed TEARS OF SHAME VIDEO TERRORIST FATHER! YOUR

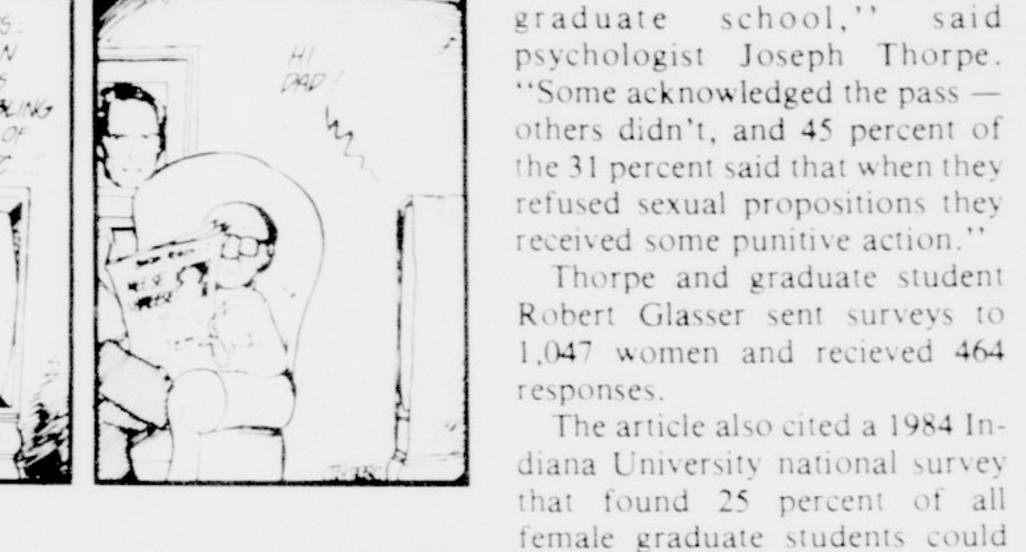

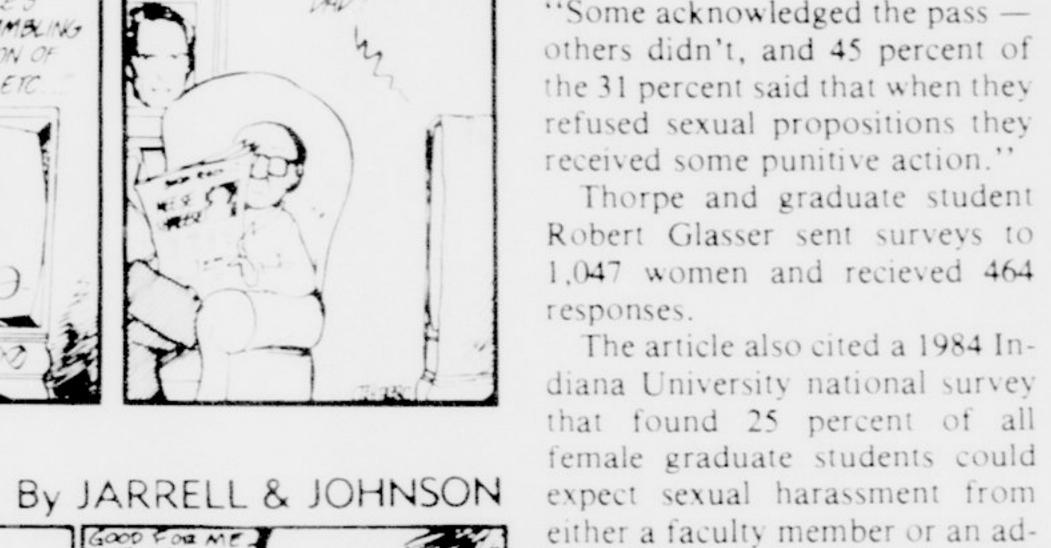

By SoveLove

It worked! Winston is free at last. But things are not the same as before. What seemed like a few hours to Winston was actually weeks

During Winston's absence, Doris was given the opporatunity to grow

as a person. Winston was long ago

given up as dead, leaving Doris free to be what she always wanted to be ...

to the rest of the world.

A Professional

Thursday, July 17, 1986 3:00 p.m. FREE

Watermelon Feast

Central Campus Outdoor Mall

Monday, July 21, 1986 3:30 p.m.

"BODY HEAT"

Hendrix Theatre Thursday, July 24, 1986

Mendenhall Student Center Olympics

3:00 p.m. in Recreation Area Free registration by Tuesday, July 22, 1986 in Billiards Center

Test Your Skill At:

Billiards, Table Tennis, Bowling, Video Games, Darts, and Ring Toss

gathering place

returns home to an empty house. Female must be in school, but conclusion. But how be? There must be explanation. There

ss Women

survey found ale graduate reported. me form of im a faculty

their college gain, the magazine said. "If the deal is a lay for an A, 983 Harvard then that's what I'll do," these women say, the magazine

But students who object to sexual harassment often are ignored, ne magazine the magazine said.

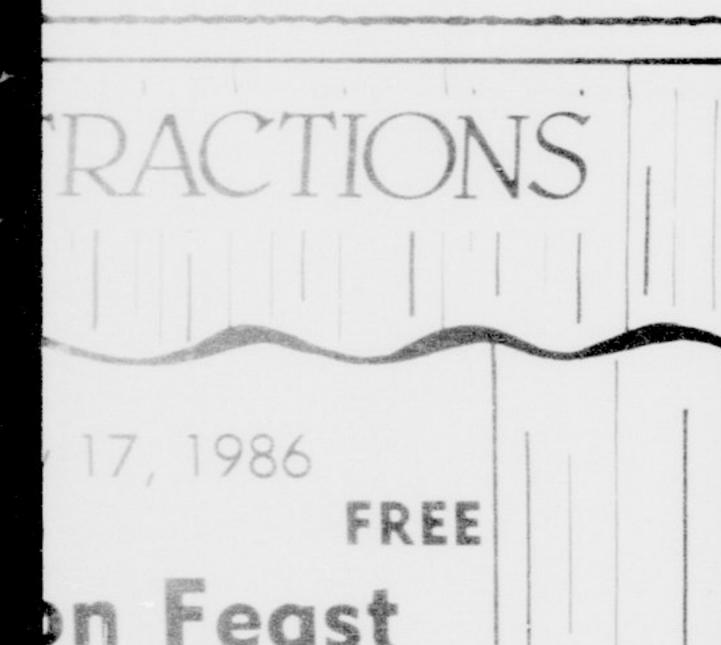

"Administrators would usually questioned prefer to have students cope ed mutually privately," said Cynthia Enloe, students and professor of government and eted a coordinator of women's studies at Clark University in Worcester,

Saturday, July 21 - 26, 8:15 pm

& Saturday, July 23 & 26, 2:15 pm

Reservations: 757-6390

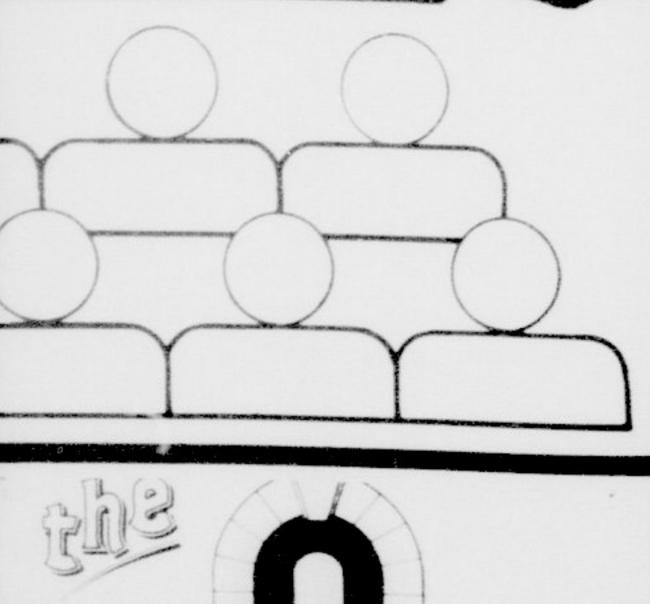

heatre

Student ympics

reation Area sday, July 22, 1986 Center

Skill At:

s, Bowling, Video d Ring Toss

Sports

Notes

Jackson Homers

(UPI) — Bo Jackson hit his first home run as a pro Sunday. The Memphis Chicks' right fielder connected in the first inning with a man aboard. In four other plate appearances, he flied out, walked, struck out and produced a sacrifice fly. In 14 games, Jackson is batting .140 with a homer and four rbi's. He has seven hits in 52 at-bats over 14 games. He has walked four times and struck out 24.

Quotes of the Day "I don't think some guys push themselves hard enough. Without mentioning names, I'm tired of people saying they're hurt and how hot it is. I'm hurt, too. I hear people say they have a sore toe, their shoulder is stiff, who gives a flying cow chipo If you're hurt, go on the disbabled list," Detroit outfielder Kirk Gibson said about his teammates. "We're definitely in the right division. Hopefully, the next earthquake doesn't slide San Diego to the East Coast. We're in perfect position geographically right now," said San Diego manager Steve Boros after his Padres moved within three games of the first-place Giants on the same day an earthquake hit Southern California.

Overlooked People Despite leading the AL with a .579 slugging percentage and ranking in the top six in home weekend, capturing the $500,000 runs (20), rbi's (61) and on-base Busch Golf Classic by two better date," said a tournament could win if they get hot during percentage (.407), Minnesota strokes, to stamp himself as one official. "So far, even though we the final half of the season. first baseman Kent Hrbek was of the favorites for the upcoming have the purse up to $500,000, not in Houston for the All-Star Game because Manager Dick Howser selected Don Mattingly of the Yankees and Baltimore's Eddie Murray to join starter Wally Joyner of California. However AL's Oil Can Boyd and NL's Len Dykstra were overlooked as well. Smith Center As Host

North Carolina'a Dean E. Smith Center has been recommended to host first- and secondround play in the 1988 NCAA men's basketball tournament.

The NCAA's men's basketball committee made recommendations for the first two rounds and regional action at a meeting in usual, a hit with the crowd. Monterey, Calif., last week.

The Greensboro Coliseum was also recommended to host first-1989 tourney.

Polynice Loses Scholarship

Virginia center Olden Polynice has lost his scholarship. The Atlantic Coast Conference school has rescinded the scholarship of the 6-11 star, who was convicted phones.

ed on need.

EAST

New York

Montreal

Chicago

St. Louis

WEST

Houston

Atlanta

EAST

Boston

New York

Cleveland

Baltimore

Milwaukee

Toronto

Detroit

WEST

Texas

Chicago

Seattle

Kansas City

Minnesota

Oakland

California

San Diego

Cincinnati

Los Angeles

Pittsburgh

San Francisco

Philadelphia

Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson chose pro baseball over the NFL.

Zoeller's Game Back

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (UPI) — Fuzzy Zoeller's golf game is back

Zoeller won his third tournament of the year over the tomarrow at Turnberry. British Open.

come," the 34-year-old Zoeller said. "I'm still a young man and figure I've got a lot of golf left." Zoeller's win in the Busch, which pushed his earnings to $332,883 for the year, came in his first tournament since the U.S. Open in June.

"I took a couple of weeks off after the Open (where he tied for 15th), then figured it was time to get busy again," said Zoeller, the winner of the 1979 PGA and the 1984 U.S. Open.

Zoeller's Busch win was, as especially on the weekend, you have to expect a large and noisy and second-round action in the crowd," said Joey Sindelar, who played in the same threesome with Zoeller Sunday. "But he never lets it get out of hand."

Zoeller said he is still occasionally troubled by his back but is not letting it affect his golf.

"I have gradually learned to of stealing a set of stereo head- live with it," he said. "I've learned that I can't afford to do much Polynice can stay in school if practicing, that I have to take it playing a competitive round.

GB

24.5

GB

GB

10.5

14.5

GB

8.5

11.5

15.5

Major League Standings

National League

Pct.

.534

.476

Pct.

.562

.529

.522

.494

.477

Pct.

.534

.455

.433

.420

American League

W-L

59-25

46-38

42-43

36-48

36-50

35-50

W-L

47-41

45-43

42-46

40-44

40-48

W-L

56-31

50-39

46-39

46-41

47-43

43-44

41-45

W-L

48-39

47-41

40-46

40-48

39-51

37-51

34-56

Zoeller was one of the few big names to play in the tournament. on again, thanks to a few weeks Many of the top pros took the week off to prepare for the British Open, which opens and will add another $112,000 "I like to think there's more to next year, it's been hard to get the sort of field we'd like to have.

"Too many of the top golfers feel it's too much to play here this week and then rush to the British Open," the official said.

Defending Champs Struggle

Rookies Performing Well

By SCOTT COOPER AND RICK McCORMAC Sports Editors

Sports

As Major League Baseball takes it's traditional mid-season All-Star break, both of the defending league champions are struggling to regain last year's form.

a woeful 36-50 record. They lead last place Pittsburgh by only one- nine games out of first place. half game, and are a distant 24 games behind the division- dominating team in 1986 has leading Mets.

ing only slightly better than their 40-48 record, the Royals trail American League West leader California by eight-and-a-half ners are struggling, so to are the dividually — taken the majors by other division winners from last storm. Clemens, with his overseason.

Dodgers, who have been one contest. hampered by a number of injuries, are currently in last place in the National League West. The Dodgers trail the surprising San Francisco Giants by eight games "We keep hoping we can get a in a division that any of the teams

> American League East is also struggling to regain their championship form. The Toronto Blue Jays are in fifth place in arguably baseball's toughest division (AL East), trailing the Boston Red Sox by 10-and-a-half games.

While the favorites have not fared so well thus far, there have been a number of good performances by teams not expected to contend.

In addition to division leading Cleveland Indians and Texas Rangers have also played well. The Rangers have led the AL ly hitting .363. The St. Louis Cardinals, West for most of the season, and defending champions in the Na- currently trail California by only tional League, are in next to last one-and-a-half games. Cleveland place in the Eastern division with is seven games over five hundred with a 46-39 record and is only

Without a doubt, the most been the Amazin' Mets. Not only The defending World Cham- are they leading second-place pion Kansas City Royals are do- Montreal by 13 games in the NL East, but have placed four cohorts from Missouri. With a starters (and a reserve) in the All-Star lineup.

While the Mets have been the most dominating team, Bosox pitcher Roger Clemens (15-2, While last year's pennant win- 2.48 era) has been doing it inpowering fastball won his first 14 The defending Western Divi- games, and set a major league field. sion Champion Los Angeles record striking out 20 batters in Rookie sensation Jose Canseco heads the AL hitters with 23 home runs and 78 runs batted in. However, Canseco was denied a starting position on the American League team by Dave Winfield. Winfield is currently terrorizing Last season's champion in the average (which is sure to have by one homer. Dwight Gooden shaking in his boots, huh&).

> Another first-year standout is California first baseman Wally Joyner. Joyner is the first rookie in the history of baseball to start in an All-Star game. However, he is deserving of the honor as he has 20 homers and 72 rbi's with a .297 batting average.

Leading the American League in hitting is the ever-present Wade Boggs. Boggs, who recent-Boston and San Francisco, the ly has been in a slump after the death of his mother, has flirted with the .400 mark and is current-

Heading the National League pitchers is the Mets' Sid Fernandez (yes, El Sid) with a 12-2 record and a 2.67 era. Gooden is next with a 10-4 mark and a 2.77 era. With Met starters Bobby Ojeda and Ron Darling currently sporting 10-2 and 9-2 records respectively, the Mets could be the first team since the 1969 Orioles to have four 20-game winners on one team.

Houston's Mike Scott leads the majors in K's with 167.

Leading the hitting department is Len Dykstra of you guessed it - the Mets. However, Dykstra, who is hitting .349, may not get enough at bats to qualify for the league crown since he platoons with Mookie Wilson in center-

If Dykstra falters, All-Star outfielder Tony Gwynn is right on his heels with a .341 batting

Just as in the American League, a rookie is leading the National League in homeruns. Astro first-baseman Glenn Davis has 20 homeruns, and leads Phil-AL pitching with a .232 batting ly third-baseman Mike Schmidt

> Schmidt is leading the league in rbi's with 66, leading the Mets Gary Carter by a single rbi.

Check the bottom of the page for both the National and American League standings through the All-Star break.

Houston Taking Pride In City HOUSTON (UPI) - Housto- say, 'hey, here we are hosting an Festival, which brings together formance, the Astros have not

nians have taken to wearing their pride on their shirts these days.

That's how far down in the sports fan to be caught up in it." dumps people are around here. When Texans have to wear T-shirts telling everybody that "When you play with Fuzzy, they're proud, you know something is wrong.

> Yet T-shirts with the slogan "Houston Proud" are a common garb worn by the local citizenry. This is definitely a city with a > complex, and it's a good idea major-league baseball chose it to host the 57th All-Star Game.

Forget the grim fact the game will be played indoors for the second straight year. You can't play baseball outside in the sumleash will devour you.

This is the perfect place for classic. baseball's midseason carnival because this is a city badly in need drove in the first run in All-Star Ruth hit a home run and made a of a party. There is trouble in a place many people believed was paradise only five years ago.

and forth to the airport to collect the hordes of dreamers coming to the curbs.

stand empty in the downtown dinals. area. One estimate states there prosperous times.

Conn, the city's mayor during the which was held in Chicago. boom years from 1978-81 and now an assistant vice president of Sports Association.

"A lot of people have lost their National League teams. jobs. We are a city closely tied to as an important step in helping McGraw. Houstonians feel good about themselves again.

"The All-Star Game is going to help," McConn said, "and I don't mean just from the money it brings into our economy. I don't think anybody gets too big or sophisticated to host an event like this.

"It stimulates interest not only in sports, but it does something for the psyche. Houstonians can important event like this.' And the nation's best amateur athletes been doing well at the box office. you don't even have to be a

Sports already has helped con-

McConn said. The Rockets, led by Akeem Olajuwon and Ralph Sampson, reached the NBA finals and baseball's Astros are challenging you went." for first place in the National League West.

play host to the National Sports Despite their solid first-half per-Game history.

"You know, as lousy a hitter as I was," he said, "I drove in the Signs of decay are everywhere. first run in an All-Star Game. I Taxis, which once sprinted back think probably 800 people fainted."

It was the second inning of the seek their fortune, now sit idly by 1933 game and, with one out, Skycrapers, which once had drew walks off loser "Wild" Bill waiting lists for occupancy, now Hallahan of the St. Louis Car-are 64 such vacant buildings, un- second out before Gomez drilled fortunate monuments to more a single over shortstop Dick Bartell to score Dykes.

sion right now," admits Jim Mc-pitch in the initial All-Star Game, was a ball or a strike," said the marketing for the Houston 76-year-old Gomez before the workouts by the American and the petroleum industry and when were the managers then," Gomez the price of oil dropped so said, still respectful of drastically it really hit us hard." Philadelphia Athletics owner-Lost jobs lead to lost pride and manager Connie Mack and New McConn sees the All-Star Game York Giants manager John

Sports Fact

Wed. July 16, 1941 snapped the following day. in varied competition.

"Sports, especially winning sports teams, has a way of taking really hurt the baseball attensiderably in these troubled times, people's minds off their troubles," McConn said. "It turns a town on. This past winter the Rockets were the major topic basketball playoffs were in full of conversation no matter where force and everyone was tuned in-

McConn also is hoping the All-Star Game will get people's Later this month the city will minds attuned to baseball again.

"The success of the Rockets dance in the beginning of the year," McConn said. "When the baseball season started, the to the Rockets. The All-Star Game, because of all the hoopla

See SPORTS, page 8

"Lefty" Recalls All-Star Memories

his first at-bat in the mid-summer win.'

Gomez, a lifetime .147 hitter, the three innings I pitched. Babe

Jimmy Dykes and Joe Cronin Rick Ferrell lined out for the

"We are in a very serious reces- Gomez also threw the first

"I don't remember whether it

"Mr. Mack and Mr. McGraw

"I remember before the first

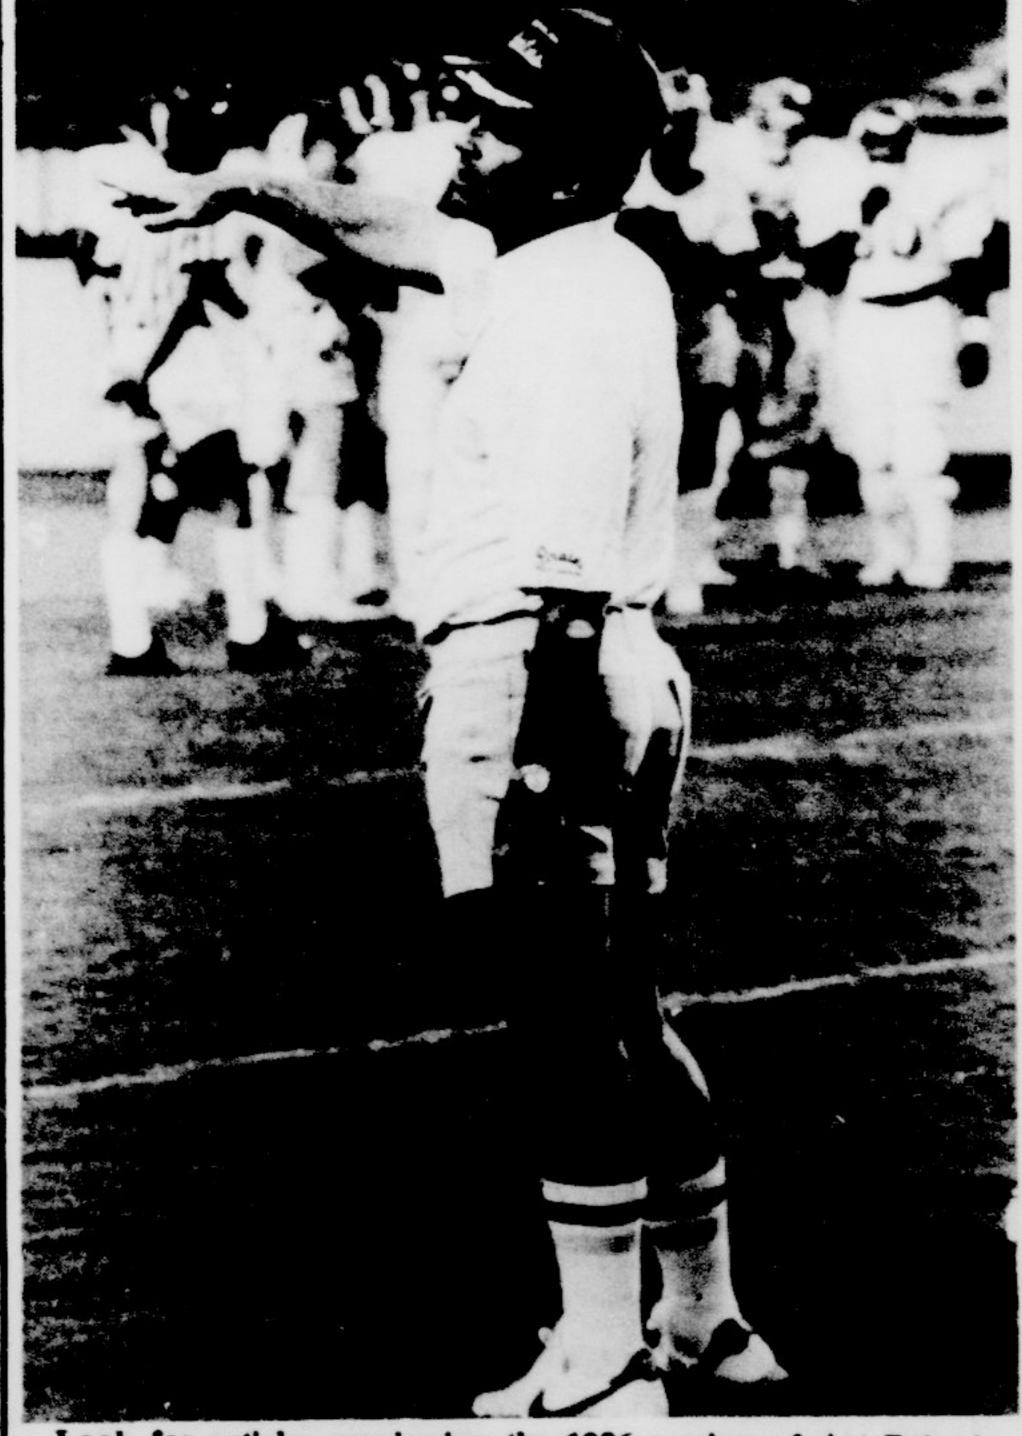

Joe DiMaggio has three hits against Cleveland to extend his hitting streak to a new 56-game record, considered by many to be the most impressive in all of sports. The streak is finally

HOUSTON (UPI) - Vernon game, Mr. Mack gathered us all Hall of Fame in 1972 with a Louis "Lefty" Gomez, who together and told us, Gentlemen, lifetime regular-season record of mer here anyway. If the heat started five of the first six All- we're out to win. Maybe some of 189-102 with a 3.34 ERA in 14 he qualifies for a scholarship bas- easy except when I'm actually doesn't suffocate you, mos- Star Games and won three, draws you won't get in the game. seasons, compiled quite a mark in quitoes big enough to wear a one of his fondest memories from Maybe you will. But we want to All-Star and World Series com-

> "They didn't score off me in Series and 3-0 in five All-Star spectacular catch."

Gomez, who was elected to the Games.

He was 6-0 in seven appearances covering five World

Look for articles previewing the 1986 version of Art Baker's Pirates in upcoming editions of The East Carolinian.

Classifieds

HELP WANTED: Cocktail waitresses needed at the Ramada Inn. Apply in person between 1-5 p.m. Excellent opportunity to make good money.

FEMALE ROOMMATE: Female

roommate wanted for partially furfurn), next to Athletic Club; prefer grad student or profess; $175 mo &

PERSONALS

THE SHERATON CREW: You guys

made my summer the BEST! N.J.

will drag without you. What am I br inging there? My mama...and some

MELANIE: It's a long ride from

Moury to campus each day.

Nonetheless I miss you and still love

nabs! A special goodby/goodluck to

"Top Gun" - write me! Love, Fun.

Jay 830-0486 or 752-3765.

nished 2 bedroom apartment; rent

WORD PROCESSING: We offer experience in typing resumes, theses, dependable, non-smoker preferred techical documents, and term Call Angelia 757-3640. papers. We manage and merge your names and addresses into merged letters, labels, envelopes or rolodex ROOMMATE WANTED: Room reasonable and we always offer a 15 Large private bedroom AC, cable, percent discount to ECU students, bus service, fully furnished. SDF Inc. 106 East Fifth Street $145/month plus utilities. Adk for

FOR SALE: 1982 Knox Trailer FEMALE ROOMMATE: Female have been laid off and are finding even than other Texans and they Home, 3 br., 112 bath, air, dryer, roommate needed for 14 bath $500 and take up payments $176.95. twnhse, priv bdrm (need bdrm

Call after 6, 758 1559.

FOR SALE: Is it true you can buy dep and 4 utilities; 756-9583 after 6 Jeeps for $44 through the U.S. p.m. Government? Get the facts today! Call 1 312 742 1142 Ext. 5271 A.

RINGOLD TOWERS: Most conve ROOMMATE WANTED: Roomnient location to campus! Fully fur- mate(s) wanted to share two nished condos (except linens) - bedroom apt. * block from campus, priced from $30's $50's. Some owner water, pool, cable included. financing available. University $160/month, Call 752 1909 after 9

FOR SALE: Complete computer system Includes 128k Atari 130X computer, monitor, printer, 2 disk drives, modem, 60 plus disks of software, plus much more $500 or best LOST: Lost Siberian Huskie offer For more info call 758 6262 ask University area. Reward offered for Greg

FOR RENT: (2) Two bedroom duplexes near campus, stove and refrig included. 1 yr. lease reg. $195 month, Call 752-5778

ATTENTION: Attention fraternities and sororities, you booked at "The Alley Tavern' before, now you can still book at 'The Tavern' for par

You, JD & Renee WANTED

ties! Call 757 1227

female roommate (non-smoker) to ool Call 752 5929 or 1 346 6916

FEMALE STUDENT: Female stu

iedroom Riverbluff apt 758-7642

AllIL

Centaur

17 THUR MORRIAH

18 FRI Mannekin

19 SAT THE BILL LYLERLY BLUES BAND MESSABL UES

ABORTIONS UP TO 12th WEEK OF PREGNANCY

RALEIGH WOMEN'S HEALTH ORGANIZATIONS

Every Thursday Night Is TACO NIGHT

Two Great Tacos for only,99 60 oz. Pitchers $1.99

Offer Good From 7 p.m.-11 p.m. - Not Valid on Deliveries

Every Tuesday Night Is

COLLEGE NIGHT Free Delivery for $5.00 & Over Purchases

7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Bologna & Cheese

99¢ SUBS YOUR CHOICE

Ham & Cheese Ham, Salami & Cheese Turkey & Cheese

Pepperoni, Salami & Cheese Ham, Turkey & Cheese NOT VALID ON DELIVERIES

60 oz. pitchers $1.99

ALL DAY FRIDAY

includes tax

32 oz. Bucket of Your Favorite Draft

215 E. Fourth Street

99¢ 752-2183

Sports Help Houston

Continued from page 7

and all that's being written about prove. In order for attendance to it, will get people thinking about improve, though, the economy is

"During the second half of the siderably. season, as long as the Astros stay in the race, we'll see some pretty Houston? Is this the last All-Star good turnouts."

naround in the economy, Conn said. 'The only doubt I however, a surge in baseball at- have is exactly when. But you're tendance does not seem likely. something less than honest with People here are worried about yourself if you don't admit as a wold have to say the economy has to some extent before you see a had an effect on attendance," turnaround here.

rather than into baseball games." ple here can accomplish the im-Astros owner John McMullen possible."

Classes now forming and include

Certified Instructor

• Free use of Board

Instructional Materials

Call Chip

has hinted he might move the team if attendance doesn't imgoing to have to improve con-

What does the future hold for Game the city will ever see? Unless there is a sudden tur- "Things will get better," Mc-Houstonian that the oil business "In all fairness, I guess you is going to have to revive at least McConn said. "A lot of people" "But Houstonians are prouder other places to put their money have a lot of go-gettedness. Peo-

The East Carolinian

Serving the East Carolina campus community since 1925

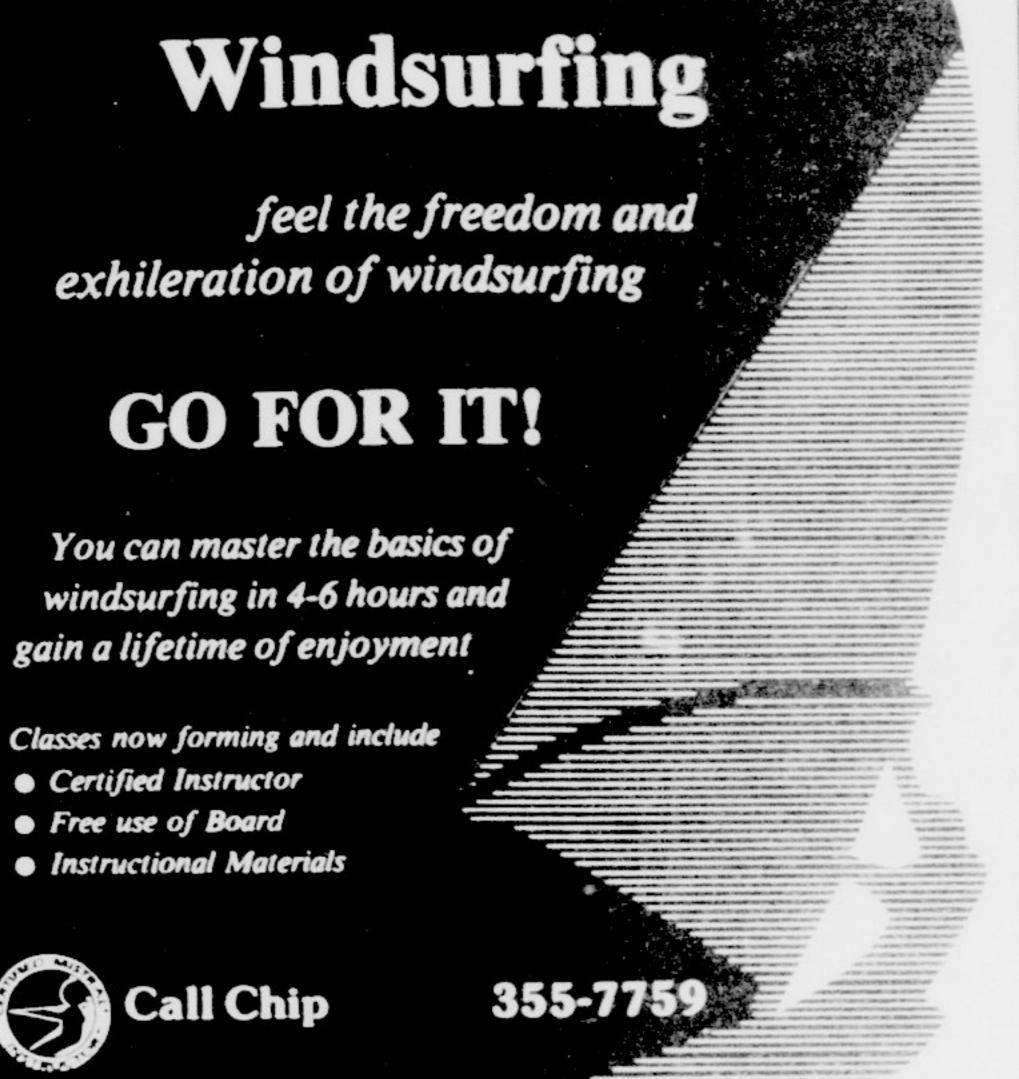

needs

WRITERS and TYPESETTERS

for the fall semester

Apply in person at the East Carolinian between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Light Beer

HOTDOG OR Hamburger

Buns . . . . . .

California

Orange Juice

99¢

Serve 'n Save Wieners

ADVERTISED ITEM POLICY Each of these advertised

items is required to be readily available for sale in each Kroger Sav-on, except as specifically noted in this choice of a comparable item when available reflecting the same savings or a raincheck which will entitle you to purchase the advertised item at the advertised price

within 30 days. Only one vendor coupon will be accepted per Item

Morton

SWEET, RIPE California Cantaloupes

Kraft

Miracle Whip

WISE REGULAR OR NO SALT Cottage Fries Potato Chips

Coke

Classic

Armchair Theatre VHS Video Movie Rentals 15-PC. WISHBONE Dinners

Hundreds of favorite movies

Fried Chicken

to choose from!

OPEN 24 HOURS EVERYDAY 600 Greenville Blvd. - Greenville