OTHER EXHIBITS:

All the participating artists exhibited in the July 1968 "Dialogue Through Art" show sponsored by the Los Angeles section, National Council of Jewish Women; all, except DeVoice Berry, exhibited in the "Art From the Black Community" show, September 1968, at the Laguna Beach Art Association. Most are members of the Black Artists' Association and their works are exhibited regularly at Brockman Gallery, 4334 Degnan Boulevard, Los Angeles, whose cooperation we acknowledge in arranging this show.

Paintings by the artists also may be seen in the display windows of Morningside Park branch library; paintings, constructions, and ceramics at Crenshaw-Imperial branch library, during November.
