

HANNAH J. ROBERTS

For the majority of my life, I lived with two different faces accompanied by murmurs of gossip all while I hid behind a well-kept smile. I have felt apprehensive making friends on many occasions, especially females, because I anticipated or felt there would be an assumption I wanted more. Now being openly lesbian, I find myself consistently challenged and rewarded more than ever as I celebrate me: choosing to embrace my true self, to appreciate genuine friendships, and to finally open up to my authentic lifestyle through a valued journey no one could begin to replicate.

Hannah is the Club Sports & Reservations Coordinator with Campus Recreation and Wellness.
