

STEPHEN CHARLES, PHD

As an Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Medical Education for Brody School of Medicine and a member of the LGBT community, I aim to create an engaged and supportive environment for all students in the health professions. In my work as an Assistant Professor in the department of Bioethics and Interdisciplinary Studies, I strive to educate a generation of physicians who value diversity and provide compassionate care to ALL of their patients.

Dr. Charles is the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Medical Education for the Brody School of Medicine.
