

Anyone looking to make change in the world needs to be proactive about it. For me, that means being a loud, proud member of the LGBT community. It is a privilege to attend a school where it is safe to be myself, fully and openly. That reassurance pushes me to be a resource to others, and to help in every way I can.

Rose Bogue

Pronouns: They/Them/Theirs

Sophomore, Fine Art Studies