

Walter Reed Hospital
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Jones,

It is very hard to have to say "no" to your invitation to assist on May 23rd - at The British Embassy.

I am out of circulation for a number of months - I guess the Campaign was too much for me!

It would have been so delightful to have been a hostess at The British Embassy -

I am very fond of The Morgans - and feel that I am better acquainted with The Ambassador and his Lady - than with some of the other ambassadors.

Your address brings back memories of when my husband was in Congress - and we lived on Sumner Road - next door to The office.

Thank you, so much for thinking of me - I do so wish I could be of service.

Sincerely

Rebel Adams

(Mrs. Hiram Adams)
