The laborer is worthy
 of his hire, and the teacher must have a
 living wage.

Every true teacher
 realizes she needs to prepare for her work and makes enormous
 sacrifices, as my letter files abundantly
 testify, to prepare for her work.

We have turned back to the state
 this <sup>past</sup> school year 37 ↑ graduates and 38 who have completed the one year course. Last year our Doors, were filled by July 24. This year - 60 more + filled by July 28. This shows
 they want to prepare.
 All they paid enough
 to justify them in making this expenditure
