

Chapel, Wednesday June 3, 1926

President Wright.

College opens for work at the first period on the morning of Septemeber 30. If for any reason you have a mixed up schedule and don't know what in the world to do, be here the day before college opens and see the committee and get it straightened out so you can start with the first period on the morning of the last day of September.