

Insert into VCR and recorder.

Do not touch the tape heads.

Audiovis

E

99

C91

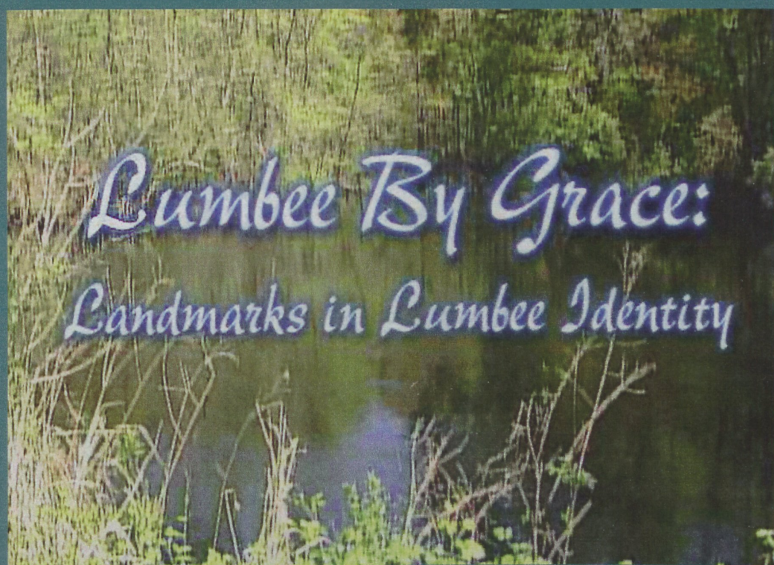

L86

2002

Lumbee By Grace: Marks in Lumbee Identity

JOYNER LIBRARY - ECU

A Production of The Museum of the Native American Resource Center,
Mass Communications Department and Media Integration Project of UNC Pembroke

"Outsiders may have difficulty seeing into the currents of history which flow in our river, in our stories, in our veins.
But we see. We know. We remain.
I am Lumbee."

30372 0120 0368 4

Lumbee people talk about their sense of what it means to be Lumbee. Their words, interwoven with images of past and present, reveal the primary landmarks of Lumbee cultural identity: home & family; the land & the river; education & Old Main; religion & spirituality.

A production of The Museum of the Native American Resource Center, Mass Communications Department and Media Integration Project of UNC Pembroke

Running Time: 29:20 min. / Stereo / Color / Digitally Mastered

Copyright 2002 Native American Resource Center, UNC Pembroke. All rights reserved.