WILLIAM H. COX

Col. William H. Cox accepts command of the 99th logistics group at Nellis Air Force Base in Las Vegas, Nevada

Colonel William H. Cox was born November 7, 1948 in Farmville. He graduated from H.B. Suggs High School, Farmville, in 1967 and from North Carolina A&T State University in 1971 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration and Accounting. Col. Cox received a Master of Science Degree in Procurement Management from Webster University, Missouri in 1981. He is a graduate of Squadron Officers School, Air Command and Staff College and Air War College.

Following commissioning in 1973, Col. Cox was assigned to the 704th Tactical Air Support Squadron, Shaw AFB, South Carolina, where he served as Supply Operations Officer. In 1975, he graduated from Munitions Supply School and served as Munitions Accountable Supply Officer for the 8th Tactical Fighter Wing at Kunsan AB, Korea.

In 1976, he was assigned to the 632d Radar Squadron, Roanoke Rapids AFS, North Carolina, where he served as Squadron Logistics Support Officer. Following this assignment, he was sent to the 46 AEROWD, Det 0001, in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he served as MAJCOM Assistant Chief, Logistics Readiness Division in 1978. In 1981, he was transferred to Air Forces Iceland, Keflavik, where he served as Chief of Supply.

Upon return in 1985, Col. Cox was assigned to the 1st Supply Squadron, Langley AFB, as Combat Operations Support Officer and Officer in Charge, Mobility Readiness Center. In 1988, he was transferred to HQ 12th Air Force, Bergstrom AFB, Texas, where he served as Deputy Director of Supply. Following this tour, Col. Cox was assigned to the 343rd Supply Squadron, Eielson AFB, Alaska. Col. Cox returned in September 1993 to the 1st Supply Squadron, Langley AFB, Virginia as the commander.

Col. Cox is a master logistician. His military decorations include the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters, Joint Service Commendation Medal and the Air Force Commendation Medal, with one Oak Leaf Cluster.

Col. Cox is married to the former Josephine Sutton of Greenville, North Carolina. They have four children, William, April, Christopher, and Jeffrey. He is the son of William T. and Sally D. Cox of Farmville.

KIDS ACADEMY DAY CARE CENTER

Kids Academy Day Care Center is located at 500 East Avenue, Ayden.

Kids Academy is a state and local certified center. The center opened February 1, 1995, and had only one child (Brianna Woods). The center is now 94% full, and operates 6:30 a.m. through 11:00 p.m., including evening shift, half or full day and includes nutritional supper and two snacks.

Kids Academy is:
•A happy school: appropriated play experiences that contribute to the physical, social, intellectual, emotional, esthetic development of the child.

•A meaningful curriculum: learning center and motivational activities that build important foundations for future reading skills and other academic pursuits.

The employees at Kids Academy are experienced and qualified caregivers and sensitive to the children's needs. The caregivers all have CPR and First Aid certification. Ms. Tonia Cogdell, Infant Room; Mrs. Cathy Harper, 2-year old Room; Mrs. Pam Best, Toddlers Room; Ms. Linda Gaskins, 3-year old room, Ms. Marquitta Clark, 4-year old room and after-schoolers; Ms. Lakisha Elberts, part-time; Ms. Priscilla Tyson, part-time, infant room; Mrs. Dorothy Williams, volunteer parent; Mrs. Brenda Persianni, food service. All staff members are creative, talented, loving, Christian individuals who have love for all children.

Our future goals are to provide a child consultant for parents who have difficulties getting time off from their place of employment to attend meetings at their child's school scheduled because of learning problems—Not for disturbance or misbehavior problems. Parents must be employed and working the day of the scheduled meeting.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The management and employees of Carolina Eagle Distributing would like to ask all of our customers, friends, and families in Nash, Edgecombe, and Halifax counties to help us make this holiday season the safest ever. This can be accomplished if we follow some simple yet effective guidelines. Being responsible is everyone's job.

The holiday season will be marked by more parties than gifts. But entertaining is serious business, and anyone planning to host or attend a holiday party should consider the friends and neighbors with who we share the road.

Promoting responsible drinking and safe driving during the holidays is everyone's responsibility. So if you plan to host a holiday party in the weeks ahead, clip this list and post it on the refrigerator.

- Ask your guests who among them will volunteer to be designated drivers.

- Always serve food with alcohol beverages. High-protein foods like cheese and meats help moderate the effects of alcohol.

- Don't force drinks on your guests

- Make non-alcohol beverages like O'Doul's and coffee available to your guests.

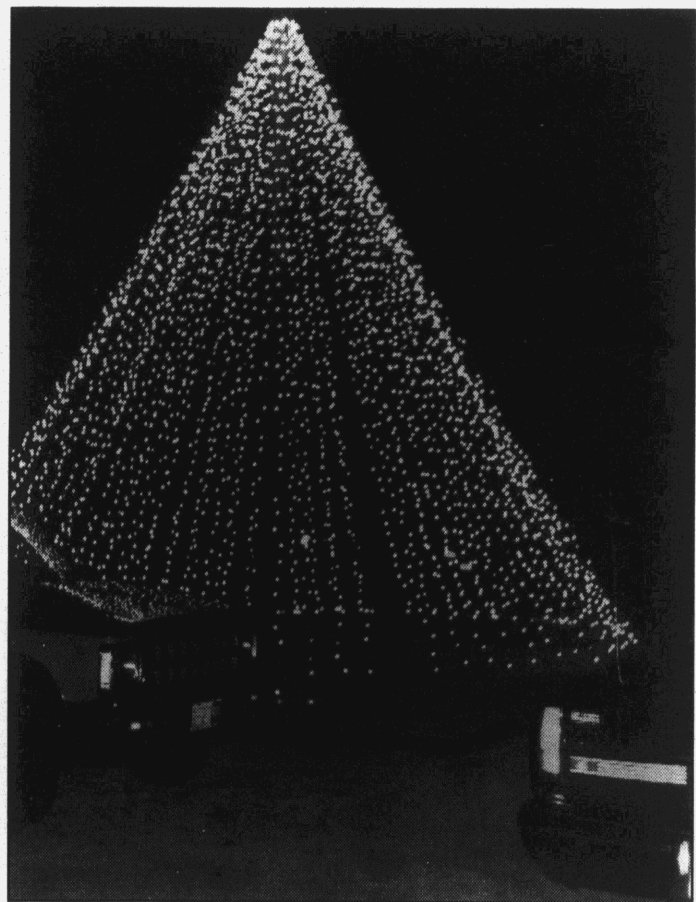

- Close the bar an hour before the party ends so your guests have a non-drinking period before driving home.

- If—despite your best efforts—someone has had too much to drink, arrange transportation home with another guest, drive the person yourself, call a cab, or ask your guest to spend the night. Do not let that person drive home.

When these holiday reminders are kept top of mind, we give our friends and family the best of all: a safe and prosperous 1996. We at Anheuser-Busch want all of our friends, family and customers to enjoy the holidays and by all of us being responsible we can all enjoy many more holidays to come.

Sincerely,
Joseph T. Saputo
Vice President
Carolina Eagle Distributing Co., Inc.
Anheuser-Busch, Inc.

Season

THE YULETIDE SEASON IS HERE . . . Wreaths, bells, holly, nativity scenes, and lights (like these) are seen everywhere. Season's Greetings to all.

NCCU choir schedules Christmas Concert

The North Carolina Central University Concert and Touring Choirs performed their annual Christmas concert at 4 p.m., December 10, in the university's B.N. Duke Auditorium. Admission was free.

A central feature of the concert was the Christmas sections of Handel's Messiah. Soloists included Dena C. Moss, soprano; Dr. Darryl Taylor, tenor; and Dr. Eugene A. Eaves, bass/baritone. Other solo selections were by student members of the choir.

Also a part of the concert was excerpts from Camille Saint Saens' Christmas Oratorio and a number of Christmas anthems and carols.

Dr. Taylor, a new member of the NCCU music faculty, makes his singing debut in Durham with this concert. He holds a doctorate from the University of Michigan School of Music.

Kwanzaa's Origination

Look, at a map, on the continent of Africa

So rich in histories, people, arts and mines; so big in size,

Three of the United States, would fit inside!!

Just observe and see Geographical lines, defining over fifty countries,

Each, with its many complexities and diversities

Of people, languages, dress, foods, education, creeds, cultures, customs, shelters, governments and currencies.

In 1966, African American Dr.

M. Ron Karenga,

After time and study in countries of Africa,

Synthesized some of the Harvest and Planting Customs of Africa (symbolic of Children, the greatest wealth)

Into our African American concept—KWANZAA!

The Red, Black and Green Festival

Red for before; Black, we are; Green future to come.

Red, Black and Green—percussion, for the drum!

When asked, "Habari gani?" for that date,

The one, of "Nguzo Saba" is what you state.

Every night, first candle lit is Black;

For the African Diaspora-Cultural Unity is a fact,

Then, candles red and green, alternately,

Karamu night, the last to be lighted is Imani.

Children, children, Oh! so special! Colorful harvest on the mat, where the Kikombe awaits the dramatic act!

"Thank you," Dr. Karenga, for joining our hands—

Of the West Indies, North, Central and South Americas—African Americans!

Celebrating Bishop Randy B. Royal's 17th Anniversary

"And I will Give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding." Jeremiah 3:15

Kwanzaa

Kwanzaa, the festival for me.
Harvest times from Africa, for the family.
Red, black, green colors,
vibrant all around;
Kinara tall, above Mkeka,
fruit-laden, on the ground.
Each day of the seven, ask
"Habari gani?"
Answer, Nguzo Saba, from
Tribal Society.
Each night of the seven, give
Mshumaa a light;
End of Kwanzaa, seven
candles burn bright.
Then the Karamu, with food
and children's Zawadi,
New Year, from Umoja to
Imani,
All sip from Kikombe, Cup of Unity,
Kwanzaa—the African American Jubilee, for me!

About Kwanzaa

Kwanzaa, our African American rites
Seven days and seven nights
Kwanzaa brings Nguzo Saba
From somewhere in Africa.
Nguzo Saba is the key
To African American identity,
From Umoja and Imani
Answers, "Habari gani?"
Vibrant red, black and green Ancient treasures to be gleaned,
Kwanzaa lights the way to strive;
Kwanzaa keeps the bonds
alive!

Dec. 26 to Jan. 1

Seven day and night ritual
From African harvests and plantings, stemming—
"Habari gani?" each day and night, asking:
One of Nguzo Saba, replying,
Every night, Mshumaa lighting—
First, the black, for Unity;
Red and green, alternately.
End of Kwanzaa, seven burning,
Then, the Karamu, so revivifying—
All the family members gathering,
Something for the table, bringing:
Prayers of thanksgiving;
To ancestors, libation pouring;
Parents gifting;
Children receiving;
"Old stories" narrating;
"Back home" songs recalling;
"Family roots" researching;
African American history updating;
African countries reviewing;
