Weather Bulletin.

Sunday—fair, warmer.

A Sad Case.

Officer G. W. Crabtree, of Durham, arrived last night with Mr. J. L. Barnhill and placed him in charge of Sheriff King. This is one of the most pitiful cases we ever saw and every heart goes out in sympathy for the unfortunate young man. We hope admission into the State Hospital can be secured at once for him and that his mind can be early restored.

Married.

MOORE-STOKES.—We are happy to inform those of our friends who have heretofore so ardently desired the annexation of Canada to the U. S. that their hopes have at least been, to a certain extent, realized, though it is improbable that the diplomatic officers of the two great English speaking nations of the world have yet become aware of such an event.

The fact of it is, that Mr. Canada Moore and Miss Eula Stokes were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the house of Squire L. B. Mewborn, on Sunday, Squire Mewborn officiating. It is impossible, yet, to tell what Secretary Gresham will think of Squire Mewborn's acts when he hears of this marriage; but it is to be hoped that no trouble will arise out of the affair, and that the nations of the new world will ever remain at peace with each other.

G. Gardnerville, N. C. Dec 10, '94.

A DEATH BLOW.

Another Prize Fighter Knocked-Out and Killed.

(Special to Reflector.)

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Dec. 15.—Andy Bowne, a prize fighter, who was knocked out in a contest here last night by Kid Lavigne, died early this morning. Bowne was struck on the head by his opponent, knocked limp into his corner and was almost lifeless when borne from the ring by his backers. He never regained consciousness after the blow.

Officers of the Guards.

At the meeting of Pitt county Rifles, Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected:

Captain—J. T. Smith.
1st Lieutenant—B. F. Sugg.
2nd Lieutenant—J. R. Cory.

ENCOURAGING WORDS.

Since the DAILY REFLECTOR made its appearance it has received many kind and encouraging words from the home folks. These are all fully appreciated, because we feel that the little paper belongs to the people of Greenville—they are going to make it just what it is to be—and in speaking of it they talk about their own. But nothing has gratified us more than two letters Thursday night's mail brought us, and we believe the home people will be pleased to know how their town and an enterprise they are helping to establish is viewed by prominent business men elsewhere, hence we print a portion of each letter.

One is from a leading firm in Baltimore who are well known to the people of Greenville and are largely interested here, and says:

"We are in receipt of the first issue of the DAILY REFLECTOR. We congratulate you on this enterprise, and wish you success in it. The increased life and progress which are now so apparent in Greenville ought to warrant a daily issue of your valuable paper."

The other is from the largest dry goods firm in Salisbury, composed of gentlemen who once lived in Greenville, and says:

"We received a copy of the infant DAILY REFLECTOR, and comparing the noise it is making with its size we cannot help pronouncing it quite healthy, and predict a rising future for same. Hope it will receive proper nourishment from the enterprising business community where it first saw the light of the world. Wish you success." &c.

Ex-Congressman Ewart, and a member of the House in the present Legislature, does not hesitate to express himself upon any public question. He has been interviewed both by the News & Observer and the Charlotte Observer during the present week. Some things he says we presume are not relished much by some of the leaders. For instance, that Mr. Butler by no means has been promised the long term in the Senate. He also says there will be a spirited contest over both the long and short term. That the national Republicans favor the election of two Republicans from North Carolina. That this is not impossible. He declares himself a candidate for one of the places. He expresses the opinion that the present Legislature will be conservative and then mentions a few things likely to be done which will be radical changes in existing affairs. These interviews are interesting in their suggestion at the present time.

The Cherokee Scout says: "If you want to 'get on to' the financial situation just tackle some fellow with the gable end of his pants out, who spends his time in sitting on the fence corners and attending coon hunts. He can tell you just how the government's finances should be managed, but he cannot manage to keep his wife out of the field, his children at school or meal in the barrel."

WILEY BROWN,

Outwitted.

A man's theory may be first class and yet not stand him in good stead to the bitter end.

An Irishman, who had provided himself with a huge horse-pistol, and taken to the road to replenish his exchequer, met a farmer returning from the market with a bag of money.

"Your money or your life?" demanded Pat, presenting the pistol in the usual way.

The farmer chanced to be a Quaker, and he essayed to tempt him. "I would not have thee stain thy soul with sin, friend," said he; "and didst thou kill me, it would be murder. But hold! A bargain is no sin, but a commerce between two honest men. I will give thee this bag of gold for the pistol which thou holdest at my ear."

The unsuspecting amateur highway man made the change without a moment's hesitation.

"Now, friend," cried the wily Ephraim, leveling the weapon, "give me back my gold, or I'll blow thy brains out?"

"Blaze away, then, darlint!" said Pat. "Sure there's niver a dhrup of powther in it!"

Why There Are Old Maids.

One cause for so many old maids is due to the girls themselves, says the New England House Wife. What young man of the middle class cares to marry a girl who would let her father wear a coat with buttons off and linen collar that is torn and ragged? Such a girl doesn't deserve a husband, and she will be likely to join the grand army of old maids.

If there be anything on earth the young men fight shy of, it is a slovenly girl. The father or the brother is the evidence, and when you see them walking to their work with their clothes torn and looking like men who had to put up with a slack wife, mother or grown up daughter and sister, you need look for nothing better if you marry into that family.

You know a lazy girl or two of this kind, don't you? Think of those you can single out, two or three girls this article will hit. If so, for their own sake send this to them. Let them do a little plain sewing, and promise that hereafter their father or brothers will not walk the streets ragged and battered, a disgrace to them and an inclination that they are too lazy to be the wife of any good young man who has to work for a living to make a home, and needs a loving, industrious helpmate to share the joys and burdens of life with him.

OUR REFLECTOR.

Look in and See Your Face

Mrs. Delphia Quinerly left this morning for Rocky Mount.

Mr. Cornelius Kinsaul is able to be out from his sickness.

Miss Annie Lawrence, who has recently had a long spell of fever has recovered.

Mr. J. L. Bridgers, of Tarboro, who has been attending court, returned home this morning.

Mr. E. S. Phelps went up to Goose Nest to-day to attend the quarterly meeting of Conoho church.

Mr. W. S. Greer took the train this morning for his home in Baltimore and the boys have tied up the bell clapper.

We were glad to see Rev. G. L. Finch at the depot a few minutes this morning. He was on his way to Halifax to visit relatives.

Prof. C. H. James, of James school, Grindbol, has been spending his time here. He called in to subscribe for the DAILY REFLECTOR.

Mr. Abe Clark, of Granville county, is here making arrangements for moving his family down at an early day. He was engaged in the improvement culture.

A wagon loaded with straw broke down in front of Mr. B. F. Suggs' marble yard this afternoon.

My Christmas neckties just in, they are beauties. Frank Wilson

The County Commissioners in a body visited and inspected the Home of the Aged and Infirm to-day. They report everything out there in good order.

Beautiful line Neck Wear, nice Christmas presents, at Munford's.

Register of Deeds King issued marriage licenses to-day to one white and two colored couples. They were Frank Dixon and Lydia Cannon, James Chancy and Jennie Ebor, Henry Parker and Pussie Jones.

Call in and see my Christmas neckwear just in. Frank Wilson.

BOSWELL, SPEIGHT & CO.

There are eighteen hotels and boarding houses in Greenville, not including restaurants. This looks like people ought to be well supplied with something to eat.

Court adjourned to-day, having occupied the full two weeks allotted to the term. Very few cases were disposed of, railroad suits taking up most of the time.

Two diminutive darkies, about as black as nature ever makes them, and occupying one baby carriage, created some merriment among the crowd at the depot this morning.

BIG RUSH.—At Morris Myer's confectionery store. Remember that I sell fruits and candies cheaper than any one in town. I keep Apples, Oranges, Pears, Grapes, Chestnuts, Pineapples, Coconuts, and all kinds of Candy made fresh every day. I want all the ladies and gentlemen to come and see me, don't be bashful.
