SOLICITORSHIP CONTESTS.

Governor Carr Saturday wrote the following letter to Claude M. Bernard, fusion nominee for solicitor of the Third district:

"John E. Woodard having refused to accept the commission as solicitor of the Third district tendered him in conformity with the certificate of election sent me by the Secretary of State, for reasons which he has stated in a letter, and recognizing the fact that the people intended to elect you solicitor, I hereby tender you the appointment to fill the vacancy."

A similar letter was sent Herbert F. Seawell, fusion nominee for solicitor of the Seventh district.

Their counsel gave notice that neither would accept the commission. They will bring suit to secure their right to the positions for four years and not for two years, which is all the time the Governor's commission would cover.

Parting Sermon.

Rev. J. H. Lamberth delivered his parting sermon at the Baptist church Sunday night. It consisted of a brief history of his own experience which was told in a manner both interesting and touching. We wish every young man in the community could have heard him. It was indeed an inspiration to a higher, better and more noble life. In his closing remarks he referred to the happiness his stay in Greenville had afforded him, his pleasant relations with the ministers of other denominations, and the congenial manner in which he had been treated by all our people. Mr. Lamberth is truly a consecrated christian gentleman, a faithful man of God, an able, eloquent preacher, and it is with reluctance and sorrow that the church and community part with him. Greenville has been greatly benefitted by such a man living among us.

Merry Christmas is here. The most joyous season of the year has once more come around bringing with it the happy re-unions of friend and kindred, its festivities, and the hallowed memories associated with the glad day. Let us not in our happiness forget the less favored ones around us, but do some deed of kindness in the name of Him who was God's best gift to the world. We spend a poor Christmas if we fail to make some heart glad.

Reports received at the State Agricultural Department show that the increase of hogs in North Carolina is 100 per cent. in the last two years, and that less meat will be purchased outside of the State than at any time since the war. Farmers state that they propose to reduce the cotton acreage one half to two-thirds and to proportionately increase grain crops.

The low price of cotton is the cause of serious alarm to the Egyptian growers. They are unable to pay their taxes, and the price of land in the delta has fallen off considerably. American planters have but to grow corn as well as cotton and they will command the situation.

Mr. B. L. Perry who for two years past has been proprietor of the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City, is so severely ill at his home in Raleigh of heart disease and dropsy that his life is despaired of.

The DAILY REFLECTOR wishes for every one the very fullest measure of happiness this merry Christmas.

The report of the insane asylum at Raleigh for the two years ending November 30th, last shows that there are now 307 patients. Two years ago there were 300, and during that period 84 males and 87 females were admitted, making total number under treatment 471. Ninety-six were discharged cured, 20 as improved, 3 on probation, and 47 died. The death rate is only 5 per cent, the average in this country in asylums being 7 per cent.; and 54 per cent. of those admitted recovered their minds, the general average in asylums being 35 per cent. The annual appropriation for the asylum is $52,500, and the per capita cost is only $108.87, this including all their expenses of maintenance, clothing, &c., as well as repairs of the buildings. During the year a new building containing wards for 75 females and a congregate dining-room large enough to accommodate 250 females has been completed at a cost of $16,880.

Marion Butler, President of the National Farmers' Alliance, announces that the next annual meeting will be held in Raleigh in February, at which time the corner stone will be laid to the monument that is to be erected in Oakwood cemetery to the memory of the late Col. L. L. Poik.

WISE WORDS.

Hope is a necessity ; realization a luxury.

Precept may lead, but examples will draw.

You can't stop a villain's tongue, but you can stop your own ears.

The man who minds his own business will always have business to mind.

A reformer is often a man whose neighbors wish he would begin on himself.

Every man makes the world either richer or poorer by what he gives to it of himself.

It is always safe to learn, even from our enemies—seldom safe to instruct, even our friends.

A man cannot possess anything that is better than a good wife, or worse than a bad one.

Only Bad Men Are There.

"Printers and newspaper men are sometimes, among the uninformed, classed as bad men," said an old gray-haired man who used to "hold down a case" in the first print shop ever established in St. Joseph. "Statistics, however, do not bear out the idea. Of 3890 convicts in the State Penitentiary of Texas there is not a printer or newspaper man, while there are ministers, doctors, bankers, barbers, photographers, barkeepers, cooks and members of all others professions and callings. If the printer ever gets a bad name it may possibly be sometimes because the nature of the business leads him to detest shams, and he therefore scorns to play the hypocrite."—St. Joseph News.
