F. Sec.—W. L. Brown.

Treas.—D. W. Hardee.

They will be installed next Tuesday night at their regular meeting.

The Day Enjoyed.

Greenville had a quiet Christmas, but taken altogether a very pleasant one. The weather was almost perfect and everybody enjoyed being out of doors. Pop-crackers and drums kept up a continual racket, but it would not have been Xmas without noise. The Elmo band decorated a wagon and, followed by a few characters disguised in comique, paraded the streets in the afternoon. General good order prevailed yesterday, and with the exception of a scrap or two and a little disposition to do some regulating and house painting on Christmas eve night, nothing occurred to mar anybody's happiness. It made everybody feel good to see the little folks enjoying themselves. Early last night there were some fire-work displays.

SHOT TO DEATH.

A Constable Killed for Discharging His Duty.

(Special to Reflector.)

WASHINGTON N. C., Dec. 26.—At Idalia yesterday J. F. Bergeron shot and killed Constable J. H. Watson. The Constable had arrested Bergeron for some offense and the Magistrate before whom the case was tried imposed a heavy fine. This angered Bergeron and he shot Watson twice in the back of the head. After Watson fell Bergeron shot him four times more. He is under arrest and officers are expected to reach here with him to-day. Bergeron has attempted suicide on several occasions.

A BAD HOUSE RAIDED.

(Special to Reflector.)

WASHINGTON N. C., Dec. 26.—On Christmas morning about 4 o'clock a crowd went to a house of ill repute and literally broke to pieces every window sash in the house and battered the doors. A young man who was in the house fired at the crowd with a pistol, a ball entering the left shoulder of one party and another getting shot in the throat. None of the wounds are serious.

Married.

MANNING-McLAWHORN.—Christmas day at 4 o'clock, P. M., at the residence of Mr. Guilford Harris, near Greenville, Mr. C. F. Manning and Miss Priscilla McLawhorn were married by Rev. J. B. Hardee. A supper was spread for the bridal party at the home of Mr. James Evans and a reception held there at night. The REFLECTOR extends best wishes.

Two Teeth at Birth—Four Teeth at Ten Days Old

A Charlotte commercial tourist who came in Wednesday morning from a trip down the Carolina Central, brings the News an item of interest to the public and of value to the medical journals. At Lake Waccamaw, near Wilmington, he saw a girl baby two weeks old. When the baby was born it had two teeth. When it was ten days old it had four teeth. This is an actual fact. It is a strong healthy child, and the drummer, who saw it, pertinently asks "who can beat it?"—Charlotte News.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Norfolk Virginian has this item:

"In the course of a very long interview, Hon. D. L. Russell intimates that while the county government system will be made elective by the new Legislature so far as the western or white counties are concerned, it will continue to be appointive as far as the negro majority counties in the east are concerned. Judge Russell says this with entire frankness, strong Republican as he is. In other words he declares that negro rule will not be permitted."

LITTLE BITS.

Cream of Local News Boiled Down for Busy Folks.

Cotton 4½ to-day.

Things have looked dull in town to-day.

Services were held in the Episcopal church yesterday.

Regular prayer meeting services in the Methodist church to-night.

Granulated Sugar 5 cents a pound, and Seedless Raisins at Old Brick Store.

This is an all-round disagreeable day, and quite a contrast with the beautiful weather of yesterday.

You can still get Dry Goods and Clothing at bottom prices at C. T. Munford's.

A heavy storm was reported on the Florida and Georgia coast this morning. It is moving this way.

Little Miss Mattie Moye King, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. R. W. King, had a Christmas tree for a number of her little friends Monday evening.

Register of Deeds King issued marriage licenses to the following couples: Tanner Perkins and Annie Brown, James H. Hardy and Lilla Gardner.

There were only a few participants in the cake walk last night and but two of these were masqued, making the occasion much less interesting to the audience than was expected. Miss Julia Foley won the cake.

Mr. W. T. Smith, keeper of the county house for the aged and infirm, died Christmas afternoon, about 4 o'clock.

FOUND—At the depot last night a lady's white silk bow with silver buckle. Owner can get it at REFLECTOR office by identifying same and paying for this notice.

The manager of the Chick Medicine and Concert Company has been here to make arrangements for a two weeks engagement beginning Jan. 7th. Entertainments will be given every night in the Opera House. A small admission price will be charged, part of the proceeds going to furnish desks for the new public school house.

Cruel and Shameful.

The most cruel thing we saw Christmas was the way a rabbit was being tortured by a crowd near the Court House. The poor thing was turned loose on the street and dogs set after it. When captured it was taken from the dogs and in a few minutes the performance was repeated. This was kept up as long as the rabbit had life enough left to run.
