Vol. 1.

Greenville, N. C., January 11, 1895.

No. 28.

Local Trains and Boat Schedule.

Passenger and mail train going north, arrives 8:22 A. M. Going South, arrives 6:37 P. M.

North Bound Freight, arrives 9:45 A. M., leaves 10:15 A. M.

South Bound Freight, arrives 1:51 P. M., leaves 2:11 P. M.

Steamer Myers arrives from Washington Monday, Wednesday and Friday leaves for Washington Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Weather Bulletin.

Saturday fair, colder.

A rich find of gold is one of the recent occurrences in Lincoln county.

An exchange observes that "the country is smiling all around." This proves that it didn't swear off New Year's.

Place your market orders for Saturday and Sunday with I. Rumley. Nice meats, Beef and Sausage.

POSITION WANTED.—As Book-or Salesman in General Merchandise store. Will give satisfactory testimonials. Apply for name at REFLECTOR office.

The Harriett Weems Company telegraphed here to make a two nights' engagement but could not get the Opera House. Our people would have been glad of an opportunity of hearing them.

The Chick Concert Company gave another delightful performance at the Opera House last night to the largest audience of the season. A charming programme will be put on to-night and every one should go.

A great many drummers are coming to town now, taking orders from the merchants for spring goods. The hotel people, and many others who have dealings with them, smile when these clever knights of the grip come around.

Blown Over.

The large bill board put up in October between Gorman's prison and the railroad, nearly blew down in the hard wind Thursday. Mr. J. S. Jenkins was walking by it at the time and it came so near catching him as to give him a considerable scare.

Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of from the noon recess yesterday to noon to-day:

David Haywood, carrying concealed weapon, guilty.

J. J. Norvill, assault with deadly weapon, not guilty.

T. C. Nelson, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, $20 and costs.

John Vinson, injury to stock, not guilty.

Tobe Wooten, carrying concealed weapon, guilty.

Mills Rollins, assault with deadly weapon, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Please Consider This

The only way a good paper can be established and kept up is by giving it a liberal patronage. There are a number of families in Greenville who ought to subscribe for the DAILY REFLECTOR and lots of business men who ought to have advertisements in it. They all say they are glad a daily paper has been started here and hope it will be permanent. Well, kind words are helpful, but patronage goes a long way further. We are not complaining at anybody, but we would like to see this become such a paper that everybody in Greenville would be proud of it.

The New York Herald gives a table showing the lowest points touched by the gold reserve in each of the past six years, as follows:

1890—August	$180,654,640
1890—September	147,981,732
1891—June	117,667,722
1892—July	110,444,391
1893—December	80,891,600
1894—July	54,975,607.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

The grip of a very deadly kind has become epidemic in New York city.

Secretary Carlisle's banking bill was killed in Congress by a vote of 130 to 124.

The store of J. D. & R. S. Christian, wholesale merchants of Richmond, gutted by fire, loss $10,000.

The Merchant's National Bank of Defiance, Ohio, was robbed of $20,000 by burglars who blew open the safe.

The West Virginia legislature organized by electing Republican officers. Stephen B. Elkins will get the Senatoship.

State Treasurer Taylor, of South Dakota, failed to put in an appearance to turn over the office and money to his successor, and is absent with $350,000 of the State's money. He was a heavy loser by several bank failures during the panic.

GROWING TOBACCO INTEREST.

The year that has just closed has, we think, very clearly demonstrated to our people the advantages of the tobacco market. There is no line of industry in our midst but what has in some way been benefitted by the money paid out on the breaks for tobacco. Cotton at present prices will be planted in much less quantity than usual. The acreage in tobacco will be greatly increased in the section adjacent to this market. The warehouses are going to prepare to handle the increased crop, but we will need more prize room for our buyers, our facilities for handling tobacco will not be ample to handle this year's crop. Can't some of our capitalist build more prize houses, we need several more. There is no need of any one with money being afraid to invest now. The tobacco market here is now on a solid basis. We are recognized as the leading market of the east, manufacturers of the bright grades are sending their orders here and arranging to increase their business. We expect sales next season to be increased over this year's by one hundred per cent. Without a change of intentions on the part of the planters, Greenville, the mistress of the New Golden Belt, will sell more tobacco than any other eastern market.

Our Possibilities are Great.

The question has been asked the REFLECTOR if we thought that at the close of 1895 we would be able to publish as good a building record for Greenville for the year as was shown for 1894. Of course it is too early yet to form any idea of what will be done, but we would like to see more new buildings this year than even the splendid record of last year shows. A gentleman who heard the question, remarked that Greenville ought to build a cotton factory, a knitting factory and a tobacco factory this year. So it had. And mark this prediction: If Greenville will establish three such factories in this year of 1895, you will see 10,000 people living here by the year 1900.

Gems of Thought.

No man knows just what he can do till he tries.

That culture which does not reach the heart is a failure.

Sow good services. Sweet remembrances will grow from them.

Every evil to which we do not succumb is a benefactor. We gain the strength of the temptation to resist.

The first ingredient in good conversation is truth, the next good sense, the third good humor and the fourth wit.

Those who sneer habitually at human nature and get to desire it are among its worst and least pleasant samples.

It is only the great hearted who can be true friends. The mean and cowardly can never know what true friendship means.—Montreal Star.

The A. C. L. Tuesday sent a car load of corn and rice to the Nebraska sufferers. The 500 bushels of corn was bought from Mr. Jonathan Havens and the rice came from Wilmington. In each sack of corn and rice was a beautiful pamphlet, illustrated and setting forth the advantages of Eastern Carolina as a home for honest working men. This was a bit of commendable enterprise as well as generosity on the part of the Coast Line.—Washington Gazette.

THE BICYCLE

Appellations Given to It by Those of Foreign Tongues.

Here, says the Courier des Etats Unis, is an amusing linguistic consultation on the subject of the denomination of the velocipede in different languages. In French it was called celerifere and velocifere. Then came the words bicycle, bicyclette, veloce, and at last velo. The word became, which has also been given to it, is taken from the Argot. Its etymology is unknown. It signifies simply machine.

In Italian it is called velocifero, velocipede, and bicicletta. The same in Spanish.

In Germany it is farrad or simply rad, just as in English they say "wheel." The Chinese call it sometimes "gaugma," which means "foreign horse," and sometimes "fei chai," "flying machine." They also call it "tzu tzun," "carriage-that-goes-without-horse." But the palm must be given to the Flemish. In addition to the appellations, "snelwiel," "voetwiel," and so forth, some of the wags on the banks of the Escault have baptized this winged contraption with the centipede name: "Gewielsnelrijvoettrappeudneusbrekergestel!!!"

As He Saw Himself.

"Gracious," said the artist to the sculptor, "you've made that bust of Swelby outrageously large."

"Yes," was the reply; "I had to do it. He told me to make it life-size, and I couldn't risk insulting him."—Washington Star.

A WONDERFUL LIGHT.

An Illumination Equal to About 250,000,000 Candle Power.

The idea of an electric light which, fed by a current from a dynamo actuated by a forty-horse power engine and giving 7,000-candle power, can have its illuminating power intensified more than 35,000 times, is not easy to grasp. It means the projection of a stream of light of about 250,000,000-candle power, and it is no wonder that the announcement that such a light is about to be used in this country has been received with some incredulity in Europe.

Yet this is the efficiency of the light which will be shortly erected at Fire island for the illumination of the adjacent coast and the protection of the fleet of ships entering New York harbor. Bearing in mind that an ordinary oil lamp is about thirty-eight or forty-candle power, and then try to imagine the combined beam of about 3,000,000 lamps.

The most powerful oil lamp yet made is supposed to shine out on a clear night for a distance of thirty-five or forty miles, but the new light will flash its welcome rays to the incoming European "liners" when they are 120 miles away. The light revolves rapidly and throws out its beams with the intensity and speed of lightning. The motive power which actuates it is a simple clock-work arrangement contained in a box two feet square, and although the revolving portion of the light weighs fifteen tons, the mechanism controlling it is so delicate that the pressure of two fingers will turn it.

The value of this marvelous lamp can only be determined by practical working, but it promises to represent an immense stride in the science of coast and lighthouse illumination. —Chicago Times.

Sharks Are Useful.

The shark, much as the sailors may hate it, furnishes several valuable products. An oil obtained from its liver vies in medicinal qualities with that obtained from the liver of the cod; its skin, when dried, takes the hardness and polish of mother of pearl, and is used by jewelers for fancy objects, by binders for making shagreen, and by cabinet-makers for polishing wood. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Faces Caught as They Passed Before the Reflector.

Agent J. R. Moore returned last night from Elm City.

Mr. E. H. Taft has accepted a position with J. B. Cherry & Co.

Mr. C. C. Joyner has returned to his studies at the University.

Mr. W. P. Hall has moved his family from Skinnerville to Forbestown.

Mrs. W. H. Harrington left this morning for Rocky Mount to visit her people.

Mr. J. S. C. Benjamin left this morning to spend a few days in Martin county.

Mr. L. H. Pender went to Tarboro this morning to attend the district steward's meeting.

Mr. George Dixon, a young man of Grimesland, died of typhoid fever Tuesday.

Mr. John E. Woodard, former Solicitor of this District, arrived last night to spend a few days here.

Mr. Charles Cobb, of Farmville, has moved his family to Greenville and occupies the Fleming house in Skinnerville.

Miss Jennie Williams is teaching a school at Pactolus. She is an excellent teacher and one of our most charming young ladies.

Mr. W. T. Lipscomb has moved his family to the Dancy house on Pitt street. We never lived by more pleasant neighbors and regret that they have moved out of Forbestown.

Mr. L. H. Short, representing Cardiza, Gilliams & Co. of Phila, was here Thursday. He was a former conductor on the Scotland Neck branch before it was extended to Kinston.

The striking resemblance between Judge Coble and Presiding Elder Oglesby has been noticed by many people attending Court. We heard one man enquiring, when did Elder Oglesby become a judge.

The Greenville REFLECTOR is getting out a baby daily issue. It is quite nice.—Lexington Dispatch.

Calvin Sutton, colored, while cutting timber near Grifton Thursday, was nearly killed by a tree falling on him.

A prominent tobacco man tells us that at least two more good prize houses are needed in Greenville. Won't somebody with money take the hint and build them.

It fared off last night and for several hours was very bright and beautiful, but the threatening clouds and increased coldness to-day look like more snow may be coming.

The sewer that crosses the street near the Academy has caved in. Policeman Moore went down this afternoon to view it, so we feel safe in saying it will be fixed at once.

Editor W. Lichard, of the Greenville REFLECTOR, is issuing a daily. It is rather small but it's brimful of news and the Landmark hopes it will prosper and grow.—Statesville Landmark.

Mr. H. T. King, who purchased the Index from Mr. Joyner has changed the name of the paper to King's Weekly and will enlarge it. The first issue under his management came out this morning. We wish it success.
