Vol. 1.

Greenville, N. C., February 8, 1895.

No. 52.

Local Trains and Boat Schedule.

Passenger and mail train going north, arrives 8:22 A. M. Going South, arrives 6:37 P. M.

North Bound Freight, arrives 9:45 A. M. leaves 10:15 A. M.

South Bound Freight, arrives 1:51 P. M. leaves 2:11 P. M.

Steamer Myers arrives from Washington Monday, Wednesday and Friday leaves for Washington Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Horses and Horses.

Four car loads of horses came in on the freight late Thursday evening, for Tucker & Edwards and R. L. Smith & Co. We doubt if any town in the State the size of Greenville has sold more stock this season than has been sold here.

Rainbow Tea.

"Oh, what a delightful party," says everyone who was present at the Rainbow Tea given by Miss Margaret Langley to a small party of friends Thursday night. The couples were Mr. J. A. Andrews and Miss Hortense Forbes, Mr. W. I. Boswell and Mrs. Georgia Pearce, Mr. Zeno Moore and Miss Carrie Cobb, Mr. Herbert White and Miss Jennie James, Mr. James Starkey and Miss Margaret Langley. Their girls, to the regret of all, being sick, Chief James, Joe Starkey and James Cherry were stags.

Each girl carried an unhemmed apron which was to be hemmed by her escort, a prize—handsome scarf—to be given for the best hemmed apron, and a booby—rusty thimble—for the poorest work.

Mr. Andrews having forgotten his glasses, got Joe Starkey to sew for him. Such work, such anxiety and such long stitches! The judges—good ones, too—Mrs. F. G. James, and Mrs. Langley, awarded the scarf to Mr. Boswell and the thimble to Mr. White.

After an elegant supper the guests returned home, and all say they know by experience that a Rainbow Tea may be enjoyed even if the weather is cold.

THE LEGISLATURE.

WEDNESDAY.

The most important bills introduced to-day were to incorporate the Carolina and Northwestern railway; to forbid the marriage of first cousins; to allow citizens to kill game and catch fish and oysters in all public waters; to incorporate the Western North Carolina Christian Conference, and to prevent desecration of churches.

A bill passed for the relief of all sheriffs and tax collectors, while a bill to allow the shipment of game from the State was tabled. The bill to let the public printing to the lowest bidder, about which there has been so much discussion, passed the Senate; and in the same body the bill to work the public roads by taxation and convict labor was defeated on third reading by one vote.

Seven Colder.

At noon to-day the temperature was 7 degrees lower than any day at noon during the cold spell two years ago. To-day it was 15, while the coldest day in January, 93, it was 22.

Holds the Key.

Mr. H. A. Sutton tells the best one we have heard on the weather. He says a bird went to fly from one tree to another and froze stiff in mid air with wings extended. The bird at last account was still poisoning in the air waiting to thaw out enough to get on to the next tree.

They Will Do It.

The papers report that a negro boy fell between the cars, while attempting to steal a ride on a freight train at Charlotte, and lost an arm and a leg. Notwithstanding such accidents frequently occur, you may notice at most any railroad station and see boys jumping on and off trains. We see it often.

ICICLES.

Little Things Caught in the Snow
Drift or Pulled out of the Mud.

Come in out of the cold.

Turn up your coat collar.

Miss Loraine Horne is sick.

Not much work going on out of doors.

This is the REFLECTOR's weather
edition.

Old Brick Store.

Mr. Edward Greene left to-day
for Baltimore.

There was six inches of snow
in Norfolk yesterday.

Mr. E. H. Shelburn returned last night from Tarboro.

You may hug the stove, and even then it is hard to keep warm.

Personal items are back numbers to-day. People all frozen in.

The frosted store windows
made many beautiful pictures
this morning.

This wind feels like it has got a pocket full of sharp knives
along with it.

Fine stock of Shoes just in at J. L. Starkey & Co's.

Mr. Thomas Hooker, of Hookerton, is studying pharmacy
under Mr. J. L. Wooten.

Dr. O'Hagan says that with one exception last night was the coldest he has noticed since the war.

We are sorry to hear that the Rocky Mount Evening News has suspended. It was a bright little paper.

How the poor suffer in this bitter weather! There are houses where a load of wood would be a great blessing now.

The steam chest to the engine that runs the trim saw at the Greenville Lumber Co's plant
froze and burst last night.

This section did not have any snow last night except a few stray flakes but the wind and cold wave got here in immense style.

Door key found on bridge near Academy and left at this office.
Owner can get it by paying 10 cents for this notice.

The tobacco acreage will be largely increased all over the county this year. Our farmers are getting tired of 4½ cent cotton.

At 6 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 6 degrees
at Riverside Nursery, and from 7 to 8 at points down town. Mr.
John Flanagan says just before day it was down to 2 at his house.

Mr. M. R. Lang has furnished the REFLECTOR carriers with water proof storm hats. They come in mighty handy for the boys in bad weather and they are proud of such comfortable head coverings.

The blanks for land mortgages,
crop liens and deeds sold at RE-FLECTOR office correspond exactly with the forms used in the record books of the Register of Deeds office. When these blanks are used you have correct forms.

Doctors, news hunters and carriers are about the only ones who are compelled to get around out of doors in all kinds of weather.
These belong solely to the public but are often poorly appreciated.

The Warmest Place.

Ollen Warren says he expected to find his greenhouse at Riverside frozen up this morning, but when he crawled out at 5:15 to go investigate he found the thermometer registering even 50 degrees. There was such a difference in temperature inside and out that he was inclined to spend the day with the flowers.

Slipped on the Ice.

This afternoon Mrs. D. E.
Doughty started to the postoffice and when between Mr.
Lang's and Mrs. Pearce's slipped on the icy sidewalk and fell, hurting herself right severely. Some ladies living near by helped her up but she could not walk, when Messrs. L. W. Lawrence and B.
F. Sugg arrived and took her home. Her left hip and knee were badly wrenched in the fall.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

The Norfolk & Western railroad has gone into the hands of receivers.

Some idea of the severity of this weather may be had from the following temperature records: 12 degrees below zero at New Market, Va.; 2 below at Philadelphia; 20 below in the mountain regions of Pennsylvania; 50 below in Wisconsin; 18
below in New Hampshire; from 8 to 24 below in New York; coldest in Baltimore for 20 years; all over Europe colder than in many years; throughout the extreme west and north west the blizzard
is the severest known.

Please hand the carriers your subscription for the DAILY RE-FLECTOR.

A Cold Bath.

A few days ago Dr. O. J. O'Hagan, who by the way has few peers in medicine or surgery in the South, was called here to see a patient. In making his way back to the boat at night by a mis-step he fell overboard and narrowly escaped drowning. Several gentlemen nearby ran to his rescue and pulled him out of the water. The water was quite cold, but the veteran Physician stood the shock wonderfully well.
