Marriage Licenses.

Only two couples, both white, applied to Register of Deeds King this week for a permit to get married. They were W. A. Garris and Cornelia Forbes, J. E. Roberson and Lizzie Congleton.

Prayed Too Long.

We notice that the gentleman from Pitt, the Rev. J. T. Phillips offered prayer at the opening of the House of Representatives on Thursday, and that day is reported as the most boisterous and sensational of the session so far. Verily his prayer was much availing.

Composes Poetry in His Sleep.

Dr. Warren was telling a good one this morning on his brother Ollen. He said Ollen woke him up last night laughing in his sleep. He kept still to see what Ollen was up to and heard him repeat two lines of poetry.

"Oh, the snow; the beautiful snow.

Let me see you before you go

Ollen then broke out in another laugh so that Doc. could not catch the remainder of the verse. When reminded of his poetic turn this morning Ollen had no recollection of it, but said he did dream that he got up and upon going out of doors found that all the snow was gone. We expect the doctor has got a true bill on him

Weather Bulletin.

Snow to day and to-night, fair Sunday, colder.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY.

Bills were introduced in the Senate to day to provide for lumber inspectors, to regulate the drawing of jurors to extend the time for work to begin on the Greensboro and Norfolk Railway—the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment bill to punish delays by railways in shipment of perishable freight.

The Senate tabled the bill providing for the compulsory education of the blind and passed the bill to require railways to redeem unused tickets and to prevent ticket scalping.

In the House bills were introduced to provide for the election of Commissioner of Agriculture by the Legislature, to require executors to give bond, and to promote the breeding of better horses.

Many Republicans resented attacks made by Marion Butler's paper, the Caucasian, charging them with trying to smother the 6 per cent interest bill. They made some severe remarks about Butler and his pressure upon the Legislature and they became even more excited when the Populists said if the six per cent bill were not passed the Populists would no longer vote with the Republicans and that no more important bills would be passed.

Bills were tabled to make May 30th a legal holiday and to prevent preferences by insolvent corporations.

"Overseer" Butler got a set back Thursday when the House referred the interest bill to the committee on Finance. He went in the House Wednesday and had it taken from the judiciary committee and it looked like he was master of the situation but he was downed the next day. Let the good work go on.

The insinuation by Mr. Peeler, an Attorney in Raleigh, before the committee on Education, that Major Fingar and John C. Scarborough had been unduly influenced in their selection of books for the public schools has aroused considerable indignation on the part of those who know that the accusation was groundless and false. But these two gentlemen have so denounced the charge.

Boss Butler received a good thrashing in the House Thursday. He has accused the Republicans of uniting with the Democrats to defeat the interest bill in Wednesday's issue of his paper. The next day Mr. Ewart started the ball when he rose to a personal privilege. He was followed by Lusk, Campbell, Cox and others and the News and Observer says he was denounced with the following epithets by these Republicans:

1. A liar.
2. A self-constituted Czar.
3. A Bulldozer.
4. A Penny a liner.
5. An Intimidator.
6. A Brutal Scribbler.
7. A Falsifier.
8. An Unjust and Ungentlemanly fellow.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb 15, 1895

With the Senate pulling one way and the House the other there is little probability that President Cleveland's advice will be taken to the extent of saving $16,000,000 in interest that will have to be paid on those 3 and 3 1/4 per cent bonds. The House Ways and Means committee has reported a revolution for the saving of those millions by authorizing the issue of 3 per cent gold bonds.

But nothing can be hoped from the Senate, where it has been announced by those who are strong enough to make good their language that the only financial legislation they will agree to is the one for the unlimited coinage of silver, which has been favorably reported from the Finance Committee. This bill provides that the government shall coin and deliver for each dollar's worth of bullion presented at the mints one silver dollar, and that the difference in weight shall be retained as seigniorage, and was originally introduced by Senator Jones of Arkansas.

It would seem that Secretary Fish's statement that the only reason for not at first making public all the details of the contract made for the purchase of gold with bonds was that it might hamper the other contracting parties, and that the administration had nothing to conceal should have been sufficient, but it has not prevented some of the Senators from making exhibition of themselves.

The Senate amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, appropriating $5,000,000 to start the laying of a government cable to Hawaii, has many bitter enemies in the House, which has refused to concur therein. The bill is now in the conference, and unless the Senate recedes a contest lasting to the closing days of the session, and maybe resulting in the failure of the appropriation bill is inevitable.

The Quorum Restored.

Col. Harry Skinner, of Pitt county, returned yesterday to Raleigh and to his field of labor here. During his absence the Legislature has been unable to do anything for lack of a quorum. The Big Five constitute a quorum in the General Assembly for transacting business, and when they leave the city, the whole thing stops till they come back to set the wheels in motion again—Raleigh News and Observer.

It is said that there is a man in Georgia so tender-hearted that he can't bear to see his wife saw wood. That's nothing; we know of several men up here who are so tender-hearted that they won't even buy the wood for their wives to saw.—Orange Observer.

Mr. Wink Taylor, proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel at Columbia, S. C., has leased the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City and will run it the coming season.

History of Henry VIII.

A story of a man of the German town of Breda, who had a new position of King Henry VIII. It read as follows: "King Henry was the greatest wilder than ever lived. He was born at Avila, Spain, in the year 1494. He has 510 wives besides which. The first was beheaded and the 21 was never. He was succeeded to the throne by his great-grandson, the boy King, Mary Queen of Scots, some times called Lady of the Leazes or the Lady of the East. Minister—Katherine.
