Vol. 1.

Greenville, N. C., February 18, 1895.

No. 60.

At the Methodist Church.

Presiding Elder G. A. Oglesby had large congregations to hear him at the Methodist church Sunday, and preached two delightful sermons. The sacrament was administered at the close of the morning service.

To the Fair.

It looks now like the weather will be favorable for the Newbern fair this week. The fair is going to be the best ever held there. A large crowd will go on the excursion from here Wednesday. Rates only $2.50 for the round trip.

A Week of Amusements.

George A. Hill's Standard Theatre Co. begin a week's engagement in the Opera House to night. Their first presentation will be "Exile of Erin," a thrilling sensational drama in four acts. Programmes will be changed nightly. This company comes with strong endorsements and has some first class actors on its roll. A part of the proceeds go to the public school building fund.

Don't Waste Time.

If you want to be ready for the spring trade that will come when this weather thaws out, it is time you were placing your advertisement so as to let people know what you have to offer them. Getting your store and goods fixed before hand in the minds of the people brings better results than waiting and rushing before them after they have already started to some other store to make their purchases. The surest business is always on the lookout. Put an advertisement in the REFLECTOR and be ready for trade when it starts out.

THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY.

The important new bills introduced in the Legislature to day were to pay Superior Court solicitors $2,000 salary; to require officers of corporations created by the Legislature to be sworn; to relieve building and loan associations from any unjust contracts and permit them to issue insurance policies; to appropriate $5,000 to the State Fair; to require schools, colleges, and churches to be incorporated by Superior Court clerks; to establish a training-school for feeble-minded children; to incorporate the Elizabethtown, Chatham and Abbottsburg railway; to define qualifications of train dispatchers.

Bills passed requiring all check drafts, and so on issued by corporations, payable in cash at the holders, option, and protecting holders of fire insurance policies by making a judgment a lien on the company's real and personal property; to place the direct tax fund balance in the State Treasury to the public school fund.

A personal debate, with hot words, between Fusionists arose on the bill to transfer Mitchell county from the Eighth to the Ninth Congressional District. In the course of this bitter attacks were made on Congressman elect Richmond Fearson, whose Republicanism was denied, and who was termed a "polly-wog." The bill passed.

The senate committee this evening decided to favorably report a bill abolishing the New Hanover and Mecklenburg Criminal Court circuit, and to create a new one to be composed of those counties and Craven, Edgecombe, Wake, Halifax, with one judge, at $2,000 salary, and with no solicitors, unless the superior Court judge required to act.

Some bad blood is being stirred in the Legislature now, and the prospect is that it will increase as the session is prolonged. It is a good thing for Mr. Butler that his election has already come off.

Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana, who was Minister from this country to Mexico, died there last week. It is rumored at Washington that Senator Ransom will be appointed in his place. A petition signed by every Democratic Senator will be presented to President Cleveland asking the appointment of Senator Ransom. No better appointment could be made and it is more than probable that he will be appointed unless the President should desire to fill the place from the section from which Mr. Gray came.

Trouble Breaks Out Again.

"There is no bigger lie in the world," growled the exchange editor, jabbing his shears fictitiously into an unoffending newspaper before him, "than an old proverb. I've seen it ruin lots of times when it didn't pour."

"There's nothing strange about that," said the financial editor. "I've seen plenty of dry weather when all signs didn't fail."

"Well," rejoined the other, "you're not the only one that's seen it. And I know there are plenty of fools like the old fools, too."

"Well, I don't know," reflected the financial editor, "but I am willing to make affidavit that a watched pot will boil as well as any other pot."

"I don't know that your affidavit would strengthen the state ment any, but it's all wrong about a live dog being better than a dead lion. It isn't necessarily a wise child that knows its own father, and the hand that rocks the cradle doesn't rock the world by a jug full."

"The child isn't the father of the man either. The man's the father of the child."

"And troubles do sometimes come singly."

"Early to bed and early to rise won't make you healthy, or wealthy, or wise, either. It only makes you cross. I've lived in the suburbs long enough to know that."

"A penny saved isn't two-pence earned, and care didn't kill the cat."

"Neither does it take nine tailors to make a man."

"And if you pull out one gray hair there won't be any thousand—"

"What do you know about hair?" snapped the financial editor.

"What do you know about what it takes to constitute a man?" snarled the exchange editor.

"I know you can't always tell a man by the company he keeps. Sometimes he's got to stay in the same room with men that—"

"Two isn't always company, either. Sometimes two is a crowd. I know men that take up altogether too much room for their size, and—"

"Well!"

"Well!"

But friends interfered.

Date Combinations and Disaster.

The old rhyming prophecy tells us that

In every future year of our Lord,
When the sum of the figures is twenty-five

Some warlike nation will draw the sword,

But peaceful nations in peace will thrive.

One thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight was the fifth year of modern times in which the aggregate of the figures was 25, and it was the first in the series which extends over a period of nearly 200 years, in which the predictions of the prophet were not literally fulfilled. In 1699 Russia, Poland and Denmark formed the alliance against Sweden, which inaugurated the great war, which ended in the disastrous defeat of Charles XII at Pultowa.

The year 1789 is one of the dark dates in the annals of time because of its being the year in which the French revolution broke out and raged until after the Reign of Terror.

The year 1798 witnessed the famous campaign of Napoleon into Egypt, and the formation of the second European coalition against France.

The next date upon which the sum total of the figures in the date aggregate 25 was 1879, and in that year Great Britain's troops invaded Afghanistan, leaving behind them a monstrous trail of blood.

One thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, the fifth in this series of combination date oddities, did not witness any formal declaration of modern times, as far as shipwrecks, mine accidents, railway disasters and general mishaps are concerned.

One thousand eight hundred and ninety seven will be another date in which the combined figures aggregate 25, and there cannot possibly be but three others of the same kind between that time and the opening of the year 2599.—Dispatch.

Disheartening.

"These times," said Meandering Mike, "is the most discouragin' I ever see."

"What's the matter?" asked Plodding Pete.

"Every place I stops an' asks fur trouble they offer me some."

THAWED OUT.

People on the Good Weather or no Weather

Mr. O. L. Joyner went to Wilson today.

Mr. B. F. Sagg left for Kinston this afternoon.

Mr. Joe Scott, of Scotland Neck, spent Sunday here.

Mr. B. C. Peerce left this morning for a commercial trip.

Mrs. W. R. Parker and Miss Mary Bynum are both sick.

Miss Rosdind Rountree is visiting Miss Annie Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rountree returned this morning from Gifton.

Mrs. L. W. Sturke and little child left for Oxford this morning.

Miss Clyde Moseley, of Greene county, is visiting the Misses Wilson.

We are glad to hear that Miss Lillian Cherry has so far improved as to be up.

Mr. Wilbur Ormond, of Greene county, died Saturday night of constipation.

Mrs. Ollen Warren, of Penny Hills is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Wilson.

Mrs. G. F. Hatchings, of New Haven, Conn. is visiting her brother, Mr. R. L. Hubbard.

Miss Jennie Williams returned Saturday from Pocomus, where she has been teaching school.

Mr. Jacob Ethel is taking a goodly lot of wax figures to give exhibitions in Newbern, to give exhibitions with wax figures during the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Soier, of Pocomus, have been spending a few days with the family of Dr. W. H. Bigwell.

Messrs. J. Byron Grimes, of Grimesland, W. A. Fleming, of Hessesell, W. M. Long, of Farmville, B. F. Manning, of Winterdale, and J. W. Dixon, of Willow Greene, were among the visitors in town today.

Mrs. P. E. Dancy and Mrs. Charles Skinner both slipped down at Hotel Micon a few evenings ago. Fortunately they were only slightly hurt.

Rev. J. N. H. Summerell drove through the country from Falkland Sunday evening, but owing to the weather did not preach at night in the Presbyterian church. This was his farewell visit to Greenville. He left this morning for Tarboro and in a few days will depart for his new home in Anderson, S. C. Eastern North Carolina loses a good man in his departure.

Moses must think that street lamps are not needed in bad weather. None were lighted the whole of last week.

Mr. T. L. Hancock, of Hanes & Hamilton's Mill, received quite a severe cut on his thumb by a bit of one of the planets.

The ground being covered so long in snow has caused the birds to become very poor for want of food, and some of the hunters say they are hardly worth killing. It might be well to give the birds a rest.

Don't let a few bright days rush you too quick into garden planting. There will be some more weather yet, if the prophets are to be relied upon.

There was another light snow Saturday night, but instead of turning colder it was much warmer Sunday and the snow melted rapidly. Considerable snow is still on the ground at this writing.

Don't fail to see the beautiful drama "Imogene" to be presented by home talent in the Opera House Thursday night. Secure your seats from C. M. Jones, at Boswell, Speight & Co's old stand.

She Goes Up Head.

The REFLECTOR has resigned its seat in the school of weather prophets and tendered the appointment to the editor's little girl. His first born was amusing herself singing Sunday afternoon, making her own tune and her own words. Catching the sentence "Weather prediction for Monday evening, good," she was asked where she got that song from? "Oh, I'm just singing how the weather is going to be Monday," she replied, and went on with her song, changing the word good to favorable. Her prophecy struck it right.
