NEARER HOME.

What is Happening Over the State.

A very distressing accident occurred last night on the Southern Railroad track. Mr. Wm. McElhenny, an old man aged 64 years, was run over by the train, and his left foot cut entirely off.—Charlotte Observer.

Living at Carolina Mills is a couple, John Clark and wife, who are aged—he 98, she 91—both of whom are reasonably well and have the promise to live for some time yet. It is not often that one finds man and wife living together at such an advanced age.—Burlington News.

The A & N. C. R. R. is having two good large locomotives built for the passenger train service by the Richmond Locomotive Works. This road has progressed wonderfully under the present management. The new engines are expected to be ready for use in about 60 days.—Kinston Free Press.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY.

The Senate to-day passed the bill to abolish county superintendents of public instruction and county boards of education. Superior Court clerks are to appoint county examiners to take the place of superintendents.

A bill to appoint seven directors and a State proxy for the North Carolina railway was attacked by Democrats, as well as by a Populist and a Republican, as a bad bill, and was tabled. It proposed to give State's proxy remarkably great powers. There was a bill of the same tenor regarding the Atlantic and North Carolina railway.

The Senate passed the bill raising the age of consent. The House tabled a bill to legalize cock-fighting, and passed a bill fixing bonds of county officers, Sheriff at not over $5,000; Register of Deeds, $1,000; Superior Court Clerk, $15,000; Treasurer 25 per cent of the taxes. A bill to amend the charter of the Atlantic and North Carolina railway passed its second reading. Williams, of Craven, a Republican, attacked it furiously, saying it was an attempt to steal the road. He demanded the yeas and nays, so that, as he said, the people could see who the trustees were.

Governor Carr sent a special message announcing that the appropriation made for the penitentiary of $35,000 for this year and next year was totally inadequate, and that without further aid that institution must meet a crisis within a year. The House Democrats filed a protest against the action of the Fusion majority in denying the truths as to the Fred Douglass resolution, and this, after desperate opposition by Fusionists, was ordered to be spread on the Journal.

The Fusion caucus bill to abolish the present Board of Agriculture and trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College and create a Board of Agriculture to be also trustees passed by a party vote. Caucus bill to take control of the penitentiary from the Democrats also passed.

Tuesday night the most sensational proceedings ever witnessed in the State were enacted. The Speaker rushed through, without the pretence of fairness, bills changing the management of the penitentiary, the Agricultural Department, and the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The Democrats filibustered, and as they were leaving the hall a big, burly negro was ordered to hold the door and prevent members from leaving the House. No call of the House had been made, and several members literally fought their way through the negro assistant door-keepers.

At one time it looked as if there would be a regular fight, and that one member's arm would be crushed through an opening of the door. The negro on guard then relaxed his hold and permitted the gentlemen to pass out.

NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

A $30,000 fire occurred at Waynesboro, Va.

Several riots have occurred between white and colored laborers at New Orleans and several people killed.

Tivoli Hall and several adjacent buildings destroyed by fire in Brooklyn, N. Y., making a loss of about $225,000.

The Indiana Legislature ended Tuesday night in a big riot, and the Governor's private secretary was so badly hurt that he is not expected to live.

A riot occurred in a Catholic church at Omaha, Neb., pistols, axe handles and pick handles being freely used. The priest took a hand in the shooting.

THE CROWNING INFAMY.

Almost a Riot in the House!

A most disgraceful and desperate scene was enacted in the hall of the House of Representatives last night. A burly negro, apparently acting under the order of the Speaker, stood at the inside door and held it fast with both hands, refusing to allow either ingress or egress. He was acting as door keeper, and his purpose was to prevent Democratic members of the House from leaving the hall.

Captain R. B. Peebles, member from Northampton, and Mr. Lee, member from Haywood, came to the door, and finding their way barred by the negro, demanded to be let out. The negro refused, and a struggle ensued, which came near producing a riot. Several negroes standing by rushed to the assistance of the negro door keeper, while other bystanders took hand in aid of Capt. Peebles and Mr. Lee. About eight or ten people became involved in a violent struggle and surged back and forth in the House, some trying to pull Capt. Peebles back in, while others tried to open the door and push him out. Fortunately the door flew open and he was released from his position. Had not the struggle terminated quickly, it is likely that a serious riot would have resulted.

Thus the record of this Legislature closes with the crowning infamy of a burly negro door keeper using physical violence on Representatives of the people within the sacred precincts of the halls of the Legislature.

Never before has the State been brought to such depths of humiliation and infamy. Not even in the darkest night of Reconstruction was the black hand of the African laid upon the shoulder of men whom the people sent as their representatives.

What is the purpose of this infamous violence?

Is it to provoke blood-shed?
Is it to solidify the negro by degrading and insulting the whites?

Was it a conspiracy spawned in the afternoon caucus?

Why did the House refuse to have a white Confederate soldier as door-keeper and elect instead a purly negro?

Why did the General Assembly refuse to adjourn in honor of Washington and Lee and yet adjourn in honor of Frederick Douglass?

Why was a negro selected last night to use physical violence on white representatives?

There is some infamous purpose in this diabolical record. But it cannot be accomplished.

We warn the colored people that they are being used to kindle a fire that cannot easily be extinguished.

And we warn the white men who are using them that a day of reckoning is coming.

"We will appeal to Cæsar," said Mr. Ray last night. And there will be no doubt about the verdict!—Raleigh News and Observer, 13th.

Immense Shad Shipments.

Shipments of shad were quite large from New Berne last week on the steamer Neuse took out still another good shipment yesterday and large number of packages of clams. The former were from the city, the latter from Carteret county.

The shipments will be still farther increased when Roanoke Island is reached. Great quantities of the shad are being caught there now, so that the steamers which make four regular trips a week do not stop with them, but run down from Roanoke on other days to get the shad that are taken.

Three or four hundred barrel boxes of the shad were at the wharf Monday night awaiting the arrival of the steamer New Berne; the steamer Neuse took off about a hundred boxes Sunday and four hundred and ten boxes Friday night. These boxes are billed as freight at 350 pounds each, so it can readily be seen what an immense amount of fish 400 boxes amount to.

The net weight of the fish in each box is 280 pounds. Thus it will be seen by calculation that a shipment of 400 boxes means 112,000 pounds net of fish—fifty-six tons! In packing these large boxes of shad it is found that they run 55 roes or 100 bucks to the box an average of about 75, so by calculation it will be seen that the size shipment spoken of consists of about 30,000 of these elegant fish.—New Berne Journal.

THE MODERN GRADUATE.

Caller—I suppose, Grace, that your being valedictorian of the class made considerable study and preparation necessary.

Grace—O, no indeed! I left everything to mother and the dressmaker.—Arkansas Traveler.

HE KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Judge—What's your business?

Drunk—My profession is dat uv a mind-reader.

Judge—Well, I'll give you a chance to prove your statement. What are my thoughts at the present moment?

Drunk—You're thinkin' I'm the bigges' liar yer ever run up ag'inst.

Judge—You may go.—Judge.

Raining yesterday, fair to-day and going to be cold to-morrow. That ought to be changing often enough to suit most anybody.

Several of the REFLECTOR boys are having birthdays this week. We had a March joke on them but they "blowed" it down.

Rev. P. W. Williams, colored, former pastor of the A. M. E. church here, died this morning after an illness of several weeks.

Our Foreman must have enjoyed last Sunday, as he has let the item telling what a beautiful day it was appear three successive times in print.

Next Monday night a delegation from the lodge of Odd Fellows here will go to Kinston to assist the lodge there in installing several members. The Kinston lodge lost all its regalia and furniture in the big fire two weeks ago.
