The Y. M. C. A. Convention met in Raleigh last evening. The meeting is well attended and promises to be an interesting and profitable assembly. There are about two hundred delegates.

The monument at Bentonville "to the unknown dead" was unveiled on Wednesday. General Wade Hampton delivered the address. The unveiling was done by thirty young ladies dressed in military uniforms. The monument is said to be one of the prettiest in the South.

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE DID.

1. It increased appropriations $135,000.
2. It created 3,600 new offices which have been filled with fusionists.
3. It spent $223.33 per day to employ pages and laborers to wait on the members, at a total cost of $13,400.02 for "help."
4. It added two totally needless criminal courts.
5. It elected two men of small ability to succeed able and tried statesmen in the United States Senate.
6. It let the public printing to a political favorite at a cost of $581.88 more than the lowest bid.
7. It adjourned in honor of Fred Douglass, and the Senate voted down resolution to adjourn in honor of Washington and Lee.
8. It refused to contribute a cent to finish the Confederate monument until the Big Five ordered it done to make reparation for the Douglass adjournment.
9. It turned maimed soldiers out of office to make places for robust negroes.
10. It made the A. & M. College the foot-ball of politics.
11. It trampled under foot every known parliamentary law in order to get spoils for "reformers."
12. It permitted and directed an assault upon white members by negro door-keepers without provocation or warrant of law.

13. It set back the public school interest twenty years by partisan, hostile legislation.

14. It replaced efficient and learned men with untaught and incompetent officials, as emphasized particularly by the retirement of Capt. Mason and the election of S. Otho Wilson.

15. It permitted more stealing of bills and more false records than was ever before known in the history of the State.

16. It increased taxation from 21 1/2 to 24 1/2 cents on the $100.

17. It passed the most unfair and one-sided election law ever enacted in the State.

WHAT THE LEGISLATURE DID NOT DO.

1. It did not decrease the salary of any officer in the State.
2. It did not decrease the fees of any officers.
3. It did not pass a law against trusts, but was the pliant tool of corporate power.
4. It did not decrease appropriations.
5. It did not stop any abuse or expenditure anywhere.
6. It did not stop paying unsuccessful contestants or contestants.
7. It did not afford any relief in any way, shape or form to the toiling masses.
8. It did not declare for free coinage, but "indefinitely postponed" the resolution instructing Senators to vote for it.
9. It did not redeem its pledges made to the people.—Raleigh News and Observer.

In 1887 Col. Fred A. Olds was the clerk to the joint committee on magistrates and was allowed an assistant, the two receiving only $120 for the work, this being allowed on a resolution, as will be found on reference to the laws of that year. This year there were four clerks to the committee, and these were paid $613, H. G. Ewart, Jr., getting $144; J. G. Walser (the Speaker's brother), $235; T. L. King, $230, and Miss S. M. Mewborne (the Senator's daughter) $104. How is this for fusion extravagance? And yet the Progressive Farmer says the Legislature is the best one we have had since the war.—News and Observer.

SCALES.

Not off of Shad, But Whales Caught
in the Reflector Net.

Lent is half gone.

Both frost and ice this morning.

Shad are going now at 50 cents
a pair.

Very bright to day but decidedly wintry.

This weather still keeps up the demand for coal.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

Mr. Robert Staten, of Bethel, has been in town to-day.

Don't forget to hand your subscription to the carrier.

Floods are predicted in all the streams in this part of the State.

A party of serenaders went out
last night and made delightful
music.

After this equinox spell gets over some good weather may be looked for.

The prospector casts his eye in the right direction when he puts it on Greenville.

For Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls and Shingles call on Henry Sheppard. Prices low down.

We hear it is reported on the street to-day that Mr. G. B. King has been appointed Postmaster
at Greenville.

One consolation to be derived from this backward spring is the good prospect of an abundant fruit crop.

The demand for tobacco cloth
has been so heavy this season that dealers had to hustle to get enough to fill orders.

Invitations were sent out yesterday afternoon for the musical ht the Seminary to-night. It begins at 8 o'clock.

The King's Daughters have received several new members in their order the last few days.
They do a noble work in the community.

The blizzard put the trains all out of whack yesterday and the mail train was two hours late in getting in last night.

Frank Wilson's advertisement
to day tells you the good news.
His goods are coming in and he has just what you want.

Some fears are expressed among planters that the excessive wet weather has caused seed potatoes to rot in the ground.

People from the country say they never saw the roads in a worse condition. Hauling over them is almost an impossibility.

If men advertised their good wares as extensively as they advertise their good deeds there would be no stagnation in business.—Atchison Globe.

You need not tell him we printed it, but we heard a lady say that if Greenville had fifty men
as enterprising as Othius Joyner
you would soon see a city here.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's father, W. H. Williams, of Oakley, Pitt county on March 20th, 1895, by
Rev. R. W. Hines, Mr. J. E.
Hines and Miss Mattie L. Williams, both of Oakley.

Home Pride.

"When you hear a man abus-ing his home place," says the Staunton News, "you may be sure the sentiment is reciprocal, and
and his departure for some other field would be hailed with delight. "Stand up for your town," says our contemporary, "and do what you can to help along every man who is engaged in a legiti-mate business. His success will be your success. If you felt disposed to do it, and could break down every man in town, his poverty would react on you and make you poor also." No man yet has accomplished anything by abus-ing his home, and it is a sorry man who will do it. Neither does it do a man any good to abuse his neighbor. This is a great big world, and if a man
don't like his location let him
moye on.—Norfolk Virginian.

It is reported that the government has recalled Minister Thurston from Hawaii.
