TWO MORE ALARMS

One Accidental the Other Incendiary.

(Special to Reflector.)
 KINSTON, N. C. April 20.—The fire alarm was given yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock. Fire was discovered on the roof of the house belonging to Mr. Robbie Mewborn occupied by Mr. Herman Sutton and his mother. It is supposed to have been caused by sparks falling on the roof. The fire company responded promptly and the fire was quickly extinguished.

Another alarm was given last night about 11 o'clock, fire being discovered in Mr. Moses Eiu stein's kitchen. Some one had placed lightwood splinters under the edge of the house and the fire went up between the weather boarding to the ceiling. This was also extinguished with but slight damage to the building.

Attention Fireman.

All those who subscribed their names to the new fire company, are requested to meet in the Court House Monday evening at 5 o'clock for the purpose of effecting permanent organization.

By order of F. M. HODGES, O. L. JOYNER, Chairman.
 Secretary.

NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

The Chicago postage stamp counterfeiters have been arrested.

A peculiar insect has attacked the young melon vines in southern Georgia and it is feared the crop will be ruined.

Manford has some nobby bicycle caps, the best we have seen. The riding part of the REFLECTOR outfit sports one of them.

WOOLEN MILL.

An Enterprise that Eastern North Carolina Needs—Why Not Locate One in Greenville?

One of the best farmers of the county who is a regular REFLECTOR reader, told us a few days ago that he often applauded our advocacy of factories for Greenville and our efforts to build up the town, but there was one enterprise that to his mind was so important that he wondered why it was never included among those we mentioned as being needed here. When asked what it was he said a woolen mill. In explaining its needs he said the farmers of eastern North Carolina who have sheep are compelled to send their wool to the western part of the State or to other States, and they are often subjected to much delay and annoyance. One farmer who sent his wool off last August expecting get the cloth back in time for winter use in his family had not received it yet. He said the eastern part of the State badly needs a woolen mill and he saw no reason why Greenville would not be a good location for one. There are already enough sheep raised in this and adjoining counties to give sufficient work for the maintenance of such a plant, and if one was located here it would increase the interest in sheep raising and draw patronage here from a large territory.

The REFLECTOR confesses that the idea of such an enterprise had not occurred to us, and we are glad that our attention was called to it. The need of just such an enterprise is apparent and we believe it would be a wise step to establish a woolen mill here. The business men of Greenville should take the matter under consideration. We believe such a plant would be a paying investment in itself, beside adding materially to the volume of business of the town.

Will Have a Company.

There was a good attendance at the meeting to organize a fire company Friday evening. Thirty two persons enrolled their names as members. Committees on by-laws and soliciting members were appointed and the meeting adjourned to Monday evening when permanent organization will be effected. F. M. Hodges was chairman and O. L. Joyner secretary.

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

What is Happening Over the State.

In Iredell county a white man and a negro had a dispute over 25 cents owed by the latter to the former, and the negro knocked the white man in the head with a rock. He died from the blow.

James W. Osborne, Esq., formerly of Charlotte, now a prosperous lawyer in New York, is to deliver the annual address at Davidson College commencement. He is a brother of Attorney General Osborne.

Not Much Judgment.

A correspondent of the Washington Messenger referring to the dutch net law passed by the late Legislature, said it was done in the interest of the up-river fishermen, and intimated that the frequent freshets this spring was a judgment sent on these fishermen so they could not use their nets. If that correspondent would make a trip up the river he would be convinced that he is not much of a prophet. The fact is the up-river fishermen—the skimmers—have made the best catch this season that has been made in many years, and we never saw shad more abundant than during this last big freshet.

Be sure that you attend church Sunday.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY).

The Fusionist Directors finally succeeded in getting a quorum together and elected Capt. Kitchen Superintendent of the Penitentiary. It will now go to the Courts.

If Treasurer Worth continues to refuse to pay the vouchers of Superintendent Leazer it is said there will be no course left but for the Governor to issue a proclamation pardoning every inmate of the penitentiary.

It has been reported that Senator Ransom, who was appointed Minister to Mexico, is not eligible on account of some constitutional provision, but an investigation shows that he didn't qualify until after his term of service as Senator had expired and therefore the report is without foundation and he will not have to be reappointed as has been claimed.

Postmaster General Wilson states that the sale of stamps for the last quarter of 1895 amounted to $19,405,571, which was the largest in the history of the government for a like period. He considered this a barometer indicating the revival of business. The total receipts from other sources of the Post Office Department for the last quarter of 1894 were $1,164,207 more than for the corresponding period of 1893.

How many people know that the Legislature incorporated in its revenue bill a provision levying a tax of 2 per cent. upon all purchases of seed? It did. Any merchant or other person who buys seed—clover, lucerne, millet or any other kind of seed—must pay a tax of 2 per cent. upon his purchase. In the same paragraph all persons who buy or sell drugs are taxed 2 per cent. upon their purchases of these. We said, two or three weeks ago, that the story of that Legislature had not been half told, and every few days afford fresh proof of the statement.—Charlotte Observer.

The penitentiary directors appointed by the Legislature are in Raleigh and Capt. Buck Kitchen is there to be elected Superintendent of the Penitentiary. No quorum was present Wednesday but S Otho Wilson was doing his best telegraphing and trying to get them on the field. While this is going on Governor Carr has appointed and commissioned men to take the place of these fellows who did not get enough votes in the Legislature to elect them. The Fusionists will probably meet and elect Capt. Kitchen Superintendent. The old directors and those appointed and commissioned by Governor Carr will meet and elect another man and then the matter will go to the courts. It looks as if everything done by the Douglasites is to go through the courts. Unless we are mistaken the Governor will be sustained and Capt. Kitchen will not get to the penitentiary.

TOBACCO GROWING.

Working the Crop—Implements Used and How—Caution.

Col. Paga, Ireland Co., N. C., says: "Plant tobacco as soon as possible after the first of May. When my tobacco has taken a start to grow, I break out the middle of my rows and with hoes scrape around the plant, loosening the crust that has formed around the plant. The first plowing after this should be with a small cultivator, running as close as possible without tearing up the plant. After this plowing pull a little dirt to the plant. The next plowing should be with a cultivator running a little farther off from the plant. After this plowing use the hoe as before. The next and last plowing should be with a cultivator in the middle of the row. After this with hoes pat a good hill."

J. W. Groome, Guilford Co., N. C., says: "Tobacco should be planted the first season in May, and in order to have good plants by that time the beds should have guano pat on them before every rain, after the plants are well up—a small quantity—say a gallon to a bed ten yards square.

After your tobacco is planted it should be worked as soon as the bud turns green and the roots are beginning to take hold, but be careful and not shake the plant loose; if the plant is loosened it is apt to die in dry weather; do not plough to it the first time it is worked; if so you are apt to retard its growth. Tobacco should be worked three times, about two weeks between times. It has been my observation that early tobacco always sells for more money than any other; it will be easier cured than late tobacco."

J. M. McMichael, Summerfield, N. C., says: "Some eight or ten days after the plants are set out, or as soon as they begin to take root into the earth, the ground around them should be loosened or scratched gently to admit the heat from the sun and start the young tobacco to growing more rapidly. Harrows and hoes should be used in the first working, and afterwards larger plows and hoes may be used. Plowing and hoeing should be repeated every ten days or two weeks till the tobacco is large enough to top. Do not put too much bed to the tobacco or make the hills too high in hilling unless it be a wet season. If the land be left as level as possible in the last working the tobacco will suffer less from drought and will not 'fire' at the bottom of the plant. It is a good plan to plow tobacco just after a good rain, when the land gets dry enough to plow, and then put in the hoes, as it is less liable to be checked in its growth."—Southern Tobacco Journal.

THE SLEEVES! THE SLEEVES!

Heat the Rustle! See the Bustle! Cursed
 By Sleeves! Sleeves! Sleeves!

The glorious Easter sunshine tempered the North wind to the fair worshippers, shorn of fur capes and winter jackets that thronged the streets yesterday morning. To one who went out to see the Easter hats and bonnets with their bright flowers and gay ribbons, yesterday's display of fancy waists was somewhat distracting. There were purple waists, rose scarlet, lavender, sagegreen and even bright yellow waists. A modest and retiring skirt of black serge, and from six to ten waists of assorted colors and different materials will furnish forth an ample wardrobe for the summer girl of '95, if one can read the Easter signs aright.
 Waists is the word used, but perhaps sleeves is the word intended. Nowadays when the gushing girl goes shopping she selects her dress material with the rapturous remark: "O, won't that make a nice pair of sleeves!"

And the "sweet sleeves" had it all their own way yesterday.
 Two yards and a half make one pair, two pair make one pew full, and three pair make one tired. Truly they are as pillows sewed into the arm holes, and if all the sleeves that decked the streets yesterday were plumed full of eiderdown, they would furnish forth all the divans and couches in the city luxuriously.

But the hats and bonnets were out as well as the sleeves.
 The prevailing shapes in spring millinery while novel are becoming and magenta, heliotrope and green seem to be the favorite colors. A few light and white straws shivered in the wind, but the greater number were of black brightened with trimmings to match the sleeves.

O, the willowy girl,
 With the billowy sleeve
 Is the girl of the present day
 But she does not wear
 Her heart on her sleeve.
 If you seem to care
 And sigh and grieve
 She will smother a laugh,
 In her billowy sleeve,
 And merrily dance away?

Lion and Mouse.

A mouse was put in cage of a lion to test whether, as the old fables asserted, there was a natural affection between them. The experiment that demonstrates that each was so afraid of the other that no affection could exist between them. The lion saw the mouse before he was fairly through the bars, and was after him instantly.

Away went the little fellow, scurrying across the floor and squeaking in fright. When he had gone about ten feet the lion sprang, lighting a little in front of him. The mouse turned, and the lion sprang again. This was repeated several times, the mouse traversing a shorter distance after each spring of the lion.

Finally the mouse stood still, squealing and trembling. The lion stood over him studying him with interest. Presently he shot out his big paw and brought it down directly on the mouse, but so gently that the mouse was not injured in the least, though held fast between the claws.

Then the lion played with him, now lifting his paw and letting the mouse run a few inches, and then stopping him again as before.
 Suddenly the mouse changed his tactics, and instead of running when the lion lifted his paw, sprang into the air straight at the lion's head.

The lion, terrified, gave a great leap back, striking the bars with all his weight. Then he opened his jaws and roared and roared, again, while the little mouse, still squealing, made his escape. Of the two the lion was the more frightened.

People should be diligent in business. That is Scriptural and right. "But what doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

Because the price of cotton is jumping up now at planting time is no guarantee that the price will be up when harvest time comes. Let every farmer be careful about how he plants.

Some Good Preaching.

Rev. W. B. Olliver's sermon last night on the Judgment was one of great power and thought. We do not see how any one could listen to such a sermon and not feel the immediate need of preparation for that day.

This morning's sermon was one to Christians full of tender exhortation to higher living. The thought for this discourse was bearing one another's burdens, and the duty of Christians in laboring to bring others to Christ was very clearly pointed out.

Miss Pat Hardison, of Williamston, who was visiting Miss Carrie Cobb, returned home to day.

Mr. Latham Makes a Statement.

Mr. J. B. Latham, of Edgecombe county, came up from Washington Friday and spent the night here. In conversation with a REFLECTOR reporter he said the clipping in Thursday's paper in reference to his shooting his father-in-law, Mr. Dixon, was not in exact accordance with the circumstances in the case. He says he did the shooting purely in self-defense, that Mr. Dixon had made two deadly assaults on him and had just fired at him with a pistol when he returned the fire with a shotgun, shooting Mr. Dixon in the limbs so as to disable him and thus protect his own life.

Mired to His Waist.

The well near Pender's store was sunk to a depth of 26 feet and a 2-foot stone pipe put in for curbing. It was filled up around this curbing this morning and some of the dirt thrown in was very soft and slushy. Just as Policeman Moore came walking along some sand had been thrown on top of the soft dirt, and the officer stepped in to see how it was packing down. No sooner had his weight come on the loose earth than down he went almost to his waist. Thinking that he might be going on down to keep company with McGinty, he called for help to pull him out.
