DEATHS.

Two Estimable Ladies Pass Away.

MRS. S. C. HAMILTON, JR.

Shortly after Mr. S. C. Hamilton received the telegram from Asheville, Saturday afternoon, announcing that Mrs. Hamilton was growing worse, he received another message bringing the sad information that his wife passed quietly away at half past four o'clock. Mr. Hamilton left for Asheville Sunday morning and will take the remains to Newbern for interment. In his sore bereavement Mr. Hamilton has the warmest sympathy of a host of friends here.

While living in Greenville Mrs. Hamilton very greatly endeared herself to our people and all deeply regret her death. For sometime she had been quite sick with consumption and went to Asheville a few weeks ago in the hope that she would be benefited by the change.

MRS. NANCY SUGG.

Sunday morning at 5 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law, Maj. Henry Harding, in this town Mrs. Nancy Sugg fell peacefully asleep in Jesus. She was the devoted wife of Mr. B. H. Sugg and was in her 82nd year, being born Feb. 13th, 1814. She was married to Mr. Sugg May 20th, 1840, their wedded life covering a period of fifty-five years, lacking a few days. They celebrated their golden wedding five years ago this May. Eight children were born to them, four of them now living. These are Col I. A. Sugg, Messrs. B. F. and J. L. Sugg, and Mrs. Henry Harding.

Mrs. Sugg was Miss Nancy Cunniggin before marriage, and was an aunt of Revs. Jesse and W. L. Cunniggin, of the N. C. Conference. She joined the Methodist church at an early age and through life was a consecrated follower of her Savior. She was a sweet, pure, noble Christian woman, and came to the close of life in full realization of the Redeemer's presence with her and a bright hope in the blessed immortality beyond. She was conscious to the last, recognized the approach of death, and expressed her readiness to meet the summons and go to be with Jesus. How beautiful is such faith! What an inspiration to higher Christian living is the example this good woman left to the world! The remains of Mrs. Sugg were

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

There is much being said now about men in the State holding two offices at one time. The lawyers seem not to be agreed as to whether this can be done or at least as whether certain places are offices in the sense of the law. A case will probably go to our Supreme Court to decide. One place ought to be enough for one man.

Elsewhere we publish a letter recently written by Mr. Eaves ex-Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee. It shows that at least a part of the Republicans do not expect fusion to continue longer. We ask the Populists of Pitt County what think they of what Mr. Eaves has to say about them and some of their legislation? How about his position on silver? Is it not just what you have pretended, at least, to be fighting for the past three or four years? Read the letter and see how you like it.

The Drummer Was Beaten.

A gentlemanly merchant traveler in a railway carriage met a lady and politely rendered her such assistance that she reciprocated by permitting him to talk to her.

He became quite friendly and desired to know where she lived and who she was.

"Oh," she replied, "I'm only an ordinary little woman, but my friends persist in trying to make me somebody."

"Ah!" was the gallant answer, "I am sure they act quite wisely and with good taste."

"You flatter me, sir, and yet I have no doubt a band will meet me at the station, when I arrive at Winsor."

"Indeed," he replied, in open astonishment:

"Yes, and the same band always meets me. Isn't that flattering?"

"Very, my dear miss; but may I ask what band it is that is always so honored?"

"Oh, yes, certainly: it's a husband."

He caught on to the arm of the seat, says Tid-bits, for a minute, and then went into the next carriage and bumped his head during the change.

EAVES MPANS FIGHT.

He Predicts That the Republicans Will Abandon Fusion next year

The following is a copy of a letter written by Capt. Jno. B. Eaves, ex-Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, to Col. H. C. Cowles, of Statesville, a member of a National Republican Committee:

DEAR SIR. Your letter of a few days ago in which you ask my views in regard to several phases of the political situation received.

The county government law enacted by the recent Legislature bears no similarity to that expected at the hands of the fusionists. The same fear and distrust of the negroes is evinced that has always been shown by the Democrats. But the fusionists carry this feature of the law further even than the Democrats before them. The election of three commissioners is all right, but becomes a travesty upon local self-government when it is made so easy for the opposite political party to cause the appointment of two additional commissioners whose power when appointed will equal the power of the three elected by the people. This single peculiarity of the new law has stripped it of every vestige of kinship to that vouchsafed by the Republican State platform, in lieu of which it is a mean and cowardly excuse. The passage of this law marks the end of fusion or co-operation between the Republican and Third parties in North Carolina. Since fusion's inception the Republicans have made accessions in principle and patronage, while the Populists have been the dictators. In the State this was true to a marked degree. Now it appears to be encroaching upon the vital principles of national Republicanism as evidenced by the fact that some Republicans are not scrupling to lay aside the principles upon which the national Republican party has long been established and according to which it has conducted this government through its greatest prosperity, and to place in their stead the visionary and extravagant plank of the Populist platform. I refer to those Republicans who are advocating the idea of free silver. The Republican party will continue to advocate financial faith of the soundest kind, and those who wish to be of the party must do likewise. This government can no more coin silver free while every other government of the first class refuses and maintains a gold standard than it can commit any other absurd impossibility. Under the present condition of things the United States will be safe financially only with gold as a standard and silver coined as fully as can be with a just parity between the two metals.

The next campaign will see the Republicans of North Carolina strictly in accordance with the national party and prepared for a straight fight in the State. In no other way can the manifold injuries already wrought by fusion be successfully overcome. In short this is the only policy and it is the one that will control in this State henceforth. The first work of the Republicans in the State should be the re-organization of the party on its original basis.

Very respectfully.

JNO. B. EAVES.

Recipe for a Good Husband.

Speaking of recipes, I have one which was sent to me the other day, entitled, "How to Cook a Husband," I can't say why my unknown friend sent this particular recipe to me, since I am well known to have no such commodity in my larder. But, because I have no personal use for the information is no reason why others may not find it very valuable. And so I append it hereto with great pleasure.

"A good many husbands are utterly spoiled by mismanagement. Some women go about as if their husbands were balloons and blow them up. Others keep them constantly in hot water; others let them freeze by indifference and carelessness. Some keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words. Others roast them. Some keep them in pickle all their lives. It cannot be supposed that any husband will be tender and good if managed in this way, but they are really delicious when properly treated. In selecting your husbands do not go to market for him as the best are always brought to your door. It is far better to have none, unless you will patiently learn how to govern him.

"See that the linen in which you wrap him is properly washed and mended, with the required number of buttons and strings tightly sewed on. Tie him in the kettle by a strong silk cord, called 'comfort,' as the one called 'duty' is apt to be weak. They are apt to fall out of the kettle, and be burned and crusty on the edges, since, like crabs and lobsters, you have to cook them while alive.

If he sputters and fusses do not be anxious—some husbands do this until they are called done. Add a little sugar in the form of what confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves them, but it must be used with judgment. Do not stick any sharp instrument into him to see if he is becoming tender. Stir him gently, watching the while lest he adhere to the kettle, and so become useless. You cannot fail to know when he is done. If this treatment is closely followed you will find him all that is desirable; but do not be careless with him and keep him in too cool a place."

That certainly is a recipe in which there is sound sense as well as sentiment. I recommend it to the consideration of young wives. I wish some one would send me the companion-dish to this one; I think some information is needed in regard to "how to cook a wife." I know more than one good wife who is spoiled from bad treatment.

Let's hear from the readers!

Moody's Tabernacle Falls.

All of Texas has needed rain, so the Evangelist Dwight L. Moody called upon his audience 8,000 persons to pray fervently that the floodgate might be opened. This was at 3 o'clock p. m. to-day.

To-night, when the tabernacle was crowded by 10,000 persons from Fort Worth and surrounding cities, Mr. Moody announced that word had come from several points that rain had fallen. A few minutes later the storm burst on Fort Worth and torrents of rain fell.

Mr. Moody gave thanks to God and called upon the congregation to join in singing "Crown Him" and "All Hail, the Power of Jesus' Name."

The hymn had surged forth from 10,000 throats when a cracking noise was heard, and then the roof sank and the rafters gave away, and the heavy timbers and boards covered with tar and gravel, came down on a portion of the congregation. There was a panic. Scores upon scores of women fainted. Some men lost their heads and piled pell-mell over those near them.

Mr. Moody grasped the situation, and moving to the middle of the platform, lifted both hands to Heaven, moving his arms slowly to and fro. His attitude and coolness stopped the panic and men began to go to work to rescue those in danger. A drenching rain was falling, but they worked hard and the wounded were soon taken out and carried to their homes or to the houses near by.

THESE FOLKS

Came or Went and Their Names Got in Print.

Solicitor C. M. Bernard left this morning for Nash court.

Miss May Murray left this morning for Eastville, Va.

Mr. Clif. Whitehead, of Scotland Neck, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Dr. H. A. Joyner arrived Saturday evening from Laurinburg.

Mr. R. E. Cox has taken a position with C. B. Rouse in New York.

Mr. S. V. Laughinghouse and Rev. Mr. Becton, of Grifton, spent to-day here.

Fashions Return.

A day or two ago while looking over some articles preparatory to house cleaning Mrs. M. D. Higgs found some small hair combs that were worn by her mother and quite fashionable when the latter was a young lady. The same style of comb is now again very much in fashion.

Oh, Those Sleeves!

How it troubles the ladies when they get caught out in a shower. Umbrellas are not large enough to cover their sleeves. Some smart fellow might strike it rich by inventing, about a 10 feet spring canopy that could be folded into a small package and thrown open in case of emergency.

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

What is Happening Over the State.

A 150 pound sea turtle was shipped from Newbern Saturday.

The Rocky Mount Light Infantry disbanded.

For selling two packs of cigarettes to minors, D. Gross, of Asheville, who pleaded ignorance of the law, submitted and was let off with the costs; but the costs amounted to $28 00.

A BORN EDITOR.

He jest knew all about it—just laid 'em on the shelf,
Could sun the paper better than the editor himself,
Could write the blame I be t stories an' tell the biggest tales—
Fer he was born fer editin', an' not fer splittin' roles!

"Put this here in yer paper," he sez,
"I will make her hum;
Just cut a lively caper, an' the cash is bound ter cum!"
Here's what'll tea h the people—I've wrote the very piece—

'Twill stir the whole blame village as slick as axle grease!"
An' so the editor resigned an' put him as boss,
An' then he rode the paper like he would a Texas hoss;
Jest pitched into 'em lively—they couldn't make him cease—
He stirred the whole blamed village, an' they lynched him slick as grease!

TO-DAY'S NEWS.

Big sleeves ward off all "near approach," and the dear creatures who wear them are about to realize that they must either give up the sleeves or the boys.

The railroads will sell round trip tickets to Raleigh on the occasion of the unveiling of the Confederate monument for one cent per mile.

The meeting in the Baptist church closed Sunday night. In all there were seven additions to the church during the meeting. Rev. J. H. Lamberth preached Sunday morning and night.

At a meeting held in the Episcopal church to-day Maj. H. Harding and Messrs. Charles Skinner, W. B. Brown, W. F. Morrill and F. M. Hodges were chosen as Vestry for the coming year.

THE REELECTOR thanks Mr. W. C. Jackson for an invitation to the third annual debating contest of the Leazer Literary Society of the A. & M. College, Raleigh, May 3rd. Mr. Jackson is one of the debaters.

The Town.

A town is like a large family. We are all interested in each other's welfare or should be. A cut-throat, every man for himself policy means ruin to any community. It means retrogression and failure.

If there is any one lesson in politics that must be learned—without fail it is that of unity and mutual assistance.

The same principle applies to the business life of a town, and the more generally it is obeyed the more abundant will be the town's prosperity. Stand by one another and patronize home folks.—Orange (Va) Observer.

Don't Let

Every merchant who beats a tattoo through the columns of the news papers make you dance to his music. If you do you'll soon be taking steps that would set Carmencita to shame. Everything in my Spring Clothes, Hat and Furnishing Goods, Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, and Dress Goods stock is good. We shun the dangerous association with the very cheap and court the favor of honest quality and the lovers of it. The fineness of the fabrics, the selectness of the patterns and the honesty of the qualities are far more eloquent than the loftiest words.
