AS UNCLE 'RASTUS SEES IT.

I'se shore a-gettin' pestered 'bout the niggers comin' on, Dey ain't like old-time niggers, jes' as shore as you are bo'n, And I can't tell what s de reason, yit it 'pears lack ev'ry day Dey's jes' a-gettin' curiser in mos' ev'ry which a-way.

Dey's all a-gittin' bigity an' so mighty full er sass, An' ev'ry young wench-nigger, she mus, own a lookin'-glass, An' put jes' all the finery she can get right on her back An' try to 'pear she's yaller—it's a scannel to be black!

Den the young buck-nigger's lazy an' he try to be a sport— He spend half his time a-stealin' an' tother half in court; He done throw'd 'way de banjo wid it's good ole ringin' tune — Tuck to foolin' wid de gitar—de nasty stinkin' coon!

An' de little pickaninnies dat's comin' on dese days, Dey's gittin' full of notions dat a n't lack nigger ways; Dey wan sto act lack white folks—an' all wants to go to school — 'Taint no use to larn a nigger—jes' helpin' meck a fool.

But I'se tryin' not to worry 'kase I ain't got long to stay— Ole Moses gwine to take me to a better place some day; Yit I wish dey'd stop der foolin' fer it mecks my ole heart sore — Ef sich ouns nce mecks a nigger, I'se no nigger any more. —Sam Beau, in Charlotte Observer.

What the Douglas Legislature Did.

The town of Greenville is to be sympathized with in her town election last Mouday. Three black, greasy, rusty negroes were elected in her town election. Such pills as this stifle and choke decent white men. Think of this white men.—Dunn Union.

Mr. W. C. Hines is building a house near the Market for the new fire engine to be kept in. The house in which the hook and ladder truck is kept will also be repaired and painted.

Run Over by a Stuttering Bicycle Rider.

Captain Tom Lyon, of Cartersville, tells a good story on himself. He gives the particulars of the recent accident, when he was knocked down and run over by a bicycle.

"The fellow," said the captain, "was one of these dad blamed tie-tongued stutterers. I wasn't looking as I started across the street and I couldn't hear the plaguey bicycle coming. All of a sudden I heard somebody holler 'Lu lu lu' and just then the thing hit me and head over heels I went as he flew over toward the other side of the street, the bicycle on top of him. As I fell it flashed across my mind that the fellow was a stutterer and was trying to holler 'Look out.' I scrambled up and just as I got on my all fours I heard him yell 'Look out.' 'Great Jerusalem!' I hollered, 'is he coming back at me?'"

"I was scared pretty nigh to death, for I thought he had malice in his heart and was determined to flatten me out. I looked toward him but he was laid out in the street, with a bloody head. Then it all became as clear as day. He was a stutterer, as I said before, and was not coming back at me, but the 'Look out' he gave, was the one he started before he hit me. He had it hitched up in his tongue and it wouldn't come out until he hit the Belgian blocks"—Atlanta Journal.

A Law That Cigar Dealers Are Not Up On.

An up to date drummer to day brought to light a section of the revenue law that is violated daily perhaps, by every cigar dealer in the city. Calling at a cigar stand he asked for three for a quarter. The clerk reached in the show case, picked up a handful of cigars and passed them out. "I could make that cost you $50," said the drummer. "Don't you know that it is against the law to hand out cigars, except by the box?" It is but the clerk didn't know it. The law requires that the seller shall not touch a cigar, but hand out the box containing them. The meaning of this law no one knows, but it is the law all the same, and the fine for its violation is $50.—Charlotte News.

Pender received another handsome wood rim Rambler bicycle to day.

Invitations

The REFLECTOR acknowledges an invitation to the commencement exercises of Chowan Baptist Female Institute, at Murfresboro, during the week beginning May 27th.

Messrs. S. W. Erwin and C. S. Forbes send us beautiful invitations to Trinity College commencement, Durham, June 2nd to 4th. The name of Mr. Forbes appears as one of the managers.

Call Upon Your Spirits.

A prominent claimed to-be spiritualist medium, who for several days has been causing somewhat of a sensation here, received an anonymous note this morning, advising him to leave town. We hear that he got very mad over the note, but it strikes us that if he has any faith in his business a better way would be to call up some of his spirits and inquire "who struck Billy Patterson?" in other words who wrote that note?

Married.

On May 9th, near Mildred, N. C., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Ralph Mayo, by Rev. R. W. Hines, Mr. Henry G. Burton, of Parmele (formerly of New Castle on Tyne, England) to Miss Cora Lee Mayo, of Mildred. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Tarboro where they took the train for Norfolk to visit relatives of the groom. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy life.

Y AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

Whenever an evil exists or is tending to exist among us it is the duty of every man who loves his country to speak out against it.
An opportunity is present before us now. We thought in the beginning that spiritualist meetings were being held in Greenville for mere pastime and consequence referred only in relation to them. We see now it is different and that there has never been a more insidious evil in our town. So long as the negro people were just having a "Table Wrappings" for their amusement we saw no special reason to condemn it very harshly, though this ought not to be so when people of maturer age, and even Christian people are being assembled night after night by a professed spirit-ist and from his conversation we hear, and unadulterated infidel, when the said individual presents to come among us not only his false and demoralizing teachings but even dares to speak slanderingly to one of our ministers. We feel that it is an outrage on our people as a whole not to be slow to condemn, man teaching, and let him so alone that he would have to seek other quarters to practice his goods where there would be more congeniality than would be among the enlightened people of Greenville. We declare the whole thing as unworthy the thoughts and attention of sensible people and call on all who love the right and the false to unite against this effort to corrupt the morals and the faith of our people. A man who is fighting against this is fighting you, and is unworthy the least of your confi-

THE NORTHERN DISLIKE TO THE NEGRO.

R. Davis, a well known man of New York City, does not seem think that the average Northern man has a heart ever flowing with kindness to the negro. He tells the exact truth when he says:

"There are hundreds of colored men in New York City to-day out of employment. Not because the times are hard, not because they are not willing to work, but because those who have work to do will not employ colored people.
Less than ten years ago a great many hotels and hundreds of restaurants employed colored waiters; now you can count such on your two hands and have some fingers left. Even the colored bootblack has been almost driven off the face of the earth by the Italians.

No man wants to depend upon women for support but this is what the majority of the colored men in New York have to do.
Were it not for the faithful wives, mothers and sisters of some of them they would be charges upon the community. The negro can get nothing to do. The work he once had has been taken from him.
They won't let them drive a car or be a conductor. They won't let him do cabinet or carpenter work.
They won't give him a salesman's place in stores. The negro is almost denied the right to breathe."

Now what a difference do we find in the South; here no man is denied work on account of his color; here we find the white men and colored men working side by side, in peace and harmony, but still we hear the "negro lover" of the North bewailing the lot of the poor persecuted negro in the South. What fools, and knaves these fellows must be. The best friends the negro has in the world are to be found in the South, and the negro is beginning to find this out.—Ex.

An Interesting Occasion.

The Baltimore Sun of yesterday, editorially says:

The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the monument erected at Raleigh in memory of the Confederate soldiers from North Carolina who lost their lives during the late civil war promise to be of great interest. May 20th is the day fixed for the unveiling, and the programme announced is a most attractive one. Hon.
Alfred Moore Waddell, one of the most eloquent orators in the South, is to deliver the regular address, and Governor Carr, Gen.

Bradley T. Johnson, of Baltimore, and other prominent gentlemen are announced to make short addresses. Mrs. Jackson, widow of Gen. Stonewall Jackson, and Miss Mildred Lee, a daughter of Gen.
Robert E. Lee, have accepted invitations to be present, and little Julia Jackson Christian, the granddaughter of Stonewall Jackson, will draw the cord which will unveil the statue. North Carolina is known as the "Volunteer State," the claim being that she contributed more soldiers to the Confederate army, according to population, than any State in the Confederacy. That they distinguished themselves on every battle-field on which they fought is a matter of history. The monument to be unveiled is largely due to the energy and patriotism of the devoted women of the Old North State. Arrangements are being perfected for the entertainment of the great crowd of people which will gather at Raleigh to witness the unveiling ceremonies.

Drowned himself by Foolish Joking.

A negro boy named Edgar Williams was accidentally drowned near the Darnison property at the foot of Hancock street yesterday through his own fault.

Five of the boys had been out in a small boat swimming and on the return this boy threatened to overturn the boat as soon as they could get close enough to the shore. He was admonished not to do so as a small boy on the boat could not swim.

Paying no heed to the warning he put his threat into execution, the other boys looked out for the small one and saved him; but the boy who played what he probably thought was a good joke, being only a poor swimmer, miscalcu-lated his own powers and was drowned.—Newbern Journal.

A special edition of the Raleigh News and Observer will be printed on May 20, at noon, by the Ladies' Monumental Association of the State, under the supervision of Mesdames Armistead Jones, John W. Hinsdale and Garland Jones. They will be assisted by a staff of able women who will do everything about the paper except set the type and run the press. They will write all the articles, solicit all the advertisements, correct the proof, and in every way have charge of the paper for the day. The entire receipts from advertising and sale of papers will be devoted to the monument fund. The lady managers invite the co-operation of the ladies in all sections of the State.

At Wilkesboro Dr. J. A. Turner, leading the dry ticket, was elected mayor by 1 majority, having 48 votes to 47 for R. N. Hackett, wet. Dry commissioners were also elected. At North Wilkesboro J. N. Marlow, wet candidate for mayor, was elected by 1 majority, having 49 votes against 48 for Ed. Barkley, dry. Two wet and two dry commissioners were elected and one wet and one dry commissioner are tied. Close voting all around.

How Did It Happen?

"Hobson Smythe has been expelled from the Britannia club?"
"What was his offense?"
"Saw the point of a joke in three minutes; their time limit is five or over."—San Francisco Chic.

SMARTEST OF CATS.

"Mrs. Muggins" Kills Rats Just for the Glory There is in It.

A family living out in the suburbs thinks it possesses the smartest cat in the country. The father of the family, after long hours of office work, has the habit when he gets home in the evening of walking the floor for exercise. As soon as he begins his walk "Mrs. Muggins" falls into line behind him, and, with head erect and tail waving in graceful curves, marches up and down and back and forth through the room, only varying the proceedings once in awhile by rolling over on her back as the man runs round and plays with her with his foot. When the walk is over and "Mrs. Muggins" sees her master start for his big rocking chair she makes one bound, settles herself in the chair before he can get there, and, with a countenance that speaks as plainly as words, looks up at him and says:
 "Did you ever get left?"

"Mrs. Muggins" is a very good mouser, and occasionally she will catch a great big rat out in the barn.
 Of this feat she is always very proud, and invariably brings the rat, after it is dead, to the house, where every member of the family must see it, and praise and pet her for being such a good, brave cat. The first time this occurred one of the members of the family took the rat on a shovel and threw it over the back fence, but in a very few minutes "Mrs. Muggins" had it back again; again and again was it thrown away, but every time it was brought back. At last the two compromised matters by allowing the rat to remain just outside the back door by the side of the step. There it stayed all day until evening, when it was found out why "Mrs. Muggins" objected to having it thrown away.

The father had been home only a few minutes when "Mrs. Muggins" walked proudly into the sitting-room with her head aloft and the big rat dangling from her mouth.
 She went up to the man and laid the rat at his feet, looked up in his face and waited to be caressed and praised. After she received the desired attention she allowed the rat to be carried away and cared nothing more about it.

Now the rats that are caught are always allowed to remain near the house until all the family have seen them.—Cincinnati Tribune.

The Unselfish Cricketer.

The cricket ground is a wholesome training field for young Englishmen.
 "It has cost me, one way or another, a fiver to play in this match. I have traveled 200 miles, and now I can say that I have played on a side which made 536 runs, and if I had stayed away they would only have made 535."

So said a very good cricketer at the end of a two days' match, in the course of which he had received three balls only, but he said it without a semblance of grumbling in his voice. Being a cricketer, he had learned to lose sight of his personal failure in thinking of the success of his side, and we hope and believe that he felt that he would rather win a match wherein he made one run than score a century for a losing side.

Only on rare occasions do we meet a downright selfish cricketer, and then we instinctively feel that a man of his stamp would have done better had he confined his attention to the golf course, and that he is for some reason naturally incapable of taking advantage of the countless opportunities that cricket has afforded him of conquering a selfish and ill-regulated disposition.—

Not Made Up.

Manager (to stubborn actress)— Well, is your mind made up to go on?

Actress—No, sir; it is not.

Manager—Why not?

Actress—It doesn't have to be.
 Thank goodness, it's the one thing about me that is natural.—Detroit Free Press.

While returning from a visit in the country, Sunday afternoon, Dr. C. J. O'Hagan lost a hand some gold watch, one that he had been wearing forty years. He kept the watch loose in his pocket and thinks in taking it out to get the time missed his pocket in placing it back.

Meeting in the Methodist Church.

Rev. G. F. Smith began the meeting in the Methodist church Sunday. Rev. R. J. Moorman, of Washington, who will assist him through the week, arrived to-day and will conduct services twice each day, at 5 and 8 P. M. Mr.
Moorman has just closed a successful meeting at Washington in which there were many conversions. He is an excellent preacher and our people should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him.

EGGSACTLY.

The Cat is compelled to smile at the rare bargains you can obtain by dealing with me. I mean business ladies and gentlemen, all. My business is to sell Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes
Clothes in express train style; yours is to buy them, if you're wise.
I'd like to have the contract to dress you right—best clothes, the best hats, best dress goods, best furnishings —you won't have to buy often. Everything offered at prices that will bring you to me if you have money saving at heart.
