

THE DAILY REFLECTOR.

Vol. 1.

GREENVILLE, N. C., MAY 31, 1895.

No.

Local Trains and Boat Schedule.

Passenger and mail train going north, arrives 8:22 A. M. Going South, arrives 6:37 P. M.

North Bound Freight, arrives 6:45 A. M., leaves 10:15 A. M.

South Bound Freight, arrives 1:51 P. M., leaves 2:11 P. M.

Steamer Myers arrives from Washington Monday, Wednesday and Friday leaves for Washington Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

The Pacific mail steamship Colima was wrecked on the 27th and 150 persons are supposed to have lost their lives.

A central News dispatch from Madrid says that 74 men and 15 women were lost by the wrecking of the steamer Dom Pedro. The drowned were mostly Italian, Belgian and Swiss emigrants. The Spanish gun boat Macmahon has gone to the scene.

The farmers in the central part of Iowa are much alarmed over the discovery of a swarm of seventeen-year locusts. They are similar to the locusts which devastated the western country seventeen years ago, and have the characteristic mark—the letter "W"—on each wing.

Parties contemplating attending the Sunday School Convention on June 8th and 9th at Ayden will take notice that the exercises will be held only on the afternoons of those dates.

Lot owners of Cherry Hill Cemetery should not overlook the fact that Councilman Brown will have hands at work there next week. Send somebody on Monday to clean off your lot.

Men will grumble, always would,
Whether times are bad or good.
Take the seasons, as a rule—
When its hot they want it cool;
When its cool they want it hot
Ne'er content with what they've got.

The New Law.

Next Monday the Board of Education passes out of existence, the duties heretofore performed by them falling on the County Commissioners. The Commissioners will also have to levy the county taxes by themselves, the Magistrates having no voice in this matter any more.

Morehead.

The famous Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City will be open for guests to morrow, June 1st. The new proprietor, Mr. Wink Taylor, has made many improvements about the hotel and has put it in fine shape for the season. This is a popular resort with Greenville folks, and if the railroad people can be induced to give us close connection at Kinston a great many will go from here this summer.

Coming It.

It is reported that in this county a short time ago, a man and wife disagreed. The breach between them widened, until a separation was effected, on a cash basis, the consideration being $400 cash, paid the husband by the wife for him to leave and never return, except to get his household effects. Papers were signed and he left. Returning a few days thereafter for his goods, the wife's heart softened toward him. But he was firm. Negotiations for him to remain were opened, and the result was that he demanded and received $500 in cash not to leave as per contract. He didn't leave any more, and $900 is right good money for one week.—King's Weekly.

The REFLECTOR acknowledges from Messrs. J. R. and R. W. Smith an invitation to the Christian College commencement, at Ayden, June 5th and 6th.

The commencement exercises of Pitt Female Seminary will take place June 11th. Those who receive invitations should save them, as none will be admitted without presenting their invitations at the door.

Not Space Enough

In the newspapers to tell you about my stock Spring Goods. Hardly know where to begin describing the new Suits. At my own styles. Of course I know both the in and outside. I challenge the matching of this season's styles. All the energy, artistic taste and the power of money can do to secure quality and fashion. The bleness has been done. My scale will rule the market for I am headquarters for the Clothing trade of this section.

I also carry a beautiful line of Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats, and Gent's Furnishing Goods.

What is Happening Over the State.

Sampson county expects to realize ten thousand dollars from its huckleberry crop this year.

The explosion of the boiler at a saw mill in Caldwell county resulted in the death of four men and two others badly scalded.

A colored girl preacher, nine years old, is creating a sensation amongst the colored people of Wadesboro. The girl is preaching nightly in the colored Methodist church. She claims to have been converted when eighteen months old.—Salisbury Herald.

On yesterday Jesse Johnson, colored, a local grave-digger was removing the body of a young man named Billups who died in Richmond and was buried here about one year ago. When the exhumation was made the body of Mr. Billups was discovered to be petrified. The features were very dark and had an unnatural appearance.—Rocky Mount Phoenix.

Last week, overcoats—this week, dusters. All the same we prefer the latter.

Clayton who was charged with being accessory to the murder of Dave Sherrill at Asheville has been released as the evidence was not sufficient to justify holding him for trial

The remains of Secretary Gresham were taken to his former home for interment after appropriate ceremonies at the capitol. An immense concourse of people attended the services.

The first permanent tribute of respect to Senator Vance in North Carolina is a memorial window at Salem Female College. It was formally presented to trustees during the present commencement exercises. Hon. J. C. Huxton presented it and Bishop Rondthaler accepted it on the part of the trustees. Both made able speeches. Mrs. Vance was present, together with many of the admirers of the late lamented Senator.

The grand jury in New York has returned true bills in the indictments of the following well known firms for selling "fake" silverware:

H. C. F. Koch & Co., Bloomingdale Bros, Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, Stern & Co., Macy & Co., Adams & Co., Hearn & Son, Hilton, Hughes & Co., Ehrlich Brothers, Jamison & Co., Daniels & O'Neill & Co.

In order to present to the world the remarkable increase in the number of cotton mills being built in the South and the great activity which attends this industry at present, the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, issues this week a Special Cotton Mill Edition, in which the situation is treated from its various standpoints by the most noted textile and other experts. Statistics are given showing the number of mills under construction in the principal manufacturing districts, while all the various features peculiarly favorable to this industry in the South are reviewed at length. This is the most complete digest of the subject which has ever been published, and the scope of this issue and its distribution is probably the most important single undertaking which any paper has ever carried through in behalf of the South. Mr. R. H. Edmonds, the editor and general manager of the Manufacturers' Record, succeeded in getting some of the ablest experts of New England to contribute special articles showing the South's superior advantages for cotton manufacturing, thus making this issue carry more weight than if the South's claims had been presented only by Southern people. Mr. D. M. Thompson, for many years manager of a New England mill company that operates 420,000 spindles, the largest mill company in America, and now president of the Corliss Engine Works, writes very strongly in favor of the South's pre-eminent advantages for cotton mills.

Mr. O. R. Makepeace, a leading New England cotton mill architect, and Mr. A. B. Shepperson, the cotton statistician, take the same view. Mr. F. E. Saunders, of Lowell, proves by the official reports of the United States Weather Bureau, that in average mean temperature and humidity, the South's climate is much superior to that of Massachusetts for the manufacture of fine cotton goods. There are 124 pages, which makes this issue the largest industrial publication ever printed in the South. The extent of its circulation is, however, the most striking feature and one calculated to do, not only cotton, but all Southern interests a world of good. A copy of this issue is sent to every cotton mill in New England, to leading mills in Great Britain, and to all the textile machinery houses in both, and with every one of these copies a special letter is sent calling attention to the presentation of facts made in behalf of the South. In addition to this copies will be sent to the individual officers of New England mills and to the directors at their private addresses, to bankers and general investors. Such a circulation was never before given to any publication in the interest of the South.

$10,000 Wasted in Printing.

Secretary H. C. Brown, of the Railroad Commission, speaking of the outrageous charges made by Stewart Brothers, public printers, for recent work turned out, said as far as the Report of the Railroad Commission was concerned, it would take him thirty days to read the proof of the book, and as it had to be read by him, the expense and trouble of a month's stay in Winston was involved in all the mess of having put the contract at this distance from Raleigh. Moreover, work for all parties here had to bear the additional expense of express charges to this place, and Mr. J. C. Birdsong, a practical printer, said that the present printing contract would cost the State $10,000 more than the last.

As to the books for which a bill was coolly made at treble price, the acting Auditor, Mr. Palmer Jerman, when the bill was presented, promptly and properly refused to issue a warrant for the manifestly overcharged work. Thus "Messrs. Stewart Brothers will have to pick their flints again; meanwhile, the whole matter has been put in the hands of a competent committee of practical printers who will look into the matter. The result of their investigations will doubtless make interesting reading for the public if not for the public printer.—Raleigh News and Observer.

On June 3rd, Jefferson Davis' birthday, a collection for the the monument to be erected over his grave at Richmond will be taken all over the South.

Stub Ends of Thought.

A witless woman is a mistake of creation.
Now is but an atom of thought.
Credit takes the place of money, but cannot keep it.
Hope is the health of the spirit.
Every man is a book, and every book is not worth reading.
No man can be happy without sharing it with somebody.
Prudence is a plug of prosperity.
An army is a great monster with a head, but no heart.
Cupid is a physician who never takes his own medicine.

What Mr. Carlisle Has Lost.

The Chicago Times-Herald has the following:

Mr. Carlisle rarely goes on a railway journey without losing an umbrella or an overcoat or leaving a night shirt in a sleeping car.

We can easily believe this, and there is more to be said on the same line. Besides umbrellas, overcoats and various articles of lingerie, the secretary has recently lost many other things. He has lost his reputation for consistency, and he seems to have lost his memory. He has lost his place in the affections of his people, lost his independence, and lost his old frankness and fearlessness.

But we do not care to catalogue everything that he has lost for fear that some malicious paragrapher might intimate that he has capped the climax by losing his head.—Atlanta Constitution.

Experience is Against It.

A contemporary, discussing the financial question, rises to remark "that the people cannot be fooled." That editor perhaps never saw the hustling vender of some cure-all performing on the street corner and shoving 'em out at 50 cents a bottle, or thereabouts. We would like to believe in the solid sense and good judgment of the mass of mankind but the experience of the world is against it. The people cannot only be fooled but have been fooled, are fooled and will continue to be fooled while so many fellows are going 'round with limber jaws whose special business is to fool them.—Wilmington Star.

The Newton Enterprise tells of a small-sized negro in Lincoln county who at one sitting last week ate fourteen cans of sardines and a pound of soda crackers. A few nights afterwards a crowd of boys agreed to buy all the canned oysters he could eat. After finishing up fifteen cans the boys broke the contract and would go no further, and the negro, to prove that he had not yet reached his capacity, bought another can himself and after eating it announced that having no more money, he would have to quit hungry.

Hottest Day for Twenty-five Years.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 29.—The records of the weather bureau do not show a hotter day than this one in May for the last twenty-five years. The oldest residents with keen memories do not recollect as hot a day in and about
 Chicago for the time of the year.
 Thermometers down town ranged in the afternoon from 92 to 96 degrees, the official reading being
 93. In the face of these remarkable changes in temperature during the last three weeks the official prophet gives warning of a cold wave which will arrive from the Northwest in the next 48 hours and may drop the mercury 40 degrees.

Several years ago the legislature of Michigan under mistaken sentiment, abolished capital punishment in that State, but the change effected no good purpose—on the other hand it had the effect of increasing crime—and now an attempt is being made to undo the unwise action of a former Legislature, the State Senate having voted for the passage of a bill to restore capital punishment in certain cases.—Durham Sun.

PREPARED FOR AN EMERGENCY.

 Policeman—It is that same, by this token. I've got orders to go down an' arrest two members of the slaughter house gang!—Life.

An excursion to an ice house or a fan factory would be appropriate in this kind of weather.

Observer Lang has not had a weather message in several days. May be that accounts for its staying fair.

LADIES come to see LANG for your commencement outfits.

When this kind of weather strikes, the girls find "Mother Hubbards" more comfortable than "large, enthusiastic" sleeves.

This month will be remembered as the wettest May on record. The REFLECTOR calls on Mr. R. R. Cotten to send us word how much the rainfall for the month was.

Mr. Alfred Forbes has placed a force pump in the well in his yard and has added sufficient hose to throw a stream over all the buildings connected with his residence.

One of our largest grocery merchants tells us that in the last twenty days flour has advanced $2.10 per barrel. And the end of the advance is not yet in sight.

The REFLECTOR believes an ice factory in Greenville would pay, and we hope this hint will put some of our folks to thinking about it. We believe that Nat Whitfield could talk one up.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

The Panorama of People Keep Moving.

Miss Bessie Jarvis is sick.

Mrs. George Hellen, of Grifton, spent to-day here.

Mrs. Etta Dixon, of Greene county, is visiting Mrs. J. L. Sagg.

Mr. J. H. Smith, of Falkland, was among the visitors in town to-day.

Mr. Allen Warren has returned from a visit to his daughter in Washington.

Messrs. L. C. Latham and J. H. Blount went to Washington to-day to attend court.

Mr. B. R. King came in on yesterday evening's train and left by steamer to-day for Tarboro.

Master David James went to Grindool to day to attend the James School commencement.

Miss Hortense Forbes left Thursday evening for Kinston to visit her sister, Mrs. M. H. Quinlerly.

Mr. C. C. Joyner, a student of the University, came home Thursday evening. Claude looks as jolly as ever.

Sheriff B. W. Edwards and Messrs. R. R. Carr and P. S. B. Harper, of Greene county, were in town to-day.

Mr. C. A. Hines, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. W. C. Hines, left for his home in Sampson county to-day.

Mr. B. F. Metzger, the kid drummer of Norfolk, stopped over with his sample case here yesterday and left on the evening train for Kinston.

Rev. G. F. Smith, pastor of the Methodist church, will exchange pulpits Sunday with Rev. J. A. Lee, of Tarboro. The latter will preach here.

On next Thursday, June 6, Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M., will hold its annual election of officers. The brethren will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Already much interest in centering in the races to be had at the track here on the 4th of July. There will be some fine horses and some good trials of speed.
