A Large Family.

A day or two ago Mr. Jesse Speight received a letter that he prizes quite highly. It was written by his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Speight, of Dayville, Mo., who is 84 years old. With her husband Mr. James Speight, she left North Carolina fifty years ago, going from Greene county, and located in Missouri. Her husband died two years ago. In her letter she said she had 63 grandchildren, 92 great grand-children and 6 great great grand-children. Of this number of descendents 113 are now living. "So you see," added the aged lady, "I have quite a large family."

Bethel Items.

BETHEL, N. C., June 6th 1895.—Maj. H. Harding, of Greenville, spent yesterday in town.

Prof T. C. Manning come home last Saturday from Rome, Ga., where he had been teaching penmanship for some time.

Dr. R. J. Nelson, of Robersonville was in town to-day.

Johnie Staton, son of Mr. Robt. Staton, stuck a nail through his foot Tuesday. His wound is said to be doing very well.

Mr. Guilford Andrews lost a horse last Sunday evening. It was killed by an ox.

Mr. J. R. Overton, a well to do farmer, died at his home in Martin county, about six miles from Bethel, Tuesday. He was formerly of this county, but has lived in Edgecombe and Martin ever since the late war.

Bicycle racing was the order of the day in town yesterday among our young men.

Shame on the Boys.

We are told that a number of boys, some of them nearly grown, were guilty of some very ugly and ungentlemanly behavior while bathing in the river, just below town, Wednesday afternoon. Some ladies were being brought in a row boat to Greenville from their home a few miles down the river. When they had approached near enough to see that boys were in bathing between them and the wharf their boat was stopped and word sent up to the boys to please withdraw from the river until they could pass. The boys not only refused to comply with this request but began to make such indecent exposure of themselves that the ladies had to leave their boat and walk nearly a mile through fields in order to reach town. Such conduct on the part of the boys was disgraceful.

A Word to the Boys.

If you have anything to do, do it at once. Don't sit down in the rocking chair and lose three quarters of an hour dreading the job. Be sure that it will seem ten times harder than it did at first. Keep this motto: Be on time, in small things as well as great. Habit is everything. The boy who is behind time at breakfast and school, will be sure to get "left" in the important things of life.

Be a power in your own little world and depend upon it, then, the big world will hear from you some day.

The Weather's Own Way.

Ain't it funny, the-kind of items the newspaper folks print sometime? Less than two weeks ago it was going the rounds that such cold weather so late in the season had never been known, and the last few days it has been such warm weather so early in the season was never before experienced. Well, we expect if there were any records available it would be found that somewhere in the past there were seasons just like this.

Have Your Eyes Examined.

Prof. P. D. Mahoney, specialist in lenses for the eye, is at the Ricks House for one week, where examinations for all forms of defective sight will be thoroughly and scientifically made.

If your sight, either distant or near, is imperfect; if your eyes water or burn after reading, sewing or any other kind of work, if your vision is blurred when looking at an object fifteen feet or more away; if after prolonged use of your eyes they feel strained and your head aches, you certainly require glasses, and should not for a day neglect their use.

If your defective sight can be improved by glasses, the proper one will be selected for you; if on the other hand the defect depends upon disease or such abnormal condition of the eye that glasses will not help, you will be frankly so informed and so saved a useless expense.

I guarantee every pair of glasses ordered to be satisfactory, and expect to win your confidence by the skillful and accurate manner in which they give you improved and comfortable vision. All examinations free.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

Minister W. M. Ransom has returned from Mexico on a leave of absence and is now in the North Carolina mountains.

A few weeks ago there was a bureau report as to the cotton acreage which placed the decrease for this year at only about 2 per cent. At the time that report was believed to be far from correct. Now another report has been made which places the acreage at seventeen millions acres for this year against twenty millions for last year. In consequence of this there was an advance in price of several points on Thursday.

THE 8 TO 7 DECISION.

Justice Clark Dissents in a Powerful and Convincing Opinion.

We print below the dissenting opinion of Justice Clark in the case of Wyatt vs manufacturing company which embraced the question of fraud in having the presiding officers of the Legislature sign a bill which never passed the Legislature. Justice Avery concurs in the dissent, but the fusionists agree and therefore the law cannot be reviewed by any court.

This case resembles much that of Carr vs. Coke, at this term, an investigation of the same fraud being asked, and it is unnecessary to repeat the reasons given in the dissenting opinions filed in that case. In this case the plaintiffs claim under an assignment executed in accordance with the laws heretofore in force in this State and which legislature after legislature, including the present one, has declined to alter. The plaintiffs contend that such assignment is valid, and that their rights are not affected by the pretended "assignment law" which after being defeated on its passage in the present General Assembly was surreptitiously fraudulently procured to be signed by a deception practiced on the Speakers. The action was dismissed below on the ground that, taking the allegations to be true—and indeed they were not seriously controverted on the argument—the Court had no jurisdiction to right this great wrong and fraud.

It would seem that certainly the Speakers of the two Houses should have been allowed to testify that this fraud had been practiced on them and that their signatures had not been knowingly and intentionally placed to a bill which they knew had not been passed, but which had been defeated. This was due to them, to the Legislature and to the people. The people are entitled, as a sacred and inviolable right, to be governed by no laws save those enacted by their representatives duly and legally assembled. The act of a corrupt and hired villain, whose proper place is in the penitentiary, should by no process of reasoning or refinement of logic be imposed on the people, in express contradiction to a vote of their General Assembly. The power of consolidated, wealth, acting through the channel of a purchased and hireling lobby, is a growing evil in all American legislation. The solemn and unmistakable issue in this case, brushing aside all technicalities, is simply this: Shall the law be what the representatives of the people declare it shall be, or shall the will of powerful and menacing combinations of capital acting through the lobbyists, with which they every where assail legislative action, override and be substituted for the popular will? To a fearful extent this has been the result in Congress and in many State legislatures, but by more devious methods. This is the first instance in which one of these combinations, failing to secure its end by influencing legislation in the usual mode, has boldly and cynically defied the action of the General Assembly and set aside its negative vote by fraudulently substituting the defeated bill as a genuine one, and procuring the unintentional signatures of the Speakers. For the first time in American history accumulated capital and its hirelings have dared to take so bold a step.

We are asked to say that such action is beyond the power of the Courts. The plaintiffs have no power to call the legislature together, and they may be unable to satisfy the Governor that their wrongs, great as they are, are sufficient to tax the public with the expensive precedent of re-summoning the legislature whenever the fraud of a lobbyist is discovered. There is an easy, a cheap and speedy remedy by setting aside the signatures, as fraudulent, upon the testimony of the Speakers to that effect and the verdict of a jury. Upon the verdict of a jury, every man is dependent for the protection of his property, his reputation, his liberty and his life. Surely it is a competent tribunal to decide whether the signatures to a piece of paper were knowingly and intentionally affixed by the Speakers with the assent of their respective Houses, or whether the bill had been defeated on its attempted passage and notwithstanding such defeat the signatures and certificate of the Speakers had been thereafter procured by a bold and shameless fraud. Reduced to its last analysis, the question is simply whether Legislators shall legislate, and whether time honored institutions of "twelve good men and true" shall be trusted to declare, upon the testimony of the presiding officers of the two Houses, that a gross fraud was perpetrated on them in procuring their signatures to a bill which had not been enacted by the two Houses, but had been tabled.

It is not an occasion when public policy or individual rights can tolerate the suppression of an investigation. The investigation should be full, free and searching. "The lights should be turned on," not off. Nothing that is honest and pure and of good repute, need fear an investigation. Others have no claim to be protected from it."

Avery, J. concurs in this dissent.

DEATH OF DR. C. T. BAILEY.

Rev. Dr. C. T. Bailey died at his residence in this city yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, aged 60 years. Dr. Bailey was one of the most prominent preacher-editors in the State. He was for nearly twenty years editor of the Bibli- cal Recorder, the leading Baptist journal of the State, and one of the foremost exponents of that denomination in the South. He was an able, original and interesting writer and made of the Recorder a great newspaper as well as a popular denominational organ. He occupied a high place in the councils of his church, and was a safe, conservative and wise leader. During his twenty years residence in Raleigh he endeared himself to our people generally, and was held in the highest esteem by them. He was a profound thinker, a scholar, an able preacher, a fearless, pungent, interesting editor, an honest, upright man and a genial amiable friend and neighbor. Dr. Bailey was born in Williamsburg, Va. He was educated at William and Mary and at the Richmond Colleges of Virginia, he entered the ministry immediately on the completion of his education, but was during the last two years of the war, a private in the Confederate army. After the war was over he re-entered the ministry, and after serving several leading Virginia churches, he was called to Edenton, N. C. From here he went to Warrenton, and was pastor of the Baptist Church there, when called to the editorial chair of the Biblical Recorder. He was a very charming man, was full of good humor and good cheer. It was his nature to look on the bright side of life, and although his latter days have been filled with intense suffering, he has borne, these sufferings with Christian fortitude and characteristic patience.

Dr. Bailey was stricken with paralysis on March 6, 1892, from which he never fully recovered although up to a year ago he was able to look after his work. During the past year he has been gradually growing weaker, and the fact that his valuable life was fast ebbing away has been known to his family and friends for several months. The end came yesterday morning and one of the brightest minds went out, one of the noblest hearts ceased beating and one of the States best citizens was no more.

Dr. Bailey leaves a widow, who was Miss Annie S. Briley, of Virginia, three sons, Messrs. C. T. Bailey, J. William Bailey, who succeeded his father as editor of the Recorder, and E. L. Bailey; and one daughter, the wife of Mr. Wesley N. Jones, of this city.

In the bereavement with which these good people have been stricken they have the sympathy of a very wide circle of friends in Raleigh and throughout the State.—Raleigh News and Observer 6th.
