NEARER HOME.

What is Happening Over the State.

After a service of ten years or more at the head of the Goldsboro Argus, Mr. Joseph E. Robinson retires and Mr. Walter A. Bonitz becomes sole proprietor of that paper.

The tobacco factory of Ross, Atkinson & Co., at Copeland, Surry county, was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin. Loss, $25,000; insurance, $18,000.

Mr. Samuel Wilks, about 70 years of age, while burning off some new ground in Pamlico county was accidentally burned to death.

A Turtle's Annual Visit.

A land turtle that without fail for twenty-six years has regularly appeared at the home of Michael Mackey in Chester county, Pa., came to time a few days ago and is being proudly exhibited by Mackey. That gentleman asserts that there can be no mistaking his turtle, as the initials of his name was emblazoned on its shell. He says that its training has been so well developed at his home that at the sound of a dinner bell it comes into the dining room to receive its allotment of food. It stays around the Mackey premises until September, and then goes off to its winter quarters.

Moonlight Excursion.

There was a large crowd on the moonlight excursion Friday night and they had a pleasant time, though the night air was rather cool. Capt. Bill Parvin always looks out for the comfort of those who travel with him on the Meyers, so had a fire in the saloon for those to go to who got too cold on deck. The excursionists got back shortly after midnight.

The Male Academy will close next Friday. There will be no closing exercises. The entire week will be spent in examinations. The boys are already looking anxious as to what their reports will show.

Just Four in Two.

For two weeks past the Register of Deeds has been applied to for only four marriage licenses, two for white and two for colored couples.

WHITE—J. W. Williams and Louiza Brown, F. M. Hodges and E. B. Greene.

COLORED—Marcus Williams and Mary Wiggins, Manuel Rodges and Mary Norville.

This shows a dull matrimonial market, and with licenses now $1 higher there is no telling how dull it will get around the Register's office.

The closing exercises of Prof. Goodis School will take place next Tuesday night at the Opera House.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 7, 1895.

President Cleveland surprised a great many people when he tendered the Secretaryship of State to Attorney General Olney, but there was nothing surprising about it to those who are familiar with the workings of the administration. On the contrary, it appears to them to have been the logical thing to do. Attorney General Olney is thoroughly familiar with the foreign policy of the government. Indeed, it is not stretching the truth to say that he had a hand in the formulation of that policy, as he was in constant consultation with President Cleveland and the late Secretary Gresham whenever any important move was contemplated. What then was more natural than that he should be selected to fill the vacancy? He is thoroughly familiar with all the unfinished negotiations now pending with various countries, more so than an able outsider could possibly become after months of study. It is altogether probable that Mr. Olney would have preferred remaining at the head of the Department of Justice had he considered it merely as a question of personal preference.

Secretary Carlisle will return to Kentucky to deliver the speech which was postponed on account of Secretary Gresham's death and it is possible that he may while there make other speeches. The news from Kentucky is not altogether pleasing to Democrats who desire the success of the party. The Republicans of the State are said to be enthusiastic over their prospects of success which would not exist if the Democrats were united as they ought to be. There have been several conferences of prominent Democrats to discuss ways and means for bringing the Democrats together, not only in Kentucky but in other States where there seems to be a disposition to think there are enough Democrats to form two parties.

Gen. A. L. New, of Denver, who is collector of internal revenue for the district composed of the States of Colorado and Wyoming, and who is one of the most popular Democrats of his section, is in Washington on official business. Speaking of the political situation he said: "If Colorado keeps on increasing her gold output in the same ratio that she has of late I wouldn't be surprised to see her classed as a single standard gold State within five years. The discoveries of a yellow metal at Leadville and Cripple Creek have been astonishing, and the people are gradually ceasing to talk about the demonetization of silver. I doubt very curiously whether the Democrats could carry the State in the Presidential election for a free silver candidate."

The opinion is general among Democrats who come from New York and Brooklyn that the vote in those towns have had quite enough of the professional reformers and will restore the control to the Democrats at the next election. Mr. W. H. Belford, of the latter city says: "In Brooklyn there is deep disgust at the way things are run. On Sundays the whiskey shops are in full blast, yet it is impossible for a man to get shaved. The conditions are ripe for a return of the Democrats to power on both sides of the East River, and if they put up good candidates they will win without any trouble."

"Look out for a big row at Cleveland," remarked a prominent Republican who occasionally gives a newspaper man a pointer. He was referring to the National convention of the Republican National League, which begins a three-day session at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 16th inst. And well he might say look out for a big row. One is certainly brewing, and nothing but the most careful management can avoid it. It has been clear for some time that an attempt would be made to commit the convention on the silver question; also to use it to boom one of the quartette of leading aspirants for the Republican Presidential nomination. Unless both of these attempts can be sidetracked a fight that may result in splitting the Republican party seems inevitable.

President Cleveland this week removed from office Mr. Charles B. Morton, Auditor of the Treasury for the Navy Department. No official explanation has been made, but it is understood that the removal was in part brought about by letters written by Mr. Morton to which the names of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle were used in a disrespectful manner. It is probable also that a long line of difficulties which Mr. Morton has had with naval officials, about which Secretary Herbert had complained to the President, had some thing to do with it; likewise some deals reported to have been made by Mr. Morton in connection with Federal officers in Maine.

NORTH CAROLINA FRUITS.

We see it mentioned that in Surry county alone it is estimated that the fruit crop will bring $50,000. North Carolina is a great fruit State in embryo. It can grow the best apples, peaches, pears and grapes of any State on the Atlantic border. Grapes of the best kind are indigenous, grown almost everywhere, and in great perfection. The finest pears we ever ate grew in this State. In 1851, the first World's Fair was held in New York. The two highest premiums for apples were received by two Guilford county (N. C.) pomologists. The apples of the best known flavor and of the largest size are easily raised and peaches of unsurpassed excellence of flavor we have often eaten in Granville county. When North Carolina farmers turn their attention to fruit growing they will be on the way to more money and better living. But they must learn how to handle fruit. A skilled fruit raiser from Canada told us a year or two ago that the apple men in our mountains had no idea how to properly pack and handle apples.

The grape could be developed into a great industry. It is said that the pineapple and banana can be grown in the open air in this State. North Carolina has vast capabilities, but when will they be developed and utilized?—Wilmington Messenger.

Beware of Fruit Skins.

Fruit skins carry germs and are no more intended for human sustenance than potato skins, melon rinds or pea pods.

The bloom of the peach is a luxuriant growth of microbes; that of grape only less so; and when these skins are taken into the stomach they find more favorable conditions for their lively and rapid development which cause the decay of the fruit before it is possible to digest it. This is the reason many persons think they cannot eat raw fruit. If they would in all cases discard the skin they could derive only good from the fruit itself.

Nature provides the skin for the protection of the multitude of germs which are ever ready to attack it, as is evidenced when the skin is bruised or broken in any way. The microbes at once begin their work of decay, and the fruit is unfit for food. Children are chief offenders in respect to this rule and should be carefully watched and frequently cautioned. A daintiness as to the condition of fruit should also be cultivated, to prevent its being eaten unripe, or too old, on the verge of decay. Remember that it is sweet and ripe fruit, in prime condition only that is recommended.—Philadelphia Times.

How Egypt Got Its Name.

Mr. Peter E. Smith, of Scotland Neck, tells the Sanford Express how Egypt in Chatham county got its name. His grandfather, Peter Evans, bought a farm in Moore county in 1830. He always made good crops and had corn to sell. There was a year of dry weather in Chatham and Moore counties, and one day Mr. Evans saw a string of thirteen covered wagons coming down to buy corn. He laughingly remarked to a neighbor, who happened to be present, "I will have to call my place 'Egypt.' See the Israelites coming to buy corn." From that time on, the place has been called Egypt.

Gathered From All Sections of the Country and Paraphrased.

The Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., almost created a sensation at the New York Academy of Music Sunday when he pronounced Protestantism in New York a failure. The audience hardly knew whether to applaud or not. There was one hiss from the centre of the hall.

New York bankers interested or representing securities of Georgia Central property or its branch lines, confirm the statement made by a southern dispatch late last week that the plan of reorganization has been laid aside pending the return of J. P. Morgan.

It is reported on good authority that a mammoth new mill is to be built at North Adams, Mass., to be known as Berkshire Mill No. 3. The mill, it is said will be the second largest cotton mill in America and will be erected at a cost of over half a million dollars, and employ 2,000 hands.

IN THE WEST.

The Ohio miners' strike is at an end, says a Columbus dispatch.

A Kansas City dispatch says the Jackson county democratic central committee has asked for a state convention to declare itself to the silver question.

Reports say that the wheat, oats and hay crops in Central Illinois will be failures. There is a fine stand of corn but it needs rain. Recent hot winds have dried up pastures.

At San Francisco, Cal., May 29, Theodore Darant was arraigned before Judge Murphy for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. He pleaded not guilty. Both cases were set for July 22d.

The Mobile and Ohio railroad company offers pro rata to its stockholders $1,250,000 of its general mortgage four per cent bonds at 65. Each stockholder of record will be entitled to subscribe for a bond of $500.

Farmers in the central part of Iowa are much alarmed over the discovery of small swarms of seventeen-year locusts. They are similar to the locusts which devastated the western country seventeen years ago.

Reports from western states show that rain is badly needed for the crops. Dry, hot winds over central and northern Iowa have caused them great injury. Much damage was done by frost on the night of May 27th.

The republican state convention of Ohio which met at Zanesville, Tuesday, nominated Asa W. Bushnell, of Springfield, for governor.

Dispatches from along the lines of the Wisconsin Central and Northwestern roads report extensive forest fires near Ramsay, Mich.

The Confederate crowd which attended the monument unveiling in Chicago were banqueted and delightfully entertained in Cincinnati Saturday.

Eugene V. Debs surrendered himself to United States Marshal Arnold, at Chicago, Ill., Tuesday afternoon, and will serve out the six months' sentence.

The National municipal league will be in session the last three days of this month in Cleveland, Ohio. This meeting will be the third of its kind held within two years.

At Topeka Tuesday the Kansas democratic state central committee declared for the free coinage of silver and denounced the action of the supreme court in the income tax matter.
