LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

We understand that not more than 75 per cent. of a tobacco has as yet been set in the old tobacco belt of the State.

Tobacco generally is looking fairly well taking into consideration the unfavorable weather and seasons.

Farmers in topping their tobacco this season should bear in mind that the excessive rains have had a tendency to wash away the guano, and a good deal of the strength is gone. Don't top too high else you will have light chaffy tobacco.

The coming July fourth is looked for as the biggest day in Greenville for many years. The Greenville Pleasure Club at their race course one mile from town will give a series of entertainments that will draw the largest crowd that has been in Greenville ever. For centuries fast horse racing has always been a very popular past time sport, and the pages of medieval history glow in discription of the race under various customs and until the present time the race has lost none of its charms but with increasing ardor to a very large extent, love for such exciting sport can easily be kindled in the bosom of the most disinterested. We have frequently heard people say that farmers should stay at home and work their crops on such days instead of coming to town where they will not only lose the time but spend their money besides. The small hearted and shrivited souls of this class we are glad to say are hopelessly in the minority. The fourth of July should be celebrated in a becoming manner every year and the coming fourth, of the present year in Greenville will be made attractive in many ways for everybody. There will be several good races, and number of people here from all sections of the county and participants also from Tarboro, Washington, Newbern and number of others of our sister towns. The writer for one wants to see everybody that can come out and spend a day in innocent amusement and recreation.

THE PENNANT RACES.

How the League Clubs Stand.

There were quite a number of changes in the standing of the clubs last week. Pittsburg had several defeats, lost 50 points and has dropped from first to third place. Boston gained 35 points and takes the lead. Baltimore gained 30 points and has advanced from fifth to second place. There is not much change in the other clubs. The standing of the teams at the close of Saturday's games was as follows:

CLUBS.	Won.	Lost.	Pr. Ct.
Boston,	25	14	.641
Baltimore,	23	15	.605
Pittsburg,	27	18	.600
Cleveland,	25	19	.568

Money in a Bag of Coffee.

A few days ago while clerks in the store of J. C. Cobb & Son were opening a bag of coffee they found a bill of money. It is a Brazil bill and quite a curiosity. The design of the bill is handsome and very much on the order of United States bills, though slightly smaller. The denomination of the bill is one milrie, representing in our money a value of 55 cents. Some of the words on the bill, especially the written signatures, were faded, yet most of them were very distinct. The bill was issued while Brazil was an Empire. How the bill came in the bag of coffee no one can tell, but the supposition is that while the bag was being filled at one of the Brazil coffee farms some one dropped this bill out of his pocket and it got in the coffee.

There are now only 200 wild buffaloes alive in the United States, of which 150 are in the Yellowstone park, twenty in Colorado and thirty in Texas. This remnant of the vast herds that once roamed over the plains shows how nearly one of the most typical of American wild animals has reached extinction.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Geo. E. Crabtree, formerly of this city, now one of the most popular commercial tourists in the State, to Miss Mattie Brown, daughter of Mr. S. T. Brown, of this city. The happy event takes place at the residence of Mr. Brown on June 26th at 6 A. M. The bride is a sister of Hon. G. H. Brown and Mrs. J. E. Shepherd, and is a young lady of accomplishment.—Washington Messenger.

Populists Disbanding.

The Jackson, Miss., correspondent of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, under date of June 13th, writes:

"The Quitman Quill announces that the executive committee of the Populist party, at its recent meeting in Yalobusha county, unanimously agreed, by a series of resolutions to that effect, to discontinue their organization as a party and unite themselves with the true Democracy. This was brought about mainly by wise and liberal action of the Democracy of the county in opening the way by extending the right to vote in the primaries to all who would agree to vote for the nominees in the general election. It was a wise and conservative course on the part of the Democracy of that county and their action is to be commended by all who have the interests of the party and the good of the country at heart."

There is no need for a Populist party for honest men who really want financial reform. It is a good thing for office seekers, who use its membership to pull chestnuts out of the fire for their personal advantage. In Mississippi, where the Populists "prefer reform to office," seeing that support of Populism tends to Republican rule, those who joined it a few years ago are disbanding their organization and returning to the Democratic fold. There is no other course open to them if they desire to preserve good home government and secure just financial laws.

The action in Mississippi is but a few months in advance of what the honest Populists in North Carolina will take. Up to this time they have blindly followed a corrupt cabal, and been used to degrade their State and to put Republican gold-bugs and incompetents into office. Those who are in the Populist party for office will stay and continue to dicker with the Republicans and the trusts for personal aggrandizement, but the rank and file will be found again under the banner of good government in the Democratic party.—Raleigh News and Observer.

RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

Warning Notes Calling the Wicked to Repentance.

Every life is a prayer of some kind.

The man who cheats another robs himself.

When the heart gives, the gift is always great.

The man who plows deep has God for his friend.

The hands grow heavy when the heart is weak.

A temptation resisted is a step taken with God.

God speaks to us most in the voice to which we will-best listen.

No gift can be put on God's altar unless the blood of religious life has been put there first.

Unbelief is the egg out of which all sins are hatched.

It is easier to give God all than it is to give him a part.

The pedestal means nothing until the statue is in place.

The moderate drinker is helping to gravel the road that leads to the pit.

There isn't a millionaire alive to-day whom an angel would consider rich.

If the road to the pit didn't begin in respectability it couldn't end in ruin.

It may be that God made the Dead Sea to show a stingy man how he looks.

It is always safe for right to count on the help of God when it goes into battle.

The devil will promise to pay any kind of interest, if we only take his note.

Jesus wrote the woman's sins in the dust. Our names are written on his hands.

The only thing the matter with the religion of some people is that it has no Christ.

The paths of righteousness lead straight into the valley of the shadow of death.

Help Yourself.

Fight your own battles. Hoe your own row. Ask no favors of any one, and you will succeed a thousand times better than one who is always beseeching some one's influence and patronage. No one will help you as you help yourself, because no one is so heartily interested in your affairs. The first step will be such a long one, perhaps; but, carving your way up the mountain, you make each one lead to another, and stand firm while you chop still another out. Men who have made fortunes are not those who have had five or six thousand dollars given them to start with, but boys who have started fair with a well earned dollar or two.

Men who acquire fame have never been thrust into popularity by puffs begged or paid for, or given in public spirit. They have outstretched their own hands and touched the public heart. Men who win love do their own wooing; and I never knew a man to fail so signally as one who induced his affectionate grandmother to speak a good word for him. Whether you work for fame, for love, for money, or for anything else, work with your hands, and heart, and brain. Say "I will," and some day you will conquer. Never let any man have to say, "I have dragged you up." Too many friends sometimes hurt a man more than none at all.—Henderson Hustler.

The farmers are at work in their fields, the merchant is busy selling his spring clothing, the miller is grinding away at his wheat, the laborer is laboring every day at his work, whatever it may be, the hunter is hunting, the sportsman is sporting, the idler is idling. Every branch of work is running along smoothly, while the poor printer toils at his case, the editor scratches his head with his pencil and racks his brain for news for his subscribers to read. Of all of these fields of work the editor's is most to be pitied, for he gets less pay and more abuse than all the rest put together. Still we like it and shall continue to rack our brain to please our subscribers, and we only hope and pray that some of the delinquents will come and pay the price of their subscriptions.—Louisburg Times.

A New Republican Paper

The State Republican is the name of a new weekly newspaper that appeared in Raleigh yesterday, edited by Messrs. E. A. Johnson, John H. Williamson and H. S. Christmas. It states its policy in these words:

"The Republican stands square on the platform of the Republican National Platform in all particulars. We are for the gold standard. We are for a protective tariff. We are opposed to the silver craze, and we are opposed to free trade as advocated by the Democratic and Populist parties."

The first issue contains a cartoon representing the political banquet of the Populists and Republicans in North Carolina. A fat Populist and a fat Republican are sitting at a table eating a fine dinner. Two negroes are sitting on the floor to get a few crumbs. Their votes furnished the banquet to the leaders. Occasionally a Republican ships a little to the negro near him, but the Populist gives the negro nothing.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Half Human, Half Calf.

The Wilmington Messenger tells of a very remarkable Brunswick county monstrosity which it learns of through Rev. S. L. Swain, of that county, who was visiting a Wilmington clergyman.

The monstrosity is in the shape of a half calf and half human, of which a cow in Shalotte township became the mother on Friday, May 31st. The cow belonged to Mr. William Frink, and the monstrosity was born on the plantation of Mr. Frink's father-in-law, Mr. Cornelius Thomas. It had no tail and half of its face and body were human, including a perfectly shaped shoulder, arm, hand, leg and foot. The other half was that of a calf, and the thing walked erect.

The women of Alexandria, Va., prompted by a desire to commemorate the virtues of the mother of Robert E. Lee, propose to erect in that city a monument to her memory. An association has been formed in Alexandria, called the Annie Lee Monument Association.

The Races.

There was a large crowd out at the race track, Tuesday afternoon, to witness the trials of speed between three local horses and the races were very interesting. Dr. D. L. James, Mr. S. T. White and Mr. J. W. Higgs entered their trotters to race for a $42 stake.

1st Heat—Won by White, time 1:58; James second, Higgs third.
2nd Heat—Won by James, time 3:01; Higgs second, White third.
3rd Heat—Won by James, time 3:00; Higgs second, White third.

Dr. James was declared winner of the of the race and took the stake.

After these trials there was a half mile foot race between several boys under 14 years of age. This was won by Dick White in 2:53 with Ben Cowell second. It was good running for the boys.
