Sam Small's Paper Assigns.

NORFOLK, Va., July 29—A deed of assignment was entered in the clerk's office of the city of Norfolk this afternoon by L. Sheldon president, transferring the property of the Pilot Publishing Company to Judge J. E. Heath, trustee, for the benefit of creditors. The total liabilities amount to about $17,000. There are four schedules of preferred creditors. Class A are debts in Norfolk and the bills range from $1.05 to $403 for paper and foot up $699.95. Schedule B consists of 13 notes aggregating $9,961.15 due the directors of the Pilot Company and a few leading prohibitionists. Schedule C consists of cash loaned the paper. The smallest creditor in this list is Dr. Dupuy, from whom the paper borrowed $3; the largest creditor is Frank Dusch, from whom they got $395. The total amount of borrowed money is $1,579.06. Schedule D are the out-of-town, creditors, for type, paper, etc., and amount to $2,290.80. There will be a reorganization, it is said, and tomorrow the Pilot will appear as a four page newspaper instead of eight pages as heretofore. The stockholders are very sore. Many of them had expected large dividends from their investments.

A Word to Girls.

Girls, you must remember that to paint, draw, sing, play or dance are all nice accomplishments, but you must also recollect that in the course of human events you may be called upon to fill a sphere you cannot paint eatable loaves of bread, allay thirst by a song, lull a hungry man to sleep with a sonata, no matter how well it is executed, or dance your partner into good humor if his dessert was principally dough. All accomplishments are desirable, but none are more essential than a practical knowledge of household duties; that is one of the essentials in your education that is of primary, not secondary, importance, and no young woman's education is complete without a good training in household duties.

A gentleman seeing so many people going toward the depot, Tuesday evening, asked us if some noted person was expected on the train. The inquirer did not know what a resort the depot is these evenings, and that there is a crowd present most every time the train comes in.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina State Weather Service, for the week ending Saturday, July 27, 1895, are generally favorable. The first of the week was above the normal in temperature, generally cloudy, with rain on five days; the latter part was too cool but clear. There are now very few places, mostly along the southern border, which have not had sufficient rain; on the other hand, in six or seven counties in the northern portion of the Eastern and Central Districts heavy rains have done some damage to crops, especially by flooding of lowlands. The damage, however, covers only limited areas, and hardly lessons the very favorable prospects prevailing nearly everywhere.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

Good rains fell on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday over most of this district. A few correspondents report excessive rain fall, while a few others report it too dry. The rain was mostly in the form of local showers. The temperature has been favorable, though the last two days were a little cooler than normal. Cotton is generally reported to be doing well, but still small; the prospect for cotton has improved very much during the past few weeks. Tobacco growers in this district have had fine success in curing during the week. Sweet potatoes are being marketed. The corn crop will be good nearly everywhere in this portion of the State. Peaches are now plentiful, but the quality of the fruit is generally poor. Watermelons, on the whole are rather poor at this time. Rain fall reported as follows: Mt. Olive, 0.40 inch; Richlands, 1.50 inch; Wilmington, 0.81; Jacksonville, 1.85; Snow Hill, 0.25; Flora College, 0.60; Trenton, 2.20; Nashville, 3.65; Currituck, 4.00; Goldsboro, 0.90; Newbern, 1.85; Lumberton, 0.34; Weldon, 4.19.

A Good Sermon For To-day.

Mr. W. F. Marshall, editor of the Gastonia Gazette, writing of a Sunday spent by the editors in Beaufort, says:

"After services were over a number of the visitors to Beaufort went to see the old cemetery. At the further side they drew near a colored church. The preacher spoke of a land flowing with milk and honey. 'What do you want with the whole earth? You got better clothes than you ever had before. Look at your Sunday clothes you got on to-day. Be satisfied with what the Lord's doing for you. And that ain't all. The land is flowing with milk and honey—all the milk you want at ten cents a quart and honey at ten cents a pound. See what the Lord has done for you. You used to have to raise a hog to get your lard. Now all the people may eat greasy bread when lard is made from cotton seed. Tain't quite as good as old fashioned lard, but there's abundance of it. Quit grumbling. Rejoice before the Lord. Money? Is that what you want? What you want with it? If all the corn was to dry up, if there was to come a drought and dry up all the cotton, and all the corn and wheat and crops, what good would your money do you? You couldn't eat ten dollars if you had it. Trust the Lord. He's doing the best for you He can.' And in a becoming undertone the Morganton Herald said to the Statesville Landmark; 'That's a Democratic nigger; he's preaching good times.' And we all said yes."

Wise Words.

The pin is mightier than the pen.
Handsome is and handsome knows it.
We need sorrow as the flowers need night.
Don't ask a mountaineer's judgment of shell fish.
The poorer the man, the richer his immigration.
Our national anthem is the finest song unsung.
Prosperity makes more fools than adversity does.

"Youth comes but once," but neither does old age.

"Pot call kettle black" and then kettle call pot down.

Be wary in using your influence over yourself, lest you lose your "pull."

Dishonesty is constant in its appeal that Justice be tempered with Mercy.

When a woman knows she is well dressed it is difficult to ruffle her temper.

Most people who cast their bread upon the waters expect it to return to them as pies.

Women ought to learn that matrimony was never intended as a salvation for men.

A Democrat in Clay county, Texas, recently sued a man for calling him a Populist. The jury thought the offense a grave one, and gave him a verdict for $500. There have been heavier penalties imposed for lighter offenses.

Millions of Caterpillars.

Caterpillars are destroying the leaves of all the oak trees in Robeson and Columbus counties. There are millions of the pests. The woods are beginning to look as if scorched by fire. Specimens of the leaves were sent to Raleigh. A few years ago armies of caterpillars in Robeson crossed the tracks of the Carolina Central Railway in such vast numbers as to stop the trains, as they were crushed by the wheels and the tracks were made slippery.

Walks in His Sleep.

The Greensboro Record says there are many curiosities in this world, but the queerest is a man in Greensboro who walks in his sleep. Once or twice he has narrowly missed being killed in his somnambulations and now he has his wife to tie him in bed with a strong rope each night when he goes to bed.

She Got Mad.

Thursday afternoon several ladies of the city were making calls in a certain portion of town, and after entering the home of a friend one of the callers remarked that they were out making "Pop" calls, whereupon the hostess put a wrong construction to the form, and said, "Well, I don't see why you should come here, for my husband is as good a Democrat as yours, so if it is Pop calls you are making, you had better study the politics of your community." When the lady had concluded, she left the room highly indignant, leaving the two callers in a very much embarrassed state.—Concord Standard.
