Generally fair Wednesday.

Homicide in Greene.

Information has reached here of a homicide that occurred in Greene county a few days ago, though particulars are very meager. All that our informant could tell us was that a young man named John Turnage had killed another man who came from up the country to cure tobacco. The way he heard the particulars was that the two men were at a tobacco barn together and had a gun, that one of them was attempting to take the gun from the other when it accidentally discharged killing the up country man.

Bethel Items.

BETHEL, N. C., Aug. 19, 1895
Mr. J. E. Whitehurst lost a fine horse last week.

Mr. M. O. Blount returned from Williamston this morning.

Messrs. W. G. Lamb and son, of Williamston, spent last Wednesday in town.

Rev. E. J. Edwards assisted by Rev. J. A. McKaughn conducted a series of meetings in the Baptist church last week, closing Sunday morning.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Mc. G. Davenport, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving.

Master Andrew Moore, who has been on the sick list the past week is better and able to be out.

The Conetoe and Bethel boys will play a game of ball here to morrow evening.

Mr. James Cherry, of Richmond, Va., is visiting his father, Mr. M. C. S. Cherry.

The temple of success is reared on newspaper columns.

LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS

BY O. L. JOYNER.

The rains last week have seriously damaged tobacco standing on the hill, and yesterday we noticed in several fields tobacco firing up and getting diseased from bottom to top.

Mr. T. R. Hodges, of Beaufort, was up last week with a load of bright tobacco. He says he has cured or will have cured this week thirty-five barns this year. He is satisfied with his cures and says the most of it is very bright. He lost a barn Saturday morning by fire.

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., the largest plug manufacturing establishment in the world, The Drummond Tobacco Co., and the National Cigarette & Tobacco Co., have been in consultation in New York to adopt measures to head off The American Tobacco Co., says the Danville Journal. The war against The American Tobacco Company seems to be waging on all sides. The New Eng. Grocers Association some time ago refused to handle it goods any more and now the New York State Wholesale Grocers Association have joined hands with the New England. The cut throat competition that has been going on between The American Tobacco Co. and the plug manufacturers in the West we are afraid will result in good to no one. Tobacco that a short while ago sold for 30cts by The American Tobacco Co. and a similar brand for the same money by The Drummond Tobacco Co. is now on the markets at 24 and 25 cents. Whenever one drops the other goes him one better and now they are selling their tobacco much below the cost of manufacturing it. What will be the result? They can't continue at this rate very long and if they keep the price as it is at present they will be compelled to get their raw goods cheaper. We hope these matters will be adjusted satisfactorily, and very soon, because there is no health in such spiteful competition as this and as a result of it innocent parties will be made to suffer.

Quinerly Items.

QUINERLY, N. C., July 19th, '95.

Rev. C. W. Howard filled his regular appointment at Salem last Sunday.

Miss Essie Brooks is visiting friends at Maple Cypress.

Messrs. Robert Best and Ed Bonner, of South Creek, spent last Saturday with Dr. Best.

Tobacco was badly damaged by rain last week.

Mrs. George Moore, of Ga., is visiting in this county.

Messrs. Bayard Nunn and Vance Noble, of Lenoir county, spent part of the past week visiting friends and relatives in the city.

Five of Dr. Best's horses ran over a barbed wire fence last Thursday night and were badly cut. One of the best ones will not get well.

The directors of the North Carolina Railroad, at their meeting at Burlington last week released the road to the Southern for a term of 99 years. The Southern is to pay 6½ per cent. for 6 years, and 7 per cent. for 93 years, to keep up the property and to pay all taxes. Only two of the directors, Hon. Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, and F. S. Spruill, of Louisburg, opposed the lease. The action of the directors is being severely criticised.

German Judges do not always clearly consider the difficulties which confront the officers of the law in carrying out their sentences. Lately a criminal convicted of killing two women and attempting the life of a third was twice sentenced to be hanged, one time for each murder, and to fifteen years' imprisonment for the attempt at murder, and what is now puzzling the officers whose duty it is to execute the sentences is whether they will hang the man a couple times and then imprison him, or imprison him for fifteen years and then hang him a couple times.--Wilmington Star.

In a recent lengthy editorial the Washington Post expressed a wish to see the whipping-post re-established "upon a vigorous and permanent basis." The idea is shocking, no doubt, to latter-day humanitarianism but it is sound, through; and through. The whipping-post is one of the greatest conservators of the peace and good order of society that the human mind has ever devised, and we would be delighted to see it re-established in North Carolina upon the basis that the Post suggests: vigorous and permanent. It is not agreeable, perhaps, to be fastened up and given thirty-nine lashes on the bare back but this treatment need not be visited upon any except those who need it, and such as receive it, they do say, never forget it. It was a highly useful institution when we had it, the old whipping-post was.--Charlotte Observer.

Figs and Thistles.

Truth loves to be looked in the face.

The wrong side is never the safe side.

Mothers have taught the world how to pray.

No young man takes his first drink alone.

If you don't kill your besetting sin it will kill you.

By ways leading to hell are very close together in a great city.

Every man who lives right helps to make unwritten laws for the good of others.

There may be as much selfishness in giving something as there is in robbing a bank.

The father should fear to walk where it would not be safe for his children to travel.

Clay Used for Fuel.

A combustible clay is reported to have been found in the suburbs of Baku. When reduced to powder this clay is said to be burnable, giving a bluish flame of great intensity and without the least smoke. Although this new fuel gives much ash, we are told that the working classes of Baku used it with good result all through last winter.

Is a Rabbit a Coward?

Cowardice depends somewhat upon the way things are looked at. The Atlanta Constitution tells a little story illustrating this:

"A rabbit," said the young hunter, "is the most awful coward that there is in the world. My! how he does run from a hunter!"

"So you think the rabbit is a coward, eh?"

"Why, of course."

"Well, let us 'suppose' a little. Suppose you were about six or eight inches tall."

"Well?"

"And had good, strong, swift legs."

"Yes."

"And didn't have any gun, and a great, big fellow came after you, who did have one. What would you do?"

"What should I do? I should streak it like lightning."

"I think you would. And I think, also, that you would have your own ideas as to who was the coward."--Chicago Times-Herald.

Convincing Proof.

There is plenty of evidence already that during the long cold winter months not a single fly got frozen or mislaid.--Somerville Journal

THEATRICALS AT WILLIAMSTON

MR. EDITOR:

Thursday evening, August 15
the age, youth and beauty of Williamston assembled in the spacious and artistic parlors of Col. Wilson G. Lamb to witness a number of tableau scenes that were original and interesting, beautiful and attractive, profitable and inspiring.

All the beauty and poetical inspiration that music, art and sculpture lends to an enchanted eye was presented in pantomimic grandeur. All the sentimentalism of "Idle Lore" the vicissitudes and marvelous development of cupid's art and the "Bliss of a Perfect Wedded Life" were excellently displayed in Dame Nature's vernacular.

The "Four Seasons" with their varied and ever changing hues were presented in living pictures that were indicative of the continued round of happiness, peace and joy and the whole intermingled with dread sorrow.

Nor were the tragedians unconscious that their audience possessed a faculty for the ludicrous, thus they interpolated the exercises with wit and humor to check the progress of a pathetic tear,

and the twentieth century woman was alive and demanded all her rights, while the husband stooped in grace over the washtub in hated animosity.

Miss Della Lamb's rendition of "The Flower Girl" touched the sympathies of the entire audience which gave vent to added applause and called forth again and again the elocutionist who favored them with a comic selection "How Old Mose counted the eggs."

Miss Della displayed great proficiency in that the rarest and noblest of the fine arts.

The comedy, "Error," entitled
"Christian Anthems" was so well rendered that Misses Virginia
and Della Lamb, Miss Moore, Messrs. Haughton and Herrick merit especial mention for their ability in the comedian's art.

This, with a number of vocal and instrumental selections by the male orchestra and "au revoir but not good bye" by those who participated in the performance closed an eventful and long to be remembered evening set apart in honor of Elizabeth City and other visiting friends.

BILL SNEIDER.

An Urgent Landlady.

An aged lady complained to a London magistrate that because she was a little behind with her rent her landlady followed her to church and asked for it there. The landlady came into the pew alongside of her, and when she was joining in the responses was constantly whispering to her about the rent. When it came to the response, "incline our hearts," the landlady would add, "to pay our rent." The magistrate said it was very annoying, but there was nothing illegal in it.

In a letter to the author of a book dealing with the relations between science and religion, thanking him for a copy of his work, Mr. Gladstone expresses gratitude to science for all it has done and is doing, but says that Christianity does not need it, and is as able as it ever was to hold its ground.

More Facilities Needed.

Our attention has been directed back to the communication in Saturday's REFLECTOR relative to more banking facilities being needed in Greenville, and the suggestion advanced that portions of it might be construed as a reflection upon the bank the town already has. In glancing over the communication when it was handed in we caught no such suggestion from it, and we are sure the author had no such spirit or intent in writing it. There is no question that the bank here has been a great help to the town. It has given every encouragement to the tobacco market and is amply able to meet every demand that comes from that quarter. But Greenville is growing, and the town needs and is going to have other enterprises than a tobacco market, and we take it that "X" seeing this and knowing the advantages of banks to a town thought it an opportune time to suggest the establishment of sufficient banking facilities as will meet the requirements of our general business interests and to act as a stimulus to new enterprises.

The Planters Warehouse, Forbes & Moye proprietors wants 1,500,000 pounds of tobacco and say they will have it if high prices will bring it in. They have started the season by shoving prices to the top of the market, and if you want the best averages read their advertisement and act accordingly.

There must be virtue in the Electric Belts that C. J. Rogers is selling. Many of Greenville's best people are using them and still Mr. Rogers remains in town.

On the board fences in the vicinity of nearly every country town may be read in half obliterated letters of paint the names of the business firms of that community, now passed away, who thought they knew a better way to advertise than in the newspapers.—Printers Ink.

It is not a day once in a while that good tobacco sales take place on the Greenville market, but is an every day occurrence. Monday the Planters led off with the largest break and today the Easterns marched in front. Prices are all that the farmers could ask for.
