STATE NEWS.

Record of Matters of General Interest

The railroads will give a rate of one cent per mile to the State Fair.

The first bale of new North Carolina cotton was sold in Anson county on Thursday for 8 cents.

Newbern, Greensboro and Winston fire companies will enter the contest for the $1,000 belt at the Atlanta Exposition.

It is understood that Messrs. Geo. D. Green and Frank W. Barnes, of Wilson, who are big stockholders in the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, will be managers at that resort next season. This will insure that the hotel will be better kept next year than ever before.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Charlotte News says that the widow of Stonewall Jackson will revise and enlarge the life of her husband, and will be published by the Courier Journal Publishing Co., of Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Jackson was no gainer pecuniarily by her first book, which was published by the Harpers, whose mode of selling the book did not make it accessible to the general public, and her friends hope that she will reap a well-deserved harvest through the second edition of her valuable and interesting work.

Marriage Licenses.

During this week Register of Deeds King issued marriage licenses to seven couples, one more than had been issued all together in the three weeks previous. The total number for August was thirteen, six for white couples and seven for colored.

White—W. C. Askew and Bettie Belcher, Lawrence Lanier and Maggie Hyman, G. R. Williamson and Emma E. Philpot, B. M. Whitehurst and Lena Tyson, Frank Carraway and Maggie Rodgers, W. H. Henson and Hannah Jones.

Colored—John Williams and Harriet Whitfield, Henry Duff and Claudia Clark, Lemon Pittman and Germantha James, Thos Webb and Manda Clark, D. I. Whichard and Emily Smith, Alonzo Walters and Nancy Edwards, Bill Moore and Hattie Daniel.

Original Observation.

The profits of gambling all go won way.

If the women want bloomers why let them bloom!

Going the round of the press—the girl who waltzes.

The "new woman" can say "no" just as loud as the old woman.

The poorest time in a man's life is the day he meets the assessor.

It doesn't require any brains to abuse people. Wonder if the crop of evangelist know this?

One of the Republican candidates in Maryland bears the name of Clabaugh. He'll be turned to buttermilk in November by the Democratic churn.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Attend Sunday school and church tomorrow.

The weather bureau has been tolerably correct of late but gave no warning of the storm Friday.

Programme for the Week.

Next week will be full of interest here. The schools all open Monday. County Commissioners meet same day. The Albemarle Presbytery convenes Tuesday night Bryon Grimes Camp of Confederate Veterans have a reunion and picnic Thursday. And there will be good tobacco sales every day. Business men had better start the week with an advertisement in the DAILY REFLECTOR.

Church Services.

Methodist church.—Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. by Rev. G. A. Oglesby.

Episcopal church.—Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

Baptist church.—Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. by Rev. C. M. Billings.

Presbyterian.—Sunday School 9:30 A. M.

Fridays rain did not keep the temperature down. It is up again today.

Commissioners Sale,

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county made at September term, 1889 in a cause therein pending entitled, Laney M. Briley et als versus Martha A. Rouse et als, I will on Tuesday, the 17th day of September, 1895, before the Court House door in Greenville, sell at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, all that certain lot or parcel of land known and designated in the plan of the town of Greenville as lot number four in the old portion of said town, bounded on the north by lot number three, on the east by lot number sixteen, on the south by second street and on the west by Cherry Hill Cemetery, containing one half an acre more or less.

ALEX L. BLOW, Commissioner, Greenville, N. C. August, 15, 1895.

Subscription 25 cents per Month.
Entered as second-class mail matter.
EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

Suppose you could have before you all that the REFLECTOR has said during its career in the interest of Greenville and the advancement of the town. There is no telling how large a volume it would make.

When a copy of the REFLECTOR goes abroad it says something for Greenville and tells what the town is doing. By patronizing the paper to help to advance your town and increase your own business.

In the pacing race at Fleetwood Park, Thursday Robert J. came out first, John R. Gentry, second, Mascot, third and Joe Patchen, fourth. Time of Robert J. 2:04½. These same horses meet again the 12th of September at Louisville.

Hon Octavius Coke, Secretary of State, died at his home in Raleigh Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. He had been very sick for several weeks with typhoid fever and his death was not entirely unexpected. He had long been prominent in North Carolina politics and was a man of considerable ability. As an orator he had few equals and in every campaign Democracy received the full benefit of his services. The whole State sustains an irreparable loss in his death.

Albemarle Presbytery meets at Greenville September 3d. Dr. Eugene Daniel, of the First Presbyterian church, and others from Raleigh will attend. The Greenville REFLECTOR, with commendable enterprise will issue daily during the session. —Raleigh News & Observer.

Which causes us to ask, what is the matter with the News & Observer? Is Joe Daniels so wrapped up over the prospects of having to ride a mule to Mexico, or stay home, as to forget that the REFLECTOR has been appearing daily for nearly nine months?

This is Altogether Too Bad.

A buggo containing a young man and a girl hardly grown passed through town Sunday afternoon at a rapid rate in the direction of South Carolina. Pretty soon two men came in on badly blown horses in hot pursuit.

The pair in the buggy were William Upchurch, a young farmer who lives near Gaffney, S. C., and Miss Laura Carpenter, the 14-year-old daughter of Peter Carpenter, who lives near Myrtle, and they were eloping to South Carolina to be married.

The pursuer's were the girl's brothers. They overtook the lovers near Poor's Ford and it is said, dragged her from the buggy treating her brutally, and tearing her dress off her. They took her back home, and it is reported that one of her brothers gave her a fearful beating.

The brothers swore out a warrant against Upchurch charging him with stealing fruit, and Upchurch has sworn out warrants against them for carrying concealed weapons and to keep the peace.

There is said to be much bad blood over the matter but the lovers have much sympathy. —Rutherford Democrat.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30, 1895.
Boss Quay, in the eyes of republican politicians, began his "second time on earth" when he knocked out his enemies and got a new and strong hold on the republican machine in Pennsylvania. Democrats also, are interested in a way, as it is among the probabilities that Quay's latest demonstration of his ability as a schemer and trickster will cause him to be selected to run the republican national campaign next year.
Ex-Gov. Gulick, of Arizona, who has been spending the summer on the Atlantic Coast, is now in Washington. Speaking of National politics he said: In my judgment the strongest man the Democratic party can have at the head of the ticket is Ex-Secretary William C. Whitney. With such a leader we can carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut beyond a doubt. The first two will be won by democracy this year according to present indications. These three States are still essential to the success of the Democratic party. It is folly, this talk about letting the East go and forming an alliance with the West. It is a snare and a delusion. The South cannot afford to alienate its old time allies for the sake of doubtful coalition with Western commonwealths of populist tendencies. There is nothing to gain by such a combination. The right programme is to stick to New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Here is the battle ground in '96, as it has been in the past, and here the Democracy can conquer.
Hon. Chauncey F. Black, of Pa. President of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, has written a letter to Lawrence Gardner, of this city, Secretary of the Association denying that any attempt was being made, as charged in recent publications, to commit the clubs on the silver question. In that letter he says: "We are all Democrats. Let us stand faithfully by the national platform until a new one is made. I have my opinion on the silver question but I have placed on the Executive Committee of this Association some of the most distinguished advocates of silver in the land, is witness, McMillin, of Tenn., Carr, of N. C.; Clarke, of Mont.; Ankenny, of Minn. and Richards, of Utah. Would any of these gentlemen be there if I were inclined to pack a committee against their views? Not a thought was taken of the silver question when the committee was appointed. We ask the co-operation of all Democrats and all Democratic clubs between the two oceans in support of those universally accepted Democratic principles which are stated in the several articles of our constitution, and as to all else we abide the final determination of the regular nominating National Convention.

It is stated that several farmers from Nebraska will make their homes in North Carolina, and that many others are likely to follow their example.

About Success.

The world measures a man by his success. If he succeeds, he is all right in public estimation, no matter by what means he has attained it. The world has not time to look into the methods by which the success has been attained and whether they be honorable or otherwise.

There are some important lessons to be learned from this fact: foremost of which is that every man should strive for success. Applause follows it. Everybody bows to the winning man. But important as it is to succeed, success ought to be gained only by honorable means. Honesty is the best policy, and the wisest in the end, and a permanent success can only be attained by honorable means. Many a man gains temporary success by dishonest means and flourishes for awhile; but he is found out and his success flits away and is gone.
